NEW YEAR GREETINGS

The previous administration on October 11, 1976 entered into a lease with Arthur Rubloff & Co., agents for the premises at 4004 West 111th Street, consisting of approximately 2720 square feet, which lease expired October 31, 1977. The present rent is $1,360 per month of $16,320 per year plus shopping center maintainance which averages $120 per month or $1,200 per year and utilities which averages $1,050 per month for a projects annual utility cost of $12,600 for a total cost at this location of $30,120 per year for 2,720 sq. ft.

The present administration had decided to explore the possibility of leasing the Atwood School property at 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip, which consists of a land parcel 266' x 583' with a building containing 18,000 sq. ft. These negotiations resulted in the following: The Township will remove itself from the present 2,720 sq. ft. Mini Center on 111th St. (costing $30,120) and move those services to 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip immediately for approximately the same cost, but at a gain of 15,000 sq. ft.

In the Alsip facility, which is almost the exact geographic center of the Township, and served by public transportation, the Township will be more able to meet the needs of our Youth Program, Senior Citizen Program, and all other ancillary services.

It is with great pride that the new Board of Trustees [illegible] demonstrate its high ability to administer your tax dollars and provide expanded services. We are proud to have lowered taxes, improved services and brought a greater public participation in Township Government.

The comparison costs for both buildings are as follows: 4004 West 111th Street, Oak Lawn: Square Footage - 2720; Monthly Rent - $1360; Yearly Extension - $16,320; Monthly Charges - $120; Yearly Extension - $1440; Utilities - yearly - $12,600.

Total Cost of Building - $30,360; cost per square foot - $11.16.

Total Cost of Building - $32,800; cost per square foot - $1.82.

Vogrich challenges village managers appointment of village treasurer

Trustee Joseph Vogrich voiced his discontent at last Tuesday's board meeting over the appointment of the village treasurer lying within the jurisdiction of the village manager. He proposed that this power be taken from the manager and given to the mayor and board of trustees. The motion by Vogrich was brought about due to the fact that Village [illegible] had notified the administration that he was resigning after four years in the part time post.

During discussion Vogrich contended that it is his own personal opinion that the village manager's office is [illegible] too much power [illegible] from the board. He cited as an example the Nixon years when Congress, shirking their own responsibilities, delegated more and more of their duties and decisions to the President. The end result was that the legislative body lost control and no longer knew what the President was doing.

Vogrich said that this same thing is happening with the present board. He said that either because of indifference or wanting the meetings over quickly, the board members themselves are guilty of the same thing.

"When it is the village finances, it is very clear that the village manager is not responsible," Vogrich said, "when something goes wrong we are the ones that take the beat."

Trustee John Hardek, who it seemed was not aware of the treasurer's resignation, said, "I believe we have a trusted good man in Mr Skopec and it should remain the same. We do have ultimate control in that we can always fire the village manager if we don't approve of the way things are handled."

Joseph Vogrich

"I would like to point out," Vogrich said, "that he is resigning because of his lack of rights to have input into the deposits. It was his (Skopecs) own feeling that he served no purpose."

Vogrich told the board that he believed the treasurer should have the right to say in which banks the village monies should be deposited. Vogrich also said that we always talk about doing everything in Oak Lawn and shopping in Oak Lawn and we should put all of our funds, and do any borrowing, from Oak Lawn banks.

The fact that outside banks offer higher interest rates and lower rates on loans was pointed out. Vogrich said the difference is very little.

Trustee Vgorich went on to say that he had nothing personal against the Village Manager Dick O'Neill but that he holds too much power.

"It's getting to the point where the board of trustees is not legislating as it should be," he said, "it's getting silly - we're sitting up here like figureheads while the manager is the one running the village."

Vogrich said that in his opinion the village manager had too much to say in the preparation of the village budget. If this trend continues he would favor abolishing the village management form of government.

(Under the managerial [illegible] department heads submit their estimated budgets to the village manager who, with the advice of the finance director, compiles the estimates into a complete budget. The manager then presents the budget to the village board whose job it is to adjust and approve the budget).

Vogrich told VILLAGE VIEW that this did not take place this year, and that with the exception of a few items they became aware of, the final budget was completely under the control of the village manager.

The Village Attorney, Patrick Lucansky, in giving his opinion on Vogrich's motion, that had been seconded by Trustee Ron Stancik, said that during the Dumke case it was determined that the appointment of the treasurer, and all other department heads, did indeed belong to the village manager.

Vogrich retaliated with the argument that he did not believe the treasurer was a department head but that his [illegible] appointed position.

Lucansky said that it is really not relevant for him. If he is a department head then it is the position that the manager has the appointment power. "If so it is," Lucansky said, "then Vogrich may have a case."

On the vote Trustees Vogrich, Bergamini and Stancik voted to transfer the power of appointment of the treasurer to the president and board of trustees. Trustees Anderson, Cleveland and Hardek voted against. Mayor Ernie Kolb who voted "no" to break the tie vote and defeated the [illegible] the board discuss the matter this week during executive session. (Please see Editorial Page 6)

For the seventh year in a row Sheriff Richard J. Elrod of Cook County visited 15 schools, hospitals, day care centers and other needy places from the first part of December to the night before Christmas. In those weeks Sheriff Elrod distributed some [illegible] that his office could get by a special collection. Shrine Hospital, St Joseph P[illegible] School, Maywood's Hines Parish Suburban Special Education group and others were among recipients of the charity.

Village awarded traffic study grant

A highway safety grant has been awarded the Village of Oak Lawn to fund a Comprehensive Traffic Study. Project director Norman L. Bacon received approval of the project recently from the Illinois Department of Transportation's Division of Traffic Safety.

Rapid development and population growth within and around the Cook County community has contributed to increased traffic safety problems. The traffic study is needed in order to evaluate deficiencies in the existing traffic system and establish priorities for improvement.

Included in the study will be inventories of the village's physical characteristics, traffic control devices, accident history and present traffic demand. The study will be conducted by Midwest Consulting Engineers, Inc.

Total cost of the project will be approximately $93,000; seventy percent of this will be reimbursed to the Village of Oak Lawn upon successful completion of the project. Federal funds for highway safety projects were made available to the State of Illinois under the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966.

SENIOR CITIZENS COUNCIL MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens Council will be held on Monday, January 9, 1978 at 9:30 am at the Multipurpose Senior Center, 5330 West 95th Street.

Park sponsors adult and youth ski trip

The Oak Lawn Park District will be sponsoring several ski trips this winter for teens and adults.

A one day trip for high school age teenagers has been scheduled for Saturday, January 21 to Alpine Valley in East Tropy, Wisconsin. The bus will leave Oak Lawn at 7 am and return about 7 pm after a day of skiing. The $23 fee includes transportation, lift tickets and ski rentals. The registration deadline is January 15.

An overnight trip for high school teens will be held on Friday and Saturday, February 10 and 11 to Devils Head Lodge in Merriman, Wisconsin. The bus will leave at 5 pm on Friday and return about 9 pm on Saturday. The $41.50 fee includes transportation, lodging, lift ticket, ski rental, one lesson, and Saturday's breakfast. The registration deadline is February 3.

A ladies ski trip will be held on Thursday, February 16 to Alpine Valley. The bus will leave at 8:30 am and return at 5 pm. The cost will be $4 for transportation with each lady paying her own fees at Alpine. The ladies' ski fees at Alpine are $6 for a lift ticket and $7 for ski rental.

An adult weekend trip to Rib Mountain in Wausau, Wisconsin will leave Oak Lawn on Friday, February 17 at 6 pm and return on Sunday, February 19 at 10:30 pm. The package includes transportation by motor coach, 2 nights lodging at Holiday Inn, lift tickets for two days and one night, and a shuttle service to Rib Mountain. Meals and ski rentals will cost extra. The fee is $50 per person for four to a room or $60 per person with two to a room. Equipment rental would cost each person an additional $13 for the weekend. Registration deadline is January 15.

Registration for all of the ski trips is open at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 S Kenton. Call 424-7300 for more information.

2nd Annual Chamber Christmas Parade dazzling success

Lou Mirabelli and Merrill Stenbom, co-chairmen, of the Chamber Christmas Parade, announced that in spite of the cold weather and snow the second annual Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade to welcome Santa and Mrs Claus was a huge success and the turnout of parents and children who stood along the parade route, in spite of the severe wintry weather was very pleasant to see and the children were exceedingly happy and joyous watching the floats especially Santa and Mrs Claus.

There were a total of 12 large decorated floats in the parade portraying various Christmas Themes, such as "One Horse Open Sleigh", "The Nativity Scene", Jack In The Box", "Candy Lane Avenue", "The Night Before Christmas", "Happy Holidays", "Toyland Express", "Christmas Eve", "Gift Box", "Ski Hill", "Frosty the Snow Man" and "Santa Claus and Mrs Claus". These floats were sponsored by local businessmen, financial institutions, motels, shopping center, special Events Committee and the Chamber of Commerce, namely, First National Bank of Oak Lawn, Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank, Bank of Hickory Hills, Kopy Kat, Special Events Committee of the Village of Oak Lawn, Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, Suburban News Marketer, Mirabelli Furniture, Holiday Inn, Green Oaks Shopping Center Merchants, Mals Mens Shop, Just Hers Sample Shop, Oak Lawn Office Supply, Baird & Warner, Inc., Madewell Interiors, S&S Stores for Men & Boys, INR Beatty Lumber Co., [illegible] & Sandersen Memorial Chapel, Oak Lawn Auto Dealers Assn.

In addition, there were individual floats sponsored by the Village View Newspaper and Mitchell Plumbing.

Also, the following marching groups participated in the parade: Oak Lawn Park District Baton Twirlers, Brownie Troop 406, 184, Cadet Troop 105, Girl Scout Troop 186, 145, Brownie Troop 3345, Bridgeview Starlite Baton Twirleys, Oak Lawn Fire Department and Oak Lawn Police Department.

The Color Guard Unit of the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post 5220, commanded by Frank B. Sullivan, Commander of Johnson-Phelps VFW 5220 lead the parade.

After the parade the children and parents were invited to have luncheon with Santa and Mrs Claus at the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post 5220. This was sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the post of which Mrs Lorrain Kroz is President and Mrs Ruth Nollinger was chairman of this event.

Approximately 500 children had luncheon with Santa and Mrs Claus and visited with Santa and Mrs Claus.

All in all, the children, parents and we "big kids" had a wonderful and joyous time in spite of the weather and on behalf, of the Chamber of Commerce we extend our heartfelt thanks to all who participated to help make this Christmas Parade such a huge success and look forward to a "Bigger and Better" event next year.

Thanks again for your help in making the children of our community happy and for making life so beautiful.

Seasons Greetings to all.

HLR speakers win awards

H.L. Richards High School senior Kim Pauly of Oak Lawn earned three trophies for the HLR Speech Team in recent tournament competitions, according to an announcement from Speech Team coach Scott Hanawalt.

Kim led the HLR speakers at the Fenton-York Invitational Forensics Tournament on December 6 by capturing a second place award in Prose Reading. One week later, Kim claimed a second place award in Verse Reading and a third place award in Prose Reading at the Oak Park-River Forest High School Tournament.

Other winners for HLR at Oak Park-River Forest included Dan Krc of Oak Lawn, third place in Extemporaneous Speaking, and Holly Maiter of Oak Lawn, third place in Radio Speaking. The HLR Team placed fifth.

CHRISTMAS POTPOURRI AT FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF EVERGREEN

True spirit of Christmas always prevails in great abundance at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. The "Joy to the World" theme is resplendent with Christmas trees of other countries with the cooperation of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Polish American Museum, Balzekas Museum of Lithuanian Culture, Greek American children of the St Nicholas Orthodox Church and the Norwegian National League.

Beverly Unitarian Church produced Mexican Piniatas under the direction of Mamie Staron, Mr & Mrs Popely decorated for Hungary. The Swedish touch was provided by Aina Monquist and Berit Johnson and the tree of the Netherlands was trimmed by Karel Johnson. The creative talents of "Young America" are evident in the Christmas tree decorated by the elementary school children of District 124, Evergreen Park.

Also exhibited are exquisite hand crafted dolls by Renee Turgeon exemplifying U.S., Hawaii, Scotland, England, Japan, France, Spain, and Italy. Members of the Mount Greenwood Art Association introduced a uniquely different idea by decorating their Christmas tree with original mini-oil paintings, palettes and brushes. Religious serenity can be appreciated with a ceramic nativity scene crafted by Evelyn Young. Visitors are greeted, in the bank lobby with musicial strains of an 18th century music box where a new Super Scene Viewer projects Christmas color scenes photographed by Ed Mankus, the bank's Public Relations Director.

The First National Bank of Evergreen Christmas Display will continue through January 7.

Trinity Events

TRINITY INSTALLS ELDERS

Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn will install 3 elders at the 10:30 am worship service, Sunday, January 8. The three new elders are Frank Drabik, Delores Kysilka, and Harold Petersen. Elders serve for three years. There are 9 ruling elders that comprise the session, along with the clerk of the session, Eleanore Sefcik and Pastor Rev Richard Rogers.

Harold Petersen has served as an elder during 1971 to 1974. Mr Petersen is a member of the Mens Fellowship and was the Trinity Softball Team's coach in 1976 and 1977. Harold is also a National Volleyball Official.

Delores Kysilka is a member of the Trinity chorus, and the Womans Society. She also serves on both the Stewardship and Risk Evangelism committees. Mrs Kysilka, a postal service employee, has two daughters, Susan and Vicki.

Frank Drabik, a senior at Bogan High School, is the youngest member ever elected to the session. Frank is a co-leader of the Jr High Group and is a member of both the Mens Fellowship and the Youth Group.

Elders that still serve on the session are Alice Misiorowski, Karen Lochow, Clay Hayes, Alyce Winkler, Alice Gust and LaVerne Orton.

Cubs coming to Richards

Can Rick Rouschel dribble better than he can pitch? Can Bruce Suther pitch a basketball better than a baseball?

Area residents can find the answers to these and other intriguing questions on Sunday, January 29, when players for the Chicago Cubs come to Richards Campus, Oak Lawn, for a basketball exhibit to benefit the high school.

The HLR Student Council, under the direction of sponsor Fred Monk, will sponsor the Cubs' appearance. Proceeds from the benefit basketball game will be used to help support school activities.

The Cubs, who are coached by former Los Angeles Rams defensive end Gregg Schumacher, will also be on hand following the games for an autograph session at which time fans can meet the pros, get their autographs and take pictures.

Game time is 3 pm on Sunday, January 29, in the gymnasium at Richards Campus, 106th & Central. Tickets are priced at $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door and are available through Student Council members, at area elementary schools and at various area businesses.

For ticket information, contact the high school at 499-2550.

Yourell and Kusper to speak on consolidation of elections

Stanley T. Kusper, clerk of Cook County, and Harry "Bus" Yourell, state representative, are the speakers for a meeting on the new Illinois law on consolidation of elections. The session will be held at 8 pm Monday, January 9, Room A121, in the Moraine Valley Community College campus, 10900 S 88th Ave., Palos Hills.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will provide the latest vital and up-to-date information.

Kusper will explain the law and how to implement it. Yourell will discuss the legislative intent.

According to MVCC staff members, the meeting is essential for city and village clerks, election officials of all kinds, school and park board secretaries and all others who are concerned with elections in Illinois.

La Bash to serve as interim youth commissioner

John J. McNamara, Worth Township Trustee and Liaison Officer for the Worth Township Youth Commission, has announced that Bert G. LaBash of Evergreen Park has been appointed to fill an unexpired term of office. The appointment was made at the Regular November 30, 1977 meeting by Joseph J. McCarthy, Worth Township Supervisor, and the Board of Trustees. Mr LaBash will serve as an interim commissioner to fill a vacancy on the Board of Commissioners until 1978 when he will seek reappointment.

Mr LaBash holds an Applied Science degree in Engineering Electronics from DeVry. He is the former owner of Oak Television, Inc., and is currently Purchasing Agent for Iesco, Inc. His military background included such duties as a Radio Relay Technician. He received an Honorable Discharge with the rank of Sergeant.

Mr LaBash says that he is interested in establishing a working relationship among local governments, school boards and special units of government in order to combat juvenile delinquency and to eradicate those conditions which tend to lend themselves to the deterioration of the morals of our youth.

Mr LaBash and his family are long-time residents of Evergreen Park where he and his wife are involved with civic and youth organizations.

ST VINCENT'S HONOR MC NAMARA

An "old timer" and founder was honored by the St Vincent's Hurling Club at their annual dinner dance recently at the Golden Age Restaurant in Oak Lawn.

Tom McNamara, one of the founding officers of the group when it was formed 20 years ago, and a continuing supporter in his role as a dominant Irish radio program broadcaster, was presented with a plaque commemorating the occasion.

New Year heralds higher taxes for Oak Lawn

The high cost of living is the topic of the day and not confined to the Village of Oak Lawn alone. Just for comparison purposes, in 1968 the village approved a $5 million budget to service 50,000 residents. Last week the Oak Lawn Village board approved a $23.5 million budget for 1978 to service approximateiy 63,000 residents. That's class!

In simple figures the tax rate has risen from $1.15 to $1.32 per each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. Sewer rates will raise from $1 to $2 per month and garbage collection will raise from $2.15 to $2.45 per month.

The raise in the tax rate was explained as part being necessary to bring the pension funds up to date as they have not been funded properly for many years. Sewer rates are up to make that department self supporting and garbage rates are up because the scavenger company is raising the rate to the village.

Under discussion on the sewer rate, which had to be approved before passing the budget. Trustee John Hardek said he could not vote for all three raises and suggested that as a compromise a 1¼% reduction on all items in the general corporate fund. Trustee Les Anderson went along with Hardek on this thought.

At this point Trustee Jay Bergamini said he was "perplexed". He said that most of them had covered this at the budget sessions and their passage was instrumental to the success of the budget.

Trustee Joseph Vogrich said that he had agreed to the pension fund and would vote for that as it was necessary to bring it up to a substantial margin. He said that with this raise he believed the timing on the sewer charge was wrong and was adding a further burden on the peopie at this time.

The vote on the sewer charge was 3-3 with Mayor Ernie Kolb breaking the tie.

On the tax budget itself Trustee Vogrich said that the police chief (Gerhardt Hein) had one of the best budgets with the least amount of increases and also provided for six new patrolmen. "All he's getting now is 1 extra policeman for 12 months.

(The budget provides for 2 patrolmen starting in July. Vogrich was trying to point out that the budget cost covered one instead of the six.)

Vogrich then made a motion to amend the budget by eliminating the 5% increase in the police department budget.

The vote was the same as above and the amendment failed.

On the final budget vote Trustee Hardek and Anderson voted "no". Trustee Vogrich votes "yes" as he said, "in good conscience" he could not vote against the entire budget. Vogrich, along with Bergamini, Cleveland and Stancik voted "for" and the 1978 budget was approved.

(Please read Stancik's Views on Fiscal Situation.)

Stancik's views on fiscal situation

After the budget was approved this past Tuesday, Trustee Ron Stancik who has served since May, 1977, said that he wanted to comment at this time on the shouting and many accusations of "fat in the budget" and the general "populistic political rhetoric" that was referred to in a recent newsletter by the trustee from the 1st District (Les Anderson) stating that Mayor Kolb and his party were keeping a campaign promise to raise taxes. Stancik contended in his statement that the raise was necessary because of prior commitments created by earlier board action at individual meetings and must now be paid in many increments.

He commented on the Revenue Sharing Funds that were expended on a prior board for fire equipment.

Stancik said that he wanted to clarify that he was not condeming the many fine projects and services that make us a leader in suburban communities. He was simply establishing the fact that board action which includes many affirmative votes by both the trustees from District 1 and 4 on both the Board of Local Improvements and the Board of Trustees created these debts.

Stancik said the Motor Fuel Tax funds were used to pave streets, build sewers and gutters and to take advantage of some excellent F.A.U.S. projects. "However," Stancik said, "these funds were extended in such a way that it was necessary for our board to take out a $1 million G.O. Bond to meet past, present and future payment dates and to temporarily curtail any new major street projects until our share of future M.F.T. funds can be restored.

About the 1978 budget Stancik said that in the general fund the predominant expense is the salaries of our village employees - some 80%.

Included in this expense is the Paramedic Program - a fine program whose value is immeasurable to this community - if you may recall it was the trustee from the 1st District who was an early advocate of this program - in many other suburban communities the cost of this program is so excessive that it is being discontinued. This same trustee now talks about fat in the 1978 budget.

Other "fat" in the 1978 budget includes proper funding of our pension funds Stancik said. "Remember who had control of BD funds in 1975. 17 firefighters were hired by the Village of Oak Lawn and it is now necessary to provide proper funding in our pension funds for these men and for those retiring in both our police and fire departments. It is imperative to the planned future of this fund that the planned level of principal be attained so that the planned interest may be earned."

"It is politically expedient to put this off again," Stancik said, "but how smart is it to face larger pension deficits in years to come."

Anderson's newsletter said that extra services to the people will hardly be noticeable with the tax raise. Stancik referred to the $106,000 spent on a 80-20% ratio under special assessments, with the resident paying the lower figure, in the 1st District. "Who will have to pay this," Stancik asks.

"It is again puzzling to see the vocal opponents of our budget speak against budget increases year after year, after they have voted for these projects."

Speaking of priorities in this budget Stancik said, "We are hiring a full time professional youth director to provide direction and cohesion to our youth program and also hopefully aid youths in Granview where valid problems have been brought before this board since last may by the trustee from District 1."

"We are hiring two new policemen, starting at mid year and I would refer to requests for police in Granview and to requests for better traffic enforcement by the trustee from the 1st District."

"Two new fire fighters - at mid year," Stancik went on, "The chief feels need for full manpower - with future potential of a new firehouse in the northwest area. This addition makes good sense!"

Stancik spoke of the new state mandated costs of increases in Workmen's Compensation, Unemployment Compensation, care of traffic signals and state highways that are now our responsibility.

"Finally," Stancik said "I feel that the newsletter published, the comments to the press and the opposition shown here tonight is sheer politicial expedience and a lack of responsibility as an elected official."

Lester Andersons comment on the above was that future boards will have to be responsible for the same type of debts created by the present board.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS FROM PARADE & SPECIAL EVENTS COMMISSION

On behalf of the Parade & Special Events Commission for the Village of Oak Lawn, I want to express our sincerest thanks and appreciation for your handling of the publicity for the Testimonial Dinner honoring our former Mayor, Fred M. Dumke.

The dinner can only be described as a huge success. We know that Fred must have been touched to see so many of his friends in attendance. The evening no doubt will be one of Fred's fondest memories.

Thanks again for your publicity help.

HERB HUSKEY

IS THERE A DRUG OR ALCOHOL ABUSE PROBLEM IN THE SOUTHWEST SUBURBS?

Some 862 residents of the eighth legislative district recently scrutinized this question from several perspectives during a special survey conducted by State Representative Herb Huskey. The 374 men and 488 women were polled at various shopping sites in Oak Lawn, Alsip, Palos Heights, Chicago Ridge, Worth, Hometown, Blue Island and Bridgeview on three Saturdays during October by members of Huskey's Youth Advisory Committee. Each was asked 13 questions relating to alcohol and drug abuse in their community.

More than 60% of the respondents felt that both alcohol and drug abuse among teenagers is a serious problem, and they overwhelmingly supported legislation which would raise the legal age for purchasing alcoholic beverages from 19 to 21, (81.1%) and keeping marijuana possession illegal in Illinois (75.3%). Only 497 (57.7%) of those surveyed felt that the present law should be changed so persons convicted of possessing marijuana for the first time could be charged with a misdemeanor rather than felony crime. Twenty-one percent (184 persons) also stated that they have tried marijuana, while a majority of the respondents (63.2% or 545 persons) felt that the use of this substance leads to the use of hard drugs.

In related questions, 619 (71.8%) persons said that all types of smoking should be prohibited in public buildings and in elevators, and restaurants seating more than 30 persons should be required to have separate smoking and non-smoking sections, (77.6% or 669 respondents). Only 40.7% (351) of the respondents indicated that they currently smoke.

A majority of respondents (58.6%) felt that Illinois' current Driving While Intoxicated Law is too loose in terms of enforcement by the courts. Thirty percent said the law is adequate, 2% called it harsh and 8% were without any opinion.

A final question focused on the performance of local schools in preparing children for their future role in society. An above average grade was given by 118 (13.7%) of the respondents, while 274 (31.8%) labeled the preparation adequate. An additional 365 (42.3%) residents said schools were doing poorly in this regard, while 105 persons (12.2%) didn't have an opinion. A disproportionate number of excellent ratings, Huskey noted, came from the Alsip and Palos Heights areas.

"The results of this survey actually have an important impact on the entire southwest suburban area," Huskey explained, "because the number of residents polled in proportion to the total district population was greater than most samples taken for state and national surveys.

"The feelings expressed in this survey will help me not only in formulating corrective legislation, but also to ensure that the views of this district are correctly expressed when these issues come before the House," he said.

"I am very grateful to all of the survey workers and participants who made this project a success."

Geza Petro of Alsip, Chairman of Huskey's Youth Advisory Committee, coordinated the survey. He was assisted by Mr & Mrs Bill Murphy, Harriet Lenz, Marlene Skinner, Harold Wilson, Jack McInery, Charmaine Urban and Kay Busch. Others included Sandy Ruggiero, Mary Lea Swanson, Josephine Magic, Jackie Morrocco, Sherie Petro and Margaret Hack.

I QUIT SMOKING

The social service department of Christ Hospital will offer its 20th I Quit Smoking Clinic beginning Wednesday, January 11 in the Evangelical School of Nursing, 9345 S Kilbourn Avenue, Oak Lawn, from 7 to 8:30 pm.

The clinic will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, January 11, 12 and 13 and on Monday and Tuesday evenings, January 16 and 17.

Advance registration for the clinic is mandatory and may be made by calling 425-8000, ext 1047. A fee of $2 is charged to cover costs.

Dist 126 sees red in June '78

The School Board of District 126 at its regular December meeting, discussed the changes in future School Board Elections caused by the recent Consolidated Elections Law. There will be no change in the April 1978 School Board Election where two board members will be elected and the April 1979 School Board Election where three board members will be elected. According to information received from State Representative Bus Yourell, the change to the new law will occur in November 1979 and thereafter as School Board Elections will be held in November of odd numbered years.

As part of his Financial Report, Supt William Smith reported that operating funds would be exhausted in March 1978. District 126 will then borrow from the Working Cash Fund and then utilize early tax monies to meet May and June expenditures. Dr Smith estimated that the district will be -$500,000 in the red in June 1978.

After considerable discussion on the unemployment compensation question, the school board adopted the reinbursement plan for funding future claims. The cost of unemployment compensation will come out of the Education Fund causing one more drain on that fund. Board Member George Lehman asked the administration to closely monitor personnel practices so as to reduce the future risk of unemployment claims.

The next regular meeting of the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary School Board will be held Wednesday, January 18, 7:30 pm at the Administrative Center. District 126 serves most of Alsip and the south portion of Oak Lawn. School Board President is Clark Alford and School Board Secretary is Henry Kramer.

New hours for Talman

Talman Federal Savings and Loan Association's Oak Lawn and Orland Park branch offices will offer revised hours beginning January 3, according to an announcement by Dimitry Wanda, President.

The Talman Oak Lawn office will expand its Thursday hours until 8 pm and now be open three evenings a week. The new hours at Oak Lawn are: Monday, 9 am to 5 pm; Tuesday, 9 am to 8 pm; Wednesday closed; Thursday, 9 am to 8 pm; Friday, 9 am to 8 pm; and Saturday, 9 am to 1 pm.

Previously closed on Mondays, the Orland Park branch will now be open from 9 am to 8 pm on that day. Additional new hours for the branch are as follows: Tuesday, 9 am to 5 pm; Wednesday, closed; Thursday, 9 am to 5 pm; Friday, 9 am to 8 pm; and Saturday, 9 am to 1 pm. In making the announcement Mr Wanda stated; "We hope that our expansion of hours to three evenings a week at Oak Lawn and our earlier openings at Orland Park will enable us to better serve our customers in the southwest suburbs."

Among the many services offered by the two Talman branches are regular and statement savings accounts, certificate accounts, home mortgage and home improvement loans, as well as check cashing, money orders, travelers checks, and the sale and redemption of United States savings bonds.

Talman Oak Lawn is located in the Ranch Manor Shopping Center on West 111th Street. The Orland Park office is located at the 94th Avenue entrance to the Orland Square Shopping Center.

The technical staff at Oak Dental Laboratory recently reported what appears to be the "world's largest caries". Upon returning to work on December 5th, it was discovered that a probable act of vandalism caused the destruction of Oak Dental Laboratory's 5 foot molar mail box. This 500 pound plaster molar was a locally famous landmark. Upon a "dental checkup" it was diagnosed that an extraction will be necessary. The board of the Oak Dental Laboratory is considering a "new restoration."

The staff of Oak Lab would like to take this opportunity to remind all children that dental caries may happen to them if they fail to need their parents when told to, "brush after every meal". Sculpture Bill von Holst has been commissioned to rebuild the tooth.

RUSSO MEETS WITH STUDENT ADVISORY GROUP

Congressman Marty Russo, pictured above, met with the Student Advisory Group of the Third Congressional District. At that time, the 70 students in attendance discussed with Russo, the pros and cons of the proposed Panama Canal Treaty.

"While the students were fairly evenly split in their feelings over the proposed treaty, their knowledge and interest in the issue was most impressive," indicated Russo.

The students present that day involved themselves in questioning Congressman Russo on his position, as well as in debating each other on the importance of the Canal Treaty. Russo concluded, "I always enjoy discussing issues with students and I hope that we can continue to meet on a regular basis with this group."

NEWS FROM GREATER OL SENIOR CITIZENS

The Greater Oak Lawn Senior Citizens' Club recently held their annual Christmas party of Our Lady of Fatima Knights of Columbus Hall, with 90 members in attendance.

Nell Brown, president, appointed Julia Kolton chairman of the event and she was assisted by Ronnie Rein, Edna Kirchner, Rose Arnold, Sylvia Suding, Wanda Staley, Bernice Conway, Eve Rask and Marie Wagner.

A delicious lunch of turkey and ham with all the trimmings was served, followed by Edward Rask leading the community singing of Christmas carols and dancing to music furnished by Albert Rask. Peter and Virginia Campana played Santa and Mrs Claus who gave many Chrsitmas gifts.

The table centerpieces were an elf sitting on a white and red drum and a cute little Christmas mouse made of walnut shells was presented to everyone.

Under the guidance of Virginia Campana, tour chairman, 54 persons boarded a Skyline bus to visit the Lincoln Park Conservatory Flower Show and then on to view the city's many Christmas decorations.

Dottie Drumm, 17 year old Director of "Drumm Majorettes" and featured twirler at Evergreen Park High School for the past 3½ years, wanted to help alleviate the acute loneliness children feel when they must be away from home at Christmastime.

A full-fledged performer, Dottie's illustrious credentials include: World, Grand National, National and State Titles plus numerous awards. Captain of Brother Rice High School Twirlers, and five years in a World Champion Dance Twirl Corps. Add modeling and acrobatics and an innate love and ability to teach children, you meet the creator of a sparkling lively show to make children happy, specifically those who must spend their Christmas Holidays in a hospital.

Dottie Drumm's original "Twirl A Xmas Spirit" show features three dimunitive "Drumm Majorettes"; six year old Vicki Adamo and Dawn Iversen, and three year old Nicole Manderfeld. Holly Iversen, three years old was enlisted to be Little Miss Santa Claus. Dottie's theme — "These children are bringing the spirit of Christmas from their home into the hearts of the children in the hospital." A great round of applause for the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, whose warm and immediate response in donating Scrooge McDuck Banks, shall surprise and delight the children in pediatrics. The Drumm Majorettes were honored to distribute the unexpected presents to the children at Little Company of Mary on December 20, and Palos Community Hospital on December 21. Thank you First National Bank of Evergreen Park, your Yuletide Spirit and generosity make "Joyful Drumm Beats".

Huskey to hold educational forum

State Representative Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn) will host a district-wide education forum on Monday, January 9 from 7 to 10 pm in the Prairie Junior High School gym, 119th & Kostner.

Robert Leinenger, director of governmental relations for the Illinois Office of Education, will be the keynote speaker. State Rep Gene Hoffman (R-Elmhurst) author of the school aid formula, has also been invited to attend.

Discussions, Huskey says, will focus on state funding, busing programs, vocational and special education curriculums, and proposed federal and state legislation which could alter the current School Code. A question-answer period is also scheduled.

The meeting is open to all eighth district residents. Persons who want to reserve a seat should contact Huskey at 424-5000.

Boblak receives Excellence Award

The Consumer Research Bureau presented the 1977 Excellence Award for Customer Relations to Boblak Realtors of Oak Lawn for their efforts in providing the highest levels of consumer satisfaction.

The bureau was organized in 1964 to perform a service to the house buying public. Each year, hundreds of thousands of survey questionnaires are mailed to recent home purchaseers asking for an evaluation of the services they received from Real Estate Companies and their agents. Boblak Realtors was so highly rated by their clients as to merit this outstanding recognition.

Realtor Frank Boblak is to be congratulated for his continuing outstanding communication between the buyers and the sellers of their properties. Boblak's trademark throughout the entire southwest suburbs is "Where People are More Important Than Property."

Public Hearings

ON REVENUE SHARING

Worth Township Clerk Joan P. Murphy stated today (December 15, 1977) that there will be two Public Hearings held in January for the purpose of hearing applications for Revenue Sharing Grants. The Hearings will be Tuesday, January 17, 1978, at 7 pm and Tuesday, January 31, 1978, at 7 pm at the Worth Township Civic Center, 5831 West 115th Street, Worth.

Written applications must be made and, if possible, submitted to Clerk Murphy five days prior to the Public Hearing. Application forms and Revenue Sharing Allocation Guidelines are available at the Township Office, 5831 West 115th Street, Worth, daily 9 am to 9 pm and Saturday 9 am to noon.

OLCHS Band Parents to hold first meeting

The first meeting of the New Year, for the Oak Lawn Community High School Band Parents Assn will take place on January 12 at 8 pm in the high school. The topics for discussion will be: The 19th Annual Jazz Festival to be held at the school on February 4th, sponsored by the Band Parents Assn, the high school and Lyon and Healy Music Co.; the upcoming Band trip to Florida; and a Rummage Sale. Plans are being made for a paper drive to take place, in conjunction with the Rummage Sale.

The Varsity Band has graciously volunteered to be the monthly entertainment for the meeting. Refreshments will be served, following the meeting. Come on out parents, and support the kids!

A Talman Savings Plan Fits Your Special Needs

At Talman, we know that your savings goals—a home, education, travel, retirement, security—are as unique and as varied as your individual lifestyle. And, just as your reasons for saving are different from everyone else's, your means to save and your requirements from a savings account are different also. So, we are pleased to offer a range of savings plans designed to meet your special needs.

Whether you are just beginning a savings program or are looking for a safe and profitable long-term investment, you'll find just the right type of account at Talman. With a 5¼% regular savings account, for example, you can deposit or withdraw in any amount, at any time. It is a simple, uncomplicated way to begin a savings program, or to accumulate funds for emergencies or short-term goals.

For longer term goals, Talman's four certificate accounts will secure you a higher return on the funds which you can set aside. You can choose from maturities of one to six years at rates from 6½% to 7¾%—considerably higher when interest is left to compound to maturity.* You can further make your Talman account fit your individual needs by choosing from among 19 different types of account ownership.

A savings counselor at any one of Talman's nine locations will be pleased to explain the details of each of these savings plans and take the time to help you choose the individual plan or combination of plans to best suit your needs. And, when you become part of the Talman savings picture, you will receive that care and concern—that special attention to each customer and account—which has always characterized our way of doing business.

Klein Jr. candidate for state representative

Carl L. Klein, Jr., candidate for the Republican nomination for State Representative in the 8th District has filed his petitions for nomination with the Secretary of State in Springfield, Illinois. Klein said that he had filed more than twice the number of signatures required by state law. Klein added that he was extremely pleased with the reception given to his candidacy as evidenced by the number of signatures collected in just 10 days and by the number of volunteer workers which have already come forward. Klein also re-iterated his promise to the voters of the 8th District to only hold one political office at a time, stating that good and efficient representation requires full-time service.

Klein also indicated that his campaign would center on the issues of taxes, jobs, the business climate in the state, the environment and the condition of the Republican Party.

Rotary offering Awards

The Rotary Club of Oak Lawn announced that it is accepting applications for Educational Awards for college and post graduate students to study aboard. The Rotary Foundation will disburse some $10 million to students throughout the world for awards to be used in 1979-80.

The awards provide virtually total financing for a student and covers such costs as tuition, books, transportation, reasonable living expenses and, if necessary, language training.

March 1, 1978, is the deadline for submitting applications for awards to be granted for the academic year, 1979-80. Applications and further information may be obtained from Rotarian Frank J. Boblak, 9632 S Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, IL or by calling 636-3033.

Park offers courses in magic, clowning and skiing

CLASS OFFERED

Dunbaugh, past president of the Society of American Magicians will teach a beginning magic class for the Oak Lawn Park District beginning in January. Dunbaugh, a practising magician for many years, is well known throughout the area for his performances and his ability to teach aspiring magicians. The adult classes for those 15 and older will be held on Monday evenings for 10 weeks beginning January 16 at the Southwest Pool building, 102nd and Major.

This introductory class will basically deal with tricks and illusions which can be done with inexpensive equipment, such as cards, rope or newspaper. All students should bring a deck of cards to the first class. A more advanced class will be offered in the spring if interest in it develops.

PLOWS sponsor IRS course

Do you have a talent for working with numbers? Do you like helping others? If your answer to both questions is yes, The PLOWS Council on Aging is interested in you.

Each year the Internal Revenue Service provides a course in January and February to teach senior men and women to help other senior citizens prepare their income tax forms.

The program known as VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) is beginning its fourth year. Interested men and women who complete the I.R.S. course then volunteer a few hours a week to assist persons requesting assistance with their income tax forms.

If you are interested in becoming a VITA volunteer, please phone PLOWS Council on Aging at 422-6722 or 422-6769. Oak Lawn residents can call the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens Commission 499-0240 to register for the class. Evergreen Park residents can call the Evergreen Park [illegible] of Citizens Services [illegible]. Last year the [illegible] program served over 200 seniors.

This program is available to all interested persons residing in the townships of Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth and Stickney.

CLOWNS COMING TO OAK LAWN

Clowning around will be acceptable behavior in some classes offered by the Oak Lawn Park District beginning in January. The purpose of the classes will be to develop the students into clowns. The Park District's new clown school will begin on Friday, January 20 for 8 weeks at the Southwest Pool building, 102nd and Major. Adults 16 and older are invited to participate.

The instructor of the clown class will be John "Clyde" Murphy who is a professional clown who has entertained throughout the Chicago area at picnics, parties, store promotions and parades.

"I hope that this introductory class will result in the formation of a clown troup in Oak Lawn for those who are seriously interested in clowning," Murphy concluded.

Registration for both of the above classes will begin Wednesday, January 4 at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton. The registration fee is $20. Call 424-7300 for more info.

SKI LESSONS AT VILLA OLIVIA OFFERED

A series of five ski lessons at Villa Olivia Ski Area will be offered by the Oak Lawn Park District again this winter for youths and adults. The series of five weekly lessons including slope fees, lessons, ski rentals and transportation will cost $55 per person.

The adult lessons for those 17 and older will be on Wednesday evenings, beginning January 11. The bus will leave Central Park, 9400 Kenton at 6 pm and return about midnight. The youth lessons for those 10 to 16 years of age will be on Saturday mornings beginning January 14. The bus will leave at 9 am on Saturdays and return about 5 pm.

Ski lessons at Villa Olivia are by the GLM method of instruction. GLM stands for Graduated Length Method and means that students start on short skis and gradually work their way up to full length skis. Each day will include a one hour lesson with the rest of the time devoted to practice skiing.

Registration will begin for Villa Olivia's ski lessons on December 19. Registrations are accepted at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton. Call 424-7300 for more info.

The year of 1977 proved to be an exceptionally good year in the Village of Oak Lawn, even though there was an election in April. Although a new Mayor and two new Trustees were elected, the transition period went smoothly and all are to be commended.

Our main goal is to provide services to the residents of the Village for the least amount of dollars. The services we do provide I feel are excellent. Included in our Budget for the coming year, which was approved in December, we have provided for additional Police Patrolmen, Firefighters and personnel in the Public Works Department. We have also included new equipment. We are not overlooking the fact that the Senior Citizen Commission, including staff, are enjoying the new Senior Citizen Center which was dedicated in 1977. I would like to emphasize, also, that our Youth Commission will be provided with a new Director in 1978, along with additional staff to be employed under the C.E.T.A. program. This will step up services for the youth of Oak Lawn, not only from the new Southwest Highway building, but also the Menard Activity Center. Services provided at the Menard Activity Center will be furnished mainly by the Oak Lawn Park District, and supplemented by the Village of Oak Lawn, with a representative of the Y.M.C.A.

The 1978 Budget should satisfy all departments and will result in the best services we can offer to the people of the Village of Oak Lawn. This is not to say that Oak Lawn does not have problems. We are faced with mandated costs by the State of Illinois, with no reimbursement from the State. As a result, we must pay these mandated costs our of our General Corporate Fund.

In the coming year Oak Lawn will also see a new Chief of Police in that Department because of Chief Gerhard Hein's retirement at the end of 1978. We will also see a move up in promotions within the Police Department, along with the addition of new personnel.

In the coming year this Village will be taking on an additional three pumpers in the Fire Department which will replace outdated equipment that has proven costly to maintain. This has been accomplished through the use of Federal Revenue Sharing. We were able to obtain 1978 equipment at 1977 prices, thus affecting a cost savings to the municipality. In the area of the Fire Department, it should be noted that in fiscal year 1977 a Paramedic service was officially initiated. Personnel costs only for that important service amount to $64,000. When one adds in the additional costs for telemetering equipment, it is easy to see that such services are expensive. We do know, however, that this particular function has saved lives as well as added to the general state of tranquility in a community that knows it's sick will be treated with the most modern methodology available. Also, a new firehouse is contemplated for the western portion of Oak Lawn.

The pay increases for this Village were arrived at on the basis of less than a 5% settlement with the total payroll of this community. That less than 5% settlement amounts to approximately $275,775. We think the employees have understood, because we have made it clear that the revenues of this Village have peaked. Therefore, we must take a conservative position in regard to employee pay increments. For the first time in the history of the Village we settled a three year contract for all departments.

The Budget includes a payment of $80,000 necessitated by a 1967 Sewer Project Improvement which has had insufficient funds appropriated throughout the years. Further, we are addressing the need for making interest payments on Special Assessment projects in the amount of

RUSSELL TO SPEAK AT BOY SCOUT LUNCH

Phil Russell, one of the National Hockey Leagues best defensemen and a member of the Chicago Black Hawks has accepted an invitation to speak at the Timber Trails district annual Boy Scout Luncheon. The purpose of the luncheon is to raise funds in order to maintain local Scouting Programs.

Businessmen from Oak Lawn, Burbank, and Chicago Ridge have attended the luncheon for many years. This year it will take place February 2, 12 noon, at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn.

For a reservation, or for more information, please call Davis Boyd at 422-1717, Bill Hawkinson at 599-6000 or Bob St. John at 425-1060.

VILLAGE VIEW

VILLAGE VIEW has come a long way and we are both happy and proud to announce that we are starting the 5th year of publication.

During our first year we continually asked that you watch the "happy" newspaper grow — and grow it has! From a four page, 8x10, that came out once a month, which we now realize was a brave and bold move, to a tab size with two issues per month.

From the beginning we promised to bring you news of your community, happenings and events. We have tried to keep you abreast of important matters with regards to the Village Administration, the Mayor and Board of Trustees and the activities of your Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce. We believe we have done a good job — we hope that you believe it is excellent.

As publisher and editor of VILLAGE VIEW, I have had the opportunity of meeting many fine people and they have become my friends. These persons have now taken the time to offer "Good Wishes" for the future and "Congratulations" to VILLAGE VIEW as we move into our fifth year. We know that most will be recognized, but more than that, we hope you recognize that they are friends of yours also while working in their various capacities.

Please enjoy our 5th Anniversary Issue of VILLAGE VIEW.

Park to sponsor snow sculpting contest

For the first time this winter, the Oak Lawn Park District will be sponsoring a snow sculpturing contest at Central Park, 9400 Kenton. When weather conditions are suitable, the registered contestants will be called and notified of the time and place of judging.

Prizes will be awarded to the best snow sculptures by category — 13 years old and under, 14 to 18 years old, adults, and families. To register call the Oak Lawn Park District, 424-7300. There is no fee for participation. Only Oak Lawn residents may participate.

Sheriff Elrod to speak in Oak Lawn on Policing Suburbia

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod will be the keynote speaker at a seminar on Policing Suburbia from 9 am to 4 pm January 14 at the Oak Lawn Sheraton, 93rd and Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn.

The Policing Suburbia Seminar will be co-sponsored by the City of Burbank and Moraine Valley College for both appointed and elected public officials.

Discussion topics with prominent speakers in the law enforcement profession will include the drinking age and its effect on teenagers, vandalism, allocation of personnel and other areas vital to improving law enforcement in the suburban Cook County.

Mr. George E. Wiegel, Jr., President of George Washington Savings and Loan Association, 103rd and Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, is happy to announce that Vincent J. Barcelona has joined George Washington Savings as Director of Public Relations.

His many friends will be happy to learn that his retirement was short-lived.

Vince has been in the Savings and Loan business for over 30 years and served the industry in the following capacities: President-Colonial Savings; President-Chicago Area Council of Insured Savings Associations; President - Central Savings and Loan Group; Director - Illinois Savings and Loan League; and Director - Bank for Savings and Loan Associations.

A resident of Oak Lawn for over 15 years, he has been involved in civic and community activities such as: President - Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce; President - Brother Rice High School Dad's Club; President - Oak Lawn Rotary Club; President - South Suburban Serra Club; Treasurer - South Side Real Estate Board; Director; Chicago Area Boy Scouts of America.

Also, fund raising committees for - Timber Trails Boy Scouts, March of Dimes, Cancer Fund, Heart Fund, Community Chest, Radio Free Europe, Senior Citizens of Oak Lawn and Christ Hospital.

He is an active member of St Germaine Parish and serves on the Advisory Board of Catholic Charities of Chicago.

President Wiegel, proud of the fact that George Washington Savings is the only independent locally controlled Savings and Loan in Oak Lawn, invites Vince's many friends to stop in. Parking is easy. Coffee is always on and many valuable free gifts are available when you save during the month of January.

George Washington employees receive awards

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION employees were awarded service pins and tie tacs totaling 83 years of service at their annual Christmas dinner held at the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn.

Emeralds, rubies and diamonds set in 14K yellow and white gold Florentine brooches and tie tacs were presented by George E. Wiegel, Jr., President, in appreciation of faithful and continued service rendered by the personnel.

The association, now in its 89th year and growing is located at 103rd Street and Cicero Avenue, in Oak Lawn.

Despite the bitter cold, more than a hundred people were on hand Monday, January 9, in the Prairie Junior High School, to hear about school problems and possible solutions.

Present to answer questions and to comment on the current state of affairs were Bob Leininger, assistant state superintendent of schools; Representative Gene Hoffman (R); and Reeves Evans, of the Republican staff of the legislature. They were introduced by Representative Herb Huskey (R), who was the host of the meeting.

Leininger said the resource equalizer "is not working", and that an avalanche of "hold harmless" bills is in the legislature. He pointed out that vocational education and bus transportation are not mandated, nevertheless $24 million for the vocational classes is being sought this year, and that $38 million is scheduled for bus transportation.

Leininger said "It's against the law to order bussing". He said the state superintendent's office nevertheless approves integration plans when they include bussing.

Said Hoffman: "You are not going to solve problems of finance by sending your dollars to Springfield. [illegible] suburbs ship out $600 million that they don't get back. The state's liabilities are horrendous. There are many, many outstanding bonds, and they have to be paid, and your dollars go to pay those pension funds. Somebody has to pay."

The superintendent of Blue Island District 130, objected to the use of the term "full funding" saying it was a misnomer. He concluded his remarks by saying the School Problems Commission need not hold public meetings – "They know what the problem is."

There were comments from school personnel representing School Districts 218, 229, 123, 125, 126, and others.

James Brown of Oak Lawn High School, said "Teacher demands are based on the September attendance, not the daily enrollment," and thought that the school aid should recognize that fact, to which Hoffman replied: "If that were so, the schools would not have the motivation to get the kids there the rest of the year."

There was some lively discussion on the proper methods of raising more funds for schools. Rep Hoffman, responding to a question about the state lottery, noted it has been raising less money [illegible] anticipated. It is interesting to note that Hoffman observed that when first proposed, the entire net proceeds were to go to the state's education fund, until it was found that it is illegal to earmark any state funds.

Bit o' Trivia

One disillusioned writer on the state of the waltz in 1876 wrote that it "has become a brisk exercise, a cross between the movement of legs induced by colic and hop-scotch set to music."

Finley investments earn monies for residents

Circuit court Clerk Morgan M. Finley made investments last year that earned $1,650,000 in interest for Cook county residents.

Finley presented a check for that amount to County Comptroller Thomas P. Beck. The funds represented interest earned through the investment program started two years ago by Finley.

Every bank in Chicago and the suburbs was offered an opportunity to participate in the Clerk's investment program.

Funds had to be backed up with securities and receive the top interest available.

To date, more than 80 banks and 20 savings and loans have accepted deposits from Finley's office.

Camping guide now available

The new Illinois Camping Guide "Roughing It" has been produced by the Illinois Office of Tourism, Department of Business and Economic Development.

The Camping Guide is a component of the Office of Tourism marketing program designed to promote travel to and within Illinois and in doing so increase the profits realized by campground owners who represent an important segment of Illinois' travel-related business. In an effort to make the camping guide as comprehensive as possible all campgrounds registered by the Department of Public Health were given the opportunity to complete questionnaires supplied by the Office of Tourism to obtain a free listing in this directory -- those state-operated and private campgrounds who completed the forms were included in the publication.

"Roughing It" is divided into four geographic sections - Northern, Western, Central and Southern Illinois - so travelers can easily select the campground of their choice. Descriptive copy introducing each sector of the state provides a brief overview of the region's attractions. For the first time an alphabetical index has been added so camping facilities may be located by name as well as geographical location. Another new feature is the summary of major lakes and canoe trails.

Copies of this guide may be obtained by calling or writing to Rep Yourell's Oak Lawn office, 422-9300, 4740 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, IL 60453.

GOP to host Comptroller Candidate

Worth Township Regular Republicans will meet on Thursday, January 19 at 8 pm at the Condesa del Mar in Alsip. After the regular business session, a "Special Meeting" will be held at 9 pm to consider recommended amendments to the By-Laws of the Organization.

John W. Castle, DeKalb, candidate for State Comptroller in the March 21 primary election, will be the featured guest speaker. Mr Castle is a graduate of Princeton U and Chicago U Law School. He has served as an Assistant State's Attorney in Cook County, and later became associated with the Chicago law firm of Isham, Lincoln & Beale as trial attorney. John returned to DeKalb County in 1965, where he opened a law office. He later served as City Attorney and Township Attorney for DeKalb and as a Special Assistant Attorney General under Attorney General William Scott.

John served as chairman of the DeKalb County Board until 1976. John was President of the Urban Counties Council of Illinois and is presently Director of the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs, a cabinet post to which he was appointed by Governor Thompson in January, 1977.

Along with John Castle, will be local candidates Robert L. Dunne, 3rd District Congressional Candidate; Frank M. Ozinga, 8th District State Senator; Herbert V. Huskey, 8th District State Representative and endorsed candidate for Worth Township Republican Committeeman.

Further business to be conducted at this, the first, meeting of the New Year will be the election of officers of the Worth Township GOP to serve for 1978.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting. For further information, call Committeeman Ron Larson at 422-3600.

PLOWS appoint two new members to Board of Directors

PLOWS Board President, Paul Huetteman, recently appointed Jim Sherman and Mary Cannon to the Board of Directors of the PLOWS Council on Aging. Mr Sherman was appointed Fund Raising Chairman and Mrs Cannon was appointed Community Education Chairman.

Mr Sherman is presently Executive Assistant to Congressman Marty Russo. He is a resident of Evergreen Park and married with seven children. He received his B.S. at Loyola U and his M.S. at St. Xavier College. He is a former teacher from St. Laurence High School. Mr. Sherman is also president of the St. Xavier Alumni Club and active in several community affairs.

Mrs Cannon is a resident of Evergreen Park and married with two adult children. She have been an active member of the EP League of Women Voters and has served as president from 1972-76. She has also worked under Paul Huetteman as EP Municipal Area Health Director in 1976, and was a member of the EP Municipal Conference Committee. Mrs Cannon is presently a member of a volunteer program at Americana Rehabilitation Center.

PLOWS Council on Aging is a not-for-profit organization that offers services to senior citizens in the townships of Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth, and Stickney.

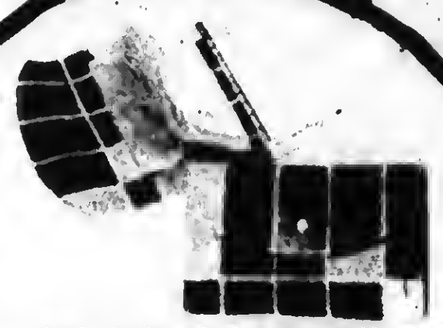
District 218 sponsors adult education

Registrations for Adult and Continuing Education programs sponsored by Community High School District 218 are now being accepted from 8 am to 3:30 pm, Mondays thru Fridays, at the Administration Center, 5933 W 115th Street, Alsip.

Beginning the week of January 30, CHSD 218 will offer adult education classes including high school credit classes, adult basic education and the GED (General Education Development) Review. Participation in these classes may lead to the awarding of an elementary or high school diploma. Classes may also be taken for enrichment or improvement of vocational skills.

The GED Review will be offered at both Eisenhower Campus and Richards Campus, 106th & Central Avenue, Oak Lawn, for a period of 16 weeks. There is a fee of $30. Participants are asked to register at the school at which they plan to attend classes. Evening registration hours have been set from 7 to 9 pm, January 16-19, at Eisenhower Campus and from 7 to 9 pm January 16-18 at Richards Campus.

A special invitation is extended to area senior citizens to participate in any of these classes on a tuition-free basis. To take advantage of this opportunity, senior citizens need only present their Medicare Cards at the time of registration.



For more information about any of these programs, contact George Kimbell, Director, Adult and Continuing Education, at 597-6300, Extension 373.

OL to receive funding aid to purchase ambulance

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, 8th, has recently learned through the Department of Transportation and the Department of Public Health that Oak Lawn will receive funding assistance toward the purchase of a fully equipped ambulance. Funding for the ambulance is provided by the Department of Trnasportation in cooperation with the Department of Public Health.

It might be interesting to note that to date this program has provided assistance (70% Federal, 30% local share) for over 300 ambulances in communities throughout the state and that the funding assistance and the initiative demonstrated by the communities has been instrumental in the quality pre-hospital care now realized in most areas of the state, and in particularly, the Village of Oak Lawn. This is a splendid example of federal, state and local governments working together for the benefit of all.

DO TRAVEL PLANS CONFUSE YOU?

Jim Buschbach

You and your family are planning a vacation. You know what area you'd like to visit. . .you've heard the climate there is marvelous. You want to fly. . .but are confused about fares and flight schedules. You know the kind of accommodations you'd like. . .a family resort, reasonable rates, a swimming pool, good meals. . .but how do you go about finding such a place? You could spend days pouring over brochures, hoping that the rates are current and that you're getting the true picture. You could spend more time placing long-distance phone calls – making reservations and arranging sightseeing tours. Or, you could visit our office.

Specialists in the travel field, we have a thorough knowledge of places to go, how to get there and where to stay. With connections all over the world and up-to-date information on schedules and rates, we can arrange your trip quickly and completely. This is how our office can save you money too. We have information on children's fares, family rates, low-cost tours as we are trained to work within your budget.

We get commissions from the airlines, steamship companies, hotels, motels, car rentals, etc., and our services are therefore free to you. In our next column we will talk more about our services. Watch for it.

METRIC WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

"After school" metric education workshops will be held for school administrators, teachers and parents at Prairie Junior High School, District 126, 119th and Kostner, Alsip on Mondays, February 6, 20 and 27 and Thursday, February 16. The workshops are being presented by the Office of Cook County Schools Supt Richard J. Martwick, with financial assistance from the U.S. Office of Education.

Metrication must be adopted as the instructional system of measurement throughout all phases of public education in Illinois not later than 1980.

For information or to register for the workshops, call 443-3425, or "Metric Workshop", Prairie Junior High School, 371-3080. College credit for workshop participation can be arranged through the Chicago Consortium of Colleges and Universities. The workshops will be taught by Stephanie Evans of the Cook County Superintendent of Schools Office.

Variety of items on District 126 agenda

The School Board of District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, will cover a variety of agenda items at its regular meeting Wednesday, January 18, 7:30 pm at the Administrative Center, 5201 W 115th Street. The meeting is open and the public is welcome, according to Clark Alford, board president.

Agenda items include a review of recent changeover to Travelers from Prudential major medical insurance. Travelers Agent Roy Kerkstra will now service the plan for the 140 district employees. A presentation on individual education programs of Federal Law 94-142 will be made by Lois Schroeder, social worker, and Margie Arthurs, Stony Creek teacher.

The details for the upcoming April 8 election of two school board members will be officially established. Henry Kramer, board secretary, will give a report on the new election law meeting he attended at Moraine Valley College. School board elections will change in November, 1979. according to the new consolidated election law.

Harold Jacobs, architect, will make an energy savings study proposal. Mr Jacobs has been the District 126 architect since 1968 and is proposing a thorough review of all energy aspects of all District 126 buildings with a goal less long range energy use and expenditures. The 1978-79 school calendar will be reviewed and adopted.

Summary of MVCC board meeting

A schedule of regular board meetings for the first four months of 1978 was approved by the Moraine Valley Community trustees at their December 20 meeting. The group will meet at 7 pm in the 200 Building conference room on January 17, February 21, March 21 and April 18. All meetings are open to the public.

The board approved payment of $655,369.31 from the educational fund; $112,431.96 from the building and maintenance fund; $11,545.44 from the site and construction fund; $13,034.09 from the auxiliary enterprise fund and $9,562.12 from the student activity fund.

In other board business procedures were approved for conducting the April 8, 1978 election of trustees. A student grievance policy was presented for a second reading and adopted. In-district MVCC tuition was waived for full-time college employees. A five per cent wage increase was approved for MVCC hourly employees.

Mother McAuley's Freshman Father-Daughter Dance, "Disco Daddy" is to be held Jan. 18, 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. The girls and their very special dates will be dancing to live music by the "Dave Adamonis Band."

Mrs. Pearl Miller will be instructing various dance steps; since this may be the first time the fathers have encountered this "alien" style of dance.

TO HELP YOU

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission is currently attempting to locate odd jobs for young people between the ages of 13 and 19. A large percentage of the community is looking for someone to offer services around their home. The Oak Lawn Youth Commission hopes to offer a solution to the problem by putting young people from your community in contact with those in need of services. In doing so services will be realized and young people will not only keep busy, but obtain a little spending money.

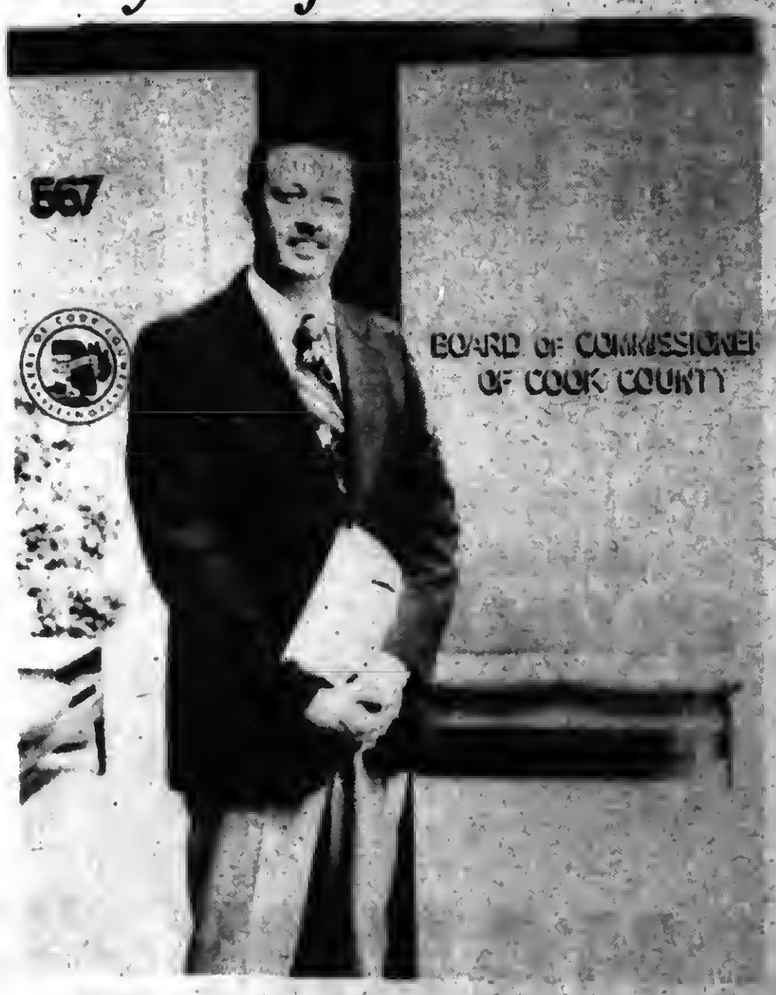
If you would like someone to perform a task around your home, call the Youth Commission at 636-4400, ext 339.

Blood donor month

January has been proclaimed as blood donor month nationally by President Carter and locally by Mayor Bilandic. It has traditionally been so proclaimed to recognize the millions of people who realize the true need for community participation in this life-giving effort.

There are thousands of metropolitan area residents who regularly donate blood, yet there are even more who are eligible and do not. We must all recognize that this vital human resource can only be made available to everyone who needs it through strong support and participation. The total year-round need for blood cannot be set only by donating in the month of January, however. This is the time to recognize the importance and become a regular donor all year.

It is very easy to give blood, most people between the ages of 17 and 66 and in good health are eligible. The two largest organizations who can give you more information on how to become a donor are the Mid-America Regional Red Cross Blood Program and the Chicago Regional Blood Program. There are many organizations within your own community where you as a donor can insure your entire family of receiving blood should they be in a need at a later date.



If you are one of the lucky people who can give this give of life, become involved and give blood this month. By working together in this live-giving cause we can make sure that blood is there when you or anyone needs it.

Network claims highest real estate transactions

Homes for Living Network is an international real estate marketing network comprised of over 1700 affiliated offices in all 50 states, Canada and Puerto Rico. The network consists of over 25,000 realtors. Locally, Frank Boblak Realtors at 9632 Cicero, Oak Lawn, are affiliated with the network.

The data bank survey was initiated to give network members and leadership a better understanding of the nature of their fellow members and an appreciation of the scope of office activities. International headquarters in St Louis hopes that the interpreted summary helps affiliates relate their particular operation to other organizations and the marketing power of the Homes for Living Network as a whole.

Based on surveys received from the nearly 900 members in the network, it was projected that Homes for Living Network members realize more than $10 billion in real estate sales annually.

It was also determined that in terms of total market share, Homes for Living members average 20% of all real estate transactions in their areas. The percentage went as high as 26% for those areas under 25,000 population where a firm had an average of 11 sales associates.

In 1976, the average earnings of sales personnel with one year or more experience with the network was a high $20,347. This is considerably above the national average which was reported at approximately $15,000 for the same year, or, 33% lower.

Other information of interest revealed was the total service aspect which most Homes for Living members provide the home buying and selling public. Included was that 47% were involved in residential construction; 18% with commercial construction; 67% said they offered some property management services; 84% offered residential rental services; 84% can provide appraisals; 71% operate some type of guaranteed trade-in program; and 72% have a coordinator working with industry in its relocation of employees.

In regard to transferee activity, a typical Homes for Living member represented 24% of the total real estate transactions in an average market area. However, this percentage varied widely from as little as 5% or less to as high as 65% in some metropolitan areas. Overall, members in metropolitan or larger markets had an average of 30% of their transactions generated through relocation of employees from one city to another.

Programs and services offered by Homes for Living Network members include the publishing by each member of the monthly Homes for Living magazine, depicting photos, prices and descriptions of homes available in each market area; a program assisting industry transferees and a guaranteed home trade-in program.

BICENTENNIAL II QUIZ

In School District 126 the Bicentennial events haven't ended as the "Bicentennial II" quiz will be held Wednesday, February 1, 7:30 pm at Prairie Junior High School, 119th & Kostner Avenue. The quiz will be on the events of 200 years ago in 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Contestants will be teams from Lane, Stony Creek, Hazelgreen and Oak View Schools, each represented by three sixth grade students. Questions will be asked by Bicentennial Quiz Master Supt William Smith. The contest will closely adhere to the format of the Bicentennial Quiz I held one year ago.

Feel the need to skate?

The Oak Lawn Park District will be freezing natural ice rinks in a number of local parks this winter when the temperature and weather conditions make it possible. The park district operates an indoor ice arena at 9400 S Kenton with 22½ hours of comfortalbe indoor skating, but will also be freezing outdoor rinks for the more hardy skaters in Oak Lawn.

One of the traditional ice skating areas in Oak Lawn is the lagoon at Lake Shore Park, 9610 S East Lake Shore Drive. The ice is checked daily for thickness by the park district staff. A red flag is raised when the ice is unsafe and lowered when the ice is thick enough for skating.

Tennis and basketball courts will be flooded for ice skating at Lawn Manor, Beverly Lawn, Phillips and Harker Parks and the Menard Activity Center. These areas will be flooded when temperatures are predicted to remain under 15 degrees for several days in a row. Due to a limited staff being available, it may take several days to flood all 5 of the skating sites.

The Indoor Ice Arena, 9400 S Kenton will be open thrucut the winter with ice skating at the comfortable temperature of 50 degrees. Each week 22½ hours of open skating are offered during morning, afternoon, and evening hours. The resident fees are 75 cents for children, $1 for teens, and $1.50 for adults for each 1½ to 2 hour session.

Novelty thought finds lost child

This was the method used to bring a 3 year old lost child out of a Palatine Township apartment complex recently on a Saturday morning.

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod credited Sheriff's Police Sgt Clyde Abney with the speedy recovery of Juan Jose Barajas, 3 years old, who lived in an apartment complex in Palatine Township, who was reported missing by his parents.

After involving 10 Cook County Sheriff's Police officers, Northbrook police officers and Forest Preserve Rangers in a door-to-door search for about an hour, Sgt Abney thought of the solution.

He ordered five Sheriff's Police squad cars to turn on their lights and sirens and drive around the apartment complex for about 30 seconds. He requested an interpreter to use the public address system in his squad car to call the child. The child appeared immediately.

Within five minutes, Juan Jose was back in the arms of his worried parents.

Trinity Events

Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn will have many activities in January and February. The Youth Group will journey to Saugatuck, Michigan for a January 13 to 15 retreat. The new members class of Trinity will meet on three consecutive Saturdays, culminating in the Sunday, January 29 reception of new members.

The Adult Christian Education Committee will present two special Bauman films on the Resurrection. "The Event" will be seen Sunday, January 15 and "The Meaning" on Sunday, January 22 - both at 11:45 am.

The Session, consisting of the nine ruling elders, Pastor Rogers and Clerk of the Session Eleanore Sefcik, will meet Monday, January 16 at 7:30 pm. The Women's Association will meet Thursday, January 19, 7:30 pm.

The annual congregational meeting will be held Sunday, January 29 at 11:45 am followed by a lunch and a reception for the new members of Trinity Presbyterian Church. Reports for all committees will be included in the annual meeting according to Clerk of the Session, Eleanore Sefcik.

The Jr. High Group will travel to the Presbyterian Camp at Saugatuck, Mich, for the weekend of February 3-4. Co-leaders of the Jr. High Group are Sue Zuanella and Duane Drabik.

Expositions shows in Chicago area

More than 230,000 people will visit Chicago in January of 1978, according to Frank C. Sain, president, Chicago Convention and Tourism Bureau, Inc. For car enthusiasts, the Speed-Sport-Rod and Custom Show is held thru Jan 15 at the Arlington Park Exposition Center. At the same location, January 19-22 will be held Chicago's Fishing Vacation and Sports Show. From January 27-February 5, the public can attend the 10th Annual Exclusive Camping and Travel Show, also to be held at Arlington Park.

The Transworld Housewares and Variety Exhibit at Expocenter/Chicago and Navy Pier, thru Jan 18. The National Housewares Show is at McCormick Place, January 16-19. Later in the month, January 21-26, the Women's and Children's Spring and Summer Market will be held at the Apparel Center and Expocenter/Chicago. Finally, the Chicago Gift Show meets January 29-February 2 at McCormick Place.

HOSPITAL HONORS DE SANTIS

Tony De Santis, owner and operator of the Martinique and Drury Lane Theatres, and General Chairman of Project '78, the Re-Making of a Hospital, was honored recently by the board of directors of Little Company of Mary Hospital.

To date, over one million dollars has been pledged towards Project '78 by LCM physicians, employees, the women's auxiliary and various other generous benefactors. Project '78 volunteers are now seeking financial support from community businesses and residents.

Big Wheel Benefit Ball

'Galaxy of Stars'

Bob Crosby

Stars, stars and more stars are in the entertainment plans for the "Big Wheel Benefit Ball," March 10 in the Grand Ballroom of the Martinique.

The well known Bob Crosby and his "Bobcats" will provide the dinner and dancing music from 9 to 12 pm. Famous for their "happy" music, the band will play familiar tunes on request and provide new and old dance music. Crosby's "Dixieland Swing," his own style of Dixieland Jazz, will have you in the foot stompin' — ready to swing mood.

The Big Wheel Benefit Ball is for the Garden and Park Lawn Schools and a worthy endeavor for the mentally retarded and handicapped children.

For tickets or information please call 875-7376 or 599-1364. Be a "Big Wheel" just for a night!!

CANDLELIGHT BOWLING PARTY

The PBC (Parents Booster Club) is having its third annual Candlelight Bowling party February 18 at the Arena Lanes, 103rd & Cicero, 8:30 pm to midnight. Tickets are $15 a couple and include a buffet supper. Tickets are limited and can be ordered from Sandra Oiroth or Joan Pearson at Prairie Junior High - 371-3080.

HONOR VFW COMMANDER AND AUXILIARY PRESIDENT

The Johnson Phelps VFW Post 5220 and its Ladies Auxiliary and Junior Girls Unit will have a "Night" to honor State of Illinois VFW Commander Arthur Roth, and State Auxiliary President Eileen Tanner on Saturday, January 14, at 8 pm, at the post hall, 9514 S 52nd Avenue.

There will be a brief ceremony, followed by dancing and refreshments. Representatives of the State VFW and Auxiliary will be present, along with many officers, chairmen, and members of the VFW organizations thruout the state. All veterans of foreign wars are invited to attend.

'Winterthing' at Goodman Theater

The Goodman Children's Theatre, now in its 52nd season, will present "Winterthing," a play for children by Joan Aiken, daughter of poet Conrad Aiken. "Winterthing," directed by Gordon Kupperstein, with sets by Neis Anderson and costumes by Hollis Levy, will play Saturdays and Sundays, January 21 thru March 19.

The final show of the Goodman Children's Theatre season will be a new musical version of "Cinderella," the classic fairy tale of love, magic, and wishes come true.

Performance times and ticket prices for "Winterthing" and for all the children's shows will be Saturday and Sunday, all seats $1.50; Saturday 2:30 pm, General $1.95, Art Institute Members $1.70.

Evergreen Park Chamber ready for 'Presidents Ball'

An open book, containing highlights of the Evergreen Chamber, 1977, represents "that what we could do, we did", a theme which Eugene Lyons, president of Evergreen Savings & Loan and incoming Chamber president, has chosen to guide new programs and leadership for the new Chamber year. Reflecting on a club's history sheds light on what was possible to accomplish and also stimulates thoughts for future programs that are yet to be accomplished. Gene Lyons and a new slate of officers, directors and Chamber advisors will be handed the task of "doing" for the community's betterment at the "President's Ball" Installation and dinner-dance, on Tuesday, January 17th, in the Martiniques Grand Ballroom.

Evergreen Park merchants, residents and guests are invited to attend the Ball to enjoy an evening of fun and fellowship beginning at 7 pm with a social hour; followed by dinner at 8 pm; installation of Chamber officers, directors and advisors; and a special award presentation to the Chamber's 1977 "Citizen of the year". A special feature of the "President's Ball" is the BIG BAND sound of the Melill Bain 16-piece orchestra which will help "ring in" the new slate of Chamber leaders for 1978 and provide delightful dancing music for guests.

Tickets ($15 per person) are available through Jean Blasi, First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, 422-6700. Proceeds from the annual Installation Ball benefit the Chamber's July 4th and Christmas celebrations for the communtiy.

Committee chairman, Jack McGuire, (right) of Menu Mart Foods and Jean Blasi, community relations coordinator of the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, who is taking reservations, are working with Gene Lyons (seated) to assure that all guests at the Ball enjoy an evening of fun and fellowship.

TEACHERS LEARN LIFE SAVING TECHNIQUE

Lt John Rinchich of the Bridgeview Fire Department heips Judy Boi perform the Heimlich maneuver on Marie Lech. The Oak Lawn women are lunchroom supervisors at Dearborn Heights school, and with their counterparts at other schools in Ridgeland District 122, learned to perform the maneuver to help anyone who might choke while eating. The maneuver calls for getting behind the choking victim, forming one fist and ciasping theother hand around it, then pulling sharply against the front of the victim halfway between the naval and the bottom of the breastbone.

Teachers Patricia Dixon and Susan Finn watch Zita Petkevicius learn from Lt Rinchich that she has mastered the basic skills of cardio-pulmonary reauscitation (CPR). He holds the recorded tape produced by the sophisticated dummy on which Miss Petkevicius took the tape test after hours of instruction and practice provided by the firemen as part of the workshop. All the district teachers enrolled in the workshop passed the tape test before they finished the course.

OLCHS Spartanites attend SICA conference

Ten Oak Lawn Comm High School students from the Spartanite staff attended a SICA conference at Governor's State U, where they participated in workshops and contests for the day. The following students were awarded certificates in the contests: Cheryl Beckwith, Honorable Mention, Copy Editing; Michael Kolodziej, feature story, 3rd place; Ed Fabian, 3rd place, photography; 1st place, in-depth news, Doug Maclean.

The Spartanite was also responsible for preparing and presenting a workshop session on feature writing. Several students participated in this, acting out a skit to illustrate the difference between features and straight news. They are: Curt O'Hara, Michael Kolodziej, and Ken O'Neill. The entire staff worked hard in preparation for this day, and should be congratuiated on their achievements. Donna Abbott, Cheryl Beckwith, Sarah Brooks, Vicki Calvert, Laura DeFonzo, Pete Douville, Ed Fabian, Glenn Griffith, Dan Heiting, Maria Karson, Mike Kolodziej, Wade Krause, Bill Lilliwitz, Wayne Macha, Doug Maclean, Dave Niemeyer, Dana Novinson, Curt O'Hara, Ken O'Neill, Karen Opitz, Bob Parker, Lori Paulsen, Donna St. George, Bill Walker, Teri Wiley, and Jane Fox.

NEWS FROM THE OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

FILMS FEATURED AT LIBRARY

The final film in the Alfred Hitchcock festival, "The Man Who Knew Too Much", will be shown January 24 at 7 pm. This 1934 movie starring Peter Lorre and Leslie Banks was Hitchcock's most successful British film and established his critical reputation.

A new film series will start in February featuring Cornell Wilde and Merle Oberon in "A Song to Remember" based on the life of Frederick Chopin on February 21.

There is no admission charge for the films.

FOLK MUSIC PROGRAM

A multi-lingual program of folk music will be presented January 21 at 1 pm in the downstairs meeting room. The program is sponsored by the Children's Department but is open to interested children of all ages.

The guitarist, Frank Niezabitowski, will hold sing-a-longs in such diverse languages as Polish, Russian, Italian and Israeli as well as English and teach some of the songs to the audience. He has been playing the guitar for over 25 years and has performed for schools, churches and senior citizens groups and earlier in his career on the nightclub circuit.

There is no admission charge.

AUTO DEALERS SPONSOR DRUG ABUSE PROGRAM

The Oak Lawn Automobile Dealers Association (OLADA) proudly sponsored a Drug Abuse Program for the Oak Lawn Police Department. The Auto Dealers derived funds from their October new car production. The funds are to be used to purchase films showing the harmful effects drugs have on human beings and are to be shown at seminars conducted by Officer Robert Macke, of the Oak Lawn Police Department.

Funds were realized by each participating dealer's pledge of $1 for every car sold and delivered during the month of October. The entire amount now goes to the Oak Lawn Police Department for their educational drug program. Officer Robert Macke said that the films will be available for showing to youth or parent groups at various schools and organizations throughout the year. He thanked the auto dealers for their concern.

Nova Information Meeting

A Nova University Doctoral Program in Public Administration Information Meeting will be held Thursday, January 26, 7:30 pm, Oak View School, 4625 W 110th Street.

The "External Degree" doctoral program is a three year program, with two day weekend meetings once a month, three one week national workshops in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and one minor and one major dissertation type paper.

Gervis appointed to new post at Talman

Clayton Gervis, Assistant Secretary at Talman Federal Savings and Loan Assn, has become Manager of Talman's South Region Branch offices as well as Manager of the Ranch Manor Branch, according to an announcement by Dimitry Wanda, Talman's President.

Gervais assumes this joint managerial function as a result of Talman's recent regionalization of branch offices. Included in the South Region are the Ranch Manor and Oak Park branches along with the Garfield Ridge facility.

Joining Gervais as Assistant Manager at Ranch Manor will be John Sahr, formerly Assistant Manager at Talman's Fox Valley Branch facility.

Gervais has been with Talman since 1958 and since worked in all major phases of Talman's lending operations. A graduate of Tilden Tech High School, he attended Elmhurst College. Among his community activites are memberships in the Playfield Civic and Improvement Assn and the Salem United Church of Christ in Oak Lawn.

Gervais and his wife Nancy, have two children and live in Crestwood, IL.

Winter programs now open

The Oak Lawn Park District has announced that registration has begun for the winter sessions of pre-school and tiny tots and for the remainder of the winter programs. Skiing registration began December 19. Registrations are accepted at the Park District Office, 9400 S Kenton. Office hours are 8:30 am to 9 pm Monday thru Friday and 8:30 am to 5 pm on Saturday.

Youth classes which will be offered include arts and crafts, baton, ceramics, cheerleading, tap and ballet, guitar, jazz dancing, personal defense, pre-school, sewing, ski lessons, tiny tots, tumbling, special recreation, the pre-teen center and teen center.

The indoor Ice Arena operated by the Park District at 9400 S Kenton, will once again offer figure skating lessons, open skating and rat hockey, as well as ice rentals. A new free program to be offered will be speed skating instruction.

For more information on the Oak Lawn Park District's winter recreation programs call 424-7300.

Federal Revenue Sharing dollars - Entitlement 9 - in the amount of $386,315 is devoted to debt service. This includes payment of the Neenah Brook, West side improvements, the Stony Creek Improvement, and the purchase of the Pine Tree Mobile Home Court, together with other comparable projects. Many comments are made about the Village's concern about those who live on a fixed income. This community has not received enough recognition for the fact that, in effect, it has a senior citizen service project in the Pine Tree Trailer Court that it owns and manages. Through agreement by the Board, there will be no increase in the rent paid by the personnel in that trailer court until 1981. The court itself is composed largely of senior citizens who are living on a fixed income.

The General Corporate Fund is also paying $643,885 on debt service, which again includes a number of principal and interest payments on such projects as the Neenah Brook, Northwest area improvement and resurfacing program in 1974.

The past year resulted in improved street lighting on Southwest Hwy, Kilpatrick Avenue and Pulaski Road, in addition to the old line improvement on 95th Street. Anticipated in the coming year is the completion of the 87th Street project, which also will include modern lighting. Further, we expect to add a new traffic signal at 91st Street and Central Avenue, to assist in the traffic control of a key intersection. These modern improvements are necessary for the maintenance of this community in terms of its overall property values. Such street lighting and traffic signals are also costly in terms of energy use. This year we will expend $115,000 for energy costs only to maintain the streets properly. Like the householder, the Village of Oak Lawn has met with increasing energy costs.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the people of Oak Lawn for electing me to the Office of Mayor. I promise that I will do my utmost to try to do an honest job and be worthy of your confidence.

MVCC offers Human Potentials Course

"Human Potentials has made me stop and think about myself and has helped me point my life in the direction I wanted to go." "Human Potentials has helped me to understand myself, my goals, my values and my direction in life."

"Human Potentials has helped me to do more for myself – things that I usually would put off."

According to Peter Frigo, Moraine Valley Community College's associate dean of guidance and counseling, these comments from persons enrolled in the college's Human Potentials course (PSY 100) at extension centers this past semester are typical. Based on the popularity of the course, he said the college will continue to offer the class in extension centers this spring. Classes start the week of January 30.

"We have seen that this class can help improve a person's self-confidence and can provide direction in his life," Frigo said. "It is an excellent course for the adult returning to school or high school graduates who want to learn more about themselves and others in a positive way."

Extension center classes are scheduled for Eisenhower High School, Reavis High School, Richards High School and Shepard High School. Classes also are scheduled for the MVCC campus.

Human Potentials (PSY 100) is a two-credit college course. Specific registration information is available from the MVCC Admissions and Records Center, 10900 S 88th Ave., Palos Hills, phone 974-4300, ext 263-264.

Last registration days for Hochstadters Scratch Classic

Entries will close on Saturday, January 14, at [illegible] for the 38th annual [illegible]y Hochstadter's 'original' Six-Game Scratch Classic, which is open only to men and women league bowlers who average under 186.

The rich Classic, offering a first prize of $10,000, will open on January 14 in William Spencer's Marina City Bowl.

The 45-day Classic, being bowled over 24 weekends, will end its run on Sunday night, June 25, according to Classic secretary Stephen Johnson, who still is accepting advance reservations for choice dates and squad times.

"We have openings on most squads," said secretary Johnson. "We'll make every effort to place a bowler in the starting field on the day and squad of the bowler's choice."

Squads have been scheduled for 10:30 am, 1, 3:30 and 6:30 pm on both Saturdays and Sundays.

Entry forms also can be obtained by writing or phoning Stephen Johnson, c/o Hochstadter Classic, at Marina City Bowl, 300 N State Street, Chicago, IL 60610. The phone is (312) 527-0747.

In addition to the regular prize list, there also are prizes for special average groups for men and women. Last year, the Classic paid out $65,396.70 in cash prizes. The 1977-field numbered 2862 contestants.

Women's club challenges Barnes position on ERA

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Oak Lawn, in a letter to Representative Jane Barnes, has challenged the Oak Lawn Legislator's position on the Equal Rights Amendment.

Mrs Barnes, in her initial campaign sought and received support on many pro-ERA groups including the Oak Lawn Business and Professional Women's Club. During that session of the General Assembly, ratification of ERA was voted on and passed with Mrs Barnes voting "yes". The measure was subsequently defeated in the Senate. In the following session, the ERA bill died in the House lacking eight votes for passage. One of the "no" votes was Mrs Barnes.

Mrs Barnes stated her "no" vote reflected the will of her constituency. The Business and Professional Womens Club of Oak Lawn refutes this statement and has launched an extensive campaign to acquaint residents of the Eighth District with accurate information concerning ERA.

The letter in part to Representative Barnes read:

"We believe, that those opposed to the Equal Rights Amendment, by disseminating misinformation, misconceptions and distortions have confused the real issue. They have used this confusion to give the impression of resistance to the amendment. When the simple, accurate facts are presented concerning the Equal Rights Amendment, opinions are quickly changed.

"We believe that women are not second class citizens and the time has come to end discrimination which still exists in our laws. We believe the time is now for women to gain the same privileges and freedoms under the law that are presently accorded to men.

"We also take issue with the assumption that to be anti-ERA is to be pro-family. This is an insult to the millions of women who are proud to have the title of mother and homemaker but also favor equality under the law.

"As a woman and a state legislator, you are particularly cognizant of the long and bitter struggle waged to secure the right of women to vote. Now, the struggle must go on to achieve the passage of the law that simply says that equality, under the law, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State on account of sex."

At a recent meeting of the Oak Lawn BPW Club, Dorothea Hoch, Legislative Chairman presented President Genevieve Voytas with the letter and petitions gathered by the organization urging Representative Barnes to vote "yes" when ERA is considered in this session. Similar letters were sent to State Senator Frank Ozinga and State Representative Herbert Huskey who have maintained an anti-ERA stand. Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell has been the only 8th District legislator to consistently support the Equal Rights Amendment.

KEEN TEEN FROM EVERGREEN

Theresa Koris, daughter of Mr & Mrs Ralph A. Koris, of 8843 South Albany has the distinct honor of being finalist in the Miss Illinois National Teen Ager contest representing Evergreen Park. As a student she was Captain of the Evergreen Park High School Twirling Team and featured twirler of the Mustang Band for four years and presently heads her own group known as "Theresa's Gals and Dolls". Theresa has been recognized in the Who's Who's Among American High School Students and holds many state and national titles for twirling and modeling by accumulating an astounding number of 303 trophies and 302 medals. She takes special delight in performing for the PTA, nursing homes, Legion benefits and marching parades. Theresa's sponsor, the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, joins her many friends in wishing this very popular young lady the best of luck and says thank you for setting a fine example, of youthful endeavor, in our community.

Salt shortage could pose slick problem

During Tuesday's board meeting Mayor Ernie Kolb issued a warning to the residents that salt is running low and asked that they drive with great caution.

Kolb said that on January 23, Don Canning, Superintendent of Public Works, notified him that the Diamond Salt Company has been unable to deliver salt because it is unsafe for barges to travel the Illinois River. Canning said that the river is frozen over and barges will be unable to move until there has been 3 or 4 days thaw, then it would be at least three weeks before salt would be received as the Diamond Salt Company has other obligations that would come first. Canning also said that there is only enough salt in the village stock pile for one bad storm.

Mayor Kolb also said that more dollars would have to be put in the budget next year for salt. He said of $40,000 allowed for this year, $30,000 has already been spent. He said another problem is that we don't have facilities to store salt but some future provision should be made.

Trustee Joe Vogrich said that in a case of emergency the village should contact the City of Chicago and borrow salt on an promise to replace it when the village receives their salt. He further suggested that the village contact either the city or the state with the possibility of buying salt from them and in that way they could store it for us. He said it may prove worthwhile for the village to go to either place and pick it up as they always have large stock piles.

In other pertinent matters the board passed an ordinance, proposed by Vogrich, to return the power to appoint the village treasurer to the village board. The motion, after failing the last time around, was re-introduced and was passed by a unanimous vote of the board.

Numerous appointments were made to various commissions and were objected to by Trustees John Hardek and Lester Anderson. Both claimed that they had not received many of the resumes and would not vote on persons they knew nothing about. They also claimed the appointments were politicaly motivated. On several appointments Trustee John Cleveland voted with Hardek and Anderson, making the vote 3 and 3 and Mayor Kolb cast the tie breaking vote to approve his own appointments.

Russo/Derwinski workshop planned

Congressmen Marty Russo and Ed Derwinski will discuss the federal budget process at the all-day workshop, Finding Federal Money, at Moraine Valley College Saturday, February 4.

In addition, workshop participants will have an opportunity to learn where federal funds are and to write a budget proposal and application.

Fee for the workshop, including lunch, is $10.50. Contact the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300, ext 362-363.

New suburban Republican group formed in local counties

A new suburban Republican group, the Northeastern Illinois Republican Council, has been formed to promote the interests of the Republican Party jointly in suburban Cook County and DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will Counties. Elected to co-chair the coordinating group were County Commissioner Carl R. Hansen, Mt Prospect, chairman of the Suburban Republican Organization of Cook County, and George Kangas, Lincolnshire, Republican county chairman for Lake County.

Members of the governing committee of the Council are the county chairmen of Cook County Commissioner Harold L. Tyrrell, DuPage, State Senator James "Pate" Philip; Kane, William H. Wake; McHenry, Albert M. Jourdan; Will, Perry Rudman, plus Hansen and Kangas.

In its meeting the group agreed that its activities will emphasize legislative programs, coordination of Republican party-building efforts in suburbia, improved representation for suburban citizens at all governmental levels and creation of a more clearly defined suburban identity.

The Council will aim immediately at improving communication with Republicans representatives in both the Congress and the Illinois General Assembly. Meetings with local government leaders are also being planned. Some of these programs are already well under way in the Suburban Cook County organization. These will be enlarged upon to achieve improved impact thruout the six-county suburban area.

Huskey in second phase of drug and alcohol abuse program

State Representative Herb Huskey (R., Oak Lawn) is doing a survey of public and private school teachers in the 8th District to decide if there is an alcohol or drug abuse problem among area students.

This survey, Huskey indicated, is the second phase of a special study which he is conducting to determine the extent of alcohol and drug usage in local communities. The project was initiated last October when his Youth Advisory Committee surveyed 862 district residents to get their views on smoking and alcohol related matters.

"More than 60% of those respondents felt that we should be more aware of and concerned about the use of these substances by our young people," Huskey stated. "Now it's equally crucial to have the views of those persons most activeiy involved in the school community, and who see these youngsters in a different set of circumstances.

"When all of the facts are in, we'll have a thorough and comprehensive view of this crucial matter," he said. "I hope that many superintendents, teachers and principals will participate."

Herb Huskey

Survey participants are being asked 9 questions. No personal school identifications are required. Results, Huskey says, will be available in early February. Additional information can be obtained from him at 424-5000.

Vacco ready to start campaigning

Mayor Anthony Vacco of Evergreen Park after being unanimously selected by the Democratic slate-making committee, expressed his thanks to State Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell, of Worth Township, who served as Chairman, Joan Heeg of Lemont, Thomas Charnogorsky of Orland, Larry Petta of Calumet, Jerome Cosentino of Palos, and James Jesk Sr. of Breman.

On December 12 Mayor Vacco filed his petitions in Springfield. Now that the holidays are over he is settling down to the business at hand.

Mayor Anthony Vacco

Vacco believes that his many years in public office on the village level and his first hand knowledge of municipal needs will help him to serve as the people's voice in Springfield.

The Mayor has stated he is aware of problems and conditions that can only be corrected by State Legislation and is looking forward to working diligently to rectify those conditions. At the same time, he will continue to be available to the needs, wants and difficulties of the people as he is now.

Mayor Vacco, who is seeking the help, financial support and encouragement of the people of the eighth district, promises to be honest and sincere in his responsibilities to always do what is in the best interests of the majority.

Mayor Vacco will be challenging incumbent Senator Frank Ozinga (R) for the seat in Springfield.

MAC problems near solution

Through the use of federal funding and cooperation of several agencies in the Oak Lawn area, the youth problems of Grandview appear much closer to a solution.

Several new programs and services for the community have been instituted at the Oak Lawn Park District's Menard Activity Center (MAC), doubling the services provided in the past.

The Park District has hired a full-time maintenance worker who will be on duty on a daily basis to provide clean-up and security during the hours of heaviest utilization. The full-time worker will be supplemented by part-time staff to provide an extremely high level of maintenance to MAC.

The Southwest Y.M.C.A. has assigned an outreach worker to the Grandview area, with an office at the center. By keeping in close contact with the youths who utilize the MAC, the outreach worker will try to identify individual and group problems of the youth in the area and find solutions to the problems.

Another new service is the job development program sponsored by the Oak Lawn Youth Commission. Job counselors working at MAC will provide youths with information and training relevant to finding work.

The Oak Lawn Park District is also continuing the pre-teen and teen drop-in programs. MAC is open for pre-teens on Mon, Tues, Wed, and Fri from 3 to 5 pm and for teens on Wed, Fri and Sat from 7 to 11 pm. The supervised activities include pool, ping pong, air hockey, table games, arts and crafts, and special events.

A variety of instructional recreation programs meet at MAC, including guitar, tap and ballet, square dancing, disco dancing, personal defense, and yoga. Clubs such as the Menard Whirlers, Greater Oak Lawn Senior Citizens, and the Park District Table Tennis Club use MAC on a regular basis for their activities.

FIRST BABY OF 1978 AT LCM

A handsome baby boy named David was the first baby born at Little Company of Mary Hospital in 1978. David was delivered at 9:10 pm, weighed six pounds and is the eighth child of Mr and Mrs Charles Kaucky of Justice, Illinois.

Over 152,000 children have been born at Little Company of Mary since the hospital opened in 1930.

Worth Twsp trustees receive award

The Worth Township Board of Trustees was presented with a special award from the Chicago Ridge Park District as an expression of appreciation for grant funding. In receiving the plaque, Worth Township Supervisor Joseph J. McCarthy stated that the Board of Trustees places great emphasis on the positive use of leisure time and the availability of recreational facilities for the citizens of Worth Township.

Grants to park districts and recreational departments are made possible by Federal Revenue Sharing Funds.

In presenting the plaque to the Worth Township Board of Trustees, Superintendent James Dolan of the Chicago Ridge Park District restated the inscription which thanked the Board of Trustees for distributing the funds to Chicago Ridge's Park District.

Selecting your committeeman

In the March 21, 1978 primary there will be included an important election that should not be overlooked. The race for Worth Township Committeeman, both Republican and Democrat, will be decided during the primary, this office does not return to the ballot in November, 1978.

There are two committeemen elected. Harry "Bus" Yourell is the incumbent Democratic committeeman and is uncontested in this race. Ron Larson is the present Republican committeeman and is stepping down leaving the seat open.

The committeeman receives no compensation whatever. It is a time consuming role and at time a thankless one for the many hours that may be invoived. The greatest honor that may be connected with the position is that the party candidate is chosen by the township precinct captains with whom he has worked closely.

The precinct captains, realizing it is a leadership position, know that the end result of their work can only be as successful as the force that held them together. The leader must be capable of exerting a cohesiveness that unites all of the party members — for the good of the party.

The Republican party has suffered many defeats in the suburbs and it is too late to cry over "spilled milk." It is too late to lay the blame at any one door or discuss what might have been had things been done differently. It is time to gather the pieces together and do whatever is necessary to save the two party system.

It is time to shed the misfits, party splinters, power seekers for power's sake, and concentrate only on making the Republican party whole again.

The new committeeman will have to stand tall, forget playing politics, but be a good politician. Promise nothing to any one person, but keep promises to all; no playing cat and mouse — lay it open and on the table. He must be a person that never felt cheated or abused by the party, never felt plotted against, stepped aside when it was necessary and yet never sat it out during an election.

FREE MOTORCYCLE SAFETY EDUCATION CLASSES

Harry "Bus" Yourell

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell has recently been informed that Northeastern Illinois U has recently completed its initial year of free motorcycle safety education classes for interested Cook County residents. The program, funded by the Illinois Dept of Transportation, trained a total of 859 motorcyclists at 9 sites around the county. The motorcycle rider classes were conducted from March thru November on a no-cost basis for completing students. They will begin again in March, 1978.

The "Motorcycle Rider Course" is a curriculum developed by the Motorcycle Safety Foundation, a not-for-profit organization created by 5 motorcycle manufacturers to improve motorcycle safety. The course includes 11 hours of classroom and 11 hours of on-bike rdiing instruction. The IDOT grant provides insurance coverage, all necessary materials and instructor fees. The training vehicles are loaned by cooperating dealerships who are concerned about motorcycle rider education. Northeastern Illinois University offers an instructor certification course to provide a professionally prepared staff of motorcycle rider educators.

Northeastern's rider education program in Cook County is currently operating with its second grant of $108.814. This year, 1978, there will be a total of $500,000 available for this training in Illinois. Northeastern Illinois U has been instructed to plan a budget of $72,000 for its Cook County training region. This will provide instruction for 900 students.

All of the 1978 Motorcycle Rider Courses will be held at Northeastern Illinois U, 5500 N St Louis, Chicago, IL. Telephone 583-4050, ext 497. Any interested citizen can call that number and have sent to them a schedule of the dates and times of the courses.

If further information is needed, please call Rep Yourell at 422-9300.

VILLAGE VIEW APPRECIATES RECOGNITION

I am most appreciative and impressed with your accurate reporting of my comments regarding the current fiscal situation in the Village of Oak Lawn.

Your personal coverage at our meetings makes your newspaper one in which all details of village government can be made public to our residents. Thank you.

DISTRICT 126 SENDS THANKS

The year of 1977 held many special events for District 126 — all of which were well received and attended by our residents. Thanks to you and your staff for our fine coverage — and best wishes for the New Year.

A FORGOTTEN CHILD

Now is the time for New Year's resolutions. Once again the people of Illinois are haunted by the ghost of New Year's resolutions past.

One meek voice begs for recognition. It is a voice drowned by the clanging of braces, wheelchairs and hopelessness. It is a voice that speaks in simple, innocent syllables, "you have forgotten me." What of your promises Governor Thompson, to the retarded children of Illinois?

On September 30, 1977, you promised to help us; you pledged that every eligible retarded child would be found and helped. My forms have been filled out. I have seen doctors, psychologists, social workers, and representatives from all your agencies. I have taken tests and waited in lines. These people have recommended an Individual Care Grant from the State to meet my special needs in a residential facility. This Grant would assist me in dealing with my handicap. And still I have waited.

You have ignored Public Law 94-142 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, which state I have a right to a special education for the handicapped. You have denied me this right and have kept me waiting.

I am still at home, I need help. Will I be forgotten again?

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

L.B.J. INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

I am pleased to announce that it is time to select another Third District constituent as my congressional intern under the Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Intern Program.

Each member in the House of Reps may hire for a total of two months in any one year additional employee(s) to be known as Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Intern(s).

This is a program that replaced the old congressional intern program in January 1974 and it basically extended the internship program to cover the full calendar year, increased the salary payable to the interns and included certain teachers.

The intern must perform the duties of his or her employment in the Washington, D.C. office. The salary is established at the total gross sum of $1000.for the two-month period payable at the rate of not to exceed $500 per month, an annual appointment figure of $6000. No more than one intern may be employed at any time.

You must be a bona fide student at a college, university, or similar institution of higher learning during the academic year immediately preceding employment.

I wish we had more positions available for interns. They have proven to be wonderful additions to our staff, adding new faces and bringing fresh insights and enthusiasm. They learn from the experience and we certainly learn from them.

To apply, write: Office of Congressman Marty Russo, Federal Building, 230 South Dearborn St., Room 3873, Chicago, IL 60604.

When you apply, write a short letter explaining your interest and include a resume.

NICE THINGS FROM DISTRICT 126 PTA

As Publicity Chairmen of District 126 PTA, we wish to extend our thanks for your fine coverage of our PTA and its activities. Your continued support of our organization and its activities has been a contributing factor in our PTA's success. Through your paper's cooperation, we are able to foster better parent, teacher, and commu[illegible] relations and work toward our goal of providing a qu[illegible] education for our children.

On behalf of the Alsip, Hazelgreen, and Oak Lawn PTA, we extend our sincere thanks for your efforts and wish your paper continued success and prosperity in the New Year.

New program offers protection for CTA riders

Protection of commuters on CTA transportation systems will be heightened with the inception of a new program by Sheriff Richard J. Elrod.

Approximately 1700 Sheriff's Deputies will be issued passes for the CTA to increase greatly the protection of CTA passengers, Sheriff Elrod said.

Final implementation of the program is pending approval of guidelines, which deputies are to follow when taking action pursuant to a violation of CTA rules or the commission of a crime, and the formulation of orders by Acting Supt Michael Spiotto to the Chicago Police Department and by other involved municipalities.

"I am grateful the General Assembly passed the necessary legislation to enable our deputies to become more frequent users of CTA and thus greatly increase the number of law enforcement officers aboard the CTA systems," Sheriff Elrod said.

All deputies, regardless of their assignments as police officers, bailiffs, correctional officers or custodial security officers, will receive passes with their picture for use on CTA. They will be available to protect other riders when a problem occurs.

'Have you hugged your kid today?'

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod reports the distribution of 60,000 "Have You Hugged Your Kid Today?" bumper stickers has generated many favorable letters, but a poem from an Ohio man is one of the more unique.

A poem by J. J. "Tex" Mathews of Columbus, Ohio, was based on a Columbus Star article about the stickers:

"Our Kids"
Here's to "Our Kids" that only
God can give,
For us to love and protect
As long as they live.

And for us to hurt them
God would forbid
By the way, when was the last time
You "Hugged Your Kid."

That is the love and concern
Of Sheriff Richard Elrod,
Because kids are the best things
That are given by God.

Christ Annual Christmas Cotillion

Best wishes for a successful 5th year

with Ramblin' Rose

Have you made many New Year resolutions? Forget about resolving to save ten dollars a week, cleaning your closets every month, losing thirty pounds by the first of August, not losing your temper when the kids track mud on your just-scrubbed floor, reading a good book every week, and so on through all those impossible plans you have gone through for these many years.

Instead, make some happy resolutions that are easy to keep. For instance:

Resolve to try one of the fine restaurants advertised in these pages.

*****

You can save several dollars every month and have a good time doing it if you take your family to the Beacon for a really satisfying meal. The Beacon is a delightful family style restaurant. The freshest of meats and vegetables are prepared in their own kitchen. The portions are generous, and you will eat every morsel. The service is courteous and the prices are moderate at the Beacon.

*****

The ORIENT VIEW at 5617 W 87th Street offers authentic, cantonese foods. An extensive menu is at hand, describing many combinations of the always tasty Oriental dishes, which we have come to know and love.

The Orient View is open daily for lunch and dinner, and also prepares carry out meals, and don't forget, they have American dishes too, if you have an oddball in your family who doesn't eat Chinese.

*****

And their promise of lobster every Wednesday is kept with style and taste for your enjoyment.

The Royal Palace accepts Diners Club, Bank Americard and American Express credit cards. Promise you will not let the month go by without dining at the Royal Palace. It's at 6254 W 111th Street.

*****

To start off the New Year right, have dinner at the HOLIDAY INN, at 4140 W 95th Street. You can select anything you want, from hamburgers to filet mignon, and you will find it prepared to your taste exactly. The large menu offers a variety of the finest and freshest food America has to offer. It is all prepared by wonderful chefs and served attractively in a pleasant atmosphere.

*****

New Year's resolutions can be fun, when you resolve to put GREENE'S WEST on your list of what to do Mondays or Tuesdays. That is when Greene's West serves their famed barbecued ribs and chicken combination for $4.75 and it includes the shrimp saladbar. Of course, Greene's West has super specials on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, too. All delicious, and all bargains. Greene's West is at 8624 W 95th Street.

*****

Resolve not to spend your time in the kitchen when you have guests for dinner. Instead, take them to the GOLDEN AGE, one of Oak Lawn's finest restaurants. The Golden Age dinner specials include on Mondays thru Thursday, fabulous salads and entrees, plus, four drinks, for only $7.70.

The service at the Golden Age cannot be beat, and your guests will have a meal to remember. And, best of all, you can enjoy your own party.

HEAR HANDBELL CHOIR & GLEE CLUB

The Women's Glee Club and Handbell Choir, conducted by Robert Carbaugh, of Chicago's Moody Bible Institute will sing on Sunday, January 29, 7 pm, at the First Church of God, 4600 W 111th Street, Oak Lawn. This will be the group's only appearance in the southwest area and the church is inviting the public to attend this outstanding program. There is no admission fee, but a freewill offering will be received.

THE 'HUSTLE' IS OUT, THE 'BUMP' IS PASSEE

Nowedays the trendsetters trip the light fantastic with the 'Squaredance', and St Gerald Mothers Club is getting on the bandwagon. 'Swinging Sweethearts' is the theme of the upcoming dance February 11, 8:30 pm at 93rd & Central.

To literally lead the bandwagon will be the celebrated Leon Sash and The Midwesterners, with Lee Morgan on vocal. Mr Sash and Company were specially selected and flown to Washington last year to play at the International Visitors Center for the Inaugural Ball. They also were invited to the Chicago Civic Center for the Daley Memorial Tribute. Lee Morgan's fans remember her from the old WLS Saturday Night Barn Dance. A super, sociable, fun evening is guaranteed.

Tickets are $3.50 each. An open bar or set-ups will be available. There will be a limit of table reservations so everyone is encouraged to get their 'squares' rounded up early and call for tickets at 636-8687 or 636-9218.

WOLVERINES CLASSIC JAZZ ORCHESTRA TO PLAY AT FIELD'S

The Wolverines Classic Jazz Orchestra, 14 musicians from Minnesota who have recreated the most exciting music of the jazz age, actually transcribing original jazz recordings note for note, will appear at Field's Supper Club in Oak Lawn thru Sunday, February 5.

The Wolverines, who played at President Carter's inauguration, have developed a repertoire of classic jazz arrangements with the original solos, the shakes and slurs, that made the hot sounds hot during the best of the jazz age from 1917 to 1934.

During their Field's Supper Club engagement, the Wolverines will appear in one hour concerts on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday at 9:30, 11:30 and 1:30 am; and Friday and Saturday at 10 pm, midnight and 2 am. There will be a $2 per person cover charge in effect on Friday and Saturday nights only.

Field's has set Rick "Elvis" Saucedo from February 14-26.

BILL VEECK BOOSTS BIG WHEEL BALL

The Park Lawn and Garden Schools' upcoming Big Wheel Benefit Ball had an added boost recently when Bill Veeck of the Chicago White Sox met with committee members and students of the two schools as pictured (l to r) Mrs Joan Murphy, Worth Township Clerk, Scott Gray, student of Park Lawn, Mr Veeck, Clyde Raymon, student of Garden School and Mr Dennis Spicer of Matchmaker Spicer Realtors in Oak Lawn. Mrs Murphy and Mr Spicer are co-chairpersons of the Big Wheel Entertainment Committee.

During the visit, Mr Veeck placed his stamp of approval on the Big Wheel Ball with its worthwhile purpose of raising funds for the two centers for the mentally retarded.

The big event will take place on March 10 at the Grand Ballroom of the Martinique in Evergreen Park, stated General Chairman Fred M. Dumke of Hancock Engineering Company.

HLR speakers win trophies

Members of the H.L. Richards High School Speech Team claimed three individual trophies in competition on January 7 at Alan B. Shepard High School. As a team, HLR Speakers finished sixth overall.

Leading the HLR Speech Team was Stefanie Theodorou of Oak Lawn who claimed first place honors in Prose Reading. A second place award went to Kim Pauly of Oak Lawn for her performance in the category of Prose Reading. Theresa Kimmey of Oak Lawn earned a third place award in Oratorical Declamation.

Instructor Scott Hanawalt is head coach of the HLR Speech Team.

MVCC touring children's theater

Students of Moraine Valley College are participating in a touring Children's Theatre. The group will be available for performances on Tuesdays and Thursdays starting February 20.

The cast has two productions, The Wheel by Brian Way and In One Basket by Shirley Pugh.

The Wheel is a participatory play for children from kindergarten to third grade. The story line concerns a wheel that makes dreams come true. The children in the audience sit on the floor. They assist the characters in the play by blowing, humming, swaying, etc.

In One Basket is suitable for grades 3 thru 8. The play, which is in a traditional production format, is a collection of folk and fairy tales from all over the world.

Annual Jazz Festival February 4th

All roads will lead to Oak Lawn Community High School as over 100 Illinois high school and junior high school jazz groups meet for the 19th Annual Oak Lawn Jazz Festival on February 4, at 4:45 pm in the Spartan Gym. One of the oldest festivals in the nation originated in 1960 as a stage band contest with 10 schools participating. Now, as one of the major high school jazz festivals in the U.S., the over 100 entries will be competing in 7 categories. The festival is sponsored jointly by OLCHS, Oak Lawn Band Parents Assn., and Lyon-Healy Music Company. Any Illinois high school within 200 miles of Oak Lawn may apply to participate.

One of the highlights of the day's activities will be a concert by the Air Force Jazz Band of the Midwest, led by Captain William McCauley and featuring guest soloist Jack Mouse, drummer and jazz composer.

Nine bands will be selected to play in the evening program beginning at 7:30 pm. Tickets for the evening program are available from the OLCHS Music Dept. (424-5200) and any Lyon-Healy Music Store. Students tickets are $1.25 and adults $1.75. Kenneth T. Kistner, Music Dept. Chairman, serves as chairman for the festival. He will be assisted by Charles Yara and Ms Candy Hildebrandt, staff members of the OLCHS Music Dept.

Business accounting students attend conference

OLCHS business accounting students recently attended the sixth annual Accounting Careers Conference at Illinois U, Circle Campus, sponsored by the Illinois Certified Public Accountants Society. The purpose of the conference is to acquaint high school junior and senior students with all types of accounting careers in the public, industrial, governmental and educational sectors.

Each Chicago area high school was invited to bring interested students to the conference. Mrs Janzow, the school's accounting teacher, accompanied the following Accounting II students who attended: Tomi Alessi, Joe Faurie, Ed Krecioch, Cris Kulig, Lea Whynot.

CAREER GRANDMOTHERS HOLD MEETING

Cubs - faculty - student benefit basketball game

There'll be something to please both basketball and baseball fans alike when the H.L. Richards High School Student Council presents members of the Chicago Cubs in a benefit basketball game.

Cubs players, coached by former Los Angeles Rams defensive end Gregg Schumacher, will pit their skills against teams of faculty and student players in a benefit basketball exhibiton.

The HLR Student Council, under the direction of sponsor Fred Monk, will sponsor the Cubs' appearance. Proceeds from the benefit basketball game will be used to help support school activities.

The Cubs, will also be on hand following the games for an autograph session at which time fans can meet the pros, get their autographs and take pictures.

Game time is 3 pm on Sunday, January 29, in the gymnasium at Richards Campus, 106th & Central. Tickets are priced at $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door and are available through Student Council members, at area elementary schools and at various area businesses.

For ticket information, contact the high school at 499-2550.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR CAR OFF THE "WON'T START" LIST

There is no better insurance that your car will start in any weather than a properly serviced engine.

Have these checks made:

BATTERY. . .Have your service man check the battery with a hydrometer to determine the specific gravity. If the readings are low, have the battery recharged. If the condition appears doubtful test for weak cells. Be sure to remove all corrosion from the battery terminals.

VOLTAGE REGULATOR. . .Make sure the regulator is properly adjusted. An out-of-adjustment regulator may not allow the battery to charge through, or may result in overcharging which will eventually ruin the battery.

Many missing out on SSI

In spite of intensive efforts to locate potential recipients during the past 4 years, social security believes that many people, who could benefit from it, don't know about the supplemental security income (SSI) program, according to Ross Webber, social security district manager.

SSI makes monthly payments to people 65 or older, or blind, or disabled who don't have much income and don't have many resources.

One of the key points, Mrs. Webber continued, is that there is no age limit for a blind or disabled person. Even children can receive SSI payments, although parents' income and resources are considered when deciding if a child under 18, or under 21 if a student, is eligible. Once a child reaches 18, or 21 if a student, he or she is considered an adult and only his or her own income and resources count, Mrs. Webber said.

The maximum Federal monthly SSI payment is $177.80 for an individual and $266.70 for a couple.

There is a limit on what a person can own and still be eligible for SSI payments. But, not everything counts towards this limit, which is $1500 for an individual and $2250 for a couple. A home does not count and neither does a car of reasonable value, nor most household goods.

The important thing, Mrs. Webber stated, is that people who may be eligible for SSI should know about it. People who know of someone who may benefit from SSI should suggest he or she contact social security to learn more about the program. For info call 239-1000.

CHRIST HOSPITAL OFFERS A HYPERTENSION CLASS

The Christ Hospital in-service nursing staff is now offering a class for patients and for community members who have been diagnosed as having hypertension.

There will be an evening class on the first Wednesday of each month from 7 to 8 pm in the Medical Staff Dining Room. Afternoon classes are also held from 2 to 3 pm every Wednesday in room 221 south. The next evening class is scheduled for Wednesday, February 1 at 7 pm.

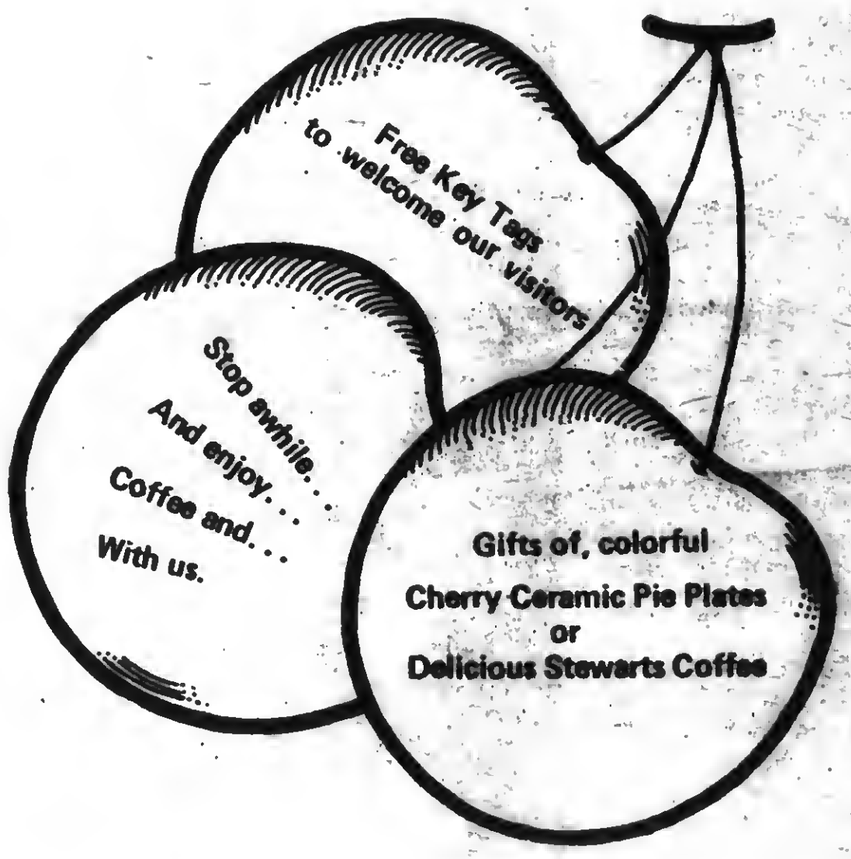
Stop in and visit with us during our week long celebration of . . .

Washington's Birthday

. . . and also our own 89th year



Each year we celebrate George Washington's Birthday and the annual event has become one of special enjoyment for all of us.

George Washington Savings and Loan was founded on May 15, 1889 and we are also 89 years old this year. This happening gives us a two-fold reason for a celebration.

During the week of February 20th, for one week only, we will be offering gifts of Stewarts Coffee and colorful ceramic pie plates decorated with bright red cherries and a cherry pie recipe on the face.

Coffee and. . .will be served thru the entire week and there will be a free key tag for each visitor to George Washington Savings and Loan.

Watch the local papers for further information on our gala event and how you may receive the gifts for opening either a new account or adding to the one you already have.

Officials attend Highland Park youth committee meeting

The many village officials did not let inclement weather postpone the planned trip to review "youth in action" at Highland Park last Tuesday evening.

The urge to visit the north suburban community came about after the village fathers attended the Illinois Municipal League conference in the fall of last year. One of the most interesting panel discussions on the agenda was that of Highland Park Mayor Robert M. Buhai and Youth Coordinator Jon Jackson. After listening to the success of their youth program the Oak Lawn Village officials decided to investigate the operation as one of top priority for the year 1978.

Piling into the bus chartered for the evening were Mayor Ernie Kolb, Village Manager Dick O'Neill, Trustees Jay Bergamini, John Cleveland, Ron Stancik, Village Clerk Jayne Powers and Administrative Assistant John Crois.

Also, Chairman of the Youth Commission Jo Ann Phillips and Youth Commissioners Peg Bilek, Maureen Cimaglia, Monica Gengul, Gail Georgen, Pat Ivers, Bob Klein, Larry Nevel, Ed O'Malley, Susan Schmide and Patricia Simko. Upon arrival at Highland Park the entourage was greeted warmly by Mayor Buhai.

The meeting was very unique in compariaon to what Oak Lawners would refer to as a business meeting - Mayor Buhai referred to it as "unstructured". He made emphasis of this many times, he said that our youths are structured from the day they are born and this was the one thing they did not want or need any more.

He explained that the Youth Committee is entirely on their own and responsible only to themselves. The make-up of the committee consists of a youth Coordinator Jon Jackson, hired by Highland Park five years ago. Under him now is a staff comprised of six members, three of whom are paid thru the youth budget and three with CETA funds. The staff members are very young people, seemingly just out of school, with some train-

'Lady is Great for '78'

Milt Andersen, who is now Past President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce as he turns the gavel over to the Chamber's first lady President, Betty Gallo.

Milt Andersen, out-going President spoke to the many listeners of the pleasure it has been while serving in '77. He thanked all the chamber members for the cooperation he had received. He then turned the gavel over to Ms Gallo, commenting that this was a "first" for a past president.

The "first lady" said that she intended working very hard during her reign but that it takes everyone working together to further the success of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce. She also asked for full cooperation.

The good relationship that has been enjoyed between the officials of the Village of Oak Lawn and the Chamber was quite evident during guest recognition. Almost the entire administration from Mayor Ernie Kolb on down, including department heads, officials of the Police and Fire Departments and many employees attended the function to greet "First Lady Great for '78", the theme set for the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

Other officers installed for 1978 were: Lou Mirabelli, 1st Vice President; Barbara Kozlarek, 2nd Vice President; Jack Baulos, Treasurer; Sal Crivellone, Secretary; and John Pieler, Executive Director.

Directors installed for two years were: James Buschbach, LeRoy Corradino, Joseph English, Otto Janke, Mary Lotz, Mary Muir, Joseph McCarthy, Vina O'Malley, John Schimanski, Merrill Stenbom, Gene Swanson and Louis Witry.

Voters registration

The Village Hall is open for voter's registration Monday thru Friday, 8:30 am to 5 pm now thru February 20. Tuesday, February 21, 1978 has been designated as Precinct Registration Day, from 8 am to 9 pm. This is the final day of registration prior to the Primary.

Worth Township spelling bee

John J. McNamara, Liaison Officer for the Worth Township Youth Commission, has announced that the schedule for the Worth Township Spelling Bee has been declared by the Youth Commissioners. Officiating as Spelling Master of the event to be held February 17 will be Rochelle Hatton. She will be assisted by Joseph Rademacher who will serve as Timer for the event. The Spelling Bee will be held at Oak View School, 110th & Knox.

According to Youth Commissioner Lenon Wisdom, contestants should report to the library at Oak View School at 7:15 pm. They will be briefed by Spelling Master Hatton and introduced to the judges and officials of the Spelling Bee by Dr William Smith, School Superintendent, who will also introduce the panel of judges.

Fifth and Sixth grade contestants will compete at 7:30 pm. Seventh and Eighth graders are scheduled to begin competition at approximately 9 pm. Six trophies for the First, Second and Third place contestants in each section will be presented by Commissioner Wisdom and Trustee McNamara.

Acting as judges for the event are Virginia Schwartz, Chairman of the English Department at Evergreen Park High School; Tom Reiter, Oak Lawn High School; and Glen Ambler from School District 218.

Three firefighters promoted

Chief Elmore Harker of the Oak Lawn Fire Department announces the promotion of three Firefighters to the rank of Fire Engineer.

Lou Mirabelli, Chairman of the Board of Fire and Police Commission, participated in the presentation of the new Fire Engineer badges at the Headquarters Station, 4401 West 103rd Street. The promotions are effective February 1, 1978.

Educators legislative coffee

Area educators, administrators, school board members and PTA officers and members will attend an Educator Legislative Coffee, Saturday, March 4, 10 am, Gaddis School, 93rd and Keeler. The state senators and representatives from the 8th, 9th, 27th and 28th Districts have been invited to the Legislative Coffee.

Each legislator will briefly report on the coming legislative session and the probable impacts on education. The principle part of the meeting will be devoted to statements and questions from the audience, according to Dr Smith, superintendent of School District 126.

Louise Kountz, PTA District 34 director, urges all those interested to attend the Legislative Coffee. "It costs nothing and all are welcome [illegible] this informational m[illegible]" said Mrs Kountz. Summary of MVCC board meeting

A review of official board policy was initiated at the meeting of the board of trustees of Moraine Valley Community College at its regular meeting on Jan. 17. The group plans to devote a portion of each meeting to systematic review and updating.

In regular business, the board approved expenditure of $854,828.76 from the educational fund; $122,447.65 from the building and maintenance fund; $85 from the site and construction fund; $58,339.11 from the auxiliary enterprise fund and $44,253.03 from the student activity fund.

The bid for a Ford stake truck was awarded to the low bidder Ed Carey Ford for $6,784. Gerlock Printers was awarded the bid for printing the 1978-79 college catalog for $15,600. Bids were awarded to four firms for welding equipment: Barton Welding, Mid West Welding, H.K. Miller and Quinn Welding.

The next board meeting is at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 20, in the 200 Building, 10900 S. 88th Ave., Palos Hills.

The dates for the 1978 session of Summer Camp for Diabetic Children, sponsored by the American Diabetes Assn are July 9-30.

As in the past years, 100 children - 50 boys and 50 girls, ages 8 thru 13, and insulin dependent, will be selected to attend this camp. Selections are made on a first-come, first-serve basis. For applications call or write the association office, 620 N Michigan Ave, Chicago 60611, 943-8668 to be placed on the mailing list. Applications will be mailed the beginning of March.

The Summer Camp teaches diabetic children to function independently of their parents. Classes are held, under the supervision of the medical staff, teaching these children to give their own shots and manage their diet. They are also encouraged to learn about their own limitations thereby developing to their fuliest capacity.

The Camp is located at Holiday Home on the shores of Williams Bay, Wisconsin. Surrounding the entire [illegible] are woods with trails [illegible] hiking, recreational facilities and nature studies and there is a special beachfront area for swimming and boating.

We at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park are pleased with our 1977 annual report. Assets are well over 227 million dollars. Growth is over 23 million dollars in 1977 alone . . . and that's in keeping with our growth over the past 28 years. We appreciate the confidence placed in us by our many friends, neighbors, and community organizations. We will try our best to be worthy of that trust by continuing to practice sound and conservative banking. Our officers and employees are committed to providing complete service for all your banking needs. Our bank facilities offer maximum security, and our interest earning rates are the highest allowed by law with all accounts insured to $40,000.00 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Thank you for your support in 1977. We look forward to continuing to serve the families, businesses, churches, schools and organizations in our banking community during 1978.

$30,000 DONATION TO LCM

The First National Bank of Evergreen Park has generously donated $30,000 to Project '78, the Re-Making of Little Company of Mary Hospital.

According to Mr Ozinga, "Little Comapny of Mary Hospital has served with dedication and concern the medical and nursing needs of local residents since 1930. The board of directors of the First National Bank has authorized this contribution because they recognize the important role that the hospital plays in our community. In order to maintain the highest quality health care in the years ahead, I urge other business leaders and residents to generously support Little Company of Mary in this important capital fund drive." To date, over $1,300,000.00 has been pledged and received towards Project '78.

FORMER OAK LAWN SENIOR CITIZEN COMMISSIONERS HONORED

Tuesday, January 24th at the Village of Oak Lawn Board of Trustees Meeting, Mayor Ernest F. Huskey to host special all-taxes information meeting

A special tax information meeting will be hosted by State Representative Herb Huskey (R-8) on Monday, February 27 from 7 to 9 pm at the Prairie Junior High School gymnasium, 11910 S Kostner, Alsip.

The program, "Illinois Taxes: Facts and Forms," will feature information about all taxes currently levied in the state. However, Huskey indicated that special consideration will be given to local property tax structures, the state income tax, circuit breaker, homestead exemption, and senior and disabled citizens property tax relief. A question-answer period is also planned.

Scheduled speakers include James Gulley, tax consultant, Illinois Dept of Revenue; Fred Spriet, chief, Office of Financial Affairs, Illinois Dept of Local Government Affairs; and Steve Selcke, revenue analyst, House Republican committee staff.

"These experts can provide some very helpful information to taxpayers as they begin to prepare their 1977 tax returns," Huskey said.

"In addition, senior citizens will also be able to get the complete picture on all current tax relief measures available to them," he said. "I urge all eighth district residents to attend this timely and important meeting."

Persons wishing to reserve a seat for the tax seminar should contact Huskey's district office, 424-5000, by February 24.

While reservations are not required, Huskey indicated that they would help to ensure ample seating. There is no attendance fee for this event.

VIVID ARTISTRY OF PETER VOLAY EXHIBITED AT FIRST NATIONAL

The rare talents of local artist Peter Volay, 3532 W 83rd Street, can be currently seen, throughout the month of February, at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. He uses a special technique to achieve a unique bas-relief effect that is unusually striking. His favorite subjects are Victorian Homes and religious treatments. The very large and colorful detailed pictures require up to 60 hours of meticulous work to complete. Mr Volay enjoys exhibiting his works in numerous galleries and art fairs. Above all he takes pride that his retirement years are still productive and provide visual pleasure for others to appreciate.

Ronald Crane slated for Judge of the Circuit Court

Ronald J. Crane, Associate Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, has been slated by the Democratic Party of Cook County as a suburban candidate for the office of Judge of the Circuit Court. His name will appear on the March 21st suburban Democratic primary ballot. He does not have opposition in the Primary.

Judge Crane is a graduate of Northwestern U and Law School. He has been Police Magistrate of the City of Harvey, Magistrate and Associate Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County for over 15 years. Prior to his serving on the bench, he was actively engaged locally in the practice of law.

He has served as President of the South Suburban Assn, President of the Cook County Magistrates Assn, President of the Associate Judges Assn of Cook County, and Vice President and Director of the Illinois Judges Assn. He is a graduate of the National College of the State Judiciary located at Nevada U. Since 1974 he has served as a member of the Illinois Judicial Conference Associate Judge Seminar Coordinating Committee - an educational conference of all Illinois Judges required by the Illinois Constitution.

Ronald J. Crane

He is a director of the South Suburban Council on Alcoholism, a member of the Cook County Sheriff's Citizens Advisory Board, a member of the Flossmoor Community Church, and the Lions Club.

Anti-bribery legislation introduced by Larson

Subsequent to recent disclosures by the Chicago "Sun Times" and the Better Government Association uncovering instances of bribery and official misconduct in the City of Chicago government, Cook County Commissioner, Ronald R. Larson, recently introduced "preventative" legislation before the Cook County Board asking that every Cook County employee be served with a copy of the Illinois Revised "Criminal" Statutes pertaining to bribery, attempted bribery and official misconduct.

Each of the County employees will also be informed of the criminal penalties imposed for conviction of these crimes.

Larson stated, "I believe that this action will serve to put each and every one of our County employees on notice in regard to the seriousness of bribery and official misconduct. For example, many County employees may not realize that they have an obligation to report even an instance of attempted bribery to the Cook County State's Attorney.

It is my hope that this action will help our Cook County State's Attorney in the future prosecution of any employee guilty of official misconduct. It certainly will not leave the opening for any employee to plead ignorance of his or her legal obligations.

We, as County legislators, must take a hard-cord approach to convince our public employees that we can and will not tolerate misuse and violation of the public's trust".

Commissioner Larson's legistlation passed the County Board by a unanimous 15-0 vote.

Joseph L. Bailey, Worth Township Collector, was sworn in to begin his official term on January 5, 1978.

Collector Bailey has served as Interim Collector to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Robert C. Maier from that office when he was elected as Trustee in Worth Township's election last April. Although other officials assumed the duties of their respective offices, Statutory provisions do not allow that either the Assessor or Collector be sworn in until January 1st following the April election.

The statutory duties of the Township Collector include collecting taxes and distributing to local taxing bodies; however, the Illinois Supreme Court restricted such activity in 1970. This court order emanates from adjudication processes involving Flynn versus Kucharski which mandates that property taxes in Cook County are to be collected by the Cook County Collector.

Collector Bailey lists his civic associations as membership in the Cook County Township Officials Association, Worth Township Auditor's Association. In addition, while Worth Township Auditor, he served as Liaison Officer to the Youth Service Bureau and the Youth Commission and the Senior Citizens Council. He has also served the PLOWS Council on Aging.

Further, Collector Bailey was recently elected by his colleagues to serve as First Vice-President of the Collector's Division of the Township Officials of Illinois.

Scott endorses Huskey

State Representative Herb Huskey (R) has received the endorsement of Illinois Attorney General Bill Scott in his bid for re-election to the General Assembly.

"Herb Huskey is my friend and he is a good legislator who is needed back in Springfield," Scott said recently.

"For example, Herb understands the need for taking action to preserve our environment," he explained. "Herb knows that the atomic waste which is being dumped 90 miles outside of Chicago is a serious threat to future generations, and he is willing to take positive steps that will prevent this disaster from happening.

Illinois Attorney General Bill Scott (l), a strong proponent of environmental protection, endorses incumbent State Representative Herb Huskey.

"Herb Huskey and I are both South side boys," Scott continued, "and, over the years, I have seen him do many good, needed things for the people of his district.

"He cares about their welfare, and he has never been either evasive or negligent about representing their concerns," he noted. "The constituents of the 8th legislative district and people throughout Illinois need Herb Huskey in the General Assembly."

Huskey has also been endorsed for a third term in the Illinois House by the Regular Worth Township Republican Organization.

Klein announces campaign members

CARL L. KLEIN, JR., endorsed candidate by the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization for state representative in the Eighth District has announced positions within his campaign organization. Klein's campaign manager is Charles Meloun, Vice President of the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization and a long time resident of Oak Lawn.

Klein's co-ordinator for Worth Township is William Fullerton, Financial Secretary of the Worth Township Regular Republican Org and a member of school board for district 128. Publicity director is Russell Trennert, former Vice Director of the Illinois Young Republicans.

Treasurer is Wayne Schaack, Midwest zone controller for a major Chicago-based retail chain, and a newcomer to politics. Blue Island area co-ordinator is Charles Wagner, Vice President of the Worth Township Regular Republican Org. Oak Lawn area co-ordinator is 'Whitey' Mason, and Oak Lawn Republican area leader and long-time Republican precinct captain. Co-coordinator for Oak Lawn is Steve Rosenbaum, Republican precinct captain and candidate for President of the Worth Township Young Republican Club.

Co-coordinators for the Chicago Ridge area are Lynn Koloff, a secretary and a newcomer to politics, and Mark Waszak, a salesman, with experience in Worth Republican politics. Further campaign positions will be announced shortly.

Candidates endorsed by the GOP in the Eighth District are now: Senator Frank Ozinga for State Senator; Representative Herbert Huskey and Carl L. Klein, Jr. for State Representative.

Faitz warns of roof snow dangers

E. Karl Faitz, Director of Building and Zoning of the Village of Oak Lawn, has warned that accumulated snow on roofs could cause structural damage to the roof structures and to buildings. Mr Faitz stated that lower pitched roofs and flat roofs are particularly vulnerable to the heavy increased weight of accumulated snow which continues to lie upon the roof surfaces. These loads could damage the roof rafters supporting the roof and in extreme cases could cause the collapse of the roof.

Therefore, property owners within the Village of Oak Lawn should check their roofs for an accumulation of snow. During the thaw periods, a careful watch should be made of the downspout or water drainage facilities from the roof surfaces to avert possible blockage and cause a backup of water on the roof. This in turn could result in roof loading far in excess than loading for which the roof was designed.

Projects to improve local traffic flow

According to a news release by State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell a contract was awarded in the 8th Legislative District for a structure carrying the Wabash RR and Norfolk and Western RR over Harlem Avenue at 111th Street in Worth.

Also, on November 18 the Department of Transportation awarded a contract to improve the intersection at Southwest Highway, 103rd Street in the Village of Chicago Ridge. The amount of the improvement is in the amount of $259,112.72.

These improvements when completed will provide a safe and efficient highway facility in Chicago Ridge. This, along with the structure in Worth will improve the flow of transportation in surrounding areas.

If you have any questions regarding this improvement you can contact the construction engineer, Mr Alex Jordan at 884-4221, or Rep Yourell, 422-9300.

Youths on the móve

The Highland Park Youth Committee had come far in three years and had made their presence felt thru the entire community. Being used to doing things for themselves, and so far having been able to devise ways and means, the members wanted a spot of their own for an activity center and proceeded to do something about it.

There was an old, and rather distinguished looking, unused two story brick fire house in town. The property beneath it had been sold and it was going to be torn down.

The Youth Commiittee was told they could have the building if it could be moved to a different site. The moving and the renovation they found would cost $175,000.

The Park District rented them a spot in Sunset Park at $1.00 a year for 99 years. The city appropriated $55,000 to cover the cost of moving the building, only after receiving a commitment from the Youth Committee that they would raise the remaining $120,000 themselves for the renovation and furnishings.

If you have read the article on the front page of VILLAGE VIEW you will realize that this is the youth drop-in center visited by Oak Lawn officials this past week.

What started as their Bicentennial Project in 1976, the Youth Committee raised $31,000 in that year and as of last week have raised $75,000. The second floor of the building is completed to the furnishings and carpeting. This is where the meetings are now held.

The question was raised as to how the money was earned. The one answer was, "Anything that was legal". They held concerts, had benefit dinners, car washes, a direct mailing campaign, sold papers and made $5000 alone on having the Chicago Bears come out to play a basketball game. They asked for and received good publicity from the newspapers.

Although the Mayor of Highland Park, Robert Buhai, gave all of the credit to the youth coordinator Jon Jackson, the committee and the youths, he appeared to have a fine understanding of the young people himself. He said that they had no intention of the building being used for anything but the meetings and a sort of drop-in center. They would have some games, television, etc, on the first floor that could be used for short periods of time. The Mayor explained that this would deter one group from perhaps taking over the building and closing out the others in different age brackets. Most of their activities are planned for other areas, or field trips, skiing trips, barbecues, etc, which "decentralizes" the youth as he calls it, and makes many things available to all.

Jon Jackson said that the local newspapers (of which there are 3 weeklies) have a regular column and print the coming events.

Jackson also told about a HYRE program which they have put into effect. The youths who want to earn money, and sign up for the program, are on call for odd jobs from anything to washing windows to baby sitting for $2.00 per hour. This is handled thru a coupon system that was not quite clear to this humble writer but that it enjoyed success was very clear.

That Highland Park is quite proud of their youths was very evident when Mayor Buhai said that their vandalism had take a nose dive.

Mayor Buhai also told of a survey they took in the high school five years ago and found that almost 100% of the young people had no desire to return to Highland Park when they had finished their education. Last fall, after a survey under the same conditions, 49% wanted to return to Highland Park to raise their families because they believed it was a good place to live.

"We believe we have made good progress," Mayor Buahi said.

VILLAGE VIEW believes they did too!

knowing is WORTH more

by Joseph J. McCarthy, Ph.D.
Worth Township Supervisor

Joseph J. McCarthy, Worth Township Supervisor, and the Worth Township Board of Trustees have announced that $54,331.54 has been earned in interest as a result of the township's investment program.

In making the announcement, Supervisor McCarthy stated that investments are made in official depositories authorized by the Board of Trustees at the highest rate of interest available. "State Statutes have defined clear-cut regulations in the assignment of such depositories and the legislative discretion extended to governing boards. The Worth Township Board of Trustees and I feel that management of tax funding represents a public trust and it is a question we address seriously with the best interests of the taxpayers in mind."

In concluding, he noted, "We are extremely fortunate to have Trustee Lester A. Grant as Chairman of the Finance Committee, assisted by veteran Trustee Elmer J. Mortensen. Both these gentlemen are avid in their intentions to provide sound recommendations for financial management of the township's investment of its tax dollars to augment the funds that are received through the tax levy. Worth Township is the only governmental agency in the State of Illinois to have reduced its taxes and increased services at the same time! The Township Administration is performing – to all of the taxpayers' benefit."

MAYOR KOLB EXTENDS THANKS

On behalf of the Village of Oak Lawn officials and all of the employees, we want to thank the numerous citizens who submitted letters to my office, complimenting our Public Works Department for the excellent and dedicated work in removing the snow in the most recent storms.

This is the first time in many years that I can recall when we have had so many complimentary letters. Service to the residents is a topmost priority. Providing these services under most trying conditions during this winter period is a real credit to the Village Manager, Public Works Director and the entire crew. Thank you for your concern.

Mayor

GREATER SENIORS SEND THANKS

On behalf of the members of the Greater Oak Lawn Senior Citizens' Club, please accept my sincere thanks and grateful appreciation for the outstanding cooperation and coverage in your newspaper this past year.

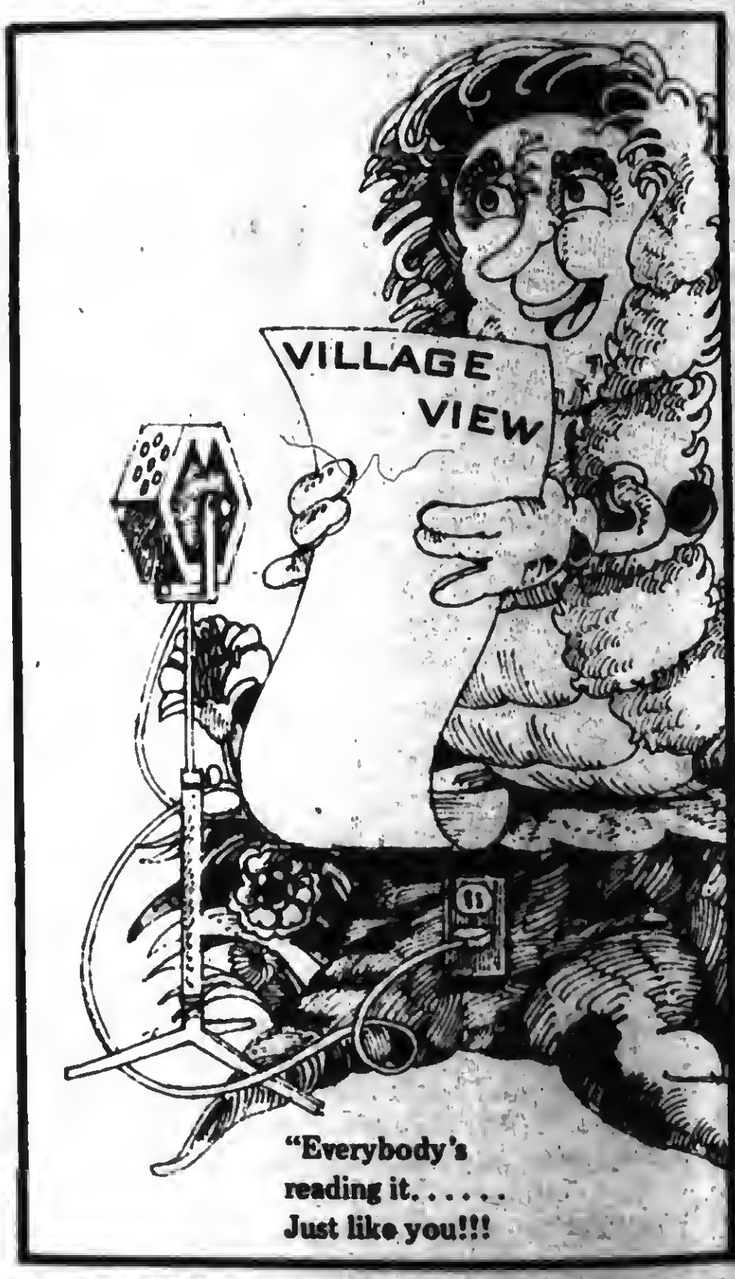
SUBSCRIBER OBJECTS TO "SOAP"

As a subscriber to your fine newspaper, I am compelled to write this letter. After watching one of our prime time TV programs called "SOAP" I realized that the time had come for me to take affirmative action to see what I can do to have such programs purged from the TV viewing audience. This is one of the most vulgar TV programs ever presented. It features blatant sexism, homosexuality, adultery and vulgarity.

Few people realize how sensitive the news media, and especially advertisers, are to consumer reaction. A literal handful of letters saying, "I resent your vulgar presentation on TV, and I'll never buy your product again," can send shockwaves through the top echelons of the largest companies. Basically, they are primarily concerned with SELLING, with PROFIT, and NOT with good taste or morality. The consumer IS in control – if he only knew it!

So, fellow Americans, get busy with your letters and post cards to these, the advertisers responsible for this and other GARBAGE programs. The following is a list of the advertisers of "SOAP":

1. British Leland Motors, Inc. (MG Auto), 600 Willow Tree Road, Leonia, N.J. 07605, Graham W. Whitehead, President.
2. American Honda Motor Co., Inc., P.O. Box 50, Gardena, CA 90247, J. Sakema, Director.
3. Fliter Dynamics Int., Inc., 18451 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, OH, Harvey A. Braun, President.
4. Whitehall Labs. (Anacin), 685 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017, George DeMott, Vice President.
5. Cosmair, Inc. (L'Oreal), 530 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10036, Jeane Caste, President.
6. Bic Pen Corp., Wiley Street, Milford, CO 06460, Robert Adler, President.
7. Combe, Inc., (Odor Eaters), 240 Weschester Ave., White Plains, NY 10604, Chapin Nolan, President.
8. Warner Bros., Inc., (the film, "Oh, God"), 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019, Steven J. Ross, Chairman.



Send them a message! Wash your mouth out with SOAP, and tell them you and your friends will boycott their products. That's the language they understand best.

It can be noted that advertisers are super-sensitive to consumer reaction because several sponsors of the dirty "SOAP" TV series have dropped out, due to adverse public reaction to the sexist, vulgar program. They are:

1. MEM Co., Inc. (English Leather), Union Street, Northvale, NJ 07647, Steven H. Mayer, Chairman.
2. Monarch Wine Co., Inc., (Manischewitz Wine), 4500 Second Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11232, Leo Star, President.
3. Max Factor & Co., 1655 N. McCadden Place, Hollywood, CA 90028, Castle Day, Vice President.
4. Jovan Perfumes, 875 N Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611, Richard Mayer President.
5. Presto Industries, Eau Claire, WI 54701, Laverne Soper, President.
6. Vlasic Foods, 14 Mile Road, West Bloomfield, MI 48033.

Congratulate these advertisers for dropping their support of this program and ask for their continued efforts in supporting only wholesome programs. Tell them that you will now continue to buy their products.

TOURS ARE A BARGAIN

Whether traveling abroad or in the United States, package tours are popular choices at vacation-time. Here is a brief description of the tours available from our office.

A PACKAGE TOUR is a prearranged itinerary which has been put togehter to appeal to people interested in visiting a certain place or places or people who share a common interest --such as ski enthusiasts, theater goers, or art lovers. These tours may be either escorted or unescorted.

The ESCORTED TOUR takes advantage of low group rates. This is a good way for the first time traveler to see a country, since a tour director travels with the group and handles all details (reservations, transportation, baggage, customs, etc.) The UNESCORTED TOUR enables the traveler to purchase a prearranged package complete with transportation, hotels, transfer, etc., yet he travels alone instead of in a group. The GROUP TOUR is one in which a number of people from a club or organization travel together. Traveling in such a group brings lower prices.

Whether you'll be travelling with a group or would prefer a specially planned itinerary suited to your own needs, we'll be happy to help. Stop in at WORLD TRAVEL MART, 5615 W 95th Street -- and talk with us today.

Woman enjoys working with people

Gone With The Wind

FISH & SHELLFISH RECIPES

SOUTHERN BAKED SHAD

4 pounds shad
½ small onion, chopped
4 tablespoons chopped celery
¼ cup butter or margarine
3 cups soft bread crumbs
½ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 tablespoon chopped dill pickle
¼ pound salt pork
Bacon fat or other fat
Salt and pepper

Select a 3 to 5 pound fish. If desired remove head and tail. Clean inside without cutting fish open along entire belly; wash thoroughly, then dry inside and outside with paper towels. Rub inside with salt. To prepare stuffing, saute onion and celery in butter or margarine in heavy frying pan, over low heat, about 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Then turn off heat; add bread crumbs, seasonings and chopped pickle, and toss together to mix thoroughly. Put lightly by spoonfuls into the fish. Sew edges together. Brush outside of fish with fat; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place seam side down on greased rack in shallow baking pan. If fish is whole, curve into letter "S". Cut salt port into ½ inch strips and place crosswise over back of fish. Bake uncovered in moderately hot oven 375 degrees F.) for 40 to 50 minutes, or until fish can be pushed away from back bone. Serve hot with lemon butter. Makes 6 servings.

Big Wheel Benefit Ball one special night

Chicago — Bob Crosby and his orchestra will play for the dancers who attend the Big Wheel Benefit Ball at the Martinique on Friday, March 10, Chairman Fred Dumke announced. Proceeds from the Big Wheel Benefit Ball will help start the residential facility plans of Garden School for the Handicapped, 8333 Austin, Burbank and Park Lawn School, 10833 LaPorte Avenue, Oak Lawn.

Ground breaking is scheduled for spring of '78. Several students at both schools have lost their parents earlier or within the past year or two, and the residential facility will allow their friends and families to visit them often because of the close-by location. It will also allow staff to pursue the personalized programming designed for each student or workshop client on a more intensive basis.

A Glassique replica of a 1929 Model A Ford, donated by Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank and appraised at $15,000 will be won by the lucky holder of one of the $100 tickets to the Ball. The ticket price includes, cocktails, a seven-course steak dinner, open bar, dancing, the prize drawing for the car and other prizes. . .as well as entertainment by the Crosby Orchestra and other stars.

Bob Crosby

Tony DeSantis has promised the benefit planners that Vic Damone and other Drury Lane stars will be dropping in throughout the evening to say Hi to Bob Crosby and the guests at the Big Wheel Benefit Ball. "All this and a great cause too--don't miss it," says Chairman Dumke.

For ticket information, call Garden School at 636-0054 or Park Lawn School at 425-3344.

St Linus school stresses creativity and innovation

Members of the St Linus School Board, including Sister Adria and Msgr John Cardiff, are happy to announce the addition of a Kindergarten Program to their curriculum commencing with the 1978-79 school year.

Registration for Kindergarten, first grade and/or all other grades will be open thru February 17 from 9:30 to 11:30 am and from 12:30 to 1:30 pm at the school office.

St. Linus School located at 10400 S. Lawler Avenue in Oak Lawn, Ill. is operated by the Sisters of the Felician Community.

The teachers, both religious and lay, are qualified teachers with professional degrees and certification. Several of them have Masters Degrees.

With the focal point of this community being Christ, Himself, RELIGIOUS EDUCATION merits primary concern in the School and is woven throughout the entire curriculum. This is what makes the "Difference" in their school, what they are most proud of and the main reason they exist. In St. Linus School growth both intellectually and spiritually is their aim and is nurtured in each individual student. They employ the best methods possible to accomplish this goal and to maintain the high standard of excellence in education that they now enjoy.

Sharing the message of Jesus Christ throug.. instruction in religious truths integrated with life and learning, building community and responding in service to the needs of others are a few of the qualities which make this school so unique.

Individualized instruction, creativity and innovation are the key words which best describe the curriculum. Each classroom is a learning center, each person is guided to reach his peak of potential and the dignity of each person is respected and recognzied always. Audio-visual equipment and material are standard in each classroom. Innovative concepts are employed in every area of learning in an effort to stimulate the intellect and encourage an inquiring mind.

Classroom programs are further enriched through the use of the Library and Learning Center. Materials familiar to both students and teachers include films, filmstrips, slides, records, cassettes, books, learning kits and research periodicals. With all of these aids at their disposal students find learning exciting, challenging and fun.

St. Linus School houses the most fantastic and complete Library and Learning Center in the Oak Lawn area.

In addition to the basic programs, increased learning experiences are also provided for the students in a wide variety of extra curricular programs and activities. These include band, choral group, step dancing, art, speech therapy, gym, cheerleading, art appreciation and a comprehensive sports program. A learning disabilities program was instituted last Sept and has been very effective thus far. The accomplishments of the students has been extremely noteworthy.

The entire school hums with activities, students are achieving well and happiness is seen on the faces of students and teachers alike. St. Linus stress "growth" in every area of learning.

Registration is open to all children of parents who wish to enroll them. Parishioners, will receive first consideration. Enrollment presently includes a few students from other parishes and a few students who embrace another faith.

C. J. Kupec to play basketball for Booster Club benefit

The next meeting of the Oak Lawn High School Booster Club will be on March 1 in the Teachers lunchroom at 8 pm. President Mr Gil LeFevre encourages all parents of Lawn students to come out to discuss future plans of the club. The club is selling school buttons, mugs, and tams. These make perfect gifts for your student.

Coming in April will be the Booster Clubs big project. Several all-star basketball players that are alumni of OLCHS will be back and play a game against the high school coaches. Please watch for further information. The game will be held in the Spartan Gym. Mr C.J. Kupec, one of the top players of the 1971 team, will be back playing in the game.

March 22, the school will honor the Winter Athletes when the Booster Club sponsors the winter sports banquet.

SONS OF ITALY GIVE TO PROJECT '78

The Evergreen Park Sons of Italy have pledged to donate to Little Company of Mary Hospital's Project '78 for the next 3 years. The members of the order feel that this is their way of expressing their gratutude for the quality of care and dedication given by the Sisters and staff for the past 47 years.

Oak Lawn Community High School upset state champion Thornwood on Saturday at the 25-school Shepard Invitational Speech Tournament, which featured the first, second, and third place teams in the 1977 IHSA State Speech Finals. Edging out Thornwood (236) with 243 points, Oak Lawn placed third behind state runner-ups Wheaton Central (253) and Homewood - Flossmoor (250) while the Cinderella team of 1977, Sephard, placed fifth with 226 points. Rounding out the top ten schools were Richards (187), Luther South (186), Champaign Central (133), Sycamore (133), and Aquinas (128).

Mary Fleming and Cathy Ott each won two trophies as double entry speakers to lead the Spartans in a strong team effort. Mary placed 1st in Prose Reading and 2nd in Dramatic Interpretation, while Cathy gained the 2nd place trophy in Declamation and 3rd in Oratory. Rick Olson and Curt O'Hara captured the 1st and 3rd placed trophies in Radio Speaking for Oak Lawn. OLCHS also finished strong in both duet acting events with the team of Jim Nestor and Cathy Smitko, placing 2nd in Dramatic Duet Acting, and the team of Chris Kingslow and Lisa Maras, placing 2nd in Humorous Duet Acting.

Oak Lawn's eight trophy winners scored 105 of the team's 243 points. The remaining 138 points were amassed by outstanding contributions from Mike Kolodziej, Terry Corlett, Ken O'Neill, Mary Majewski, Laura DiFonzo, Debbie Dougherty, John Morzuch, Eve Skembare, Karl Krout and Nancy May.

Few simple rules for home television safety

The television is probably one of our easiest and safest appliances to use—flick it on, turn it off, with less and less tuning needed as electronic advances are made.

However, some common sense helps when operating a television set, as accidents do happen when owners get careless.

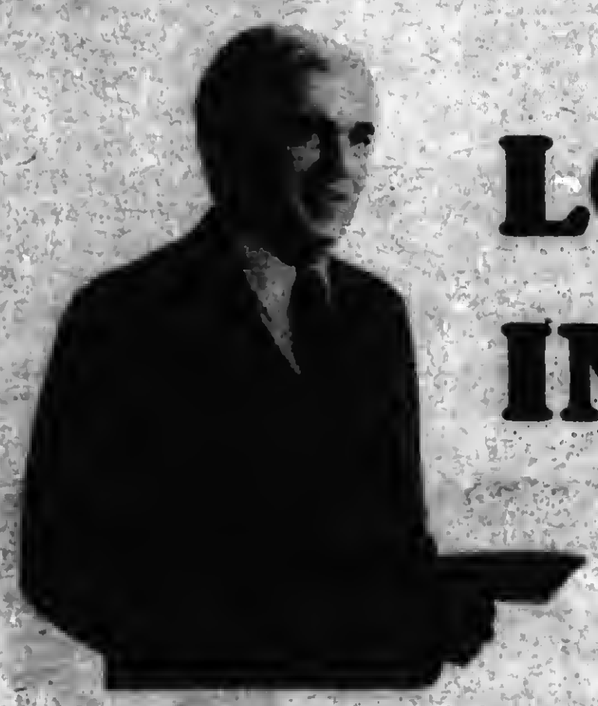
1. Never handle or operate your television (or any other electrical appliance, for that matter!) while your body is wet or in contact with any water source such as water pipes, sinks or bathtubs full of water, damp earth or a damp basement floor.

2. Following in the same line, never attempt to clean the screen or other parts of a television set while it is still connected to the power source.

Even when using the easy new spray cleaners, disconnect the plug before wiping the set clean.



3. Never remove the back cover of the set yourself. Even if the set is unplugged, a powerful electrical charge can be stored there. Don't take a chance—leave all repair work to the experts.

4. If your TV set is equipped with a polarized plug (one which will fit in the socket only one way), don't defeat its purpose. If it won't fit into the electrical outlet, don't force it or place another plug in between to make it fit. Contact your dealer for assistance.

5. Do not operate your set if liquid has been spilled into it or it has been exposed to rain or excessive moisture. Have it checked by a professional service technician before using it again.

6. Make sure that your outdoor antennas and lead-in wires are kept well away from power lines to avoid accidental contact. The TV antenna mast should be permanently grounded and a lightning arrester installed in the lead-in circuit.

7. Do not add accessories (extension speakers, record players, etc.) to a set which has not been designed for this purpose.

The Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce, under the leadership of 1977 president, John Ringhofer (r) and committee chairman, Frank Gallagher, public relations director of Little Company of Mary Hospital, took aim and presented the "Citizen of the Year" award to Sandy Ruggiero, (above) a 20-year resident of Evergreen Park who served as Evergreen's Blood Drive Chairman in 1975 and 9176. Appointed to this position by Mayor Anthony Vacco in 1975, Sandy found this program most rewarding and applied all her effort and enthusiasm to the task of raising pints of this life saving fluid. At the completion of her term as chairman, Sandy surpassed her goal and more than 2200 pints of blood had been donated.

Sandy and husband, Nick, are special people also to their 5 children, ranging in age from 10 to 19. Sandy graduated from Academy of Our Lady High School and attended Cardinal Stritch College in WI. She is a member of the Evergreen Park High School PTA, Worth Township Women's Club and a committee member for the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization. Community involvement is not new to Sandy Ruggiero who is a past board member of the Northwest PTA, Central School PTA, the Tween Club, the League of Women Voters, Northwest Boosters and Holy Redeemer Womens Guild.

For the eighth consecutive year, the St Linus Players will present their famous "Way Off Broadway" production on Friday and Saturday, March 3rd and 4th, and on the following weekend, March 10th and 11th. In addition to the New Palace Review and the "Midway" three other great musical shows will be featured this year. All performances begin at 7 pm and tickets are reasonably priced at $6 each.

Since only 1900 people will be admitted to view each performance this year, you are urged to purchase your tickets as soon as possible by calling Ticket Central at 424-7800. All proceeds from Way Off Broadway '78 will be donated to St Linus Parish, 103rd & Lawler Avenue, Oak Lawn.

Maplewood restaurant warm on a cold night

It was a frigid night when we stopped at MAPLEWOOD MANOR for dinner. It was cozy and warm inside, and our waitress was friendly and helpful.

The menu contains a large selection of dinners, and sandwiches of all kinds. The prices are reasonable, too.

My friend ordered veal parmigian, a generous portion, served with a green salad with choice of dressings, and hot soup. She chose the noodle soup, while I had split pea, which was delicious, and had several tasty croutons on top. It really hit the spot on a cold night.

I ordered the french fried shrimps, large and tender, they were crisp on the outside, and tasty and hot inside.

We finished off our dinner with cups of coffee and rice pudding. The coffee was very good.

You will never go away hungry from Maplewood Manor. Stop in today and enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner.

To put you in a good mood for starters, there's a large, paved parking lot which you can enter from Crawford Avenue or 115th Street.

DISTRICT 123 TEACHERS COMPLETE FIRE TRAINING COURSE

Jeannete Nash, who is a teacher at the Hannum School, is one of fifteen teachers who recently completed the Teacher's Fire Safety Training course sponsored by the Oak Lawn Fire Department and Moraine Valley Community College. This course is one of the first of its kind in the State of Illinois and the country and is being jointly developed by the college, the fire department and District 123 for possible use with educators across the nation. She is shown receiving congratulations from Richard Wysocki, president of the Board of Education. Others shown (l to r) are Dr Douglas A. McGugan, superintendent, Art Stoike, instructor at Moraine and Lt Ron Murray of the Oak Lawn Fire Dept.

Two groups of District 123 teachers have now finished the training course which consists of nine hours of classroom instruction and four hours of fire fighting. Staff members who have completed the fire course are incorporating their experiences in classroom work with children.

New flue fuel saver introduced

Letcher I. McCown (r) 541 Norman Road, Bolingbrook, explains how his patent-pending, new flue fuel saving equipment, Thermiser, saves up to 30% on home gas and oil fuel costs with 100% safety. Looking on (r to l) are Ernest Soderlund, 9815 S Marion Street, Oak Lawn, co-developer of the Thermiser and Dennis Senne, 5167 W 167th, Oak Forest.

A new locally developed flue fuel saver, Thermiser, saves homeowners 30% on fuel costs. Thermiser is now being tested by Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Savings tests were conducted by DRS Associates, consulting mechanical engineers. Two identical furnaces were used: one with a Thermiser, one without a Thermiser.

Thermiser will be available through Chicagoland heating and air conditioning contractors and at Thermiser, 5615 W 95th St, Oak Lawn. McCown states the big advantage of Thermiser over all other home flue fuel saving equipment is safety. This safety is made possible by an orifice in a hinged swing-up door. This prevents chimney blockage/restriction problems which can cause asphyxiation and explosion.

Thermiser's big safety plus is that it operates without electricity which makes it foolproof safe, as well as failsafe. All other flue fuel savers are power operated, making malfunction always possible.

Another difference between Thermiser and other flue fuel savers is that Thermiser saves fuel when furnace operates as well as when it is off because of the orifice. Others save fuel only when furnace is off.

Thermiser's fuel savings of 30% makes it possible for the homeowner to pay for his Thermiser investment from the first year's fuel savings.

Tax aide for seniors

The PLOWS Council on Aging will assist persons over 60 in filing simple tax returns beginning Wednesday, Feb. 15.

PLOWS serves the five-township area of Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth and Stickney. This is the third year that PLOWS has offered tax assistance to older persons in these communities.

Agents from The Internal Revenue service teach a class to prepare these volunteers to help file tax returns. Last year over 200 persons received assistance through the PLOWS office and the VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) program. Other local senior citizens offices also offered this valuable service.

Appointments are necessary. To make an appointment interested persons may call the PLOWS Council on Aging, 422-6722, after Feb. 15.

PLOWS is located at 9226 S. Cook ave., Oak Lawn, and is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Seniors who reside in Evergreen Park can call the Office of Citizen's services, 422-8776, for tax assistance. Oak Lawn seniors can also call the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens commission, 499-0940.

Regular tune-ups, fresh anti-freeze, good tires and reliable brakes are important and require all the attention possible, but few of us give any serious thought to good visibility.

The key to good winter visibility can be summed up in four words: see and be seen. A driver's ability to see and be seen is always crucial, but especially during winter when it gets dark early and stays dark later in the morning.

Here are a few visibility checks most safety-minded drivers should make before snow, sleet and freezing weather sets in:

Clean windows

• Windows — Probably the major requirement for safe winter driving is good visibility through the windshield, side and rear windows.

Wiper blades have one job: provide good visibility. There should be no smearing, chattering or skipping during wiper-to-glass action.

The life expectancy of even the finest quality natural rubber blade is about six months whether used regularly or not, according to windshield wiper experts at The Anderson Company (ANCO).

To help improve winter visibility, the windshield wiper industry has developed a flexible rubber jacket for regular wiper blades that it calls "snow blades." Ice will not adhere to the snow blade and the rubber jacket stays flexible so it can effectively clean the windshield.

It is also a good idea never to switch on your wipers without first squirting washer fluid on the glass. This aids visibility and extends wiper life.

Have your service attendant check your washer pump, all-season washer solvent, lines and jets regularly for clog-free operation. Be sure your washer solvent is protected against freeze-over.

Don't be a "peephole" driver. Brush all snow and scrape all ice from the windshield, side and rear windows.

Show your lights

• Lights — Head, tail, brake, side marker, turn signal and emergency lights all should be in perfect working order. Carry a roll of paper towels to clean roadway splatters from lights.

Headlights must operate on both beams and must be aimed correctly. This is a legal as well as a safety consideration.

Bright lights cause glare in fog and falling snow. Use your low beam. Switch on your lights in the daytime, too, if visibility is poor.

• Defroster — Pulling onto the road during cold weather without first allowing a few minutes for your defroster to clear away fog and frost, besides being extremely dangerous, can lead to a quick traffic citation. Switching on your car's air conditioning can clear windows of fog.

If your windshield does suddenly fog, immediately pull off to the side of the road and wipe it clean.

• Mirrors — All rear view mirrors should be checked for cracks, looseness or other damage. Replace if necessary.

Whether in January or July, driving dangers associated with poor visibility are all around you. Be ready to spot trouble before it's too late.

Richard's senior chosen for All-State Choir

Mark Wilken of Oak Lawn, a senior at Richards Campus, was selected by audition from over 2400 high school District All-State Chorus Members as one of 240 members of the All-State Choir. He sings as a baritone.

President of both the Concert Choir and the Modern Music Masters (Tri-M), Mark has served as drum major for the HLR Marching Band for the past two years. He is also a member of the select HLR Varsity Singers and the HLR Pep Band. A member of the National Honor Society, Mark has been awarded the Arlen Award, Sophomore and Junior Marching Band Awards and Varsity Singers and Band Participation Awards.

He was this year [illegible]d at HLR's winner of the Sons of the American Revolution Award. A member of Thespians, he has been active in drama playing lead roles in productions including "L'il Abner," "Maid to Order," "Send Me No Flowers," and "My Fair Lady."

HONOR ROLL AT OAK VIEW SCHOOL

Twenty students of Oak View School attained honor and recognition for their high scholastic standing and were listed on the Honor Roll for the 2nd Marking Period of the 77-78 school year.

ing along the lines of youth activity. The committee is [illegible] on a new employee, chosen by themselves, who will also be paid thru CETA. Working with the committee are volunteer workers from high school and the junior high.

What we in Oak Lawn would refer to as the Youth Commission is named an Advisory Board in Highland Park, and has absolutely no authority. When, and if, a stalemate arises the board steps out of the picture and Jon Jackson appears before the city council for a solution.

When Mayor Buhai explained the many and varied activities of the youths, Trustee Jay Bergamini asked if there was a feeling of cooperation with others in the village. The Mayor referred to it as a "marriage between the youth and the community." He added that there is a tremendous feeling of cooperation.

Trustee Stancik asked, "Did they have to twist arms?"

The Mayor said that it is hard for a structured organization to accept an unorganized group at any time. He said that the youths also realized they weren't making it with the community and had to promote awareness. He said they started by visiting senior citizens and offering their services - they did the same at the school for the retarded. The young people went to many of the business people asking for discounts. (As an example - a bowling alley where they reduced rates to them in off hours and the theatres were approached in the same way.) They went to the parks for the use of their facilities to do their own thing rather than that which was organized by the park. They went to the schools for the use of their gyms and pools and even talked a restaurant owner into letting them use the facilities and entire kitchen for one of their evenings of fun.

He went on here to say that the main thrust here was to decentralize their activities and make any useable facility in the town available to the young people. He stressed, that although they now had their own building, the youth committee wanted it to remain a drop-in center rather than a base for the main activities. This he explained would deter one group, of perhaps a certain age, from taking over the facility and others may then stay away. (Please read Editorial on Page 6.)

Trustee John Cleveland was very amused and surprised with the ease which the young people took over at the meeting. Many times while the Mayor was speaking one of the younger people spoke out to explain something in greater detail to the visitors and the Mayor stopped and listened. (After all it was their meeting and we were encroachers.)

Trustee Stancik, speaking to the Mayor, said that the youth committee was almost comparable to a governing body.

Mayor Buhai looked surprised for a moment that anyone could have thought differently. He answered, "It is!"

HOME INSTITUTE FORUM

The CertainTeed Home Institute gets many questions every day from home builders and homeowners around the country who want to know more about special insulating situations. Joseph A. Kimpflen, CertainTeed's residential energy expert, provides the answers . . . and welcomes your questions.

Sidewalls

Q. I'm thinking about insulating the unheated attic of my home. Should I also insulate the sidewalls of the heated rooms beneath the attic?

A. Unless you plan on removing the existing interior wallboard, insulating the sidewalls of an existing home yourself is very difficult. A professional insulation contractor can do the job for you, by blowing insulation into sidewalls from the exterior of your home.

As a first move, we'd suggest just insulating the attic floor—that'll give you the most significant reduction in heat loss. A minimum of 6 inches of fiber glass insulation (R-19) on the attic floor could save you up to 30% on your heating and cooling bills annually. In extremely cold or hot climates 12 inches of insulation (R-38) is now being recommended by many energy advisors.

As energy costs escalate, having a professional contractor insulate the sidewalls would then be economically justifiable.

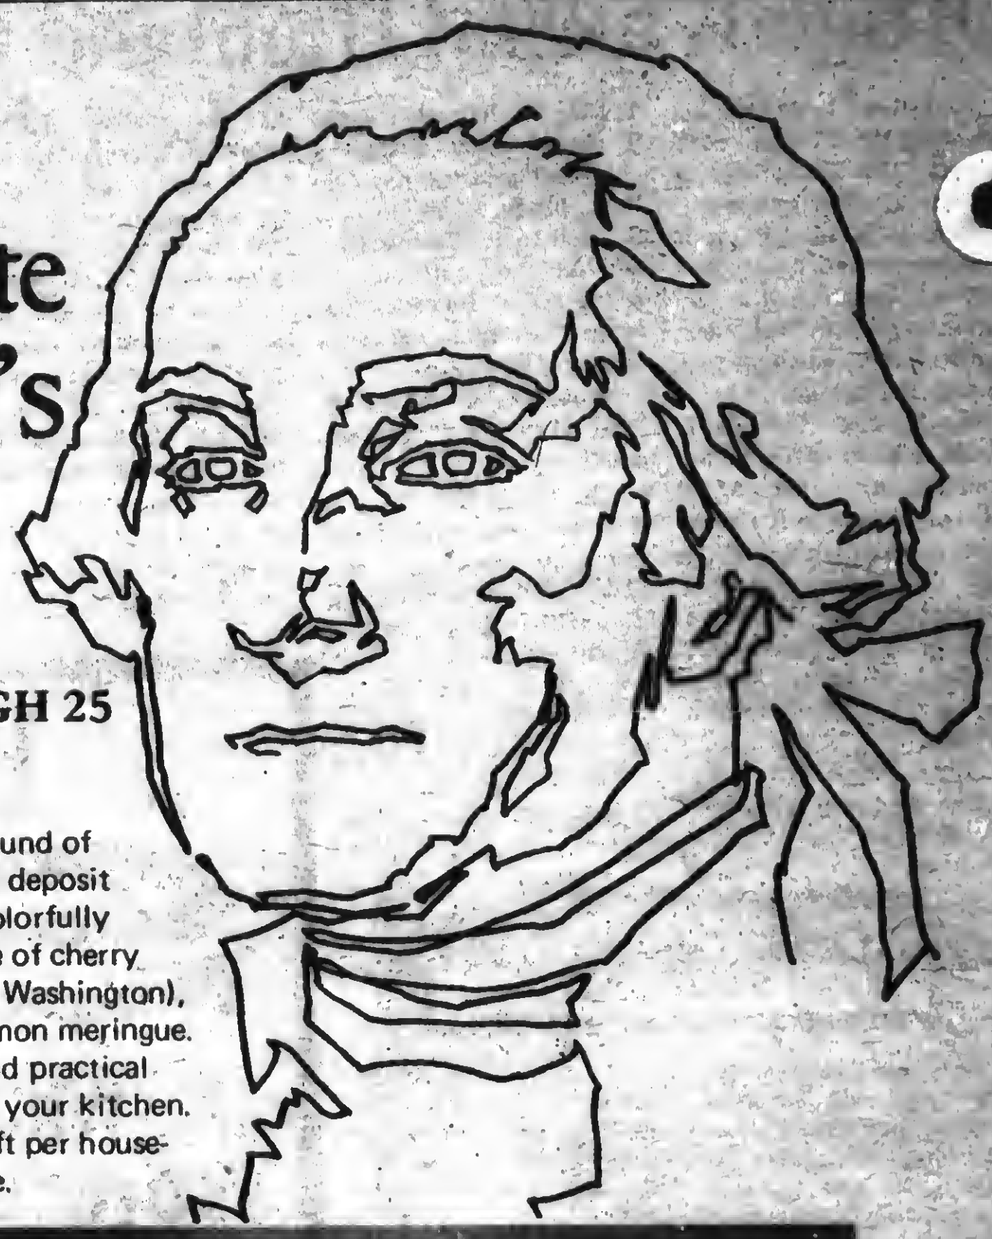
Vapor barriers

Q. Is it correct to install insulation with a vapor barrier over existing insulation with a vapor barrier?

A. No. Wherever you have existing insulation installed properly with a vapor barrier (facing the interior of the house), take special care when installing additional insulation. Otherwise, you could run into a severe moisture problem in the winter.

Unfaced fiber glass insulation is designed specifically to handle this kind of reinsulation situation. Six-inch thick batts or rolls are available in both 15-inch and 23-inch widths to fit between the joists on the attic floor right on top of existing insulation. These are usually less expensive than their foil or kraft-faced equivalents.

If you have already installed new attic insulation with a vapor barrier, make several slashes in the vapor barrier on each batt of the new insulation as soon as possible.



This destroys the vapor barrier's effectiveness, so that any moisture which penetrates the vapor barrier on the original insulation can be ventilated off in the attic.

Local Sertoma Health Center to open March 11th

Ernest F. Kolb, Mayor of Oak Lawn who is serving as the General Chairman for the Centers Fund Raising Campaign in the south and southwest suburban area and Richard Orejuela, President, Board of Directors Illinois/Wisconsin Regional Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders, jointly announced that the long awaited date for the opening of the center has been scheduled for March 11, 1978.

Mayor Kolb commented "It is only because of the help, contribution and donations by so many dedicated people in Suburban Oak Lawn, Bridgeview, Hometown and Evergreen Park, that the opening is made possible to serve over 300,000 people in our Southwest Metropolitan Cook County area."

"We are most grateful to the Sertoma Foundation, the Philanthropic Arm of Sertoma International for selecting the site of 11220 S Harlem Avenue, which incidently is only the second center of its kind in the nation."

Richard Orejuela, President of the Board for this local center, expressed his appreciation to Mayor Kolb for the wonderful support given to Sertoma so they can establish this center. Stating "it will offer services to both children and adults, will include speech and language skills evaluation, pre-school screening programs, sign classes, auditory training programs, hearing evaluations and special testing, hearing conservation programs for industry, individual and group therapy, parental training, specialized summer programs, aural rehabilitation, speech reading programs, parent infant programs and hearing aid evaluation."

He went on to add that the center will be administered by a professional staff certified by the American Speech and Hearing Association. All persons with communicative disorders will be serviced regardless of their ability to pay, be it full fees, what they can afford or no fee at all. It will seek to become self-sufficient and will have the continual backing of local Sertoma organizations.

Mayor Kolb was most appreciative to Mrs Linda R. Gray of Oak Lawn, Mrs Gwen Wolkoun of Hometown, William V. Talerico and Don A. Billig of Bridgeview for their chairing fund raising efforts in their communities.

Franklin Oakes, Sertoma Foundation Trustee stated "There are many people to thank for the successful establishment of the center and our highest respect and regards are directed to Mayor Ernest F. Kolb of Oak Lawn whose faith and energetic pursuit and response in the fund raising campaign has inspired us all."

Chambers first lady presides over busy meeting

John Pieler, Executive Director of the chamber, gave a report on the new membership and also read the treasurer's report in the absence of Milt Andersen who came in late.

Many subjects were covered including the proposed budget for 1978. The very successful Pet Parade was discussed and it was voted that the chamber would allow additional dollars over that of last year to insure adequate funds to have a bigger and better 2nd Annual Pet Parade this year. Bob Gaul is chairman of the event.

Bill Hawkinson, co-chairman of the Oak Lawn Auto Dealer's Association, (OLADA) said that plans were completed to take two bus loads of handicapped children to the Auto Show on March 2. He said the show is closed on that day and the young people almost have the place to themselves. Hawkinson said they do this every year and they all enjoy themselves. He extended an invitation to all other members of the chamber.

Ms Gallo announced that Lou Mirabelli, Vice President of the Chamber of Commerce, would chair the Golf Outing that is set for Wednesday, July 5. The outing is one of the most popular Oak Lawn events.

Davis Boyd presented a plan to assist the Oak Lawn Fire Department during Fire Protection week in October. The program is intended to help promote the installation of smoke alarms in every home in Oak Lawn. The finalization was postponed until the next meeting.

Both Milt Andersen and Davis Boyd spoke of some type of supplementary aid to the Police Cadets, a trained unit under the supervision of Sergeant Bob Macke, who have assisted so ably with traffic control during the chamber events this past year. This item was left open for suggestions.

John Pieler referred to Ed King, a retired Chicago Police Captain, who has a boxing program going on in spaces provided by Chief Elmore Harker in the basement of the fire station at 103rd & Kostner. He was also requesting financial aid for equipment. Mayor Ernie Kolb, who was present, wanted to highly recommend the gentleman and said he was doing an excellent job with the youths.

Betty Gallo chose this point to interject that it had been decided some time ago that the chamber could not fund these projects. "There are so many organizations in Oak Lawn," she said, "and if we give to one we have to give to them all, and would soon deplete our own funds."

Board member Sal Crivalone offered to take one boy to a local sports shop and outfit him. The suggestion was probably made to encourage others to do likewise.

Dr Joseph McCarthy, Supervisor of Worth Township and also present, was approached on the subject and he confirmed that there was a gym in the school recently purchased in Alsip. He promised that he would take it back to the board and discuss its possible use for this deserving program.

The lengthy meeting was called at this point in time and Ms Gallo received a round of applause for the efficient handling of her "first".

Liquor license ordinance passes

The new liquor license ordinance was approved this past Tuesday at the regular meeting of the President and Board of Trustees without objection from the licensees.

There were some changes from the original proposal that came about after a meeting was held on Monday, February 20, between the board and the license holders.

The most significant change was in the $5000 charge for a license purchase that will now include the first year fee charge. The original draft called for the payment of the $5000 plus the yearly fee for the type of license purchased.

In some of the license categories that now are numbered from A thru J there was a decrease to make the overall percentage raises more equal. This seemed to be one of the objections from the license holders.

The fee increase will be prorated over a two year period with one half to be paid in 1978 and the other half in 1979. From that point on the entire increase will be in effect and payable each year after that.

Earlier in the meetings it had been determined that there can be no transfer of a liquor license from one party to another, as in a property purchase. Many times this resulted in what was intended to be a package license originally was converted to a full liquor license and in undesirable places of business. This can no longer happen under the new ordinance, with the exception of a death of the license holder. Under the new ordinance, in this instance, another immediate member of the family may retain the liquor license in his or her name.

In other board action Daniel P. Kezon, 4815 W 105th Place, was named as Treasurer of the Village of Oak Lawn.

A THANK YOU FROM DONALD R. CANNING

Director of Public Works, Donald R. Canning extends his thanks and appreciation to the many citizens who have called or written letters to compliment members of his department for what some have described as "Yeoman Service" after the recent heavy snow storm.

Director Canning added "In the period between January 26 and February 7, our office received 187 calls of inquiry or service requests, relating to snow removal/plowing, a 50% increase over our normal street calls in any given two week period."

The appointment of Fred Dumke as his campaign manager, was announced Monday, February 20 by Anthony Vacco, mayor of Evergreen Park, and Democratic candidate for state senator of the eighth legislative district. This announcement was made at a press conference held in the Holiday Inn, Oak Lawn.

"A mutual friendship was my reason for selecting Fred Dumke as my campaign manager," Vacco said, "and his compiete understanding of pubiic life thru many years of experience."

Dumke, in his acceptance speech, said the people were very fortunate to have a very talented local figure like Vacco running for senator and predicted a victory in November.

Dumke cited Mayor Vacco's years of experience in Evergreen Park that is now in excellent condition. He said that the fiscal stability of the village has been maintained and the area itself kept in good shape. He said that Vacco's planning and forethought with the use of Revenue Sharing funds has benefited everyone in the community.

"Vacco has many years of experience serving on the Illinois Municipal League and the National League of Cities, who are basic lobbying groups for the State of Illinois," Dumke said. "Tony gets a lot of things done in his own way. We have a lot of professional peopie in office," he said, "we need someone with practical experience now."

"Vacco has a great number of friends in his own right," Dumke said when reference was made to switching parties. "He was chosen by all Democratic committeemen in the 8th District. He has received endorsements from 14 of the 18 mayors in the district." Of the four only one has turned him down the others have made no committment as yet. Vacco said that he believes the "one" may come around at a later date.

Dumke went on to say that the campaign will be one of a positive nature, not one of finding fault, but one with ideas and suggestions for the 8th District.

The AFL-CIO has announced their support of Mayor Vacco. Vacco, Harry "Bus" Yourell and Sandy Dorgan are running unopposed on the Democratic ticket in the primary, March 21.

Other appointments to the campaign committee announced are Mary Czarnecki, treasurer; Melanie Balderman, public relations; Al Witry, fund raising; and George Witous, attorney.

Vacco said that a campaign headquarters will be operating this summer. A cocktail party, fund raiser, will be the main source of revenue for the campaign. It will be held Sunday, April 30, at the Lexington House in Hickory Hills.

Mackey to speak at Kiwannis

Judge Robert Mackey

President Mace Rubenstein of the 1st State Bank of Alsip, who is the president of the newly chartered Alsip Kiwanis, has announced that Associate Judge Robert G. Mackey of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be the guest speaker on Thursday, March 2nd. The luncheon will be held at the Maplewood Manor Restaurant, 115th & Pulaski at 12 o'clock. The Alsip Kiwanis formerly met on Mondays and this will be the first Thursday they have met on this date.

Judge Mackey has been an associate for four years and is now a candidate for a full Circuit Court Judgeship. He has served as Assistant States Attorney, Assistant Attorney General and an Assistant Corporate Council.

Mackey is a graduate of Northwestern where he starred in baseball and swimming. Also serving as president of the N Men's Club at Northwestern and president of the P.A.D. Fraternity. Judge Mackey served in WWII as a naval officer under Admiral "Bull" Halsey.

Larson lashes out at ordained homeowners

A recent rash of individual citizens who have created "home churches" to avoid taxes was the subject of an inquiry to the Cook County States Attorney's Office by Commissioner Ronald R. Larson.

State's Attorney, Bernard Carey, provided a legal opinion "that these churches indicate quite clearly that they are attempting to ordain homeowners to avoid the taxation of their homes and not for any religious purpose. The use of the homes of the church's ministers, therefore, is not exclusively or primarily devoted to religion so as to qualify for tax exemptions as religious institutions."

Larson's concern was for all taxpayers of Cook County who pay their fair share of the tax burden.

Larson stated, "I certainly am not implying or suggesting that our legitimate churches and religious institutions should not be offered their present tax-exempt status. I am, however, extremely concerned with citizens being ordained to the ministry and therefore asking for a tax exemption for their own homes strictly to avoid taxation. It is disturbing to me because I believe it is phoney, sacreligious and unfair to our already overburdened Cook County tax-paying citizens."

Larson continued, "I, personally, have voted against every new form of county taxation and have made such major proposals as an Independent Cook County Audit Commission for the purpose of auditing the cost of operation of our county government and, in turn, decreasing the tax burden on our county citizens. I do not, however, believe that the answer to the exorbitant taxes that we are all paying lies in tax evasion, by using God and religion as a shield."

Larson further stated, "I would like to serve notice to all those individuals using this means of tax evasion to beware of the prospect of future investigations and prosecutions by the State's Attorney of Cook County. While I am certainly empathetic to our plight in terms of a very heavy tax burden, I believe that individual citizens could be most effective by voting for public officials who have proven their dedication to fiscal responsibility in the management of our government. It is only in this way that we can hope to relieve and reduce the spending and, subsequently, higher taxation."

JUDGE DOM RIZZI HONORED

State Rep "Bus" Yourell (l), who is also the Worth Township Democratic Committeeman, extends greetings to Judge Dom Rizzi of the Circuit Court of Cook County who was recently honored at a luncheon at the Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn. Judge Rizzi who was appointed a Judge last year by the Illinois Supreme Court is now a candidate for the Appellate Court. Rizzi received the highest percentage of any candidate that appeared in front of the Evaluation Committee of the Chicago Bar Association. He received a remarkable 94%.

Pay raises for state officials?

We strongly agree with Former Illinois House Speaker W. Robert Blair, Republican candidate for State Comptroller, who recently announced his opposition to proposed pay raises for elected and appointed state officials. All we have heard all year is that the State is having financial problems. Governor Thompson has said there will be no tax raise for this year (election year) hut hy the manner in which he made this prognosis leaves douht in one's mind what the next year will bring. With everyone crying for financial help it would seem the worst possible proposal to lay on the people at this time.

Blair in his statement was commenting on the appointed Salary Study Commission whose members recommended the pay raise. Blair had this to say:

"I do not question the motivation of those who served on the Commission, nor that of the Governor in appointing the Commission," Blair continued, noting that, "There is considerable merit in having persons other than the office-holders affected study the need for pay raises for state officials."

"But any such study must also weigh the impact, both psychologically and financially, that a pay raise would have on state government and public confidence in it," Blair cautioned, suggesting that, "this Commission did not pay sufficient heed to this aspect of the prohiem."

Blair referred to interest groups that have recently sought additional state support for programs or causes about which they are concerned, noting that, "Parents, students and educators have been told that there is not enough money to increase state support for public education; homeowners have been told that there is not enough money to allow a reduction in the tremendous property tax hurden with which they are saddled; motorists and pedestrians alike have been told that there is not enough money to maintain state roads or improve puhlic transportation; other persons have been told that there is not enough money for a host of other worthy projects and programs."

Despite these dire financial circumstances in which the pubiic has been told the state finds itseif, Illinois taxpayers are now being asked to accept the claim that there is just enough money to fund large increases in the salary paid to top state officials," Blair said.

"A credibility gap separates these diametricaliy opposed claims," Blair charged, adding, "that gap threatens to further erode puhlic confidence in state government and in those who serve in it."

"Over $2.5 million will be spent just to fund the recommended raises for non-judicial state officials," Blair claimed, speculating that, "Judicial raises, at every level, will almost certainly add millions more on to the price tag for this salary increase package."

"I recali having recently read of a pilot program to heip troubied young people, which is threatened by a cut in federal financial support," Blair said, observing that, "it would take less than half the sum that will be expended for non-judicial pay raises aione, to save this program."

"There are undoubtediy hundreds of other initiatives that desperateiy need additional financial support," Blair remarked, suggesting that, "If the state cannot afford to fund programs for troubled children, then it can ill afford to raise the salary of elected and appointed officials."

Biair warned that, "passage of pay raises for top officials would set in motion a chain of events that would seriously threaten the state's financial stability."

"We can be certain that the tens of thousands of persons employed by the state would not stand idiy by while executive, iegislative, and judicial salaries were increased, but rather would seek major adjustments in their own pay scale," Blair said, adding that, "moreover, one could not really hiame them."

The amount of the raise recommended was from $20,000 to $30,000 per year. Did you receive that type of increase to help pay the extra taxes and higher costs we have been hurdened with already?

Write to your State Senator and State Representatives and tell them your feelings on this outlandish proposal. Letters do count for something, but martyrd siience counts for absoiuteiy nothing!

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB OF OAK LAWN NAIVE

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Oak Lawn are naive and arrogant in assuming that those who oppose ETA are disseminating misinformation and distortions about the subject.

Since the big Wigs at the top in government have already projected the effects of ERA, the opinions of State Legislators, businesswomen and housewives here at the bottom no longer means very much.

Specifically, the Yale Law Journal has made detaiied projections on the effects of ERA and we can assume the courts will use these interpretations to spell out women's duties under this new amendment.

Let women read the Yale Law Journal projections and decide for themseives if ERA is safe or dangerous. Here are just a few:

1. The Yaie Law Journal specifications state that women will be drafted. No mercy is evident for mothers when both parents are drafted.

2. Under Criminal Law, the Journal projects that courts will invalidate and NOT re-write prostitution iaws, sodomy and adultery laws, seduction laws, statutory rape laws and would also strike down the Federal White Slave Traffic Mann Act, which protects women from forced prostitution.

3. Protective Labor Legislation: ERA re-states the laws now on the Illinois law books, it adds requirements that will affect women adversely.

4. The Yaie Law Journai specifically states that "without exceptions" the law cannot use sex as a basis for differential treatment. Therefore, no laws pertaining to just women or just men are allowed, placing a Human Life Amendment, which can only refer to women, in grave jeopardy.

When the leaders of the pro ERA movement threaten to hury the anti abortion movement with ERA then it's time to say "no" to the Equal Rights Amendment and "yes" to only SPECiFiC laws which women can see in writing and approve of.

Two hundred signatures on a vague petition is peanuts in comparison to the dynamite of pro-life and pro-family concern in this district. Congratulations Jane Barnes. Stick to your "no" vote and ignore the tantrums of Bella Absug's followers.

Write your state legislators and senators today, ordering them to vote "no" on ERA.

YOURELL ASKS REPEAL OF RACIAL QUOTA RULES

Harry "Bus" Yourell

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, D-8th, Chairman of the legislative Joint Committee on Administrative Ruies has asked the Chairman of the Illinois State Board of Education whether the State Board plans to repeal ruies and reguiations it has which impose racial quotas on local schooi districts.

The 16th Circuit Court in Kane County on January 20, 1978, issued a permanent injunction prohibiting the State Board of Education from enforcing racial quotas.

Yourell believes that since the court has taken this permanent action, the State Board should promulgate a court ordered rule as provided for by the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act repealing those rules which have been struck down hy the Court.

In a letter to Jack Witkowsky, Chairman of the State Board of Education, Yourell has asked whether the State Board plans to initial repeal of the racial quota rules. He asked for immediate attention and response to the question.

If you have any questions or for further information, call 422-9300.

Seminar offered to part time and reserve officers

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod announced that a seminar entitled "Police Stress and Police Marriage" is being offered to part time and reserve police officers who are attending the Cook County Sheriff's Court Services Training Academy.

The course will be from 9 am to 4 pm Saturday and Sunday, March 11 and 12, at the Court Services Training Academy, 1311 S Mayhrook Dr, Maywood.

Conducting the seminar will be Prof Michael Cornett, Department of Psychology, Loyola University, and Judith Simmons, Cook County Criminal Justice Training and Leadership Development Section, which is also funding the seminar.

Sheriff Elrod said spouses, fiances or girlfriends are also being encouraged to attend the seminar so they can better understand how stress can play a constant and, sometimes, destructive role in the life of a police officer.

The part time and reserve police officers are enrolled in the 240-hour minimum standards Basic Law Enforcement Training Course, given by the Sheriff's Court Services Training Academy under the auspices of the Illinois Local Governmental Law Enforcement Officers Training Board.

MVCC SPONSORS FAMILY COURSES

Courses with a family focus start at Moraine Valley Community College in March. Included are Creative Parenting, a 10 week course, begins March 9; Marriage Enrichment, a 12 week course begins March 7th; and Family Financial Management, a 9 week course begins March 16. The first two are co-sponsored by Family and Mental Health Services of Southwest Cook County.

Russo small business hearings to continue

Congressman Marty Russo announced that hearings before his Subcommittee on small business impact legislation will continue in Washington on March 8, 9 and 16. The hearings began on February 1. Testimony was heard from several Members of Congress in support of some type of legislation to require Federal agencies to consider small business impact before a regulation is formally proposed.

At the beginning of the hearings, Russo noted that growing Federal regulation and its accompanying paperwork burden are often cited as the number one enemy of the small businessman or woman. "All types of Federal regulation have grown so much in recent years that virtually every industry and household is now affected in often highly visible ways. Costs and benefits of regulation are difficult to estimate at best. It's time some attempt was made. Often we are swept up in a ware of consumerism. While well-intentioned ideas for strong regulation abound, alternatives do not seem to receive much consideration."

Russo said that although there are two bills before the Subcommittee, this does not mean that someone somewhere may not have even a better idea. "The time for legislation of some kind is now. When an Idaho businessman pays a $500 fine instead of filling out a 63-foot long Federal form, when a small radio station pays $26.23 to mail their Federal license renewal, and when a small butcher is told by OSHA to install a grated floor to prevent people from sliding and then told by the Department of Agriculture that grated floors cannot be used because they are unclean and lead to contamination, then you know it's time to stop the nonsense."

The Subcommittee will hear testimony on March 9 and 16 from various small business organizations. Many will have their own "horror stories" of Federal regulation to tell.

On March 8, the witness list will feature a man called by many "the nation's expert" on Federal regulation and its effect on business, Murry Weidenbaum. Dr Weidenbaum is head of the Center for the Study of American Business at Washington University in St Louis. Recently, the Center issued its regulatory cost study for 1976. It is estimated that Federal regulation cost $65 billion, with $3 billion being the expenditures just for the regulations. Also testifying will be two other regulatory experts -- James Needham, former President of the New York Stock Exchange; and Professor James Miller of the American Enterprise Institute.

Huskey offers senior workshop

State Rep Herb Huskey will host a special senior citizen workshop on Wednesday, March 15 from 9 to 11:30 am at Colonial Savings and Loan Assn, 4740 W 95th St.

The conference, "Senior Update," will feature resource people from the Illinois Department on Aging, Suburban Cook County Area Agency on Aging, several local senior citizen commissions, and Republican legislative social services staff. Speakers, Huskey says, will give a brief presentation about new developments in their respective areas, and then participate in a question-answer session.

"This workshop will not only enable senior residents in the eighth district to find out about many new programs and services," Huskey said, "but it will also give them an excellent opportunity to express their feelings about things that still need to be done.

"I would encourage all local senior citizens to participate in this informative conference." Reservations for the meeting are optional, Huskey says, but his district office will hold a seat for anyone who calls 424-5000 before March 13. There is no attendance fee for this meeting.

John Chapman of Woodridge is one of the homeowners in northern Illinois who recently installed a heat pump. How'd he like it? "It's just been great—one unit that both heats and cools. It really does the job," says John.

Most heating systems heat by burning fossil fuels, like natural gas or oil. The heat pump is different. It doesn't burn anything. It uses electricity to move heat from one place to the other—heat that already exists. Where? In the air around us. Even on cold, cloudy days, there's an abundance of heat in the air—solar heat energy that the heat pump captures and moves indoors.

In warm weather, the process automatically reverses for cooling. The heat pump captures excess indoor heat and humidity and removes them to the outside.

The Remarkable Electric Heat Pump.

Today the heat pump is the best alternative to heating systems which consume scarce fossil fuels. It taps an energy supply that's virtually limitless—heat energy from the sun contained in the air around us. And it is the most practical system to capture solar energy efficiently.

In northern Illinois the heat pump, based on average performance for a heating-season, can deliver more than 1-1/2 units of heat energy for every unit it consumes. This means the heat pump not only saves energy, it can also generate long-term operating cost savings.

If you want additional heat pump information, call your local Commonwealth Edison office and talk to one of our marketing engineers.

To get the full advantages of the heat pump, it's important to get a quality product, properly installed and serviced. For the name of qualified installers in your area, call G.W. Berkheimer Co. (Westinghouse Distributors), 312-374-4411; General Electric Co., 312-496-6200; Lennox Industries, Inc., 312-593-2820; Temperature Equipment Corp. (Carrier Distributors), 312-681-6220; or Central Furnace Supply (Bard Distributors), 312-355-1220.

Another year-another success for Garnet Ball

Months of careful planning has culminated in another gala Garnet Ball for the auxiliary of Little Company of Mary Hospital. This social event was held recently at the Beverly Country Cluh and was well attended by a host of prominent socialites, professional and business men and their beautifully gowned wives.

The cocktail hour which was preceeded hy the dinner dance, featured a magnificent hor'doeuvres table done in grand style. When the doors of the main dining room opened, guests filed through the receiving line into a room filled with the fragrance of fresh flowers and the glow of soft candlelight. A delightful dinner was followed by an evening of dancing to the music of Dick Carlton and his orchestra.

Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th St, will host this years Intermediate Spelling Bee Contest according to Principal George Kernwein. Preliminary spelldowns have been held throughout the four participating grammar schools to determine which three students will represent their schools.

Oak View winners were chosen from the February 7th school spelldown. Each grade level had four representatives who competed for the top three places. Fourth Grade representatives were Nick Cappas, Janet Havlik, Jose Bolanos and Mike Lehman; Fifth Grade representatives were Jeanne Gianone, Therese Knizer, Bridget O'Rourke and Joan Ikrey; Sixth Grade representatives were Liz Shimkus, Philip Carollo, Gina George and Lori Bergwall.

First place winner was Liz Shimkus, Second Place winner was Therese Knizer and Third Place winner is Jeanne Gianona. Mr Kernwein said, "These girls are to be congratulated for their fine performance and I know that they will do a fine job of representing Oak View in the March District Spelling Bee."

These school winners will now compete for District wide honors at the annual District 126 Spelling Bee Contest. The first place winner will receive a trophy. The contest will be held on Monday, March 20 at 8 pm. The public is invited and welcome to attend the spelling contest.

ILLINOIS HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION HONORS LCM

Two Little Company of Mary Hospital representatives were honored recently by the Illinois Hospital Association at a recognition luncheon held during the annual association meeting in Springfield, Illinois.

Mrs Marge Brennan, Director of Volunteer Services at LCM, was the recipient of the Master Auxiliam Certificate. This recognition is earned by attendance during the year at major educational meetings offered by the conference group as well as other allied health organizations.

HONOR HOME DELIVERED MEAL VOLUNTEER

Shirley Casper, Christ Hospital Home Delivered Meal Coordinator, (l) presents a preserved real red rose to Geraldine Dodge, Oak Lawn, for her outstanding service to area shut-ins during the past year. Mrs Dodge was second highest in terms of hours of volunteer service given to the home delivered meal project in 1977.

Christ Hospital's house delivered meal program provides one hot meal and one cold meal five days a week to shut-ins in the hospital service area for a nominal sum. The program, because the delivery is by volunteers, also provides a brief chance for the shut-in to chat with a visitor. "This service is vital to the community. We only wish we had more volunteers," says Andy Buczyna, Christ Hospital social service manager. For further information about the program, call Shirley Casper, 425-8000, extension 5980.

On Monday, March 20 a pinochle tournament will be held at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street. All Oak Lawn senior residents are welcome to join the fun and compete for prizes.

There will be a 50¢ donation requirement per player and tables will be assigned the day of the tournament.

A sheet of rules and regulations will be distributed to each player as you register.

You may pre-register for the tournament by calling the center at 499-0240, or you can register the day of the tournament. We will begin promptly at 1 pm.

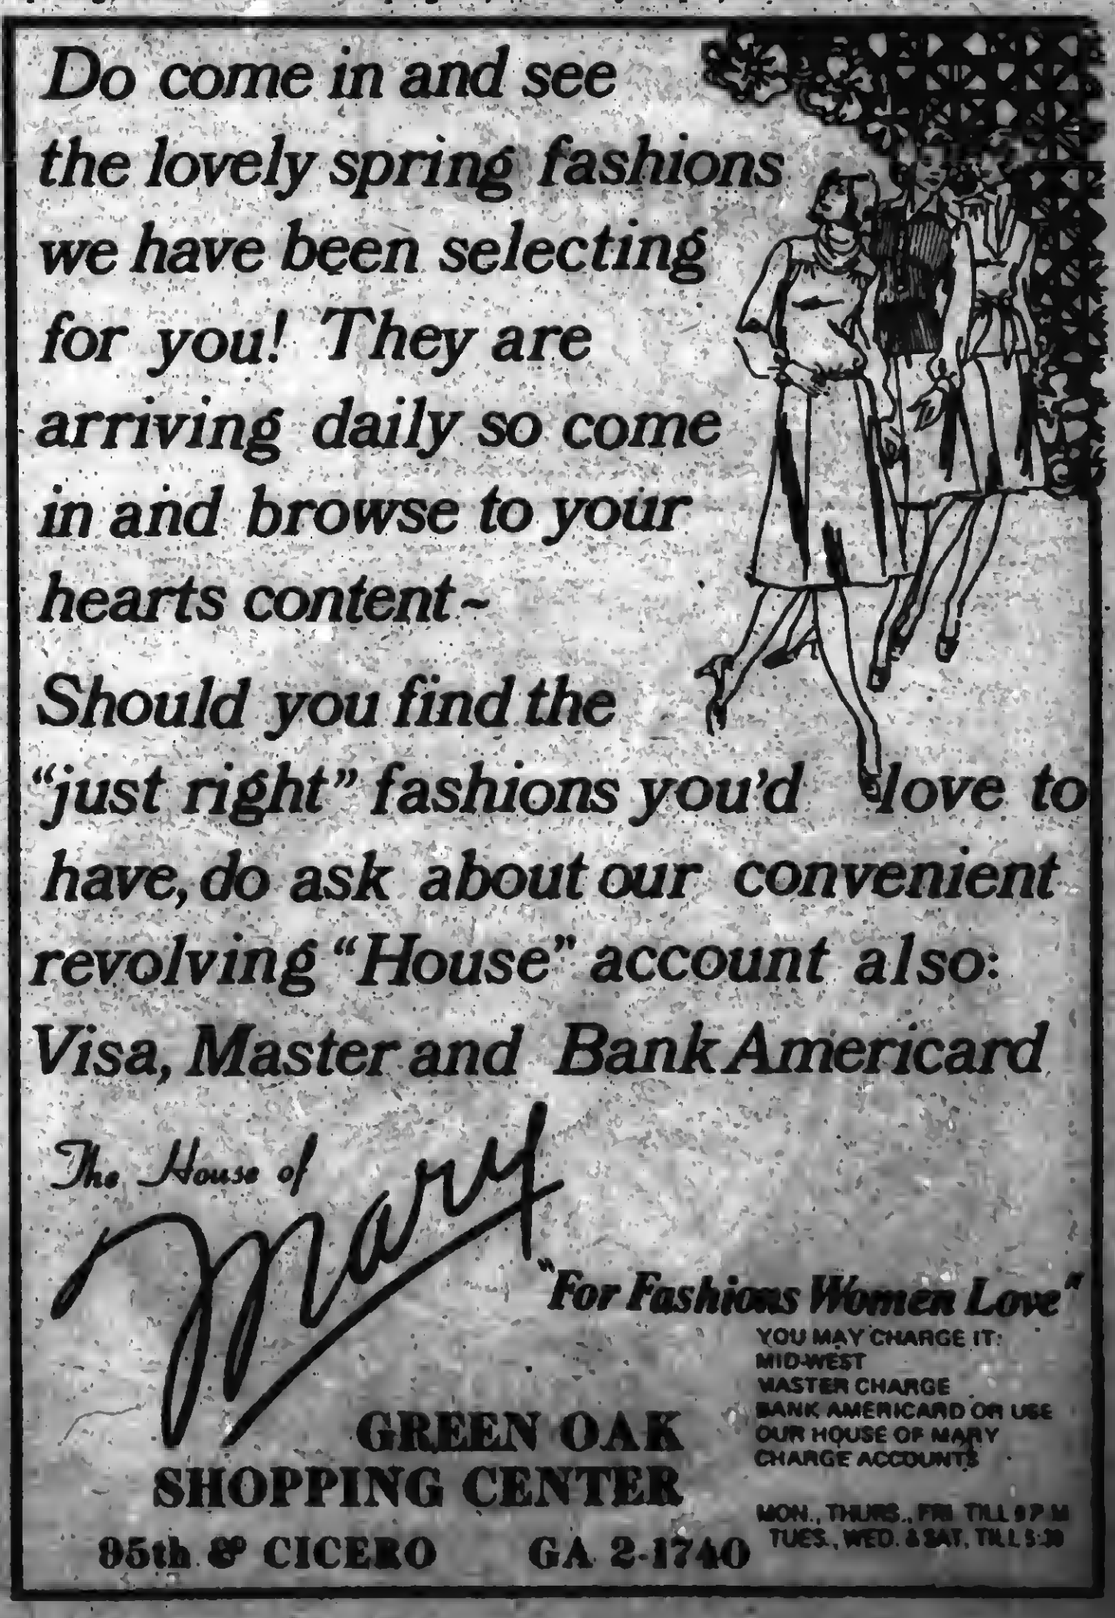
District 126 registration open for kindergarten

Registration for Kindergarten will be held in District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, the first week of April. Children must be 5 years old on or before December 1, 1978. Superintendent Smith reminded parents that a CERTIFIED BIRTH CERTIFICATE must be presented at registration.

Registration will be held in the mornings only from 8:30 to 11 am Thursday, April 6 at Oak View School.

For District 126 parents that cannot make any of the four morning registrations, a special district evening registration will be held at Hazelgreen School, Monday, April 17th from 7:30 to 8:15 pm.

I QUIT SMOKING



The social service department of Christ Hospital will offer its 21st I Quit Smoking Clinic beginning Wednesday, January 11 in the Evangelical School of Nursing, 9345 S Kilbourn Avenue, Oak Lawn, from 7 to 8:30 pm.

The clinic will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, March 29, 30 and 31 and on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 3 and 4.

The I Quit Smoking clinic sessions feature lectures and discussions by a Christ Hospital staff physician and respiratory therapist, a representative and volunteer of the American Cancer Society, and a health educator from Hinsdale Hospital. A film depicting the ill effects of smoking will be shown each evening.

Advance registration for the clinic is necessary and may be made by calling 425-8000, ext 5867. A fee of $2 is charged to cover costs.

TAX RELIEF ASSISTANCE

PLOWS Council on Aging is offering free assistance in filing for the 1977 Circuit Breaker and Homestead tax exemptions.

Both the Circuit Breaker and the Homestead are designed to provide senior citizens with an incentive to acquire or retain private housing (rented or owned). Both protect seniors from increasing property taxes against their fixed incomes.

PLOWS is also currently taking appointments for assistance in filing income tax returns under the VITA programs.

Interested persons over 60 who live in the townships of Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth or Stickeny can make appointments for either program by calling PLOWS, 422-6722.

Roast beef, and fine beefsteaks, too, are the specialty of GREENE'S WEST, at 8624 W 95th Street in nearby Hickory Hills. You will enjoy your dinner there, especially the saladbar with loads of fresh shrimps. The prices are reasonable, and Greene's West has everything you could possibly desire on the menu.

STEAMBOAT WILLIE'S at 9540 Cicero is the latest addition to Oak Lawn's growing list of restaurants.

The decor will surprise you--all red and curlicued wood trim in the style of an old fashioned riverboat. Waitresses are done up in short red costumes with long black sheer hose, sure to get admiring glances from the men.

My companion had the FRENCH Quarter Dip, thinly sliced roast beef on a toasted french roll with melted cheddar cheese, and a cup of au jus, and french fries. I ordered the Porkerhouse, a lot of thinly sliced roast pork, served on a toasted onion roll. This meal was undoubtedly the hottest food I've ever been served in a restaurant.

Our sandwiches were tasty and were accompanied by cole slaw, good, but a very tiny serving and a crispy dill pickle. The coffee was hot and good, the milk was served in a mug.

There were a number of patrons in the establishment and the service was very good.

Other interesting menu offerings included Smoked Stack, a combination of hot smoked ham with cheese; Reuben E. Lee, hot corned beef, with or without sauerkraut, and bubbling swiss cheese on light or dark rye; Mickey's Fin, a fish filet, and Willieburger, the ever present half pound hamburger.

All in all, we were well pleased with our visit to Steamboat Willie's.

P.S. There is a discount for senior citizens who visit Steamboat Willie's between the hours of 2 and 5 pm.

When mighty roast beef was the Englishman's food it ennobled our hearts, and enriched our blood, said Samuel Leveridge back in 1750, and he is right even to this day.

If you want to have an ennobled heart, go to the GOLDEN AGE, at 4545 W 95th Street for an enriching experience.

Dining out can be a terrific aid to the heart of anyone who has had to endure the blasts of winter, to say nothing of the snow, and Golden Age is the place for a slab of perfect roast beef, done as you like it, hot and hearty, and with a baked potato on the side, and a luscious crisp salad, who could ask for more?

You'll notice remodeling quietly going on, with rich new beauty in the banquet rooms and a new 24-hour coffee shop being added.

National Music Week at 218

Community High School District 218 will observe National Music in Our Schools Week, March 6-12, as the host of band and choral festivals for area elementary school students.

On Thursday, March 9, freshman choruses from Eisenhower, Richards and Shepard High Schools will join elementary school chorus members from Districts 125, 127, 127½, 130 and 132 for the Second Annual Eisenhower Cooperative Choral Festival at Richards Campus, 106th & Central.

One week later, on Thursday, March 16, freshman band members from Eisenhower-Old Main will join elementary school band members from Districts 127, 127½, 128, 130, 143 and 143½ for the Second Annual Eisenhower Cooperative Band Festival at Eisenhower Campus, 127th & Sacramento, Blue Island.

The 525 choral festival participants and the 400 band festival participants will have the opportunity to develop musical skills through their work with guest clinicians. Participating sixth, seventh and eighth grade students will also have the opportunity to explore music programs which will be available to them at the high school level in CHSD 218.

According to Don Miller, Music Supervisor for District 130 and coordinator of the two festivals, participating students will have the opportunity to work with the guest clinicians for three hours during the afternoon. Following their rehearsal, participants will enjoy their evening meal as well as a recreational hour featuring a sock hop and movies.

The highlight of the festivals will be the presentation of evening concerts which will be open to the public. The Second Annual Eisenhower Cooperative Choral Festival Concert will begin at 7:30 pm in the gym at Richards Campus. Festival participants will be joined in the performance by the members of the Richards High School Concert Choir under the direction of instructor Robert Guenzler and the Eisenhower High School Swing Choir under the direction of instructor James Mangrum. The Second Annual Eisenhower Cooperative Band Festival Concert will begin at 7:30 pm in the gym at Eisenhower Campus. Festival participants will be joined in the performance by the members of the Eisenhower High School Concert Band under the direction of instructor John Langfeld.

Tickets to the concerts are complimentary and are available through band and choral directors in participating districts.

For more information about the festivals, contact Don Miller, 385-6800.

ST LINUS HOSTS OPEN HOUSE

HLR speakers advance to sectional competition

Oak Lawn residents Stefanie Theodorou and Dan Krc achieved the District Level Championships in individual events with Stefanie capturing top honors in Dramatic Interpretation and Dan claiming top spot in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Fellow teammate Kim Pauly, also of Oak Lawn, was a double qualifier for Sectional Competition, capturing third place awards in both Verse Reading and Prose Reading.

Sectional Speech Competition was held February 11 at Oak Lawn High School with Sectional winners earning the right to advance to State Competition. The results have not come in to date.

In 1843, a schoolteacher in DeKalb County reported 20 children and 40 dogs in attendance.

MEMO FROM THE OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

FOR ST PATRICK'S DAY

In honor of St. Patrick's Day, the library will present two shows of Irish music and dancing. On March 12 at 2 pm Chris Henshaw, a folk singer from Dublin, will present a concert.

The Children's Department will sponsor the McNulty Children, dancing horn pipes, jigs, and reels on March 16 at 4:30 pm.

Henshaw, a singer and guitarist, concentrates on authentic Irish folk music and has appeared locally at several restaurants.

The McNulty Children, all six of them, are residents of Evergreen Park. They began dancing together in 1972 and competed in both the United States and Canada and have won 155 medals.

Both programs are free and will be held in the downstairs community room at the library.

LARGE PRINT WEEKLY AVAILABLE

The Oak Lawn Public Library now has the New York Times Large Print Weekly available in braille and disc form through a program sponsored jointly by the Library of Congress and the New York Times Corporation.

The large print weekly is available at the library and the braille and disc editions can be ordered through the Suburban Library System.

The Oak Lawn Library also offers circulating copies of the Reader's Digest and the Sunshine Magazine in large print. The book collection contains more than 400 selections of westerns, mysteries, cookbooks, fiction and non-fiction including the St James version of the Bible and a desk encyclopedia and dictionary.

Many best sellers are in the large print for[mat] such as Peter Benchley's "The Deep" a[nd] James Herriot's "All Things Bright and Beautiful."

AJAY AUTO LEASING

"FIRST" AUTO SHOW

The Audio-Visual Department of the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street has prepared a continuous slide program of 77 different 1978 automobile models, which can be seen, on a new Super-Scene projection screen, in the bank's lobby. Color pictures offer a preview of the cars that can be currently seen at the Auto Show, in McCormick Place thru March 5.

Officers of the First National loan department will be happy to discuss car interests and explain how many of the brand new 1978 models can be financed for less than $100 a month with the new extended loan payment plans.

Two from Oak Lawn serve on CATA board

The Chicago Automobile Trade Association (CATA) sponsors of the annual Chicago Auto Show, is one of the largest automotive associations in the United States and the oldest. It was originally chartered by the state of Illinois in 1904.

A Northwestern university graduate, Rick has been in the automobile business for more than 25 years and president of his dealership since 1967.

He is a member of the Secretary of State's dealer advisory board and a past president of the Chicagoland Volkswagon Dealers Association.

Rick has been a member of the CATA board of directors for seven years and prior to being elected vice president last spring, served terms as secretary and treasurer. He is also a member of the executive show committee which has planned and is directing the auto show.

Louis J. Kole, president of Kole Pontiac, 9301 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, has been a member of the association board of directors for eight years.

He recently became the first Chicago area man to be elected chairman of the National Pontiac Dealer Council. Kole graduated from Morgan Park Military Academy in 1948 and received his bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Northwestern University in 1952. He has been a Pontiac dealer at the Oak Lawn location for the past 19 years.

As a CATA board member he has served on numerous committees and currently is chairman of the Better Business Bureau committee. He has also served on the show committee.

Kole is a member of the Oak Lawn Planning and Developing Commission; Kiwanis Club and the Pilgrim Faith United Church of Christ.

Chamber sponsors Career Day at Simmons Jr. H S

When is someone going to start teaching our students about "Free Enterprise?" Today's young citizens are highly exposed to the economic and social environment in which they live. They read and hear about the struggle for higher wages and increased profits. They are confronted with public pronouncements of disastrous recession or impending inflation as evidenced from news media reports of changes in the cost of living, the stock market, gross national product and unemployment levels. They are concerned as to how all this helps or hinders then and their families from improving their own economic status - which is the keystone of our economic system.

Schools have an important job in the preparation of young citizens for economically productive careers. They need and want the assistance of business, in fact the entire community; to provide economic resource materials, personnel and other support services.

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, together with a group of local businessmen and women, and Dan Burke, Principal of Simmons Junior High School, Oak Lawn, have already taken action on teaching our students about "Free Enterprise" by conducting a "Career Day" Program with the students of Simmons Junior High School, which was held Friday, February 24 and there were in excess of 300 students in attendance.

The panel was made up of businessmen and women of Oak Lawn who were very enthusiastically receptive to appearing before this group of students and took an active part in talking about their various businesses and answering questions from the students, in an effort to teach our students all about "Free Enterprise."

The questions asked by the students were a credit to either our youths of today or to the teachers of Simmons school. Some that were asked of the various businessmen were:

How do you feel about a K-Mart building across the street from you?

How many years of college do you need to go into business?

How much would a house cost me in the future?

How much charge for a collect call?

Have you ever had to decide on a car salesman between a man or woman?

Do you think by 1980 we will have picture phones?

If you had on your desk two applications, one from high school and one from college, which would you choose?

There were many more and all were excellent.

Fire department stresses importance of smoke alarms

The Oak Lawn Fire Dept Bureau of Fire Prevention encourages every homeowner to install at least one smoke detector on every level of their home. The Bureau also provides a "Smoke Detector Awareness" program to all groups within the village limits.

Just recently a smoke alarm was credited with saving the lives of the Lester Gage family of 8804 Sprout, when their house caught fire early last Wednesday morning.

It was a little past midnight Tuesday when the Gage family retired for the evening. About an hour later a fire started. Within minutes a smoke detector alarm sounded waking Mrs Gage, alerting her of a fire.

After investigating the reason for the alarm and seeing visible fire in the kitchen she alerted the rest of her family. By then the smoke was so thick that they had to crawl to safety. The entire house was damaged by smoke from a small fire.

Lieutenant Moran who was the officer in charge at the fire stated the fire was started by a overheated electric motor at the base of the refrigerator which ignited the kitchen carpet. He also stated that there was a tremendous amount of smoke created by the burning foam carpet and that the smoke detector definitely saved the Gage family's lives.

If your group is interested in the "Smoke Detector Awareness" program, contact Lieutenant Murray at 422-0388.

Stancik asks sale control of dope related supplies

Trustee Ron Stancik has been concerned over the display and sale of drug paraphernalia in various stores within the village. Stancik said it was sold mostly in musical stores that attract our young people and he believed the allowance of the displays may be taken by them as normal and condoned.

Stancik asked that the village attorney Pat Lucansky be directed to draw up an ordinance restricting the sale of these items to youths under the age of 18. He said that his intent was not to interfere with legitimate businesses. He asked for board support on this before the close of the meeting.

Stancik received a "second" immediately and a unanimous vote by the board for Lucansky to draw up the ordinance.

In other matters of importance Trustee Joe Vogrich has asked for a special meeting within the next two weeks to discuss the Senior Citizen Council and Commissioners. Vogrich has consistently voted against their applications for federal funds which he said would subject the village and the senior center to the laws included with the use of these funds. Vogrich also said that he believed the council was entering into areas and services that was not the intent of the board. He said that the original thought was for recreational purposes only.

Worth Twsp Spelling Bee Winners

Winners of Worth Township's first annual Spelling Bee have been announced. Finalists from schools thruout Worth Township competed before an audience of over six hundred to vie for honor placements. Winners in the Fifth-Sixth Grade Division include: Michael McKinney, Sward School - 1st place; Danny Goelz, Chippewa School - 2nd place; Timmy Huang, Chippewa School - 3rd place. Winners in the Junior High School Section include: Sheri Loeper, Prairie Junior High School - 1st place; Mary Kooy, Chicago Southwest Christian Junior High School - 2nd place; and Cathy Amana, St Alexander - 3rd place.

Each contestant who competed for trophy honors received a Certificate of Merit for participation in the event. Youth Commissioner Lenon Wisdom expressed a view that at next year's competition, larger facilities would have to be obtained and said that he felt a high school would better accommodate the large response from area citizens.

In welcoming the large audience, Joseph J. McCarthy, Worth Township Supervisor stated, "It is very comfortable for me to get back into an educational setting thru this Spelling Bee." Supervisor McCarthy had resigned his position as Principal of Canterbury Junior High School shortly after his election to the position of Worth Township Supervisor. He stated further, "It is a pleasure to reward students who exhibit such academic excellence as we have seen in this Spelling Bee and hope that they will return to claim future honors."

Trustee John McNamara, Liaison Officer for the Worth Township Youth Commission, said that students from all public and parochial/private schools in Worth Township had been invited to compete in the Spelling Bee.

Antique & Art Fair planned

Chairman of the Village of Oak Lawn Parade and Special Events Commission, Miit Andersen, has announced the commission will sponsor an Antique and Art Fair to be held Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21 at Oak Lawn Community High School.

Pay Hayden has been appointed Chairman of the Antique and Art Fair and is currently encouraging members of the community to exhibit their art at the show. Call 422-4500 for further information.

From early responses, it promises to be a very successful affair - mark your calendars!

Oak Lawn family needs your help

Many of you know Jim and June Williamson and their five children. On August 1, 1977 Jim suffered a severe stroke and has since been in hospitals receiving rehabilitation and extensive treatment and tests since that time.

Jim has given unselfishly of his time and endless energy to church activities, local basketball, coached, umpired and was an officer in OLBB for the past ten years, and has given to many civic activities in the past. This is your opportunity to reciprocate by all joining together and supporting Jim and his family in a combined effort.

Jim's source of income has stopped, and he will never work again.

Your contribution should be made payable to The Jim Williamson Benefit Fund, and sent to any of the following: Carol Ozark, 10629 Kenton, John Hardek, 9732 Tripp or Janet Swanson, 10416 Kildare, of Oak Lawn, 60453.

Johnston deals in volcanoes

Washington U has granted a Ph. D. to David A. Johnston, son of Mr and Mrs Thomas C. Johnston, 4709 W. 103rd Street, Oak Lawn.

Dr Johnston is a geophysicist specializing in volcanoes. His doctoral dissertation was based on the two 1976 eruptions of Mt Saint Augustine, an inhospitable heap of rock which juts out of the Gulf of Alaska near the inlet to Anchorage.

In 1975, Johnston was a part of a team which studied Augustine as a possible source of geothermal energy. Later, when the long-quiet volcano erupted, he was among the geologists called to the scene and was the first person to climb to the newly formed summit.

losing a contact lens in a 60-mph Alaskan blizzard, then finding it again by melting down some 30 bushels of snow, and being trapped on the volcano when a blizzard prevented the takeoff of his team's two light helicopters. The seven-man team was flown out by a larger Army helicopter just hours before the second eruption.

Johnston graduated from McDonald elementary and Richards High schools in Oak Lawn, and received his bachelor's degree "with highest honors and with distinction in geology" in 1971 from the University of Illinois at Urbana.

While still in high school, he worked as a newspaper photographer and won a special merit award from Iowa U for a picture published locally.

Bit o' Trivia

Roller skating took the fancy of so many in the 1880's that magnificent rinks were built and the sport was proclaimed in an editorial to be "more popular than ballroom dancing. . .It is the proper amusement of our intellectual and social century."

MC ELROY MODERATES SEMINAR

Ed Mc Elroy, WJJD Radio (l), Commander William Woods of the Chicago Lawn Police District and Matt Lamb (r), president of the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes in Chicago and surrounding suburban areas, met recently at the newest Blake-Lamb funeral home at 1035 N Dearborn Street in Chicago. In their hands is a copy of the National Funeral Directors Magazine which highly complimented Matt and Dick Lamb.

The compliments were much in order because of a recent Educational Seminar called "Crisis Intervention." They sponsored a capacity crowd of city and suburban fire depts, paramedics, training personnel, homicide division, youth division, beat patrolmen, officers and even the department chaplain were participants.

Ed Mc Elroy, director of special events for WJJD radio was the moderator of the seminar that featured Dr Robert Slater, director of the Dept of Mortuary Science at the University of Minnesota and Rev Paul Iron, professor of Pastoral Theology at the Theological Seminary in Lancaster, Penn.

Huskey senior booklet available now

State Representative Herb Huskey's (R-8) revised senior citizen directory is now available. His original booklet was published in 1975.

This new guide, Senior Update, features a listing of federal and state senior benefits, governmental service agencies and local clubs. Information about the legislative process is also given.

"Last summer Moraine Valley Community College published a very comprehensive Senior Citizen Resource Directory to assist senior residents of suburban Cook County," Huskey stated. "My booklet is designed to supplement that publication by updating some information, and expanding on many of the federal and state agencies serving the eighth legislative district.

"I hope that area seniors will find this material both helpful and informative," he said.

Copies of the revised guide are available without charge on a first come, first serve basis by contacting Huskey's district office, 6201 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn. Phone 424-5000. Additional information about the circuit breaker and other state tax exemptions is also available there.

Three gridders win scholarship

H.L. Richards High School Head Football Coach Gary Korhonen has announced that three HLR gridders have signed NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Assn) letters of intent which entitle them to full four-year football scholarships.

HLR gridders awarded full scholarships include running back Dennis Bardwell of Robbins, who will attend Northeastern Missouri State U; quarterback Paul Marszalek of Oak Lawn, who will attend Western Illinois U; and tackle Rich Galik of Oak Lawn, who will also attend Northeast Missouri State U.

According to Coach Korhonen, 12 HLR football players are still in the process of finalizing full or partial scholarship awards.

Huskey opposed to pay increase for state officials

State Representative Herb Huskey is opposed to any pay increase for state officials.

A special salary commission appointed by Governor Jim Thompson recently proposed that pay for state senators and representatives be raised from $20,000 to $30,000 annually. The $12,000 which they are currentiy alloted for office expenses each year would be continued.

Commission members also suggested that the governor receive a $25,000 pay boost to $75,000, giving him the same salary as the vice president of the United States. Salaries for lieutenant governor would go from $37,500 to $55,000, secretary of state and attorney general from $42,500 to $65,000, and state comptroller and treasurer from $40,000 to $55,000.

The directors of the departments of public aid, public health, transportation and mental health would get a $16,000 increase to $60,000 a year. Salary adjustments for state judges were also recommended.

"These proposals are both ridiculous and unnecessary," Huskey stated. "In the last seven years legislative salaries have gone from $12,000 a year in 1970 to the present $20,000. In addition, generous expense allowances have been added.

"It is totally wrong to ask taxpayers for more money at a time when Illinois' budget is barely in the black, when the school aid formula remains shy of full funding by the state, and when government should be taking steps that will improve our business and overall economy," he said.

"Some supporters of these pay hikes contend that elected officials deserve them because they work hard," Huskey noted, "but that's what they're supposed to do regardless of their salary.

"It doesn't make one bit of sense to cause a possible tax increase just so these unaffordable ideas can be enacted," he stated. "State officials should be working to curb inflation, not cause it."

Huskey is also urging area residents to contact Governor Thompson about the salary recommendations. He can be reached at the State Capitol Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

No legislation which would enact the salary increases has been filed in the Illinois House at this time.

RIZZI SPEAKS AT KIWANIS

Judge Dom J. Rizzi of the Circuit Court of Cook County was the honored guest speaker at the recent Oak Lawn Kiwanis luncheon. His topic was "The Judicial System As It Is Today".

Last year Judge Rizzi was appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to his present position as a Circuit Court Judge. Rizzi is a truly merit candidate receiving the highest score for the Appellate Court. He received a remarkable 94%. He was highly recommended by the Chicago Bar Association Committee on Evaluation of candidates.

Klein rejects 50% pay hike for legislators

Carl L. Klein, Jr., candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative in the 8th distirct, has announced his opposition to the proposed 50% increase in salary for legislators and various state officials.

Klein was quoted as saying: "While an increase of some sort is apparently justified, an increase of 50% is uncalled for and should be rejected. With the many demands presently being made for state funds, an increase of this magnitude should not even be considered. I do not believe that the residents of the 8th district, and the State of Illinois, will, or should, sit still and allow such an increase to be approved. There isn't one single worker in this state that could expect such an increase and I don't believe that legislators or state employees should expect one either."

Klein further stated that any raises for legislators or state officials should be limited to a maximum of 10% at this time.

Red Cross is counting on you.

ARTISTIC IMPRESSIONS OF SOUTHWEST COMMUNITIES AT FIRST NATIONAL

Howard Casey, of Oak Lawn, is the current exhibitor of watercolor art, at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. His nostalgic paintings of Pullman, Beverly, Evergreen, Orland Park, Midlothian, and other historic landmarks have become well known for the past 15 years of participation in leading Art Fairs.

Eighteen years ago he did his first watercolor of a Beverly Home as a gift for a friend. That led to a painting of a house across the street, to the house on the corner, and so on!

Today several hundred of these paintings grace the walls of homes in the southwest suburbs. Over 35 of Mr Casey's artistic impressions, of the past and present, can be appreciated, at the First National, through March 31.

Connors praises deputies for awareness in lost tax bills

William Connors, Worth Township Assessor, praised his two deputies, Charlene Smith and Eileen Kerkstra, for their efforts in averting a catastrophe. He said because of their intuitiveness it was discovered that real estate tax bills were missing from homeowners in Worth Township.

Connors said, "Miss Smith and Mrs Kerkstra were able to recognize on the basis of only 50 to 75 telephone calls that a tax disaster was in the making. They alerted me to the problem in time for me to contact the County Treasurer's office."

Connors added, "News releases were sent out in the hopes that taxpayers would be alerted. We wanted people to know they should have received their tax bills and if they hadn't they would have to call the County Treasurer's office for a duplicate bill to be mailed out."

Connors went on to say that after the public became aware they should have received their tax bills, his office and the County Treasurer's office were inundated with telephone calls.

Connors said, "It was Charlene Smith and Eileen Kerkstra who manned those telephones at the Township office and because of their efforts and the cooperation of the County Treasurer's office thousands of Worth Township taxpayers were aided. The taxpayer was able to receive a duplicate real estate tax bill before the penalty date went into effect."

Russo ask Congress to expand student aid

In response to President Carter's recent request that Congress expand student-aid programs, a bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives that would provide more assistance to students form middle-income families.

Congressman Marty Russo a co-sponsor of the bill, said "This is something we ought to do to help middle-income families who bear the burden of taxation."

Russo explained that the Middle Income Student Assistance Act (HR 10854) guarantees minimum grants of $250 to all students from families with incomes of up to $25,000. He said this would include about 75% of all families with college-aged students.

The legislation also would make more students eligible for educational grants. In addition, incentives will be included to encourage more banks and lending institutions to make available the Guaranteed Student Loan Program.

Russo said the Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education is scheduling prompt hearings on HR 10854, and he expects early floor action.

Things to wonder about

The subject of pay raises for state legislators should be decided upon, but not voted on, before we go to the polls to vote for any candidate. At least this would give us the opportunity to go all out for the representative that has promised to vote against the 50% raise recently proposed.

A state representative now gets $20,000 a year, plus $10,000 for extraordinary expenses, plus $36 per diem (to be explained) plus traveling expense back and forth from Springfield. Now it has been suggested that the $20,000 figure be raised to $30,000 a year plus the extras and you and I are paying the bills. We may read or hear statements like this, deplore it, but do nothing about it. But next year when our taxes are raised we cry about it -- too late.

Complete disregard for the taxpayers dollar has already far exceeded any raise justification. A happening just recently, and using events that the public was aware of, is a clear and simple example of the abuse of the money we pay the state to avoid just such abuses.

On Wednesday, March 1, State Representative Jane Barnes appeared as a model in a fashion luncheon at the Condesa del Mar that took place between the hours of 11:30 am and 3:30 pm. Late that same evening Ms Barnes appeared before the Oak Lawn Business and Professional Women to speak and explain her vote on ERA. During her talk she mentioned the fashion show earlier and went on to say that she had later flown to Springfield and had now just returned, which was her reason for being late. Ms Barnes did not attempt to cover up her moves of the day. The problem then lies with us, as lay people, who are easily deceived by omissions and our ignorance of the laws.

In Springfield on Wednesday, March 1, 1978 the first order of the day took place at 1 pm when the House roll call was taken. Jane Barnes appears as "present" on the call and for this she receives her $36 (per diem) for that day. It can only be assumed that someone there answered her call. The "present" notation also allows her to claim traveling time for that day.

This transgression was magnified a short while later when House Bill 2435 (of which VILLAGE VIEW has a copy) was voted upon and the record shows that Ms Barnes voted "present" which constitutes a "yes" vote. This vote took place after 1 pm and before 4 pm at the close of the session and for Ms Barnes was a physical impossibility.

Another wonderment then is the reason for the later flight to and back from Springfield when the session was over for the day.

Very often in campaign speeches and literature the attendance record, either good or bad as needs be, is either attacked or extolled by the candidate. In a case such as this the attendance percentage record would be increased when in fact it should be lowered.

There are only 70 days in a year that the House is in session. This amounts to about two months and 10 days out of 365 days during the year. $20,000, plus all the extras, is good pay for less than ¼ of a year's work in Springfield.

What do you think?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS AND BEST WISHES FROM SIMMONS SCHOOL

Please accept our thanks for your participation in our recent career day.

The students enjoyed and appreciated your interest as well as your informative message. Business people like yourself are an asset to our community; you have shown our students much by your example.

Chief Harker announces babysitting course available

The Oak Lawn Fire Department will conduct a free baby sitting course beginning Thursday, April 6 thru Thursday, May 11 from 7 to 8:30 pm each Thursday night. Classes will be held at the Oak Lawn Church of the Nazarene, 6343 W 90th Place, and will be open to all Oak Lawn residents twelve (12) years and older, Fire Chief Elmore Harker announced.

The purpose of the course is to instruct students in the handling of emergencies and to insure Oak Lawn parents that their children are being taken care of by a qualified and competent individual.

The six (6) week course will be conducted by Fire Department Lieutenant Ron Murray, head of the Fire Prevention Bureau.

The first session, April 6th will be an orientation program by Chief Harker and Lt Murray. Subjects covered will be "Why we are here", "When to call the Fire Department", "How to call the Fire Department" and a movie "Have a wonderful evening".

Session two, April 13th, will be "Common emergencies", burns, poison, bleeding, shock etc. conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics and the "Parents viewpoint" of good and bad babysitters such as use of the refrigerator, TV, telephone, wages, conducted by Mrs Ron Johnson.

Session three, April 20th, the movie "The new pulse of life" and C.P.R. technique using "Resusi Annie" and "Baby Arnie" conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics.

Session four, April 27th, will be "How to entertain children". "The nurses view" care and feeding, handling and bathing of the baby conducted by the pediatrics department of Christ Hospital.

Session five, May 4, conducted by Sergeant Macke will cover the safety to and from sitting jobs, prowlers and phone pranks. (Written test)

Session six, May 11, conducted by Chief Harker and Lt Murray will review the written test, present awards and baby sitting kits.

If you are interested in this course, apply at the McCastland Fire Station, 103rd & Kostner. The course is limited to 75 students, so early registration is encouraged.

EASTER GREETINGS

May His Holy Message guide you to inner harmony and contentment, faith and hope.

Primary '78

We have a very quiet primary coming up on Tuesday, March 21, but this does not necessarily mean that it is less important to the voters of the 8th District.

Many seats in this election are uncontested with only one candidate on either the Republican or Democratic ticket in the race. VILLAGE VIEW has chosen not to confuse the issue by naming the persons with no contest in the primary, there will be time enough in the fall.

The race that does need watching is that of the Republican Committeeman. This is a "one time" only and is decided in the primary - it does not repeat itself in November. The outcome rests solely with the Republicans and will tend to show whether the strength lies within the Regular Organization or with the splinter group.

There are only two candidates in the race.

HERB HUSEKY is the endorsed party candidate chosen by the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization and is being challenged by JANE BARNES. Both are from Oak Lawn.

For State Representative in the 8th District we have a three way contest for the two Republican seats. State Representatives JANE BARNES and HERB HUSKEY are running for re-electoon with CARL L. KLEIN, JR., the challenger for one of the two seats. HUSKEY and KLEIN are the endorsed Republican candidates. All are from Oak Lawn.

In the 3rd District we have John J. Hardek, running against William F. Scannell of Calumet City for Republican state central committeeman. Hardek lives in Oak Lawn and has been a member of the Oak Lawn Board of Trustees since 1973.

Another race that affects us locally is that of RONALD LARSON who is running for re-election as a member of the Cook County Board of Commissioners. There are six suburban seats open with seven candidates. Although there are not enough suburban seats on this powerful board to make waves it is certainly wise to have representation, if only in a watch-dog capacity, to keep us informed of what is taking place. This is the only position LARSON holds at this time and enables him to devote much time to that office. It is also well to remember that he is the only candidate south of 39th Street in the surrounding suburban areas. LARSON is an incumbent and has been endorsed by the Central Committee.

For Cook County Sheriff the battle is between the Republican nominated candidate LOUIS KASPER who is being challenged by DONALD MULACK.

Other offices where there are challengers in both the Republican and Democratic parties are for state treasurer and comptroller.

On the Republican side the battle is between State Senator BRADLEY GLASS from Northfield and JAMES SKELTON, GOP chairman in Champaign County for the treasurer spot. On the Democratic side JEROME COSENTINO, member of the Metropolitan Sanitary District is the endorsed candidate. He is being challenged by NINA SHEPHERD, trustee at Illinois University.

For comptroller on the GOP it's JOHN CASTLE running against W. ROBERT BLAIR, former Illinois House speaker. For the Dem's it's State Representative RICHARD LUFT of Pekin against RONALD BURRIS from Chicago, who is the endorsed candidate.

If you like someone in any of the above contested races VOTE in the primary -- November may be too late!

Local men in Air Force

Mike Ryan, son of Mr & Mrs Pat & Renate Ryan of Oak Lawn and Terry Hoffman, son of Mr & Mrs Clarence Hoffman of Hometown, have enlisted in the U.S. Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program according to Staff Sergeant Terry Colt, Air Force Recruiter, Oak Lawn.

Mike attended the Computer Learning Center in Fairfax, Va. and was scheduled for enlistment in the Regular Air Force on February 21, 1978. Upon graduation from the Air Force's six-week basic training course he will receive technical training in the Mechanical Aptitude Area.

Terry attended Oak Lawn Community High School and is scheduled for enlistment on August 3, 1978. Upon graduation he will receive technical training as a Avionic Navigation Systems Specialist.

Both Mike and Terry will be earning credits toward an Associate Degree through the Community College of The Air Force while attending Basic training as well as other Air Force technical training and schools.

Senior citizens Lay Advocate Program

A Lay Advocate Program has been initiated in Oak Lawn. Mrs Alberta Kenelpp and Edward Ryan have been specially trained to service problems of seniors in the following areas: Consumer Protection - Warranties, Food Stamps, Hospital Bill of Rights, Income Tax, Medicare - Medicaid, Social Security, Tenant Problems, and Veterans Benefits.

This special service is available Wednesday mornings from 9 am to 12 noon at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street. This service is offered free of charge and appointments are not necessary.

Russo endorses Cosentino

Congressman Marty Russo pictured above with Jerry Cosentino, Democratic candidate for the position of State Treasurer is seen at a local Democratic fund raiser, where he announced that he is giving his full endorsement to Jerry Cosentino, a very capable man for job of State Treasurer.

After returning home Friday from a successful campaign tour of [illegible] Illinois, Jerry Cosentino hit the campaign trail again, attending the Leydon Township Dinner Dance honoring James Kirie. Cosentino was introduced by Joseph Nezda and he received a large round of applause when he stated, "State funds should be invested to produce maximum interest yields and also help stimulate economic growth in local communities, but no bank would receive funds if it practiced red-lining."

From Leydon he went on to a reception for Mayor Raday of Midlothian which was held at the Lexington House, and on from there to the Calumet Township Organization Dinner Dance where he was introduced by Lawrence Petta, Committeeman, who assured Cosentino that he had the support of Calumet Township.

PTA LIFE MEMBERSHIPS AWARDED

At the recent Founders Day Meeting of the Brandt School PTA, Oak Lawn, two PTA Life Memberships were awarded. Pictured (l to r) are President Pat Stancik and recipients, Aillene Hoger and Darla McGrail. These awards are given for exceptional service to PTA, to children of Brandt School and to all children.

Aillene has been a member of the Brandt PTA Board for ten years and was instrumental in initiating the Picture Lady Program at Brandt School. Darla has served on the Brandt Board for eight years as Hospitality Chairman and recently as Room Rep Chairman, in addition to many extra services over the years. Both have been involved in the scout programs at the school.

Have breakfast with the HLR Leo Club March 18th

Pancakes and sausages hot from the griddle will be served up by members of the HL Richards Leo Club from 7:30 am to 2:30 pm on Saturday, March 18 at Richards Campus, 106th & Central Ave.

Leo Club members will offer this delicious breakfast treat for $1.75 per adult. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted for $1.25. Beverages including orange juice, milk and coffee will be available.

Proceeds from the Pancake Breakfast will be used by the Leo Club to help finance its many community service projects benefitting the needy, the blind, special education students and senior citizens. Some of the club's many projects include Valentine's and Easter parties for senior citizens, a circus outing for special education students and the blind, and distribution of baskets to needy.

FISH & SHELLFISH

At the time Tara and Twleve Oaks were at their height, one had to go to New Orleans or some other seaport town, where the hucksters peddled their seafoods throughout the streets–or depend on the day's catch of fresh water fish from the local rivers and streams. Now, however, it is easy to enjoy broiled oysters on the half shell, savory scalloped oysters, or frog legs, and the other specialties of that day even though we may live hundreds of miles away from the sea.

BAKED HADDOCK WITH CELERY DRESSING

1½ to 2 pounds filet of haddock
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup chopped celery stalks and leaves
1/3 cup chopped onion
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/3 cup chopped parsley
1 cup soft bread crumbs
½ teaspoon sage
Hot water
¼ cup dry bread crumbs
Paprika

Arrange half of filets in greased shallow pan; sprinkle with salt, pepper and lemon juice. For dressing, mix together celery, onion, and butter or margarine, and heat to melt butter. Remove from heat, and add parsley, crumbs and sage. Toss to mix well; add just enough hot water to moisten slightly. Spread dressing over the fish already arranged in the pan, and cover with remaining filets. Sprinkle tops with salt, pepper, dry crumbs, and paprika. Pour ¼ cup hot water into baking dish, and bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

PONT OF NORTHWESTERN SPEAKS

Thanks to Judge Bob Mackey and Sheriff Elrod, both former fine athletes at Northwestern, John Pont, Athletic Director of Northwestern was able to speak at the Medinah Temple bi-monthly luncheon meeting at the famed Medinah Temple.

Judge Mackey is a past president of the N Men's Club at Northwestern where he lettered in baseball and swimming. He is now an Associate Judge and a candidate for a full Circuit Court Judgeship.

Every traveler wants to know. . .what shall I wear here, there and everywhere. The answer: Save this column and take it with you for your trip to:

LONDON – The general trend of dress here is informal. Sportswear is acceptable during the evening only in lower-priced restaurants and discotheques. In some hotel, restaurants and clubs, tie and jackets are mandatory, and blazers may be worn in place of suits.

PARIS – The trend is toward formal for evening. The white turtleneck as a substitute for the shirt and tie is being worn in a few places. Sportswear is being worn in the evening except in the casual clubs. Men generally wear suits but blazers are all right.

ROME – Sportswear is accepted in the evening only in resort places such as nightclubs on the beaches. Tie and jackets are mandatory at receptions and at dinner, but dark blazers are acceptable.

So do your wardrobe shopping after you have made plans with us. Look for more columns in the coming weeks for dress suggestions in all parts of the world. Meantime look to our office for all information on travel to all parts of the world. Because you don't have to be bothered with the little tense-making details, you can start to relax as soon as your vacation begins. Come in and let us show you new and exciting places to go on your great vacation. We are happy to help. Our address is 5615 W. 95th Street.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Wedding bells will ring for MATT LAMB, JR. in April and parents MATT & ROSE LAMB are very excited over the happy event . . . . . .

Do you think you will ever be 22 and have MOHAMMED ALI sing "Happy Birthday" to you? This is exactly what happened to EDDIE MC ELROY, JR. last week when both he and the famous boxer were attending a dinner for JUDGE ROBERT MACKEY . . . . . .

Congratulations to LAWRENCE H. BRAGG, who received his associate in arts degree, with honors, from Moraine Valley Community College. Lawrence, a 1974 graduate of Oak Lawn Community High School is Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 442, sponsored by Brandt PTA, and is currently employed at American Banknote in Clearing. . . . . .

Excitement knew no bounds when RAY BLISS, engineering consultant to the village, won the beautiful Model T Ford at the raffle drawing during the BIG WHEEL BENEFIT BALL, couldn't have happened to a nicer guy. The car had been donated by the OAK LAWN TRUST & SAVINGS BANK . . . . . .

Speaking of events – all fathers should call the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, 424-8300, and get tickets for the Chicago Bears – Businessmen basketball game April 7. Not only real good fund but for a real good cause . . . . . .

MAYOR ERNIE KOLB, and first lady PEGGY, just returned from Florida. Ernie said it was cold and the sun didn't shine until the day they were leaving . . . . . .

MONICA & CARL VENKUS and BARBARA & JERRY EASTMAN just came back from California with mud on their shoes. The men, who went to golf and usually chase the balls, were chased all over the south by the rains . . . . .

At least those of us who couldn't get away had one consolation – we knew what we had here – SNOW, COLD, RAIN, SLEET, ICE and just pure all out misery. Keep up the faith – SPRING and the PRIMARY are just around the corner. VOTE, TUESDAY, MARCH 21. . . . . .

Nanette Fabray, star of theatre, television and motion pictures, will star in Neil Simon's comedy "The Last of the Red Hot Lovers" opening Thursday, March 23 and running thru Sunday, May 14 at Drury Lane South Theatre in Evergreen Park.

Chicago actor Wally Engelhardt will play the tireless and romantically inclined lover in the three act play which will preview on March 21 and 22.

Vernon Schwartz, resident director for Drury Lane South Theatre, will direct the two character play.

"The Last of the Red Hot Lovers" is a comedy about an older married man who attempts to romance a girl in each of the three acts of Simon's comedy.

Reservations may be made by calling the box office, 779-4000 or 422-8000, Ticketron, by mail order with self-addressed and stamped envelope or in person at the Drury Lane South box office, 2500 West 94th Place.

Medical Assistants group seeks members

The Southwest Suburban Chapter of the American Assn of Medical Assistants (AAMA) held their monthly meeting recently at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn.

Guest speakers for the evening were Henry Pietrzak, community health consultant for the Chicago Lung Assn, and Raymond Kalinsky, director of the respiratory dept at Little Company of Mary Hospital. The title of their lecture was "Smoking, Pollution and your Respiratory System."

The Medical Assistants Assn is currently involved in recruiting new members into the organization. Meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at the Oak Lawn Hoilday Inn starting with dinner at 7 pm and guest speakers to follow at 8 pm.

Any person is eligible for membership who is employed by a physician, hospital, clinic or schooi as either a doctor's assistant, medical secretary, nurse, technician, bookkeeper, receptionist, librarian, etc. Anyone who falls under this category and would like further information regarding prospective membership, contact Betty Carsten at 423-2795.

Mc Carthy names employee of the month

Joseph J. McCarthy, Worth Township Supervisor, and the Worth Township Board of Trustees, have named Mrs Barbara Grossart as the township's Employee of the Month. Mrs Grossart has been an empioyee of Worth Township since October, 1973, when she brought a wide background of bookkeeping skills to her appointment. Previously, she had worked in this capacity at both the Evergreen Savings and Loan and the Beverly Bank. She has been a working professional in the bookeeping/accounting fieid for over 10 years with extensive college coursework in this area.

In addition to her professional skills and activities, Mrs Grossart is very active in the Women of the Church at Trinity Lutheran Church in Oak Lawn where she serves as Treasurer to the American Lutheran Church Women at Trinity. She has also been active in Girl Scouts while serving as Assistant Troop Leader to the troop sponsored by Trinity Lutheran Church.

Supervisor McCarthy, in naming Mrs Grossart as Employee of the Month said, "Mrs Grossart's background in bookeeping procedures enables her to do a thorough job with her preparation of monthly auditing reports and her detailing of the Town Fund and Road and Bridge budgets. Additionally, she is presently working with our accounting firm on year-end reports. Her attentiveness to detail and thorough research enables her to provide concise and accurate statements for the Board of Trustees and myself so that we are up-do-date in our knowledge at all times."

WOMEN OF PILGRIM FAITH SPONSOR SPRING SERIES

The spring series of the third Sunday literary reviews will be sponsored by the Women's Guild of Pilgrim Faith United Church of Christ, 9411 S 51st Avenue, Oak Lawn, beginning on Sunday, March 19, 4 pm.

Herbert H. Duenow will present, "It Didn't Start With Watergate", by Victor Lasky. "Six Men", by Alistair Cooke, will be heard on April 16; and Gore Vidal's "Kalki", will be the May 21st selection. Literary programs are sponsored by the guild for the public of all faiths with no admission charge.

TRINITY EVANGELICAL COVENANT CHURCH EVENTS

A ten-episode documentary film "How Should We Then Live" will begin on Sunday, March 19 at Trinity Evangelical Covenant Church, 9230 Pulaski, Oak Lawn, at 9:30 am. ALL are welcome.

Written and narrated by Dr Francis Schaeffer, the films (series of 10) trace the rise and decline of western thought and culture. Shot in some 100 locations in 12 countries, the project took two years to complete at a cost of $1.1 million. Each of the 30-minute films focuses on a major historical age, beginning with the Fall of Rome up to the present day which he calls, The Age of Personal Peace and Affluence. In the final film, he reviews the last two decades and concludes that man's only hope is a return to truth as revealed in Jesus Christ through the Scriptures. This film series is non-denominational and the public is cordially invited to attend. For more information call 422-5111.

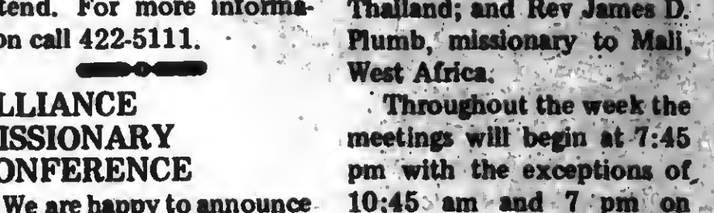
ALLIANCE MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

We are happy to announce that our annual Missionary Conference is scheduled for March 19 thru 26 at Southwest Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, 9535 Kildare Ave.

Three Alliance missionaries and their countries will be highlighted during the week: Rev Jake H. Hostetler, missionary to Colombia; Miss Ruth Patterson, missionary to Thailand; and Rev James D. Plumb, missionary to Mali, West Africa.

Throughout the week the meetings will begin at 7:45 pm with the exceptions of 10:45 am and 7 pm on Sundays, and also a Family Fellowship Dinner at the church at 6:30 pm on Monday, March 20. The Sunday services will be taped for broadcast on Moody Bible Institute Radio Station WMBI. Come and be with us every meeting you are able.

Park tiny tot sign-up



Registration for the Oak Lawn Park Distirct's pre-school and tiny tots programs will begin on March 20 for the six week session beginning April 17. Tiny tots for 3 year olds meets on Mondays and Wednesdays at the White Building at Lake Shore Park, with sessions from 9 to 11 am and 12 to 2 pm. Pre-school for 4 year olds meets at the same times on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The pre-school and tiny tots programs provide children with opportunities to interact with other children, learn basic social skills, and have fun. Pre-school is somewhat oriented toward preparing the child for kindergarten.

The registration fee for the six week session of pre-school or tiny tots is $20. Registrations will be accepted beginning March 20 at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton. Call 424-7300 for more information.

Halfway through the season the Oak Lawn High School Chess Team holds first place in the North division of SICA Conference with a 6-1 record. The only team loss so far was to Reavis who is currently in second place with two losses.

Leading the division in individual points is Paul Lundquist with 112. Paul is a freshman this year and has won all seven of his games. Following Paul in points are: Mike Domico - 86, Glenn Rosenberg - 75, Brian Smith - 62, and Dan Charleston - 47. The remaining full time players are Dave Meyer, Bruce Parson and Bill Bila.

There are six games left in the schedule and Oak Lawn has an excellent chance in winning the SICA North Division this year. The two previous years saw Oak Lawn finishing in third place. The Chess Team is coached by Bob Dominiak, Chairman of the Art Dept.

LCM TO OBSERVE NURSES WEEK

The week of March 12-18 has been proclaimed as Illinois Nurses Week for the contribution they have made during the past year to over 20,000 patients. The purpose of this observance is to pay tribute to the nursing profession and to encourage men and women to enter this profession.

OAK VIEW'S SIXTH GRADE SALUTES FEBRUARY

The Sixth Grade classes at Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W. 110th Street, Oak Lawn, presented a dramatic salute to the month of February. The 28 days of February were depicted by a "human calendar" which stood on the school's stage.

Twenty-eight students told of some special historical person or event which took place during the month of February. In addition a short Valentines Play was presented half-way through the classes recitations of February's dates.

"Oak View's Sixth Grade Teachers, Mrs. Florence Rohloff and Mrs. Ruth Toljanic are to be commended for their classes fine performance," said Oak View Principal George Kernwein.

A 1972 graduate of HL Richards High School was recently awarded a graduate fellowship award.

Chester Huber is one of five employees of the Electro-Motive Division of General Motors selected to participate in a graduate fellowship program. The program was designed to provide an opportunity for employees to acquire additional educational and academic experience and final selection is based upon both the employee's academic record and on-the-job performance.

Huber will study business administration at Harvard U.

According to HLR Counselor Angelo Lotito, Huber was an outstanding student while attending Richards High School and graduated as president of his class at the General Motors Institute.

PLOWS offers chore program for seniors

The PLOWS Council on Aging Chore Program is designed to provide assistance on an ongoing basis for senior citizens who are unable to do certain jobs in or out of the house, such as laundry and house-cleaning, as well as grocery shopping.

Upon requesting the service, the possible recipient is assessed to determine the quantity and type of tasks needed. A trained chore worker will then travel to the person's home and accomplish the tasks based on this assessment. In many cases, the chore service enables senior citizens to stay in their own homes and not be placed in institutions that may be outside of their communities.

Recipients of the PLOWS Chore Program have increased almost 200% since June 1977; however, it is believed many more seniors are in need of this kind of help, because they do not have family members to assist them.

Although no one is denied service because of financial limitation, seniors are asked to make an hourly contribution for this service based on their ability to pay. For more information on the PLOWS Chore Program call 422-6722 or 422-6769.

Nineteenth century home builders were advised, according to popular superstition, that construction should never begin on a Saturday, the frontyard gate should be no closer than 15 feet from the door, and a horseshoe ought to be placed in the chimney's brickwork to avoid bad luck.

MEMO FROM THE

"LET THERE BE MUSIC"

The library's feature film festival, Let There Be Music, will continue March 21 with the "Waitz King" at 7 pm in the downstairs community room.

The color film, starring Kerwin Matthews, Senta Berger and Brian Aherne, is the story of young Johann Strauss whose compelling desire to create beautiful music would not be thwarted by either adversity or parental opposition.

On April 18, "Song Without End", starring Dirk Bogarde and Genevieve Page, will be shown. This is the story of Franz Liszt, the colorful piano virtuoso and composer, whose compelling musical genius and magnetic personality swept all Europe before him.

"The Music Man," starring Robert Preston and Shirley Jones, will be shown May 16 bringing the lively music of Meredith Wilson to the screen. All showings are free.

UNIQUE DISPLAY AT LIBRARY

There are several unique displays now on view at the library. Two of the display cases are devoted to doll house miniatures that are handmade by two different Oak Lawn residents. A kitchen (circa 1930) done by Library staff member Noreen Anderson is on display on the second floor.

On the main floor Dorothy Von Stowver has two rooms of miniatures on display. One of the attractions Mrs Von Stowvery adds is a tiny family to go with the furniture and artifacts.

Also on the main floor is a 1910 Magic Lantern loaned by Frank Harker. With its tiny kerosene lamp and chimney it illuminates hand drawn glass slides against a wall. The magic lantern was the forerunner of today's modern movie projector.

Richards High School Debate Team, coached by Honor Thomas, has claimed its share of honors for the 1977-78 year in debate tournaments thruout the state. Perhaps the highlight of the season occurred in early February as HLR earned junior-varsity and novice championships in the SICA Conference Competition.

The team of Karen Golden and Jean Franczyk compiled a perfect 4-0 record earning the SICA Conference Junior-Varsity Championshp as the tourna- only undefeated addition, Jean was as the tournament's top speaker while teammate Karen was judged second speaker. Also on the junior-varsity level, HLR debater Amy Kozlowski was named fourth speaker while her partner Cathy Flynn was judged ninth speaker.

On the novice level, the team of DeeDee Chapman and Bob Bergquist compiled a 3-1 record to tie for the conference championshp at the SICA Conference Tournament. This season, her first competitive season, DeeDee has compiled an impressive 16-6 overall record.

Most recently, Amy Kozlowski and Cathy Flynn combined efforts to earn fifth place honors and a spot in quarter finals against some of the toughest debate teams in the state in competition at Bradley U, Peoria. Amy earned the distinction of being named as fifth speaker in a field of 44.

Earlier in the season, the team of Karen Golden and Jean Franczyk earned third place honors in competition at Belleville West High School. Jean further distinguished herself by being named as the tournament's top speaker.

At Oak Park-River Forest High School, HLR Debate Teams placed seventh and ninth, placing HLR second in a field of 29 high schools participating on the tournament. In addition to claiming a seventh place team finish, Amy Kozlowski was named second speaker and teammate Cathy Flynn was ranked 14th speaker in a field of 96 speakers. Karen Golden, a member of the ninth place team of Golden and Franczyk, ranked as seventh speaker at the tournament.

This year's topic of debate is "Resolved: that the United States government should provide comprehensive medical care for all citizens in the United States."

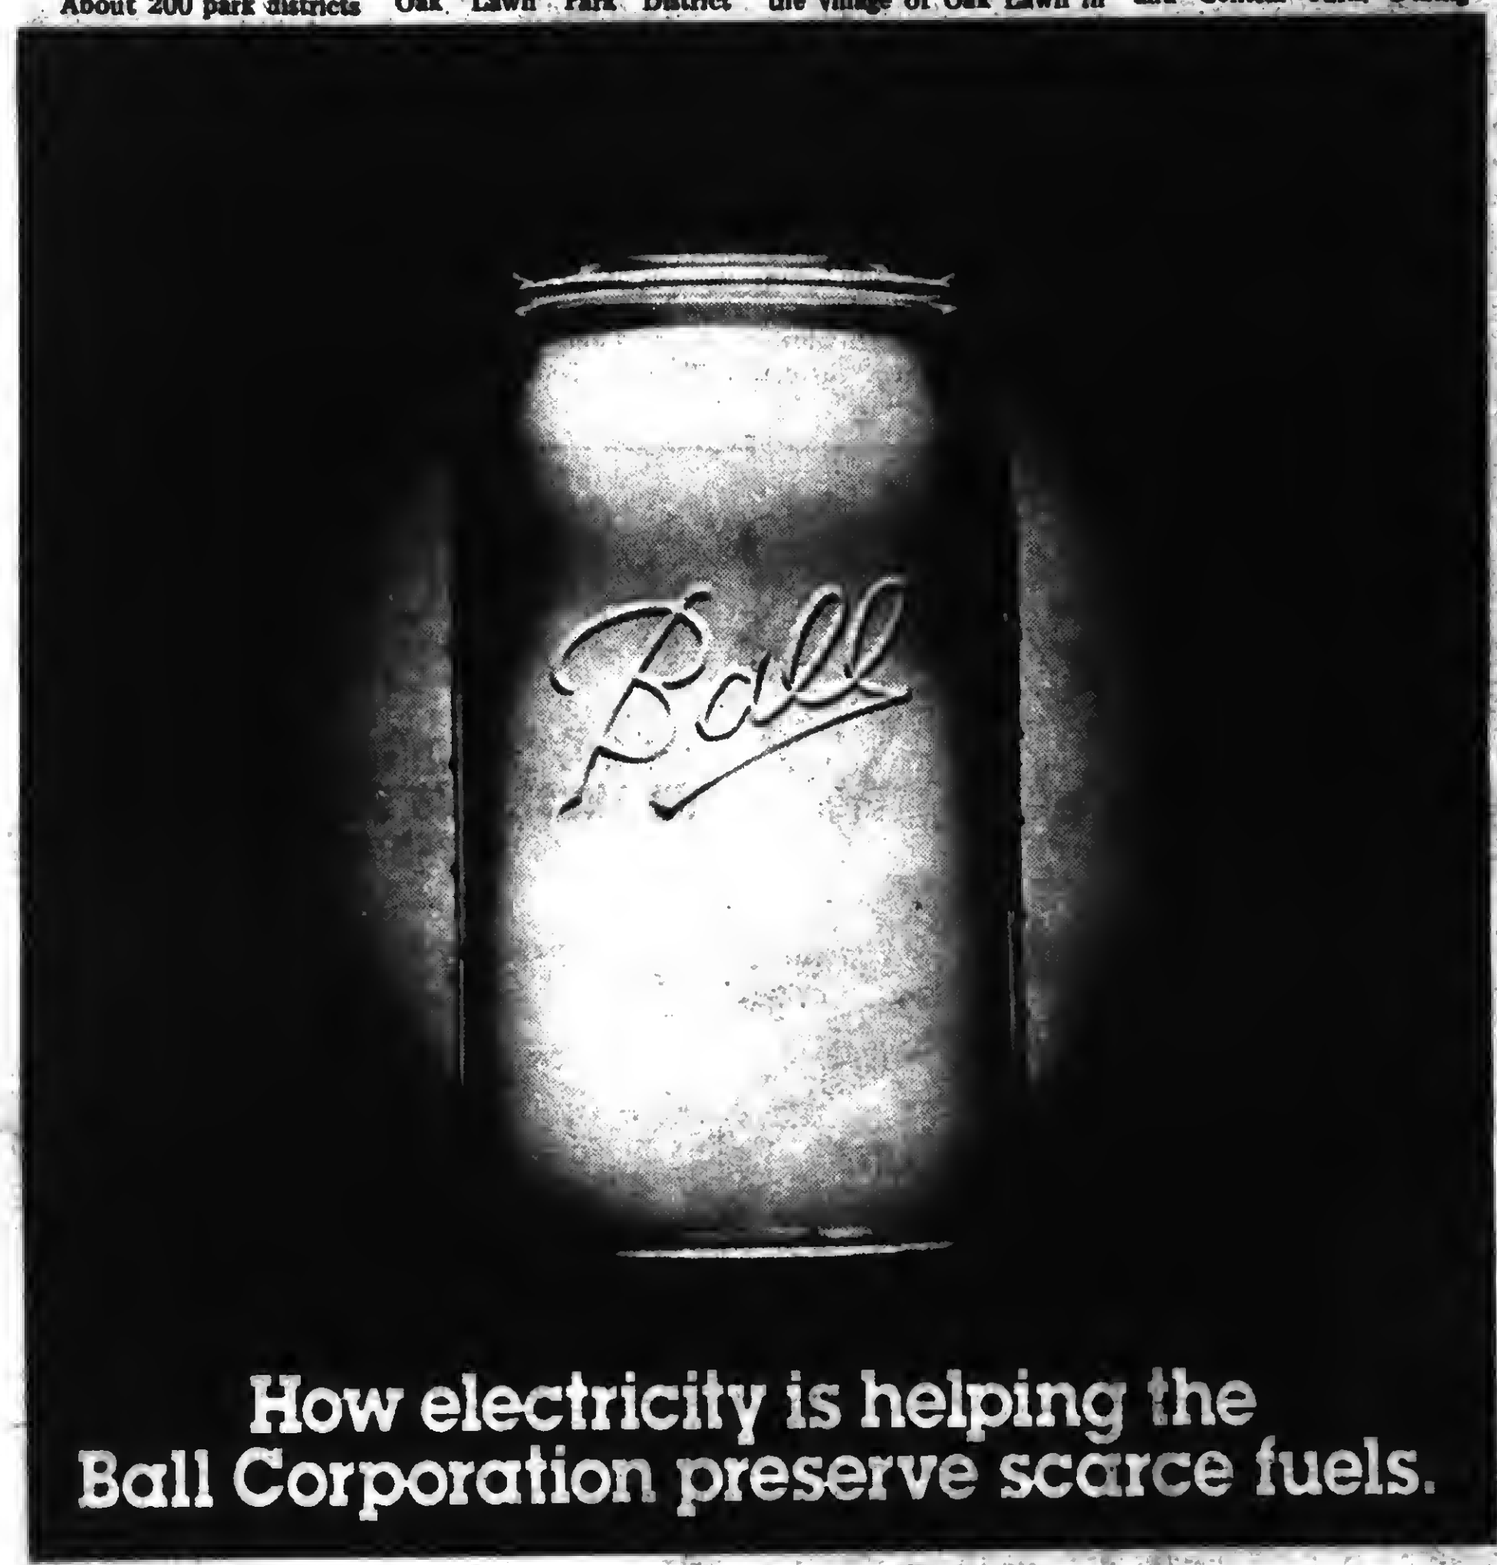
PARK EVENTS

On March 9, 1928, a small group of park officials met to establish a statewide association of park districts known as the Illinois Assn of Park Districts. To honor the 50th anniversary Governor Thompson has proclaimed that March will be "Park District Month" throughout Illinois.

About 200 park districts belong to I.A.P.D., working to provide better parks and recreation services to their residents by cooperating on solutions to joint problems. The Oak Lawn Park District has been an active member of the I.A.P.D. since the incorporation of the district in 1944.

The formation of the Oak Lawn Park District was an outgrowth of a project sponsored by the Cook Avenue PTA and spearheaded by Lucille Gaddis. Voters approved the formation of the Park District on November 28, 1944 by a margin of 114 to 53. The first Board of Commissioners, the governing body of the Park District, consisted of Lucille Gaddis, Roland Beckley, Harvey Bergeson, Albert Verschave and John Utz.

Lake Shore Park is the oldest park in Oak Lawn and is still one of the most beautiful. It was acquired by the Park District from the village of Oak Lawn in 1945. In 1948 voters approved a $35,000 bond issue to build a fieldhouse and make other improvements to Lake Shore Park.



Oak Lawn's second park was acquired in 1952 when a subdivider donated several acres on 99th Street to the Park District. This park became known as Oak Meadows Park.

A period of rapid growth for the Oak Lawn Park District began during the 1960's. In 1965 over $1,000,000 in park bonds were sold to purchase a number of park sites including Southwest Park, Worthbrook Park, Simmons Park and Central Park. During the late 1960's the swimming pool at Southwest Park was built.

Progress has continued into the 1970's with the acquisition of new park sites, erection of an indoor ice arena, acquisition of the Menard Activity Center, and the development of many new recreational facilities. Over 100 recreation programs are now offered for residents of all ages. Twenty park sites are developed in all areas of Oak Lawn and contain a total of 163 acres.

Park districts, including the Oak Lawn Park District, are special purpose districts governed by an elected Board of Commissioners. The Park District is completely independent of the village, although the boundaries are similar. The Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners currently consists of Donald Andersen, Marjorie Joy, Martin Larson, Jr., Janet Swanson and Patrick Sullivan. They meet on the second Monday of each month at the Park District's administrative office, 9400 S Kenton.

During March, in honor of "Park District Month", take time to visit your local parks and find out what the park district has to offer you. Fifty years of progress has been made for you.

The Ball Corporation is famous for making glass jars that preserve just about anything. From apples to strawberries. Their glassmaking, however, burns a lot of scarce fuels. So when Ball decided to switch part of their production to electricity, they were helping all of us.

That's because electricity is plentiful here in northern Illinois. Ninety percent of it comes from coal and uranium—two fuels in good supply.

So whenever you, or a company like Ball, use electricity instead of a scarce fuel, you're actually conserving that fuel for transportation and other vital energy needs.

And that knowledge is as sweet as strawberry preserves.

Commonwealth Edison

Registration for spring park programs underway

SLIMNASTICS: there will be 4 eight week sessions beginning the week of April 3. Beginners classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday from 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

YOGA class will begin the week of March 22 for another 8 week session. Beginners classes are offered on Wednesdays, 1 to 2:30 pm at the Menard Activity Center and 8:15 to 9:45 pm at McDonald School. An advanced class is offered from 6:30 to 8 pm at McDonald School.

BATON classes will continue for another 6 week session beginning April 15. Joan Sawyer will be instructing girls in basic baton twirling and marching skills on Saturday mornings. Classes are one hour long and begin at 10 am, 11 am, 12 noon and 1 pm.

BELLY DANCING classes on Monday evenings beginning the week of March 27. Lessons are offered for beginning, intermediate and advanced students.

TAP & BALLET classes will continue for another 6 week session beginning April 17. The children's classes are offered on Wednesday afternoon at Clark School and Friday afternoons at Clark School and Fridsy afternoons at the Menard Activity Center.

DISCO DANCING will be offered again this spring. Four classes will be offered on Mondays, 7 to 8 pm and 8 to 9 pm and Tuesdays 7 to 8 pm and 8 to 9 pm. The classes meet at the Menard Activity Center.

TENNIS LESSONS will begin the week of March 27.

Call 424-7200 for information and fees.

PILGRIM FAITH NURSERY SCHOOL REGISGRATION OPEN

The Pilgrim Faith Nursery School has announced that it is accepting registrations for the 1978-79 school year. The school located at 9411 S 51st Ave, is licensed and accredited by the State of Illinois and operates three mornings a week Tuesday thru Thursday during the months of September thru May. Children who will be three by September 1, 1978 and will not be five until after December 2, 1978 are eligible to attend.

The school offers a program which strives to help each child develop socially, physically, emotionally and intellectually. Under the direction of trained staff members the children participate in creative arts, music, motor perceptual skills, cooking, play activities, science, and field trips.

To help parents cope with the everyday problems and concerns of preschoolers a monthly parent discussion group is offered.

Further information can be obtained by calling Dianne Flynn, Nursery School Director at 424-7838 or the school at 423-4200.

Mayor Kolb to bolster awareness of Youth Commission

Still fired up from their visit to Highland Park and sitting thru a meeting with the Youth Commission, the Oak Lawn Youth Commissioners, that were in attendance, called a meeting on Monday, March 20, and enjoyed an excellent turnout.

The mayor, the village manager, the clerk and four trustees were all present to put their full support behind the youth commissioners.

Under discussion was the new program supervisor that is to be hired, on or about April 15, whose salary was included in the Village of Oak Lawn 1978 budget. The commissioners themselves were allowed the privilege of canvassing all applications and said the selection has been pared to 11 applicants. Of these 11, they now asked the administration for input as to exactly what type of individual they were searching for, one that had a degree in recreation, social service, a combination of both, etc. When the search is down to 3 remaining applicants the Village Manager Dick O'Neill will make the final selection.

The youth commissioners themselves had much to say, Pat Ivers discussed the Highland Park programs, of which there seemed to be seven he said, "but we have to take it one step at a time." He also said that he hoped to set up some type of liaison between the commission and the village administration.

Youth commissioner Mike Sullivan said that he believed the administration had taken a good step in hiring a program supervisor that will become the focal point. He said, "The Commission needs visibility, support from the newspapers, businesses, schools, churches and other organizations. Further than that," he said, "we need financial support."

Commissioner Steve Orton said, "It is most important that the village board promotes our activities, we must be given more credence in our actions."

Commissioner John McInerny said that the village must learn to trust the kids. He drew a laugh from the trustees when he said of the program supervisor, "If we don't like him and he's not doing the job we can always fire him." McInerny also asked what provision was being made for problem children.

Trustee Ron Stancik said that he would prefer they stick to the recreational concept, problem children should be directed to the county, state or family services. "I would prefer not to see the commission get bogged down with problems," he said.

Commissioner Edward O'Malley said that he was greatly impressed by the positive approach of Highland Park and asked to go around the table for opinions from others on what they had seen when they had attended the meeting there.

Trustee John Cleveland said that the kids themselves ran it. "When they had real problems they had an adult advisory board and the youths were impressed with being part of the government."

Trustee Stancik said he thought the greatest thing was the cooperation between the park, the schools and the administration. "The enthusiasm, the success of the programs, the complete support made a tremendous impression on me," he said.

Youth commissioner Bob Klein said, "The kids are the ones we should look to, whatever turns them on. A lot will depend on our youth director, he will relate to the youth, they will relate to him."

Mayor Ernie Kolb said, "It (Highland Park Youth Commission) never took a step backward – there was never a gap – they had a back-up." The Mayor was referring to older youths who brought in younger ones and who in turn took over as the older ones moved on and out.

Mayor Kolb said, "We must find a way to supply the dollars, that should be our only function. We must come up with a budget to handle our part." He said, "Highland Park with 30,000 people budget $90,000 and we with over 60,000 budget $15,000." The Mayor also said he is the one that will have to go to the parks, the schools, the chamber and the various organizations for their help.

Village manager Dick O'Neill said he was very impressed with the manner in which they conducted themselves. "The young people had respect for the director and the director had respect for the young people." He believed however that the staff ran the whole program.

Village Clerk Jayne Powers was in agreement with the village manager.

Trustee Jay Bergheimer also believed the staff was the force behind the youths. He advised the commissioners, "Don't be dismayed, once you develop a bond of trust things will be smoother. The director in Highland Park also said that he had received the cold shoulder, he's (the new program supervisor) going to be tested for awhile."

Youth commissioner Maureen Cimaglia said that she was very impressed by the entire group and hoped that Oak Lawn's Youth Commission would be every bit as successful.

Trustee Les Anderson who arrived late and hadn't heard some of the earlier comments said, "We're going too much towards recreation," and believed that the program should be coordinated where a problem child would be referred to the right source.

The informative meeting was basically wound up by comments from Mike Sullivan who said the most important item was that the village has taken the first step and the youth commission will find themselves in a different role. "This Commission will be quite cautious but not reluctant to present themselves and their ideas to the village board who will hopefully fund them."

Sullivan went on to say, "We don't have a permanent staff and we need it. We (the commissioners) are only filling the gap – we're not equipped or trained. I also think we will need funding for some of the programs – we need all of these things," he said.

Mayor Ernie Kolb said he realized that they needed help. He said that he and the village manager would discuss it and perhaps they could find additional dollars in the budget to help them thru the year.

The meeting ended on a very enthusiastic note and all felt that much was being accomplished.

Others present at the meeting were: Youth Commissioners Dave Tybo, [illegible] and Larry Novel. Also present were [illegible]

Young bowlers raise over $4000 for charity

Members of the Youth Bowling Association of Illinois that raised over $4000 for the Chicago Lung Association crowded around the trophy winners (l to r) Vicky Cline, Kim Hladik, Kenny Pankow, Sam Liaros and Tony Farrell. Happiness knew no bounds at the Oak Lawn Bowl, 4200 W 95th Street, on Saturday, March 18, when it was announced that the Youth Bowling Assn of Illinois (YBA) brought in over $4000 from a BOWL-A-THON to benefit the Chicago Lung Assn (CLA).

Karen Schoessow, director of Special Events for CLA, and Milt Reiger, assistant from the Public Relations Dept, both said that this was the greatest, and most successful of any [illegible] ever participated in, and they still could not believe it happened. She also commented on the wonderful cooperation received from Al Chernick, manager of the Oak Lawn Bowl and Don and Marilyn Larsen, coordinators of the YBA which bowls every Saturday morning. Miss Schoessow said that the CLA was donating a T-shirt to all of those youths that raised over $25 and that a great number would be given out.

Don Larsen said that the young people had pledged $[illegible], which in his mind was high and they went over that mark. He also said that group has been a fun one to work with and that the YBA is a youth program sanctioned by the state.

Al Chernick, donated $100 to bring them over the $4000 mark. He personally donated the trophies to the five top fund raisers and also the certificates given to all the other bowlers in the BOWL-A-THON. He commended the Youth Bowling Assn for their enthusiasm and the manner in which all of the [illegible] conducted themselves during the event.

The youths receiving the trophies and the amounts they raised were: Sam Liaros over $600; Kenny Pankow over $430; Tony Farrell over $130; Vicky Cline over $129 and Kim Hladik over $100. The "over" represents monies not yet collected from the sponsors of the individual youths. The sponsors were also commended by Miss Schoessow and said that they should be proud to know that they were also responsible for the success of the great happening.

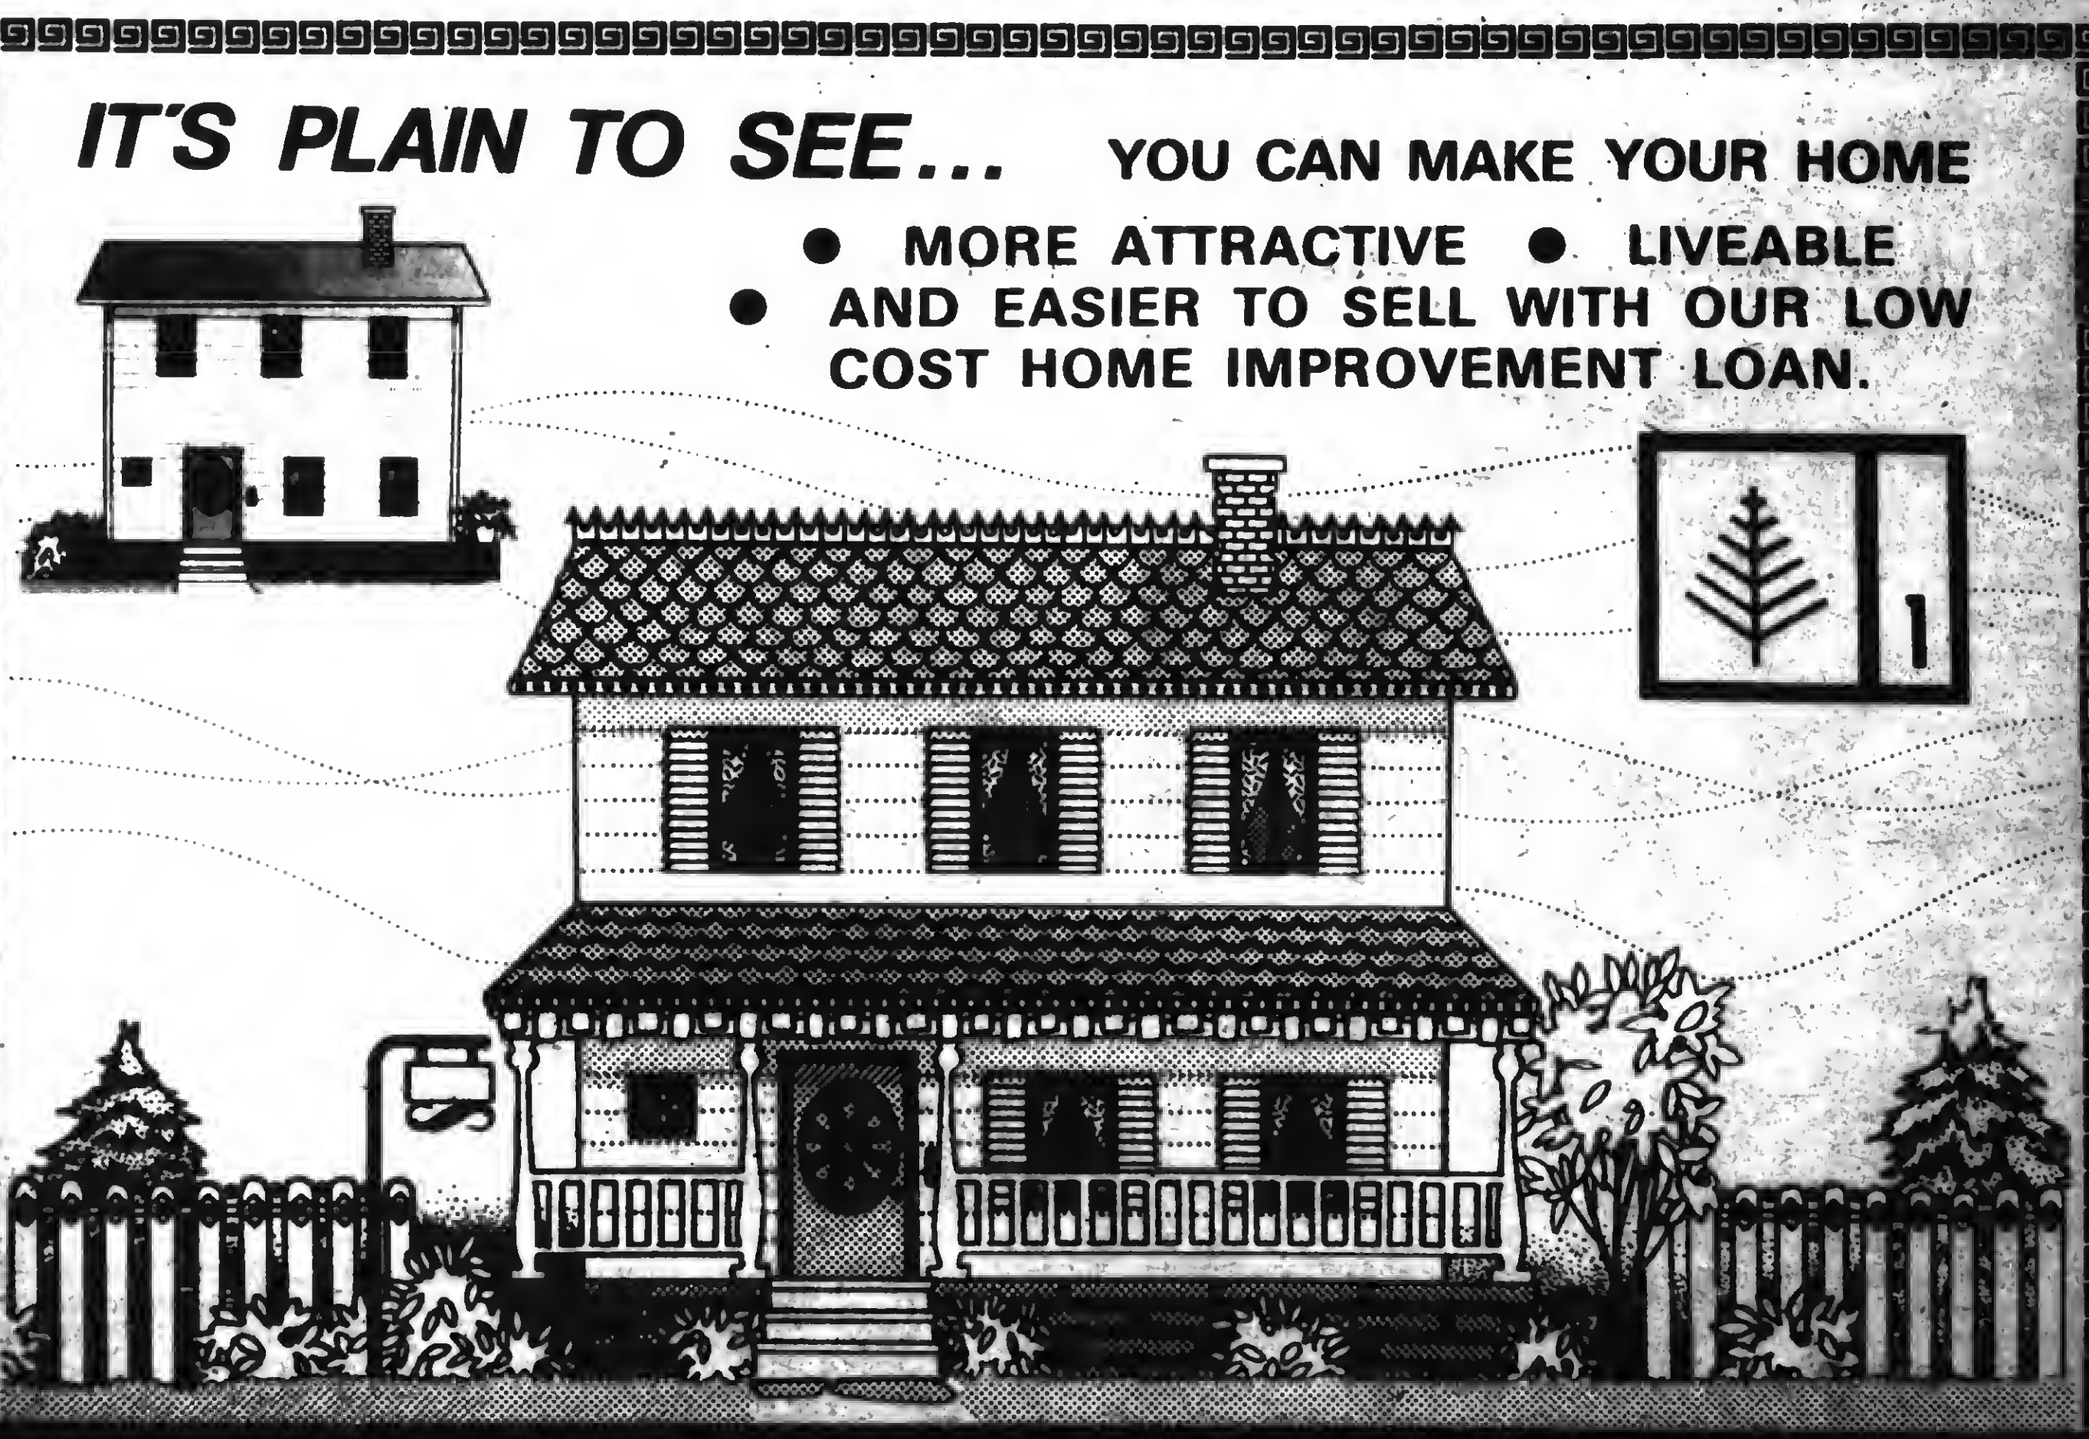
Brooks Advertising, Inc, at 10600 Cicero in Oak Lawn, is currently accepting entries for a $500 Continuing Education Scholarship.

Nineteen-seventy-eight marks Brooks' 10th anniversary. They are taking this occasion to pause and count their blessings and consider the value of the American private enterprise system.

Jay Brooks, president of Brooks Advertising commented: "As consumers, we empathise with the complaints of increasing prices. Yet as businessmen, it is our duty to spotlight the fact that if adequate profit cannot be made, sooner or later fewer employees are needed, and perhaps eventually no employees would be needed at all. Profits are for the people. U.S. Industry now invests more than $33,600 per employee to create a job. By investing more than any other nation in the world for sophisticated, efficient equipment, American industry produces more per employee. And by producing more, American labor earns more. It is our responsibility to make the public aware of just how well our private enterprise system works for all of us! The scholarship is our first step toward this goal."



With this special scholarship program, Brooks is launching a year-long campaign to bring to public attention just how important the private enterprise system is to the lifestyle we enjoy today. Eligibility for the scholarship is limited to students enrolled at Moraine Valley Community College in a transfer or career studies program, who plan to continue their formal education and earn a BA or BS degree within 10 years.

To qualify, participants must submit an original essay on "The effects of the private enterprise system on our lifestyle today." The judges will be looking for expression of thought, logical reasoning, strong idea development and neatness.

The winner of the $500 scholarship will not only be awarded the money, but will also have his/her [illegible] reprinted in a brochure [illegible] made available to local businesses, organizations, schools and interested groups.

Sale of drug supplies to under 18 prohibited in Oak Lawn

An ordinance initiated Trustee Ron Stancik, and adopted under the home rule power of Oak Lawn, to prohibit the sale of drug paraphernalia to youths under the age of 18 years, was approved in unison by the Board of Trustees. The ordinance, an amendment to Chapter 14 of the Village of Oak Lawn, was adopted on an emergency basis and went into affect immediately.

Stancik said that he felt by allowing the sales of the questionable items, the youths may be led to believe it is both normal and condoned.

The amendment does not affect the sales of such items in legitimate business houses where they are purchased for medicinal purposes only.

Stancik also noted that according to some of the people in his district the STOP program, sponsored by Kiwanis, is in need of participants. He asked that anyone interested in offering their services for the citizen patrol to prevent crimes, call either the village hall or Kiwanis.

CORRECTION PLEASE!

In the last issue of VILLAGE VIEW it was erroneously stated that the Board of Trustees was requested to call a special meeting to discuss recent actions of the Senior Citizen Council and the Senior Citizen Commission. The request involved the Senior Citizen Commission only and was held this past Tuesday, March 28.

Oak Lawn man joins Lever Bros

Jolyk, who was plant engineer of Glidden-Durkee in Joliet prior to his position at Lever Brothers, will be handling several projects in the Hammond Plant, Lever's largest manufacturing operation. He will also be involved in operations in Lever's new soap processing plant when it is opened, according to Robert J. Ropa, plant manager.

Construction on the new facility is to begin in April as part of Lever's $30 million expansion and modernization program for the Hammond plant, Ropa said.

Huskey-Finley united on delinquent child support payments

State Rep Herb Huskey and Cook County Circuit Court Clerk Morgan Finley have joined efforts to pass legislation which would make circuit courts responsible for monitoring delinquent child support payments.

This proposal (HB 2186) passed the House last spring, but later stalled in the Senate. It is currently in the Judiciary Committee there under the sponsorship of Senator Donald Moore (R-9).

"I am very glad to now have Morgan Finley's administrative expertise, legislative know-how and active support for this bill," Huskey said.

"Within the last several weeks we have been able to settle the differences which delayed its passage last year," he stated. "We are now working with the Bureau of the Budget to finalize details for implementing this change in Cook and other counties thruout Illinois.

"Morgan Finley and his staff are doing everything they can to help me pass this legislation," Huskey explained. "I am very pleased to have their assistance."

In its present form, Huskey's legislation requires all circuit courts outside of Cook County to order direct child support payment to their clerks. A judge, however, may order payment to another party if he feels this special action is appropriate. Courts within Cook County have the discretion to determine payment procedure.

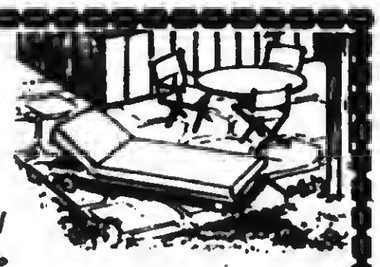
An additional fee would be assessed on all payments made to the court clerks for administrative expenses. Whenever any of these direct child support payments are more than 30 days late, the clerk must bring the default to the court's attention within a ten day period. This action, then, will require the court to enforce the payment without having an attorney act in behalf of the family waiting for support.

of hearings in both houses of Congress. In the Senate, similar legislation has been passed four out of the past five Congresses, but has never passed the House.

Tax credit towards tuition cost gains bi-partisan support

Legislation that would allow tax credits for tuition costs has been introduced in both the House and Senate in Washington and has gained bi-partisan support.

Congressman Marty Russo, a cosponsor of the bill, says that skyrocketing tuition costs make it difficult for middle-class taxpayers to send their children to schools of their choice and he feels some relief is needed.



The bill would permit taxpayers to subtract one-half of the tultion they pay, up to a maximum of $500 per person, from their taxable income. A tultion tax credit would be available to students attending an HEW-approved educational or secondary school, a vocational or technical school, or a business or trade school.

Russo points out that traditionally, Basic and Supplementary Educational Grants and College Work Study programs have been awarded to children of low-income families. Students with adjusted family income of $15,000 or more have been the primary recipients of guaranteed student loan programs which have not sufficiently deterred the raising cost of tuition.

VILLAGE VIEW has omitted a Commentary this issue hoping to impress the readers, with the importance of filling the Richard's gym for this charity basketball game. Aside from being reasonable, and the tickets are tax deductible, this is the second year for this event and it is a fun filled exciting evening that allows the young people to see, watch and talk to the Chicago Bear football players. Many of the Oak Lawn businessmen lay down the tools of their trade to participate for charity and your entertainment. The least we can do is support them 100% and enjoy it too!.

News FROM Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

YOURELL SELECTED AS PANEL MEMBER FOR DISCUSSION ON ALCOHOL

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell D-8th, was one of a panel of seven, who recently participated in a program to discuss the subject matter of Alcohol.

Harry "Bus" Yourell

The panel discussion was sponsored by the Evergreen Park Council of PTAs and chaired by Ms Melva Smith, Program Chairman, and held at the Central Junior High School in Evergreen Park, on Monday, March 6, 1978. Participating in the program were as follows: Alfred Grossenbacher-Motivational Counselor for the Alcoholism Treatment Center at Ingalls Memorial Hospital in Harvey; Karen Ryd and Karen Postlewait, representing the Teenagers; Frederick M. Kreil, member of Evergreen Park Police Dept.; Roland Mattson, co-sponsor, Alateen Program, Christ Hospital; Dan Wicklund, member of the Illinois State Police Dept. and Harry "Bus" Yourell, State Representative.

Rep Yourell was asked to comment on the legislation that he introduced to raise the drinking age from its present 19 to what it was some years ago, 21. Rep Youreli introduced that particular legislation last session of the General Assembly and it was not successful in its passage. Since that time several home-rule units of government, i.e., Evergreen Park, Oak Lawn and Burbank have been prevailed upon to introduce a home-rule ordinance that was successful in returning the drinking age to 21. Rep Youreli also had the opportunity to discuss the results of an Illinois study he particlpated in some years ago relative to alcohol, abuse education in the Illinois schools.

Rep Yourell also discussed the current theory on alcohol abuse education. He also commented on a survey he read about that was conducted in the 8th district recently that suggested that the use of alcohol by public school students was on the decline and that certainly was not the trend of thought that was transmitted at the panel discussion attended by more than 150 residents of Evergreen Park. Many educators indicated in their testimony, and in the Question/Answer session after the formal presentation by the panelists, that there was no doubt in their minds and through their professional experiences, particularly those of the educators, that reducing the drinking age from 19 to 21 certainly had contributed to the increased use of alcohol in the public schools, not only in the 8th District, but in the State of Illinois as well.

If there are any questions regarding the study referred to by Rep Yourell, in this release, please contact him at 422-9300.

Dunne expresses wish to debate Russo

Robert Dunne, Republican candidate for U.S. Congressman in the 3rd District, said that he would debate his opponent Congressman Marty Russo. Dunne further suggested that he would like Russo to cancel the remainder of his workshops up until the election in November and the two hold meetings together to discuss the issues.

Robert Dunne

Dunne, who was speaking at a press conference in Oak Lawn, covered many topics including defense, Korea, tax incentives, oil, SALT, the sports complex, the airport, nuclear power, the environment, social security, President Carter, Congressman Russo and the BI-bomber.

On defense Dunne said that he doubts whether or not this country could withstand aggression from without. He said with regards to the SALT talks it appears that Congress depends too much on trust of the Russian word.

Dunne said that in 1976 President Carter and the Congress promised there would be no tax increase and a few short weeks ago the Congress passed the biggest peace time tax in history, (social security).

"I am deeply concerned that the public interest is waning with respect ot our environmental problems," Dunne said. He commended Commonwealth Edison Co on their foresight.

About the BI-bomber he said that he hadn't read too much about it but thought it could have been used as an effective deterent force for other countries and believed it should have been purchased.

In reply to a question from the press Dunne said that he is opposed to the Humphrey Hawkins full employment bill. "We don't need anymore people on the Federal payroll, if the government would get out of the way we can do a lot for the working man," he said.

"Noise pollution is also a major problem in any metropolitan area and today I want to announce my opposition to the re-establishment of Midway as a major commercial airport," Dunne said. "I'm convinced after talking to air line pilots and air controllers that Midway is not and cannot be made safe for large or medium size jets. Furthermore, the people living in the densely populated area surrounding Midway to not want the noise pollution and life safety hazards inherent with an undersize major airport.

"On the other hand, Midway would make an ideal location for a sports complex. It is roughly the geographic population center of the metropolitan area and the Chicago Board of Education, which owns the property, would receive badly needed revenue."

Dunne said that he has written to the Chairman of the Chicago Commission to study the possibility of a new sports complex, former Governor Richard Ogilvie, outlining his suggestion.

On the Panama Canal Dunne said that he believed the majority of voters in the 3rd District were opposed to the treaty and said he would oppose it also.

Robert Dunne has the endorsement of Governor Thompson and the Regular Republican Organization governing the 3rd Congressional District.

WE SALUTE

He will be earning credits toward an associate degree thru the Community College of The Air Force while attending Basic and other Air Force training and schools.

Swedish exhibition on display

The Oak Lawn Historical Society takes pleasure in announcing that a special exhibition on Swedish emigration to America opens at the society (9526 S Cook Avenue) on April 7 and will be on view thru May 7. The exhibition, The Dream of America: Swedish Emigration to the United States was organized by the Emigration Institute in Vaxjo, and produced by the Swedish Institute in Stockholm for the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service as a part of their "International Salute to the States" program which is supported in part by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

The Dream of America imparts an important phase in the development of America as a "Nation of Nations". Between 1850 and 1930, over one and a quarter million Swedes emigrated to North America. The process of emigration to Illinois from Sweden is far from over. Swedes accounted for 34,606 of the 686,093 foreign-born residents of the state in the 1960 census, the sixth largest total. This exhibition documents Swedish Emigration to America by examing the political, social and economic conditions of mid-nineteenth century Sweden, the journey to America and adaptation to life in the new land.

Included are photographs, maps, postmarks and newspapers from America, diary entries and shipping agent's advertisements researched by Ulf Beijbom of the Emigrant Institute in Vaxjo. In addition, there are objects from the emigrant saga: a wooden trunk, a carpet bag, assorted tools and personal belongings. Herman Rossell sculptures and Olof Krans paintings also help compiete the picture of the Swedes who came to settle in this country.

Discover the security of a Talman savings account

These days many people who want a high return for investment funds have discovered Talman's regular and certificate accounts provide just that, plus this bonus—security.

And this discovery can mean a lot to you, too. For example, if you deposit $5,000 in a 7¾% Talman certificate by the 10th of the month and leave the principal and interest undisturbed, you'll have $8,014.69 when this account matures in six years. There are no "ifs" or "buts" involved. A 7¾% Talman certificate yields 8.17% annually*—an excellent return in itself, but doubly so when multiplied by security and peace of mind.

Of course the returns on Talman's four types of certificate savings accounts vary according to the sum invested and the length of time for which they are committed. So if you would prefer to invest your funds for a shorter period of time, Talman has one-year, 30-month, and four-year certificates that will give you high-yield plus that security bonus too. And, for maximum flexibility, many investors choose Talman's regular 5¼% savings account which produces interest compounded daily and paid from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

But, no matter which Talman account you choose, your funds are additionally secured by our substantial reserves and 56 years of sound fiscal management.

Whatever your investment needs may be, Talman invites you to stop in at any of the ten convenient Talman locations and discover what security can mean for you now.

Gong Show comes to Richards

Will the Unknown Comic's show biz aspirations fizzle at the peal of the gong? Will Gene, Gene the Dancing Machine find more profit in being junked for spare parts? Can Chuck Barris (Mark Harlan) sustain the riotious level of hilarity that has brought success to the popular television game show?

For the answers to these and other fascinating questions, come to Richards Campus, 106th & Central Avenue on Wednesday, April 5 as the Richards Student Council presents its version of The Gong Show. Community members of all ages are invited to join the fun beginning at 8 pm in the Little Theater. Admission is $1 per person.

HLR Gong Show directors Kathy Rafferty and Kathy Kezon have a mixed bag full of surprise acts lined up for the show. They have indicated, however, that Gong Show judges instructors Nancy Cox and Leon Plug and assistant principal Steve Neff are eager to hear the resonant tones of HLR's own "gong".

First and second place winners in the HLR Gong Show will be awarded cash prizes.

Realtors interested in more than property sales

"As realtors, we are interested in much more than the selling of property". According to Frank Boblak, CRB, Director of the Illinois Association of Realtors. "We care for you as a homeowner and a citizen. We care for America. We are concerned about the burgeoning bureaucracy in the federal government. This concern is clearly defined from the 1978 statement of policy of the National Association of Realtors (NAR) regarding government intervention, regulations and control.

"The extend of government involvement in the business affairs and lives of American citizens over the past few decades has been increasing at a staggering rate. Regulatory agencies have yielded a flood of guidelines, regulations, rules and procedures that have increased costs to the consuming public and added a significant burden to the business community. The NAR is opposed to burdensome and arbitrary regulations that create worse problems than they are designed to resolve. We also oppose the increasing intervention of the federal government in the local decision-making process and the business affairs of millions of Americans.

"We would hope that a reasonable bill would be pursued in the next Congress that would lessen the ever-increasing influence that government has over the lives and businesses of all Americans. The fact that it can be done was never more dramatically demonstrated than by the virtual repeal of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA). RESPA was found to be a burden to home buyers and the housing finance industry without the anticipated benefit to the consumer. Consequently, Congress responded by correcting this burdensome and unequitable law."

"You may ask how can I help? What can I do? One way is to study the issues before Congress, and let your congressmen and senators know how you feel. As your elected representatives, if enough people write, they will respond to your wishes.

Recently, Jay Van Andel, Chairman of the Citizen's Choice, a nationwide group interested in preserving the freedom in America said, "Our country was founded on the principle of citizen representation, where the opinions of the individual Americans played an important part in the legislative process, yet, in recent years, many citizens have failed to exercise this priviledge while special interest groups have encouraged the Congress to increase the size of government, interfere in commerce and limit individual initiative.

"This trend cannot be allowed to continue. It is imperative that the citizens of the country speak up for a government that encourages enterprise and avoids unnecessary intrusion into the economic and personal lives of its citizens."

"So, join us America, be interested in your government. Write those letters today," concludes Frank J. Boblak.

TEACHER FIRE SAFETY TRAINING CLASS

Pictured above are instructors Art Stoike of Moraine Valley College and Lieutenant Ron Murray of the Oak Lawn Fire Department leading a group of school teachers into a burning building. The teachers were among the 16 teachers from schools throughout Oak Lawn who recently completed the Teachers Fire Safety Training course sponsored by the Oak Lawn Fire Department and Moraine. The program consisted of nine hours of classroom instructions and four hours of actual firefighting.

The purpose of the program is to instruct the teachers in fire prevention so they can use it in their everyday classwork. The students will then have fire prevention instructions throughout the year instead of only when the fire department officer visits the school twice a year. Teachers completing the course were: Nancy Tauchman, McDonald School; Georgia Braden and Arlene Kwiatt, Hannum; Terry Swart, Carol Sharon, Paula McCarthy and Bonnie Miller, Gaddis; Dorothy Smith, Hometown; Sophie Wroblewski, Carol LeMay, Joan Schemanaur, Catherine Garza, Mary Molony and Francine DiGiorgio and Yvonne Woulfe, St Gerald and Grace Stienz, Park Lawn School.

H.L. Richards High School Band members earned ratings of "superior" and "excellent" for their performances in the 1978 IHSA State Solo and Ensemble Contest, according to an announcement from HLR Band Director Peter Bectuca.

Oak Lawn residents Glenn Nagel, Jeff Almer and Don Sandmore earned a rating of superior and contest medals, attaining a perfect score for their performance of a trumpet trio.

Second division excellent ratings were earned by Oak Lawn residents Chris Skibinski, alto saxophone solo; Mark Wilken, tenor saxophone solo; Mark Babbitt, trumpet solo; Lori Nielson, french horn solo; Dave Nelson, piano solo; Dorie Bergstrom, Laura Vallera and Julie Karlson, flute trio; Chris Skibinski, Robert Ogarek, Mark Wilken and Frank Domina, saxophone quartet; and Randy Mulvey, Steve Adamonis, James Veen and Mark Wilken, drum quartet.

Bertuca expressed special pride in the performance of his students, noting that no HLR musician placed lower than second in the first state level competition in which they had participated.

Huskey to participate in Highway Safety program

Herb Huskey, owner of Ridgeland Auto Parts, will participate in a voluntary safety program sponsored by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA).

This effort, known as the National Parts Return Program, is geared to gather information from automotive parts suppliers. It will then be carefully weighed against accident data, consumer complaint letters, information from new car dealers, and actual parts returned by high mileage fleets and independent repair shops. The combined data, Huskey says, will enable the NHTSA to determine if and how the safety of various vehicles can be improved.

"I am very happy to participate in this program," Huskey stated. "Through a cooperative effort by all facets of the automotive industry, we can move closer toward the manufacturing of flaw-free cars. At the same time we will also be taking immediate steps to reduce the overall accident rate caused by defective parts."

Huskey was selected to participate in the Parts Return Program because of his background knowledge and expertise in automotive performance and repair areas.

MVCC CONSUMER CONFERENCE FOR EDUCATORS

Registrations are being accepted at Moraine College for the third annual Consumer Education Conference for Educators. The program is scheduled for 9 am - 1 pm Saturday, April 8. The conference is co-sponsored by MVCC and School District 111.

Eleven workshops will be offered during the meeting. Included are topics of special interest to elementary school teachers, to high school teachers and to educators in general. Fee for the conference is $5 per person. For info call 974-4300, ext 362-363.

In anticipation of the softball season, the Oak Lawn Park District has opened registration for Men's Softball leagues.

The "A" league will play on Tuesday and Thursday at 6:45 pm for 14 games. The "B" league will play on Friday at 6:45 pm for a 7 game season, while the "C" leagues will play on Sundays at 1 pm, 2:15 pm and 3:30 pm for a 7 game season. All games will be played in Simmons park with a post-season tournament ending the season.

Teams will be made up of adult men 18 years and over with a 15 name roster of which at least 60% must be Oak Lawn residents.

The entry fee for "A" league is $250.00; "B" league is $155.00 and "C" league is $155.00. One-half of the entrance fee must be paid at time of registration.

CANCER ACTION LINE

The Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society has been formed to encourage and conduct programs of continuing education for community residents, to utilize the local medical and scientific resources available for early detection and diagnosis, and to treat and prevent cancer whenever possible.

The Evergreen Park Cancer Action Line will provide information about cancer to local residents that concern service and rehabilitation, transportation, information and referral, loan closet, dressings, counseling for distressed people, films and literature for community organizations, and various types of equipment, such as wheelchairs, commodes, hospital beds and walkers. There will be no charge for any of these services.

St Gerald school takes first in Science Exhibition

St Gerald Elementary School walked off with 1st place in the 1978 Chicago Non-Public School Science Exposition held at the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry, March 11 and 12.

Instrumental in St Gerald capturing the title were: 2nd place Noreen Fitzmaurice and Regina Olen (Effect of Sound on the Human Ear - Zoology); 1st place Ken Kaczynski and Marty O'Malley (Substances on Teeth - Chemistry); 1st place and top in category Mary Kay Dillon (Removal of Oil Slick - Conservation); 1st place and top in category Indre Rudaitis (Effect of Fertilizers on the Growth of Plants - Botany); and 1st place, top in category and best project in Region 2 Jan Giebelhausen (Anamorphosis - Mathematics).

More than 90 schools were represented with approximately 1000 scientifically minded elementary and high school students exhibiting over 600 projects.

All first place winners will compete on a statewide level at Illinois U in Champaign on May 12 and 13.

Mrs Carol Ann LeMay, 8th grade teacher and sponsor for the event accepted the first place trophy for St Gerald School. Sr Rose Marie Gantley is principal with Monsignor McNichols presiding as pastor.

Village board resolution to OLCHS Booster Club announces benefit basketball game

The Oak Lawn High School Booster Club is having a benefit basketball game between the 1970-71 Champion team and the coaches of the school. This will bring back many memories to the village of Oak Lawn when in 1971 this team came in second in state basketball and caused great celebration in the village.

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce masterminded a dinner party for the homecoming of the valiant warriors and all seats were taken. All the players on the team received awards and certificates which told of the honor and recognition the Spartan team had brought to Oak Lawn.

Mayor Ernie Kolb, and the board of trustees, on April 11, 1978, announced a resolution in honor of the Oak Lawn Community High School Basketball Team whereas, the entire community of Oak Lawn commended the team for the fine quality of sportsmanship throughout their entire 1970-71 season.

The resolution reads that the return of J.C. Kupec, who was drafted by the Los Angeles Lakers, will be the highlight of the game. He will be inducted into the Illinois High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame on April 29.

The game will be played in the Spartan Gym at the high school on April 29 at 8 pm. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students and are available by calling Russ Pluhar, chairman of this event at 422-9361. He is anticipating the ticket sales to go fast.

The event is to assist the Booster Club in raising funds for both young men and women attending the Oak Lawn Community High School.

OLBB parade April 30

Oak Lawn Baseball for Boys will kick off their 1978 baseball season with the traditional Opening Day Parade, April 30, starting promptly at noon at 95th Street and 51st Avenue, parading west on 95th Street and south on Central Avenue for the ceremonies at the baseball field. As usual, the stars of the parade will be all players in their team uniform.

The OLBB parade is a large event in Oak Lawn and usually draws a large crowd of spectators. Decorated cars, floats add fervor to the happy occasion and many officials are present to help kick-off the opening of the baseball season.

If anyone would care to assist in planning, etc, or can contribute to the parade in any way, please call Janet Cloud, 422-0991.

OL Youth Commission sponsoring WhiteSox game

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission is sponsoring a trip to Comiskey Park to see the great South Side White Sox take on the Baltimore Orioles, Saturday, April 29. The theme for the evening is "Teen Nite", and many surprises are in store for all of the fans!

If you're interested in attending this "good times trip", contact the Oak Lawn Youth Commission Monday thru Friday to sign-up. $2 each includes tickets, and bus trip.

The Youth Commission is located at 9630 Southwest Hwy, second floor, or you can call at 636-4400, ext 337 or 338.

Calling all artists and exhibitors

The Oak Lawn Special Events Commission is looking for artists to exhibit at the Oak Lawn Antique and Art Festival to be held the weekend of May 20 and 21 at the Oak Lawn Comm High School, 95th and Southwest Hwy.

There has been a great response to date. Artists and antique dealers are encouraged to get your reservations in now.

Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn celebrates 10th Anniversary

The Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn will celebrate ten years of an ever flourishing business on May 6, 1978.

Many residents will recall wondering why a Holiday Inn would want to build in the village. So far from the loop, so far from the airport, who would stay there? Cars would stop and the occupants would watch the building in progress, the driver would shake his head and move on. The cars still stop but they don't move on – they turn in.

A successful business is as strong as the management; in a motel-hotel at the top of the management is the Innkeeper; the Innkeeper at the Holiday Inn is Mr. Joe English.

Mr English leaves nothing to chance, even though he is no easy taskmaster he drives himself equally hard as he does the employees. Because Oak Lawn's Holiday Inn is off the beaten track the majority of guests must he brought in to the establishment. Mr English spends many hours traveling around and out of the country bringing not only single patrons but many groups, both large and small, to the now famous spot located at 4140 West 95th Street.

The Holiday Inn is one of Oak Lawn's greatest assets. What most of the residents are unaware of is the amount of dollars the transient guests spend in the local stores thereby boosting the return in sales tax to the village. The banquet rooms at the Holiday Inn have hosted hundreds of banquets, weddings, showers, breakfasts, lunches, funeral brunches, fund raisers, seminars, and many other special events. The welcome is always warm, the food is of the highest quality, the service is excellent and a homey atmosphere always prevails.

Many stars of stage, screen and television have chosen to stay at the Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn when they were in the area. The guests have included, Bob Hope, Dean Martin, Pat O'Brien, Ann Sothern, Telly Savales, Robert Vaughn and Frank Sinatra, Jr. The list is long, Broderick Crawford, Rose Marie, Bobby Vinton, Elke Somers, Mickey Rooney, George Gobel, Dennis Morgan, Martha Raye, Forrest Tucker and many more.

Vice President Walter Mondale, Speaker of the House, Tip O'Neill and Senator Edward Kennedy were among the notables that made the Inn their home away from home.

Year after year Joe English has won the coveted Holiday Inn Inc., title of "Innkeeper of the Year". Last year he captured the "Innkeeper of the World". This in itself is no easy task for the taskmaster.

At the top of management is Art Aliniz, Pat O'Malley and Ed Stack who do not take much for granted either. One, or both, or all three seem to be on the grounds at all hours thru any given day. At night James Quinn takes over where the others have left off.

Dinners will be at 6 and 8 pm in the Knights Arms Restaurant to commemorate the 10th Anniversary. Entertainment will be provided by the Knights Arms Silver Strings under the direction of Ralph Sterling. Everyone is invited to attend and share in the celebration. There is no cover charge. For reservations call 425-7900 or see the Dining Room Hostess in the Knights Arms Restaurant.

Huskey to host drug abuse conference April 17th

State Rep Herb Huskey will host a special drug abuse conference on Monday, April 17 from 10 am to noon at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn, 4140 W. 95th Street.

This meeting, Huskey says, came about after various administrators, teachers and students indicated drug and alcohol abuse problems at their schools during a survey which he conducted in January. The follow-up session will focus on ways to curb the use of these substances.

Cook County Sheriff Richard J. Elrod, local law enforcement officials, judges, youth commission representatives, educational personnel and staff from local drug abuse programs have also been invited to attend.

"This special conference will permit area residents to better determine the extend of our drug problems in the eighth district, get an idea of what other schools and communities are doing to combat similar problems, and then set forth a local plan for action," Huskey said.

"I hope that all interested parties, and especially parents, can find time to attend this important meeting."

Additional information is available through Huskey's Oak Lawn office, 424-5000. Reservations are not required to the meeting, and there is no attendance fee.

Heffernan named president of Heritage of Oak Lawn

Joseph F. Heffernan was recently elected president of Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn, 95th & Southwest Highway in Oak Lawn. The announcement was made by George Quinlan, chairman of the board for the bank.

Mr Heffernan joins Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn with a distinguished background in major banking systems. During the past 12 years, he's filled executive level positions at the First National Bank of Chicago and The Federal Home Loan Bank. As a matter of record, he was the youngest officer ever elected in the history of the Federal Home Loan Bank. Heffernan has much experience in developing and operating effective automatic teller networks. He has been responsible for establishing teller operation studies that guage operating efficiency. And, he has an extensive accounting background. Heffernan is a graduate of DePaul U with a BSC degree and Chicago U, with an MBA degree. He is an active member of the American Management Assn and Administrative Management Society. He is married and has four children.

Mr Quinlan commented, "We're happy to have Mr Heffernan join Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn, especially at this time. His work history shows a strong banking and management expertise and his personable and sincere caring for people appropriately portrays our new campaign program: Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn wants to be your bank."

Odelson-Kumarich take MVCC seats

Burton Odelson, Oak Lawn attorney, and incumbent Cecilia Kumarich have taken the two seats for three year terms on the Moraine Valley Community College board.

Oak Lawn Community High School, District 229, Incumbents Laurence Hansen and James Bailey were re-elected for three year terms.

In Ridgeland Elementary District 122 it is interesting to note that Tom Davis, who did not petition for a seat on the board, won as a write-in candidate. The other seat for a three year term was won by incumbent Roger Wantiez.

In Oak Lawn-Hometown District 123, incumbent Helen Whalen and Ramona Griffen will fill the two, three year terms.

Alsip District 126, with the Oak View School in Oak Lawn, re-elected two incumbents Reed Powers and George Lehman for three year terms.

Government surplus personal property available

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell recently announced that for the past several years, the Federal Government has been making surplus personal property available for donation to schools, hospitals, civil defense agencies and other non-profit educational and public health organizations.

With the enactment of Public Law 94-159, surplus personal property is now available for donation to any public agency for use in carrying out or promoting for the residents of a given political area one or more public purposes.

Federal surplus property includes all types of new or usable equipment, supplies and materials. It encompasses such items as hand tools, machine tools, furniture, motor vehicles, aircraft, communication and electronic equipment, construction machinery, small boats, hardware and many types of usuable property at savings of as much as 75% of original acquisition price.

The Office of Procurement, Federal Surplus Property Section, charges eligible donees for all property procured in the form of a service charge that offsets operational expenses incurred.

Applications for participants of this program along with current catalogues application requirements, or products offered, please contact Rep Yourell by calling his 24-hour answering service in Oak Lawn, 422-9300.

Senior Council Paper Drive

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council is sponsoring a paper drive beginning Monday, April 17 thru Saturday, April 22.

Yourell rebuts Barnes position on legalized prostitution

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, was amazed recently at a statement contributed to Rep Jane Barnes that appeared in the Suburban Tribune that she would support legislation depenalizing prostitution. One of the reasons given for her position to legalize prostitution, that it might stop the number of rapes occuring in Illinois each year and also she would support the legislation if prostitution was limited to a specific area.

Relative to the first statement, Yourell indicated there have been many studies made relative to the causes of rape and in high areas of high prostitution activity there has been no decrease in rape incidents, but rather the person that does commit rape does not do so because of a lack of an outlet for a sexual drive, but due to the rapist intention to harm someone and so to indicate that legalizing prostitution would reveal a decrease in rape incidents certainly not in any case a fact.

Rep Yourell also believes that you cannot designate certain areas for the practice of legalized prostitution simply because no city, village or town that he is aware of in Illinois would tolerate such a zoning condition to be placed on the residents of a community. In addition, prostitution has sometimes been referred to as a victimless crime, but a victimless crime is one that no body seems to have suffered any harmful affects from the association. This simply is not the case and Rep Yourell would suggest that Rep Barnes contact Mr Tony Lobue, who is the sargeant at the Central Police Station in the City of Chicago and has been on the vice squad for 16 years and has indicated that 80 to 85 per cent of the cases involving prostitutes and their customers have been involved and been the victim of a crime.

The revenue derived from the act of prostitution in itself is a secondary motive for committing prostitution because Sargeant Lobue and his study indicates that the prostitute is not only interested in the revenue that she might derive from the customer, but rather in ripping off his personal property, i.e. credit cards, money, hotel keys and other items as well. For exampie, the hotels in Chicago lock all of their staircases after 11 pm because it is a common practice for prostitutes to steal a key from their customers and later when the room is empty, they steal the personal property of those who occupy the room.

Sargeant Lobue indicated that most of the prostitutes that are apprehended have many credit cards, check books and many number of hotel keys to hotels in the Chicago area and to indicate that prostitution is a victimless crime certainly is not the case.

The only area of prostitution that does not claim a victim generally is that part of the profession that is operated by call-girls who have to rely on repeat business to stay in business. Seventy percent of the prostitutes in the City of Chicago work for pimps who in turn with their prostitutes prey on the property of the customer.

So, once again, to suggest that legalizing prostitution would result in any decline in rapes is simply not the case and to call prostitution a victimless crime is not the case either.

If further information is needed relative to the information contained in this article, verification can be obtained by calling Sargeant Lobue at 321-2520 or by contacting Rep Yourell at 422-9300.

CALVIN SENIORS HELP CANCER DRIVE

Mr and Mrs Martin Kuipers, Mr and Mrs Eimer Huzinga and Mrs Rose Swigert organized Calvin Christian Reformed senior citizen volunteers to sort and package materials for the American Cancer Society annual fund drive.

The senior citizens brought refreshments and worked all afternoon at Calvin Christian Reformed Church. Four hundred kits were prepared for use in the Oak Lawn door-to-door campaign.

Mrs Martha Dumke, chairman of this committee for the American Cancer Society, stated, "Calvin Senior Citizens worked hard to complete this enormous task. The Oak Lawn unit is very fortunate to receive help from these wonderful people."

Things to wonder about

It surely boggles the mind that when trustees are campaigning for office it would seem that no stone will be left unturned to return to the residents that which they say the previous board has neglected so badly. They will be our eyes and ears, watch our dollars and make Oak Lawn a better place to live. That's what they say...

Just recently Trustee Joe Vogrich proposed that the village return to the practice of forming standing committees to study the different operations of the village and the various departments: finance, public works, puhlic safety, public relations, engineering and building & zoning. It was suggested that three trustees would serve on each committee. Thus, according to Vogrich, each would be more knowledgeable at hudget time when they decide how the $23,000,000 should be spent. Trustees John Cleveland, Ron Stancik and Vogrich, who are all in favor of the committees, worked together on the ordinance that was presented to the board as a whole.

Vogrich claims that the trustees are out of touch, that they have little to say, and that setting policy, which should be their function, is slipping thru their fingers. Vogrich further contends that because the trustees have little understanding of the departmental operations they can rely only on the department heads when they present a budget.

"Two heads are better than one," Vogrich said, "and because we are in touch with the people it is possible that we can distinguish between a real need and one that should be cut back."

Trustee John Hardek, who is against the committees, said, "Too many cooks spoil the pie, or whatever." He also said that he believed this move would bring about a return of political patronage to the board. He said that a committee chairman may be apt to put the wishes of department head before the welfare of the village as a whole.

This could hardly be factual, as Mr Hardek should realize, because each trustee would be serving on more than one committee in a reciprocal manner and with a different chairman for each committee.

Trustee Hardek further said that he believed the committees would interfere with the operations of the village manager and make extra work for him.

After attending all of the budget meetings last year, and with the realization that the budgets from the many departments are turned over to the finance director and the village manager early in July to start hacking away, it would seem that some of the burden would be lifted from their shoulders and the onus for proper distribution of the funds lay with the trustees who are always claiming they are watching the dollars for us.

Trustee Jay Bergamini said that he believed the committees would take up too much time. "If I did any more," he said, "I don't think I could do my own joh. I would become a full time trustee."

Bergamini also said, "We know the needs, we need money, police cars, trucks - it's not that we don't know the needs, when we sat at the hudget meeting we didn't know which was priority."

It would seem that this statement in itself is an admission that Vogrich is right when he says they (the trustees) are not overly bright at budget time.

Trustee John Cleveland, who favors the committees, said that since he is on the board he has suggested a street program to maintain the streets and nothing ever happens. He said we have a program for putting them in and that is all.

"The streets, curbs and sewers are falling apart," he said, "and we're doing nothing about them. Some day we're going to be sorry that we haven't prepared ourselves and the cost will be prohibitive when they all go at once." Cleveland realizes that a committee could be heard along these lines where the voice of one trustee is hut a whisper thrown into a strong wind.

Trustee Les Anderson, who is also against the committees as proposed, said that he has no problem understanding what is going on and that he calls the village hall 2 and 3 times a day.

How anyone could possibly believe that hy calling the village hall he could absorb the workings of the departments is a mystery to this humhle writer. The phones there are always to busy it's hard to get the time of day iet alone what is happening at Public Works on Central, Engineering on Southwest Highway and the Fire Department on 103rd & Kostner.

He suggested that committees be made of residents from each district which was cut short by all the trustees as an impracticle approach. Anderson then suggested that one trustee serve each department for a year and rotate each year. In four years each would have a general knowledge of four departments.

One would have to question the year that may be lost should one trustee not take care of his obligation.

Trustee Ron Stancik, who favors the committees, said that they are needed to set up long term policies and goals for the village. He said, "They could be very valuable for those of us who are not afraid to work." He also commented that those who thought the committees would entail too many hours should have considered this before running for office.

Mayor Ernie Kolb also favors the committees. He recalled that they had worked very well before they were abolished in 1973. He is also very firm on the continuance of the financial committee that was in effect last year. Mayor Kolb advises that on this committee the board works as a whole.

Trustee Vogrich then said that although he had suggested the committees meet once a month they could meet once in two months or six months if they wanted as long as they made some effort to find out what is going on.

"Maybe we'll find out we're spending money in the wrong place," Vogrich said.

A vote on the ordinance was not taken until further discussion could take place on the numbers to serve on a committee could be established and how many meetings would be involved.

In a later statement to VILLAGE VIEW, Trustee Vogrich said, "They are all too lazy to work, they want to sit at home and watch TV instead!"

What do you think?

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

RUSSO WORKSHOPS BACK IN ACTION

It's a pleasure for me to announce that this month I will resume my congressional workshops in the Third District.

This may suprise you, if you have an image of a Congressman constantly in a whirl-wide of exciting events and conversations with the powerful – but these workshops, meeting with the people in my District, are far and way the most exciting and most enjoyable and educational part of my job.

We started the workshops in 1975. At that first meeting were some 30 people, but we held the workshops nearly every week and the interest and the crowd participation grew. Now we average over 100 participants and they are a pretty good cross-section of people. We're returning to a schedule of two to three workshops a month until early September when the mailing restrictions imposed on us 60 days prior to an election go into effect.

These workshops have turned out to be - not models of decorum and systematic resolution of differences - but lively shouting, demanding, exhilarating meetings of people-with-people and people-with-government. It's the old principle of participatory government and, believe me, the meetings accurately reflect democracy in action. In fact, I often sit back and watch the audience members debate each other, and it's not too different from the Floor of the House.

It's a real learning experience for me. I'm there to answer questions, yes, but I don't have all the answers. The key element is that I get feedback from the people. Instead of government officials, I'm hearing people in the Third District. Instead of reams of lifeless paper, I'm confronted with human beings. It brings government to life for me.

The government spends a lot of money – we all know that – so I find it deeply rewarding that it is possible to bring the government to the people with a minimum of effort and expense.

We have attempted to keep expenses at a minimum. The facilities where we meet are provided free and my staff works on their own time. We send out notice cards to a particular zone (we have divided the District into seven zones) and spend approximately $48 for paper and $72 for printing for a mailing to an average of 24,000 people.

We use the "frank" which denotes the right of government officials to send mail free. The cost of sending franked mail is paid hy a lump-sum appropriation which is authorized and appropriated each year for the legislative hranch of government, and the aggregate amount of the cost for carrying franked mail that year is then paid to the Postal Service as postal revenue. As opposed to some expenses borne hy the taxpayers I believe that these workshops are an excellent dollars and cents bargain: by simply showing up in your own neighborhood you speak and I, as your representative in Washington, listen.

I would urge any citizen who wants to have a chance to offer an opinion, sound off, ask a question, resolve a problem, or just listen, to attend a workship. It's an opportunity for exercising your rights as a citizen and a voter.

Congressman Marty Russo and his staff will hold a Workshop on Saturday, April 15, 1:30 to 3:30 pm at the Hometown City Hall, 4331 Southwest Highway.

MORE ON WHAT TO WEAR

In TOKYO, sportive dress is the keynote for both daytime and evening activities. But the leading downtown hotels require a suit for the men at lunch and dinnertime, for cocktails and at some ceremonial occasions. Since the Olymics here, the blazer has become an acceptable substitute for the business suit.

HONG KONG -- After six, men dress rather formally especially in exclusive restaurants and hotels. Blazers are permitted. Residents tend toward conventional business attire. Tourists can be more sportive for daytime activities, but the super-casual look is not favored.

ZURICH -- dress is quite liberal, anything goes. The few exceptions would be at the most luxurious hotels or restaurants, where a blazer is the acceptable substitute.

BERMUDA -- where dress during the day is casual and sportive, and of course bermuda shorts are acceptable. There is an old custom here of dressing more formally on Thursday nights, (from the days when the cruise ships departed).

Sportive dress is the rule in daytime as well as for evening in AMSTERDAM. Concerts, theatre and exclusive restaurants require a suit for the men. The evenings are cool during the summer months so a light coat is suggested.

So plan your wardrobe accordingly after you have your travel plans complete. We can help you in so many ways to make these trips. Why not come in and talk about some plans now. Our address is 5615 W. 95th Street.

Richards miss earns $8,000 scholarship

Claudia Cumble, daughter of Mr and Mrs J. Edwin Cumble of Oak Lawn, has been named as the recipient of a four-year renewable drama and speech scholarship to Birmingham-Southern College in Alabama.

Claudia was awarded the scholarship based upon her academic record as well as her performance in the college's Merit Scholarship Competition on February 4. As part of the competition Claudia was interviewed by college faculty members and demonstrated her dramatic and speaking abilities in an audition in which she presented three monologs.

The Richards High School senior has been active in school dramatic productions and will play the part of one of the nuns in HLR's spring production, "The Sound of Music," April 21-23 at Richards Campus.

IT'S OVER — "TRADE POUNDS FOR DOLLARS" WEIGHT-A-THON

The highly successful project of the Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society's "TRADE POUNDS FOR DOLLARS" WEIGHT-A-THON six-week contest is over. The winners are being presented certificates by Crusade Chairman Dr Robert C. Wall (r) (minus 18 lbs), for dinner and show for two to (l) Jo Lemon, Physical Science & Biology teacher at Evergreen Park High School, who lost 25 lbs and collected $450, and (c) Richard De Boer, Building Commissioner & Administrative Assistant of the Village of Evergreen Park, to a Get-Away weekend for two, for his loss of 34 pounds and collection of over $500.

A total of $6200 was realized from the participation of 75 overweights, accounting for an aggregate loss of 718 lbs, or an average of approximately 10 lbs per person, which the majority stated was their desired goal. Their loss is the American Cancer Society's gain to work towards "WIPING OUT CANCER IN YOUR LIFETIME", and Dr Wall is grateful for this community support.

SENIORS OVER 60 SOUGHT IN NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK

Suburban Cook County Area Agency on Aging's Senior Companion program is funded through ACTION. It provides an opportunity for low-income older suburbanites to help adults with special needs. The volunteers visit those confined to their homes or to institutions.

All visits are within a short distance of the Senior Companion's home. Stipends and expenses are paid by the program, enabling the volunteers to enrich the lives of others at no cost to themselves.

Senior Companions become friends to the adults they visit. They play cards, share arts and crafts skills, and many other things. They do not do housework or provide health care.

For more information call Diane Slezak, 341-1400.

HAPPENING AT OAK LAWN LIBRARY

Carol Adams, head of the Local History Section of the Oak Lawn Public Library, receives a unique water color of the Library building donated by Reba Elvidge (center) as James M. O'Brien, Head Librarian, looks on. The painting depicts the library as it looked in the late 30's and 40's was done by artist C. J. Clarke and has been in the possession of the Elvidge family for about fifteen years. The painting is now on display in the Local History Room at the Library.

Smoke detectors working for Oak Lawn families

Last Monday evening the John Smith family of 5744 W 89th Street, received early warning of a fire because they had two smoke detectors in their home.

The fire originated in the walls next to the fireplace, and was burning unnoticed by Mr Smith who was sitting at his desk five feet from the fire. A smoke detector in the same room sounded and because he still could not visibly see fire or smoke, he though that the detector was malfunctioning.

Within twenty seconds another smoke detector in the recreation room sounded alerting Mrs Smith who was in the kitchen. Mrs Smith stated that when she entered the recreation room she could see a very small amount of smoke near the ceiling. She then entered the living room where Mr Smith was trying to reset the smoke detector. By then she could see a small amount of smoke in the living room. Together they decided to gather the children and go next door to call the Fire Department. The fire caused over $3000 damage but according to Mrs Smith, they probably would have lost everything if they hadn't had smoke detectors.

The Oak Lawn Fire Prevention Bureau urges every homeowner to install a detector in every level of their home and is offering smoke detector awareness programs to any group within the village limits. Contact Lieutenant R. Murray at 422-0388 for further information.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO THE 11TH ANNUAL WORTHY CAUSE BENEFIT

Arrangements are in progress for the 11th annual "Worthy Cause" Benefit (cocktail party), which will take place Sunday, May 7, 1978. The benefit is sponsored by residents of southwest Chicago and suburban areas to raise money for the Chulucanas Mission in Peru, South America. Bishop John McNabb, formerly principal of Mendel High School, has headed this Peruvian prelature since June of 1967. Proceeds from the benefit will aid in a selfhelp program in human, moral and religious formation of over 350,000 Peruvians in this missionary diocese.

Along with entertainment, a uniquely interesting feature of the benefit will be a raffle of Peruvian art sent here from the mission in Chulucanas.

Evergreen Park intern program gaining recognition

Richard Dystrup, a teacher at Evergreen Park Community High School, has spearheaded a new program. The program is called "The Executive Internship Program," and is intended to educate students in certain aspects of business by providing first hand-on-the-job training experience. The students receive high school credit for this experience.

As a real estate intern, Michael Maloney, one of the students involved in the program in learning experience in real estate, does no labor or clerical chores in the Boblak office. As his title implies, he is a student and observer of the managerial functions of real estate. This entails the day to day operations of sales management, office management, property management, appraising and training. Much of Mike's training is derived from observing and communicating with the associates and staff in the office. He listens to in person as well as telephone conversations to study techniques of selling. When puzzled by a certain facet of the business, he can ask a question of an associate and receive an answer. Mike attends the weekly sales and training meeting held each Wednesday morning.

Inasmuch as Mr Boblak has had teaching experience at Oak Lawn High School and St Xaviers College, he brings to the training classes over 25 years of study of real estate. The classes consist of cassette tape playing, use of visual aide material, role playing and lectures.

One of the most important lessons Mike is learning from the internship is the fact that the mystery of a business office is removed. He sees a business in operation not a class room study but as it actually is. He is able to observe the problems and the solutions, time management and the flexibility a manager must exercise for effective management.

Speaking about the program, Mr Boblak said, "We are proud to have Mike as an intern. He as well as all of us are benefiting from his internship. It is a rewarding experience. We are grateful to Evergreen Park High School and especially Mr Dystrup for involving our firm in the program."

Rep Yourell urges broader intern program

Dan O'Neill of Evergreen Park and a senior at Evergreen Park Community High School has been selected by Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, as a student intern. Dan is a compliment to the program at Evergreen Park Community High School, instituted by Mr Richard Dystrup. The intern program instituted at Evergreen Park High School has proven to be a very worthwhile program for students wishing to take an active role in government, commerce, industry, medicine, etc.

Dan is a National Honor Merit Scholar. On graduation he will be attending Bradley U, majoring in Engineering.

Rep Yourell has been very impressed with Dan's work and his knowledge in governmental activities as well as in the political side of government. Dan has traveled to Springfield with Yourell on several occasions and has actively participated in the programs unique to the General Assembly in the State of Illinois.

Rep Yourell has appealed to the school to continue its program beyond this initial stage so as to provide student interns to elected public officials and all areas of government and to make it a continuing program at the high school.

Name OLCHS officers to VICA convention

The Oak Lawn Comm High School Vocational Industrial Club recently participated with 35 south suburban high schools in the Region 9 VICA meeting held at Thornton Fractional North High School in Calumet City.

OLCHS students Rick Van Stedum, (junior), was selected as the State Vice President candidate, and Ted Fuka (junior) was nominated as the Parlimentarian candidate. These two young men will represent Region 9 at the VICA State Convention to be held in Springfield on April 20, 21 and 22.

There are 63 students in the Oak Lawn High School VICA club who are currently enrolled in the schools Industrial Cooperation Education Program. The VICA club and faculty sponsors Bill Garry and Frank Vazzana are currently planning their annual spring employer banquet. The banquet which honors the student's employers will be held at the Martinique Restaurant, May 18.

Richards students earn awards at conference

Two H L Richards High School students earned top awards and the right to advance to national competition through their achievements at the recent Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) State Career Development Conference.

Junior Laura Gavoni of Chicago Ridge earned the state championship in the Free Enterprise Event sponsored by Phillips Petroleum.

Senior Jim Roth of Oak Lawn captured third place honors in Finance and Credit. The two will next compete for national honors in competition to be held in May in Washington D.C.

Also earning honors as finalists at the state competition were seniors Kurt Bryce of Oak Lawn, Service Industry, and Bill Ryan of Chicago Ridge, Servicing Cars.

The Distributive Education Program is open to students who have a career goal in the field of marketing. Junior and senior students develop their skills through participation in a theory class, through on-the-job training in local businesses and through participation in activities sponsored through DECA.

DAV pushing for large membership

Al Grajek, adjutant of the local Chapter Disabled American Veterans, announced that the Tricentennial Chapter #84 has opened it's drive for new members.

The Chapter #84 membership drive is open to all veterans who are residing in the southwest area suburbs. The Disabled American Veterans are part of a group of veterans who were wounded, injured or suffered the indignities of war, while serving on active duty in our nation's military forces.

Chapter #84 D.A.V. has been a frontrunner for strong support of government benefits that are being received by veterans from the Veterans Administration.

For the second consecutive year the Tricentennial Chapter #84 D.A.V. has been voicing their strong support for the increase of the disabled American veterans compensation, pensions and social security payments. They also file claims for disabled veterans and their dependents.

Grajek said, "If the organization is to continue to be recognized as the official spokesman for the disabled veterans and their dependents, our membership must continue to grow."

Presently the national membership of the Disabled American Veterans has reached over 550,000.

The Tricentennial Chapter #84 was chartered on September 14, 1976 with an initial membership of forty eight and presently the Chapter #84 has over two hundred members. The quota for the Tricentennial Chapter for this year is three hundred fifty. The southwest area has over 4,300 Veterans who are eligible to join D.A.V.

Grajek, who is the local representative and spokesman for the Disabled American Veterans, has just returned from Washington D.C. where he and other two hundred Disabled American Veterans appeared before the U. S. Senate and the Congressional Veterans affairs committee making a presentation for better compensations, pensions and job priorities for the Disabled Veterans including Vietnam Veterans and to update their compensation in line with the cost of living.

Those testifying in behalf of the national disabled told the Senate and Congressional Committee that those who fought and gave parts of their body for America, do not need to be associated or connected in anyway with those who are on public welfare or relief.

For further information on how to join the local D.A.V. organization contact, Al Grajek, adjutant at 6435 West 111th Street, Worth, or call D.A.V. Office at 448-0282. The chapter membership meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month, at 10739 South Ridgeland Avenue at 7:30 p.m.

The 1977-1978 membership drive to be open until May 18th.

TALKING IT OVER

MEMO FROM THE

OAK LAWN ARTIST EXHIBITOR OR THE MONTH

Working in watercolor, Casey has captured the architectural flavor of the southwest side and the suburbs. One scene of an Oak Lawn corner is immediately recognized as the lumber yard.

Casey started out 19 years ago to do a painting of a friend's home as a gift. For many years he did sketches and paintings of homes on commission and since has branched out. Although he started out doing homes in Beverly Hills he has since moved to Oak Lawn and is capturing the flavor of the suburbs.

ART & SCULPTURE COLLECTION EXPANDED

The Fine Arts Department at the library has expanded and enlarged its art print and sculpture reproduction collection. Included in the new art prints are: Wyeth's "After Picking", Mau's "Roses in the Wind", Henri's "West Coast of Ireland", Whistler's "The White Girl" and Picasso's "Pierrot With Mask." Two art prints can be borrowed at a time for one month on either an Oak Lawn Library card or a Suburban Library System card.

Fifteen new pieces of sculpture have been added including: Rodin's "The Kiss", Schuller's "Motherhood", Robinson's "Mother and Child", Terken's "Story Hour" and Hartwig's "Fledling."

Like the art prints, two pieces of sculpture may be taken out on your library card and there are 65 pieces to choose from.

Richards speech team claims 29 individual awards

Members of the H.L. [redacted] High School [redacted] Team claimed 29 [redacted] awards in the course of 11 regular season meets, and a number of team members won the right to participate in the National Forensic League Tournament held February 24 and 25 and University High School and the Scotie Tournament of Champions held March 3 and 4 in Belleville, IL.

The opportunity to participate in the National Forensic League and Scotie Tournaments represents a special honor, according to HLR Speech Team head coach Scott Hanawalt, since invitations to these tournaments are earned only by individuals who give outstanding performances during the regular season. For example, to be eligible to compete in the Scotie Tournament of Champions, a speaker must earn a first place award at a regular season tournament.

Outstanding speakers for 1977-78 included senior Kim Pauly of Oak Lawn who led the team with the best overall record, taking first place at Northeastern Illinois U and in SICA Varsity Competition; senior Stefanie Theodorou of Oak Lawn, a first place winner at the Shepard High School Invitational and at District Speech Competition; and senior Dan Krc of Oak Lawn, first place winner at both the Shepard Invitational and the District Speech Competition. Freshman Holly Maiter of Oak Lawn, this year's outstanding novice speaker, claimed a first place award at the SICA Novice Tournament.

Looking back over the 1977-78 season, Coach Hanawalt expressed pride in his team's accomplishments as well as anticipation for the 1978-79 season. "While this was not our season of greatest accomplishment, several individuals did quite well this year. We are actually losing fewer seniors this year than in recent years, so I look forward to a good season next year," he concluded.

OAK LAWN EMPLOYEES BLOOD DRIVE PROGRAM

SEWING CLASSES IN OAK LAWN

Just in time for the jogging season is a special sewing class for men and women offered by the Oak Lawn Park District especially for making jogging suits. With popular stretch terry cloth and helpful instructions, registrants in this course will find they can own the latest in jogging fashions at a fraction of the cost of a ready made garment.

According to Park District Commissioner Marjorie Joy, [redacted] classes will offer [redacted]ctions for making [redacted]mmer sportswear including slacks, shorts and tee shirts. She announced there will also be specialized classes for swimwear and a class for blazers and jackets for the more experienced".

Spring session classes will consist of two hour sessions for six weeks starting April 18 and 19. The cost is $10, classes held at the White Building, 9524 S 54th Ave., Girls 10-15 years of age will have sessions on Tuesdays or Wednesday from 3:30 to 5:30 for summer sportswear. Adults will have summer sportswear on Tuesday from 5:30 to 7:30 and swimwear on Wednesday at 5:30-7:30. The specialized jogging suit class for men and women is scheduled Tuesday; blazer jackets on Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9:30.

Registration for classes will be accepted at 9400 Kenton, phone 424-7300.

NIU offers journalism session

An intensive 8-week session in writing and editing will be offered by Northern Illinois U this summer for college graduates with no journalism background who want to qualify to enter a master of arts degree program in journalism.

To qualify, students must have a bachelor's degree from an accredited university by June and enroll in NIU's summer session that begins June 19.

The program includes intensive writing and editing instruction for a limited enrollment of 10 students. Qualified students must apply in advance for a permit.

Following successful completion, the student may enroll in the 30-credit master of arts program in journalism in most emphases without undergraduate deficiencies. The graduate program may be taken full or part-time, on campus in DeKalb, or in Chicago or Barrington extension centers.

Interested students should write the Department of Journalism, Northern Illinois U, DeKalb, IL 60115, for further details on how to enter the program.

St Catherine lad wins Justice Day Essay Contest

Morgan Finley, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, has chaired the second annual "Justice Day Essay Contest". The winner, Joseph Coccaro, a student of St Catherine of Alexandria, was honored at the Oak Lawn Village Hall on April 11, 1978, and presented with a Resolution by the President and Board of Trustees.

The contest, which is open to all 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students in Chicago, suburban Cook County, parochial and private schools, grew out of an effort to encourage young people to take a greater interest in our system of justice.

Parking and traffic problems to be heard at meeting

The Southwest Area Transportation Committee (SWATRANS), with support from the Palos Orland Worth Area Council (POW), invites public officials and those concerned to a "Transit Station Area Development Conference". The conference is being conducted in response to concerns of parking and traffic congestion at commuter stations, particularly when trains are added on southwest commuter routes.

The conference is "free" and open to all. The public can bring their problems to Moraine Valley Community College, located at 10900 S 88th Avenue in Palos Hills on Saturday, May 6, 9 am to 12 noon.

Any questions on the conference can be directed to George W. Eck, 424-1836.

Vina O'Malley

"Rosemary's Baby" didn't have as much publicity as did the release of Rosemary Grady, the Senior Citizen's Program Supervisor from that position.

It has never been disputed that Ms Grady did a good job of creating programs for the seniors. But, when a person goes beyond the designated role, that of which the seniors would not have been aware, it is the right of the Village Manager, Dick O'Neill, to step in and take the necessary steps in the best interest of the village as a whole. For example, everyone on the street may love a certain patrolman, but that does not mean he can set any type of policy, interfere with the Police Chief or the administration.

Trustee Joe Vogrich did what he was elected for and in the proper manner when he called for an executive session to discuss the Senior Citizen Commission.

About this case, as is the case in many less headline creating stories, calling for an executive session to discuss the problem is the only fair way to lay it out on the table.

If Trustee Vogrich had been pressuring the Village Manager to release Ms Grady why call for an executive session? Also, if one trustee has all of this power, why do we need five other trustees and a village manager?

It has been said in news stories that there were two who voted against the release of Ms Grady. There were no votes taken, there never is, it is only a matter of discussion. Further, there were nine (9) people at the meeting, Mayor Ernie Kolb, Village Manager Dick O'Neill, Village Clerk Jayne Powers, Trustees Les Anderson, Jay Bergamini, John Cleveland, John Hardek, Ron Stancik and Joe Vogrich, could all of these other people have been wrong?

Why were there leaks to the news media of what took place at that particular meeting?

Mayor Kolb has openly stated that there will be no more executive sessions and everything will now be laid out in the open and at board meetings. This could mean that the private lives and weaknesses of village employees, and the department heads, can be laid bare before the people and the news media with disastrous effects upon an employee's innocent family. One of the commendable aspects of the closed meeting is that the person involved can turn in a resignation, no one is hurt, and he, or she, is free to obtain work elsewhere.

Trustee Vogrich has also stated that he will never again attend an executive session. Vogrich said that some of the statements made about himself were not only untrue but that they were out and out lies. He said that anything he has to say after this will be made in public.

Vogrich has received what appears to be a planned abuse of phone calls and many letters from some of the 300 or so senior citizens that signed the petitions. There are over 11,000 seniors in Oak Lawn who have not been heard from and whose rights were possibly protected by O'Neill's decision.

In a recent news release from the Village Manager he said in part: Without discussing the personnel action taken, Mr O'Neill wants to be unequivocal in stating that the decision was made on his judgement only. There were no directions, either subtle or explicit, regarding this act from any of the elected or other personnel. The Manager made his decision based upon what he considered to be the best interests of the Village. Although they were informed about the matter, no affirmation of the decision was sought from any elected officials.

Release Authorized by:
Richard E. O'Neill, Village Manager

Now, are we to believe Dick O'Neill, or, are we going to believe a lot of gossip that has created unflattering headlines for the village. The Senior Citizens have had the best Oak Lawn has to offer and the administration should be praised rather than abused.

VILLAGE VIEW believes that the matter should be laid to rest and we should get on with the business of making Oak Lawn's Senior Citizen Commission an example to follow for the State of Illinois.

Yourell bills would increase Homestead exemption and would allow board members to select attorney

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell has introduced legislation to increase the Homestead Act exemption from $1500 to $3000.

The Homestead Act exempts persons 65 and over from paying real estate taxes on the first $1500 of their home's assessed value. With inflation and quadrennial reassessments, taxes have gone up since the Homestead Act took effect.

"Senior citizens don't have the opportunity to supplement their incomes to combat inflation," Yourell said. "Taxes have gone up, and the Homestead exemption has not. That's the reason for this bill.

"The quadrennial reassessment will really kick senior citizens in the head, especially in Worth Township, where many senior citizens live," Yourell added. "The change proposed by my bill is necessary if these senior citizens are just going to stay even."

City and village attorneys would be elected by city councils and village boards under a bill recently introduced by Rep Harry Yourell. The bill would take the appointive power away from city and village managers.

"An attorney ought to be elected by the people he is empowered to represent, namely, the city council or village board," Yourell said. "He should not be appointed by the city or village manager."

In Oak Lawn the village manager appoints the attorney.

Other important legislation would ban dumping in Illinois of nuclear and industrial wastes from other states required a package of 12 bills. They would require that disposal sites be located at least a half mile from any incorporated town, site operators carry liability insurance, and carriers file manifests with the Department of Transportation before moving hazardous wastes.

The representative's bills were introduced in conjunction with identical bills put before the Senate by State Senator Vince Demuzio (D), Carlinville, a move which increases their chance of passage.

"These bills will prevent other states from using Illinois as a dumping ground," Yourell said. "It seems there is now no control or, at least, no state control over the transportation, dumping, and storage of hazardous materials.

The legislation would require licensing of landfill operators who accept hazardous materials for disposal, inspections of such landfills every three months, the payment by the operators of a perpetual care fee for the maintenance of their landfill sites after they cease operating them, and the monitoring by PCM of such sites for seven years after operations cease.

The package also contains a bill providing for the EPA "to conduct a study of and develop a plan for hazardous refuse disposal in the state." A final bill would redefine "hazardous refuse" to make its meaning more clear and accurate in the statutes.

In other busuiness, under-age marriages should require the consent of only one parent rather than two where that parent has legal custody of the child, according to Yourell.

Yourell recently introduced legislation to amend the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act so that only one parent's consent would be necessary in such cases.

Marriage is permitted without consent if the parties will have reached 18 by the date of their wedding.

Chief Hein asks resident volunteers for new STOP program

Applications for the Special Teams on Patrol (STOP) program are now available from the Oak Lawn Police department. Any Oak Lawn resident 18 years of age or older is eligible to sign up for this newly-formed program, designed to enlist the aid of Oak Lawn residents to act as the "eyes and ears" of the police department.

According to Police Chief Gerhard "Ace" Hein, trained observers using citizens band radios will assist the police department in the apprehension of an offender by observing and reporting criminal acts.

All volunteers for the program must have their own CB units. The STOP volunteers will receive 10 hours of initial trianing in the beginning of the program. As the program progresses, regular training seminars will be scheduled as needed. Volunteers will learn how to report incidents and will be taught not to take any action on their own.

While on patrol, STOP volunteers will be assigned to sections of the village and will remain in a specified area, either on mobile patrol or stationary patrol. If the participants see a crime in progress, they will radio information to a dispatcher in the Oak Lawn police station who will, in turn, notify the police. All volunteers will come under the authority of the watch commander who is on duty.

Volunteers will be required to sign a waiver releasing the village from all liability, both civil and criminal, which may result from their actions. Applicants will be notified by the Oak Lawn Police Department.

VFW sponsor Buddy Poppy Sale

The annual "Buddy Poppy" sale sponsored by Johnson Phelps Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5220 and their Ladies Auxiliary and Junior Girls Unit to raise monies for their relief fund will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 18, 19, and 20 thruout the Village of Oak Lawn.

Commander Frank Sullivan of Oak Lawn, repotts that all monies collected are used exclusively for hospitalized veterans and their families; to provide treats for the veterans or children of veterans in Dixon and Lincoln State schools for the retarded and local schools for the handicapped; work with the orphaned children at the VFW National Home; and for emergency relief for veterans.

Aux President Lorraine Krzos of Oak Lawn, points out that the auxiliary donates $25 per month for work with the veterans at Oak Forest Hospital, as well as donations to provide cigarettes and to the general hospital fund.

Veterans in government and VA hospitals also benefit by making the poppies earning spending money for themselves.

Commander Sullivan and President Krzos point out that the veterans are aging and need more hospitalization and urge everyone to "be generous in their contribution" so they may continue to take care of the veterans and their families who need help.

Johnson Phelps has 25,000 Buddy Poppies to sell this year and are in need of volunteers. If you can help for an hour or so, call 424-5959 or 423-5220. Ed Majer of Oak Lawn and Estelle Opletal of Chicago are chairmen and will welcome your call.

RTA PASS DEADLINE

For senior citizens over 65, the deadline for exchanging the old CTA reduced-fare pass for the new RTA pass is June 30, 1978. The new RTA passes are currently available at PLOWS Council on Aging, 9526 S Cook Ave. The new pass enables seniors to ride at reduced-fare rates on all CTA buses and rapid transit, as well as other carriers affiliated with RTA.

Persons who do not have the old pass should bring a small photo of themselves, one-and-one-half inches square, and proof of age. There is no charge for the pass. To exchange the pass, persons should simply bring the old pass into the office with them. For more information call PLOWS at 422-6722, 422-6769.

SENIOR UPDATE

State Representative Herb Huskey and Mary Sonnickson of Orland Park exchanged ideas for improving communications between area senior residents and public officials during a recent workshop that he hosted in Oak Lawn. Representatives from the Illinois Department on Aging, Suburban Cook County Area Agency on Aging, and various local senior citizen organizations outlined available programs and services to the conference participants. Copies of Huskey's revised directory, Senior Update, were also distributed at the meeting. Huskey indicated that he is planning another senior citizen workshop for September or October.

MEETING

COIN CLUB

The next meeting of the Oak Lawn Coin Club will be held May 2nd at 8 pm, at the Colonial Savings and Loan building located at 95th and Cicero Avenue.

In celebration of National Coin Week the club will show slides on "Coins with Special Significance". There are 44 slides depicting mileposts in the History of Money. Each slide shows a coin that has a story of it's own and is of interest to collectors as well as non-collectors. The public is welcome. Admission is free. Plenty of free parking.

Brooks names scholarship winner

Kenneth Paul Cottrell (seated) son of Mr and Mrs Ken Cottrell of Hickory Hills, was named winner of the $500 Brooks Advertising Continuing Education Scholarship. Competing against all entries received, Ken's original essay on, "The effects of the private enterprise system on our lifestyle today", was judged best.

Ken is 19 and a freshman at both Moraine Valley College and St Xavier's College. He is a phychology major with aspirations of becoming a clinical psychologist after his schooling. That schooling will take a minimum of 12 years to complete. Four years of undergraduate work, four years of graduate studies and four years of either medical school or extended study at the ILlinois Institute of Professional Psychiatry is requred to fulfill his goal.

In addition to carrying a full load of schoolwork, Ken is employed at United Parcel Service where he works five nights a week.

Obviously as dedicated to play as he is to work, Ken recently took home a first place trophy for his entry in the Chicago Auto Show.

Jay Brooks, (pictured standing) president of Brooks Advertising in Oak Lawn commented, "Ken's essay was very well thought out. He stated his thesis concisely and then supported it with both facts and personal introspection. It's really refreshing to meet such a well-organized, birght and most assuredly, success-bound person."

LIONS AID HOSPITAL

The community-wide phase of Little Company of Mary Hospital's fund raising program, Project '78, continued to gain momentum with a sizable donation received from another local fraternal organization, the Evergreen Park Lions Club.

Concerned volunteers are continuing to call on local business organizations and individual prospects throughout the area seeking financial support for this important program that will benefit the entire community.

The restoration of the McCord House build in Oak Lawn in 1893 continues. On April 9, while excavating in the basement of the house a pale blue beer bottle from Blue Island Breweries, apparently a subsidiary of United Brewing Company was found. It is believed that this bottle may be traced to the time of the building's construction. Further research will be done on the bottle that has a long cylindrical neck with raised glass lettering. It is amazing the bottle was found intact, as the removal of a cement floor was going on when the bottle was discovered, neck down in the soil.

Michael and Brenda Rzechula, who are restoring the Victorian home recentiy attended a national clinic in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, conducted by the Victorian Socelty in America. The ten year restoration project is two years into completion. The McCord home is located at 5400 W 96th St.

Bakalis notes states improved conditions

Illinois Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis has reported that the state's fiscal condition continued to improve in spite of the extreme weather conditions, the extended coal strike and poor state performance in the acquisition of federal funds.

Bakalis said: "As of February 28 the combined funds available balance -- the most consistent indicator of the state's 'bill-paying' ability -- was $85 million above the balance at the beginning of the fiscal year and $55 million above the year earlier level. These increases have been brought about by the $51 million general funds surplus experienced during the first eight months of the current fiscal year plus larger reserves in other funds which could be transferred into the general funds. This represents a dramatic fiscal turnabout when compared to last year's $39 million deficit for the same period and the $244 million deficit for the same period two years ago."

While the severe winter weather and the lengthy coal strike resulted in lower national industrial production, a slow-down in new factory orders for equipment, reduced retail sales and lower housing starts, revenues from state sources continued to expand much more rapidly than one year earlier. February 1978 sales tax receipts were $24 million above February 1977 while February 1978 income tax receipts exceeded year earlier levels by $14 million.

"While revenues from state sources grew by $258 million, general funds receipts from federal sources for the first eight months of fiscal 1978 were only $1 million higher than comparable receipts for fiscal 1977. Increased reimbursements from Public Aid grant programs including medical assistance during the eight month period were offset by decreased reimbursements for general funds social services spending. Fortunately, AFDC grant spending thus far this year is down by $16 million. This greatly helped to offset the $37 million increase in medical assistance spending during the fiscal year's first eight months," said Bakalis.

Air Force offers employment opportunities

The U.S. Air Force has launched a special program in Northern Illinois to provide immediate employment opportunities for young men and women in several selected Air Force specialties, officials here announced recently.

"We are capable of placing qualified young men and women in several highly rewarding technical fields right now," explained Captain John J. Mannion, Commander of Air Force recruiters in this area. He pointed out, "the Air Force provides extensive training to develop skills the Air Force needs and that are valuable in the job market after Air Force duty."

For more information contact the Air Force Northern Illinois Opportunity Center, P O Box 386, Elwood, IL 60421 or your local Air Force recruiter.

Take a GIANT STEP in the March of Dimes WALKATHON

TO PROTECT THE UNBORN AND THE NEWBORN

On Sunday, May 7, the March of Dimes "Superwalk" will take place in many designated areas. The event is a 32-kilometer (20 mile) pledge walk — the largest walkathon of its kind. Walkers of all ages find sponsors to contribute a certain amount to the March of Dimes for every mile they walk. All funds raised by the event will help support March of Dimes research, medical service, educational and community service programs designed to prevent birth defects. The minimum pledge is 10¢ per kilometer.

In Oak Lawn the "Superwalk" starts at the Oak Lawn Masonic Temple, 9420 S 52nd Avenue, and ends at the same place. Registration time is 7 am with starting time immediately after registration.

Prizes offered are a 10 speek hike for the walker on each route who collects the most money after the walk; a pocket calculator for the runner-up and a transistor radio for the SuperRep on each route who recruits the highest number of walkers.

WMET "Hitmen" will join the walkers along each route. Marching bands and rock bands add excitement to the starting points and finish points. Snacks will be served along the routes.

Neil Hartigan is the "Superwalk" chairman.

Corrigan Brothers need more blood

Blood is life. This need for life-giving blood has touched the lives of the four Corrigan Brothers and three nephews, who are afflicted with hemophilia. The boys, ranging in age from 4 years to 32 years, are large users of the blood derivative known as anti-hemophiliac factor (AHF). The discovery several years ago of "Factor VIII", the AHF in blood, has enabled victims of the disease to function normally most of the time.

In the year 1977, the four Corrigan sons needed a total of 248 transfusions equal to approximately 1500 pints of blood!

A plea of help must be asked to make the source material - human blood available. Hemophiliacs require only the anti-hemophilia factor or about 1/9 of the entire pint of blood; therefore for each pint of whole blood made available, eight other patients can be helped. A blood drive is planned to aid the Corrigan Family, sponsored by St Catherine of Alexandria Altar and Rosary Society on Sunday, April 30 from 9 am to 2 pm at the Alexandria Hall, 107th & Kedvale.

For each person donating blood a 6 month insurance coverage is given for the donor and his family. Donors may contact: Mary Ellen Gilboy, 636-2828, Lorrie Anderson, 423-7398 or Leona Heinen, 424-1373 for particulars. Blood is Life, pass it on!

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

WRITING YOUR CONGRESSMAN

Have you ever written your Congressman? Part of the legislative and democratic process are those letters from constituents -- letters of persuasion, of criticism, or inquiry, but I suspect few people give this much thought.

I have my "regular" letter writers, and mail is delivered to this office four times a day with a fair cross-section of viewpoints expressed, but it is still a small percentage of people that ever contact their Representative or Senator. That's unfortunate, because letter-writing is one of the best ways to let your elected representatives know how you feel.

If you do write, I have these suggestions: To the extent possible, keep it brief, keep it clear, and keep it accurate.

Congressional offices receive anywhere from 200 to 1000 pieces of mail a week and it is helpful if you state your views as concisely as the subject matter will permit.

In terms of clarity, there are certainly enough things wrong in Washington to warrant voluminous listings of problems. But if it is possible, confine each letter to one problem. This means my staff and I can concentrate on your prohiem quickly, without trying to figure out which is of most concern to you. Also, he as specific as possible. If you have general observations and complaints, bear in mind what is handled by local and state governments as opposed to heing a problem that the Congress would be dealing with iegislatively.

The need for accuracy is especially important if you have a specific problem with a government agency or office. Let us know who you have been dealing with, what happened, when and how. For legislative matters, if you know the number of the bill you are concerned about, include it, as well as a descriptive sentince. There are over 20,000 hills introduced during congressional session, and such information is helpful.

Here are some points that will also help ensure that your letter gets the care and attention it deserves:

Write legihly. You don't have to type your letter but too often key sentences in a letter are illegible, or the name itself can't be deciphered.

Include address. With the volume of mail that comes in, letters are sometimes separated from envelopes. Please put your address including zip code, on the inside of your letter.

Write your own views. A personal letter is far more effective than a form letter or a petition. Sometimes letters are handwritten, but they are identically worded with other letters that are coming in. Certainly, I still take note of the opinion, but I would welcome knowing the correspondent's own feelings on the subject.

One final word. Not every letter has to be constructive, but I am amazed at the tone of some letters. Contrary to popular opinion, Congressmen are human and have feelings. If you don't like what a Congressman is doing or saying, give him a piece of your mind, but follow the golden rule: Treat him or her the way you yourself would want to be treated if someone was criticizing you. Insulting and abusive language is hardly a persuasive means of communication.

On the other hand, I've been here over three years, and I am still genuinely touched, pleased and sometimes thrilled with some of the letters I receive. I hope I never grow so hiase as to forget the significance of you, as an individual, taking time to contact your representative in the government.

Everyone of us here in Congress has been granted an important trust, and our job is to be responsive to those who grant the trust, the people back home. Your letters speak in a clearer voice than any opinion poll or news story.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

MORE ABOUT TV PROGRAM "SOAP"

On January 20, 1978 I sent you a letter relative to the TV program "SOAP" along with a list of advertisers who had been sponsors of this program, which you printed on February 15, 1978. It is requested that you print this letter as a sequel to that article to put the record straight.

At the time my article appeared in your paper it was not known what the intentions of the advertisers were in so far as their continued sponsorship of the program. Watching ONE program was all I could stomach.

Among the advertisers mentioned in my letter, replies have been received from the following assuring me that they agreed that the program was not one they were very well pleased with and that they participated in only one episode, and had decided that they would not do so again:

Combe, Inc., 1101 Westchester Ave., White Plains, NY, 10604, John J. Meaken, Jr., President.

Anyone who wrote these companies in protest, I am sure, received a letter similar to the one I received. To those who did not write and who did see my article of February 15, 1978, this is to advise them to no longer exercise any restraints in patronizing these advertisers.

HERB HUSKEY

BILL ASKS MORE DOLLAR RECOVERY FOR VANDALISM

Legislation to expand penalities under the state's Parental Responsihility Law has been introduced in the Illinois House by Representatives Herb Huskey and William D. Walsh (R-6).

Currently, a person who experiences either bodily injury or property damage from vandalism done by youths between the ages of 11 and 18 can only recover up to $500. The proposed change (H.B. 2820), Walsh says, would allow an additional $2,000 maximum recovery limit in cases where a parent is found to have a pattern of neglect that affected the minor's hehavior.

"This legislation serves the dual purpose of not only providing more financial help to many of the people who are victimized by youth vandals," Walsh stated, "but it is also a good crime deterrent. More parents might take a better look at what their kids are doing if they know that a lack of concern could be quite costly."

According to Huskey, House Bill 2820 was introduced after members of his Youth Advisory Committee expressed concern about both increasing incidences of adolescent vandalism and the current damage recovery limit.

"When parental responsibility and adolescent vandalism are tied together, I'm sure that there will be a rapid decrease in the number of these crimes involving both personal injury and property damages," Huskey said.

"Far too long have certain parents turned their backs on the accountahility of knowing where their children are," he stated, "and far too long have certain parents taken an indifferent attitude about vandalism caused hy their offspring. One of the best ways to correct this situation is to hit them in the pocketbook where it hurts."

House Bill 2820 is currently before the House Rules Committee to see if it can be exempted for consideration this spring.

CONSUMER PROTECTION SERVICE PROGRAM

Regulation of Retail Food Service is a program whereby the Government assures that food offered to the public in restaurants and retail markets is safe for human consumption, thereby reducing the incidence of physical, mental and economic stress caused the consumer by food borne illness due to microbial and chemical contamination of foods when exposed to air, water, soil or other elements of the environment.

This program is a consumer protection service to the public. For information contact: Chief, Division of Food & Drugs, Illinois Department of Public Health, 1100 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60610.

Barnes legislation would fund pollution control

Describing it as "the environmental judge for the state," State Rep Jane Barnes has introduced legislation to fund the operation of the Illinois Pollution Control Board in Fiscal Year 1979 (beginning July 1).

"The Pollution Control Board is one of three agencies created in the early 1970's to meet public demand for environmental controls," Representative Barnes said. "It performs administrative and judicial functions involving pollution within the state, and is complemented by the Environmental Protection Agency and the Institute for Environmental Quality.

"The proposed budget will continue to fund the ongoing agency program of writing regulations and hearing cases regarding pollution of Illinois air, water and land," she said. Rep Barnes reported that her bill allocates $718,000 for the Board's Fiscal Year 1979 expenses.

The Board should be praised for their efforts to work within budgetary constraints without seeking significant spending increases," she said. "Instead of requesting additional manpower and fiscal resources, it has adopted a policy of continuing to work within approximately the same manpower and monetary levels." Jane Barnes explained that the Board's budget request is up only two percent over one year ago.

HONOR LCM PHYSICIANS

Three Little Company of Mary Hospital physicians were honored recently at the Beverly Country Club on the occasion of their 25th anniversary as members of the medical staff.

Drug Abuse "holding it's own" according to experts

State Rep Herb Huskey

Mary Wheaton, Nurse
Simmons Jr. High School

Blue Island, said that drug abuse was widespread at his school and estimated that 75 per cent of the school's 1,464 students have at least experimented with drugs.

Most were in agreement when Wagner said that the most popular drugs among younger people are marijuana, alcohol, and phencyclidine hydrochoride, an animal tranquilizer commonly known as PCP.

Later Mary Corliss, representative of the Dangerous Drug Commission, was called to task when she advised smokers to take a moratorium on grass because it may have been sprayed with a poisonous substance "paraquat". The objector said it sounded as though she was condoning the use of drugs.

"We're trying to stem the tide of drug abuse," Corliss replied, "hut the fact is that they (the youths) are using it and they should be aware of dangers at certain points in time."

Many commentators have been on radio and TV recently stressing this same warning and couid also be misconstrued by the public. Paraquat is sprayed on the marijuana plants hy the Mexican government to kili the growth. Some is cut before the damage is complete, hut has been sprayed, and gets past the border. The poison causes deadly damage to the lungs such as cystic fibrosis.

Daniel Burke, Principal of Simmons Jr High School in Oak Lawn, said that they see an unhealthy interest in drugs. He said it seems to be the 13 and 14 year olds. Others agreed with Burke on the age group.

He told of finding a student at Simmons had been smoking marijuana since the 4th grade. "The mother," he said, "was flabbergasted."

Burke went on to say that the major root of the prohlem is the culture. Movies, teievision, books and magazines have an unserious attitude toward drugs. "We're fighting against innundation," he said.

Mary Wheaton, a nurse at Simmons, was asked if marijuana was the only drug abuse uncovered at Simmons. She answered that the three cases (mentioned earlier) were all and that there was no evidence of anything else.

Mayor Ernie Kolb, who was present, said that Burke had "hit the nail on the head" when he hlamed the prohiem on our culture. He said that it is going to take many dollars to fight drug abuse and he wished that we did have the answer.

Gene Rinaldi, Northwest Youth Outreach director, said that in a survey conducted of 654 high schooi freshman students, alcohoi was found to he the most commonly tried drug. Marijuana was second most common.

Many parents don't view alcohol seriously enough according to Mary Feerick, of the Cook County Sheriff's Youth Services department. "We must also emphasize alcohol usage when discussing drug problems. Kids who use alcohol usually come from homes where parents use alcohol."

"Many- times parents called in to pick up their kids for wandering the streets drunk as a skunk say, 'Oh, thank God it wasn't dope!' "

Don Rago, Assistant Director of the Cook County Sheriff Police South Suburban Council on Drug and Alcohoi ahuse was also present and said that alcohol was very prevalent at this time hut was not considered a serious problem hy the parents.

Chief Gerhardt Hein introduced Sgt Robert Taylor of the Oak Lawn Police Dept, who works full time in the Dept of Law Enforcement. He said that Oak Lawn has its own program, that of trying to educate parent teacher groups and the response has been very good.

"PCP", he said, (the drug spoken of earlier) "is becoming very popular and is very dangerous. LSD almost dropped out and is coming back, amphetimines and barbituates are also still very popular."

Sgt Taylor said that his department is more concerned with suppliers. Speaking of the laws which are adequate, he said, "What we need is a narcotics court in the suburbs to deal with these problems."

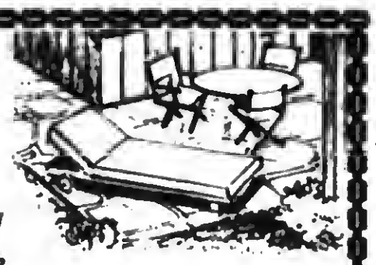
Sgt Taylor when on to say that the judges hear other what they believe are much more serious cases and when a drug abuse hearing comes up they are treated as a minor offense and little is done.

Trustee John Cleveland sounded angry when he said "We should start at the top and not the hottom, pressure should be put on the judges."

Sgt Taylor agreed with Cleveland saying, "It is a very serious offense with resulting deaths and homicides but is very seldom sentenced in that light."

Cleveland said, "This seems to be the problem, the pusher is set free and back out on the street doing the same thing."

Sgt Taylor replied," It is a very iucrative business."



"Our society is very lax," Cleveland replied "and so is our courts and the states attorney's office."

After almost two hours of discussion Huskey asked if those present would write a synopsis of their findings at the meeting and what their feelings were and send it to him.

Dan Burke, who at first seemed hesitant, agreed to the proposal. He summed it hy up saying, "Here is this whole roomful of people doing something but no one doing anything together."

Others present at the meeting were representatives from the Illinois Dangerous Drugs Commission; the Metropolitan Enforcement Group (MEG), the Southwest YMCA in Oak Lawn and the Oak Lawn Yough Commission.

Standing room only at Congressman Russo Hometown Workshop

Standing room only was the scene at Congressman Marty Russo's Hometown Workshop, Saturday, April 22. Russo was very pleased at the large attendance and said, "It's fantastic to see such a crowd so interested in their government."

Russo thoroughly enjoys the workshops, he'll joke with the audience, be serious, laugh with them, fight with them – and they love it. Russo will answer all questions, even some he doesn't like.

Asked about the Neutron bomb Russo said he voted "for funding" as he believed we should have it for bargaining power before we go into SALT agreements.

One gentleman said that he makes $19,000 a year, tries to feed his family and send his children to college and because of the high cost of living doesn't know how he can do it. "I'd be better off on welfare," he said.

The congressman said he understands the problem, and although it isn't the solution, this is why some members of Congress are trying to institute a tax credit and enlarge grants for parents of college students.

"We're not getting enough of our exports out for what's coming in," Russo told another man that asked why we had a trade deficit of $19 billion. "It's as simple as that," he said.

A hunger for first hand news of the government is evident from the questions asked of Russo. Uppermost appears to be inflation, after that, and not necessarily in the following order, Social Security, foreign imports, exports, the Panama Canal, double taxation, oil, electric driven cars and many more.

About inflation Russo asks, "How do you convince labor and business to cut back?"

"There are four of us at stake here," Russo said, "we have to get business, the consumer, labor and the Federal government in harmony with each other."

A woman asked, "Are you running for President in 1980?"

Russo laughed and said, "No, I am too inexperienced and have black hair that I want to keep for awhile."

Answering a question on unemployment and the hiring of foreign help and other countries sending us foreign goods, Russo said, it is the peoples fault. He said that if a buyer sees a foreign made shirt for $7 or $8 and an American made one that costs $10 they buy the cheaper one thereby forcing the manufacturer to go to foreign made products.

"I have an American made TV and car," he said, "I just won't buy anything foreign made."

At times Russo loses his cool and tells the listeners they just can not keep blaming the Government for everything.

"If you want a raise in Social Security, more food stamps, more money for schools, the farmers come to us, are we suppose to say "no" to all of them," Russo asks.

About the farmers he said he "doesn't feel all that bad. It is only the grain farmers that are hurting, dairy and cattle are doing fine."

Russo laughed as he reminded the people of all the wheat we sold to Russia and they sold it back to us. He said that the grain farmers then expanded their property and bought more equipment in '73 and '74 and now want us to pay for it. "They wanted to make a buck on us," he said.

Another gentleman said that he wanted to say first, "I enjoy the letters you send us and I think you are the finest Congressman we ever had." He went on to say, "We're looking to young people like you for leadership, you will have to have guts and say "no" to the bureaucracy in Washington and the special interest groups -- they are like parasites," he said.

Russo said the people holler about government spending but don't realize how many come for money. "Thompson comes for money for the state, Bilandic comes for the city and others like California who all have surplus budgets. They keep theirs socked away and come to us."

Russo who is not afraid to find fault with the government will also defend it as a whole. He received a loud round of applause when he said, "200 years ago we were a small lousy country with a bunch of immigrants and in 200 years we have the finest country in the world."

The Hometown Workshop was very productive and gives the people an opportunity to express their feelings to a very good listener. Congressman Marty Russo explains that it is thru these meetings he is able to know and understand the wants and the needs of the people in the 3rd District.

A full house in Hometown Village Hall listens intently while Congressman Marty Russo explains the intricacies of government and answers the many questions that are put to him during the workshop.

Congressman Russo, who is running for re-election in November '78 has stated that he has sent a telegram to his Republican opponent challenging him to a series of debates in the 3rd District. The proposal is for four debates starting in September, one each to be held in Calumet, Thornton and Worth Townships and one in the City of Chicago.

ROTC scholarships available to seniors

Congressman Marty Russo would like to make the residents of the 3rd District aware of the 4-year Army ROTC scholarships which are awarded by the Army to High School seniors every October. Selection of 4-year scholarship recipients are based on academic excellence, results of college entrance examination tests, participation in extracurricular and athletic activities, and evaluation of motivation and leadership potential. Each scholarship pays for tuition, textbooks, educational fees, and provides a subsistence allowance of $100 per month for up to 10 months each school year.

High school students who will be entering college for the first time in the fall of 1979 and desire to compete for a 4-year scholarship should write to Army ROTC, P.O. Box 7000, Larchmont, NY 10538, between May 1 - November 15, 1978.

Jade 50's entertain at Fields Supper Club

Make no mistake about it, rock 'n roll is here to stay. Especially if the Jade 50's high-powered musicians has anything to say about it.

Jade 50's, a kind of Chicago version of the "West Side Story," will be appearing at Field's Supper Club in Oak Lawn thru Sunday, April 30 in two shows nightly at 9:30 and 11:30 pm.

Making their first extended stay on the southwest side, Jade 50's leader is Joe Cantafio and the other members of the group are: Keith Grant, Ray La Pine, Tom Holly, Jim Cantafio, Ramon LaRue and Rocky Ray Robinson.

Although their trademark is the 50's style of "greaser" music, the organization changes pace with a 60's Beatles medley and even tosses in a few polkas and a Beach Boys set.

Jade 50's is a highly polished visual act with pinpoint timing and enough variety to rattle the walls of any club where they appear.

During their Field's Supper Club engagement there will be a $2 cover charge Tues, Wed, Thurs and Sun night, and $3 on Fri and Sat.

RICK "ELVIS" SAUCEDO FROM MAY 2-14

The 50's beat will continue at Field's following the Jade 50's one week gig when Rick "Elvis" Saucedo opens on May 2 thru May 14 appearing in two shows nightly at 9:30 and 11:30 pm with a $5 cover charge during the week and Sundays, and $6 on Friday and Saturday nights.

Field's Supper Club, which offers a complete dinner selection and late night snacks, is located at 10401 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, and reservations may be made by calling 499-1881.

Big bands at Drury Lane, Mc Cormick Place

PERFORMANCE PARTY DINNER DANCE

The evening was enhanced with entertainment by Simplicity and our own Andrew Sisters. Master of Ceremonies Pat Capuzzi of the Black Knight Restaurant delighted the audience with his songs and humorous stories.

The Performance Party candidates wish to thank all who attended and all who contributed to the celebration of their first anniversary as Worth Township Officials.

Band Parents to hold Awards Night

The last monthly meeting of the school year, for the Oak Lawn Comm High School Band Parents Assn will be held at the school, at 95th Street and Southwesy Hwy on May 11 at 8 pm. They will wind up the year, with the annual "AWARDS NIGHT" festivities. After the awards are presented by Directors Ken Kistner, Chuck Yara and Candy Hildebrand, refreshments will be served. All band members and their parents are cordially invited to attend. They will be saying "Goodbye" to Candy Hildebrand at the close of the school year, she is planning a December wedding. The association's best wishes go with her.

The year has been a constructive one, for the Oak Lawn Community High School Music Department. The Jazz Band and the Jazz Choir were honored to attend the Illinois Music Educators Convention, to perform at the Blackstone Ho. in Chicago, on April 13. The Marching Band will be marching in parade on April 30 in Chicago Ridge, for the Chicago Ridge VFW Parade at 2 pm, also on May 7 in Oak Lawn for the West Side Little Leauge Parade, and on May 21 in Hometown for the Hometown Anniversary Parade.

Someone you should know at the Holiday Inn

The Holiday Inn is celebrating its 10th Anniversary on May 6, 1978. It is more than just a hotel-motel but has become an institution in the Village of Oak Lawn.

The management is greatly recognized, as well it should be, and those in the top spots receive all the accolades and fanfare due them at all of the proper times.

In a large Inn such as this, where service to the customer is the measure of success, a large personnel is required from bellhops, to maids, maintenance men, waitresses, hostesses, chefs, dishwashers, those at the front desks, bartenders, etc. Most of them are there every day doing their job, doing it well, and putting all the necessary pieces together to insure the Holiday Inn the success it now enjoys.

There are two women that are never seen at the Holiday Inn that should not go unrecognized in this success story. They are not seen because their desks are behind the closed doors of the front office.

Celia is English's right hand and possibly a bit of the left hand also. Besides being manager of the Holiday Inn, which in itself creates quite a work load, English is involved in many other outside activities related to the operation and of course this increases Celia's work load.

If one should have reason to go into the front office, several people may be standing at her desk waiting for answers to the many questions. Celia may have one, two or three items in her hand needing immediate attention, she is on the phone and has "hold" calls on another. She accomplishes all of these things without ever seeming harried or impatient. A remarkable feat for a small softspoken person.

Pearl Arger is coordinator of all catering, reservations for banquets, weddings, meetings, showers, etc. Many of these events are going on during the same day and often at the same time. If one has ever served on a committee for just one such event then it may be possible to understand the responsibility and determined concentration it must take for the many activities to go off smoothly.

For larger events such as the recent Limerickmen's Association Dinner, both Pearl and Celia are usually somewhere in the background to insure its complete success.

On Tuesday, April 25, both Celia and Pearl were hostesses at a Secretaries Luncheon at the Holiday Inn. The luncheon is in honor of all other secretaries connected with the many companies that supply services to the Inn during the year. It is their way of recognizing and thanking these other silent but important people behind other managements whose cooperation insures the smooth operation of the Holiday Inn.

The Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn is one of the few Holiday Inns in the system that provides a complete service to the corporate executive, and the traveling salesman.

"THE PLAYMAKERS"

Imagination Theater, Inc will present its program, "The Playmakers on May 15 at the Roy Clark School, Oak Lawn at 9:15 am and 10:15 am. This unique concept in educational theater for children was developed eight years ago and now has two traveling troupes consisting of two performers and an improvisational pianist.

Accommodating audiences up to 400, The Playmakers encourages children from the audience to participate, and in fact, become "The Playmakers". The children are taught how to use imagination, voice, body movement, and their feelings as basic everyday tools in communication. Since the children provide the plot and the characters, anything can happen—and usually does.

Larson fuller disclosure request fails

Cook County Commissioner. Ronald Larson failed in an attempt to bring a resolution to provide fuller disclosure of Cook County officials' financial dealing with government agencies before the Cook County Board of Commissioners recently. Cook County Board President George W. Dunne said the measure will "require further study by the Finance Committee".

County employees are now required to file a disclosure statement that lists business done with the county from which they or their spouses derive income over $1200 or a fair market price of $5000.

Larson's resolution would extend the disclosure to include all members of the officials' families and would cover business done with all government units. Larson said it would disclose such questionalbe practices as relatives of county officials operating concessions on county land.

"We are not suggesting that anyone be proscribed from doing business with the government," Larson said. "If officials are engaged in legitimate business that is not in conflict of interest, there is no reason they should decline to file such a supplementary statement."

OAK VIEW STUDENTS CREATE TOWN OF THE PAST

The Third Grade enrichment group at Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th St recently completed a unit on "Towns, the Beginning of Our Cities." These students under the direction of Mrs. Louise Babkey, worked on a particular aspect of the town concept that they were interested in and all projects were brought together to create an entire town. Mrs Babkey said that, "The students were engaged in planning, creative and productive thinking analysis, and construction of their projects."

The primary enrichment program at Oak View provides the opportunity for students to further extend the learning process in the area of reading and vocabulary. Students are encouraged to use new approaches to familiar themes.

Oak View principal, George Kernwein, noted that the town was on display in the classroom and that many of the students' parents made a point to drop in and see their child's work.

Spartan Booster Club names MVP athletes

MVP on the girls swimming team was Peg Wantiez, senior. Peg was selected the MVP for the second year. She was the captain of the swim team and currently holds 5 school records. She scored the most number of points in the varsity award system and was the SICA West Conference Champion in the 100 yard breast stroke. Paul Sanderson (above) coaches the girls swim team.

The MVP in boys gymnastics (l) Dave Tsurusaki, senior. Dave was the team captain and all around man. He was 4th in the SICA West Conference in the all around; and in the District meet first on side horse; second on the horizontal bar; and third in all around. Dave outscored all team members on total points for the season. Larry Kelly (r) coached the gymnastics team.

The Oak Lawn High School Spartan Athletic Booster Club recently honored the school's winter sports athletes at their 11th Annual Sports Awards Night. Students recognized participated in girls basketball and swimming; and boys basketball, gymnastics and wrestling.

The cheerleaders under the direction of Mrs Jan Woerner, faculty sponsor, were also recognized for their contribution to the athletic program.

Each of the varsity coaches introduced their assistants and announced their Most Valuable Players, selected by respective team members. Each MVP received a trophy for their achievement.

Recipients of the MVP awards were: Girls Basketball - Connie Treantaleles, senior. Conni played guard and averaged 14 points per game. She has a high game of 24 points and a season total of 332. The girls basketball team was coached by Ms Margaret Groth.

Boys basketball - Bill Lillwitz, senior. Bill was named to the SICA West All Conference Team. He led SICA West in scoring with 328 points, was the team's top scorer in 24 of 25 games, and top rebounder in 23 of 25 games. Bill scored a total fo 590 points for a 23.6 average. The basketball team was coached by Len Scaduto.

Boys wrestling - Mike Morganthaler, 145 lbs, senior. Mike had a season record of 33 and 5; was the SICA West Conference champ, district champ, sectional runnerup, and seventh in the State Meet. Chuck Lawson was the Varsity Wrestling coach.

Make Today Count at LCMH

The Oncology Committee of Little Company of Mary Hospital is conducting a program called "Make Today Count" for persons having cancer or other life-threatening diseases. Family members and friends are also welcome. This program is open to interested people who are hospitalized as well as those who have returned to the community. Having been a patient at LCM Hospital is not a prerequisite to attend these sessions.

Meetings are held from 7:30 to 9 pm on the second Monday of each month and are coordinated by Sister Rosemary Abramovich, O.P., Certified Pastoral Associate and Lois Sharp, R.M., M.S., Clinical Specialist.

In these regular bi-monthly sessions, participants share the problems of learning to live with a disease and trying to cope with these problems in a positive way. Depression, loneliness and fear often trouble persons with life-threatening illnesses. Frequently, they feel isolated in this new identity when confronted with their diagnosis. For further info call 422-6200, ext 110.

SENIORS LEARN RULES OF THE ROAD

The refresher course consists of three lessons to prepare senior citizens to take their written and vision portions of the drivers' license tests. Sessions will be held in the Hannum School senior citizen room, 4545 W 98th St from 10 am to 12 noon, on Fridays, May 5, 12 and 19. There is no charge for this course.

To register for the course please call the Oak Lawn Senior Center at 499-0240.

New Post Office

A 2,240 square feet customer services facility of the Oak Lawn post office will be built at 92nd Street and Cicero Avenue by the First National Realty & Development Company, of Oak Forest.

The building will be leased from First National Realty & Development Company by the United States Postal Service for ten years with two five year renewal options. Annual rent will be $15,568.

St Louis De Monfort planet Zatari

The date set aside for the Language Arts/Social Studies Fair at St Louis de Montfort School of Oak Lawn was Tuesday, April 11.

The aim this year was to bring out the creativeness of the children. They were asked to try to project their minds and ideas into the future (possibly one hundred years from now, 2078). The plan was to have the students use their imaginations to the fullest extend possible. The students "converted" the school hall into planet Zatari for visitation by parents. The reason for selecting a futuristic theme was to prepare them in some way for decisions which will be demanded of them in the future. Some truly interesting and outstanding projects were received.

Fishin' hole stocked

Oak Lawn Park District Commissioner Don Andersen would like to remind residents of Oak Lawn that the pond at Southwest Park, 102nd & Major has been stocked with fish for their angling enjoyment. "Although only rough fish such as carp and bullheads are able to survive in the shallow pond, it is a popular and convenient fishing hole," according to Andersen.

Spartans capture the elusive puck

The Spartan Bantams Class AA wrapped up a great hockey season by winning the Illinois State Championship in a round robin competition. The team, coached by Joe McGivney, won 5 out of 6 games played and tied one (1).

The many hockey teams are divided into districts all over the United States. The Spartans are in District 7 which includes teams from other states. After winning the Illinois State championship they went on to win the series against teams within District 7 from Wisconsin, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska.

Earlier in the season, the Spartans won the Regional Finals International. During the play-offs the Most Valuable Player (MVP) is selected on the basis of ability, sportsmanship and conduct.

In the first game Joe Vogrich, son of Kathy & Joe Vogrich of Oak Lawn, was selected MVP. The second game saw Alan Sparks, son of Jan &. Alan Sparks of Oak Lawn, win the coveted title. In the third game Tony Cachey, son of Doris & Felix Cachey, Oak Lawn, was selected MVP. The final game of the series saw Joe Vogrich picked as MVP for the total games played in the tournament.

The win in the above tourney gave the Spartans the opportunity to enter the Silver Stick Hockey Tournament finals sponsored by Canada and hosted in Port Huron, MI.

Teams from all over the world and Canada are represented. Although it was there the Spartans suffered the only tournament loss, it was also a great honor to have been able to participate.

Other members of the Spartan Bantams are: Brad Bennett, son of Butch & CJ Bennett; Joe McGivney, son of Marita & Joe McGivney; Randy Gloodt, son of Sylvia & Gene Gloodt, all of Oak Lawn.

Also; Steve Slaninka, son of Ken & Arlene Slaninka, Bridgeview; Jim and Gary Hill, sons of Char & Russ Hill, Burbank; Mike McConnell, son of Marianne & Duane Hill, Chicago; Billy Craggs, son of Clare & Pat Craggs, Countryside; Rob Adams, son of Dee & Bob Adams, Evergreen Park; Billy Holtschult, son of Joanne & Phil Holtshult, Justice and Troy Appleyard, son of Lillian & Doc Applewood of LaGrange.

OLCHS bowling team in first place

The Oak Lawn High School Boys Bowling team finished the season in First Place in the Southwest Suburban High School Bowling Conference. Other local schools in the conference are Richards, Sandburg, Stagg, Marist, Luther South. Oak Lawn has captured the conference championship three times during the past four years.

Going into the conference play-off competition, Oak Lawn was in first place but only three games ahead of a competitive Luther South team. For this meet Oak Lawn faced a tough Sandburg team that had been on a winning streak. Luther South was bowling against a somewhat weak team this year, Richards.

In order to win first place, Oak Lawn players knew that they had to win at least four games, and this is exactly what they did. Terminating the 1977-78 Bowling Season the final teams standings were: Oak Lawn, Luther South, Sandburg, Stagg, Marist and finally Richards.

TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FAA TESTING AT MVCC

Written exams for Federal Aviation Authority private pilot and instrument pilot certificates will be held from 5:30 pm to midnight, Thursday, May 3 on the Moraine Valley Community College campus, Room A109, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Information about qualifications and registration are available from Robert and Dorothea Lough, 425-5461.

OLCHS chess team names champs

The Oak Lawn High School Chess Team are the North Division Champions of the South Inter Conference Assn. Out of a 18 game schedule, Oak Lawn's record was 9-3-1.

The team consisted of 8 members: Paul Lundquist, Mike Domico, Glenn Rosenberg, Dave Meyer, Dan Charleston, Brian Smith, Bruce Parson and Dave Szum. Of the top five players in the Division, Oak Lawn placed three, Paul Lundquist was the point leader in the Division with Mike Domico coming in third and Glenn Rosenb[illegible] taking fifth place.

Bob Dominiak is the sponsor and coach. He expressed that it was an enjoyable season to work with such talented players. Dominiak added that, "The next two or three years could go well because four of the eight starting players this year were freshmen."

Diabetes Annual Bike-A-Thon

The 1978 American Diabetes Assn Bike-a-Thon Sunday, May 7 at ten locations thruout Chicagoland, will offer celebrity participation, prizes and fun for everyone while raising funds to combat the nation's third leading cause of death by disease. The goal for 1978 is $150,000 for this event. Money collected will be used for research, public education and detection of diabetes.

Anyone who can ride a bike is welcome to participate. All riders find sponsors who pledge a specific amount of money for each mile completed with prizes being awarded to the top money raisers in each age group. The individual rides will be located in Lincoln Park, North Shore, Harvard, Evanston, Glen Ellyn, Aurora, Crystal Lake, Elgin, Dixon-Sterling and Rockford.

Entry forms are available at the American Diabetes Assn office, 620 N Michigan or by calling 943-8668. General chairperson is Jane Zarish of Deerfield, Ill. 945-1778.

NEW SCHOOL BOARD IN DISTRICT 122

Thomas D. Davis, the new member of the Ridgeland District 122 School Board was sworn in April 12 after being elected by write-in ballots. Roger Wantiez, incumbent, was re-elected to the board and then re-elected secretary by board members. From left, the present board is: seated, Wantiez and board president Walter Gesell, who was also re-elected to his board position after the reorganization. Standing: Pat M. Gentile, and Frederick G. Baumann, both of Oak Lawn, Mary Spellina, Bridgeview; Prudence M. Yonter and Thomas Davis, both of Oak Lawn.

Richard's inducts Tri-M honor society

Twenty-three students were inducted as members of the Richards High School Chapter of Modern Music Masters (Tri-M) in ceremonies on Sunday, April 9, at Richards Campus.

An international honor society, Tri-M is composed of outstanding high school scholars active in their school's bands, choirs and orchestras. To qualify for membership in Tri-M, a student must be nominated by fellow students; screened by teachers and Tri-M officers and successfully pass a test on the constitution of the society. He or she must also perform as a soloist or member of a musical ensemble.

Students earning the right to become members of the HLR Chapter of Tri-M include seniors Jeff Almer, Renee Burnette, John Chrisler, Valerie Gin, Nicki Janis and Glen Nagel, all of Oak Lawn and Lisa Koepp of Chicago Ridge. Juniors, Dorie Bergstrom, MaryJo Kapelinski, Julie Karlson, Cynthia Sarver and Laura Vallera, all of Oak Lawn. Sophomores, Cathy Baltzer, Bob Bergquist, Annette Bilhorn, Karen Flynn, Mary Giokas, Ellen Guenther, Cheryl Jurkacek, John Klatt and Robert Mockus, all of Oak Lawn, and Charles Bates and Patti Paulos, both of Chicago Ridge.

Three persons were named as honorary chapter members in the ceremonies. They include senior Gerald Heinz of Oak Lawn and faculty members Don Carl and Kathy Hamilton.

Tri-M officers for 1977-78 include Mark Wilken of Oak Lawn, president; Beth Smoots of Oak Lawn, vice president; Kim Coates of Oak Lawn, secretary; Sue Schroeder of Oak Lawn, treasurer and Jennifer Cunningham, Oak Lawn, historian.

SIGN LANGUAGE COURSE

The library is sponsoring an eight week course in sign language for staff members and residents of the community.

The course starts May 19 and continues each Thursday evening at 7:30 pm thru July 6. Registration for the course will close May 15 and the class size is limited. You can register by calling the library at 422-4990 and contacting Madeline Reed or Nancy Steffen.

Leon Tolchin, who will be teaching the course, is a sign language instructor and interpreter. He has taught classes at St Francis Hospital in Blue Island and to many local police departments.

The course is free and the library will supply the necessary text books and materials.

AWARD WINNING PRODUCTION — MAY 20

The Children's Department at the library will offer a performance of the Peripatetic Task Force's award winning production of "The Hairy Man" and "The Gooper" on Saturday, May 20 at 10 am in the downstairs community room.

The play, suitable for all ages, from preschool and up, tells the story of how a young boy tricks a legendary bogeyman and saves both himself and his mother from the Hairy Man's spell.

"The Gooper" is a new production for the group. For info call 422-4990.

Two day Art & Antique Festival in Oak Lawn

The Oak Lawn Antique and Art Festival Committee is very pleased with the outlook for the Festival to be held Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21, 9 am to 6 pm at the Oak Lawn Community High School, 94th & Southwest Highway. Nearly 50 artists, antique dealers and craftsmen will be displaying their work. Many will be demonstrating their arts in sketching, sculpting, leathercraft, etc. A Morton Grove woman will be demonstrating the early art of Spinning on her spinning wheel and explaining the art and values of the numerous yarns and materials she works with.

Various entertainment during the two day Festival will include the local Barbershop Quartet Saturday at 1:30, a variety of ethnic groups and local talent, Sunday at 1 pm the Park District will present a Magic Show and entertainment by a Greek belly dancer.

Presentations to the winners of the Art Awards and winners of the Poster Contest will be made at 1 pm on Saturday. Mayor Ernie Kolb will unveil a Special Birthday Cake in celebration of the May 21st, 1909, birthday of the Village of Oak Lawn.

Many other officials are expected during the colorful event that has drawn crowds to this fascinating show in the past. Don't miss it.!

New program supervisor for youth commission

Joanne Phillips, Chairperson, Oak Lawn Youth Commission, proudly announced the appointment of David Wayne Brown, who received a Masters Degree in Social Work from George Williams College, Downers Grove, IL, to the position of Program Supervisor for the Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

It was thru the intervention of Trustee Jay Bergamini during the budget hearings for 1978 that funds were allocated to hire a youth program supervisor for the Oak Lawn Youth Commission. Moving right along, in January, 1978, the Youth Commission advertised the position, requesting that applicants submit transcripts and letters of recommendation with their applications.

In February, the special Search Committee of the Youth Commission; Dr Michael Sullivan, chairman, Maureen Cimaglia, Edward O'Malley, David Tebo, Jr, and Joanne Phillips (ex-officio) screened 36 applicants. At the completion of the reviews, a dozen applicants were recommended for further consideration by the Youth Commission as a whole.

Information packets relating to Oak Lawn's present program were sent to the finalists in March, directing that they submit, in writing, their perception of the position as it related to several facets of this key post. Nine candidates responded and they were interviewed personally by the entire Youth Commission in mid-April. Two names were submitted to Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill for his study, review and appointment.

David Wayne Brown is 23 years old and was born in Chicago. He graduated from George Williams College in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Applied Behavioral Science. His concentration was in Social Agencies, with a community based orientation. Brown's current position is that of Program Coordinator and Co-Director of the Downers Grove Twp Youth Commission. He has also served as a teacher of "Foster Parent" training courses on a contractural basis with the Department of Children and Family Service at the College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn, IL. In the summer of 1976, in cooperation with the YMCA in Honolulu, he directed a summer recreation program for the Micronesian students in recreation programming and planning.

"Run For Fun" in Hometown

'RUN FOR FUN' will take place on Sunday, June 4, within the city limits of Hometown. This is to be part of a celebration of the 25th anniversary of the establishment of this City. The race will be run chiefly for fun, with all comers welcome. Both sexes are encouraged to enter this 'RUN FOR FUN'. The age group begins at age 12, and goes on to any age willing and able to participate.

The runners will enjoy seeing each and every nook and cranny of the City of Hometown. There will be water stations available, and the residents of the entire City will be on hand both to cheer and give whatever aid any runner might require.

This 'RUN FOR FUN' is in keeping with the fast paced growth of the Hometown spirit in this modern age of fitness. The City wants to sponsor this run for all entrants in the spirit of a continuing race for progress within Hometown.

"Most of all, this is a 'RUN FOR RUN'," according to Lois Opelia, who says, "Although we may not attract world class Olympic runners, we welcome everyone, both those who will pursue the course in the slickest time possible, as well as those who would simply like to jog along competing with themselves and enjoying the spirit of a genuine hometown celebration."

The race will be 9.49 kilometers (5.90 miles). Call Lois Opelia at 422-3418 for any information, as well as to enter the contest. The Hometown City Hall at 4331 Southwest Hwy will have a registration list available. Join the City and 'RUN FOR FUN'.

Worth Twsp GOP approves later primary date

HERBERT V. HUSKEY, Republican Committeeman of Worth Township announced that at the April meeting of the organization a Resolution was passed urging the members of the General Assembly to enact legislation changing the date of the Primary Election from March to a date in late May or early June.

Huskey stated, "The March Primary is one of the earliest in the country and is usually held during a time of inclement weather which tends to decrease voter participation. The 8 months between the March Primary and the November Election increases voter apathy as a re-education of the voters is necessary to familiarize citizens with the candidates they had previously cast their ballot for." He continued by stressing that the early primary date also serves as a deterrent to many concerned citizens who would like to run for public office but are unable to conduct year long campaigns.

Huskey concluded by explaining that copies of this Resolution will be sent to the governor and to all legislators within the 6th and 8th Legislative Districts urging their help and support in accomplishing this very worthwhile goal.

ELROD PRAISES PAST POTENTATE

Charles E. Larson, (l), the immediate past Potentate of the famed Medinah Temple in Chicago recently completed his one year term and did a superb job in heading this fine organization. Sheriff Elrod has high praise not only for Larson's superb term as Potentate but also for the many many years he has unselfishly given and dedicated to Medinah Temple.

126 announces tax rate decrease

School District 126 was informed by the Illinois Capital Development Board that a debt service grant of $45,204.91 has been approved. This is the fourth consecutive debt service grant received by the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools. Thru these grants District 126 taxpayers have received a total of $200,000 of tax relief.

Board President Clark Alford indicated that the debt grant when received, would immediately be sent to the Cook County Clerk for reduction of the tax rate of District 126 residents by .03. The total bond and interest yearly payment of District 126 is $350,000. This grant will reduce the amount levied taxpayers to $300,000, according to Alford.

CONDOMINIUM ORDINANCE APPROVED

Trustees deny variance for Park Lawn school

On Tuesday, May 9, the board of trustees turned down the request for a variation by Pak Lawn School for the Mentally Retarded at 10830 Lamon. The motion to deny, made by Trustee Joe Vogrich, overruled that of the Development board by a vote of 5-1. Trustee Ron Stancik was the only vote that would have allowed expansion of the school to allow for an 18 room facility to house adult students.

The Development board had denied the request on April 3, but later voted for approval unanimously when Park Lawn met with residents who opposed the project because they felt Park Lawn had not fully answered all of their questions.

In other business, regarding the conversion of apartment buildings to condominiums, an ordinance was approved by the board. The ordinance that had been initiated thru the efforts of Trustee Jay Bergamini, would now require the property owner to furnish apartment dwellers, with the desire to purchase, an engineering report on the condition of the building. This would allow the buyer to make a better decision according to Bergamini and more significant would make the owner take better care of his property knowing this ordinance is in existance.

Village attorney Patrick Lucansky had stated previously that this ordinance would not apply to owners that had already filed plats.

Joan Rivers visits Green Oak restaurant

Jim Shkoukani, had a pleasant surprise recently when movie and television star Joan Rivers chose his spot to dine. Jim is the owner of Green Oak Restaurant, 9511 S Cicero in the Green Oak Shopping Plaza.

Ms Rivers, who has directed her first movie, "Rabbit Test," was barnstorming all the theatres in Chicago and suburbs that were showing the comedy hit. It was this promotion campaign that brought her to the Coral Theatre. Later, tired and hungry, and looking for a good place to have dinner, Green Oak Restaurant near by had been recommended.

Joan Rivers is a relaxed and friendly person, she posed for a picture with Jim Shkoukani and gave him her autograph promising to come back when she is again in the area.

A variety of good food is served at Green Oak and just recently Gyros sandwiches, a Greek specialty, have been added to the menu. The restaurant is open on Sunday from 8 am to 9 pm and weekdays from 7 am to 10 pm.

Barnes bill definds consumer damage suits

State Rep Jane Barnes has cosponsored new legislation to define the conditions under which consumers may sue for damages when victimized by defective products. She offered the bill "in response to the increasing rate of product liability suits being brought against manufacturers of consumer products, long after the product was purchased, after it was substantially altered by the consumer, or after the product was used improperly according to manufacturer's instructions"

Rep Barnes said the legal costs and forced increase in product liability insurance for manufacturers has added new costs to doing business, another unfavorable factor in the state's declining business climate. Barnes said that her bill stipulates that no actions could be brought more than six years after the purchase of the product or more than 10 years after manufacture if the action involves a breach of implied warranties, defects in design or testing, or failure to properly instruct and warn.

Additional provisions of Rep Barnes' bill require that complaints may only pray for such damages as are reasonable under the circumstances of the case. "The thrust of this bill is to maintain the position that the manufacturer is liable when a faulty product leaves the plant or store," Barnes commented.

The Barnes product liability measure has already received the "emergency status" designation necessary to be heard this session, a session limited by law to emergency and appropriations matters only. The bill now must be approved by a House Committee and the full House of Representatives before following a similar path through the Senate.

Sandy Dorgan opens campaign

Sandy Dorgan, Democratic candidate for State Representative, Eighth Legislative District has recently announced her plans to hold a fund raising event, on Wednesday, May 31 at the Sabre Room in Hickory Hills.

Running in the November 7 General Election with incumbent Harry 'Bus' Yourell, Mrs Dorgan indicated, "I will work in concert with Rep Yourell to continue opening the political process for residents and taxpayers of the Eighth District. It is important," Mrs Dorgan stated, "that our residents know what is being conducted in state and local government issues and encourage residents to have a voice in their outcome".

Sandy Dorgan

Representative Yourell in commenting on Sandy Dorgan's candidacy noted, "Mrs Dorgan has been very effective on the local level in serving people. This knowledge and experience," Yourell continued, "will be utilized to serve the people of the Eighth District and the State of Illinois".

Mrs Dorgan's fund raiser will be open to all residents. The event will include dinner, dancing and a Las Vegas Review Show "Going Places", promises to be an evening of fun. "I have many friends from both parties", Mrs Dorgan stated, "who have known me for many years and who have worked with me in numerous community service programs. I expect to have a very successful event and go on to be elected with "Bus" Yourell in November," Mrs Dorgan concluded.

Further information regarding the May 31 affair, may be obtained by calling 448-9100.

Trinity Country Fair May 13th

The Sixth Annual Trinity Country Fair scheduled for Saturday, May 13, on the college campus, 6601 W College Drive in Palos Heights, begins with a 7 am to 1 pm Pancake Breakfast, with over 30 booths filled with hand-made items opening at 9 am. Children's rides and entertainment are available throughout the day, including such items as the always popular Moon Walk. Sheboygan Bratwurst, hamburgers, hot dogs, donuts, Dutch Oliebollen, popcorn, ice cream, coffee and soft drinks are sold throughout the day.

The Auction at 1:30 pm is a high point of the day. The antique car pictured, and hundreds of other valuable items donated by businesses and friends of Trinity from the entire area are auctioned off in a fun-filled atmosphere of spirited bidding.

A new feature of the 1978 Country Fair is a "Drop Off Your Old Newspapers Booth". Since May is cleanup time, the College Biology Club will collect your bundled newspapers at two locations near the college campus entrances. With old newspapers bringing $50 per ton, the Women's Guild can earn several hundred dollars toward its $20,000 Country Fair goal if you will just drop off your bundled newspapers (no glossy paper or magazines, please) as you drive on campus for the Country Fair on Saturday, May 13.

Co-chairmen of the 1978 Trinity Country Fair are Richard Molenhouse and Norman Ozinga, with Clair Hoeksema serving as treasurer. All friends of Trinity are urged to attend with their families and friends. Please call one of the co-chairmen or write or call the college if you have items to donate which will make the 1978 Country Fair even bigger and better.

Pre-Retirement Seminar at Talman

Talman Federal Savings and Loan Assn and the Social Security Office are jointly sponsoring a Pre-Retirement Counseling Seminar on Tuesday, May 16, at 7:30 pm at Talman's main office, 5501 S Kedzie Ave.

The seminar which will be open to the general public free of charge, should be of particular interest to those nearing retirement age. Rose Sweeney, Talman's Manager of Special Projects, stated, "This will be an excellent opportunity to hear Social Security officials explain the program and have specific questions answered."

The seminar will include the following topics: the various kinds of benefits payable; when to file your claim; how benefits are figured and the earnings allowed after benefits begin. Since the timely filing for benefits beginning in 1978 has been changed, these latest changes in the Social Security will be explained in detail.

No reservations are needed to attend this program, simply come to Talman on May 16 at 7:30 pm. The program should conclude at about 9 pm.

"Richards Herald" claims highest honors for second time in press competition

Staff members of the Harold L. Richards High School student newspaper once again claimed highest honors in Northern Illinois School Press Association competition held earlier in April at Northern Illinois U in DeKalb. Over 1,000 students from approximately 65 schools participated in the NISPA program.

For the consecutive year and the third time in five years, the "Richards' Herald" was accorded the Golden Eagle Trophy for Best Newspaper as well as Blue Ribbon Certificates of Excellence in the areas of news, news analysis interpretation, editorials, human interest, photojournalism and sports.

Individually, "Richards' Herald" photographer Debbie Borrowdale was awarded the NISPA scholarship presented annually to the senior judged as demonstrating the most outstanding journalistic talent. Following her graduation, the Oak Lawn resident will attend Northern Illinois U where she plans to major in photojournalism.

"'Richards' Herald" is a high school newspaper of the highest caliber," wrote one contest judge. "Its winning combination of an attractive physical appearance, good feature articles, interesting editorials, tightly written news stories, exciting sports and effective photographs and artwork make the 'Herald' an informative and professional newspaper."

Student newspaper advisor Robert Jason expressed pride in the accomplishments of the staff in NISPA competition, noting that one staff member also merited an award in the Quill and Scroll's Annual National Newspaper Contest.

Dorice Exline, "Richards' Herald" Public Relations Manager and President of the HLR Student Council, was named as a national winner in advertising for her creation of a Student Council advertisement which appeared in the fifth edition of the "Herald." As a national winner, she was awarded a Gold Key and will have the opportunity to compete for a Quill and Scroll Scholarship.

Dr Edwin L. Falloon (l) was honored recently at the Beverly Country Club by fellow physicians of Little Company of Mary Hospital at their annual medical staff awards dinner party hosted by the Sisters of Little Company of Mary.

Perhaps someone is going to try and do something about the drug situation that seems to be on the rise in Oak Lawn and the surrounding areas. It seems that the parents, those that should be most concerned, are content to turn their backs and pretend it doesn't exist.

The recent exposure at Evergreen Park High School probably drew sighs from the Oak Lawn residents happy that it didn't happen here. It is here, as well as there, as well as everywhere. It was only events and timing that exposed it first in Evergreen Park. We may well be next!

Trustee Ron Stancik recently initiated an ordinance to stop the display of drug paraphernalia, and sales of such items to youths under the age of 18, in the village.

William Lee of Palos Hills, owner and operator of Tape Town, a record store at 6133 W 95th Street, took the village to court and Judge Joseph Sam Perry of Federal District Court, issued a preliminary injunction forbidding Oak Lawn from enforcing its new ordinance.

The very sad part of this whole thing that seems to be missed is that Lee had no objection to going along with the under 18 part of the ordinance. He claimed that 50% of his sales were from drug paraphernalia and related items and was costing him $200 a day since the ordinance went into effect. Where was he losing the money?

Trustee Stancik said that when he first initiated the ordinance he did so because he feared that by allowing the sales of the questionable items, the youths may be led to believe it is both normal and condoned.

Apparently it is some of the parents themselves that are treating it as "norm" and condoning the drug gear displays because Lee claims that his loss, that he estimates to be $10,000 since the ban, is from sales to adults.

According to Oak Lawn Village Attorney, Patrick Lucanasky, Judge Perry's decision was, in effect, based on the fact that the ordinance was denying adults the rights to purchase such items.

Since the successful, and well attended drug abuse meeting held recently by State Representative Herb Huskey, he has initiated steps to establish a narcotics court in Suburban Cook County. In a letter to John S. Boyle, chief judge, Fifth Judicial Circuit, Huskey inquired about the possibility of establishing such a court in the Oak Lawn area.

"The drug and alcohol abuse problems in our suburban communities have soared to new heights," Huskey stated, "and concerned citizens are looking more and more to the judiciary for assistance.

"The courts must take strict disciplinary action to let the drug pushers who are poisoning our youths and other violators know that they will face stiff penalties for breaking the law," he said.

"Right now, through, existing narcotics courts in the metropolitan Chicago area are backloged with cases, many of which involve people from the suburban communities," he stated. "The end result is many delayed cases with either suspended or minor sentences."

"A narcotics court in the south suburbs would certainly be a significant step forward toward curbing drug and alcohol abuse in our area."

At the last regular board meeting Trustee Ron Stancik urged the people in attendance and Oak Lawn parents, to visit Tape Town, 6133 W 95th Street and fully realize what both the discussion, and the ordinance, is all about.

The number of educators, officers, drug counseling staffs, youth directors, etc, are so small in number compared to the numbers of parents that could be the "Carrie Nations of Drug Abuse"; the thrust of the great concern seems to be lost. It is time for the people to get up in arms and make demands loud and clear to protect up and coming generations -- they may be our leaders of tomorrow. What do you think?

News from Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

METROPOLITAN SANITARY DISTRICT LEGISLATION

Rep Yourell introduced HB 3204, which prohibits the award of a contract to any person or business entity convicted of or admitting bribery or the attempted bribe of a government officer or employee. The prohibition extends for a period of 3 years from the date of conviction or from the date the admission is public disclosed, as the case may be.

If a conviction is appealed the 3 year period shall not commence until the appeal has been determined. Where an official agent or employee of a business entity commits the bribery or attempted bribery on behalf of such entity, pursuant to the direction or authorization of a responsible officer, the entity is chargeable with the conduct.

The reason for the legislation has been the apparent lack of public confidence in the Metropolitan Sanitary District. Rep Yourell believes that it is a sad commentary on our times when a public body such as the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago has to be continually maligned because of the actions of a few individuals and perhaps this legislation will go a long way to provide public confidence in what Rep Yourell considers to be a fine entity of government.

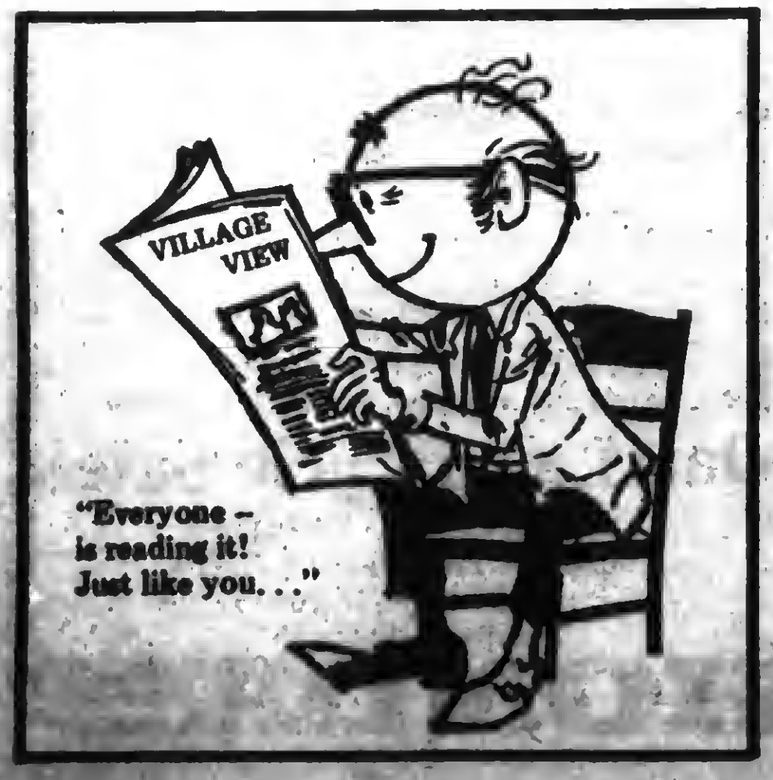
Youth Center in Chicago, Brown served as an Assistant Camp Manager, Aquatic Director and Program Developer. Among his personal accomplishments are high skill levels in both Karate and Judo, as well as the attainment of a Senior Life Savings Certificate. He has used these skills as part of his work with youth in terms of instructing them. Further, he has also been responsible for establishing and administering programs for the Naperville YMCA, as well as serving as a Youth Minister in charge of programs for Junior and Senior High School youths in Steger, IL.

Brown is currently a member of the Youth Network Council of Chicago, N.A.S.W., The Youth Service Bureau, the Illinois Childrens Welfare Assn, Phi Zeta Tau Fraternity, and the Cook County Juvenile Protection Volunteer staff. This appointment brings to the Village a person with well rounded experience with programs involving parents as well as youths. Both the Village Manager and Mayor Ernest F. Kolb thank the Youth Commission, particularly the Search Committee chaired by Dr Michael Sullivan, for their very thorough, painstaking efforts leading to the two finalists for consideration.

O'Neill has stated, "The position will be made effective as of May 15, with David's office established at the Municipal Annex building, 9630 Southwest Hwy, where he will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Youth Commission office staff, and all the concerns involving our Village youth." He added, "We are proud to obtain such a capable individual."

Mayor Kolb wished to express particular thanks for the work done by the special committee of the Board of Trustees composed of Trustees Jerome Bergamini, John Cleveland and Ronald Stancik. This trio has researched various youth serving programs throughout the metropolitan area, and gave freely of their time and effort. They believed that the Village needed strong direction in terms of a comprehensive youth program. The elected officials are extremely gratified with the work done by the Youth Commission, which they are certain will enhance the ability of the Village to serve all of its residents.



LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EVEN "MORE" AWARENESS NEEDED

Thank you for your interest in my drug abuse conference last week. Response to that meeting has been excellent, and your story was instrumental in raising the public's awareness of both the existing problems and need for solving them.

Once again, your attendance was most appreciated.

Oak Lawn's olympic hope Miss Dorie Boyce

Dorie Boyce

If past performance is a true indicator of future success, a young athlete from Richards East, Oak Lawn, may be among the U.S. representatives to the next winter olympics.

Dorie Boyce, a petite but powerful skater, recently returned from her first European skating competition where, as a member of a select U.S. team, she participated in the World Short Track Championship in Birmingham, England.

The U.S. speed skaters returned from the competition in triumph, bearing a plaque and individual gold medals, as the winners of the world indoor competition. Dorie also claimed a personal triumph in the competition where her individual performance placed her eighth.

Earlier this year, the freshman student from Oak Lawn captured the North American Outdoor Speed Skating Championship, winning all five distance events – 300 meter, 500 meter, 800 meter, 1,000 meter and 1,500 meter. She also placed third in National Outdoor Speedskating Championships held in St Paul, Minn.

At 14 years of age, Dorie has been skating half her life. Under the tutelage of her father, Gerald, a former speed skater during his high school days, Dorie began skating at 7 years of age. A member of the Amateur Skating Assn of Illinois, she now skates with a Glen Ellyn based club.

Although Dorie's hectic schedule leaves little time for participation in other activities, it doesn't interfere with her school work. The graduate of Prairie Junior High School is an honor roll student at Richards East.

Dorie has, up to this point in her career, competed primarily in "pack" competition; however, her determination to earn an olympics berth is even now beginning to reshape her training patterns.

The Richards East freshman has set her sights high and justifiably so. Her determination coupled with her demonstrated abilities place her ambition well within reach.

VICA Skill Olympics

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) Annual State Leadership Conference and Skill Olympics was held in Springfield, IL from April 20 to 21.

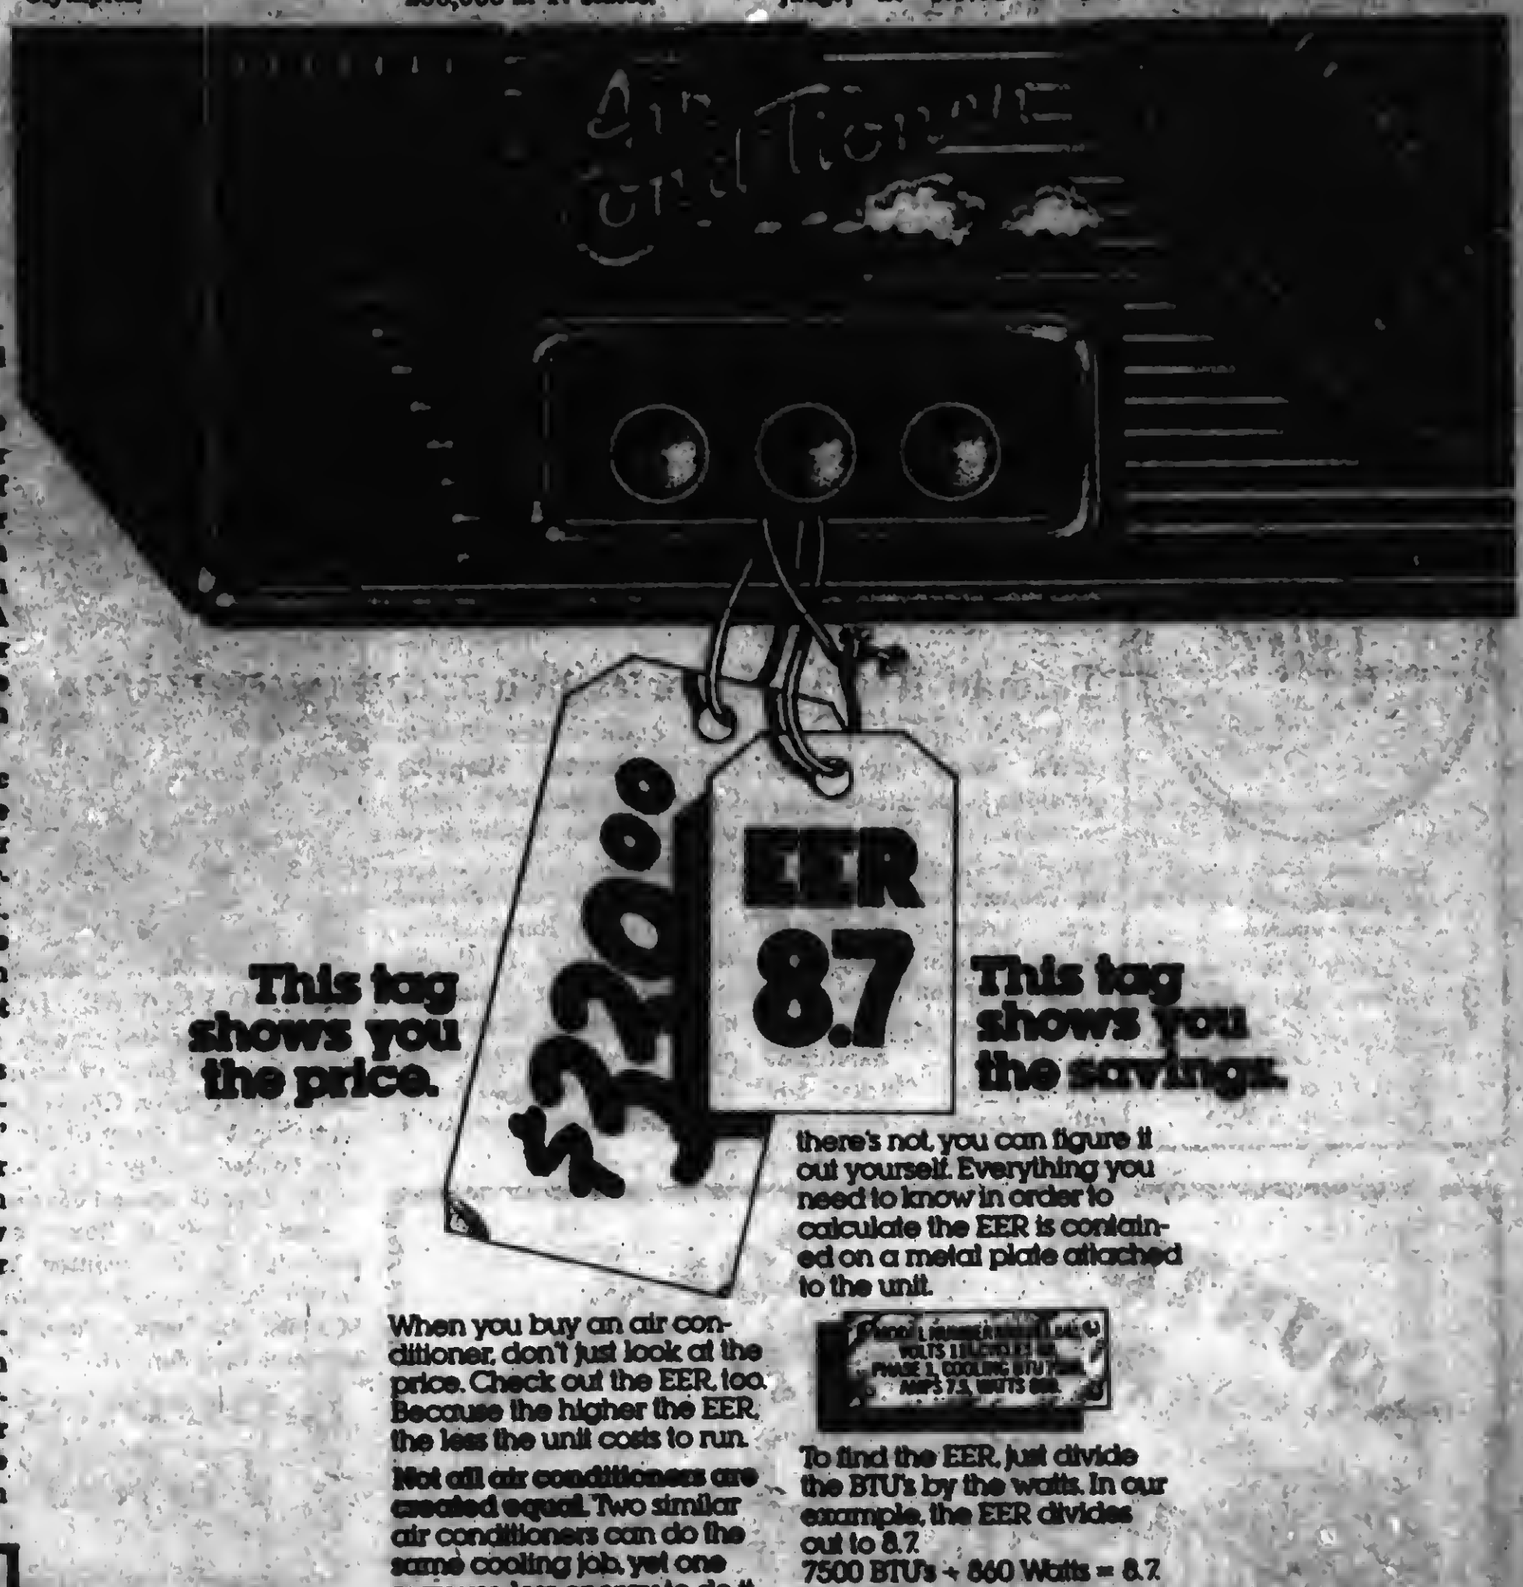
According to VICA sponsor Frank Vazzana, Oak Lawn students distinguished themselves in the contests and made it to the semi-finals.

VICA is a national youth organization serving students enrolled in trade and technical, industrial and health occupation programs. Membership in Illinois is about 3000 and national membership total about 200,000 in 47 states.

Judge Bieschke to speak at OL Kiwanis



Wayne Baxtrom, program chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis, has announced that Judge Walter B. Bieschke of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Thursday, May 18.

The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th St, at 12:15 pm. Judge Bieschke will speak on "As The Judicial System Is Today". There will be a question and answer period.

Prior to Judge Bieschke's judicial appointment by the Illinois Supreme Court in 1977, he was in private law practice for 24 years and set many precedents in trial practice. As an associate judge, he served in Tax Court where he was instrumental in hastening the flow of revenue to municipalities.

Judge Walter B. Bieschke

This tag shows you the savings.

When you buy an air conditioner, don't just look at the price. Check out the EER, too. Because the higher the EER, the less the unit costs to run.

Not all air conditioners are created equal. Two similar air conditioners can do the same cooling job, yet one may use less energy to do it. Obviously, you want to find that one, because it's more efficient and costs less to run. That's where EER comes in.

How to find the EER rating. EER stands for Energy Efficiency Ratio. It indicates the relative efficiency of an air conditioner. Sometimes there's an EER tag right on the machine; but even when there's not, you can figure it out yourself. Everything you need to know in order to calculate the EER is contained on a metal plate attached to the unit.

To find the EER, just divide the BTU's by the watts. In our example, the EER divides out to 8.7.
7500 BTU's ÷ 860 Watts = 8.7

What's the recommended EER? We recommend an EER for air conditioners of 8 or higher. Lower rated units waste energy, and the energy wasted costs you money.

It pays to know about EER. An air conditioner with a high EER may cost a little more to buy, but it costs less to run; so it ends up saving you money over the life of the unit.

A CITY FOR ALL AMERICANS

Jim Buschbach

All Americans, children and adults alike, have a special kind of feeling for Washington, D.C. Our nation's capital is a city that belongs to every citizen. It's the place where the laws of the land are made and where vital events in our country's history have unfolded. A visit to Washington, D.C. can be a rewarding experience for the entire family.

There's so much to see and do in Washington that it's difficult for a visitor to know just where to begin. The White House, home of the President of the United States, is usually at the top of most Americans "must see" list. This awesome structure on Pennsylvania Avenue can be visited free of charge on Tuesdays thru Saturdays. The Lincoln Memorial is an inspiration to all Americans. At night it's magnificently spotlighted both inside and out. Take the elevator to the top of the 555-foot high Washington Monument, the city's tallest structure. Here you'll have a perfect view of the nation's capital city. And don't miss the newest Washington tourist attraction... the Watergate.

Next time we'll discuss more of the exciting sights of Washington, D.C. Whether you plan to visit our nation's capital, or any other city in the world. We here at WORLD TRAVEL MART are ready to help you make all your travel arrangements. Stop in anytime–Stop in today. Our address is 5615 W. 95th Street.

Talman Ranch Manor exhibit

A wide variety of hand-woven items and fabric creations produced by members of Fibrecations, Inc, will be on display in all Talman Federal Savings and Loan Association offices thru Saturday, May 27. Among the items to be displayed are wall hangings, one-of-a-kind, handmade clothing and fabrics; and other decorative creations.

Exhibiting at Talman's Oak Lawn office in the Ranch Manor Shopping Center on West 111th Street will be Karen Goldberg of Des Plaines.

The display can be seen at the Talman Ranch Manor office, 4046 W 111th St, during regular business hours: Mondays, 9 am to 5 pm; Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, 9 am to 8 pm; and Saturdays, 9 am to 1 pm.

Special ed Art Fair winners

The Eisenhower Special Education Art Fair was held on April 11 at Worthridge School. The theme of this annual event was "Art is Special." Special Education students from all the 15 districts of the Eisenhower Cooperative were invited to enter a maximum of two art projects in the art fair.

The projects were judged by age group and ribbons were awarded as follows: Red ribbon - craftsmanship, blue ribbon - originality, and yellow ribbon - imagination.

BEADED FLOWERS DISPLAYED AT FIRST NATIONAL

Exquisite beaded flowers are part of an extensive "Blossoms of Spring" exhibit at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. The handcrafted flowers are the work of Helen Goodall of 5615 S Nottingham. It is a hobby that originated in France and caught the fancy of Mrs Goodall about ten years ago when she first became attracted to a beaded display in an exclusive import gift shop. She decided at that time to specialize in this delicate art and has been making striking beaded flower arrangements ever since.

The current all flower exhibit, at First National, also features oil and water color paintings by 25 talented artists of southwest Chicagoland. Also to be enjoyed is a continuous Super Scene showing of spring flowers as seen through the camera eye of Ed Mankus, the bank's Public Relations Director. The "Blossoms of Spring" exhibit will continue thru June 16.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Vic Vicks...

Happy and sad occasions very often blend. EDWARD MANKUS, Public Relations Director, marked his 5th Anniversary at First National Bank of Evergreen Park on May 6, 1978. It was also the 1st anniversary of the sudden death of his youngest son, JEFFREY STEVEN MANKUS on May 6, 1977. . . . . .

There is still time to make plans to attend the INSTRUMENTAL BAND CONCERT of District 126 to be held at Prairie Junior High School, Thursday, May 18, 7:30 pm . . .

Congratulations to ED & RITA MC ELROY, who celebrated 23 years of wedded bliss, or whatever, this past week. . . . . .

We don't want to forget SARA VENKUS, who also celebrated her birthday with a nice big party Saturday, May 6 . . . . . .

How about this for news. . .MARJORIE ANN JOY, who ran and won an election on the slogan "Joy in the Parks" will be putting another "little" commissioner into the park system come early fall . . . . . .

Congratulations to FATHER DOVICK of St Germaine's Parish who celebrated his 25th Anniversary of priesthood. He was surprised with a party held at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn. Father Dovick was formerly of St Linus Parish where he made many friends . . . . . .

ALISON MISIUROWSKI will be an official youth observer at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church held in San Diego, beginning May 20. He is a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Oak Lawn and a student of Richard's High School . . . . . .

Speaking of Trinity, REV GEOFFREY LEE of Scotland will serve as summer pastor while REV RICHARD ROGERS will take over his parish in Scotland in a unique pulpit exchange. . . . . .

More congratulations to BERNICE & HAROLD PETERSEN, who celebrated their 35th Wedding Anniversary on May 8. . . . . .

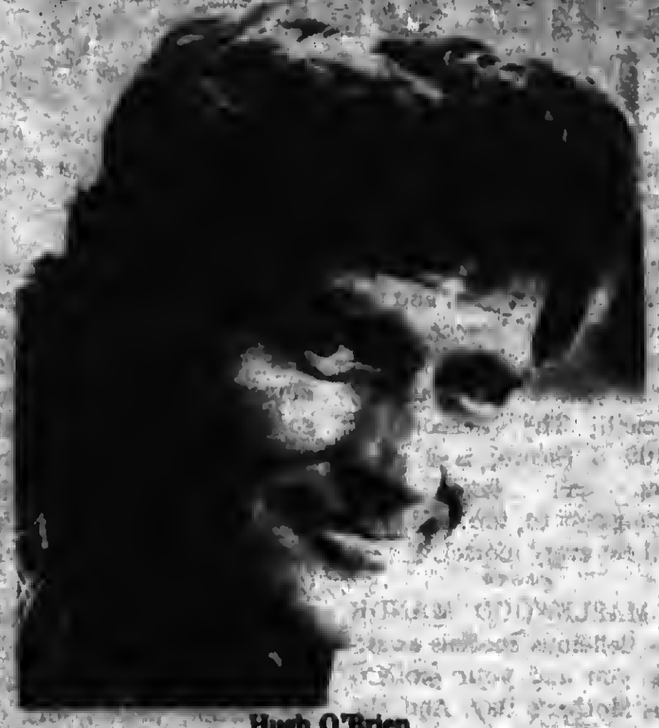
Best recovery wishes to JEANNE CISMOSKI, who fractured her clavicle and will be laid up for several weeks. . .

Officer TOM PADULA just completed Sheriff Elrod's Youth Officer Training Course in Maywood. It's nice to know that our police force stays on it's toes . . . . . .

On Sunday, April 16 Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell presented a House Resolution to the members of the HOMETOWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH in recognition of the church's 25th anniversary. The pastor is the REV GERALD C. FINDLEY . . . . . .

"Class" is the only single word that aptly describes the HOLIDAY INN'S 10th ANNIVERSARY DINNER PARTY held on Saturday, May 6. The cooperation from "Top Brass" to "Bell Hops" is what makes this particular motel-hotel in Oak Lawn one of the most successful in the world . . . . . .



Golden Age opens new 24 hour coffee shop

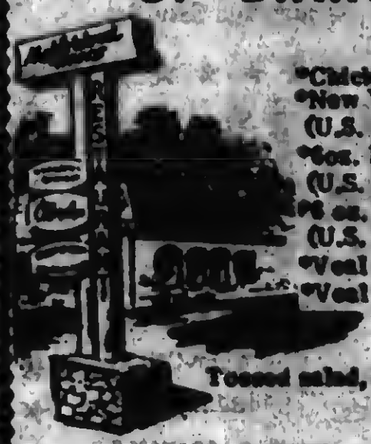
The new 24 hour coffee shop is open, and like its mother, the GOLDEN AGE, is a fine place to eat. The Golden Age, always one of our favorite spots for lunch and dining, has added this new and beautiful room open all day and night. Dean Priovolos can be proud of his latest accomplishment for the pleasure of his many patrons. The light and spacious room has a see-in kitchen, where you can watch the delightful and delicious food being prepared.

You will be anxious to stop there again and again, as the new spot features the superb food for which the Golden Age has been famous these many years.

For a wonderful satisfying breakfast where you can linger over a second, or third cup of coffee, or eat fast if you are in a hurry, visit the Golden Age today. It is at 4545 W 95th St, one of Oak Lawn's proudest landmarks.

Hugh O'Brien at Drury Lane

Hugh O'Brien



Hugh O'Brian, one of the most popular stars to appear at the Drury Lane Theatres, will star in Norman Krasna's comedy, "Sunday in New York," opening Tuesday, May 16 thru Sunday, July 9 at Drury Lane South Theatre in Evergreen Park.

Vernon Schwartz will direct the two-act play which will feature David Hull, Frank Miller, Rosemary Watters, Martha Webster and Dennis Loinstine.

O'Brian, noted for his long-running series as "Wyatt Earp," and countless motion pictures and stage appearances, is also very active in the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation which he formed a number of years ago as an incentive program for today's high school students.

Eddie Mekka "Big Ragoo" at Fields Supper Club

"The Big Ragoo" is coming to Field's.

"Carmine" is coming to Field's.

Eddie Mekka is coming to Field's.

All three are one in the same. Eddie Mekka, who plays "Carmine" or "The Big Ragoo" on the number one rated "Laverne & Shirley" ABC-TV series, will be starring at Field's Supper Club from Tuesday, May 16 thru Sunday, May 21 in his own revue.

Mekka, who studied dance, voice and some opera training, has packaged a show which pays tribute to Gene Kelly, Tony Bennett, Anthony Newley and Charlie Chaplin.

Most recently, he signed a long term recording contract with Orbit records and plans are now underway to cut his first album.

During his Field's Supper Club engagement, shows will be at 9:30 and 11:30 with a $3 cover charge during the week and $5 on Friday and Saturday.

Field's is located at 10401 S Cicero and reservations may be made by calling 499-1881.

Dine Out with Ramblin' Rose

Your mother will enjoy dinner at the BEACON on Sunday. The BEACON features the finest and the freshest of vegetables, salads, and desserts, and the chefs at the Beacon work extra hard to prepare their meats just as she would do herself. The Beacon, at 8400 S Cicero, is a place you can take your youngsters to, too, and they will eat every morsel.

*****

MAPLEWOOD MANOR has delicious specials awaiting you and your mother, this Mother's Day. And, the prices are special, too. Maplewood Manor has nice waitresses, too, who will help your mother make a selection and will serve her food piping hot.

My mother and yours will have a lovely time at Mapelwood Manor, 115th & Pulaski.

If you want your mother to be treated like a queen, take her to the ROYAL PALACE, 6254 W 111th St, where she will be served royally. And, oh, the delights of the menu.

She can choose from, chicken, fish, steaks, chops, and their ribs are out of this world. Your mother will feel like a queen when you take her to the Royal Palace on Mother's Day or any day.

Why not make a habit of taking your mother to lunch or dinner at the Royal Palace every week, and prove that you are a good, thoughtful kid?

Everybody's mother will feel like an Italian mamma on Mother's Day if they visit MAMA LUIGI'S for dinner. Such fine food, such good service, and best of all, mamma can sit and enjoy while Mama Luigi's does the work. Try the veal parmigiana, your mamma will thank you.

Mama Luigi's has a great assortment of food, and if your mamma doesn't care for Italian, there's lots of seafood and steak. She will like whatever she selects at Mama Luigi's, 7500 Harlem.

GRECO'S is a fun place to go with your mother and your children, or your friend, if you like a warm, friendly atmosphere, and lots of good food, prepared by people who want you to enjoy yourself.

Greco's has a long menu listing every possible kind of Italian dish, and you will love every one. My favorite is the eggplant parmigiana, it is so good. However, there are many American favorites on the menu too. Everybody's mother will enjoy Greco's, 3020 W 95th St.

"West Side Story" with OLCHS

Oak Lawn Community High School will present "West Side Story" on May 18, 19 and 20 at 8 pm in the school's Auditorium Gym. The musical, which is set in the 1950's, will feature many Oak Lawn High School students in musical roles.

The show is being produced and musically directed by Jack Roeckeman, OLCHS music teacher, and is being choreographed and directed by Tom Dzurison, another OLCHS teacher. In play tryouts and rehearsals, the play has shown surprising popularity among the students.

"West Side Story" is a modern day version of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet." It is the story of the love between Tony and Maria, rival members in two New York Street gangs. Tony and Maria's love is hopeless, like that of Romeo and Juliet. The members of the street gangs, the Jets and Sharks, come to life as both lovable and threatening characters. The social comment in the story makes a great impact, especially when performed by actors and actresses of the same age group as the play's characters.

Shakespeare's moving verses are replaced in the musical by the music of Leonard Bernstein and the lyrics of Stephen Sondheim. The musical features such familiar songs as "Tonight", "I Feel Pretty," "Somewhere," and "One Hand, One Heart."

The show, which has been in the making for some time, features Curt Lang as Riff, John Miner as Tony, Curt O'Hara as Action, Terry Hoffman as A-Rab, Larry Cunat as Baby John, Jim Nestor as Snowboy, Mike Kolodziej as Big Deal, Ed Delso as Diesel, Doug MacClean as Gee-tar, John Corcoran as Tiger, and Laurie McEathron as Maria.

Also, Cathy Smitko as Velma, Vicki Kolinski as Graziella, Cindy Russ as Anybody's, and Annette Sozniak, Kim Schryber, Vicki Hoffman, Robyn McCourt, Dianne Randle, Nancy Lough, Jan Hood, and Ellen Cizek as the Jet girls.

Casted also are Ken Jankist as Bernardo, Frank Lullo as Chino, Rick Bradley as Pepe, Jim Angelucci as Indio, Jim Maddox as Luis, Dave Eaton as Anxious, Kevin Rush as Juano, Byron Spruth as Moose, Mike Castagnio as Toro, Richard Hernandez as Nibbles.

Also, Mary Flemming as Anita, Gina Marchetti as Consuelo, Linda Luna as Roallea, and Lori Sorenson, Teri Egan, Lisa Evers, Cathy Ott, Dawn Koruba, Gerri Moyle, Laura Christle, Belinda Hernandez, and Nadia Bedwan as the Shark girls.

Portraying the adult roles are Marc Brincivalli as Doc, Ken O'Neill as Shrank, Bill Lillwitz as Krupke, and Bill Knapp as Glad Hand.

Tickets are $2.50 for students, and $3.50 for adults and may be purchased at the door. Come see "West Side Story."

Yourell bill would permit broader use of tax levy

At a recent meeting of the School Board of District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, the support of Illinois House Bill 2649 was discussed. The bill, sponsored by State Rep Bus Yourell of Oak Lawn, would permit the use of the present 2¢ levy to all special education purposes, not just for special education building purposes.

In the discussion of the merits of HB 2649, several points were presented by Frank Tantum, District 126 special education coordinator. He noted that there is less need to build special education rooms since most schools have declining enrollment and do have classrooms available for special education. "School districts don't need special education rooms, but they do need special education money for programs, materials and personnel," said Tantum.

Lawrence Gillespie, Dist 126 board member from Alsip and special education chairman, reported that Dist 126 has levied the 2¢ and has accumulated $50,000. "Under the present law we can only use it for building. Under HB 2649 we could use it next year for any special education purpose," said Gillespie.

Board member George Lehman from Oak Lawn, pointed out that school districts already levy the 2¢ tax. "We are not talking about a new tax," said Lehman, "but rather a better use of a present tax which would more directly aid boys and girls, not just build buildings."

LEGAL

VILLAGE OF OAK LAWN
COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS
2 ENGINEERING AIDES FOR SUMMER EMPLOYMENT
Legal Notice No. 78-7

Summer employment applications will be received by the Village of Oak Lawn Engineering, Planning and Traffic Department, 9630 Southwest Highway, Oak Lawn, Illinois, until 5:00 P.M., C.D.S.T., on Friday, May 26, 1978.

The Village of Oak Lawn is seeking engineering oriented students to assist in compiling a street condition inventory survey of the entire Village.

Students with an engineering background or experience in field survey work, interested in assisting the Village of Oak Lawn in this endeavor should contact Mr. Norman L. Bacon, Director of Engineering, Planning and Traffic at 9630 Southwest Highway, to secure employment applications.

Both positions filled will pay $5.00 per hour for a 40 hour week. It is expected that the field survey and office work will take approximately 10 weeks to complete. This is outdoor work that will require walking the length of every street in the Village, visually inspecting and analyzing the condition of paved streets and curbing.

Applicants should be in a position to start work on or about June 1, 1978. An Illinois driver's license, while not mandatory, is preferable.

Moraine names officers to organize history museum

The Moraine Valley Museum has elected new officers and directors for the coming year to organize and develop a new museum of local history for the southwest area of the Chicago Metropolitan region.

The Moraine Valley Museum will be a significant addition to the cultural and educational facilities in the Moraine Valley area. Plans for the museum include comprehensive displays of information and materials which relate to the historic development of the area and its contributions to the history of the State of Illinois and the United States.

Among the various subjects proposed for inclusion in the museum are: the natural history of the area including displays relating to archaeology, geography, geology, and paleontology; the early exploration of the area; early settlers and agricultural development; the growth of industry and urbanization; and many others.

Gallery space would be set aside for other displays of traveling exhibits and other temporary showings. The final element would be the development of a large outdoor display area for items too large for display inside and for possible reproduction of building types used in the early development of the area.

Speaking for the Board of Directors of the museum, Dr William D. Smith stated: "We feel that there are many benefits to the southwest community that can be realized by the completion of the Moraine Valley Museum project. First, we feel that the project can tap the expertise of the people of the community by allowing them to share their knowledge of history of other subjects in planning and completing the complex.

"Second, we believe the museum will help give this area a stronger feeling of community by giving everyone a sense of history and better understanding of the forces that affected our growth and development.

"Third, we feel that we must act soon to preserve some of the historical artifacts and knowledge of the area that may be lost to future generations if efforts are not made to protect and save them."

Membership in the Moraine Valley Museum, a not-for-profit Illinois corporation, is open to all residents of the area. Membership categories include affiliation for individuals, organizations and businesses.

For more information on the Moraine Valley Museum or details on membership, please contact Lawrence G. Petri, Secretary of the Museum at 10316 S Keating, Suite A-5, Oak Lawn 60453 or call 425-1391.

Monsignor Mc Nichols celebrates 40TH Anniversary

Mersignor William McNichols

Father McNichols became monsignor (an appointment from the Pope) in 1957 at which time he was assigned to St Gerald's as pastor. He attended grade school at Our Lady of Solace. He entered Quigley Preparatory School Seminary for 5 years and later studied at St Mary of the Lake in Mundelein. His assignments have included St Giles Church in Oak Park; St Brendans in Chicago (where he coached basketball); and then to St John Church in Chicago.

Monsignor had the opportunity to work with the Catholic Extension Society for 13 years and became associate editor for the Extension Magazine which had an annual circulation of more than 3 million copies. He is proud to say that 7,000 missionary churches were established all over the country through this society. While with the Extension Society, he was appointed private secretary to Archbishop O'Brien of Chicago and selected Master of Cermonies to the Archbishop. This title gave him the responsibility to make all arrangements for confirmations, ordinations and other cremonies and required him to tour all over the country.

He attended the cannonization of Pope Pius X; the funeral of Pope Pius XII and had an audience with Pope John XIII. In 1951 Monsignor became personally acquainted with Monsignor Montini (now Pope Paul VI) through his position as Master of Ceremonies, and had an audience with Pope Paul VI in 1963.

In June 1971 Monsignor McNichols visited Rome and was one of 25 priests to say Mass in the new English liturgy for the first time on the Pope's altar in St Peter's Basilica!

Monsignor McNichols lived at 62nd and Sangamon as a child and is the youngest of six children.

The well loved Pastor has received a proclamation from the Oak Lawn President and Board of Trustees naming 94th Street from Raymond to Menard, Monsignor Wm McNichols Drive in his honor. He has also received a proclamation from Fire Chief Elmore Harker and Police Chief Gerhardt Hein commending him for his service to the people of St Geralds Parish. He also received congratulatory letters from Cong Marty Russo and Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell.

YOUTH COMMISSIONERS WELCOME NEW YOUTH PROGRAM SUPERVISOR

David W. Brown, center, expresses his smile of appreciation to the announcement of his appointment as Program Supervisor for the Oak Lawn Youth Commission. David was introduced to the public at the Board of Trustees meeting on May 9, 1978.

David's office is in the Municipal Annex Building, 9630 Southwest Highway, 2nd floor, telephone 636-4400, ext 337. The Youth Commission office presently is open five days a week from 8:30 am to 5 pm with new hours to be announced in the near future.

David indicated that his office is ready to serve as a "clearing house" for any and all youth inquiries or concerns.

Village to enforce commercial occupancy safety standards

Village Manager Richard O'Neill notified Betty Gallo, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce of it's policy to continue upgrading building and life safety standards in the village which culminated in a meeting between the chamber members, O'Neill, Fire Chief Elmore Harker, Fire Prevention Officer Ronald Murray and Karl Faitz, Building & Zoning Director, at the Holiday Inn, Oak Lawn.

O'Neill said, "Through the efforts of our Fire Prevention Office and the Building Department we have completed our fire prevention inspections of all commercial properties in the village. The program itself will continue to be in full force, but now it is a matter of ongoing review."

Lieut Murray was introduced who explained the procedure taken to the chamber members. He said they will begin to act on a program of posting maximum allowable occupancy signs in places of assembly.

"The Fire and Building departments have received numerous complaints from citizens regarding overcrowding. This appears to be due to public awareness created by the large loss of lives in the Beverly Hills Restaurant fire in Kentucky," according to Murray. "Our initial effort will be directed toward banquet halls and restaurants with banquet facilities. Succeeding this we will concentrate on businesses that serve alcoholic beverages, church halls and other places of assembly."

There has existed a history of cooperation between the Fire Protection Bureau and the Building Dept. which seems to progress in the interest of safety to the residents. Due to the number of buildings to be posted, it has been agreed upon that the Fire and Building depts will combine their efforts to complete this project.

Karl Faitz, who was then introduced, said, "The total allowable number of persons in any portion of a building used for assembly is determined by the exit capacity, the square foot area per person which has been determined to be a safe occupancy load and, of course, the distance of travel for a person to vacate the building in the event of an emergency."

Finance Director Peg Grell announces retirement

Mrs Peg Grell, Finance Director of the Village of Oak Lawn announced her retirement as of December 31, 1978. After twenty-two years of committed, professional service in the field of municipal management she has decided to retire. She announced her decision in advance in order that she can take advantage of vacation time to seek a new home setting for her and her husband, Robert Grell. She will leave at the end of June.

Mayor Kolb and the other elected officials expressed their deep regret at the loss of such a fine individual who had provided such outstanding fiscal management for the Village of Oak Lawn for the past twenty-two years. Mayor Kolb stated that Mrs Grell has seen the Village government grow from a "Whistle Stop", hand-operation to an enviable and professional system that has captured the admiration of Municipal Finance Officers thruout the State of Illinois. In particular, Mayor Kolb reminisced about her work during the tornado of 1967 when she proved the adaptability of a fiscal system to meet the chaotic ravages of one of nature's worse disasters.

Recently Mrs Grell has attained recognition as an outstanding member of the Municipal Finance Officers Assn. To attain this recognition one must design and implement one of the most complex financial systems devised. She held statewide offices in this field.

Village Manager O'Neill expressed his sense of loss for a cherished friend as well as an extremely capable department head. However, he wishes her well in her personal life. His comment was "It is a pleasure to see a friend with such a promising future enter the retirement scene on an optimistic note."

Derwinski: Increase lesser of two evils

Congressman Ed Derwinski the ranking Republican on the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, described the new postal rate increases as the lesser of two evils in helping the U.S. Postal Service meet its operating expenses.

"The increases, including the new 15-cent first-class rate, had been pending for 10 months before the Postal Rate Commission and will produce an additional $2 billion in postal revenue," Derwinski said. "The new rates should be sufficient to cover operating expenses for the next three years, well into 1981.

"Without the new increases there would have been a direct $2 billion draw on the Treasury. While rate increases never are palatable, I do think the public is better served when the individual mail user pays for the type of service desired rather than the taxpayers."

Derwinski said one of the fundamental problems confronting the Postal Service is the efficient utilization of its 600,000 member workforce, whose salaries account for 86% of the postal budget. Negotiations now are underway to renew the postal labor contract which expires July 20.

"There also is need for better performance in the managerial ranks," Derwinski said. "Many mistakes have been made in postal programs and policies."

In an effort to control postal managerial bloat, Derwinski this year successfully amended the House-passed postal bill to put a ceiling on pay for top postal officials. He said many of the top postal managers were paid more than managers with comparable responsibilities in other agencies. Derwinski's amendment was designed to correct that disparity.

SPECIAL OLYMPIC WINNER AT OAK VIEW

Mrs Ellen Bell, Patti's teacher, said "Patti won a gold medal in the basketball run, dribble and shot event. She also picked up a gold and silver for two individual swimming events. We at Oak View are very proud of her accomplishments."

NHS'S NEWEST MEMBER

The H.L. Richards High School Chapter of the National Honor Society recently accepted a very special honorary member - HLR Principal Lloyd Lowe. NHS members kept the special recognition of their principal a secret until the evening ceremony. Lowe, who has served as principal of Richards High School since its opening in 1965, was recognized by the NHS for his leadership and support of the NSH as well as the school community.

Robert Stenbom of Oak Lawn graduated from the College of Veterinary Medicine at Illinois U in Champaign/Urbana at their commencement on Sunday, May 20. Culminating an ambition he has had since elementary school, Dr Stenbom will be working in private practice in Harrisburg, IL, where he will reside with his wife, Linda. Working from a mobile clinic, his practice will principally involve cattle and horses in that southeastern Illinois area, but at an office in Harrisburg he will also treat cats and dogs andother companion animals.

Dr Stenbom is a graduate of Oak Lawn Comm High School and Iowa State U. He is the son of Betty and Merrill Stenbom of Oak Lawn.

College aid booklet available

A report outlining various financial aid alternatives for college students is available from State Representative Herb Huskey (R-8).

The guide, Financial Aid to Students, was prepared by the Illinois Commission on Children's Youth Council. It provides information about problems of paying for a higher education, and obstacles students face in obtaining a loan, scholarship and/or employment.

"This report is useful not only to students, but also to parents, counselors and policy makers as well," Huskey stated. "I urge all families with college students to obtain this very helpful directory."

Copies of the financial aid guide, Huskeys says, are available without charge on a first come, first serve basis. Interested persons should send a note to him at 2050 Stratton Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

Yourell attends Washington forum

The commission was host of a breakfast which brought together Illinois county officials attending the National Association of Counties Annual Legislative Conference in Washington with Illinois Congressional delegates.

Rep Yourell stated that the objective of the gathering was to provide a forum for a free interchange of ideas among federal, state, and county officials on those federal issues which impact significantly on Illinois counties.

A wide range of topics were discussed during the meeting including the Administration's new federal urban policy and its proposal to allow local governments the option to issue taxable bonds, pending federal legislation affecting municipal securities disclosure, public liability, the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, the Law Enforcement Administration Act, health services and planning, Countercyclical Anti-recession Assistance, and a proposed Treasury Department regulation which would make participants in deferred compensation plans pay current taxes on the deferral.

Members of the Illinois County Problems Study Commission attending the breakfast were: Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, Chairman; Sen John Grotberg, (R-St Charles), Secretary; Rep Allan Schoeberlein, (R-Aurora); Sen Karl Berning, R-Deerfield); Rep Leroy VanDuyne, (D-Joliet); and Phil Elfstrom, Kane County Board Chairman and public member of the Commission.

MVCC SPONSORS WEEKEND FOR ARTISTS

Art in the Park, a weekend for artists, has been scheduled by Moraine Valley College for June 9-11 at Turkey Run State Park near Marshall, Ind.

The Friday thru Sunday activity has been designed for those who want to spend a full weekend in painting and sketching with the professional assistance of Phyllis Kozlowski, MVCC associate professor of art.

Cost for accommodations and instruction is $45 per person, double occupancy or $60 per person, single occupancy. Participants arrange for their own transportation and meals.

St Germaine speech contest winners

Shown above is Father Goedert and Sister Mary Paulette with St Germaine speech contest winners Mary Waite and Jamie Cunning.

Nearly sixty students competed recently in St Germaine School's annual Civic Oration Contest. Mary Waite, a seventh grade student, was awarded First Place position, with Jamie Cunning, an eighth grade student, receiving First Runner-Up position.

The annual contest is sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America and all students in the fifth thru eighth grade at St Germaine School compete for their prized individual trophy. In addition, the winner's name is engraved on a permanent trophy in the lobby of the school.

The theme for the 1978 Oration Contest was "Building Family Unity." Each contestant prepares his own material and is judged on the basis of delivery of presentation, material organization, and material effectiveness in addition to poise, personal appearance and personality.

Such insightful notes as caring, love, sharing, communication and trust were presented by the students as methods of building unity within the family structure.

The purpose of the annual contest is to stress the attitudes of good citizenship in the minds of school students and to help them think and speak in public. Realizing tht social scientists claim that the American family will not exist as we know it within the next hundred years, the Modern Woodmen of America seeks to explore the thinking of young people in America in terms of what they feel can be done to build family unity in an effort to preserve the family structure. The theme for the annual oration contest changes each year.

Steven McDougall ordained

Steven McDougall

Steven McDougall was ordained as a Presbyterian Minister, Sunday, May 7, at Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn. He was presented as a candidate by Elders Alice Misiorowski and H. B. McDougall, father of the candidate. Rev Marilee Scrogg, Moderator of the Chicago Presbytery asked the constitutional questions.

Rev McDougal is a 1977 graduate of McCormic Seminary. He served as a field assistant at Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn in 1976-77. Rev McDougall and his wife, Jean, have accepted an assignment at the First Presbyterian Church in Kokomo, Indiana.

Park district selects new officers

The Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting on May 8, 1978. In accordance with Illinois law, new officers were chosen for the upcoming year for the park district. Martin Larson, Jr was elected President by his colleagues on the board and Marjorie Joy was elected Vice President. Re-appointed to other park district offices were Robert Hope as Director, August Sundermeier as Treasurer, Ceil Murphy as Secretary and John Turner as Attorney.

Mr Larson, who will serve as President of the Board of Commissioners until the May 1979 meeting, is a 7 year veteran of the Park District Board. He was first elected to the Board in 1971 and was re-elected in 1975. He was previously President of the Board in 1974-75. Mrs Joy was elected to the Park Board in 1975.

Two receives PTA scholarship awards

The Oak Lawn — Hometown PTA Council Scholarship Committee has chosen Tracey Thompson and Christine Skibinski to receive the 1978 Higher Education Award. The scholarship is a $500 gift given annually to two outstanding graduating seniors who have attended elementary school in District 123.

Miss Thompson is the daughter of Mr & Mrs Raymond Thompson and is a senior at Oak Lawn Comm High School. She has been active in various class offices, Student Council, National Honor Society, Junior and Senior Advisory Boards, and is an Illinois State Scholar. Tracey plans to attend Illinois State U to study for a career in special education and learning disabilities.

Miss Skibinski is the daughter of Mr & Mrs Edward Skibinski and is a senior at Richards High School. She is currently ranked number one in a class of 600 seniors. Chris has been involved in Marching, Pep, Concert and Jazz Bands, Forensics, Thespians Society, Mo Alpha Meta, Modern Music Masters and National Honor Society. Her choice of college is not final yet, but she plans a career in medicine.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO ALL YOUTHS AND ADULTS OF OAK LAWN

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission is recruiting volunteers from the area youths, ages 12 to 18 and adults to be on the Youth Advisory Council of Oak Lawn. The Youth Advisory Council will be the council which will assess youth needs of Oak Lawn, plan programs for the village youth and with the assistance of the Youth Commission staff implement program ideas such as a Village Youth Center which is now in the planning stages. The Council will plan recreational and social activities for the summer as well as plans for the coming school year.

For further information or questions regarding the new Youth Advisory Council contact the Youth Commission office any day between 8:30 am and 5 pm.

A message for the Graduates

Best wishes to the graduates on their very special day. May all the good things in life be theirs as they step into their wider horizons that now await them. VILLAGE VIEW has not listed all the names of the many, many graduates as we tend to think in terms of high school and forget about the little "kindergarteners" that have graduated to 1st grade — the elementary grads that have left 8 years behind them — the high school grads that will leave their homes, towns and villages to go to various colleges all over the country. 'Fun Raising Party' June 4th

Holding the freshly printed tickets for the "Fun Raising Party" to honor Trustee Joseph D. Vogrich are co-hosts Mayor Ernie Kolb and Village Clerk Jayne Powers. Adding their support to the affair are (l to r) Trustee Ronald Stancik, (Vogrich), and Trustee Jerome Bergamini. Photo by Zars

The Citizen's Coalition is once again the forerunner of coming events as they meet to add their support to Trustee Joseph D. Vogrich in the April 1979 election.

Trustee Vogrich, whose four year term expires at that time, will be a candidate for re-election as trustee of the 5th District in Oak Lawn. He served as finance chairman to Mayor Ernie Kolb, Village Clerk Jayne Powers and Trustees Jerome Bergamini and Ronald Stancik during their campaign and then, thru the successful election in April of '77.

Mayor Kolb and Village Clerk Jayne Powers are serving as co-hosts to a "Fun Raising Party" for Trustee Vogrich on Sunday, June 4, 1979 from 8 to 11 pm at the Holiday Inn, 4140 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn.

The donation is $15.00 per person and includes cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, entertainment and music for your dancing pleasure.

The group promises a gala evening and is inviting everyone in Oak Lawn to attend this "Fun Raising Party." The trustees represent all of the people of the village and not just those from one district.

For ticket information call 425-6068 or 425-8344.

It was surely "one enchanted evening" at the Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn, for the 10th Anniversary Dinner on Saturday, May 6.

As the guests arrived Innkeeper Joe English greeted everyone assuring them that all was in readiness for the second of two completely sold out dinners, one at 6 pm and the other at 8 pm.

Even though English wanted the Knights Arms Restaurant to remain exactly as it is every other day there was a feeling of festivity throughout the room that could not be denied.

The dining room is done in dark woods, deep reds and royal blues complimented by tables covered in red linen cloths and topped off with white linen cloths set in a kitty corner fashion. Add to this a hurricane type silver lamp with pale blue glass that lends a soft glow to the crested royal blue plates for a beautiful setting that makes one feel relaxed and at ease with the world

Joe English

No, not really, something extra had been added that caused one to chuckle. A charming little brown bear and white elephant done in mar' zipan decorated the table for the gala affair.

The waiters in their sharp black tuxedos and the waitresses in deep red are all very profesional and it shows during an evening such as this.

It all began with a cocktail hour followed by your choice of the excellent and full dinner menu. Many of the diners ordered the "flame" dishes including the Flaming Steak Diane prepared at your table and this is a specialty of the house.

For dessert, again the choice was yours, or, you could order from the European Pastry Cart that was brought to your table. If you think it all ended with the after dinner drinks you would be wrong. It seemed as though it was planned so that you could not get up from your chair, and may have to stay in the Holiday Inn forever, when a variety of exquisitely decorated petits' fours were laid on the table. The final Joe English touch, a beautiful carnation for all of the ladies to take home as a reminder of the very special evening.

The entertainment for the evening was by the Knights Arm's Strings conducted by Ralph Sterling. The violinists strolled among the tables playing requests during the dinner and made your toes tap under the table. The Irish fiddling made some women jump up and do the Irish Jig much to the pleasure and hand clapping of the guests.

Polish music and German strains also made you want to hop and thump your feet.

Another highlight of the evening was the announcement that it was also the Master Innkeepers birthday and everyone in the room sang "happy birthday" to Joe which brought a broad smile to his face.

The climax to the perfect evening was the introduction of honored guest William Smith by Art Alaniz of the Holiday Inn. Smith, who is Chairman of the Chicago Hotel-Motel Association and General Manager of the Conrad Hilton was the only speaker of the evening. His words were few but praises many, he summed it all up in one sentence as he said to the guests,"Now I know why Joe English won the coveted Holiday Inn System title last year of Innkeeper of the World."

Village to enforce commercial occupancy safety standards

Faitz went on to say that this may seem complicated, but means that the safety of all occupants of a building will be guaranteed thru the installation of this "common sense program".

Faitz, who never minds saying what has to be said, told the chamber members that an on going inspection is necessary because when a building is finished the owner has met all the safety requirements according to the B.O.C.A. Basic Fire Prevention Code. He said, "Everything is so carefully put in then the owners go about changing it to suit themselves."

"Areaways become closed off, as do exits, and then they become storage places and you have to be a mountain goat to get in and out. We can't make them understand their insurance premiums rise and they could even be accused of criminal negligence."

Faitz said that they do not want to be accused of harassment but people will have to comply with the law or be brought before the proper officials. "After that we will go to court if necessary," Faitz said, "we are going to use friendly persuasion as we are looking for compilance, court will be the last resort."

O'Neill told the chamber members, who are also all businessmen, that the village officials want to try and be fair. "If you see something we would like you to call it to our attention, if we see any violations we will call it to your attention. We hope to deal with this matter as peers," he concluded.

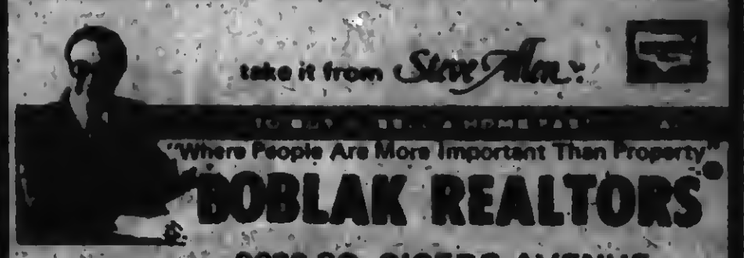
Library summer reading program

"Big Chief Reading Feathers" is the theme for the summer reading program sponsored by the Children's Department at the Oak Lawn Library.

The program which starts June 12 will require the reading of three books. The child can then fill out a form giving the title, author and a good sentence about each book and then add a feather to Big Chief's headdress.

For all those children from kindergarten thru the eighth grade who read three books or more, there will be a party August 16 from 10 to 11 am in the downstairs community room featuring a magician, a short movie or cartoon and the awarding of reading certificates.



On June 17 from 10:30 to 11:30 am Mrs Louise Schrock will conduct a song and story session about the Laura Ingalls Wilders' books including "Little House on the Prarie."

On June 24, from 1 to 2:30 pm "Soaring Eagle" will present an American Indian lore and cultural arts program featuring dances, sign language and legends with audience participation. All programs are free.

Turn your home into an energy conservation machine.

With a heat pump.

It's the most practical, efficient heating and cooling system you can install today. And it's dramatically changing the way we use energy.

Turns heat energy outside in and inside out.

The same principle that makes the heat pump work is already at work in your home inside your refrigerator. In fact, a heat pump is a lot like a refrigerator.

There's an indoor unit that consists of a coil and fan. There's an outdoor unit that consists of a coil, fan and compressor. Piping connects them. Inside the system, a refrigerant circulates, "carrying" the heat from inside out and outside in.

Even on the cloudiest, coldest day of winter, there's still solar heat in the air. The refrigerant in the outdoor coil absorbs this heat, is compressed and pumped inside. The heat comes out, keeping you warm.

In summer, the process is reversed. Warm air inside the home is blown over the indoor coil. The refrigerant absorbs this heat, is pumped outside, then condensed. The heat comes out, leaving you cool.

The amazing heat pump is installed on the outside of the home and is about the same size as a conventional central air conditioning unit.

No matter how the temperature changes, the heat pump automatically makes the necessary changes to keep you comfortable. And the unit filters the air and dehumidifies, too.

Produces more energy than it uses.

That's why the heat pump is a real energy conservation machine. In a typical Illinois winter, a heat pump provides at least 1.5 units of heat energy for every equivalent unit of electricity it uses.

Unlike systems that merely use up energy to make heat, the heat pump uses electricity to produce more energy than it uses. It's this extra energy bonus that makes the heat pump a smart investment.

The initial cost is a little higher. But the operating cost is lower. So in the long run, the heat pump can help you save.

How to get one.

You can often replace your present system with a heat pump. Installing a heat pump in a new home is even easier.

Either way, it's important to get a quality product and have it properly installed and serviced. For the names of qualified installers in your area, call G.W. Berkheimer Co. (Westinghouse Distributors), (312) 374-4411; General Electric Co., (312) 496-6200; Lennox Industries, Inc., (312) 593-2820; Temperature Equipment Corp. (Carrier Distributors), (312) 681-6220; or Central Furnace Supply (Bard Distributors), (312) 355-1220.

We'd like to help. Call your local Commonwealth Edison office and talk to one of our marketing engineers about your plans.

OAK LAWN PARK DISTRICT RECEIVES AWARD

The Oak Lawn Park District recently received recognition for outstanding service and leadership in parks and recreation. This recognition was in the form of a plaque presented by the Illinois Assn of Park Districts (I.A.P.D.).

The parks growth in terms of recreational and park facilities and programs over the past five years was praised by Eugene Berghoff, the Executive Vice President of I.A.P.D. "Through sound fiscal management, the Oak Lawn Park District has been able to continue its growth during an inflationary period when other park districts are having trouble maintaining the existing programs and facilities," Berghoff said.

A Resolution of Appreciation for Will W. Martin, former chairman of the Moraine Valley College board, was adopted by the trustees at the regular board meeting of May 16.

The board also created a Will W. Martin Scholarship for the 1978-79 academic year. The purpose of the scholarship will be determined by Martin.

A report was given on the development and implementation of a new MVCC marketing plan. According to Richard DeCosmo, MVCC executive vice president and plan coordinator, the college has targeted certain geographic areas, high schools and MVCC programs for emphasis in the plan. He explained that the plan is based on data collected and charted by the MVCC research area. Additional data will be collected and used as the pilot project becomes an on-going part of MVCC.

In regular business the board approved the payment of $653,128.96 from the educational fund; $107,837.96 from the building and maintenance fund; $814 from the site and construction fund; $186,537.60 from the bond and interest fund; $6,142.48 from the auxiliary enterprise fund; $43,298.48 from the restricted purposes fund, and $6,082.65 from the student activity fund.

The board meets at 7 pm on the third Tuesday of each month in the 200 Building, 10900 S 88th Ave. All meetings are open to the public.

MVCC ESTABLISHES OUTREACH PROGRAM

Moraine Valley College is seeking to help community residents thru its new Outreach Program. The service is part of the MVCC Admissions Office.

The program is designed for those with special needs or problems that keep them from further education or job-training.

The college is prepared to work on an individual basis with those involved. Problems and needs include low grade averages in high school, shortage of tuition money, physical limitations, unemployment and changing job techniques.

HLR Readers Theatre wins award

This year, her ten-member Readers' Theatre cast earned a second place award in District Competition--the troupe's first appearance of the season--and advanced to Sectional Competition. Since this year's cast was composed predominatly of sophomore and junior seniors who will be returning to competition in 1978-79, Ms Smaniotto is hopeful of capturing sectional and possibly state honors during the coming school year.

The HLR Readers' Theatre this year performed "The Life and Death of Sneaky Fitch," a parody of the "Myth of the West" written by James Rosenberg and edited by Ms Smaniotto. Cast members included seniors Dan Krc and Stefanie Theodorou, both of Oak Lawn; juniors Ellen Knizer, Jennifer Cunningham, Dan Jakuta and Cindy Sarver, all of Oak Lawn; and sophomores John Webster, Craig Rucin and Randy Thomsen, all of Oak Lawn, and Paul O'Toole of Chicago Ridge.

Readers' Theatre competition is group oral interpretation of literature. Since cast members are not allowed to use costuming and since props must be minimal, the emphasis on the competition is upon delivery, organization and effective interpretation of the prose and/or poetry presented.

Two Oak Lawners initiated

The Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at Western Illinois U has initiated ART RONAN, freshman law enforcement administration major, son of Mr & Mrs Donald Ronan, Oak Lawn.

University of Wisconsin-Plateville agriculture student DIANE WENDE, Oak Lawn, has been initiated into the honorary agricultural organization, Alpha Zeta.

Oak Lawn Teen Center Grand Opening June 30th

There is "big news" from the Oak Lawn Teen Center and most important of all is the Grand Opening at 9630 Southwest Highway at 6:30 pm on Friday, June 30 Invite all of your friends and family to this new, great happening, in the village.

Two important contests are announced to take place with prizes of $25 for each contest winner. Winners will be announced at the Grand Opening so become involved right now.

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission wants some lucky person to name the teen center. It's easy, just think of a name and either mail it to the Youth Commission Office, 9630 Southwest Hwy, Oak Lawn, IL 60453, or drop it off yourself by June 30, 1978. "What is It?" will be the name of the first newsletter coming from the printers on June 15 and the Youth Commission wants to give some lucky winner the opportunity of naming this very important missle that will keep you on top of the news at all times. There will be a $25 separate prize, send to same address as above and winners will be announced on June 30, 1978.

In the Newsletter the Youth Commission Staff will be writing articles but they will want input from others too. They want to know YOUR interests and concerns and of important events going on that they may possibly not be aware of and the Newsletter can pass it on to other teens in the area.

The Youth Advisory Council has suggested that at least one field trip a week should be planned to give every teen an opportunity to make one, or all, in a given month. The first summer field trip is planned for Saturday, June 24 and will be to Warren Dunes in Michigan. The departure time and return time is still to be announced. By all means get "aboard" and keep from getting "bored" by having a fun day with other Oak Lawn teens.

All of the above good news was the result of the Youth Advisory County Meeting on June 7, with new youth Director Dave Brown. Present were Peg Bilek, Social Work Aide; Melissa McGrath, Recreation Coordinator; Maureen Braskich and Joe Ficaro, Employment Referral Staff; and Maureen Pheifer and Matt O'Connor, Teen Assistants. Fourteen youths were also in attendance and many more are expected as news of the Teen Center grows.

Much cooperation from families and local businessmen is expected to insure the success of this great new venture brought about by the efforts of the Oak Lawn Administration and the President and Board of Trustees in answer to the continued and unrelenting pressure by the Oak Lawn Youth Commission. The first step was in the purchase of the Annex with enough space to house the Teen Center. The second most important step was providing the funds in the 1978 Oak Lawn budget to hire Youth Director Dave Brown. The move was made in the best interest of the community, and to keep Oak Lawn in step with other villages and cities who are also concerned about their young people.

Mayor Ernie Kolb has expressed his sincere wishes and hopes that everyone in Oak Lawn will unite in this greatest of all efforts. Mayor Kolb said, "Oak Lawn was not the first to get started but we are strong enough to become the "leaders" as we have with our Senior Citizen Program."

Ambulance gift from Fire Department Club

Kolb seeks unity with senior commission

What was intended to be a round table discussion on Tuesday, June 6, to promote unity between the President and Board of Trustees and the Senior Citizen Commission seemed to lack the necessary ingredients for compromise other than a promise to meet more often in the future, but no date was set. The Senior Citizen Council, with the vast majority of the over 40 seniors attending the meeting, are in harmony with the Board of Trustees.

At the opening of the meeting, Mayor Ernie Kolb announced that an attorney brought to the meeting by the commission to interpret an ordinance on whether the commission or the Village Manager, Dick O'Neill, has the power to hire and fire the Supervisor of the Senior Citizen Commission, would not be recognized as Oak Lawn had its own attorney, Patrick Lucansky, and he was the one to be consulted. Mayor Kolb said that to recognize another attorney in this case would be completely out of order.

At this point in time Mayor Kolb asked for unity and to move forward and forget the past.

Ernie Wulff, Chairman of the Senior Citizen Commission, said that they were there to find if they still have the same status they previously had. He said they worked with the previous supervisor hand in hand, and they were deprived of Ms Grady's (Rosemary Grady, former supervisor) services without consulting them. Another spokesman for the commission said that they still did not know why she was fired.

Mayor Kolb reminded them that they had the opportunity to meet with O'Neill, who has complete jurisdiction in this particular case, and they themselves chose to ignore it.

O'Neill then said that Ms Rochelle Hatton is now in the position of supervisor for a 90 day period and at that time they would meet for a review as they have in the past. "We do have ideas," he said, "and I'm sure you do, and I will listen to you as you will to me."

Mayor Kolb again tried to say that he is satisfied that most of the problems are ironed out and they should go forward.

Trustee John Cleveland broke in at this point and said that he "was not satisfied at all". He said that he believed many things that were being done should have been brought to them (the Board of Trustees). He said that they did not like this idea of monies going to PLOWS (Palos-Lemont-Orland-Worth and Stickney Council of Aging) and being collected under the name of Oak Lawn Senior Citizens. "Anything intended for our

Double event planned at Senior Citizen Center

A plaque designating the multi-purpose room of the Oak Lawn Senior Center as the Lawrence J. Hateley Hall will be unveiled on Saturday, June 24 at 1 pm. Trustee Jay Bergamini will conduct the ceremony honoring the late Larry Hateley for his service to Oak Lawn seniors through his work on the Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission and Council.

The program will open the Arts, Crafts and Hobby Exhibition at the Senior Center at 5330 W 95th Street, where Oak Lawn seniors will show an amazing variety of things they make and collect. Over 60 different exhibits will be shown, admission is free and everyone is welcome to the show which will be open from 1 to 6 pm. The seniors will serve coffee and homemade cake.

Is your house growing with your family?

It can. The time a family needs extra room to live in is when it is growing. For you, that may be now. Money for a room addition, attic bedroom, garage or other improvement is readily available at The First National of Evergreen Park at very low bank rates. Why wait. Construction costs will continue to soar with inflation and an improved home can mean a larger, growing investment for you. We're open six days a week including Wednesday.

Huskey asks GOP unity

Herb Huskey, Worth Township Republican Committeeman, has extended the invitation for "all Republicans to join together in the interest of good government." Huskey, who made his first address to the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization at the May meeting since winning the committeeman's post in March stated, "The primary has passed, we must join together to elect Republicans to county, state and federal offices. Our hope for success in November will be determined by our ability to unite against the Democrats."

Calling 1978 a "Republican banner year," Huskey added that, "with 'Big' Jim Thompson and Chuck Percy at the top of the Republican ticket – and with hard work at the grass roots level – we can have an overwhelming victory in Worth Township. Our Township (Worth) is an important battleground, we must close ranks."

Huskey, emphasized the point that, "if we join together the GOP will be victorious on the evening of November 7. All are, and will be, welcomed and encouraged to become active organization members in 'our year' – 1978."

District 126 budget hearing to show higher deficit

The School Board of District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, will hold the public hearing on the 78-79 budget, Wednesday, June 21, 7:30 pm at the Administration Center, 5201 W 115th St. The tentative budget is now available for public review at the Administration Center. The total of all expenditures in all funds is 3.6 million. The total revenue will be less, resulting in a sizeable increase in the present deficit from 500,000 according to Supt William D. Smith.

The estimated total school tax rate will be 2.47¢ per 100 assessed valuation. This is close to the 2.43¢ figure of 1977 and 1978, the 2.45¢ of 1976, and the 2.46¢ of 1973. It is considerably less than the 2.70¢ of 1974, but more than the 2.33¢ of 1975.

The school board has devoted 2 entire evenings May 10 and May 24 to a study of staffing for the 78-79 school year and the tentative budget for 78-79. Dozens of adjustments have been made in the budget, toward the final action of June 21.

Mayor proclaims Greek Festival Week

Festivities will be held at the St Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church grounds, 4501 W 103rd Street on June 17 from 5 to 11 pm and on June 18 from noon to 10:30 pm.

The festival will feature both disco and Greek dancing, games, rides and a new attraction the "Greek Taverna." The taverna will have a Greek atmosphere, featuring wine and Greek appetizers. Shishkabob, gyros, chicken and Greek pastries will be served and booths will be set up for the selling of Greek clothing and jewelry. A 1978 Cadillac will be raffled off as a grand prize.

The funds raised from the annual event will be used by the St Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church.

Honig attends Washington conference

Honig, who has been with the First National Bank of Evergreen Park for 18 years, joined real estate loan officers from thruout the United States, to attend the three day conference sponsored by the Housing and Real Estate Finance Division of the American Bankers Assn (ABA).

Robert M. Honig

member of the House Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee; Patricia R. Harris, Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development; and ABA President, A. A. Milligan.

"While the conference program covered some of the most timely issues in housing and real estate finance, principal focus was on the secondary mortgage market," Honig said. "Commercial bankers are more closely examining opportunities to increase the supply of money for mortgage lending through use of the secondary market."

Honig also took the opportunity to visit with officials from the government secondary mortgage market agencies: Federal National Mortgage Assn (FNMA); Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp (FHLMC) and Government National Mortgage Assn (GNMA).

ABA is the national trade association of the banking industry. Its membership comprises 92% of the nation's nearly 14,800 banks.

Over a century with Adams name

For more than 100 years, the Adams name has been associated with professional funeral service in Chicago and suburbs. Henry E. Adams entered funeral service in the Brighton Park area in the late 1800's, followed by William J. Adams and William J. Adams, Jr. Thomas W. Adams, (pictured) is continuing that fine tradition of service as an independent funeral director available at the Quinlan Funeral Home, 6540 W 95th Street in Oak Lawn. This new and modern facility is convenient to both long-time friends of the Adams' and new clients seeking top professional care.

Thomas W. Adams

Adams graduated Oak Lawn Comm High School in 1959, Worsham College with honors in 1964, and is presently serving as a member of the Board of Directors for the Funeral Directors Services Assn of Chicago. For the past 14 years, he has built his reputation on the reliable professional care one needs at the time of personal loss. Adams has developed a total trust in his abilities to serve and care for his clients. Actively involved in his community, he volunteers his free time as coach of the boys little league.

Thomas W. Adams invites you to contact him with any questions you may have regarding funeral services. He is available 24 hours a day at 599-7300.

Illinois enjoys doldrum rebound - Bakalis

The Illinois economy continues to rebound from the winter doldrums with State tax receipts running higher than a year ago, Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis said recently in his May report on Illinois' fiscal condition.

Bakalis also noted that $30 to $40 million in special State funds provides an added surplus that further strengthens the state's fiscal condition.

Specifically, Bakalis reported that in the first 10 months of fiscal 1978:

--Sales tax receipts are up 11.1% or $164 million over a year ago.

--Income tax receipts increased by 4.9%, or $77 million ahead of FY 1977.

--Public utility tax receipts climbed $30 million or 10.9%.

--General Fund cigarette tax yields have risen 10.4%, or $14 million above the comparable period last year.

--State inheritance tax receipts have risen 36.8%, or $25 million higher than the same 10 month period a year ago.

At the same time, the Comptroller noted, the State's general fund balance continues to be understated by $30 to $40 million because of larger than usual accumulations in special state funds.

In keeping with Historic Preservation Week May 7-13, the restoration of the McCord House received a welcome "shot in the arm".

Reba Alvridge, while organizing a family scrapbook came upon a much sought after early photograph of the McCord House. The shot exposed a view of the west half of the front porch area. Michael Rzechula, owner of the house, stated that this find was important, as the restoration of the porch is now in progress. Up until now little visual documentation as to the original house design was available. What restoration had been done took many hours of research with regard to existing structural details. The resotration will be making external visual progress by the end of summer.

The McCord House is located at 5400 W 96th St.

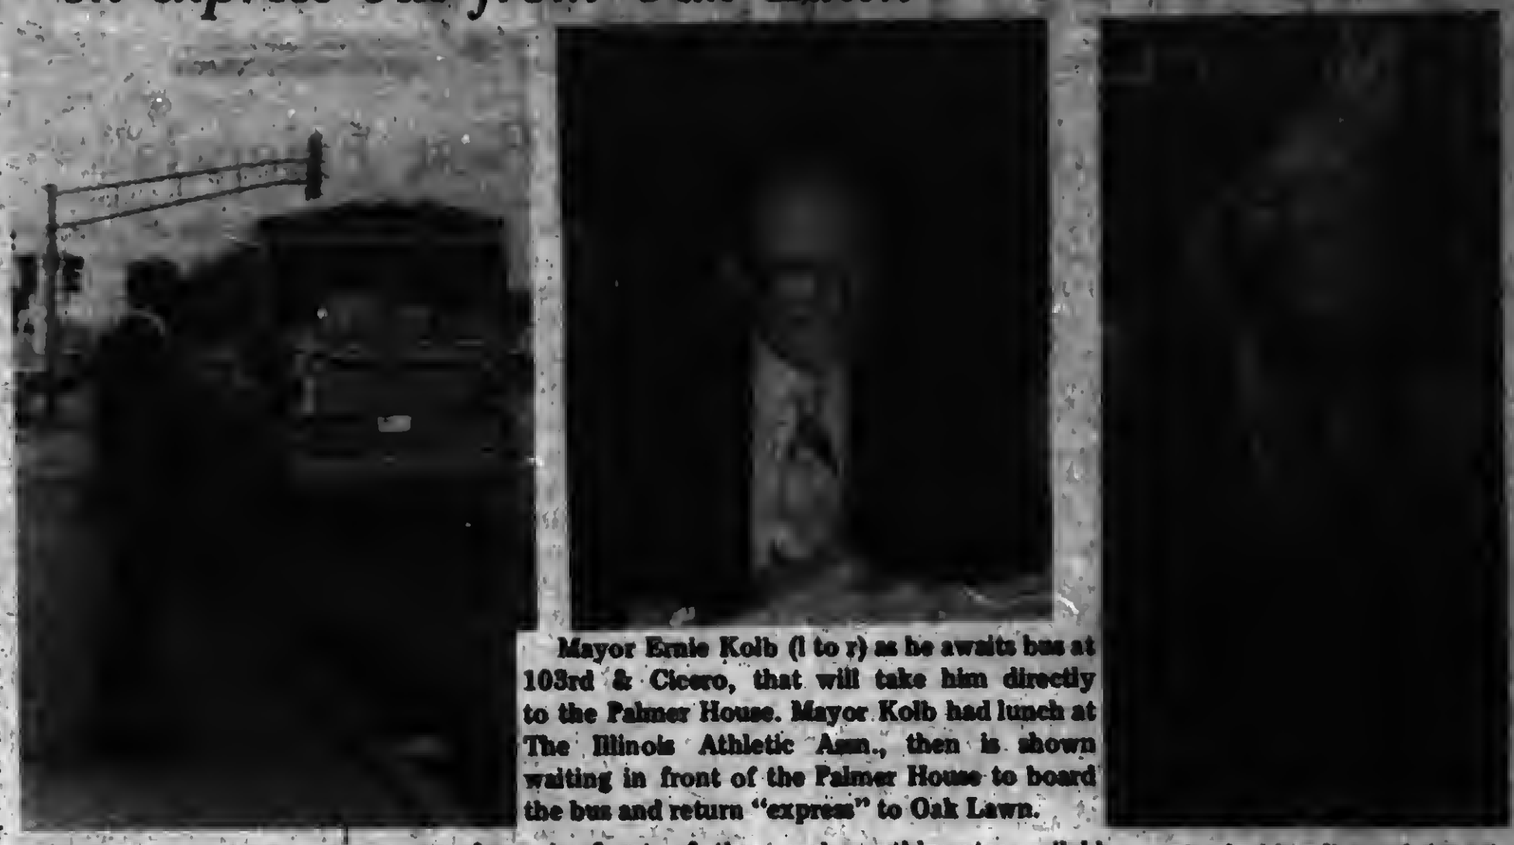
This past Wednesday local officials traveled the new suburban bus route to the Loop area and all praised it as the most advanced step for commuters to that area. Sponsored by the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) transportation is provided by Continental Air Transport during the three rush hour runs.

Oak Lawn Mayor Ernie Kolb, accompanied by a representative of VILLAGE VIEW, boarded the bus at 103rd & Cicero and a little less than 50 minutes later exited from the bus in front of the Palmer House. Kolb said that the next important step is to make the people aware of the accommodation and be sure that it is used to insure RTA that it is proved both practical and feasible so that the program is continued.



Along with Kolb, other members of the committee that rode the new commuter service that leaves Orland Park, with stops at Palos Park, Palos Heights, Worth and the last being Oak Lawn were: Gene Leonard, RTA board member, Alice Doogan, representing her husband Mayor Doogan or Orland Park and Dorothy Barbee, his secretary; Warren Jacobek, advisory chairman to the mayor of Palos Park; Worth Mayor Daniel A. Kumingo and Pat Bouchard, representative of the Reporter located in Worth. The commuters enjoyed lunch at the Illinois Athletic Assn on Michigan Ave and boarded the 2:05 pm from in front of the Palmer House. Mayor Kolb was the first to get off on the return run and was dropped off at 103rd & Cicero a few minutes before 2:55 pm.

There are at present six (6) departure times from Orland Park and the four other spots to the Loop and six (6) departure times from the Loop making the five stops on the return trip. There are daily, weekly and monthly rates available.

The bus route is not intended to cancel the planned second peak hour train proposed for the Norfolk and Western Railroad according to Gene Leonard but only to relieve some of the parking problems that may be increased by the added train. He siad that they are still hoping to have the second train by Labor day.

Mayor Eugene Siegel voiced his disapointment that there is no stop in Chicago Ridge as the bus goes right thru the village. Mayor Lucerto of Hometown and Mayor John Oremus of Bridgeview have followed suit. However, Mr Leonard said that the service would lose the "express" feature by additional stops.

For times and ticket information commuters may call 836-7000.

Dorgan blames GOP for high insurance rates

Escalating insurance rates will remain unchecked in Illinois because of the actions of the Governor, according to State Representative Candidate, Sandy Dorgan.

She made the statement after an amendment by Rep Rich Brummer (D-Effingham) setting up an insurance rate review board, was recently defeated when Republicans, "obviously at the Governor's urging," changed their votes from aye to no.

"Four Republicans, Reps Wolf, Telcser, Miller and McMaster, changed their votes almost immediately after the Governor's assistant appeared on the floor," Mrs Dorgan explained.

"It is unfortunate that Governor Thompson has chosen to pick the pockets of consumers by engaging in political maneuvering to defeat this legislation." Mrs Dorgan continued, "The defeat of this bill directly affects the working majority and home owners in the 8th Legisiative District, who rely upon their auto for a main source of transportation."

Drummer's amendment would have established a board to review complaints about excessive or discriminatory insurance rates. The board would be empowered to direct refunds to consumers and suspend the licenses of insurance companies that refuse to discontinue charging excessive rates.

"There is presently no procedure for the review of home or automobile insurance rates in Illinois," Mrs Dorgan said.

"Governor Thompson has now succeeded in killing this reform, which would have given Illinois consumers a place to turn to for relief from insurance rates that escalate without due cause.

"The Governor has turned his back on the people of this State and left the door open for profit-hungry companies to prey on insurance consumers," Mrs Dorgan concluded.

About people and their "Best Friends"

Late in coming, but better late than never is the recent News Release from Village Manager Dick O'Neill.

The Village of Oak Lawn recognizes the social effects of the failure or neglect that pet owners cause to themselves and other residents and is issuing a warning to correct this condition promptly to avoid a fine.

An attempt is being implemented to correct and hopefully change the attitudes of those pet owners that are contributing to the problem.

"Sanitation is a way of life. It is the quality of living that is expressed in the clean home, the clean farm, the clean business and industry, the clean neighborhood, the clean community. Being a way of life it must come from within the people; it is nourished by knowledge and grows as an obligation and an ideal in human relations. (NSF)."

In most every community known to man there exists a relationship with animals. This relationship has been documented in many ways since the caveman first drew pictures on the walls of his cave. Problems occur in the urban community when lovers of animals forget that this kind of love is not necessarily shared by their neighbors. Cook County is almost totally urbanized. Each municipality is responsible for the animals in the area under its jurisdiction.

WARNING notices will be issued when a pet owner is found in violation of Village Ordinances. This warning it is hoped will be effective in communicating the problem to the owner and soliciting his desired response.

Proper care and maintenance of all pets requires certain extra effort on the owners part to dispose of the body wastes generated in a sanitary manner. There are many tools, devices and even animal toilets that have been developed to improve or lessen the undesirable aspects of this extra care. The use of paper towels, plastic gloves, bagging devices, pooper scoopers and other tools are used by many and are readily available at local retail outlets. The use of these devices with packaged disposal will greatly improve the sanitation level and reduce our environmental health concerns.

Please do your part to insure a clean and pleasant environment for all people and for your pets as well.

Garage Sale Rules

RULES & PROCEDURES FOR GARAGE SALES

As the spring cleaning and garage sale season bursts upon us, Oak Lawn residents are reminded that there is a village ordinance covering these sales. The village's ordinance sets out the following rules and procedures covering garage or rummage sales.

1) A five dollar permit must be obtained from the Police Department 24 hours prior to the beginning of the garage sale. The permit is good for a maximum of three consecutive days and only two garage sales per year per dwelling are allowed.

2) A garage or rummage sale is a public sale by the owner or occupant of a dwelling unit of items of personal property owned or accumulated at the dwelling. The sale must be held in or around the garage and may not be held in the dwelling unit itself.

3) Items to be sold have to be household goods or furnishings which were used in the household located at the garage sale site.

4) Items purchased for intentional sale or resale may not be sold at a garage sale.

5) No garage, rummage, or other like sale or resale may begin before 9 am and must close by 6 pm.

6) No sidewalk or public parkway shall be obstructed as a result of a garage sale.

Also residents are reminded that the posting of any kind of sign on utility poles or in the parkways is prohibited. This law applies to any type of sign, including garage sale signs furnished by real estate firms. Illegally posted signs will be picked up by the Public Works Dept.

Matejek disappointed on defeat of Sunshine Bill

Rep John M. Matejek (D-Chicago Heights) said he is "deeply disappointed" that because of the lack of two votes, his Sunshine bill, designed to give citizens better access to public records, will not be considered by the full House membership this session.

The bill failed because 15 affirmative votes were needed in the full Executive committee to designate it as a committee bill which would have ensured a hearing before the full committee.

When the eight Republicans voted against the action and only 13 Democrats for it, this meant the Matejek measure would have to be approved by the House Rules committee in order to have a hearing this session.

Matejek said some sort of mixup prevented the bill from being placed on the Rules committee agenda, and therefore killed any chance for consideration this session on the House floor.

The 13 votes for action on the Sundhine bill in the Executive committee were cast by Representatives Edmund E. Kornowicz (D-Chicago), Walter S. Kozubowski (D-Chicago), Richard Luft (D-Pekin), Matejek, James A. McLendon (D-Chicago), Lawrence Murphy (D-Aurora), Taylor Pouncey (D-Chicago), James C. Taylor (D-Chicago), Robert M. Terzich (D-Chicago), Rolland F. Tipsword (D-Taylorville), Harry (Bus) Yourell (D-Oak Lawn), Joseph C. Mudd (D-Peoria), and Ralph C. Capparelli (D-Chicago).

"I cannot understand why two additional Democratic votes were not there to provide the 15 necessary to move House Bill 3136 along the path to passage this session," Matejek said.

Introduced under the Freedom of Information act as House Bill 3136, Matejek's Sunshine bill was a lengthy and comprehensive measure calling for fines up to $2000 to be levied against any public official found in contempt of court for withholding records.

Matejek emphasized that more than 40 states have enacted such Sunshine Laws under the Freedmon of Information act passed by Congress in 1966.

"It was designed to assure all citizens of Illinois of their right to inspect every document not specifically declared by state law to be exempt from public scrutiny," Matejek said of his bill.

"I promise you right now that I will revive that bill next year, and with enough support from individual citizens and their interested organizations, it will become the law of this state."

News FROM Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

YOURELL LEGISLATION TO LIMIT STATE-MANDATED PROGRAMS

Harry "Bus" Yourell

Rep Yourell, this past week, passed out of the House of Representatives, two bills, HB 3112 and HB 3113 that would limit state-mandated programs from being approved by the General Assembly unless the state is willing to pay the cost of such mandated-programs.

As a member of the Governor's Commission on Mandated Programs that travelled throughout the State of Illinois this past year and holding 12 public hearings from one end of the state to the other, Rep Yourell saw the need for legislation to curtail the State of Illinois from passing programs to benefit units of local government and school districts without being responsible for the revenue that is necessary to make the programs work.

Rep Yourell heard testimony from elected public officials from all levels of government, counties, townships, villages, cities, park districts, library districts, etc., indicating they are just simply tired of having the state mandate programs that the state was not willing to pay for. Rep Yourell said local officials all over Illinois are telling us, "Please, we do not want to have your very fine programs, unless you want to help us pay for them."

The bills were approved by a vote of 104 to 33 and sent to the Senate. The measures would simply require the state to reimburse local governments and school districts for increased costs caused by state laws creating new programs or expanding existing programs after January 1, 1971. Rep Yourell believes and has heard testimony from elected public officials that two alternatives are left open to the program, they have to discontinue the programs after the start-up has been affected or to levy a tax on the local real estate tax bills of the citizens to continue the programs. Rep Yourell feels that this is not in the best interest of taxpayers in Illinois and if the General Assembly desired to mandate programs then they should be willing to pay for them.

Senator Robert Lane is handling the bills in the Senate and hopefully they will pass out before the UJune 30th deadline and be sent to the Governor's desk for consideration.

Any information relative to this legislation may be obtained by calling Yourell at 422-9300.

"A Father's Day Prayer"

Build me a son, oh Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; a son who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, yet humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son who will know Thee: And that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge. Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand alone in the storm. Here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be free, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men. Let him learn to laugh, yet not forget how to weep. Let him reach into the future, yet not forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor so that he may always be serious, yet not take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength. Then, I, his father, will dare to whisper, I have not lived in vain.

Russo discusses world policy with Secretary Vance

Congressman Marty Russo recently met with Secretary of State Cyrus Vance to discuss recent developments around the world and to allow for congressional input into formulating appropriate initiatives and response.

Of particular concern to Russo was the Administration's policy toward Turkey, in light of their continued aggression in Cyprus and the recently concluded arms sales agreements in the Mideast.

"I expressed my continuing opposition to any economic assistance to Turkey that is not linked to progress in Cyprus," said Russo, "and let Secretary of State Vance know that the Administration's protection of human rights as a standard in foreign policy is admirable, but hardly convincing if we listen to those who wouldsacrifice principle for an ill-conceived notion of expediency in this instance."

Russo also expressed his concern over the sale of sophisticated war planes to Israel's traditional foes in the Mideast. "The ultimate question," said Russo, "is will this promote stability and peace in this area, or will it further harden existing doubts at this critical period of Mideast negotiations?"

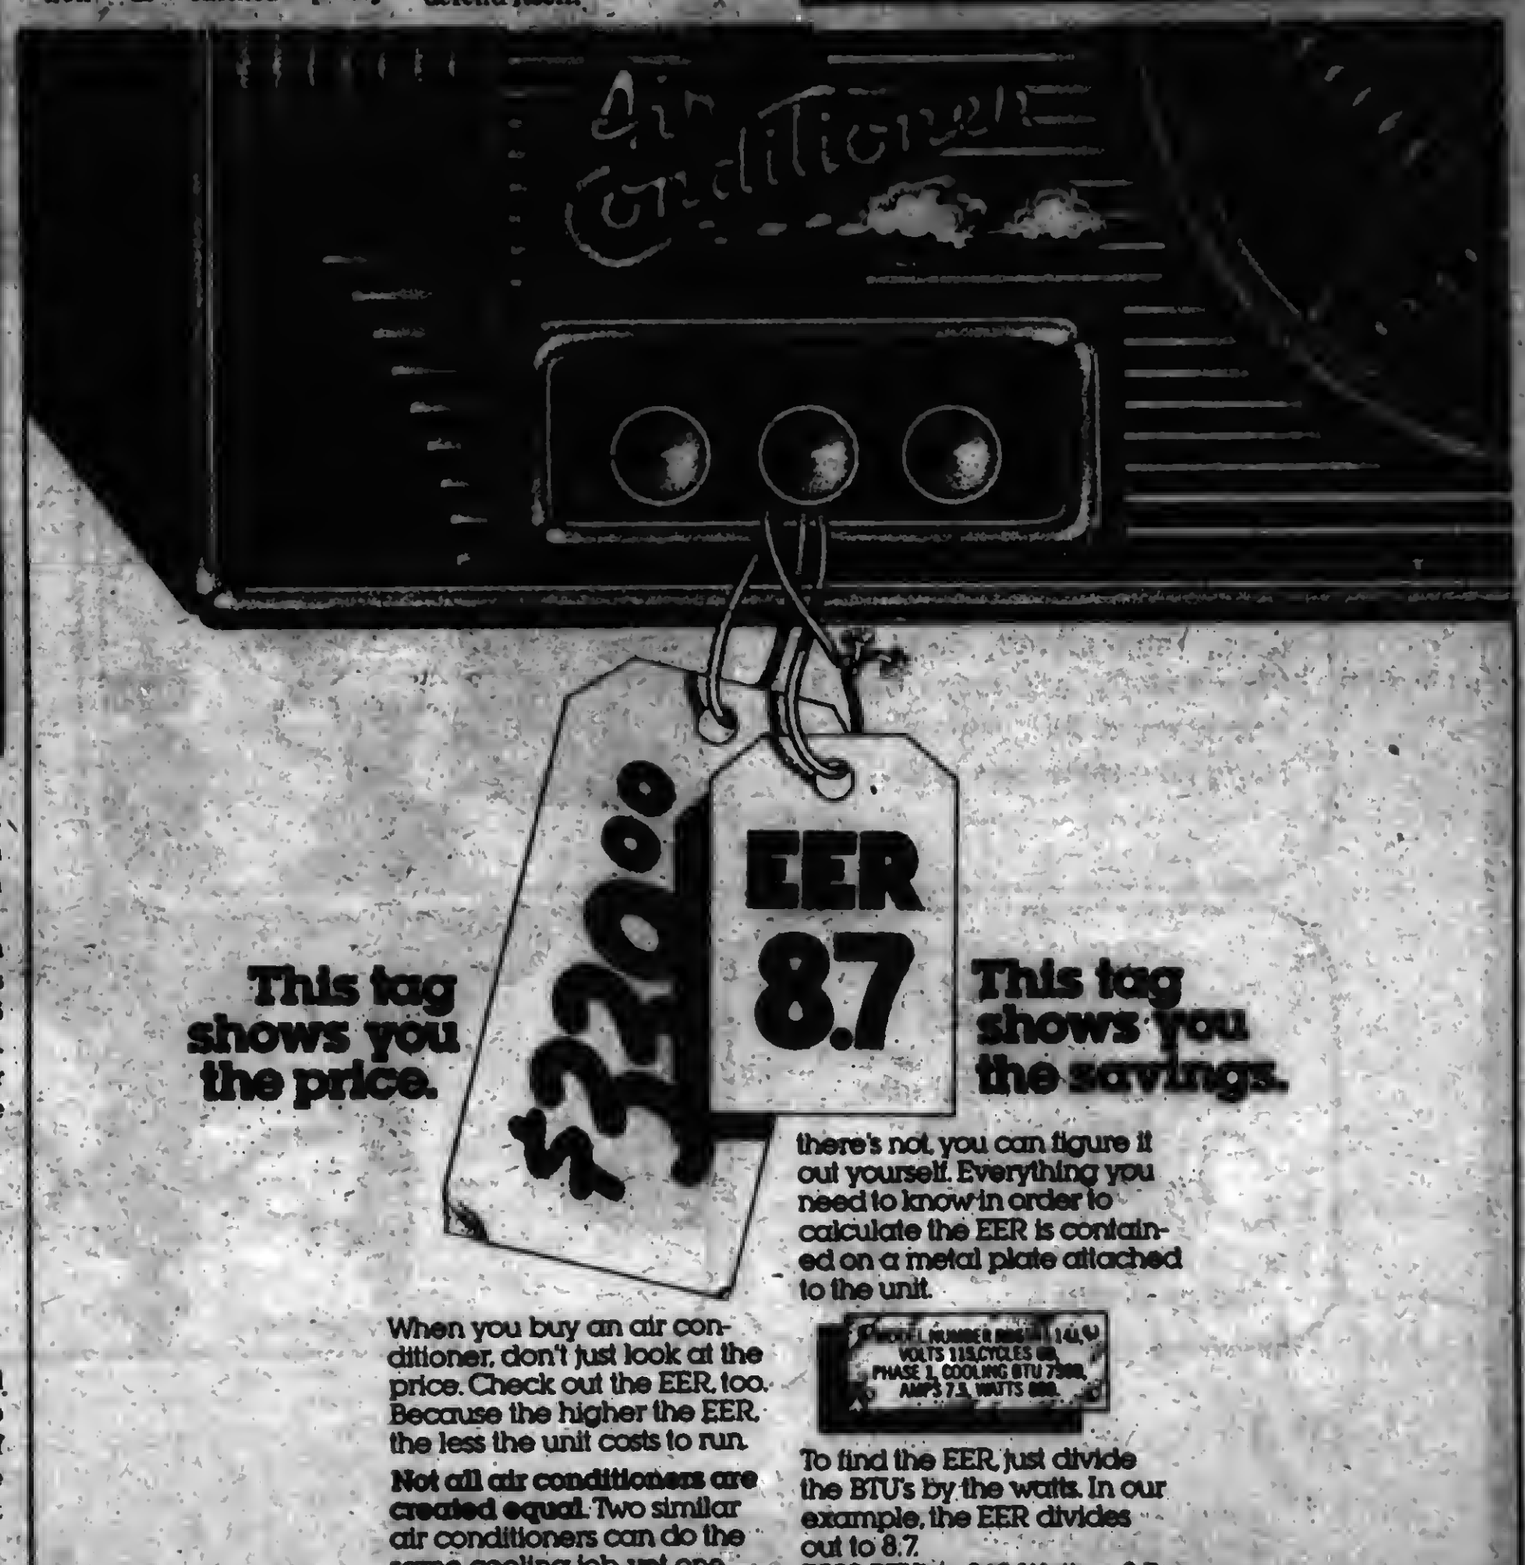
Vance indicated appreciation for the views expressed and a willingness to take these views into consideration as further policy decisions are made. Vance expounded on the Administration's position by stating that "the Mideast arms sales are directly related to our broader political objectives in the Middle East. President Carter feels that in order to continue in an effective role as a friend to all sides and a mediator that the U.S. must have good relations and the confidence of both sides of the conflict. In direct oppostion to critics, President Carter believes the sales will not jeopardize Israel's ability to defend itself."

JUDGE BOSCO SPEAKER

Associate Judge Anthony John Bosco of the Circuit Court of Cook County was the speaker at Oak Lawn Kiwanis, today, Thursday, June 15. Judge Bosco spoke on "As The Judicial System Is Today".

As a hardworking jurist, Judge Bosco at one point tried a record number of jury cases in Cook County. Before his appointment to the court, he was a trial lawyer for 16 years. Judge Bosco is an author and lecturer on the law. As such, he received the American Jurisprudence Award for highest achievement in the field of evidence in 1956. Judge Bosco is highly recommended by the Chicago Bar Assn.

Barnes bill funds Illinois Arts Council



In an effort to "provide every person in the state the opportunity to be exposed to a wide variety of cultural experiences," State Rep Jane Barnes has introduced legislation to fund the operation of the Illinois Arts Council in Fiscal Year 1979 (beginning July 1). Her bill allocates $2,902,300 for the Councils Fiscal Year 1979 expenses.

"I have introduced this legislation to insure the state's Art Council has the necessary funds to continue promoting and supporting the state's cultural resources," Rep Barnes said.

"The Arts Council acts as a liaison between cultural centers and organizations, such as museums and symphony orchestras, and the People of Illinois to make sure the interests of all sections of the state are heard," the Eighth District legislator said.

Rep Barnes explained that the council members have conducted 18 meetings around the state "to assess the type of programs and exhibits the residents of each area desire." Then the council attempts to arrange programs and exhibits to fulfill those needs.

"I introduced this legislation because I believe it will provide all Illinois residents with the opportunity to be exposed to a wide spectrum of cultural events. I believe everyone deserves that opportunity," she concluded.

This tag shows you the price.

When you buy an air conditioner, don't just look at the price. Check out the EER, too. Because the higher the EER, the less the unit costs to run.

Not all air conditioners are created equal. Two similar air conditioners can do the same cooling job, yet one may use less energy to do it. Obviously, you want to find that one, because it's more efficient and costs less to run. That's where EER comes in.

How to find the EER rating. EER stands for Energy Efficiency Ratio. It indicates the relative efficiency of an air conditioner. Sometimes there's an EER tag right on the machine; but even when there's not, you can figure it out yourself. Everything you need to know in order to calculate the EER is contained on a metal plate attached to the unit.

To find the EER, just divide the BTU's by the watts. In our example, the EER divides out to 8.7.
7500 BTU's ÷ 860 Watts = 8.7.

What's the recommended EER? We recommend an EER for air conditioners of 8 or higher. Lower rated units waste energy, and the energy wasted costs you money.

It pays to know about EER. An air conditioner with a high EER may cost a little more to buy, but it costs less to run: so it ends up saving you money over the life of the unit.

HAWAIIAN CAPSULES

HONOLULU, the glamorous capital city where you are welcomed with the lovely and traditional lei. You'll want to browse in exotic Waikiki – stroll barefoot along its white sand beaches wedged between the warm Pacific and the Pali mountain range – dance at night to the exciting sounds of Hawaii. . .explore the myriad optional tours. Enjoy sightseeing in Honolulu as part of the package we can make up for you.

MAUI, the beautiful "Valley Isle." Discover a sightseer's dream where lush flowing forests flow gently into the vibrant coastal life. Drive thru Maui's quiet valley of pineapple and sugar cane fields and along its coast with expansive views of the Pacific and neighbor islands.

KONA, the fishing capital of the islands. You'll enjoy exploring this sleepy leeward village. The colorful Kailua-Kona fishing fleet will greet you and narrow streets decked with flowers and gay shops will entice even the most reluctant shopper. To the north, the slopes of Mauna Kea challenge golfers, skiers, and hunters while the low mountain slopes attract coffee lovers with their famed Kona coffee bean.

This is just the beginning of your trip to Hawaii. Come in and let us tell you more. We will be happy to assist you with the many plans and tours available for a successful vacation. Stop in today at 5615 West 95th Street for that future trip.

VFW Ladies Aux names officers

Dorothy Hejl, a member of the Johnson-Phelps VFW ladies auxiliary in Oak Lawn, was elected to the position of junior vice president of the Third District auxiliary at their convention held May 21, with Johnson-Phelps hosting.

Appointed as chairmen for the 1978-79 year were Patricia Hewitt, assistant conductress; Lorraine Krzos, Voice of Democracy and Youth activities; Ruth Nollinger, blood donor; and Beverley Bragg, public relations and publicity.

The auxiliary won first place in the district judging for their community service record book compiled by Betty Feltes; second place in the safety poster contest entered by Juliann Devereux, a student at St Gerald's School, who was presented with a cash ward, Ruth Nollinger was the district chairman. In the safety essay contest and Loyalty Day poster contest, sponsored by the auxiliary, the safety essay entered by Tina Chloros and the poster by Mandy Coyne, both placed third in the district judging.

The record book for publicity compiled by Ann Bennett, placed second in the district judging and is one of the books sent for judging on the state level, as is the case with the community service book.

Local lass named winner

Therese Kimmey, the 1978 winner, is pictured above receiving her award from Sister M. Terrence Landini, President of the Board of Directors, LCM Hospital, who described Therese as "unselfish, reliable, good attitude, willing to serve, cheerful, mature and responsible."

Junior volunteers at Little Company of Mary Hospital are high school students who bring an abundance of youthful enthusiasm and cheerful cooperation to help brighten the days of patients and personnel.

Once each year, these young people are honored at an awards ceremony held in the hospital chapel that is followed by an appreciation dinner party. This year, some 300 volunteers and their parents were in attendance.

Presentation of the Junior Volunteer of the Year plaque for outstanding service is the highlight of this event. Therese Kimmey, a graduate of Richards High School, has volunteered more than 700 hours of service during the past 2½ years in all areas of the hospital and has served as a captain during the past year. She will enter Nursing School in September to obtain a Bachelor of Science degree.

Therese, the daughter of Mr and Mrs Joseph Kimmey of Oak Lawn, has also been an outstanding member of her high school service club, speech team, a National Honor Society member and an Illinois State Scholarship winner.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR BRANDT SCHOOL PTA

At a recent meeting of the Brandt School PTA, 8901 S 52nd, outgoing President Pat Stancik (l) congratulates new President, Marcie Colantone (r). Marcie has been an active member of the Brandt PTA Board for 5 years, has been a participant in St Gerald's shows for the past few years and is currently attending beautician school. Pictured in the center is the installing officer, Ramona Griffin, President of the Oak Lawn Hometown PTA Council and a member of the District 123 Board of Education.

Pilgrim Faith announces farm grant

Pilgrim Faith United Church of Christ, 9411 S 51st Avenue, Oak Lawn, has announced a grant to the Varany Mission Farm, Jaffna, Sri Lanka (Ceylon), in the amount of $4000 enabling the Farm to institute a training program in connection with its poultry project.

One of the aims of the Farm, established in 1973, is to train young men in various aspects of small scale agriculture and help them set up projects of their own. Ted and Helen, Oppenheim, Oak Lawn residents and members of Pilgrim Faith Church, became aware of this training program last year while on a trip to visit friends and former students in Sri Lanka. On their return, Mr and Mrs Oppenheim were instrumental in obtaining the grant from the Pilgrim Faith Fund for Special Ministries. In April, the Bishop of the Jaffna Diocese formally inaugurated the program with the first class of six students. It is hoped that this new venture will contribute toward rural development.

Mc Namara announces new Worth Twsp programs

John McNamara has announced that registration is now being taken for Women's 12" Fast Pitch Baseball League. The league is open to all women 18 years or older who live within the Worth Township boundries. Registration can be taken place at the Worth Township Mini-Civic Center, 11601 S Pulaski. For further information call Susan Karlson, Director or Helen Malevitis at 371-2900 ext 21.

McNamara has also announced the opening of a summer Day Camp Program. The program is divided into 2-5 weeks sessions. The first session is scheduled to begin on June 19 and end on July 21. The second session will begin on July 24 and go until August 25. All children ages 6-11 who reside in the Worth Township boundaries are invited to participate.

The schedule is as follows–Monday thru Thursday. Ages 6-8 will be in the morning from 9:30 to 12 and children of ages 9-11 will be in the afternoon from 12:30 to 3 pm. The program will consist of field trips, special events, movies, game tournaments, outdoor and indoor activities, song fests, special treats and many, many more exciting activites. The cost for the program is $10 per child. Each camper will be provided with a Day Camp T-Shirt. The program will be under the direction of Helen Malevitis and Beth McElroy.

Hundreds of people attended the "Grand Opening" of the "Dunne for Congress" campaign headquarters at 4239 W 95th St, Oak Lawn, on May 20. The office has been operating since February.

They came from near and far, families, dignitaries, people, and children, to meet Bob Dunne, their Republican Candidate for Congress in the Third District. Visitors first viewed a "Kelly Green" Cadillac Convertible, the official Dunne car, parked at the curb, then were entertained by the music of a sidewalk band led by Gene Mikrut of Merrionette Park.

The headquarters' interior presented a festive party atmosphere with windows and ceiling festooned with green and white streamers, straw skimmer hats, and the walls were lined with large U.S. flags in standards. Guests were treated to tropical ginger punch, soft drinks, coffee and a variety of pastries.

In addition to the Dunne family, guests were greeted by dignitaries including State Senator Frank M. Ozinga, State Representatives Herb Huskey and Jane M. Barnes, and County Commissioner Ronald R. Larson.

Dine Out with Ramblin' Rose

WHO IN THE WORLD prepares that wonderful Italian food? Who else but MAMA LUIGI. The delicious pastas that everyone loves is carefully cooked, and the sauces are heavenly. Try real Italian spaghetti, or aromatic lasagna melting with cheese. For a treat you will not soon forget, go to Mama Luigi's at 7500 Harlem Avenue. They are open for luncheon and dinner.

*****

WHERE IN THE WORLD can you enjoy breakfast, luncheon or dinner, and at the same time catch a glimpse of the celebrities who also love good food? Where else but THEODORE'S. You will be in good company, and you will enjoy the delicious steaks, chops and fish. Drop in to Theodore's too, for a refreshing fountain creation, a big, cooling sundae or a tall frosty soda. Be sure to visit Theodore's at 2501 W 95th Street, across the street from the Drury Lane.

WHAT IN THE WORLD is so good as the dishes prepared at the ORIENT VIEW? What you want when it is too hot to cook, is the Oriental touch you will find at the Orient View. Famous Cantonese foods and American dishes are served in the dining room, or you can phone for carry out service.

The Orient View is closed Mondays, but is open all other days for luncheon and dinner. And the food is so good you will want to go back soon. The Orient View is at 5617 W 87th Street in the heart of the road building country, but there is plenty of parking in the rear of the building.

WHEN IN THE WORLD should you go to the BEACON? Do it now, today, for old fashioned food and courteous service. The prices are unbelievably reasonable, and all dressings, sauces and soups are prepared right there from scratch. They serve only the finest beef, pork and chicken, all deliciously cooked. You will love the Beacon. It's comfortably cool at the Beacon, and you will relax in the cozy surroundings. The Beacon is at 8400 Cicero.

*****

WHY IN THE WORLD should you stop the waitress at GRECO'S? Why to find out what the special for the day is. Greco's offers Italian specialties of all kinds, and veal, chicken and fish, pastas, soups and steaks, all delicious, all piping hot, and all satisfying. Greco's is a family owned and run restaurant, and you will enjoy and relax in the friendly atmosphere. Greco's also hosts parties and banquets. Greco's is at 3020 W 95th Street.

*****

HOW IN THE WORLD does the KNIGHT'S ARMS in the Holiday Inn manage to serve such a large variety of wonderful food? It's Innkeeper Joe English's secret, but we hope he keeps on doing it. Try the flaming steak Diane, and Caesar salad for a special occasion. There are a great many selections from which to choose, and the dinner specials include the salad bar, a glass of wine, and a warm loaf of bread.

There is a European pastry cart at the Knight's Arms that you won't be able to resist.

With plans completed for the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Golf Outing to be held on Wednesday, July 5, it is time to sit back and relax. Shown above at the Palos Country Club, where the outing is to be held are (l to r) Committee Members, Joyce Hrabec and Joan Powley; Betty Gallo, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce; Lou Mirabelli, Chairman of the outing and Vice President of the Chamber of Commerce; Committee Members Barbara Kozlarek and Robert Vlaming.

Each season the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Golf Outing grows bigger and more exciting than that of the previous year. The theme "We've Come A Long Way" was through the suggestion of Chairman Lou Mirabelli in recognition of the Chamber's first woman President, Betty Gallo.

John Pieler, Executive Director of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce and Co-chairman of the outing that will take place at the Palos Country Club, 131st & Southwest Highway, said that the tickets for golf will be $10.00 with dinner $14.50 per person and will include a bottle of wine at each table. The date to mark on your calendar is Wednesday, July 5, 1978.

Golf tee-offs will start at 6:30 am. The famous "Beer Holes" with liquid refreshments donated by Sal Crivellone, Suburban News Marketer; Nell Moerbeck, Oak Lawn Firestone and Ed Kendall, Suburbanite Economist, will be the 4th and 11th holes. There will be a "Traveling Beer Cart and Hot Dogs" donated by Merrill Stenbom, Merrill Stenbom Answering Service and Joe English of the Holiday Inn, Oak Lawn. The betting holes will be manned by Stenbom and Moerbeck.

A couple of new surprises for this year will be a Horseshoe Pitching Tournament open to men and women in the afternoon and also an Old Fashioned Softball Game featuring men and women on the same team. Lou Mirabelli will be in charge of this fun event so contact him early for your favorite position on the team.

To begin the evening festivities there will be a Cocktail Hour from 6:30 to 7:30 pm, sponsored by Joe McCarthy and donated by the First National Bank of Oak Lawn. The dinner will follow with a fine menu of Fruit Cup Supreme, Salad, Prime Rib of Beef, Green Beans Almondine topped off with a desert of Ice Cream Amaretto.

Eugene O'Reilly will officiate as Master of Ceremonies for the evening activities with music for your dining and dancing pleasure by Merle Bains Orchestra.

After dinner two beautiful traveling trophies donated by Chuck Thompson, Chuck Thompson Oldsmobile, one for municipal employees and one for service clubs, will be presented to the winners.

On the decorations committee are Milt Andersen, Mary K. O'Shea, Mary Petersen and Joan Powley. In charge of bulletins, mailings, ticket and program printing is "lone star" Roger Vlaming.

The Chamber staff, Lil, Betty and John are in charge of ticket purchase and reservations that can be made by calling the Oak Lawn Chamber office at 424-8300.

Lou Mirabelli would like to remind you of the drawing for the giant Early Bird Liquor Basket of Booze for reservations and monies received by June 17, 1978. Also, that reservations are limited to 500 so get yours in early for this beautiful day of "fun and frolic" with your friends and neighbors.

Southwest Bar Association welcomes new members

It was a day of relaxation for the Southwest Bar Association for members and their guests before induction ceremonies that evening at the Glen Eagles Country Club on Friday, July 2.

Attorney John Brady, who presided as Master of Ceremonies for the evening, announced several special guests of the evening and among them was Oak Lawn Trustee John Hardek.

Four new members were added to the Board of Directors increasing it from eight to twelve in a further effort to accomplish the Southwest Bar Association's goals for the southwest area. Inducted for the following year were: Anthony Barrett, John Crilly, Donald Finn, Betty Gallo, who was also named President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce for 1978; Themis Karnezis and Robert Kenny. Also: Michael Kominiarek, Joseph Kurland Sr, Michael McArdle, Thomas J. McDonough, Christine Smith McMahon and Anthony S. Montelione. Outgoing President is Thomas McDonough.

After having already enjoyed cocktails, a delicious steak dinner with all the trimmings, everyone present received a door prize to complete the days festivities.

GARDEN SCHOOL FOR THE HANDICAPPED THEATRE OUTING A REALITY

Again this year the Garden School for the Handicapped will hold a theatre outing at Drury Lane Theatre, Evergreen Park.

This year the festive event will be Friday, June 16 at 8:30 pm. The star will be the famous Hugh O'Brien in a very hilarious comedy, "Sunday in New York."

Tickets for this benefit evening can be had by calling the school at 636-0054. There will also be a drawing with many cash awards; tickets for the theatre and/or drawing are $5.00. Your donation will further aid the students at this fine and outstanding school.

"WORTHY CAUSE" BENEFIT IS A SUCCESS

The home of Mr and Mrs Matt Lamb, Oak Lawn, was the gathering place for the 11th annual "Worthy Cause" Benefit (cocktail party) which raised a substantial sum over $18,000. This benefit is sponsored by residents of the southwest Chicago and suburban areas to raise money for the Chulucanas Mission in Peru, South America. All proceeds from the benefit will aid in a selfhelp program in human, moral and religious formation for over 350,000 Peruvians in this missionary diocese. Bishop John McNabb, former principal of Mendal High School, has headed this Peruvian prelature since June of 1967.

Ms Doris Kiein, past chairman of the Senior Citizen Commission said that they buy services from PLOWS that they can't get here.

Cleveiand said, "This seems to be a dupiication of services. We budget $113,000 for famiiy services to take care of these problems."

Ms Klein cited five cases in Oak Lawn that were not covered, one being an eiderly famiiy of four that didn't know where to go for Sociai Security, and another that needed iegai aid. "We realiy need a caseworker but you toid us the viiiage didn't have the funds for this."

Trustee Ron Stancik said that it was at this point in time that they, (the commission) with their ongoing actions, seemed to be drifting towards autonomy, first with the search committee and then the service committee.

Emmett Meier, President of the Senior Citizen Council and Senior Citizen Commission member, toid of how much money was being turned over to PLOWS. He also said that the Senior Citizen Commission was pianning on the sale of an ad book to raise funds and that business peopie in the area wouid think they were heiping Oak Lawn's seniors when it was intended to go eisewhere. Meier said they (the Councii) raise ali their own funds thru the year by seiiing papers and having flea markets, etc.

Meier said that PLOWS is strapped for funds and they keep digging into Oak Lawn. As an exampie he cited an amount of $16,000 received from Worth Township (Revenue Sharing) and that 50% had gone to PLOWS. He said that 40% of the Worth Twsp seniors live in Oak Lawn and if the funds were kept here they could hire their own caseworker. He said that a caseworker working one day a week could handle the probiems here.

Ernie Wulff began interferring with the conversation and referred to Mr Meier's comments as "trivia". Mayor Koib asked that he not interrupt, as all would be given a chance to speak.

Mrs Knapp, of the Senior Citizen Commission, said, "We're trying to heip the ones that don't know where to go."

Viiiage Manager O'Neiii said that they have been four years setting up a fine program. He said they have ampie space and a broad program. Of a supervisor he said he expects senior needs to be eiicited and go thru his office. "I expect my supervisor to operate directly with me and I wiii find every resource available. We wiii then see what we can approve and what our iimits are," O'Neiii said.

At this point Wulff spoke again and said that Mr Meier is assuming too much and most of it was "trivia" and incorrect.

Trustee Joe Vogrich spoke at this point and said, "The biggest probiem is when we don't agree with you people, and we definitely disagree with the direction you are taking. Instead of coming here and talking to us," he said, "you go to every newspaper in town. Sir, I may add that I have never given them any information, that it has all come from you and that you lied."

Wulff said, "You are going to regret that statement."

Again Vogrich tried to explain that the commission had asked for a worker and was told they (the administration) couldn't afford it. "We don't have that kind of money," Vogrich said, "you're trying to force us into what we cannot afford. Everytime you don't get your way you blame it on us and run to the newspapers with stories that are not true." (Most of the news stories have blamed Vogrich for the probiems and were supposedly leaks from an executive session. Vogrich has since said there wiii be no more executive sessions in the viiiage. The rest of the Board of Trustees have also agreed.)

Wulff again interrupted Vogrich using harsh words and included the integrity of the village attorney, Patrick Lucansky.

Vogrich replied, "You, sir, are a liar."

Trustee John Hardek stood up and said that Vogrich was "out of order". He threatened to leave the room. More words were spoken and he arose and left.

One of the other commissioners spoke up and said, "This is the way our meetings have been going. We need a policeman at our meetings because there is so much bickering and loud fighting."

Trustee Jay Bergamini then spoke and said, "I have listened to all the arguments this evening and have seen the childish move of someone at an important meeting such as this. (Referring to Hardek's leaving.) It is a theatrical display on our part and very obviously a winning in time. We are concerned with your behavior also and this is what we are attacking. You don't need a lawyer," he said, "put down your swords."

"Things can't always go the way you want them to, we often disagree with the mayor but we go on winning some and losing some." Bergamini said, "I have also heard the need of a policeman at your meetings. I have had numerous phone calls at my home, it seems as though they are being read from a script." (Several of the trustees have said the same thing and have also talked of a letter campaign that appears to be a planned attack.)

Bergamini went on, "I listen to the callers and read everything that has been written in the papers. Trustee Vogrich went so far as to say no more closed meetings and that's going all the way. You will have to learn to swallow some of the objections, some you may win."

One of the commissioners again said that they didn't hear what they came for, which was why was Rosemary (Ms Rosemary Grady, supervisor) fired.

Mayor Kolb said again, "We gave you the opportunity to meet with the village manager and you chose not to -- that's where you should have gone."

After a two hour and five minute session Mr Wulff said, "I don't think we have made a lot of progress at this meeting."

Trustee Ron Stancik then requested that the meetings of the Senior Citizen Commission be taped. He was told that this could be handled and the manager was directed to furnish the necessary equipment.

Mayor Kolb asked that they all go forward from this time on and that they meet at least quarterly and not just at budget time. No date was set at that time.

MEMO FROM THE

JOHN WAYNE FILM FESTIVAL

A John Wayne Film Festival will start June 20 at 7 pm featuring the classic "Stagecoach", made in 1939 and directed by John Ford.

John Wayne skyrocketed to stardom with his portrayal of the Ringo Kid, a notorious gunman who joins a half a dozen very different passengers aboard an overland stage. Thomas Mitchell won an Oscar for his performance as the drunken doctor. Claire Trevor, Andy Devine, John Carradine and Tim Holt also star. The film is highlighted by what is still one of the greatest western chase scenes ever filmed.

The festival will continue July 18 with "She Wore a Yellow Ribbon"; August 15 with "Fort Apache" and Sept 19 "The Quiet Man."

Amateur photographers are encouraged to enter a photo contest sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District. Entries may include any picture that is visually representative of the Oak Lawn Park District, such as a photo of a park facility or program.

There are three categories in the photo contest: 35 mm black and white prints, 35 mm color slides and pocket camera color prints. Prizes donated by Watlands Camera and Oak Lawn Camera will be awarded to the top three entrants in each category.

Complete rules and entry forms are available at the Park District office, 9400 S Kenton. Photos must be turned in between August 1st and 15th. Call 424-7300 for more information.

BARRELL OF MONEY

Rev Steven R. Wright, Pastor of the Wesleyan Community Church, of 8844 South Austin Avenue in Oak Lawn, challenged his congregation to raise $2500 above their regular Easter offerings to pay for high winter utility costs. He agreed to PUSH it in a barrell over 2½ miles to the Oak Lawn Trust and Savings on 95th Street. They reached it, and he pushed it! (Last year he carried it to the bank in a wheelbarrow.) Here to accompany him are rear (l to r) Jim Medows, Bill Booth, Bill Timm, Pat Wright, Pastor Wright, Sandy Booth, Ellen Schuller, Shirley Johnson and Dick Johnson. Front (l to r) Leanne Johnson, Chris Wright, Mildred Medows and Denny Medows.

Park District "safe, happy and full" 4th of July

It is that time of year when the Oak Lawn Park District is greatly concerned over the safety of the people in the community and is suggesting that residents stay at home for a safe and enjoyable July 4th holiday. A full slate of recreational activities is planned for all ages for July 1 thru the 4th.

A men's SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT will be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 1 and 2, at Simmons Park. Spectators are welcome. Call the park district office, 424-7300 for game times.

The annual BIKE HIKE thru Oak Lawn will begin at Lake Shore Park at 10 am on Saturday, July 1 and conclude at beautiful Simmons Park at about 12:30 pm. A chuck wagon lunch consisting of a hot dog, beans, potato chips and a soft drink will be served at 12:30 pm. The chuck [illegible] cost $1.

The North Shore Bluegrass Revival will perform a free BLUEGRASS CONCERT at Southwest Park, 102nd & Major. The concert time is 7:30 pm.

The movie, TOM SAWYER will be shown outdoors at Southwest Park on Sunday, July 2 at dusk. The musical version of this story starring Johnny Whitaker will be shown free of charge.

On Monday, July 3, an ALL-TOURNAMENT DAY will be held for children 6 thru 13 years of age. Children will compete at various games such as [illegible], sack races, and [illegible]. Activities begin at 10 am.

A teen ROCK CONCERT featuring a local rock band will be held at Southwest Park on Monday, July 3 from 8 to 10 pm, admission is free.

The preliminary rounds of the annual LOG ROLLING CONTEST will be held on Sunday, July 2 from 9 am to noon. The finals will be held Tuesday, July 4 beginning at 1 pm. The logrolling contest is free and is held at Southwest Park.

The annual WATER CARNIVAL will also be held at Southwest Pool beginning at 1 pm on July 4. Activities for the youngsters will include kick board races, inner tube races, and a greased watermelon contest.

A FISHING DERBY will be held July 4, thruout the day at the Southwest Park pond. Judging will be at 1:30 pm [illegible] awarded for the smallest, largest, most [illegible] caught. Pony [illegible] will also be available at Southwest Park for a nominal charge thruout the day.

A FREE CONCERT will be presented at Southwest Park on July 4 at 7 pm by jazz great Art Hodes. The free concert will be followed by the Park District's annual FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

A limited number of picnic tables are available at Southwest Park for use by residents of Oak Lawn. They may not be reserved. Bring your food and family for an enjoyable day of picnicking. Call 424-7300 for more information.

Also, the Park District is once again sponsoring a series of teen rock concerts in various parks. The concerts feature local [illegible] bands and offer some free entertainment. Admission is free.

The concerts will be held on Wednesdays, July 11 at Worthbrook Park, July 18 at Southwest Park, July 25 at Beverly Lawn [illegible] and August 2 at Southtown Park. All of the concerts begin at 8 pm. Call the Park District Office, 424-7300 for more information.

Chamber plans "Best Ever" Golf Outing July 5th

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, whose theme is "We've come a long way baby," has the "best ever" golf outing planned for Wednesday, July 5 at Palos Country Club, 131st & Southwest Hwy, according to Chairman Lou Mirabelli.

Tee-off time for golf is 6:30 am, so it is important to get your call in early. The cost for golf only is $10 per person. There will be a softball game with both men and women on the teams and a horseshoe tournament during the day and the traditional "watering spa" and food cart.

The evening fun will start with a Cocktail Hour from 6:30 to 7:30 pm followed by an elegant dinner. There will be trophies, prizes, raffle and a lot of excitement going on including excellent music for your dining and dancing pleasure. The cost for the dinner is $14.50 per person.

All are welcome according to Betty Gallo, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, and she will be on hand to greet everyone. "This is a community affair and everyone is invited," she said.

Bob Dunne invites young people become involved

Bob Dunne, Republican Congressional Candidate 3rd District, has issued a special invitation for young people to become involved in his campaign. Dunne said, "It is important that our young people between of ages of 15 - 24 become involved in the political system. This November offers an excellent opportunity to become active."

Dunne stated, "The young people of today have a [illegible] interest in the continued growth of this country. As a candidate I welcome their input and energy. Too often the young people are ignored – yet they will be affected by the decisions made in Washington for decades to come."

Bob continued, "I feel that my campaign offers a chance, not only to have fun, but to also have an impact on the legislative process. Our campaign encourages all interested citizens to become active."

Library features variety of collection displays

Ceramics made from Oak Lawn clay, handmade dolls, books on magic and magicians and an historic coin collection are all on display at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Marcia Dorn's display shows how she has taken clay that was dug when the Sward School was under construction, filtered out much of the minerals and other deposits, formed it into bisque and then fired it. There are pieces to demonstrate all the stages in the ceramic-making process. Mrs. Dorn's work has won both local and national acclaim.

Cuddly, handmade dolls by Jean Radtke are featured in another display. Mrs. Radtke's sewing and quilting talents were first learned at the Cook Avenue School in the early 1930's when Carl Sward arranged for crafts classes for the seventh and eighth grades. Sward was then principal at the Cook School and later had a school named after him.

Books on magic and magicians are featured on the second floor of the Library in the Fine Arts Department. Any of the books in the display can be put on reserve for reading once the display is taken down.

The Oak Lawn Coin Club has a display of U.S. Cents dating from 1793 to the present on view on the Library's main floor. There are large cents both Indian Head and Lincoln and the Fugio Cent dating from 1787 which is believed to have been personally designed by Benjamin Franklin. The collection also includes the first coin authorized by the Continental Congress eight years before the United States even had a mint.

The cvn displays will change on a monthly basis and last through March of 1979.

Another display at the Library features model railroad cars from days of the Wabash. The trains are courtesy of W. Raymond Adams. Included in the display are: a 1917 Wabash R.R. timetable, the 1912 Yearbook of Oak Lawn telling about the Wabash and an article telling about the takeover of the railroad by the Norfolk and Western.

Six young artist earn art recognition

Mike Schilling of Chicago Ridge was awarded a Kodak Medallion of Excellence in the national judging for his photographic work. Photographers Debbie Borrowdale and Anna Marchese, both of Oak Lawn, also claimed national awards. The three are students of HLR photography instructor Judy Alberts.

In the category of drawing, three students won honorable mention awards as follows: Kathy Lyons of Chicago Ridge, pen and ink; Lisa Piefka of Oak Lawn, tempera and ink; and Colin Walsh of Oak Lawn, pen and ink. The three are students of instructor Claudia Craemer.

Flea Market

The residents of Pine Manor Nursing Center, 10425 S. Roberts Road, Palos Hills, are having a Flea Market July 19, 20 and 21st. Proceeds will be used for a zoo outing. Flea Market hours will be 10 am to 3 pm.

The Flea Market will include priceless items of all varieties, craft items, antiques, clothes and other collectables.

Moraine and State plan two Municipal Workshops

Moraine Valley Comm. College, in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs, has scheduled two Municipal Workshops. The sessions are designed for local government officials and department heads, members of planning and zoning boards and citizens who are interested in local board meetings.

PLANNING FOR THE MATURE COMMUNITY will be held on the MVCC campus from 8:30 am-noon, Saturday, July 22. The session will emphasize practical methods for downtown improvement and for preventing blight and decay. Those working in communities with vacant stores, older homes and shabby blocks will find this workshop especially helpful.

The fee for this workshop is $5 per person. Each registrant receives a copy of the Downtown Improvement Manual.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS is scheduled on the MVCC campus from 8:30 am-2:30 pm Saturday, Aug 26. The link between the municipal board and the citizens of the community will be stressed. Included are "hands on" exercises for developing the annual report, generating community interest and coping with communications problems.

The fee of $10 per person includes lunch and materials.

Kolb supports Garden Club "Clean-Up"

In November of 1963, the Oak Lawn Garden Club completed landscaping the area located on Columbus Drive just north of 95th Street, now known as the Blue Star Memorial Park. The tract is an extension of the Memorial Park containing a demobilized army tank and a placque in tribute to the armed forces of all wars. Fifteen years ago the Oak Lawn Garden Club sodded the area, planted trees and shrubs and installed the park benches. Each spring the club turns out in force to spruce up the area.

Mayor Kolb has been supportive of the Oak Lawn Garden Club and has shown considerable interest in their community beautification projects as far back as 1960, when he was the Oak Lawn Village Clerk.

The Oak Lawn Garden Club is currently sponsoring its sixth annual Beautiful Yards Contest. Contest Chairman, Marie Veague, encourages all amateur gardeners to enter the contest which will be held on July 17. The contest is open to all amateur gardeners who are residents of Oak Lawn. Members of the Oak Lawn Garden Club are not eligible to enter. Residents may enter the contest by calling 422-3804.

Junior Citizen program planned for fall

A luncheon was held recently for the administrators of public and private schools instructors of the eighth grade students from the communities in the surrounding area. The purpose of this luncheon was to give information and and an expianation of a Junior Citizen Program the Palos Bank and Trust Company will sponsor next Fall. According to Sandy Dorgan, Assistant Vice President of the Community and Public Relations Department, the bank's intent is to seek out and commend the up-and-coming citizen of tomorrow.

Students will be judged on their participation, leadership, aptitude and personal qualities. Each student will be asked to fill out a Personal Summary History Sheet to be submitted to his teacher. One boy and one girl will be selected to represent their school in competition for Miss and Mr Junior Citizen for 1978-79. Judges will be from the fields of education, business and government.

A testimonial dinner for these representatives, their parents and principals of their schools will be held at a later date. All representatives will receive a certificate of merit and the Miss and Mr Junior Citizen for 1978-79 announced. The two winners will go to Springfield to meet their legislators, tour the capitol, and meet with the Governor. Other prizes and activities for all the representatives will be announced later.

Areas selected to participate in the kick-off of the Junior Citizen Program in September, 1978 are Alsip, Chicago Ridge, Evergreen Park, Hometown, Oak Lawn, Orland Park, Palos Heights, Palos Hills, Palos Park and Worth.

A new postage stamp which recognizes the contributions photography has made to communications, understanding and the American way of life will be honored with a photo exhibit at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 West 95th Street which began June 26. The Photography stamp will be the first 1978 commemorative to bear the 15 cent denomination.

On June 30 and July 1st, for two days only, the Philatelic Department of the Chicago Post Office will be at the bank to supply stamp fans with recent commemoratives. Special Photography Cachet, designed by First National's Art Coordinator, Mary Anne Annable will also be available. The philatelic booth is scheduled to remain open, in the Mini-Bank area, from 9:30 am to 3 pm on Friday and from 9:30 am to 1 pm on Saturday.

Artists and craftsmen can sell as well as show their wares at Moraine Valley Comm College's arts and crafts fair, Show and Sell, scheduled for Sunday, Sept 24.

"We would like to have all the artists and craftsmen from the area," Alice Ihrig, MVCC civic and cultural director, said. "We have a large area on the campus for those who participate and plenty of parking for those who come to look and buy."

According to Ihrig, the college is planning to hold the fair annually.

Tables for participants are $2 each. Those interested in reserving tables call 974-4300, ext 360-361.

Pompeii AD 79 Exhibit

Moraine Valley Comm College is sponsoring two special evenings of the Pompeii AD 79 Exhibit at the Chicago Art Institute. The dates are Wednesday, Aug 30, and Friday, Sept 29.

The special viewings include round trip from 95th and Cicero on an air conditioned bus, an exclusive slide lecture, a full course Italian dinner with wine and a complete tour of the exhibition. Total cost is $30 per person. Each viewing is limited to 50 persons.

Reservations will be accepted in the order received with checks for full payment. Checks should be made out to Moraine Valley Community College and sent to MVCC Community Services Office, 10900 S. 88th Ave., Palos Hills.

Deadline for reservations for the Aug 30 trip is July 31. For the Sept 29 trip, the final date is Aug 30.

The Pompeii AD 79 Exhibit is a stunning collection of approximately 300 objects taken from the ruins of Pompeii. Pompeii, Herculaneum and many luxurious estates were buried under 12 feet of ash and pumice when Mount Vesuvius erupted in August, AD 79. More than 20,000 inhabitants and their possessions were entombed. The swiftness of the calamity and the depth of the cover miraculously preserved the ruins. For more than six centuries they were undisturbed.

New drug court to open in September

The chief judge of the Circuit court of Cook county has given the go ahead for a specialized narcotics court to be set up in Oak Lawn.

The court is one phase of a new pilot program aimed at dealing with drug-related problems in the 5th municipal district, which serves southwest suburban Cook county.

Beginning Sept. 8, the court will convene three Fridays each month. Drug-related felony cases will be heard in the morning and misdemeanors in the afternoon.

In announcing the formation of the program Wednesday, Chief Judge John S. Boyle said the court and officials from the Central State Institute of Addiction will "design and develop specialized procedures not only to process narcotics and narcotics related cases, but also to provide an organized rehabilitation program for defendants who are in need of intervention regarding drug abuse or addiction."

Fifth Municipal Dist. Presiding Judge Irving Elserman said the "two-pronged" program will help the court "get to the crux rather than just the surface of the problem."

Elserman, who has worked with State Rep. Herb Huskey (R-8th) in getting the necessary approvals for the narcotics court, will supervise the program.

The problem is not solved by just looking to see if a person is guilty or not guilty, Elserman said.

"The court should have the facility to find out what the problem really is...if therapy, guidance or incarceration is needed."

Case studies will be done by the Central States Institute of Addiction on the defendants who come before the court, according to Elserman.

The second part of the program is aimed at solving the problems of a drug-user before he winds up in court.

The pilot program will have a centralized referral service, combining the expertise of state and local drug and youth agencies and school administrators.

Agencies involved in the second "prong" of the program will also work closely with the addiction institute Elserman said.

Huskey, whose drug survey in January reaffirmed that drug problems still exist among youths in the southwest suburbs, has pledged to use his office to "pull together" the various state and local agencies and the court system.

Saying that this type of program is "long, long overdue," Huskey asserted that instead of the judicial system simply being a "court of punishment" it "will work into a court to help families that have drug-related problems."

At a drug conference hosted by Huskey in April local police officials, representatives from area and state drug and youth agencies and school administrators noted that more drug education programs are needed for children and adults and that the efforts of the agencies should be coordinated so those with problems do not get lost in the shuffle.

A member of the Metropolitan Enforcement group pointed out that although the conviction rate in the suburbs for drug offenses is high, most offenders are given expungable sentences.

He asserted that a judge in the suburban court is not likely to treat a drug case with the same severity as a case dealing with armed robbery, even though the defendants may have committed a robbery to steal money for drugs.

Yourell blames Thompson for high insurance

Escalating insurance rates will remain unchecked in Illinois because of the actions of the Governor, according to Rep. Yourell.

"Insurance consumers in this State are being left at the mercy of profit-motivated insurance companies, thanks to the Governor," Yourell said. He made the statement after an amendment by Rep. Rich Brummer (D-Effingham) setting up an insurance rate review board, was defeated when Republicans, "obviously at the Governor's urging", changed their votes from aye to no.

"Four Republicans, Rep.'s Wolf, Telcser, Miller and McMaster, changed their votes almost immediately after the Governor's assistant appeared on the floor," Yourell explained. "It is unfortunate that Governor Thompson has chosen to pick the pockets of consumers by engaging in political maneuvering to defeat this legislation."

Brummer's amendment would have established a 7-member regulatory board to review complaints about excessive or discriminatory insurance rates. The board would be empowered to direct refunds to consumers and suspend the licenses of insurance companies that refuse to discontinue charging excessive rates.

"There is presently no procedure for the review of home or automobile insurance rates in Illinois," Yourell said. "Governor Thompson has now succeeded in killing this reform, which would have given consumers a place to turn to for relief from insurance rates that escalate without due cause. The Governor has turned his back on the consumers of this State, and left the door open for profit-hungry wolves to prey on insurance consumers," Yourell concluded.

Tax relief proposal waiting on the House

Senate President Thomas C. Hynes (D-Chicago) said recently that he will co-sponsor the most sweeping tax relief proposal currently pending in the Legislature.

It is very conceivable that a measure such as this would satisfy the majority of taxpayers in the State of Illinois and not force such drastic measures as those of California. The state would be making the decision, allowing for a planning ahead. A tax revolt could conceivably get out of control which usually happens when we are pushed beyond the norm of what we feel we can afford.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Daniel M. Pierce (D-Highland Park), would provide tax rebates for all taxpayers with incomes of $30,000 a year or less in cases where real estate taxes exceed a certain percentage of a taxpayer's gross income.

"This is the only bill currently alive in this session that would provide property tax relief for both renters and homeowners and for taxpayers of all ages," Hynes said.

He also noted that the bill received 112 votes in the House–more than a three-fifths majority–which indicates that it has strong bi-partisan support. The bill now is pending in the Senate.

The tax rebate plan, which is backed by State Comptroller Michael Bakalis, would extend to all households and renters the "circuit breaker" type of tax relief now available only to senior citizens and disabled persons.

The rebates would be phased in over a four-year period, increasing each year. The maximum rebate would be 50 per cent of the amount by which a taxpayer's real estate tax bill exceeded 3.5 per cent of his income.

This would mean, for example, that a taxpayer with a gross income of $20,000 a year, whose real estate tax bill was $1,000 would be eligible for a $150 rebate after the plan was fully implemented.

Hynes also is chief sponsor of three bills which would provide additional property tax relief by increasing the tax exemptions available to homeowners. The Hynes bills have passed the Senate and are being considered by the House.

(This past Monday the above bill was passed in the Senate but needs an additional seven votes for passage in the House.)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ELROD QUESTIONS IMPORTANCE OF EVENTS

The action of the IVI interview committee recommending the endorsement of a candidate for the Office of Sheriff while denying me an equal opportunity to support my re-election makes such a recommendation pointless.

In the letter inviting me to appear before the interview committee on June 4, the IVI stated, "if this time is impossible for you, we will attempt to accommodate you."

As June 4 was high school graduation day for my daughter, I requested another date from the IVI. Despite the fact that I appeared during my two previous campaigns for Sheriff and my intention to appear again were well established, the IVI proceeded to interview the other candidate alone and to announce publicly its recommendation of the other candidate.

The IVI interview committee did a disservice to the other candidate, to its own followers, and to the public. A recommendation after hearing only one candidate's position violated the traditional IVI principles of democratic procedure and fairness and renders such an endorsement of a candidate for Sheriff of Cook County meaningless.

-s- Richard J. Elrod
Sheriff of Cook County

Your address could be difference between life and death

Your address might well be the difference between life and death to you or a member of your household.

The message the Village of Oak Lawn is trying to get across, is that house numbers should be conspicuously displayed so seconds are not lost when and if the Police or Fire Departments are responding to an emergency call to your home, especially if it is an ambulance call.

For example, the chances for a persons come back after breathing has stopped and artificial respiration is started would be as follows: within one minute 98 out of 100 would recover; 2 minutes 92 of 100; 3 minutes 72 of 100; 4 minutes 50 of 100; 5 minutes 25 of 100; and 6 minutes 11 of 100.

This chart therefore should make everyone realize how precious seconds can be when the Police or Fire Departments are looking for the address of a home or building in response to a call.

In connection with the above chances of a comeback, the American Red Cross stresses the fact that artificial respiration will have to be applied for three or four hours before signs of recovery are apparent in severe cases of electrical shock. In the case of drowning, signs of recovery should appear after approximately 25 minutes.

Because of the importance of the memo Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill expressed his thanks and appreciation to Fire Engineer Larry Peterson who suggested we bring to everyone's attention the matter of home address identifications since there are many homes in the Village with no addresses or with numbers that are hidden or so small that it is impossible to see at night.

The Chamber of Commerce, in soliciting their help, has suggested that perhaps addresses be a nimimum height of 3 inches and that thought be given to homeowners using illuminated numbers which are more legible in darkness.

Once more O'Neill would like to stress the importance of having an address in a conspicuous location by asking you to remember this cliche "Don't have a home without it". He asks further that readers of this item bring it to the attention of your friends and neighbors.

Village asks cooperation on truck ordinance

The Zoning Ordinance of the Village of Oak Lawn limits the number of size of trucks which may be parked on residential property. Only one truck, which does not exceed ¾ ton capacity, may be parked behind the building line. Further, the parking of trucks must not impinge upon the rights and privileges of the residential area.

Village Ordinances also prohibit the parking of commercial vehicles whose weight exceeds the 3,000 pound "Class A Plate" limitation on any street or alley in the village between the hours of 10 pm and 7 am.

The voluntary cooperation of all citizens is requested and appreciated.

Ozinga and Huskey asks Statewide day of prayer

The Illinois General Assembly has adopted a resolution calling on Governor Jim Thompson to proclaim August 15th as a statewide day of sacrifice, prayer and fasting.

This measure was sponsored by Republican State Rep. Herb Huskey and Senator Frank Ozinga.

"In the rush of our daily lives we tend to forget the gracious hand that has preserved us in peace, and made us the recipients of choicest blessings and prosperity," Huskey stated.

"The proposed day of prayer will enable every person, in their own respective ways and through their individual beliefs, to unite and thank God for his goodness, concern and love," he said.

According to Ozinga, the day of prayer will also be a "source of strength and guidance for future endeavors. There are people in the world today who are threatened with military aggression, famine, disease and other grave problems," Ozinga said.

"It is necessary that all religious persons try to stem the tide of evil, and use the power of prayer to help them face and resolve all obstacles that prevent every person from having a healthy, satisfying life," he stated.

A copy of the prayer day resolution has already been sent to Thompson.

Ends 50 year career with Chesterfield

One bright June morning in 1928, a young girl reported to the one-room office of Chesterfield Savings and Loan Association to start her first day on the job. An incredible 18,264 days later, that same girl-Mrs. Helene Kelley, now treasurer and vice president of Chesterfield Federal-is retiring after 50 years of service.

"Little did I dream that the job would turn into a 50-year career," said Mrs. Kelley. "Needless to say, I enjoyed my association with Chesterfield Federal," she added. "More important, I am very grateful to management for having me as part of the staff."

Mrs. Kelley, who was the first employee hired by Chesterfield Federal, started in the bookkeeping department, but in the early years she served as teller and worked in the insurance department too. She was promoted to assistant secretary in 1948 and to treasurer in 1961. Then, in addition to her other duties, she was promoted to vice president in 1973.

To honor Mrs. Kelley for her long and devoted years of service, a retirement party will be held June 30 at the Martinique Restaurant, said Chesterfield Federal's president, William A. DeHaan.

Helene Kelley

Mrs. Kelley and her husband, Francis, have been long-time residents of the Beverly area. But now that Mrs. Kelley is retiring, they will move to Edmond, Oklahoma, where they have bought a home. A Caribbean cruise and travel in Arizona are also in their plans.

Huskey receives special citation

State Representative Herb Huskey has received a special citation from the Committee on Courts and Justice for his support of legislation which would have given Illinois voters the opportunity to decide if judges should be selected on a merit basis.

"I am very honored to get this award," Huskey stated. "The citation was meant to be an acknowledgement of my concern about, and devotion to, good government and the quality of justice in our state.

"I will continue to work for merit selection of judges and other measures that will help this goal to be realized in Illinois."

The proposed constitutional amendment for merit selection (HJRCA-1) failed in the Illinois House on May 2nd by a 85 to 75 margin.

Young single parents meet

YOUNG SINGLE PARENTS is an organization for widowed, divorced or separated parents between 21 yrs and 42 yrs of age (Custody is not a factor of eligibility). It is an opportunity to get to know others with similar lifestyles and a chance to get to know themselves better. It is educational and social. Once a week there is a regular meeting, with a guest speaker or a group discussion and a brief business agenda. Usually the social portion of the evening goes beyond the set hours, and most of the members gather at the closest coffee house for more conversation.

Twice a month there are family activities, normally on Sunday. It can be a picnic, party, short trip to a point of interest, or any other way to share a day with children and adults.

On two evenings a month there are adult activities from simple house parties to road rallies to plane rides and crop duster nites. There are weekend campouts and joint social functions for all the chapters to get to know each other. Once a month there is a "wine & rap" for members to gather at a home to openly and honestly work out common problem situations over a glass of wine.

Membership is screened to guarantee only those who meet the qualifications can join. The closest chapter in this area meets every Thursday night at 8:30 pm at the Golden Age Restaurant in Oak Lawn. New members are always welcome and more information can be obtained by writing to Young Single Parents, c-o P.O. Box 4882, Evergreen Park, Il 60642

CHESTERFIELD FEDERAL offers two NEW SAVINGS PLANS

Chesterfield Federal is now offering two new savings certificates which will give you the opportunity to earn the highest interest rate in our history and provide additional flexibility for your long- and short-range savings plans.

8-year, 8% certificate

This new certificate is issued with a minimum of $5,000 and brings an all-time high 8.45% true annual yield through the daily compounding of interest. Except for the higher interest rate and the longer maturity, it is the same as all our other certificates.

26-week certificate

This certificate is a totally new financial instrument and differs in many respects from other certificates. It is issued with a minimum of $10,000 and has a maturity of exactly 26 weeks.

- The interest rate of this certificate will be the average weekly auction rate of 6-month Treasury bills, plus ¼% more. Since Treasury bills are issued weekly, the interest rate on these certificates will vary from week to week. But once an interest rate is established on the date of issue, it will not change for that particular certificate's entire 26-week term.
- A new rate, for new certificates to be issued that week, will be available at Chesterfield Federal each Thursday. For example: on Thursday, June 22, the average Treasury bill rate was 7.228%. Since we pay ¼% more than the Treasury bill rate, the effective interest rate for 26-week certificates issued that week was 7.478%. Daily compounding of interest will add approximately .11% to the above rate for the 26-week term.
- Earnings will be available on the first business day after the maturity date. If you so choose, you must actually withdraw the earned interest from the account, since interest checks will not be automatically available.
- This certificate will be automatically renewed at the rate then in effect, unless withdrawn within 7 calendar days of the maturity date.
- The actual weekly rate will be prominently displayed in all three of our offices. To find out the weekly rate, or for answers to any questions, please call the savings department of any Chesterfield Federal office.

Please note: Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty on early withdrawals from savings certificates.

Alice Ihrig puts Purr in PR

What do Children's Theater II and Putting Purr in PR have in common?

They are all mid-summer special classes at Moraine Valley Comm College. According to Alice Ihrig, MVCC director of civic and cultural programs, they provide an opportunity for the community to attend classes when the campus is less crowded, driving is easier and regular club and municipal functions are not as hectic.

The class is for 7-eleven year old children. The group will meet from 10 am-noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays for four weeks starting July 11. The fee is $20.

Putting Purr in PR is a "quickie" course in public skills, techniques and practical applications for developing publicity and promotional plans. The course is designed for those working with clubs, community organizations, small businesses and political groups. The class meets from 9-11:30 am for four Saturdays, June 24, July 8, 15 and 22. Fee is $20. All materials are furnished.

I LIKE OLD CHICAGO BECAUSE, FIRST OF ALL, IT'S THE ONLY INDOOR AMUSEMENT PARK ANYWHERE. I CAN HAVE A GOOD TIME THERE ANY DAY OF THE YEAR ... EVEN IF IT'S SNOWING! SECOND OF ALL, I CAN RIDE ALL THE RIDES AND SEE ALL THE ATTRACTIONS FOR JUST ONE LOW ADMISSION PRICE AND THAT INCLUDES THE FUN FACTORY, A NEAT-O PLACE WITH LOTS OF STUFF TO PLAY ON LIKE THE ROPE SWING THAT MAKES ME FEEL LIKE I'M SWINGING OVER A 'GATOR-INFESTED RIVER ONLY THERE'S NO GATORS ... BUT I CAN PRETEND. THIRD OF ALL, MOM AND DAD CAN BROWSE AROUND THE SPECIALTY SHOPS AT THE 1890'S SHOPPING TOWNE SO I DON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT THEM WHILE I'M ENJOYING MYSELF ON THE ROLLER COASTERS. FOURTH OF ALL, IT'S REAL EASY TO GET THERE. WE JUST TAKE I-55, BETTER KNOWN AS THE STEVENSON EXPRESSWAY, TO ROUTE 53 IN BOLINGBROOK. BUT THE PART I LIKE BEST IS I CAN SPEND THE WHOLE DAY THERE AND NOT GET BORED ... AND THAT'S NOT EASY FOR A KID THESE DAYS.
Old Chicago

The Hodges are actual Talman customers, and their story has been taken from a personal interview.

It started with savings.

For Harold and Maerose Hodges, thrift has been a way of life, a value that was passed on to them by their parents.

"When Harold and I were first married, we followed the examples of our parents and bought a home – our first and only – one of the best investments we ever made. And as soon as we could, we opened a savings account at Talman. As a result of our savings, we were able to pay off the loan on our home and send our daughter to college."

"But all the time we were really gearing ourselves to retirement. Maerose and I knew that my pension plan and social security would provide for the basics we would need, but we wanted to enjoy some 'extras,' too, in our leisure days. So we began a savings plan to pay for them."

"We're really grateful to the counselors in Talman's Savings Department who initially suggested certificates to us. They're a secure, high-yield investment for funds you won't need for a while. And the counselors at Talman showed us we could take the accumulated interest from our certificate accounts to bolster a small sum of money we'd acquired into an additional certificate."

What the Hodges learned from their parents about thrift they've passed on to their daughter and grandchildren.

"When we opened an account for our two-day-old grandson, we were delighted to find out that his account would earn interest from the first of that month – four days before he had been born."

We think that's great, too. While everybody may not earn interest before they're born, we'd like to think that everybody can enjoy as happy and secure a retirement as the Hodges. Whatever your goals may be, we at Talman will be happy to work with you to plan for a financially secure future.

If you'd like a secure, high-yield return on your money, Talman has six certificate accounts with interest starting at 6-1/2%, in addition to our 5-1/4% regular savings account. And thanks to our newest 8% and Money Market Certificate accounts, we've got a greater variety of savings plans than ever to fit your special needs.

Stop in at any of Talman's ten convenient locations. One of our savings counselors there will be happy to assist with your plans, so good things can happen to you, too.

Participants will have an opportunity to win fabulous prizes including new automobiles. Tickets are priced at $250 each. Further details concerning this tournament can be obtained by calling the Public Relations Department at 422-6200 ext 381.

Fred Dumke main speaker at Vacco fund raiser

At a recent fund-raising Cocktail Party at the Lexington House, numerous local, county and state-wide candidates came out to wish Mayor Anthony Vacco well on November 7th. Mayor Vacco is the Democratic candidate for the 8th Dist. State Senatorial race.

Also on hand that day, were hundreds of supporters and friends. Among the main speakers were Vacco's Campaign Chairman, former Oak Lawn Mayor, Fred M. Dumke; Sheriff Richard J. Elrod; County Clerk Stanley Kusper, and 8th Dist. State Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell.

Although campaign headquarters will not be opened until late this summer, anyone interested in becoming a volunteer is encouraged to contact Mayor Vacco as soon as possible.

Lamaze mothers to hold 'coffee'

On Thursday, July 13, there will be a coffee for women who have attended Lamaze classes this spring. It will be held at the Hickory Hills Presbyterian Church, 8426 W. 95th St., starting at 1 p.m. Adjustments that have to be made after childbirth, and how to cope with a fussy baby will be discussed. Lamaze Mothers coffees are sponsored by the Southwest Lamaze Parents Organization. For further information, call Martha Bigley.

The O'Malley clan is gathering at Holiday Inn

A nucleus committee of twelve people bearing the O'Malley name, or sharing the O'Malley ancestry, met June 8 to discuss the possibilities of an informal, organizational-instructional gathering of O'Malleys in the greater Chicagoland area.

Investigating "roots" is a popular pasttime these days. Alice M. O'Malley is a fine resource person in the area. She has O'Malley history and lore at her fingertips and will address the interested O'Malleys who want to hear about their heritage. If you are eager to share the pride of the O'Malley clanship, come to the informal gathering of the Clan in the greater Chicagoland area on July 13, 1978 at 8 pm in the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn at 4140 West 95th Street, Oak Lawn. Bring your spouse, your offspring, your kin and your friends of O'Malley heritage.

The O'Malley Clan is one of the few Irish families to unite and elect a chieftain. Professor C. Conor O'Malley, M.D. of Galway U, Ireland is their international guardian chieftain. Clan units from all over the world meet and send their respective chieftains to an annual meeting in County Mayo each year.

It is possible that from the gathering on July 13 a Claim unit could be formed for the greater Chicagoland area and then send their own chieftain to Mayo next year for the festivities.

There are informational, organizational, social possibilities in this July 13 gathering that challenge the wildest imagination.

Come out because you are bursting with O'Malley pride!

Come out to promote mutual interests!

Come out to hear Alice O'Malley tell you things you always wanted to know about the Clan! Hear about Grace O'Malley, powerful queen of the O'Malleys.

Patrick O'Malley, manager of Holiday Inn, is arranging a room. No admission fee. A cash bar will be available for refreshments.

"Terra Marique Potens" (Powerful on land and sea) is the O'Malley family motto. In this beautiful city by the lake, surprise yourselves and see how powerful you really are on land and inland sea.

For further information contact Ellen Devitt, 474-0701 (business telephone number) or Alice D. Stanton, 238-8945.

Looney Tuners back in fall

The Looney Tuners Variety Band from St Bede closes its season for the summer. Come September the band is ready to entertain you once again.

The band is a non-profit organization. They have entertained for ten years for such groups as: VFW's, ladies clubs and Lions Club, Seratoma. The group consists of 18 women that sing and play a variety of music.

Organizations interested in future entertainment or information please call Ginny Schultz at 767-7234.

Would You Believe...

The face is sometimes called the mug because of the 18th century practice of carving grotesque human faces on the outside of drinking mugs.

Park Lawn holds installation dinner

It was at the Park Lawn installation of officers dinner recently that these newly elected directors accepted the charges of their office.

Seeming to enjoy the new challenge are (l to r) Mr. Dan Maty, Chicago, Mrs. Lawrence Kettelson, Treasurer, Oak Lawn. Community Representatives are Mr. Art Hornburg, State Rep. Mr. Harry "Bus" Yourell, and Mr. Fred L. Dumke, Vice-President, Hancock Engineering Company.

Seniors plan luncheon

It's time to join in the fun and sign up for Worth Township Senior Citizen's annual fall luncheon.

This year their party will be held at the Sabre Room, 9000 W. 95th St., Hickory Hills, on Wednesday, Sept. 20. They are offering a prime rib luncheon, with all the trimmings, and a floor show, lasting one and one-half hours.

In order that all senior citizen clubs in Worth Township may participate in this event, the first tickets will be sold on Friday, Aug. 4 at their regular monthly meeting. Tickets will be available at this time also on an individual basis for persons who do not belong to a club.

Blocks of 50 tickets or less may be purchased by each club at the first selling. The cost is $5 per ticket, and as usual, each ticket will be subsidized for $3 by the Worth Township Senior Citizen Organization.

This luncheon is given for the benefit of senior citizens who reside in Worth Township. It will, therefore, be the responsibility of each club delegate to vouch for and provide the names and addresses of each senior citizen who will purchase these tickets.

Claudette Coldert returns to Drury Lane

Claudette Colbert, who starred in an 8 week sellout production of "The Marriage-Go-Round" two years ago at Drury Lane East Theatre, will recreate her Broadway role when she opens Thursday, July 13 thru July 30 in the Leslie Stevens play at Drury Lane South Theatre, Evergreen Park.

The production will then move to Drury Lane Water Tower from August 1 thru 13 and finally return to Drury Lane South Theatre from August 15 thru 27.

Into their happy home, a voluptuous Swedish girl is dropped who immediately suggests to Paul a mating of his intelligent genes and her physical attributes would produce the perfect off-spring all in the interest of science.

Phone reservations may be made by calling 422-8000.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT

"How come you look so worried?"

"I'm trying to make up my mind about going to a wedding tomorrow."

"Who's getting married?"

"I am."

ELROD PRESENTED MAYOR DALEY AWARD

Chicago Police Supt James E. O'Grady (r) presents the Mayor Richard J. Daley Police Medal, the highest civilian award of the Chicago Police Department, to Cook County Sheriff Richard J. Elrod for his outstanding achievements to law enforcement. The award was presented at the 17th Annual Chicago Police Recognition Ceremony in Arie Crown Theatre, when Chicago police officers were also honored for their outstanding acts of heroism or contributions to their department and the citizens of Chicago.

Two women named for Richard's Herald top spots

Two young women have been named to the top editorial positions on the Harold L. Richards High School student newspaper, "Richards' Herald."

According to an announcement from newspaper advisor Robert Jason, Mary Rose Minyo of Chicago will serve as executive editor for 1978-79 and Marybeth Matthews of Oak Lawn will hold the position of managing editor. This will be the second consecutive year Ms. Matthews will hold the position of managing editor. Ms. Minyo last year served as a news editor.

The award-winning HLR student publication claimed top honors in press competitions sponsored by the Northern Illinois Student Press Assn. and the Eastern Illinois High School Press Assn. during 1977-78.

Presents paper on research project

The results of research projects in chemistry and psychology were presented at professional meetings by three Ripon college students including JONATHAN K. MURASKAS, son of Mr. & Mrs Edward Muraskas, Oak Lawn, a senior.

Swim openings at OLCHS

There are still openings available in the second session of Oak Lawn Comm High School's summer swim program. The session begins July 12 and runs thru August 2. Water adjustment and all levels of instruction will be offered. Classes are at 9, 10, and 11 am. The cost for the swim program is $20 for 15 lessons. Each participant will receive Red Cross Certification upon completion of the course. Classes are available for children of all ages.

Registration will be taken Monday thru Friday from 8 - 12 noon at the Spartan Pool as long as there are openings. Registrations will also be accepted the first day of classes on July 12.

Elect president of Evergreen Park LWV

At a board meeting held June 13 Ms Charmaine Urbon was elected president of the League of Women Voters of Evergreen Park. Ms Urbon, a member of long-standing and past holder of other offices within the league, accepted the presidency after the resignation of Ms Judy Grant. Ms Grant, with board nomination and approval, agreed to remain active as a director of the league chapter.

BABY SITTING COURSE PROVES HUGE SUCCESS

This spring, 68 students completed the six session Baby Sitting Safety Course offered by the Oak Lawn Fire Department with Cathy Ostapina and Caryn Myer attaining a perfect score on the written test. The purpose of this course is to instruct those interested in "baby sitting" to be well trained to handle any emergencies that may arise and Oak Lawn parents to know that during their absence they can be assured that their children are being taken care of by a qualified and competent individual.

A special thank you is hereby given to the First National Bank of Oak Lawn and the Fire Department Womens Auxiliary for their financial assistance and to all the instructors who gave so freely of their time and talent.

VFW Junior girls installed

Lorraine Krzos was the installing officer with Frances Sullivan, a past auxillary president, serving as mistress of ceremonies. Members of the McDonald-Linn junior girls unit of Burbank served as the installing color team.

PICNIC KITS AVAILABLE IN OAK LAWN

The Oak Lawn Park District now has picnic kits available for use by families for weekend picnics. The kits include volleyball, badminton and softball equipment along with extras such as frisbees and rubber horseshoes.

The picnic kits are available at the Oak Lawn Park District for loan to Oak Lawn residents free of charge. A $10 deposit and positive proof of identification are required. The Park District office, 9400 Kenton, is open 8:30 am to 9 pm Monday thru Friday and 8:30 to 5 pm Saturday.

LEGAL NOTICE

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

Notice is hereby given to the electorate, residents of the Town of Worth, County of Cook, State of Illinois, that the Clerk of the Town has been petitioned by the Board of Trustees to call a Special Town Meeting of said Town to take place on Monday, July 24, 1978, being the 4th Monday of the month, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. at 11601 South Pulaski, Alsip.

The purpose of the Special Town Meeting is to inspect the Atwood Heights School Building and to review the construction bills for the Atwood Heights School (Township Annex) and the effect those bills will have on Revenue Sharing and the Town Budget. Park Events

The Oak Lawn Park District is sponsoring three more group trips to exciting White Sox baseball games this summer. The games are Sunday July 9th - Sox vs Toronto, July 23 - Sox vs New York and Sunday August 13 - Sox vs Detroit.

The trips are open to Oak Lawn residents on a first come basis. Youths under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Each trip is limited to 40 people.

The fee for the trip is $6 per person which includes a reserved seat ticket and bus transportation. The bus will leave Central Park at 11 am and return after the game.

SEWING INSTRUCTIONS

A summer session of sewing instruction is being offered by the Oak Lawn Park District. Classes are offered for youths from 10 to 15 years of age and adults.

The sewing classes are held at the White Building, 9514 54th Ave. The youth class will be on Tuesdays from 12:30 to 2:30 pm and the adults will meet from 2:45 to 4:45 pm and 7 to 9 pm on Tuesdays. Each class session consists of eight weeks of lessons.

The registration fee is $12 for Oak Lawn residents.

SOCCER COMING TO OAK LAWN

What is the fastest growing amateur sport in the U.S.? Many people would agree that it is soccer, the king of sports in most parts of the world. Recreational soccer will make its debut in Oak Lawn through a youth soccer program to be offered this fall by the Oak Lawn Park District.

A pre-registration is currently being conducted for youths 8 through 13 years of age. The forms are available at the Park District office, 9400 S. Kenton.

Adult volunteers are also needed. Anyone interested in coaching soccer or organizing the league should call 424-7300.

Auto dealer announces new idea for aid to exceptional children

Ed Frank, president of Quality Chevrolet, in Oak Lawn, has announced an idea to aid two of the schools in Oak Lawn that serve exceptional children.

The official 1978 pace car of the Indy 500 was a special edition Corvette. These cars have been selling at a cost as high as $30,000 in the Chicagoland area. Here is what Mr Frank has proposed:

The suggested list price of his Indy car is $14,500. He will sell the car at this price to the person who offers the highest cash contribution for the Garden School for the Handicapped and the Park Lawn Association for the Mentally Retarded by July 31, 1978. If you are interested in a 1978 Indy Pace Car Corvette, buy it for the best price in town, and give the difference as a tax deductible cash contribution to these worthy schools.

Sanitation program earns national recognition

Lewis L. Hall, R.S.

Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill and E. Karl Faitz, Director of the Building and Zoning Dept jointly praised our Health and Sanitation Officer Lewis L. Hall, R.S. for the complimentary acknowledgement he received as a result of his entry in the 1978 Samuel J. Crumbine Consumer Protection Award Competition. The award honors Dr. Samuel J. Crumbine (1863-1954), Public Health Pioneer who first banned drinking cups from public facilities. He was a long-time Kansas State Health Officer, Former General Executive of the American Child Health Assn and consultant to the Single Service Institute.

This annual award is for outstanding achievement in the development of a program of food and beverage sanitation, and, is sponsored by the Environmental Health Committee of the Single Service Institute in Washington, D.C. Their purpose is to encourage improvement and stimulate public interest in food service sanitation. What makes recognition from this institute so significant, is that, it is the National Trade Assn of Manufacturers of single-use products for food service packaging.

Charles W. Felix, Director of the Crumbine Award jury wrote: "Although the Village of Oak Lawn program was not the 1978 award winner, the Crumbine jury found the program to be one of exceptional merit, well deserving to be considered for national recognition via the Crumbine Award."

E. Karl Faitz emphasized that eligibility for this award is limited to those local units of government (County, District, City, Village, Town, Township, etc.) which are legally and directly responsible for protecting the health of the [illegible] by assuring that public eating and drinking establishments meet required sanitation standards and observe proper sanitation procedures.

Faitz went on to say, "We're very proud that our program has received special recognition, particularly because it has only been since May 16, 1974 that Oak Lawn has developed a full-time Food Sanitation Program," adding, "much has been accomplished in the past four years by Hall, his one Sanitation Trainee and Clerk-Typist."

Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill expressed his highest compliments to Lew and his limited staff for the tremendous strides made in the past few years not only because there has been strict enforcement of food service rules and regulations, but his development of a public education program on food and beverage sanitation that has kept formal complaints to a minimum.

He also wished to go on record in giving due credit to the team approach of consumer participation, plus the business and industry cooperation of immediately directing any inquiries, questions or problems related to health and sanitation issues directly to Hall's office at 9630 Southwest Hwy Building, telephone 636-4400, ext 304.

Yourell Golf Outing, July 19th

Harry "Bus" Yourell

Wednesday, July 19, Glen Eagles Country Club in Lemont, is the date and place of the Golf Day in honor of Harry "Bus" Yourell. The outing is held each year by [illegible] Harry "Bus" Yourell in recognition of his many years of public service not only as a municipal elected official, but also as a member of the General Assembly from the 8th District.

Tee-off time at Glen Eagles will be 6 am to 2 pm. A change this year – dinner will be at the Martinique Restaurant in Evergreen Park, cocktails at 7 pm, dinner at 8 pm. The cost of a ticket for golf and dinner is $25, golf only $10, dinner only $15.

Reservations for golf and dinner can be made by calling State Rep Yourell's Oak Lawn Office, 422-9300. There is a 24 hour answering service, so call at any time.

The committee promises a beautiful sun shining day and asks that you come out and join the fun. Everyone is welcome.

Monticello celebrates 15 years

Mayor Ernie Kolb read an official proclamation prepared by the Village of Oak Lawn at a special celebration held recently at Monticello Convalescent Center, 6300 W 95th Street. The proclamation was made in recognition of Monticello's 15 years of service to the community. The document recapped the highlights of Monticello's growth and reputation for excellence.

In 1963, Monticello opened with a 100 bed capacity. In 1968, there was a 70% expansion, increasing the facility to 170 beds. In 1971 yet another 5% expansion was completed, bringing the current bed total to 175.

The Illinois Dept of Public Health has awarded Monticello the title of Skilled Nursing Facility, the highest standard in excellence ever bestowed. Monticello was the first in the country to be approved for the Medicare Program and first in the country for Accreditation of Nursing Homes. Through this, Monticello became the [illegible] in the country to receive approval as a nursing home from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

Mayor Kolb read the proclamation as it stated Monticello's service programs, which include convalescent, quality care; comprehensive, medical – surgical care; and of all admissions to the center, 50% are rehabilitated and return to an active life in the community.

Working closely with the educators in the area, Monticello Convalescent Center maintains a total role on the Moraine Valley Community College Advisory Council and is associated with their Associate Degree Registered Nursing Program; Recreational Therapy Program; Pharmacology; Medical Terminology; and Nurse's Aides Courses. In addition, Monticello cooperates with St Xavier's, Little Company of Mary Hospital's and Christ Hospital's Schools of Nursing.

At a regular meeting of the President and Board of Trustees on April 18, 1978 an ordinance re-establishing working committees was adopted. The various committees were to be made up of three trustees each with the exception of the Finance Committee. In this instance Mayor Ernie Kolb requested that all six trustees serve and this suggestion was approved.

At that time, Trustee Joe Vogrich, Chairman of the committee that proposed the ordinance, said that the purpose was to better inform the trustees with the inner workings of the departments, how they operate, and have a greater knowledge of their needs at budget time. The committees are to have no authority but are for recommendation purposes only.

On Sunday, July 2, at 6 pm the first meeting was called for both the Public Safety - Legal Committee, whose members consist of Jay Bergamini, Ron Stancik and Joe Vogrich. The purpose was to name a Chairman for the committee but due to the absence of Bergamini this action was postponed.

Trustee Bergamini explained at a later date that the first meeting was called on the 4th of July weekend and due to family plans that were made earlier he was unable to attend.

There was a general discussion and the committee determined that they wanted the Village Manager, Dick O'Neill to supply copies of the resumes for Police Chief applicants for their perusal.

Meeting on the same day was the Public Works Committee that will be served by Trustees Jay Bergamini, John Cleveland and Joe Vogrich. The Chairman was not named due to the same reason as mentioned above.

On Monday, July 10, Trustees Bergamini, Cleveland and Vogrich, members of the Safety & Public Works Committee met and named John Cleveland as Chairman, because of his knowledge and interest in this phase of Oak Lawn government.

Cleveland opened the discussion with what he believed were top priorities. He said he would like to discuss equipment and personnel with Don Canning, Director of Public Works. Cleveland said he would like to know if the department had enough of both to do the necessary street repairs if the village went ahead with the newly proposed bond issue. He said they may find it more feasible to hire outside contractors to do the work.

It was determined that Cleveland should follow the suggested procedure.

There was a good deal of discussion as to how far the committees could extend themselves without interfering with the Village Manager.

Trustee Bergamini said that he was concerned with the Water Department and how, and why, the village may be losing money in this operation. He said that Vogrich had brought it up at one time and the subject had been dropped.

Vogrich said that this was a perfect example of what they had been discussing in relation to the manager. Everybody agreed there is a problem and that we are losing money on the sale of water to other villages. He said he believed that part of the problem was that the villages being sold the water did not have a Village Manager government and therefore the manager could not negotiate as effectively as elected officials.

It was agreed that the committee as a whole would ask for a complete report on the water status, then go as a committee, along with the staff if necessary, and meet with the officials of the towns that purchase Oak Lawn water. They could then sit and discuss with them that Oak Lawn could no longer subsidize their water needs and how they intended to pay their bills.

Bergamini said that it would also be necessary to discuss with the village attorney what penalties would be proposed as an alternative if the villages still refused to accept a raise in rates.

A date was set as to when all of the facts should be compiled and Vogrich believed it too late.

"We should meet with them in the summer when they still need water," Vogrich said. "Who can expect to keep buying something at a loss to the seller."

The date was then set for the committee to meet again on July 31, and have all the necessary data at that time.

Sertoma thanks fund raisers and volunteers for Tag Day, Aug 19

Linda R. Gray, Chairman of Oak Lawn's Fund Raising Committee, on behalf of the Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders, announced that the first organization to respond with volunteers for the Sertoma Tag Day on August 19, was the CB Club known as the "Crunch Bunch".

Harold Miller, President of the Club and Bob Angone, Vice President, jointly parrot Linda's comment of "active members" by stating, "not only are we a fun group but the whole organization is dedicated to following up on requests for their help, this extends not only to 24 hour CB operations but to assisting for example, in this years Sertoma's Tag Day for the benefit of the Speech & Hearing Clinic". President Miller added "We expect at least 25 of our members to be on the corners helping to raise those needed funds."

Linda who is also a CB'er thanked Harold and Bob and hoped other Oak Lawn Club and Organization Presidents would call on their members to please volunteer a couple of hours, Saturday, August 19 so funds can be raised to help sustain the Speech & Hearing Clinic.

"There is a big need for funds. That need touches lots of children and adults with speech, hearing and language disorders." Linda went on to say "All persons with communicative disorders will be serviced regardless of their ability to pay, be it full fees, what they can afford or no fee at all."

Raymond J. Sullivan, President of the Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders thanked Linda and her committee for their efforts in Sertoma's behalf. He added "The center which is located at 11220 Harlem Avenue, Worth, is open from 9 am to 5 pm Monday thru Friday. Appointments can be made by calling Mrs Dana M. Phillips, Executive Director at 361-2121.

Mayor of Oak Lawn, Ernest F. Kolb, who is serving as General Chairman of the South and Southwest Suburban Area Fund Raising Campaign said "I call on the citizens, clubs, fraternal and civic organizations or businesses to please contact Linda at 425-5489 and make plans to get into the act by giving of time or money in support of the clinic". He added "One important part of the Sertoma Center is to assist local industry and businesses to establish hearing conservation programs for their employees. He went on to state mail contributions are most welcome. Checks should be made payable to Sertoma Foundation and are to be mailed to 11220 S Harlem Avenue, Worth, 60482. All contributions are tax deductible and will be respectfully acknowledged.

On the extreme left, Director Barney Goldberg and Director Edwin F. Kasper, Village Liaison Officer on the right express their thanks to the CB Club and plead for other local club, trade and civic organizations to please contact Linda at 425-5489 and volunteer to help.

Area schools to receive additional state aid

Schools in the 8th Legislative District are slated to receive additional state aid for the 1978-79 school year, according to Rep Herb Huskey.

This increase, Huskey says, resulted from a change in the state's school aid formula (H.B. 2891) which was adopted by the General Assembly recently. It:

*Raises the guaranteed amount per pupil (a combination of local and state revenue) from $1260 to $1293 by increasing the assessed valuation per pupil, and by decreasing the operating tax rates for elementary school districts by four cents and unit districts by seven cents.

*Permits Strayer-Haig districts to add on 50% to their base claims.

*Changes Title 1 weighting from .375 to .45 with a limit of .675 instead of .75.

*Guarantees that a school district's 1978-79 claim cannot be reduced by more than 10% of last year's claim.

"This formula change represents a $69.7 million general state aid increase over the fiscal year 1978 appropriation," Huskey stated, "and these figures do not include funds for special education or other categorical grants.

"If the categorical grant funding comes in at the governor's recommended level, full funding of the revised formula and grant would require $140 million in new dollars," he explained. "This is $30 million above the governor's $110 million request, and means that school districts in this area will be getting significantly more money now than they would have under the old formula."

Local school districts and their projected increases are: Ridgeland District 122, $140,906.50 (8.81%); Oak Lawn-Hometown District 123, $428,024.90 (34.20%); and Atwood Heights District 125, $71,446.26 (11.41%).

Others are Alsip-Hazelgreen-Oak Lawn District 126, $69,642.03 (41.55%) and Oak Lawn Community High School District 229, $415,893.41 (19.86%).

Yourell honored by Illinois Library Assn

State Rep Harry "Bus" Youreli was recentiy honored by the Illinois Library Assn during their annual Legislative Day held in Springfieid. Every year the ILA conducts a day-iong legislative program in Springfieid for its 4,000 members to discuss and review pending iibrary legislation. Some 300 members of the association attended this year's program at the Lincoln Library which was highiighted by an address from the Hon Alan J. Dixon, Illinois Secretary of State and the State Librarian.

Rep Yourell, chairman of the Important House County and Township Comm. was presented with the ILA award and poster by President Frank Dempsey for his key sponsorship of vital library legislation during the 78th; 79th; and 80th sessions of the Illinois General Assembly. In praising Rep Youreii for his sponsorship of key legislation impacting Illinois' 573 public libraries, President Dempsey commented, "Rep Yourell's efforts are greatly appreciated by the state's library community at a time when state monies for library programs have been dramatically reduced. All residents of Illinois are indebted to Rep Yourell's major legislative efforts and his cooperation as chairman of the House County and Township Committee," concluded President Dempsey.

Boblak to speak at "Coffee Time Meeting"

On Monday, July 17, a "Coffee Time Meeting" will be held at the Oak Lawn Senior Center from 10 am to 12:15 pm. Guest speaker will be Frank J. Boblak. Boblak is owner of Frank J. Boblak & Associates, Realtors of Oak Lawn and Burbank. Frank has more than 25 years selling experience, 16 of these years being in real estate.

Currently Boblak is serving as Director of the Illinois Assn of Realtors. He is chairman of its Speakers Bureau which developed and produced the book entitled "Speakers Bureau on Real Estate Subjects." He has also been instrumental in starting the "Realtor Wheels for Health" program which provides transportation for seniors to their local doctor.

Boblak has served his community and senior citizens generously, and on his visit to the Center he will discuss "Hobbies and Leisure Time."

All Oak Lawn seniors are invited to "Coffee Time"; be sure to bring a sandwich as coffee and tea will be served after the program.

The Center is located at 5330 W 95th Street.

Elrod re-elected for national office

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod was re-elected vice president of the National Sheriffs' Assn during the 38th Annual Training Conference last week in Cincinnati, Ohio.

During the same week, Sheriff Elrod's administrative aide, Betsy Barstead, was re-elected regional vice president of the Information Officers Unit of the International Assn of Chiefs of Police, formerly the National Assn of Public Safety Information Officers.

Sheriff Elrod is also serving as the president of the Illinois Sheriffs' Assn, elected to that position in January 1978. He is a member of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, the Chicago - Cook County Criminal Justice, and numerous other law enforcement associations.

In May, Sheriff Elrod was honored with the highest civilian award presented by the Chicago Police Dept, the Richard J. Daley Award for excellence in law enforcement.

Retirement—or rather a new career direction

The thought of retirement looms heavily in everyone's mind. It usually is accompanied by anxiety and not by happy anticipation.

To believe that retirement affects only mature people is a misconception. A gymnast like Olga Korbut, the Olympic gold-medal winner of 1972, who became the darling of the world at 17 has to retire now at the ripe age of 22.

Heroes in all branches of sports (baseball, basketball, tennis, swimming and many others) know that their careers become shaky after they reach 30.

Dancers are at their peak of performance from 25 to 40. After that they feel the push of "the new crop" to get the "old ones" off the stage.

There is at present one exception: Dame Margot Fonteyn. She is now a big hit in Las Vegas. Her program is called "Fonteyn Forever" because she is over 55. Her present fees are greater than anything she ever received as a young prima ballerina of the Royal Ballet in London.

Her success proves that if we do what we do with our soul — not just with our bodies — we break through preconceived limitations and the age barrier. There is no age barrier for soul.

Such is the philosophy of Elizabeth Polk, a noted dance therapist and assistant professor at Adelphi University, who is also the author of dance records for special children and popular lecturer at senior citizen centers.

Ms. Polk retired from being a performing dancer many years ago. Asked how she felt about it then, the vivacious Ms. Polk, who literally radiates an enthusiasm for living, responded, "I never retired. My career just unfolded into new and interesting fields. After having been a member of a dance company for a number of years, I married and devoted my time to motherhood and domesticity. But dancers are a special species. They have dance in their blood. It flows through the heartbeat.

"As soon as my child was old enough to be taught, I formed my first dance class and became a dance teacher. I carried my conviction that dance develops harmony of body and mind with me.

"This brought joy into daily life at the places where I taught, places that never had dance before. I went to housing projects, started cultural school programs and opened PTA Organizations. I felt like a modern-day missionary. I succeeded.

"As the years passed, a 'new crop' of dance teachers started their push. With that, another phase of my career unfolded. I thought of the physically and mentally handicapped and that they needed what dance had to give.

"I found it rewarding to work with the handicapped. I explored this new field of dance used therapeutically and became a pioneer in dance therapy.

"In the Kennedy Era, the U.S. was awakened to the need of improved physical fitness. This program reached the American youth in the schools and the 'exceptional' population, heretofore hidden in institutions and homes.

"Many more specialized physical education teachers were needed. My career up to this point had prepared me to meet this need and I now felt ready to teach teachers.

"I began teaching in-service courses for elementary teachers, and graduate courses for movement specialists . . . teachers in physical education departments.

"Movement specialists have to help their pupils become fit and active, mentally and physically. To do this, learning must be a joyful experience.

"When 'Perceptual Motor Training' is the subject of my class, the students might learn to aim and throw a circular object, such as a hoop, over a vertical body. If this body happens to be the body of the teacher, Perceptual Motor Training becomes fun!

"I never retired," she concluded. "I only adjusted my career to meet needs as I saw them. I believe this is the answer to the problem of retirement. We have to feel needed and to this end we have to meet the needs of others."

Yourell demands government accountability

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell said he is "demanding accountability from government" thru his support of a key part of the legislative package of Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis. Youreli said he is backing House Bill 3192, part of the Bakalis package, which would order all departments in the executive branch of state government to develop productivity measurement standards.

The bill, which has passed the House and been sent to the Senate for consideration, would require the state agencies to use these yardsticks to prepare annual programs calling for at least a 3% increase in productivity.

"The bill would require state government to apply the modern-management techniques of private industry to its operations," Rep Yourell said. Establishing basic work objectives is a good start toward bringing into government some of the procedures developed and used successfully in private industry."

Bakalis proposed his package of bills in cooperation with the House and Senate leadership. House Bill 3192 passed the House with 89 votes, the bare minimum, prompting Rep Yourell to comment:

"Governor Thompson doesn't want this bill. For some reason, he has ordered Republicans not to support this legislation. Only heavy support from Democrats in the House enabled this bill to be narrowly approved."

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

RUSSO CO SPONSORS BILL FOR "HOME HEALTH CARE"

Marty Russo (Third District) is co-sponsoring legislation designed to provide home health care to older persons as an alternative to institutional care.

Russo says the legislation is based on the recommendations of a General Accounting Office (GAO) report, "Home Health – The Need for a National Policy to Better Provide for the Elderly", which concluded that, "Until older people become greatly or extremely impaired, the cost of nursing home care exceeds the cost of home care."

The legislation would make home care services more available under Medicare by removing the visit limit, prior hospitalization and homebound requirements, and adding homemaker-chore services. GAO has recommended such changes as providing "significant disincentives to institutionalization."

"I think we are biased against the elderly in terms of health care," Russo commented, "because we think largely in terms of institutionalization. This is a costly attitude, for all concerned.

"As many as 25% of the one million institutionalized elderly are unnecessarily maintained in nursing homes which are excessive for their needs. In 1977, only four-tenths of one percent of the over $5 billion Medicaid spent for persons over 65 was for home health care contrasted to 78 percent for care in nursing homes.

"It is also a callous answer to health needs for the elderly. Most do not want to leave their own homes to go into an impersonal regimented nursing home."

The Chairman of the Select Committee on Aging Congressman Claude Pepper (D-Fla) says there may well be a cost savings with the bill because of the cheaper part-time care provided in the person's own home in contrast to the full-time care of a nursing home or hospital. The Committee, which Russo serves on, has adopted a resolution reiterating its support for the expansion of home health benefits under Medicare.

Medicare Can Cover Home Health Care

Home health care is a valuable part of the protection under Medicare, a social security spokesperson said today.

Sometimes people do not need full-time skilled care they receive in a hospital or other health facility, but still have an illness or injury that prevents them from leaving home to receive the health services they need.

This is when home health care under Medicare can play an important role. People who need part-time skilled health services can receive home health care in their homes from a home health agency. Both Medicare hospital insurance and medical insurance can help pay for covered home health services.

Medicare can pay for these home health services: Part-time skilled nursing services, physical therapy, or speech therapy.

If a person needs one or more of these services, then Medicare can also pay for the following services if necessary: Part-time services of an occupational therapist, home health aide, or medical social worker, and medical supplies and the use of medical appliances furnished by the home health agency.

Medicare hospital insurance can pay for home health care if all of the following six conditions are met:

1. There is a qualifying hospital stay of at least 3 days;
2. The home health care is for further treatment of a medical condition which was treated in the hospital or covered skilled nursing facility stay;
3. Part-time skilled nursing care or physical therapy or speech therapy is needed;
4. The person is confined to his or her home;
5. A doctor prescribes home health care and sets up a home health care plan within 14 days of the most recent discharge from a hospital or participating skilled nursing facility; and
6. The home health agency takes part in Medicare.

Medicare medical insurance can cover home health care if conditions 3, 4, 5, and 6 are met. There is no need for a hospital stay under medical insurance.

Hospital insurance can pay the full cost of up to 100 home health visits in a benefit period. The visits can be used for up to 12 months after discharge from a hospital or skilled nursing facility.

Medical insurance can also pay the full cost of up to 100 home health visits in each calendar year, after the $60 annual deductible is met.

A free leaflet, Home health care under Medicare is available at any social security office. It gives more details about home health care under Medicare. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

$10,000 DONATION TO LCM

The Heritage/Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, has generously donated $10,000 to Project '78, the Remaking of Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Sister M. Terrence Landini, President of the Board of Directors of LCM, is pictured above receiving the check from Alfred J. O'Malley, Chairman of the Board of the Heritage/Standard Bank, as Robert Kennedy, President of the bank, looks on.

Project '78 is a fifteen million dollar development program that will enable Little Company of Mary Hospital to undergo a major renovation of existing facilities. The hospital will be rewired, replastered, and repainted, the plumbing fixtures modernized and the entire complex air conditioned.

Another important part of the renovation program will be the modernization of all nursing stations and the refurbishing of patient rooms. This will include individual modules being placed in every room for the constant monitoring of patients and television sets in color mounted on the walls.

In addition, there will be a new call system connecting patients with nursing stations. Floors 2-North and 3-North have been completely renovated. Work has now begun on the nine-story structure facing 95th Street.

To date, generous benefactors have contributed over $1,500,000.00 towards Project '78.

Thompson veto expected on circuit breaker reformed tax bill

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell voted in the majority to send to the Governor's desk major property tax relief for overburdened homeowners and renters thruout the state.

HB 3279, Public Action's Circuit Breaker Bill, will make property tax rebates available to 60% of the households in the state.

"Property tax reform is a major priority of the citizens of Illinois," said Rep Yourell. "Circuit breaker is an important first step to overall property tax reform. First, we must help those who are being most hurt by skyrocketing property taxes. Circuit breaker will bring rebates to all homeowners and renters who are paying more than 3.5% of their income in property taxes."

The measure was brought to the legislature by the Illinois Public Action Council - the statewide coalition of senior citizen organizations, taxpayer associations, and homeowner groups. The chief sponsor of the measure was Rep Daniel M. Pierce (Highland Park). Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael Bakalis and the Democratic leadership of both the House and Senate have endorsed HB 3279 and have made property tax reform and issue.

"I would urge all the voters in this district to do everything they can to demand that Governor Thompson sign the measure into law so that property tax relief can become law in Illinois this year," concluded Rep Yourell.

Oak Hockey League disolved

On May 31, 1978 the governors of Oak Hockey League met and had their final meeting. At this time the disolution of the OHL was approved. This ended an era in hockey which began in the early 60's. The OHL permanently brought organized hockey to the southwest area and was instrumental in convincing the Oak Lawn Park District Board to allow the "league" to repair the artificial refrigeration ice equipment in 1971. It was further able to convince the park board to enclose the repaired ice rink at 94th and Knox Avenue in Oak Lawn.

Hundreds of individuals were instrumental over the years, in providing a winter recreational outlet for the young boys of the southwest area. "Mike Rzechula, league founder, can now look back and say that it was a job well done by concerned individuals interested in the young people."

The OHL scrapbook and records have been donated to Oak Lawn Historical Society and will be available for public viewing upon request.

Huskey names GOP committeewoman

Lola Tieberg has been named the new Committeewoman of the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization by Committeeman Herb Huskey. The announcement was made at the organization's monthly meeting held June 22.

Lola, who resides at 9720 S 51st, Oak Lawn, with her husband Gordon, has been a life-long resident of Worth Township. She has been an active member of the Worth Township GOP for over 20 years, and has been precinct captain of her home precinct (46) for the past 6 years.

Mrs Tieberg stated, "I hope to continue in the fine tradition of the Committeewomen that we have had in our organization. As Committeewoman, I will strive to pull together the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization and continue in our efforts to make it an organization in which we can be proud."

Committeeman Huskey was pleased with the response of the membership on Tieberg's appointment. "Lola is a well respected member of this fine organization. She has the ability to work well with all members. This is another move to help bring forth unity in the Republican Party."

Mrs Tieberg will assume the duties involved immediately. These duties will be numerous, the most demanding being the coordination of election judges for the November 7th election.

Involvement important to Christ deb

Ellen is involved in the Future Nurses Club, GALS Club, math club, science club, and has been a yearbook salesperson at Bogan High School for the past two years.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galbraith of Chicago. Ellen will bow at the 20th Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion on December 27 at the Condesa del Mar Restaurant.

This year, Ellen was awarded second place at the Bogan High School Science Fair for her experiment in chemically-produced cold light. Last year she was honored with third place at this same fair.

Away from school, Ellen is a Candy Stripe volunteer at Christ Hospital where she delivers mail and flowers. "I really like helping the patients," says Ellen.

From experiences in the Christ Hospital Medical Explorers and as a Candy Striper, Ellen has already decided she would like to have a nursing career someday. Ellen plans to attend Elmhurst College to work on her bachelor's degree after she graduates next spring.

Ellen's other hobbies include skiing, swimming, travelling, sewing and dancing.

SHERIFF ELROD TO SPEAK AT KIWANIS

Wayne Baxtrom, Program Chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis, has announced that Sheriff Richard J. Elrod of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Thursday, July 20. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn at 12:15 pm. Sheriff Elrod will speak on "The Sheriff's Department Today". There will be a question and answer period.

Richard J. Elrod was elected Sheriff of Cook County in 1970. Elrod's record as Sheriff explains the great public confidence he enjoys. When he took office, he began a new building program of the Cook County Jail. He expended services for suburban law enforcement agencies. He was just recently elected President of the Illinois Sheriff's Assn and is the first Cook County Sheriff to be elected to the Board of Directors of the National Sheriff's Assn.

District 126 cost up - enrollment down

After a public hearing June 21, the School Board of District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, adopted a 1978-79 budget totalling $3.6 million. The adopted budget anticipates a deficit of nearly $800,000 for June, 1979. At the present time, June, 1978, four funds are in the red: Education — $475,000; Building — $78,000; Liability — $26,000; and Rent — $27,700.

The tax levies contained in the 78-79 budget will result in an estimated total District 126 School Tax Rate of $2.47 estimated Supt William Smith. "In 6 of the past 8 years, the 126 tax rate has been in the $2.40 to $2.50 range. Only once did the rate go up and that was in 1974 as a result of the successful 1973 tax rate increase referendum," said Smith.

The biggest portion of the budget is teachers salaries, totalling $1,560,000 of the $2.3 million educational fund budget. This cost figure is an estimate since teacher negotiations are now in progress. Representing the teachers in negotiations is Illinois Federation of Teachers Union Field Representative Ray Mackey. Representing the Board and Administration is Chief Negotiator Richard Laner.

The 78-79 budget has six fewer regular classroom teachers, but has added two special education teachers and three special education instructional teacher aides. Enrollment in District 126 has been declining by 5% a year and the [illegible] enrollment decline for 78-79 will be for -6% according to Supt Smith.

This tag shows you the price.

This tag shows you the savings.

When you buy an air conditioner, don't just look at the price. Check out the EER, too. Because the higher the EER, the less the unit costs to run.

Not all air conditioners are created equal. Two similar air conditioners can do the same cooling job, yet one may use less energy to do it. Obviously, you want to find that one, because it's more efficient and costs less to run. That's where EER comes in.

How to find the EER rating. EER stands for Energy Efficiency Ratio. It indicates the relative efficiency of an air conditioner. Sometimes there's an EER tag right on the machine; but even when there's not, you can figure it out yourself. Everything you need to know in order to calculate the EER is contained on a metal plate attached to the unit.

To find the EER, just divide the BTU's by the watts. In our example, the EER divides out to 8.7.
7500 BTU's ÷ 860 Watts = 8.7.

What's the recommended EER? We recommend an EER for air conditioners of 8 or higher. Lower rated units waste energy, and the energy wasted costs you money.

It pays to know about EER. An air conditioner with a high EER may cost a little more to buy, but it costs less to run; so it ends up saving you money over the life of the unit.

HONOR RETIRING STAFF MEMBERS IN CHSD 218

Community members, family members and staff members at Community High School District 218 recently paid tribute to five retiring staff members at an afternoon tea sponsored by the CHSD 218 Board of Education at Shepard North, Alsip.

Realtors attend Springfield Conference

Edward D. Meier, Executive Officer, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors, and five other members of the board recently participated in a day-long legislative conference in Springfield.

Also attending the conference arranged by the 27,000 member Illinois Association of Realtors were: Pat Ilsley, Tiffany Realtors; Maureen Murphy, Wm. C. Groebe Realtors; Sharon Leftfer, Rich Real Estate, Realtors, and Audrey Bischoff and Joan Christensen, McDonald & Kerkstra Realtors.

In addition to an extensive tour of legislative facilities, the group of realtors from the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors met with legislators from the southwest area, including Senator Ozinga, and Representatives Yourell, Huskey, Barnes and Stezco.

The members of the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors participated in the conference and had an opportunity to review pending legislation and discuss bills and other proposals.

TRINITY SUMMER

Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn has announced its July and August schedule of events. Sunday, July 16 will feature an old fashioned ice cream social from 4 to 6 pm. July 16 will also mark the last service, 10:30 am, performed by Reverend Geoffrey Lee of Scotland.

The Sunday, July 23, 10:30 am sermon will be preached by Michael Foley from McCormick Seminary. The following Sunday, July 30, will see the return of Pastor Richard Rogers to the pulpit. A communion service will highlight the Sunday, August 6 service.

Many of the High School Group will be biking 11 days to Mackinac Island and return. Rev Rogers will lead the group. They will average 60 to 75 miles a day.

The annual Trinity picnic will be Sunday, August 27 at Conkey Woods. 133rd & Central. Trinity Presbyterian Church is located at 106th & Kostner, Oak Lawn.

RUSSO RECEIVES CONGRESSIONAL AWARD

Representative Marty Russo received the second annual Congressional Award from the Independent Bakers Association at a gala reception held in the Capitol. Russo was honored for his work during the 95th Congress in investigating federal regulatory impact upon the nation's small independent bakers. He is shown above with Bob Pyle, Executive Director of IBA.

While speaking at the annual IBA convention, he released his subcommittee's report on the effects a new food labeling regulation would have on independent bakers. Originally, he had received a six-month delay on the rule's implementation. Later, working with the bakers and officials of the Food and Drug Administration, various exemptions for bakery products were worked out.

NIPC path map available for bike riders

A bicycle path map showing all routes in the six-county Chicago metropolitan area is now available from the Northeastern Illinois Planning commission (NIPC).

The map shows a heavy concentration of paths along the lakefront and in the northern and northwestern suburbs, but a lack of paths in southwestern Cook county.

Only four southwestern suburbs boast bike paths: Worth, Blue Island, Tinley Park and Oak Lawn.

The NIPC map identifies three types of paths: trails on a right-of-way separate from streets, bike paths contained in streets but separated by a physical barrier or pavement striping, and bike trails contained in streets which are designated by sign only.

NIPC will provide a technical report along with the map to suburban governments, containing information on bike path planning and bicycle safety programs.

The report urges the formation of a bike path system in the Chicago area, indicating that if such a system existed, "thousands of people would find it convenient to use bicycles; not only for recreation, but also for uses such as trips to commuter rail and rapid transit stations."

Currently, 532 miles of bike paths are maintained in and around Chicago, with another 800 miles of paths on the drawing board.

"For Seniors Only" program plays to full house

Nearly a thousand seniors filled the Sabre Room for a luncheon and theatrical production when 35 senior citizen organizations participated in the event which was planned and coordinated by the Palos Bank and Trust Co, Marvin A. Siensa, President and Chief Executive officer, and Sandy Dorgan, Vice President of the Community and Public Relations Dept.

A colorful costume review of singing and dancing under the direction of Camille's Artistry of Dance received a standing ovation. A King and Queen and their court were chosen from the audience to reign over this activity. They were awarded a crown trophy, breakfast at Dutchies, lunch at Grecos, and dinner at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn. The bank gave a $10 savings account and offered to all the seniors a free checking account and no charge for their plain checks to be printed.

The seniors evidently were happy with the food served, entertainment presented, and just the aura of the day that began at 11 am and ended at 4 pm, judging by the letters and comments the officials of the bank received.

Bit o' Trivia

When news of President Andrew Jackson's election reached Fort Armstrong near Rock Island, the residents wanted to get the news to the settlers in Galena. J.W. Spencer, a mail carrier, was offered $5 in gold to carry the news there. Spencer accepted and skated up the Mississippi River to Galena, about 70 miles, which shows how far a man would go for money — at least in 1828.

History underfoot

Why are tornadoes, floods, fires, and garbage important to the Oak Lawn Historical Society? The answer is provided by their new exhibit, "Oak Lawn Underground". The exhibit features a collection of items recovered from various public works projects and sites around the village. "Despite the harmful effects of large and small disasters, they usually manage to preserve a good deal of the past, rather like a time capsule", says Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan.

The site of a fire in the late 1930s contributed such information as what type of drinks were favored in the house, what cold remedies were tried, that a phonograph provided part of the entertainment, that they owned a car, and also what type of glassware and china were present. This site has furnished a medicine bottle and a water tumbler to the display. The careful recording of these items now could allow a detailed reconstruction of Oak Lawn's homes and stores some time in the future according to Sullivan.

The Oak Lawn Historical Society is located at 9526 Cook Avenue on the second floor and is currently open to the public on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons. There is no charge for admission.

IFWC elects new officers

The South West Woman's Club, IFWC, has recently elected and inducted a new President, Mrs Raymond Polley of Country Club Hills. Mrs Polley will serve a two year term along with Mrs Steven Lebredt, First Vice President, of Oak Lawn; and Mrs Virginia Elbor, Corresponding Secretary, of Chicago, who were also recently elected. Remaining in office for one more year are Mrs Robert Hermes, Second Vice President; Mrs Marie Reilley, Treasurer; and Mrs Morris Kulovitz, Recording Secretary.

Mrs Polley's first order of business was to select Chairmen for the Committies of Work. They include: Mary Murphy, Conservation; Barbara Kistner, Education; Helen Murmane, International Affairs; Carm Gilbertson, Home Life; Ruth Kraft, Public Affairs; Marilynn Aldworth, Fine Arts; Irene Merijohn and Joan Fiedler, Community Improvement; Theresa Sipich and Mary Ann Schmidt, Hospitality; Judy Stahl, Social; Jeanette Marks, Program; Barbara Botica, Publicity; Nedra Babb, Crafts; and LaVern Olivi and Lorraine Johnson, Ways and Means.

Mrs Polley's goal for this year is "Cooperation thru Participation". The South West Woman's Club is beginning their 50th year in club work.

NEW LEADERS FOR RICE MOTHERS

Advice for young ladies on wheels

From the 1890's Unique Cycling Club of Chicago came the following advice for young ladies on wheels: "Don't faint on the road; Don't wear tight garters; Don't forget your toolbag; Don't criticise people's legs; Don't keep your mouth open on dirty roads."

Also, "Don't wear a garden party hat with bloomers; Don't contest the right of way with cable cars; Don't ask, 'What do you think of my bloomers?'; Don't scream if you meet a cow — If she sees you first, she will run; Don't cultivate everything that is up to date because you ride a wheel."

PLAN LCM INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Final arrangements have been made for the fourth annual Little Company of Mary Hospital Invitational Tournament. Tennis and racquetball enthusiasts will compete on Sunday, August 20. Golfers will tee off at the beautiful Beverly Country Club on Monday, August 21. Entertainment will be provided by the Pacific Islanders, an Hawaiian Show direct from Shanghai Lil's, and the John Kenny Trio. Special guests of honor will be Dr Roy M. Langdon and Dr Fred R. Zeiss.

This spectacular tournament will raise funds to sustain the full service Oncology Center which is one of the most advanced units of its kind for the treatment of cancer patients in metropolitan Chicagoland.

Participants will have an opportunity to win fabulous prizes including new automobiles. Tickets are priced at $250 each. Further details concerning this tournament can be obtained by calling the Public Relations Department at 422-6200 ext 381.

AMBASSADORS PLAN OUTDOOR FILM

This Sunday, July 16 at dusk (approx 8:30 pm) the Ambassadors for Christ will be showing "He Leadeth Me." The place is the Community Reformed Church. Parking area, 1100 East Sibley Blvd. (147th St) Dolton. Everyone is requested to bring their own folding chairs. In the event of bad weather, the showing will be moved indoors.

The film features Ken Medema, a blind singer-pianist-composer. During the more intimate moments at home with his wife, Jane, and their son, Aaron, 9, the family shares how they have learned to cope with handicaps.

The film is about handicaps, not just blindness, but the weaknesses and limitations that everyone experiences and how one family has learned that handicaps can be the way for God to bless us and change the world.

There is no admission charge or tickets but a free will offering will be received.

Cristy Lane to sing at Talman concert

Popular country music singer Cristy Lane will be featured at Talman Federal Savings and Loan Assn's Country and Western Concert on Sunday, July 16. The concert will be held at 6:30 pm in the Talman parking lot at 56th and South Kedzie Avenue. Other well-known artists slated to perform are Maggie and Bob Atcher and Bill Blough and the Bill Blough Combo.

Cristy Lane, who is considered a rising new talent on the country and western scene, will entertain with some of her most popular recent hits including "I'm Gonna Love You Anyway," "Shake Me I Rattle," and "Let Me Down Easy."

"Dean of the Cowboy Singers" and WLS National Barn Dance star Bob Atcher, who will act as master of ceremonies, has entertained thousands with his many hits such as "Cool Water," "You Are My Sunshine," and "Walking the Floor Over You." Joining Bob will be his lovely wife Maggie who has recorded under the name of Bonnie Blue Eyes. Maggie was also featured with Bob on the Barn Dance.

Country music veteran Bill Blough has appeared on top country music shows including Dolp Hewitt's WGN Barn Dance, the world famous Grand Ole Opry, and Ernest Tubb's Midnight Jamboree. His Bill Blough Combo brings a country flavor to danceable music.

There is no charge to attend the conert. During the program popcorn and lemonade will be available at "old-fashioned" prices. Seating and parking facilities will also be provided at no charge.

Spartan Athletic Booster Club honors senior athletes

Oak Lawn Community High School seniors Bonnie McGee and Craig Roxas were recently honored by the Spartan Athletic Booster Club. Bonnie received the Geri VanDeKreke Award, named for the current Girls Sports Coordinator. Bonnie was a member of the girls track team and placed in every meet. Bonnie was the Class of '78 Salutatorian with a GPA of 4.024. She is an Illinois State Scholar who received a Cornell College Scholarship, a George M. Pullman Scholarship. Bonnie was a member of the National Honor Society, French Club, and Mathletes. She plans to attend Cornell College where she will major in math. Bonnie is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Hubert McGee.

The Bill Godby Award, given in honor and memory of the first President and one of the original founders of the Spartan Booster Club, was presented to Craig Roxas. Craig played varsity football and baseball and ranked in the upper 12% of his class. He was voted best lineman as a junior and made honorable mention all conference his junior and senior year. He participated in the baseball program four years and was a regular during the past season. Craig was a member of the National Honor Society and Mathletes. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Francis Roxas.

The spring sports athletes were also honored at the Booster Club's 11th Annual Sports Award Night. Students recognized participated in girls badminton, gymnastics, softball and track, and boys baseball, swimming, tennis, and track.

Each of the varsity coaches introduced their assistants and announced their Most Valuable Players, selected by respective team members. Each MVP received a trophy for their achievement.

Recipients of the MVP Awards were:

Girls Badminton — Judy Vargos (sr). Judy played doubles for 4 years and placed first in the conference at 2nd doubles. In her junior year she placed 5th in the state meet. The badminton team is coached by Karen Dorne.

Girls Gymnastics — Joyce Howver (sr). Joyce had the second highest point total for the season. She scored consistant 6 and 7's in the uneven parallel bars, vault, and balance beam. Her 8.2 on the uneven parallel bar was the highest score of the season. The gymnasts are coached by Janet Woerner.

Softball — Connie Treantafeles (sr). Connie played first base and had 127 put outs. She batted 373 (25 hits including 2 home runs, 4 doubles and 23 RBI's). Joyce Icenogle coached the softball team.

Girls Track — Holly Johnson. Holly holds 7 school records: 110 high hurdles: 14.76; 220 high hurdles: 29.80; high jump: 5'6"; long jump: 16'7½"; 220 yard dash: 26.84; 100 yard dash: 11.2; 440 yard relay: 51.6. She placed 1st in the high jump at the Riverside-Brookfield Relays and set a new record at 5'4". Holly was conference champ in the 110 and 220 hurdles, and 2nd in the high jump and 220 yard dash. She was district champ in the 110 and 220 hurdles and high jump and qualified for state in all three. Holly placed 4th in the high jump at the state meet. The girls track team is coached by Linda Moeller.

Baseball — Dan Bagus (sr).

Dan pitched and played short stop. He pitched two 1-hitters – one against Mt Carmel in the State Tournament and one against Homewood Flossmoor in the District 230 Tourney. Skip Borkowski coaches the baseball team.

Swimming — Steve Yukel (sr). Steve was the team captain and led the team in total points scored. He holds the school record in the 200 yard freestyle. Vern Scarpelli coaches the swimming team.

Tennis — Brian Ytterberg (jr). Brian played second singles on the team. The tennis team is coached by Robert Stoy.

Track — Mike Lehmann (sr). Mike was the conference champion in the shot and discus, and the district and state champion in the shot. He set a new state record in the shot put with a toss of 63' 6-3/4". John Lewis is the varsity track coach.

TEACHERS LISTED FOR TUTORING IN DISTRICT 122

MEMO FROM THE -

OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

FILMS FOR DEAF-HEARING IMPAIRED

On the first Friday of each month, the library will be showing captioned films for the deaf and the hearing impaired at 7 pm in the downstairs community room.

"Never Too Late" starring Paul Ford, Connie Stevens and Jim Hutton will be shown on July 7. A middle aged man and woman with a married daughter find out that they are expectant parents. The husband is horrified, but the wife pleased. How they reconcile their problem and attitudes is the subject of this comedy.

On August 4, "Back Street" will be shown starring Susan Hawyard, John Gavin and Vera Miles. This is a sensitively played drama about a woman who can never marry the man she loves and is based on Fanny Hurst's compassionate and romantic novel.

Other films scheduled are: "Dirty Harry" on Sept 1; "Butterflies Are Free" on Oct 6; "Bullitt" on Nov 3 and "The Impossible Years" on Dec 1.

All films are free.

HOME DELIVERY FOR SHUT-INS

The library is launching a new service of book delivery and pick-up to the homes of shut-ins.

In addition to large print books, there are also talking books recorded on cassette tapes and records and the machines for playing them available through the Library. The machines will be delivered to patrons' home for permanent use. Recordings will be sent to the patrons' homes and returned to the library through the mail with no charge for postage.

Visually or physically handicapped people are asked to call or write Madeline Reed at the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9427 Raymond, Oak Lawn, Ill. 60453. Telephone 422-4990.

The service is limited to Oak Lawn residents.

Richard's senior earns 4 year scholarship

A senior from Harold L. Richards High School has been named as the recipient of a $2,200 scholarship, renewable annually for a maximum of four years.

Sandy Stube, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Stube, Jr, has been awarded a scholarship of the Thomas and Dorothy Leavey Foundation Grant-In-Aid. The award, granted by the foundation established in 1957, is based on scholastic achievement, interest in current affairs, school and community activities, special talents and interests, evidence of leadership and financial aid. A total of 12 scholarships are awarded annually.

Miss Stube, recipient of a Letter of Commendation in the 1978 National Merit Scholarship Competition, will enroll in the arts and science program at Augustana College this fall.

STUDENTS BEING TAUGHT ENGRAVING SKILLS

One doesn't have to go outside of Oak Lawn to find real talent! Students in the Prevo class at Oak Lawn High School are developing a special skill in printing under the patient guidance and expertise of Mr. Don Leach. The class is being taught engraving, together with printing and duplicating, to develop skills to assist in a work position. Soon these students will be employed part time by the school as part of their vocational training, after which they will be placed in part time jobs in the community.

Shown with just a few of the lovely posters they printed for the Oak Lawn Garden Club's Sixth Annual "Beautiful Yard Contest" are Lorraine Ralston, Mr. Don Leach, Ted Skoundrianos, Bill Mallet, Scott Bennett, and Dean Kowal. The posters may be seen in the windows of many of the Oak Lawn merchants. The Oak Lawn Garden Club salutes Mr. Don Leach and commends him for his work at the Oak Lawn High School.

Vandalism cost taxpayers $1,000

Chunks of concrete sewer casing thrown through the windows of Harnew School, 9100 Austin will cost area taxpayers about $1000.

The incident took place Monday, June 19, late in the night, according to school maintenance workers.

"Isn't this something?" queried District 122 Supt Robert Olcese. "At a time when taxpayers are virtually in revolt over high costs, these criminals have wantonly destroyed the very school property their parents and neighbors bought and paid for. Won't they ever realize what they're doing?"

Officers elected to Richard's Leo Club

Five young women from Oak Lawn and Chicago Ridge have been selected to serve as officers of the H.L. Richards High School Leo Club for the 1978-79 school year.

Sue Barrett of Oak Lawn, president, will be assisted by fellow officers, Barb Gerulis of Chicago Ridge and Mary Giokas, vice presidents, Sharon Barrett, secretary, and Cathy Baltzer, treasurer, all of Oak Lawn.

The Leo Club, the youth arm of the Oak Lawn Lions Club, is a service organization which directs its efforts primarily toward assistance of the blind and visually handicapped.

Instructor Susan Guthrie is sponsor of the HLR chapter of the Leo Club.

THERAPEUTIC RECREATION — A PROGRAM WITH A FUTURE

The field of therapeutic recreation is growing rapidly according to Lou Brackett. He is the coordinator of the Therapeutic Recreation program at Moraine Valley Community College.

"For those who like to work with people, to be active and to get in on the ground floor of a career field, I highly recommend this program," Brackett said.

Graduates work with special populations. Included are the physically disabled, the mentally handicapped, emotionally disturbed and socially deviant.

They work in rehabilitation centers, public and private schools, community recreation centers, community mental health centers, correctional facilities, psychiatric facilities, long-term care facilities and veterans hospitals and camps. For info call 974-4300, ext 360-361.

MVCC OFFERS CAREER PLANNING FOR TEACHERS

Career Planning for Teachers, an all-day workshop, has been scheduled for Wednesday, July 19. The hours are 9 am - 4 pm.

According to Linda Sexton-Patrick, director of the MVCC Adult Center and workshop sponsor, the program will be helpful to teachers who are considering career alternatives.

"We want to help them capitalize on their skills and identify the occupations with the highest potential for them. We will help them to identify a resume that an employer can't resist and to handle the resulting job interview," Sexton-Patrick said.

Fee for the workshop, including lunch is $20 per person. Information and registration forms are available from the Adult Center, 10956 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills, phone 974-4300, ext 267-268.

CHSD 218 COUNSELORS ATTEND PROFESSIONAL MEETING

Four Community High School District 218 counselors took advantage of an opportunity to share knowledge and information with fellow counselors at the recent meeting of the South Suburban Chapter of the Illinois Guidance and Personnel Association.

PARK OFFERS TRIP TO WISCONSIN DELLS

Would you like to take an exciting boat ride thru the Wisconsin Dells or visit the Circus World Museum in Baraboo, Wisconsin? You and your family can do both on the same day by participating in a group outing sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District.

Coach type buses will depart from Central Park in Oak Lawn at 7 am on Saturday, August 12 and go directly to the Circus World Museum in Baraboo. After a leisurely tour of the excellent circus exhibits, everyone will have time to eat their picnic lunch on the museum grounds. The bus will then depart for the Wisconsin Dells, where the group will board an excursion boat for a beautiful 3 hour boat ride thru the Upper Dells of the Wisconsin River. On the way back from Wisconsin, the bus will stop near Madison for a smorgasbord dinner. The bus will return to Oak Lawn at approximately 9 pm.

The fee for the trip is $26 for adults and teens and $24 for those 12 years of age and under. Transportation, admission to the Circus Museum and Dells boat trip, and the dinner are included in the fee. The trip is being conducted in cooperation with C—S Travel Service.

LIFEGUARDS RECEIVE CRP TRAINING

On Wednesday, June 28 the Oak Lawn Park District with the cooperation of the Oak Lawn Fire Department completed an in-service-training-program for all lifeguards resulting in American Red Cross CRP Certification. Included in the course were procedures for choking and near drowning.

The lifeguards had the opportunity to practice mouth-to-mouth rescitation and cardiac massage on life-sized "Resci-Anne" manikins. These methods have saved thousands of lives from acquatic related accidents.

The course was part of an in-service-training-program which assures Oak Lawn Park District bathers of the continuous and highest trained personnel possible.

Chamber to study "Clean Community System" program

At the most recent meeting of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce the Health and Sanitation Officer, Lewis Hall, was commended for the acknowledgement he received as a result of his entry in the 1978 Samuel J. Crumbine Consumer Protection Award Competition. Also commended was the Director of Public Works, Don Canning, for the excellent job his department did last winter in keeping the streets clean in the record breaking snow fall.

A movie was shown on the "Clean Community System" now being successfully practiced in Macon, GA. Lewis Hall, speaking on the program which calls for updated ordinances, improved sanitation technology, continuous public education and vigorous enforcement of sensible regulation, said that the program only costs $3000 to $5000 to implement.

Much favorable discussion followed with Davis Boyd, past President of the Chamber commenting on the problem with vacant lots. He said they can be cleaned up and within two weeks they are dirty again and it's not coming from outside.

"We are unique," Boyd said, "in that our scavenger service will pick up anything that is put out, but people still bag their grass clippings and throw them in the vacant lots."

Canning said that 32,000 tons of garbage are picked up in Oak Lawn each year. "We're either ultra clean or ultra dirty. No one wants to look at it but everyone wants to do something about it."

Frank Boblak, who is now serving as Chairman of the South Suburban Realtors board, said that he would gladly support such a very worthwhile program. It was then decided that Boblak and Hall would meet and discuss the program and return to the board with their findings.

The plans for the annual Pet Parade, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, are well underway according to Chairman Bob Gaul, owner of the Oak Lawn Pet Center. The parade is scheduled for Sunday, September 4, 1 pm. More news about the parade will be released at a later date.

Davis Boyd spoke of the meeting held on July 13 with the Public Safety & Legal Committee members Joseph Vegich, Ronald Stancik and Jerome Bergamini with regards to the much discussed and controversial condominium ordinance. The committee agreed to review the ordinance with the village attorney after discrepancies were pointed out.

"It took awhile," Boyd said, "but we finally got our point across." He said they were to meet again on August 10 before the village board meeting on Tuesday, August 15.

Under new business, Executive Director John Pieler, spoke of an "Achievement Award Program" that will be sponsored by the Chamber Civic Affairs and Beautification Committee.

Betty Gallo, President of the Chamber of Commerce, said that a decorative sign was going to be given to any business house that repainted or remodeled in a manner that would enhance the appearance of the building. It was thought that this would create an incentive for others to follow suit.

A protest was raised about the recent ordinance proposed by Trustee Les Anderson due to supposedly complaints by residents about the pricing policy at Aldi Discount Foods and conditions in the parking lot. The ordinance calls for prices to be marked on all packages and that three or more items be bagged.

John Pieler said that this would be very hard on independent grocers and some of the smaller shops. "If someone buys three goldfish at the Oak Lawn Pet Center, can you see Bob Gaul having to bag them."

Pieler reminded the members that the "Homecoming Parade" is scheduled for October 7. Alderman [illegible] is chairman of the event.

While announcing the Tag Day details in her plea for volunteers, Linda R. Gray, chairman of the Oak Lawn Fund Raising Committee said: "We hope those who helped us last year would contact us again. They did a tremendous job and we are most grateful to them," she went on to say, "Sertoma means SERvice TO MAnkind. It is a Community Service Organization whose 35,000 members in nearly 1000 clubs thruout the country, are working to help people handicapped with speech, hearing and language disorders."

"We are very fortunate that the Sertoma Foundation, the Philantropic Arm of Sertoma International, has opened a clinic in the southwest suburban area, which incidently is only the second of its kind in the country and is located at 11220 Harlem Ave, Worth." Linda added, "With tagging support from the various club and organization members, together with the general public calling to volunteer, it will confirm our appreciation to Sertoma for establishing this local center."

Mayor of Oak Lawn Ernest F. Kolb who is serving as general chairman for the south and southwest suburban fund raising campaign, the Oak Lawn Fund Raising Committee, the Officers and Directors for the Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders, are most grateful to the George Washington Savings & Loan Assn for the use of their building facilities as headquarters for the Oak Lawn Tag Day program.

Vice Presidents of the association, Brian R. Walsh, and Mildred J. Sujka, jointly expressed "It takes many people and organizations, working together to make any fund raising campaign be a success. Our association is proud to play its part in assisting Sertoma and the Oak Lawn Fund Raising Committee in their efforts to support the clinic."

Date and Time: Saturday, August 19; hours 9 am to 5 pm.

Headquarters: George Washington Savings & Loan Assn, 10240 S Cicero Ave.

Benefit for: Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders.

To volunteer please call: Linda R. Gray, 425-5489 or Edwin F. Kasper, 636-4400.

Quality Chevrolet withdraws Indy Pack Car offer

Due to a recent court order, Quality Chevrolet has been forced to withdraw its offer to sell a 1978 Corvette Indy Pack Car to the person who offers the highest cash donation to two local schools that serve exceptional children.

The court order was secured by Frank Albano of Custom Car Stereo in Oak Lawn, who alleges a desire to own the car for his personal use.

Ed Frank, President of Quality Chevrolet, said "We regret the delay in our efforts to raise money for two such worthwhile organizations as the Park Lawn Assn for the Mentally Retarded and the Garden School for the Handicapped."

"We hope that we will be successful in defending against this suit and that we can again accept bids on the Corvette Pace Car at an early date," said Mr Frank.

JUDGE BUTLER SPEAKS AT ROTARY

Stan-Sak, President of the Evergreen Park Rotary has announced that Associate Judge Francis P. Butler of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Monday, July 31. The luncheon will be held at the Beverly Woods Restaurant, 115th & Western Avenue at 12:15 pm. Judge Butler will speak on "The Cook County Courts of Today". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Francis P. Butler was appointed an Associate Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County in 1974. He succeeded in eliminating a three year backlog in civil jury court where he was assigned. Prior to his appointment he represented the Chicago Board of Education and the International Union of Operating Engineers. Judge Butler is a resident of Palos Park. Reillys Daughter Marathon

Hurry and register for the 2nd Annual Reilly's Daughter Charity Marathon. The 10 kilometer marathon is for the Neediest Children's Christmas Fund and all receipts from this worthy cause will be turned over to the organization.

The date is Sunday, August 6 and starting time is 2 pm. The race will begin at 111th & Springfield, east to Central Park, south to 115th, east to Longwood Drive and then return, completing the approx 6½ mile run.

There will be special trophies for certain categories and these will be awarded in Reilly's Daughter parking lot at 4010 W 111th Street.

The fee is $5 and all entrants will receive a "T" shirt and pledge cards to have signed by those sponsoring their efforts.

Even though it may seem like a long time until Christmas it is not too early for the volunteer workers for the Neediest Children's Christmas Fund to start making their plans. It is a lot of hard work and the sponsors of the program work all year long for its success.

Do your Christmas shopping now for these children when you join Reilly's Daughter Charity Marathon. For further details call 423-1188.

Park Lawn School to repeat before Development board

The Park Lawn School, 10833 LaPorte, will once more appear before the Oak Lawn Development Board for approval of an 18 bed housing facility for adult students. The Public Hearing is set for Monday, August 7 in the Village Hall.

The project, passed unanimously by the Development Board was turned down by the Board of Trustees due to many pressures from the residents of the area.

The objections have been mostly to the parking problem during the bingo events held each week to raise funds for the school. The residents contend that the new facility is to be built on part of the available parking site and will create a larger flow of cars and parking problems around their homes and make it dangerous for the children.

The residential facility will be licensed by the Department of Mental Health and the Department of Public Health.

The main purpose of the additional housing is to insure a home for these young adults that have attended Park Lawn School and afford them an opportunity of privacy in their adult years.

The Board of Trustees voted 5-1 against the project. Trustee Ron Stancik cast the only vote in favor of the housing facility.

Budding will test the blood pressure of interested customers in the bank on Tuesday, August 1 and Thursday, August 3 from 10 am to 2 pm. Everyone is invited to come and check on their health and check out the largest bank in the southwest suburbs, approaching one-quarter billion dollars and 30 years of continued growth.

The First National Bank of Evergreen Park SALUTES Virginia Klucikowski (l), nurse, Elementary School District 124 and Jean Budding (r), nurse, Evergreen Park High School, shown here taking the blood pressure of Carol Ann Frank, Secretary, Public and Community Relations Department. Both women have helped with many community immunizations and other service programs. They assisted with the recent Weight-A-Thon for Cancer and served on Evergreen Park's United Fund for several years.

Christ deb plans interior design career

Christ Hospital 1978 debutante Diane Mueller not only leads cheers for the Spartans of Oak Lawn Community High School, but also for her church basketball team at Trinity Evangelical Covenant.

Diane is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Melvin Mueller of Oak Lawn. She will bow at the 20th Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion on December 27 at the Condesa Del Mar Restaurant.

The Cotillion is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Hospital. This year it will benefit the radiation oncology unit of the hospital.

Diane started teaching Bible school just this year at Trinity Covenant and plans to start working there as a counselor this summer.

Diane spends her spare time on Tuesdays as a floating Candy Striper at Christ Hospital delivering flowers and food trays.

At school, Diane has been an alto in the girls' treble choir for three years. At the same time, she has been keeping herself in fantastic shape by participating in girls' gymnastics. Diane performs beautifully on the balance beam and in floor exercises.

After she graduates next spring, Diane plans to study interior design at a local college.

Games played before radio

If you have ever wondered what people did for fun before they had television sets and radios, you'll have a chance to find out at the August meeting of the Oak Lawn Historical Society. Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan will present a talk on "The Games People Played" at the turn of the century. The program will begin at 3 pm at the Historical Society, 9526 Cook Ave on Sunday, August 13.

"People were really inventive about their games in the Victorian era," said Sullivan, "and one of the most interesting features of their games were the forfeits they devised for losers." According to Sullivan even the names were odd. Names like "Dumb Crambo", "Jack's Alive", and "Hiss and Clap" were extremely popular games during the Victorian era. The wonder, according to Sullivan, is that more of these games are not played today at parties and by children. "They're a lot of fun," says Sullivan, "and awfully easy to play."

Sullivan challenges anyone to try one of the most popular forfeits of the time. "All you have to do is bring a friend upstairs, and then bring him down upon a feather". Sullivan says he has done it and will be repeating the feat during the course of his address. The August meeting of the Oak Lawn Historical Society is open to the public without admission and all are invited to attend. Participants will be able to take part in at least two of the games.

Huskey aiding search for persons who may have unclaimed assets

State Rep Herb Huskey has joined efforts with the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions to locate area residents who may have unclaimed insurance policy assets.

According to Huskey, this property consists of abandoned premium overpayments and policies that have reached maturity. In accordance with Illinois law, insurance companies notify the state about these assets after 7 years of inactivity.

"But because most people don't routinely read legal notices, and because many persons also relocate, a great number of these assets could go unnoticed and unclaimed by the Sept 15 deadline," he said, "and they will revert to the state after that date."

Anyone who receives a notice of possibly abandoned property should write directly to the Illinois Dept of Financial Institutions, Unclaimed Property Division, 421 E Capitol, Springfield, IL 62701. All correspondence should include a name, address and county of current residence. Questions can be directed to (217) 782-8838.

Included on the abandoned property list are: Marilyn Moore and Lester Marcus, Hometown; and Etha Ballowe, Eugene Mosz, Francis O'Day, John H. Sprung and Ronald Suscavage and Joseph Sumroda, all of Oak Lawn.

Politics aside in funding decision

One of the more important aspects that was overlooked at the meeting of the President and Board of Trustees on Tuesday, July 18, was the entirely non-political decision made by the members in a sincere effort to represent the best interests of all the taxpayers of Oak Lawn.

Several months ago when the residents started making demands for extensive street improvements, Mayor Ernie Kolb was informed by the Finance Department that the Motor Fuel Tax funds, estimated at approximately $785,000 per year and used for the street improvements, was committed to past projects with the exception of about $55,000, and would not be available for several years. According to Village Engineer Norm Bacon, this amount would do no more than patch. The projects, financed by Oak Lawn, the State of Illinois and the Federal Government, were considered a great advantage and allowed for a great deal of major construction work with Oak Lawn paying the smallest share.

The new trustees, along with those that were in office, have not found fault with what was done at that time. However, it has left Mayor Kolb facing the problemof how to pay for the extensive street, curb and sewer repair after the well has gone dry and with no available funds for 7 or 8 years.

In an effort to solve the problem the village fathers called on Wauterlek & Brown, professionals in municipal finances, to hopefully find a solution to the problem. The suggested proposal was to consolidate the village's bond indebtedness into one general obligation bond. This plan is much the same as a person owing many bills and getting a loan to pay them off and have only the one debt.

Government obligation bonds have a lower interest rate than revenue bonds and by going this route the village could pay the debt sooner and also have funds to make some capital improvements.

During a Finance Committee meeting, which consists of all the board members, it was disclosed that the tax rate would have to be more than doubled what the homeowner is now paying. This action would be necessary to more or less "guarantee" the bond payment and is required by state law.

This caused a great deal of concern to the trustees and Mayor Kolb advised them that the tax rate could be raised when it is filed with the county clerks office each September and abated before the closing date in December reducing it back to the same rate as 1978.

Questioned as to how the bonds would be paid Finance Director Peg Grell said with federal revenue sharing, MFT funds, water and sewer revenues and the general corporate fund. According to Wauteriek & Brown the village could set aside $300,000 of its $785,000 in MFT funds to offset the abatement and the remainder used for capital improvements.

Although time was running out for putting the plan into effect, the trustees were leary of committing the board to the higher tax rate and the promised abatement. Mayor Kolb and the trustees were not concerned about themselves but, as this would have to be an ongoing committment until the year 2000, could they rely on future boards to abate the tax rate. It was argued that those in office may take advantage of the increased revenue and use it for another purpose.

Before the regular board meeting on Tuesday, July 18, the Finance Committee met again and at this time Trustee Joe Vogrich was named chairman. Discussion went on for one and one half hours and it was interesting to note the different thoughts, whether for or against, that each trustee had on the subject. Included in the discussion were the pros and cons of how the repairs and paving on the west end would be accomplished if they didn't accept the proposal. Mayor Kolb stated at this time that should the board vote for the plan he would like it to be unanimous.

Trustee Jay Bergamini said that he believed the plan was a good one as money would still be needed to repair the streets. He said that be received phone calls all the time from the residents in his district (6) about the poor condition of the streets. He said this plan would accomplish those goals.

Trustee John Hardek said that he still believed in the "pay as you go" road building program. Hardek proposed that the vehicle sticker be raised $10. He said there are 34,465 vehicles in Oak Lawn and the increase would generate $344,650 a year, it should be segregated and used for road programs only. Hardek said that the people that use the streets should pay for them.

Trustee Les Anderson was in agreement with Hardek that the people who use the streets should pay for them.

Trustee Ron Stancik commended Hardek on his suggestion as he felt they should be working on alternatives. He said that he could not support the program because it was a long time risk. He said that neither did he approve of consolidating the debts as he did not want to involve the village's water program.

Stancik said that he had been working on a plan and suggested that all liquor license transfer fees be set aside, increase the rezoning fees and subdivision fees and ear mark this money for street repairs only. "If we all put our heads together and propose some new ideas for solving the problem," Stancik said, "I'm sure we could come up with something by budget time."

Trustee John Cleveland believed they should go with the plan as, "there seems no other solution. If we don't go ahead with the street repairs they will not only get a lot worse but the prices will be going up. I just don't see any other way," he said.

Trustee Joe Vogrich said that he realized people were for new streets and repairing existing streets. He said that he had talked to the people in his district (5) and they are against the refunding plan.

Vogrich, who has been against the plan all along, said that he personally could not vote for anything that involved the village's water system. He said that it is self supporting and was the most important happening in Oak Lawn. He stated furtber that it should not be mixed in with other debts. "It is the backbone of this community," he said, "and will prove itself as such. I could never do anything to hurt that system."

(Oak Lawn has one of the finest and most up to date water systems of any suburb. Monies are generated by the system from water sales to other local villages.)

On that vote Vogrich moved that the refunding via General Obligation Bonds not be enacted. Trustee Les Anderson seconded the motion. The vote was 4-2 to deny. Most interesting about the vote was that Vogrich and Stancik, both members of the Citizen Coalition and Hardek and Anderson, members of the Homeowners party, voted to deny. Voting "for" were Bergamini, a member of the Citizens Coalition and Cleveland, former member of the Homeowners party and now independent of any group.

To be sure, the residents will complain — they will say that the village administration isn't doing anything for them. They will call about the streets, the curbs, the sewers and anything else they can think of. The voters will say, "We put these people in office to do something for us but after they election they forget about us."

What do you think?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS FROM DISTRICT 126

With the close of one more year, the school board, administrators, teachers and staff would like to express our thanks to you and your paper for the fine coverage given District 126 during the past school year. Schools depend on an informed citizenry and your paper has greatly aided us in that effort.

Dear Neighbors,

Two years have passed since our efforts to elect Republicans in Illinois.

In the upcoming years Congress must deal with many major issues, energy, trimming government bureaucracy, and most importantly, inflation. It is imperative that we act now to build the volunteer staff which can elect the man who will deal effectively with these issues.

If you are interested in working with the candidate who will represent the constituents of the 3rd Congressional District, please phone 423-9820 or come into our headquarters at 4239 W 95th. Become part of the "Bob Dunne for Congress Committee".

Arthritis program at sr center

In cooperation with the Community Relations and the In-Service Department of Christ Hospital, a special informative program on Arthritis will be presented at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th St.

Maribeth Townsend will speak on the vital facts and fallacies surrounding arthritis. A slide presentation will be included in the program as well as a question and answer period.

Ms Townsend received her degree in Community Health Education from Western Illinois U and is now doing her internship with Christ Hospital's In-Service Dept. In the fall, Maribeth will be continuing her education at De Paul U in Chicago.

The effects of arthritis have been of vast interest to Ms Townsend and her enlightening presentation was prepared for Oak Lawn Senior Citizens.

Remember the date! Friday, August 4th, 10 am at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th St.

Russo angry with Carter over Kreps' appearance cancellation

Congressman Marty Russo reacted angrily to the White House's cancellation of Secretary of Commerce Juanita Kreps' scheduled appearance at the September 15, ... District Conference on Business and Government.

The Conference, which is being sponsored by Cong Russo and nine local Chambers of Commerce and five area colleges and universities, has become the focal point of an administration attempt to punish Cong Russo for his lack of support for administration policies.

In a copyrighted article appearing in the July 21st edition of the Wall Street Journal, an unidentified White House official is quoted as saying "We remember. .Cabinet Officers won't take part in the business seminar run by Illinois Rep. Russo. . .he cast a decisive vote against Carter's hospital cost-control plan."

The Administration has put Cong Russo on its "hit list" for his recent vote in favor of the non-Administration response to concerns over rising hospital costs. Russo said that his vote in favor of Republican James Broyhill's substitute cost containment bill was made "because I am determined to lessen government interference in the everyday lives of Americans, and it seems that the White House is attempting to punish me for my independence but in reality, they have hurt the people of the 3rd District by not giving their cooperation to a non-partisan attempt at opening the lines of communication between big government and the business community."

This attempted discipline of Cong Russo has been looked at as an administration effort to play hardball with recalcitrant congressmen. When asked if this would affect his future positions on issues, Russo was quoted as saying that if this is the President's idea of "hardball, it is definitely hard ball on the 'bush league level' and maybe an indication of the strictly minor league abilities of his team."

Russo was particularly concerned about the way in which he found out about the cancellation of Secretary Kreps' visit.

"I always thought that though the President and I did not always agree on issues, we always communicated with each other in a straight forward manner. But when I had to find out about the cancellation via a newspaper article which was later confirmed by a telephone call from my staff to the White House, it was a deep blow to my confidence in the Administration's ability to deal with those who take honest exception to the President's positions."

Russo ended by assuring the sponsors and those intending to participate in the September 15th Conference, that it would go on as scheduled and that contacts are already being made for appropriate replacements. . .."The Administration may attempt to punish me, but as long as I represent the 3rd District, the people can be assured that I will continue to vote their wishes and my conscience on those issues which we face as a nation."

DUNNE ASKING FOR VOLUNTEER STAFF

WestSide Baseball carnival

The West Side Baseball of Oak Lawn will hold its sixth annual carnival in the parking lot of Green Oak Shopping Center at 95th & Cicero thru July 30, according to Carnival Chairman, Don Czajkowski.

The West Side Baseball of Oak Lawn is a non-profit organization which has served the youth of Oak Lawn for 25 years by making baseball available. The carnival, which is sponsored yearly, is the major fund-raising effort with receipts from the carnival going into the general fund to reduce cost of field maintenance, field supplies, referee expenses and other related costs.

Czajkowski said, "If we did not have a successful carnival each year, the cost for each youngster to belong to our organization would be prohibitive and out of the reach of most of our member families." He concluded by stating, "By sponsoring this carnival each year, we are able to remian self-supporting in our efforts to bring a quality program to the youth of Oak Lawn." Further info can be obtained by calling Czajkowski at 424-4651.

O'Malley clan meeting an Irish success

From an original meeting of twelve people bearing the O'Malley name came a multitude of over 200 to share in the possibility of forming an O'Malley Clan.

Patrick O'Malley of the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn, who arranged for the meeting room, was more than surprised by the huge turnout that wanted to prove the motto "Terra Marique Potens" was not an idle one. The meaning "Powerful on land and sea" represents the O'Malley family motto.

There are many O'Malley Clan units all over the world who meet and select a chieftain to send to an annual meeting in County Mayo each year. There was none in the Chicagoland area until this recently formed clan at the Holiday Inn. Pat O'Malley was named chairman for the group and a tentative date for a dinner in October was voted on unanimously.

Before any festivities or discussion took place Father O'Malley gave an opening prayer and wished the clan success in their endeavor.

Alice M. O'Malley addressed the group and told stories of the O'Malley background dating to the famed Queen Grace O'Malley, the powerful woman who was often referred to as the "pirate queen" because of her prowress on the high seas to bring food back to Ireland and her subjects.

Ellen Devitt and Alice Stanton, promoters of the original idea to form the O'Malley Clan were both on hand and introduced.

The Dennehy Champion Irish Dancers entertained the guests with their lively Irish jigs and hornpipes. A violinist from the Knights Arms dining room played all the favorite Irish tunes and encouraged everyone to join.

Alfred O'Malley, Chairman of the Board of Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th St, had O'Malley Clan buttons of green and white made up for all of those present.

The first meeting of the O'Malley Clan proved to be happy and dynamic with a strong stress on continuing to the ultimate goal.

Pat O'Malley then thanked all of the O'Malleys, their spouses, their offsprings, their kin and all friends of the O'Malley heritage for coming with a promise of more meetings to be called at a future date.

BASIC OR BEGINNING ASTROLOGY CLASS

The next basic six week course in astrology will begin at 8 pm Wednesdays, August 9. This gives you time to send for your birth certificate if you don't already have your time of birth. No mathematics will be taught in this first course. You will learn to read your own birthchart prepared in advance for you. The cost of the course is $35 plus the textbook "The Modern Textbook of Astrology". This includes your birthchart (if you already have a chart prepared by a professional astrologer you can deduct $5 from the cost of the class). If you are interested in attending, please reserve a place in class by calling or mailing a $5 deposit plus all your birth information: date of birth, location and exact time of birth.

PROGRESSION WORKSHOP

All day Saturday, August 19, from 9:30 am to 4 pm a workshop of reading the progressed chart. The first hour will be spent going back over the mathematics of progressing the chart. The rest of the time we'll use the charts of those attending the workshop to show how to read the progressed chart.

Cost is $15 plus bring a salad for a buffet lunch. Please call 636-3856 to make a reservation if you plan to attend.

Hats off to fashion

Kathy Weems, owner-buyer of the Velvet Coach, Frankfort, second from right, gives modeling tips to Christ Hospital Auxiliary members Carolyn Christer, Jo Ann Lipinski, Betty Nyquist, and Anita Bolanos, all of whom will model in the Christ Hospital Auxiliarys fall fashion show, "Hats Off to Fashion." The show will be presented September 20 at the Lexington House, and models will represent all three Evangelical Hospital Association hospitals, Christ Hospital in Oak Lawn, Good Samaritan Hospital in Downers Grove, and Good Shepherd Hospital in Barrington.

Ambassadors feature Don Shire in concert

Ambassadors for Christ has planned three 8:30 pm concerts for the next 3 months.

The first one will be on July 30th at Immanuel Christian Reformed Church, 8302 Normandy, (6700 W) Burbank, where Rev Gary P. Hutt is the pastor.

It will feature Don Shire, trumpeter extraordinary who is also a fine vocal soloist. In addition to playing the trumpet, Don also plays the flugelhorn and has worked with the Moody Concert Band. He is enrolled as a student in Christian-Ed/Music Course and has also performed with Dave Boyer and John W. Peterson at the Arie Crown Theatre. There is no admission charge but a free will offering will be received.

"Hole in One" for Art Alaniz

How does it feel to hit a "Hole In One" — you can ask Art Alaniz, Director of Marketing and Public Relations at Holiday Inn In Oak Lawn. This fete was accomplished during the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Golf Outing on the 151 yard — 11th Hole at Palos Country Club. The "Ace" has been recorded as official by the management of the club.

According to Alaniz, the Reverend Desmond Walsh of County Mayo, Ireland, was more excited than be was over the once in a life-time bappening.

PLAN LCM INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Final arrangements have been made for the fourth annual Little Company of Mary Hospital Invitational Tournament. Tennis and racquetball enthusiasts will compete on Sunday, August 20. Golfers will tee off at the beautiful Beverly Country Club on Monday, August 21. Entertainment will be provided by the Pacific Islanders, an Hawaiian Show direct from Shanghai Lil's, and the John Kenny Trio. Special guests of honor will be Dr Roy M. Langdon and Dr Fred R. Zeiss.

This spectacular tournament will raise funds to sustain the full service Oncology Center which is one of the most advanced units of its kind for the treatment of cancer patients in metropolitan Chicagoland.

Participants will have an opportunity to win fabulous prizes including new automobiles. Tickets are priced at $250 each. Further details concerning this tournament can be obtained by calling the Public Relations Department at 422-6200 ext 381.

Elke Sommer to star in "Born Yesterday"

Elke Sommer, the popular German import who has starred many times at Drury Lane Theatres, will return on August 1 thru 27 to star in Garson Kanin's comedy, "Born Yesterday."

Miss Sommer will recreate the role of the naive friend of a millionaire who suddenly finds himself under investigation in the two act comedy which will be directed by Tod Booth.

Elke Sommer last appeared in the play two years ago at the Drury Lane North Theatre.

Also featured in the cast will be: Joe Creco, Al Nuti, Tom Alderman, Ed Meekin, Jane MacIver, Steve Merle, Fred Michaels and Mark Norby.

Elke Sommer has distinguished herself as a light comedy star on television and in the movies and in Drury Lane productions such as "Cactus Flower," "Love in E Flat," "Saving Grace," and "A Shot in the Dark."

Performances at Drury Lane South Theatre are Tuesday thru Friday at 8:30; Saturday 6 and 9:30 pm and Sunday 3:30 and 7 pm.

Tickets range in price from $3.50 to $4.75 with dinner/theatre combinations available from $10 to $11.50.

PARAPSYCHOLOGY SERIES SCHEDULED

Anita Mitchell, Joseph DeLouise and Eddie Fields will bring three views of parapsychology to Moraine Valley College in August.

"From Outer to Inner Space" is Anita Mitchell's topic at 8 pm Tuesday, August 8. She is the wife of Dr Edgar Mitchell (sixth man to step down on the moon), co-founder with him of the Noetic Sciences Institute. She will discuss the understanding of mind and body relationships and total human awareness and potential.

Joseph De Louise presents a lecture with audience participation. He is the psychic who correctly described the Tate murders and the killers' hideout. He predicted the exact date of their arrest. During his program someone is certain to ask him about his prediction of the Chappaquiddick incident.

Tickets are $6 per person for the entire series or $2 for each program. Additional information and advance reservations are available from the Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills; phone 974-4300, ext 361-362.

NON-TRADITIONAL CAREERS FOR WOMEN

According to Moraine Valley College, women often are caught in a "career trap" when they select a program of study. The college staff currently is suggesting that women consider all the career opportunities and not just those that have been traditionally women's careers.

The college offers more than 30 one- and two-year career programs. All of them are suitable for qualified women students who are interested in the field and can see favorable job opportunities.

According to several MVCC program coordinators, the returning women students (those who have been away from school or the job for a period of time) seem most willing to consider the non-traditional careers. Currently several applicants are considering Nondestructive Evaluation, Design Drafting, Industrial Engineering Technology, Heating and Air Conditioning and Security and Loss Prevention.

For information about these and the other 30 programs, contact the MVCC Admissions and Records Center, 1500 Bldg, 10900 S 88th Ave, phone 974-4300, ext 262-263.

CAREER OPTIONS IN TRANSPORTATION AVAILABLE AT MVCC

The two-year Transportation Program offered by Moraine Valley College offers several career options for those interested in the transportation industry.

Students may select a career as tracing coordinator, rate clerk, accounts supervisor, traffic manager, safety director, claims manager, dispatcher and executive secretary.

The position may be in trucking, railway, water carrier, airline, pipeline or related industry.

For those already in the field, MVCC's courses offer transportation employees a change to upgrade and update their skills.

MVCC INVITES WOMEN TO "RETURN TO SCHOOL" SESSION

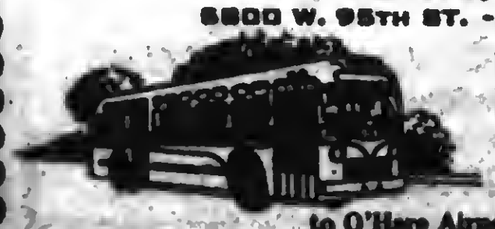
Moraine Valley College invites women to a special "Return to School" orientation and registration session on Tuesday, August 15 at the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills. The hours are 10 am to noon or 7 to 9 pm.

According to Evelyn Staehle, MVCC counselor, the returning women are encouraged to consider enrollment in a special grouping of classes that was developed specifically for "The Returning Woman."

According to the course instructors, the approach helps participants to write effectively and creatively, develop self-confidence and self-direction and appreciate contemporary social issues.

Those completing the program receive 8 hours of college credit. The class will meet from 9 am - noon, Monday, Wednesday, Friday starting August 28.

For additional information contact the MVCC Guidance and Counseling Office; L Building, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills; phone 974-4300, ext 275.



TWO RECEIVE AWARDS

Tracey Thompson and Jim Dunning were selected as the recipients of the Oak Lawn Community High School Class of 1978 Outstanding School Service Award. The award honors two graduates for their time and effort in working for their fellow students, school and community. Bill Hill, Senior Class Faculty sponsor, and Dr Ben Smith, Student Council Faculty sponsor, presented Tracey and Jim with plaques commemorating their service.

Jenner to chair Sheriff Elrod Citizens Committee

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod has announced that Albert E. Jenner, Jr, distinguished attorney, will serve as chairman of his Citizens Committee.

Jenner, who was chief special counsel to the minority of the United States House of Representatives Committee on the Impeachment Inquiry respecting Richard M. Nixon (Watergate Comm), held a news conference with other members of the Citizens Committee to Re-Elect Sheriff Richard J. Elrod on July 10.

"I am proud to serve as chairman of Sheriff Elrod's Citizen's Committee. He has run the Office of Sheriff with honesty, integrity and excellence," Jenner said. He added, "I have long believed that those who have served capably and honestly in important public office should be supported for re-election irrespective of their party affiliation."

Jenner was appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson to serve on the Presidential National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence and he was appointed by Chief Justice Earl Warren as senior counsel to the Warren Commission.

Jenner, senior partner of the law firm of Jenner and Block, is a native Chicagoan. Throughout his career, Jenner's stature as an outstanding attorney has received national recognition.

He received a J.D. degree from Illinois U in 1930 and was admitted to the Illinois bar. He has received L.L.D. degrees from John Marshall Law School, Columbia College, Notre Dame U, Northwestern U, William Mitchell Law School and Michigan U.

Christ Hospital to host Open House July 30

The staff of Christ Hospital's new hemodialysis unit will host a public Open House on Sunday, July 30 from 1 to 4 pm.

Located on the 4th floor of the hospital's south wing, the dialysis unit serves patients suffering from both chronic and acute kidney disease. One of less than a dozen such hospital units in the Chicago area, Christ's hemodialysis unit provides life-saving services to patients with chronic kidney failure. Dialysis machines replace the human kidney function by filtering out the poisons and impurities in the patient's blood.

The staff of 17 nurses and two nephrologists currently dialyze 45 patients on a weekly basis.

The new unit is capable of idalyzing 12 patients at any given gime. Since the opening of the new unit in Aprii, over 2000 hemodialysis treatments have been administered to both inpatients and outpatients of Christ Hospital.

Christ Hospital works in conjunction with Rush-Presbyterian St Luke's Medical Center for patients who have had kidney transplants. Eight transplants have been performed with 3 being successful. Many dialysis patients presently await kidney transplants.

This new, enlarged hemodialysis facility is bright and cheery, and provides a pleasant atmosphere for both the patients and the staff.

Dist 218 budget on display

The tentative budget for fiscal 1978-79 is now on display at the Community High School District 218 Administration Center, 5933 W 115th St, Alsip.

The CHSD 218 Board of Education has authorized the advertisement of the availability of the budget documents for public inspection during the next month, prior to the adoption of the final budget. A public hearing on the proposed budget will be conducted at 8 pm, Monday, August 14 at the Center.

The tentative budget for fiscal 1978-79 totals $19,716,830 and reflects a balanced budget in which expenses will not exceed revenues.

OAK LAWN YOUTH COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission has several field trips planned for the month of August beginning with Horseback Riding August 2 to 10 am. Turkey Runn in Manskull, Indiana will be the destination for an overnight Canoe Trip on August 4 and 5. The following weekend the Youth Commission will be going to the Wisconsin State Fair, Friday, August 11. A Pool Party will be held at the Southwest Pool on Monday, August 14.

On Thursday, August 17 the Youth Commission with the assistance of Senior Citizens will be sponsoring a Golf Tournament at Palos Country Club. The final scheduled event in August is an Outdoor Concert on Saturday, August 26 which will be held in front of the Village Hall from 6:30 to 10:30. Permission slips and registration for each trip are available (and necessary) from the Youth Commission office located at 9630 Southwest Highway.

The Youth Commission would also like to remind all of their teen center which is open on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights from 6:30 to 10:30 and Saturday from 6:30 to 11:30 with a band appearing every other Friday night.

Remember, this is your final month before returning to school so why not take advantage? Don't wait until the end of the summer when you will be saying how boring your vacation had been.

"BRAIN BOWL" AT SIMMONS JUNIOR HIGH

The first annual "Brain Bowl" at Simmons Junior High School in Oak Lawn was a popular success with the students and parents invited to attend. Based on the "It's Academic" TV show, it gave 18 seventh graders and 18 eighth graders the chance to respond quickly to questions which stumped many of the adults in the audience. Asking the questions, left, is teacher Rich Larson. Watching the colored lights to see which team gets a crack at the answer is teacher Ken Schutt. Scorekeepers, seated in the rear, are Karen Marjan and Lisa Matha. The 8th grade team members at the tables are, from left: Mike Carollo, Laurie Gisewski, Linda C. Anderson. Diane Gesiakowski, Mary Mitchell and Tim Anderson. Cindy Koncelski, Dan Manley and Ron Frazier.

PARK LAWN WELCOMES NEW DIRECTOR

Jim Weise, associate-director of the Park Lawn School and Activity Center, pauses in the busy day's work to welcome Tom Stepanek, the new executive-director of the center at 10833 LaPorte Avenue, Oak Lawn.

Stepanek comes to Park Lawn from the Ray Graham Association in Addison, Illinois, where he was Director of Rehabilitation Services. Earlier experiences also include counseling with the Department of Vocational rehabilitation.

Stepanek earned his bachelors degree from Southern U and his masters from Illinois Institute of Technology and has extensive training in rehabilitation and supervision. In private life, Tom Stepanek lives in Winfield with his wife and three children.

EXCHANGE LABELS FOR EDUCATION EQUIPMENT

As part of the Labels for Education Program over 9000 labels were redeemed by the Oak View Student Council, Oak View School, 4625 W 110th Street, Oak Lawn. The redeemed labels were used to obtain physical educational materials and equipment which the Oak View Student Council presented to Miss Maureen Lewis, Oak View Physical Education Teacher. The equipment obtained from the Campbell Soup Drive will be used in the school's physical education program according to Principal, George Kernwein.

Bit o' Trivia

Frontier justice: In one year's litigation in Hennepin (Putnam County), almost every settler was pressed into jury duty to form either the petit or grand jury, though there was only one case to be tried, an indictment against a bigamist. The grounds were not against bigamy in principle; the jurists deemed it unfair for one man to have two wives, while most of them were without any.

Income tax assistance is offered free to retirees

A 46-page "1977 Retirement Income Tax Guide," offered free as a public service by the American Association of Retired Persons and National Retired Teachers Association, provides helpful, easy-to-follow tips on preparing income tax returns, including up-to-date information on the provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 and the new form 1040.

In addition to a simple, line-by-line explanation of Form 1040, the Guide offers practical advice on filing requirements; treatment of pension, Social Security and other retirement income; special deductions and exemptions for retirees; and record-keeping. The Guide also advises when and where to get outside tax preparation help.

According to government surveys, nearly half of the millions of older Americans who file tax returns each year may be overpaying their income taxes.

Methods of determining tax deductions and liabilities become far more complex when persons reach age 65.

For a free copy of the "1977 Retirement Income Tax Guide," write to AARP-NRTA, P.O. Box 2400, Long Beach, California 90801.

For retirees who need tax assistance, the 10-million-member Associations also sponsor a free tax counseling service for older taxpayers in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.

For the location of the Tax-Aide program, write: Tax-Aide, c/o AARP-NRTA, Dept. PR, 1909 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20049.

"Show and Sell" Fair planned at MVCC

Artists and craftsmen can sell as well as show their wares at Moraine Valley Comm College's arts and crafts fair, Show and Sell, scheduled for Sunday, Sept 24.

"We would like to have all the artists and craftsmen from the area," Alice Ihrig, MVCC civic and cultural director, said. "We have a large area on the campus for those who participate and plenty of parking for those who come to look and buy."

According to Ihrig, the college is planning to hold the fair annually.

Tables for participants are $2 each. Those interested in reserving tables call 974-4300, ext 369-361.

YOUTHS PACK BOATING CLASSES

More than 9,000 Illinois youngsters have earned a special operator's license thru the Illinois Department of Conservation's boating safety program that started in February. State Rep Herb Huskey (r) with advice from William Brey, chief of the department's Law Enforcement Division, drafted a new law last year which requires youths between the ages of 12 and 17 to earn the operator's certificate before they can drive a power boat without adult supervision. Youths between the ages of 10 and 11, and those between 12 and 17 without this certificate, can only operate the craft with adult guidance. The law also stipulates that no one under the age of 10 can drive the boat under any circumstances.

Some 700 boating safety instructors are teaching the safety classes year round. Participating groups include the Coast Guard Auxiliary, U.S. Power Squadron, American Red Cross and various school systems. Specific information about class locations can be obtained from Huskey at 424-5000.

NEW INTERESTS FOR THOMPSONS

Jack Thompson, at right, is showing the new Pacer Super Sport moped, while his son, Chuck, gets the feel of the Packer Sport. Both sleek new mopeds are available with both single and two speed engines, and are currently being marketed at Jack Thompson's Oldstown, 4050 W 95th St.

Reverend Lee welcomed

Rev Geoffrey Lee from Tyrie Scotland was honored with a special reception June 25 at Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn. Rev Lee is serving as summer exchange pastor, while Rev Richard Rogers of Trinity serves 3 churches in Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

Reception host was Elenore Sefcik, Clerk of the Session. Reception arrangements were coordinated by Evelyn Orton. The official welcome was offered by LaVerne Orton. Rev Lee was accompanied by his wife and his daughters Janice and Susan.

Also attending the reception were: Jay Bergamini, Oak Lawn Village Trustee; Jayne Powers, Oak Lawn Village Clerk; and Millie Yourell, wife of State Representative Bus Yourell. Mrs Yourell presented Rev Lee with an official resolution of the Illinois General Assembly sponsored by "Bus" Yourell welcoming Rev Lee to his exchange pastorate in Oak Lawn.

Citizens Coalition Golf Outing honors Mayor Ernie Kolb

Working together planning a gala "SECOND ANNUAL GOLF OUTING" to honor Oak Lawn Mayor Ernie Kolb are (l to r) Patt Glynn, Arlene Bergamini, Kathy Vogrich, George Smadinos, Jay Bergamini, Ron Stancik, Mayor Ernie Kolb, Jayne Powers, Joe Vogrich, Joe Powers, Milt Anderson, Sharyn Guerin, Peggy Kolb and Pat Stancik.

A great day of fun and festivity is being planned for the CITIZENS COALITION SECOND ANNUAL GOLF OUTING to honor Oak Lawn's MAYOR ERNIE KOLB, a member of the group. Other members, Trustees Jay Bergamini, Ron Stancik, Joe Vogrich and Village Clerk Jayne Powers, have set the date for Wednesday, August 23. All Oak Lawners are invited to participate as well as the many friends from surrounding communities.

Golf tee-off time at Palos Country Club, 131st Southwesy Highway, starts at 7 am. The days events will feature the ever popular "Beer" and "Betting" holes and all of the necessary refreshments for staying power. 15 trophies will be awarded at the dinner that evening.

Because of an over capacity crowd of well-wishers last year, who came out in tribute to the well-liked and respected Mayor Kolb, the dinner this year will be held at the Martinique Restaurant in Evergreen Park. Cocktails will be at 7 pm followed by a steak dinner at 8 pm. Gayle Kolb and The George Hansen Trio will provide the entertainment for the evening. Gayle is the lovely and very talented daughter of Mayor Kolb.

For tickets and reservations call 425-5222 or 423-5861.

Nursing students graduate from LCMH

The Little Company of Mary School of Nursing Mass and commencement exercises were held recently at the hospital with 43 graduates participating in the impressive ceremonies. Fr Thomas McNeff was the principal concelebrant of the mass, Dr Joseph J. McCarthy delivered the commencement address and Dr Marilyn Nissin-Sabat was the guest speaker. Paul R. The LCM graduation class of 1978 pictured above is, bottom row from left, Sharon Peck, Mary Madaj, Cynthia Bellairi, Donna Creechbaum, Jerome Janis, Laura Collins, Catherine Smith, Laura Olson and Cheryl Aleksich. Second row, [illegible], Mary Dominick, Carol Tkachewicz, Mary Fran Fitzgerald, Rita McGuire, Mary Taylor, Kathleen Randle, Shirley Mis, Linda Ruksha, Katherine Scanlon, Sandra Kozicki, Patricia Balcarcel and Michelle Thompson. Third row, from left, Daniel Heenan, Cynthia Cristelli, Mary Ann Wetzel, Georgeanne Schroeder, Gail Mollenhouse, Colleen Pacocha, Anita Sendra, Deborah McElligott, Marikay King, Deborah Paradowski, Lorayne Huskey, Diane Abrant, Patricia Biros, Susan Calzavara, Margaret Bertman, Charmaine Verbeek, Rozanne Fox, Barbara Scanlon, Donna Kasson, Glora Christensen, Marjery Claybourne and Ben Bautista.

The LCM School of Nursing opened in 1930 and conferred diplomas to its first six graduates, all Sisters of Little Company of Mary, in 1933. Since then, 1530 registered nurses have graduated from the school. Sister Michael Murray, LCM, is the Director of the Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing.

Lux to spearhead Lions Candy Day Campaign

Lawrence E. Lux will help engineer and plan the 1978 Candy Day Campaign for much of the Chicago area, it was announced by the Lions of Illinois Foundation, coordinator for the fund-raising event.

Lux will use many of his skills as a Civil Engineer and City Planner for the Village of Oak Lawn in helping organize the statewide event. The goal this year is $1,000,004; it will be the fourth year for a million-dollar goal.

Lux recently began his second year as a District Trustee from Lions District 1-A, serving on the Foundation's Board of Trustees. One of his first jobs in this new fiscal year will be to oversee his district's Candy Day Jamboree to be held at 6 pm Wednesday, Sept 6 at the Martinique Restaurant. Purpose of the Jamboree is as a planning session for Lions from throughout the district, one of 12 in the state. Lux's district has 98 Lions Clubs with more than 4600 members.

Candy Day this year will be held Friday, Oct 13. The Lions of Illinois Foundation is an arm of Illinois Lions Clubs. It is a non-profit Foundation chartered by the state to administer well-known Lions programs to aid the blind and visually handicapped. New recently are programs to help the deaf and hearing impaired as well as the blind and visually handicapped.

As a trustee, Lux is responsible for the programs and activities of the Foundation in his district. He is directly involved in administrative responsibilities, including spearheading of fund-raising projects.

Lux joined the Lions in 1966. He is a member of the Mt Greenwood Lions Club. He formerly held all offices in the Alsip Lions Club and is a former Regional Membership Chm, Zone Chmn and District Activities Chm.

Lux, an Oak Lawn resident, graduated from Brother Rice and Western Illinois University. He is [illegible] College, where he was Student Body President. He also has attended Northwestern University and Roosevelt University.

Kiwanis to hear Judge Montelione

Wayne Baxtrom, Program Chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club has announced that Judge Anthony S. Montelione of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Thursday, August 17. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th Street at 12:15 pm.

Judge Montelione will speak on "As The Judicial System Is Today". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Montelione was appointed to the Circuit Court by the Illinois Supreme Court in May, 1977. Prior to the judiciary, he served as an assistant state's attorney specializing in the trial of financial crimes. He also has published in this field. He is a member of the Justinian Society of Lawyers and the Southwest Bar Assn. Judge Montelione is currently a candidate as judge in the upcoming November election. He is presently assigned to the Fifth Municipal Court and will preside over the first suburban narcotics court in Illinois that will be in operation on September 13.

District 218 to issue funding bond

In a special meeting on July 25, the Community High School District 218 Board of Education adopted resolutions expressing its intent to issue funding bonds for the purpose of paying teachers' orders and accrued interest for the period from January thru November, 1978.

The issuance of these bonds, in the amount of $4,337,000, represents the final step in the district's plan to eliminate a financial deficit by converting short-term debt to long-term debt, extending payment of a period of time and allowing the debt to be reduced at a manageable rate.

Library to hold rare amnesty week

The Oak Lawn Public Library will hold a rare amnesty week August 21 to 26 when all overdue Library materials may be returned without any fines being charged. Following the weeklong grace period a new security system will be put into operation August 28.

Only once before in the Library's history has an amnesty been declared and that was more than 15 years ago. Library patrons are urged to take advantage of this unique opportunity.

Faced with mounting losses of nearly $10,000 a year in missing Library materials, the Library Board of Directors recently awarded a contract for a new security system which will be activated August 28 at both the entrances of the library. When a patron checks out library materials, a charged magnetic tape will be de-activated allowing passage through the security gates.

Any materials that have not been checked out will cause the system to buzz and lock the gates. Library users will then be asked to return to the circulation desk and repeat the check-out procedure.

In response to the needs and requests of Oak Lawn residents, the library has been acquiring approximately $100,000 worth of new library materials each year. Many of these purchases are expensive, specialized reference works valued at $45 to $60 or more apiece that have subsequently disappeared from the shelves.

The security system, made by Gaylord-Magnavox, cost $26,125.

STATEWIDE DAY OF SACRIFICE, FASTING & PRAYER — AUGUST 15

The original proclamation declaring August 15 as the STATEWIDE DAY OF SACRIFICE, FASTING AND PRAYER, by Governor Jim Thompson, was presented to Sister John Schlax LCM, Provincial Superior of the American Province of Little Company of Mary by Senator Frank Ozinga, 8th District, who sponsored this resolution of religious significance.

Lack of quorum postpones hearings

The Oak Lawn Village Hall was jumping this past Monday evening. While a full house was gathered downstairs for two scheduled public hearings, the Public Works Committee was laying out future plans on the second floor.

Over 130 persons were on hand for the Park Lawn hearing for a variation of zoning from R-1 to allow the building of a residential center at 108th & LaPorte, and a hearing for a variation of zoning, R-1 to P-Parking at 5624 W 87th Place.

Failing to have enough board members to represent a quorum the meeting was postponed until Monday, August 21. It was announced, that thru the request of the Park Lawn representatives, this hearing will be postponed until Monday, Sept 18.

Present at the Public Works committee meeting were: Chairman John Cleveland and Trustees Jay Bergamini and Joe Vogrich along with Village Manager Dick O'Neill and Director of Public Works Don Canning.

Under discussion was the water rates to other communities that are considered too low and the users have thus far resisted a raise in rates from the Village of Oak Lawn. It was determined that all figures relating to cost and maintenance of the village's water system be compiled for presentation to the purchasers in an effort to reach an agreement.

Although there have been meetings prior to this on a raise in rates they have proved unsuccessful. The trustees believe that they could possibly have more influence on the various board members and have proposed setting a meeting date with them in the near future.

In other business Cleveland asked Don Canning what his needs and goals are for next year. Canning said that the needs are determined by the budget, his goal is the best services for the Village of Oak Lawn.

The trustees start reviewing the budget soon and it is to their best interest to have some pre-knowledge on what is top priority for the department heads.

Among the needs, or goals, expressed by Canning was additional personnel to implement a forestry unit and he would also like his department to do street maintenance. He believes if the village is properly equipped Public Works could do the work cheaper than outside contractors. Cleveland appeared to lean towards this idea.

Trustee Ron Stancik was also present at the meeting as a spectator.

GEORGE M. KRUNIC'S MARQUERTY EXHIBITED AT FIRST NATIONAL

Ozinga and Huskey to chair sign-up for Thompson proposition

Eighth District Republican State Rep Herb Huskey and Senator Frank Ozinga have been designated co-chairmen of "The Thompson Proposition."

If a minimum 625,000 registered voters sign appropriate petitions by August 21, Illinois residents can then decide on the November 7 ballot if they want to impose a ceiling on taxes and spending by the state, local units of government and school districts.

"Every resident of this state has been feeling the adverse effects of government overspending in their pocketbooks, and this is an excellent opportunity for them to tell public officials just bow unhappy they are," Huskey stated. "You first have to cut spending before you can reduce taxes.

"There is a great deal of work to be done in the next few weeks, though, and I urge all concerned taxpayers to not only sign these petitions, but also gather names from their friends, neighbors and relatives," he said. "A combined effort worked in California, and it can result in constitutional changes and passage of other legislation here that will make government at all levels accountable for spending public funds."

Huskey, who is also Worth Township Republican Committeeman, says petitions will be available at both his district legislative office, 6201 W 95th Street, and the Regular Republican Worth Township headquarters, 4011 W 95th St. Volunteer signups and other information can be obtained from him at 424-5000.

Make Today Count at LCMH

The Oncology Committee of Little Company of Mary Hospital is conducting a program called "Make Today Count" for persons having cancer or other life-threatening diseases. Family members and friends are also welcome. This program is open to interested people who are hospitalized as well as those who have returned to the community. Having been a patient at LCM Hospital is not a prerequisite to attend these sessions.

Meetings are held from 7:30 to 9 pm on the second Monday of each month and are coordinated by Sister Rosemary Abramovich, O.P., Certified Pastoral Associate and Lois Sharp, R.M.,*M.S., Clinical Specialist.

In these regular bi-monthly sessions, participants share the problems of learning to live with a disease and trying to cope with these problems in a positive way. Depression, loneliness and fear often trouble persons with life-threatening illnesses. Frequently, they feel isolated in this new identity when confronted with their diagnosis. For further info call 422-6200, ext 110.

Reynolds offers free posters

Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company is offering children free, color-your-own recycling posters. The posters depict the aluminum recycling process which has been so successful at Reynolds. The posters are available by sending your name and address to Reynolds Metals Company, Public Relations Dept, P.O. Box 239, Brookfield, IL 60513.

Reynolds pays 17 cents per pound for aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum items such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays and dip, pudding and meat containers. Certain other items including aluminum siding, gutters, storm doors and window frames, and lawn furniture tubing are also worth 17 cents a pound if properly prepared. This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with cans.

Mobile unit schedules may be obtained from the Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company's plant, 1120 Republic Dr, Addison 60101 (628-0363). The plant, also a major collection and payment point under the program, is open from 9 am to 4:30 pm Tuesday thru Saturday.

Hynes move guarantees tax relief now

Anything can happen during an election year as State President Thomas C. Hynes found when his property tax relief program reached the hands of the Governor. It is not uncommon for a politician to grab on to another's brainchild, alter it, and proclaim it as his own.

Hynes and other Democrats, faced with the problem of voting for or against the changes made by Governor Thompson, and later being blamed by the taxpayers for giving them no relief, did the wide thing in excepting the changes to guarantee tax relief now.

Hynes in announcing that he will accept the governor's changes in the Hynes homestead exemption bill, which provides a $1500 tax exemption from future increases in equalized assessed valuation said that this will mean a potential tax savings of between $100 and $150 a year for Illinois homeowners.

"This legislation, which was introduced with the support of Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis, House Speaker William A. Redmond, (D-Bensenville) and Majority Leader Michael J. Madigan (D-Chicago), is a major part of the legislative program of the Democratic Party, which always has led the right for tax relief," Hynes said.

Hynes said he had discussed the governor's amendatory veto with Bakalis and other Democratic leaders and that all of them agreed that they should go along with the changes because "the most important thing is to guarantee tax relief now."

As he removed the last remaining obstacle to meaningful tax relief for Illinois citizens, Hynes commented that it was "unfortunate" that the governor didn't choose either to offer a tax relief program of his own or to work with Hynes in developing the Democratic Party's program.

"Instead, he chose to make changes in one of my bills--changes that make it far more complicated and which can only increase the average taxpayer's difficulty in understanding his tax bill," Hynes said at a press conference in the State of Illinois Building, 160 N LaSalle. He pointed out that both the original bill and the amended version provide essentially the same amount of relief for taxpayers in Cook County. The average tax saving for Illinois homeowners would be between $100 and $150 a year, depending on local tax rates.

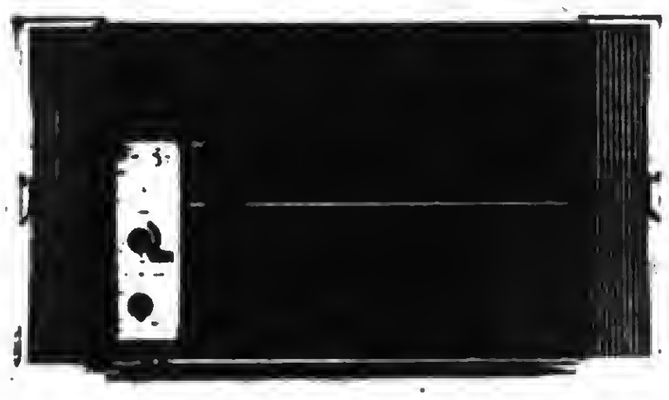
"My primary commitment is to make every effort to provide property tax relief and to reduce government spending whenever possible without jeopardizing necessary services," Hynes said.

After announcing that he will accept the governor's changes in his bill, Hynes, who is the Democratic candidate for Cook County assessor, promised to find a way to make the $1500 exemption from future increases in assessed valuation work.

He said he will appoint a committee to study implementation of the exemption and direct its members to recommend any necessary changes in the legislation in time to have them approved before next years tax bills go out.

When the exemption becomes law, the entire tax relief package Hynes introduced last April will be in effect.

The other three bills in the package, all already signed by the governor, will:



*Increase the assessment exemption for home improvements from the present %15,000 to $25,000.

*Allow property owners to do necessary repair and maintenance work without facing the possibility of assessment increases.

*Permit Illinois financial institutions to make reverse mortgages to help senior citizens on fixed incomes pay their real estate taxes.

Meier warns homeowners of phony inspectors

When summer turns to fall, altogether too many homeowners will be prey to practices of unscrupulous "furnace repairmen", according to Edward D. Meier, Executive Vice President, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Answering a knock on the door, the unsuspecting homeowner is confronted by a person posing as an inspector for the city or local utility. This impostor may even flash phony credentials.

The "inspector" will ask to see the furnace, claiming he is making a routine safety check. Upon seeing it, he will declare it unsafe. Among other things, he may say the unit is leaking gas. The inspector departs, leaving the homeowner in an agitated state.

The inspector's performance sets the stage for a salesman who magically appears on the front step that same day. He presents a contract for replacement or repair of the faulty furnace. Too often, the frightened homeowner signs on the dotted line. In the end, he may pay considerably more for the job -- and the work was not needed.

Although victims of this and other home repair and modeling schemes -- new roof, for example -- often are poor or elderly, Ken Orr, a spokesman for the Council of Better Business Bureaus, points out that the victims can be found in every economic or social strata. He adds that victims of natural disasters also are frequent targets of fraudulent operators.

Although the vast majority of repairmen and contractors are reliable and honest, Orr, the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors, and the National Association of Realtors offer the following tips to help you ferret out unscrupulous operators:

*Before letting an "inspector" in your house, call the appropriate city department or utility company and check credentials.

*Before signing any contract, know who you are dealing with. Call the Better Business Bureau and ask if any complaints have been filed against the repairman or firm. Ask how complaints have been handled.

*Ask for customer references, and take time to check them out. Reliable firms will gladly supply them.

*If the repairman claims to be bonded or insured, make sure he is, for how much, and what the bond or insurance covers.

*Don't be high-pressured into signing a contract. Seek bids from other firms in the same line of work. However, be certain that all firms are bidding on the same specifications.

*Never accept verbal promises unless they also are included in a written contract.

*Take time to read and understand the contract. Does it cover both labor and materials? Is the quality of materials to be used specified?

*Is clean-up specified in the contract? Will the contractor remove unused materials?

*Never sign a completion certificate before work is completed. If you do, you have no way of forcing a contractor to complete unfinished work.

*Find out if the firm provides liability and compensation insurance to protect you in case of accident. If not, will your homeowners insurance provide such coverage?

While taking these precautions can't insure that you won't be taken by a dishonest repairman, they certainly will reduce chances for getting stung, the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors advises.

SENIOR CITIZEN DISCOUNT DIRECTORY

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission and the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce wishes to announce the completion of the new Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Discount Directory.

The directory lists Oak Lawn merchants who offer discounts to residents of Oak Lawn who are 60 years of age or older.

Applications for discount cards and new discount books are available at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

Special thanks is extended to the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce and all participating merchants for making this program available to Oak Lawn senior citizens.

Bakalis explains states increased cash capacity

The State begins Fiscal Year (FY) 1979 $54 million better off than the end-of-the year general funds available balance of $86 million would indicate.

Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis, in his July report on the state's fiscal health, said the increased cash capacity is the result of three specific factors:

-Three fiscal 1978 H.E.W. grants totalling $25 million were temporarily delayed and were not received by the State of Illinois until the start of the new fiscal year.

-Transfer of $17 million in surplus money available from special state funds was not effected in June as called for by the Governor's budget and is thus available to the general funds during FY 1979.

-An additional $12 million which was available to suspend transfers out of the general funds to pay for debt service was not utilized in FY 1978 and is thus available for the current fiscal year.

The state's actual funding capacity as we start the first month of the new fiscal year is therefore $54 million higher than the end-of-the-year available balance of $86 million.

Indictment dismissed

Mr. Henry Jefferson, Jr. of Palos Hills, was dismissed by the U.S. District Court in Lafayette, Indiana on July 13, 1978. Mr. Jefferson was indicted along with nineteen other persons, by the U.S. Grand Jury in South Bend, Indiana in May, 1978.

The charges by the Federal Government were conspiracy in the interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicles and stolen property, alleging that a multi-million dollar theft ring in tractors and trailers existed among the persons.

Prior to trial in Lafayette, Indiana, several of the persons pleaded guilty to the charges. Several are currently on trial.

Mandatory safety courses available for youngsters

Youngsters who plan to enjoy the pastime of hunting, boating, or snowmobiling should sign up now for the Illinois Dept of Conservation's mandatory safety courses.

State law mandates all three courses for youthful participants in these activities. The hunter safety course is required for persons under the age of 16 who wish to hunt but have never before obtained an Illinois hunting license. The boating safety course is required for persons 12 thru 17 before they can operate a motorboat without adult supervision. The snowmobile safety course, likewise, is mandated by state law for children 12 through 15 before they can legally operate a snowmobile without adult supervision.

Although the courses are required for children, adults are also encouraged to take advantage of the instruction.

Persons wishing to enroll in a hunter, snowmobile or boating safety course should call the Chicago Office of the Dept of Conservation at 793-2070. Would-be participants will be referred to the hunter, snowmobile or boating safety inspector in their area, who will in turn enrolled in courses. The inspectors are persons qualified to train other safety instructors, said Conservation Police Officer Bruce Bernstein.

The courses are eight hours long and the services of all safety instructors are free. Sometimes a small fee is charged to cover the cost of rental of a hall or for materials, however.

WE UNDERSTAND YOUR EXPECTATIONS

(Part One of a series on ways to travel)

Jim Buschbach

Based on many years of travel experience we have earned a reputation for taking care of our clients; and we are dedicated to make each trip something to be long remembered.

IT IS THIS TYPE OF SERVICE that has our customers coming back happy and coming in later for repeat trips and ideas. So we would like you to know about the many ways of traveling in this series. Read them all as well as the other articles we will have for you.

FOR A FIRST TRIP TO EUROPE — we suggest you choose from the many tours we have that range from two to four weeks and include visits from six to eleven different countries.

These include the capital cities, London, Paris and Rome and some of the "out-of-the-way" places too. Then you have Rhine River cruises, Riviera beaches, Venetian trips, Spanish areas – the works. All have been fully traveled, all researched to give you the best for your money and time available.

So this is our first thought, come in to 5615 W 95th Street, and check over these delightful places to go. And to start, all we have to know is the time you wish to be away from the States. We can then begin to suggest travel adventures you'll remember for a long long time, give you great conversation for months when you come home. (Don't forget to give us a call when you return and tell us how much the trip meant to you.) See our next article for more.

LOCAL LADIES LUPUS VOLUNTEERS

Mrs Gloria Borst (l) of Burbank is currently serving as vice president of the Lupus Erythematosus Society of Illinois. Mrs Lois Burleson of Oak Lawn is fulfilling the job of financial secretary. Both ladies are victims of the disease lupus, and do all they can in the organization, so that one day the groups' goals of a cure for lupus may be achieved. Systemic lupus erythematosus (S.L.E.) is a serious rheumatic disease, incurable at this time, but controlable with proper treatment. Lupus strikes primarily young women of child bearing age, however, anyone can get lupus.

Mrs Borst and Mrs Burleson have been active in the Lupus Society for five years, and are working hard at this time preparing for "National Lupus Awareness Week," September 17-23 as proclaimed by President Jimmy Carter. For further information on lupus contact the society at Box 812, Chicago IL 60642 or call 779-3181.

I QUIT SMOKING

The social service department of Christ Hospital will offer its 23rd I Quit Smoking Clinic beginning Wednesday, September 6 in the Evangelical School of Nursing, 9345 S Kilbourn Avenue, Oak Lawn, from 7 to 8:30 pm.

The clinic will be held from 7 to 8:30 pm on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 6, 7 and 8 and on Monday and Tuesday, September 11 and 12.

The I Quit Smoking clinic sessions feature lectures and discussions by a Christ Hospital staff physician and respiratory therapist, a representative and volunteer of the American Cancer Society, and a health educator from Hinsdale Hospital. A film depicting the ill effects of smoking will be shown each evening.

Advance registration for the clinic is necessary and may be made by calling 425-8000, ext 5867. A fee of $2 is charged to cover costs.

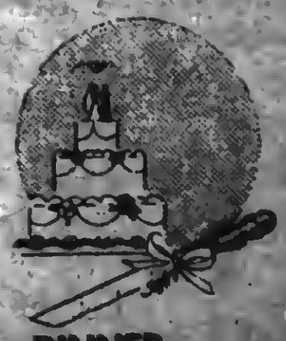
Columbus Parade queen contest open

Pretty girls of Italian descent are invited to enter the contest that will select a Queen of the Columbus Day Parade, to be held in downtown Chicago on Monday, October 9.

Patrick S. DeMoon, administrator of Central Community Hospital, and chairman of the 1978 parade, sponsored by the Joint Civic Committee of Italian Americans, announced the contest recently.



It is open to all single girls of Italian heritage, age 18 to 25, who live in the Chicago metropolitan area. Eligible young women may write to the Joint Civic Committee of Italian Americans, at 127 N. Dearborn St, Chicago, 60602, listing their names, address, date of birth, telephone number and their places of employment or the college they're attending. No special entry form is necessary.

The Columbus Day Queen and her court will reign over the parade and other events of the Columbus Day holiday, which will be the 21st observance of the occasion sponsored by the Joint Committee.

ALUMNI NOTES

REUNION

Lane School, as part of its silver anniversary, will hold a Sunday afternoon reunion for all the Lane School graduates, 1954 to 1969 on Sunday, November 12. Lane graduates are asked to call Lane School, 371-0720 for details.

Historical memorabilia on display at Historical Society

An exhibit of memorabilia from the First World War, in commemoration of the 60th anniversary of America's entry into the war, is now on display at the Oak Lawn Historical Society which is located at 9526 Cook Avenue on the second floor. Visitors will be able to view a collection of personal items, home-front activities, and souvenirs taken of veterans of the war taken at the Cook Avenue School in 1919. "Some seven of these men are unknown to us at the present time", said Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan. He added that they are hopeful that some visitor may be able to supply a name for the seven faces. The display will continue until the end of the anniversary year.

A packet of educational materials is available from the Society in conjunction with the exhibit. The kit contains worksheets which may be duplicated by the teacher to make any study of the war more meaningful. The Oak Lawn Historical Society is open to the public on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons from 1 until 5 pm. Any person interested in becoming a member of the Society may obtain information by visiting or writing the above address or calling 599-9223.

PLAN LCM INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Final arrangements have been made for the fourth annual Little Company of Mary Hospital Invitational Tournament. Tennis and racquetball enthusiasts will compete on Sunday, August 20. Golfers will tee off at the beautiful Beverly Country Club on Monday, August 21. Entertainment will be provided by the Pacific Islanders, an Hawaiian Show direct from Shanghai Lil's, and the John Kenny Trio. Special guests of honor will be Dr Roy M. Langdon and Dr Fred R. Zeiss.

This spectacular tournament will raise funds to sustain the full service Oncology Center which is one of the most advanced units of its kind for the treatment of cancer patients in metropolitan Chicagoland.

Participants will have an opportunity to win fabulous prizes including new automobiles. Tickets are priced at $250 each. Further details concerning this tournament can be obtained by calling the Public Relations Department at 422-6200 ext 381.

Christ deb enjoys summer

Mary Jo Kapelinski

Camping and the outdoors are what Christ Hospital 1978 debutante Mary Jo Kapelinski enjoys most about her summers.

Mary Jo is the second daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward L. Kapelinski to become a Christ Hospital debutante. Her sister, Maggie, was a 1974 debutante. Mary Jo will bow at the 20th Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion on December 27 at the Condesa del Mar Restaurant.

This summer, Mary Jo will be at Camp Manistee in Michigan as a counselor-in-training. Manistee is the South Cook County Girl Scout Camp. She feels this may help her to gain experience in the area of parks and recreation, the major she intends to study after she graduates next spring.

Mary Jo also loves to sing and has recently joined a guitar group at St Linus Church.

At Harold L. Richards High School, Mary Jo has been an alto in the concert choir for two years and also in the varsity choir for one year. She is a member of Tri-M, an honorary acting society. Mary Jo's most recent display of talent was in the spring musical "The Sound of Music" when she portrayed a postulate.

Mary Jo was also a cheerleader for Richards for two years and has been involved with the Spanish club this past school year.

SUMMARY OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING

Contracts for asphalt repair and cabinetry for a new college technical program were awarded by the board of trustees of Moraine Valley College at its regular meeting of July 18.

Ready Paving and Construction Co will repair approximately 6500 square feet of asphalt for $9900. Prairie State Associates will supply the cabinetry and work tables for the Non-destructive Evaluation Program for $4803.

The board approved new rates for rental of classrooms from other schools for off-campus classes. MVCC will pay $10 per night for general classrooms and $18 per night for specialized rooms.

The college will survey a proposed site for a warehouse building for its plant operations. Currently, this division of the college operates out of several houses on the campus. The college plans to build this structure without a request for state funds. After completion of the survey, building plans will be presented to the board for consideration.

In regular busines, the board approved payment of $732,464. from the educational fund; $171,074. from the buildingand maintenance fund; $26,275. from the auxiliary enterprise fund; $60,881. from the restricted purposes fund, and $5,345. from the student activity fund.

MVCC SEEKS 1978 HIGH SCHOOL GRADS

High school graduates from the 1978 class have a special invitation from Moraine Valley College to look over the wide variety of classes and career opportunities that are available at MVCC.

According to the college's Admissions Office, many recent high school grads who were not college-bound have shown an interest in attending classes even though they have a job.

"We offer classes from 8 in the morning to 11 at night," G. Jack Bradley, MVCC registrar said. "Young students can try various kinds of classes in their spare time. They can check out our one- and two-year degree programs or acquire the credits and transfer to a four-year insittution."

Classes begin August 28. Applications are available at the MVCC Admissions Office, 1500 Building, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills.

PLOWS sponsors learning event

On Friday, August 25 the PLOWS Council on Aging is sponsoring an all day learning event at the Sheraton Tower. PLOWS, a not-for-profit organization offering essential services to persons over 60 in the southwest suburbs encourages all senior citizens to attend. The theme of the event will be "It's never too late to learn."

Representatives from Moraine Valley College, the Educational Network, St Xavier College and local senior centers will be available to offer information to interested persons.

Specific details will be presented on how one can earn a high school diploma, associate arts degree, college degree, certification, or just enroll in a history, psychology or hobby class.

At the PLOWS conference, there will be information on the many programs that encourage adults to return to the classroom. Scholarships for older adults are now available. Counselling programs help the new student decide what courses to take. The conference will help each individual explore the reasons why they are interested in going back to school.

In addition, may schools give credit for life experiences. This can greatly benefit older adults who have many life experiences for which they can receive credit. This may include experiences gained as a housewife, parent, or in an occupation.

For information on registration, call 422-6722.

JUDGE CRANE TO SPEAK AT KIWANIS

Joseph Fanelli, president of the Evergreen Park Kiwanis, has announced that Associate Judge Ronald J. Crane of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Tuesday, August 22nd.

The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th St at 12:15 pm. Judge Crane will speak on "The Court System of Cook County". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Crane has been in the judiciary for 16 years trying civil and criminal cases in the suburban courts. He is a graduate of Northwestern U School of Law and the National College of State Judiciary. Judge Crane is a past vice president and a director of the Illinois Judges Association. Judge Crane, who has been recommended by the Chicago Bar Association, is currently a candidate for judge in the upcoming election.

SING A NEW SONG

All children ages 4 years thru 8th grade are invited to Vacation Bible School at Mt. Greenwood Reformed Church, 3509 W 111th St, August 14 - 18 from 9 to 11:30 am.

This year's theme is "Sing A New Song" and the children will participate in Bible Study, singing, crafts, recreation and refreshments.

Registration will take place at the church on Monday, August 14, 8:30 to 9 am promptly. There is no registration fee, however, a free-will offering will be taken each day for the World Home Bible League to help place Bibles in the public schools in Brazil. Each 75¢ contributed places one Bible in the classroom to be used as a textbook.

Among those on the teaching staff this year is Annette Busse from Oak Lawn.

On Sunday evening, August 20 at 6 pm at the church the children will participate in a closing program to which parents and friends are invited to see what the children have done throughout the week.

For further information, please call the church at 238-0067 or the Director, Dorothy Boersma, at 597-1876.

Concordia set for "Winning Run Contest"

On Saturday, August 12, Concordia Federal Savings will feature a White Sox "Double-Header" at their new Oak Lawn office, 4616 W 103rd Street. Between 11 am and 1 pm, White Sox stars, Eric Soderholm and Lerrin LaGrow, will visit with Concordia's customers and guests, autograph photographs, and assist in the prize drawing conclusion to Concordia's grand opening celebration. The lucky grand prize winner of a 5-minute shopping spree at Jewel Food Store at 103rd & Kenton will be announced, along with winners of other prizes in Concordia's WINNING RUN CONTEST. In addition to the grand prize drawing, there will be door prize drawings for those present, popcorn and lemonade, free autographed pictures and free balloons. Children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Concordia serves as a ticket outlet for the sale of White Sox tickets at all four financial BASES; Evergreen Plaza, Ford City, Alsip and Oak Lawn. "Teams" of financial counselors at all four Concordia offices are trying to COVER ALL BASES TO SERVE the southwest communities. The "Double-Header" on Saturday, August 12 will give southwest area neighbors an opportunity to become better acquainted with members of the White Sox Summer of '78. Eric Soderholm enjoyed his finest season in 1977 when he was selected as the American League Comeback Player of the Year with a fine showing when he pounded out 25 home runs an led all American League third basemen in fielding with a .978 average. The White Sox "Fireman of the Year" in 1977, Lerrin LaGrow saved 25 games and added another 7 victories to play a vital role in the success of the Comiskey Park Crew last summer. The big right-hander made 66 relief appearances in 1977 and had a superb earned run average of 2.46. Circle Saturday, August 12 on your Scorecard for fun, prizes and surprises at Concordia's "Double-Header".

Dist 122 tax rate drops

The property tax rate of Ridgeland School District 122 has dropped six cents, from $2.38 to $2.32 per hundred dollars of assessed property value.

This is the second consecutive year that the property tax has defied trends by going down in this district serving western Oak Lawn, the Southfield area of Bridgeview and the northern tip of Chicago Ridge.

Supt Robert Oicese notes that the district's new rate is among the lowest in Cook County, and in the bottom third for the State of Illinois.

At the same time, he points out, the district's achievement test results have risen steadily for the past seven years.

The tax rate in the district last year was seven cents lower than it was in 1976. Adding the six cent drop this year gives a rate 13 cents below that of two years ago, points out Dr Donald Johnson, assistant superintendent for business.

Dr Johnson said the accomplishment was made possible despite rising prices by stringent cost control in which everyone cooperated, and he praised the care taken by staff members to stretch each dollar as far as it could go.

CONGRESSMAN MARTY RUSSO RECEIVES GIFT PRINT

Roberta Wojten of the Illinois Office of Education, fecently presented a print to Congressman Marty Russo in his Washington office on behalf of the National Committee * Arts for the Handicapped, an educational affiliate of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. The print is the work of Larry Hopkins, a resident of the State of Illinois.

Named outstanding

Craig Smith, Oak Lawn Comm High School Class of 1977, completed his first semester at Illinois U with a straight A academic record. In honor of his achievement the Illinois U Mother's Assn presented the school with a Book Award. These awards were established in 1963-64, for the purpose of honoring academic excellence achieved by freshmen during their first semester at Illinois U and to recognize the role of high schools in making this achievement possible.

At OLCHS, Craig ranked 4th in his class and was an Illinois State Scholar and National Merit Finalist. He received the RCA National Merit Scholarship Award. Craig is the son of Mr and Mrs Robert Smith of Oak Lawn.

IVI qualifies Hynes

Illinois Senate President Thomas C. Hynes, the Democratic candidate for Cook County assessor, has won a qualified rating from the Independent Voters of Illinois (IVI).

The IVI board voted to find Hynes qualified after a lengthy discussion during which Hynes supporters stressed his record of honesty and integrity as a public servant and his successes as a leader since his election to the Senate presidency last year.

Hynes, who represents the 28th legislative district on the southwest side, has been a senator since 1971. In addition to serving as president of the Senate, this year he was a principal sponsor of the major tax relief bills passed by the General Assembly.

He was chief sponsor of a package of three bills which would provide tax relief for homeowners by providing substantial assessment exemptions.

A spokesman for the IVI described the board's July 26 action as an indication that Hynes is an "excellent" candidate for assessor. IVI members who support Hynes will be encouraged to work actively for his election in November.

CARTOON FANTASY

A delightful cartoon fantasy, "The Point", will be shown August 19 from 1 to 2:30 pm by the Children's Department and is free.

The film stars a young boy named Oblio, the only normal resident of a kingdom in which everything and everybody is pointed. When the evil count becomes jealous because Oblio is more popular than his own son, he exiles him to the Pointless Forest. There, through a series of adventures, he discovers that you don't have to be pointed to be important.

The film contains Harry Nilsson's hit song "Me and My Arrow". It is 75 minutes long and in color.

MINIATURE MUSICAL SCORES AVAILABLE

The Fine Arts Department is offering a new service to both serious musicians and interested afficionados. Complete miniature musical scores are now available for circulation on your library card.

There are more than 80 complete scores in the collection from Bach to Wagner, featuring the Brandenburg Concertos by Bach and Die Meistersinger von Nurnberg by Wagner.

Also featured in the collection are the works of: Chopin, Copland, Debussy, Dvorak, Bartok, Berlioz, Elgar, Franck, Grieg, Respighi, Saint-Saens and others.

Ask at the Fine Arts Desk on the library's second floor for a complete listing of the miniature scores available.

ART EXHIBIT

Nelida Ryl-Kuchar will be exhibiting her work on the balcony gallery of the library during the month of August. Her exhibit will be highlighted by a special demonstration of painting to music on August 25 at 7 pm in the library's Community Room.

Nelida enjoys painting portraits and will be exhibiting one she recently completed of the late Mayor Daley. She also hopes to paint Oak Lawn's Mayor Ernest Kolb.

FORT APACHE AND THE QUIET MAN

The classic film, "Fort Apache", will be shown August 15 at 7 pm. Directed by John Ford, the movie stars Henry Fonda, John Wayne, Shirley Temple, John Agar and Victor McLaglen.

Another John Ford classic, starring John Wayne, "The Quiet Man" will be shown Sept 19.

All showings begin at 7 pm in the downstairs community room at the library and are free.

Christ Blood Bank awards OLCHS

Oak Lawn Community High School recently received an award from the Christ Hospital Blood Bank for participating in their Blood Donor Program. Accepting the award in behalf of the students and staff were Tracey Thompson, Student Council President; Jim Dunning, Senior Class President; and Cathy Ott, National Honor Society President. The plaque presented by Thomas E. Moran, M.D., Director of the Christ Hospital Blood Bank, reads: Oak Lawn Community High School Blood Donors — With appreciation for Your Life Saving Generoisty — Christ Hospital Blood Bank.

During the past school year students and staff members donated 553 pints of blood at the monthly blood draws. 360 pints were donated during the 1976-77 school year. The monthly blood donor program is sponsored by the student organization's at the high school. Students 17 years of age or older may, according to Illinois law, donate blood. In adition to helping people in the Oak Lawn area in need of blood, the program provides a blood replacement plan for all Oak Lawn High School students and staff, and their families. Oak Lawn High School is proud of this record which exemplifies helping others in need.

SOX DAY AT JACK THOMPSON OLDSTOWN

A red letter day in the life of nine year old White Sox fan Mike Kennedy of Oak Forest was July 10th – it was Sox Day at Jack Thompson's Oldstown, and young Mike was a special guest.

Mike is shown here with Oldstown's Chuck Thompson, at left and Sox infielder Greg Pryor. Pryor was at Oldstown at 95th & Pulaski to give autographs and award bats, balls and helmets to visitors.

Greg left behind a number of tickets to future Sox games, which will be given to Oldstown showroom visitors during the next few weeks. "Stop in for details," invites Chuck, "you too, can have a real red letter day this summer of '78".

All ages invited to audition for chorus

Area residents of post-high school age who like to sing and can read music are invited to audition for the Moraine Valley College Community Chorus. Those interested can leave their name and phone number at the college's Public Information Office, A100, 10900 S. 88th Ave, Palos Hills; phone 974-4300, ext 284-285.

During the regular college semester, the chorus meets from 7 - 10 pm Mondays at Richards High School, 106th & Central. The chorus is a one-credit college course. Tuition is $12 for in-district residents.

The chorus was founded three years ago. The group presents a fall and spring concert each year and gives programs during the year for community clubs and organizations. Ralph Arnold is chorus director.

The membership is a mixture of all ages, young and not-so-young. Many of MVCC's district towns are represented.

FOOD PRESERVATION WORKSHOP

If you are planning to can or freeze foods for the first time, or for the first time in years, the Oak Lawn Park District and Illinois U Cooperative Extension Service have planned a workshop for you.

All persons interested in learning the correct "how to" processing methods of preserving foods are invited to attend.

Dorothy Landgraf and Katherine Jarrell, Illinois U Extension Advisers in Home Economics, will conduct the workshop which will be held Tuesday, August 22 from 10 am to noon at the Menard Activity Center, 90th and Menard.

Dorothy and Katherine feel that because foods costs continue to spiral upwards, the homemaker is faced with a real challenge to stay within her food budget. They feel that out of necessity the homemaker is now more than ever before willing to utilize any available economizing techniques to keep meal costs within her normal range without depriving her family of flavor and nutrition.

Whether she harvests her own or purchases the food when it is in abundance, the home canner will find that canning is an economical do-it-yourself project to be proud of. Home canning is a highly rewarding experience.

On the subject of freezing foods, homemakers will learn what wraps to use, what to do if food is partially thawed and what steps to take should her home freezer become inoperative.

Questions concerning food preservation will be answered by the home economists. Please call or come in and register at the Park District office at 9400 S Kenton (424-7300) by August 15. There is no registration fee.

Included in the workshop will be information on selecting containers, the various methods of food preservation, the types of spoilage and common problems that face the home canner. Discussed will be proper storage of canned foods, how to check for spoilage, tips on canning for persons on special diets, blanching, scalding, selecting vegetables and fruits for canning and/or freezing. Using the pressure cooker in canning will also be discussed, as will the "do's" and "don'ts" in canning and freezing foods.

Illinois rivers map available from Yourell

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell recently has received supply of the Illinois Rivers Facilities Map, published by the Department of Conservation, State of Illinois and would be delighted to send a copy to those who wish to have one.

The map details all of the facilities for camping, recreation, entertainment, boat launching, harbors, sports clubs, yacht clubs, dams, state parks, etc, along the Illinois, Mississippi, Wabash and Ohio Rivers.

It also describes the boating facilities, areas or municipalities, highways, state parks, conservation areas that are available for use along the rivers mentioned.

It is Yourell's understanding that many boaters and campers do travel up and down these rivers during the vacation periods and the facility maps will be useful to those who indulge in that kind of activity.

For a copy of the map, please write Rep Yourell, 4740 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, IL 60453.

OAK VIEW CHEERLEADERS CONCLUDE SEASON

The Oak View Cheerleaders, under the direction and guidance of Mrs Maureen Lewis, Oak View Physical Education teacher recently concluded their season. The team was chosen from girls of the 5th & 6th grades and performed at several basketball games and a pep rally. "The girls did a good job of cheering the basketball team on to the District Championship", said Miss Lewis. "They practiced before and after school working on their individual routines and did a fine job of representing Oak View", said George Kernwein, Oak View Principal.

The 2nd Annual Pet Parade is going to be twice as large and twice as exciting than that of last year. Sponsored by the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, and set for Sunday, September 24, the parade will line up at 95th & Mayfield promptly at 12:30 pm and kick-off at 1 pm sharp.

Bob Gaul, owner of the Oak Lawn Pet Center and chairman of the parade, promises a fun filled day for both the little kids and big kids.

There will be some Grand Prizes for the best pet displays. FIRST GRAND PRIZE is a "Disney Fly-Drive Vacation" for four. Air fare round trip, choice of accommodations and free car rental. The trip is thru the courtesy of the Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank, 4900 W 95th Street.

SECOND GRAND PRIZE is a $100 Savings Bond and THIRD GRAND PRIZE is a $50 Savings Bond. There will also be trophies and awards for all sections and divisions.

John Pieler, Executive Director of the Chamber, has arranged for the popular Shriners on their motor bikes and the famous Keystone Cops to be part of the parade. Floats will add the necessary glamour along the route.

That's not all! There will be a carnival for all ages immediately following the Pet Parade in the VFW lot, 9514 S 52nd Avenue.

All rides and games will be just 10 cents each and will include the Moon Walk, a train ride and much more. Bob Gaul has also promised a FREE Petting Zoo.

Betty Gallo, President of the Chamber, said that every child who wants to partake must get an entry form and have it signed by an adult. Forms can be picked up at the Oak Lawn Pet Center, 5301 W 95th Street, or, the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, 9526 Cook Avenue. Children up to 16 years of age are eligible to participate; children 6 years and younger must be accompanied by an adult.

Remember, all entries must be in by Friday, September 22.

BEER GARDEN — DUNKING MACHING

Have you been angry with some one in the Oak Lawn administration? Has your trustee roused your ire thru this past year? Relieve all those pent up emotions after the Pet Parade at the infamous "Dunking Machine."

The President (Ernie Kolb) and Board of Trustees (Anderson, Bergamini, Cleveland, Hardek, Stancik and Vogrich) will all be the targets. What could give anyone more pleasure on a fun filled day than to see them sputtering for their very breath?

There will also be a Beer Garden to further the pleasure of Oak Lawn's adult population.

Bob Gaul, Betty Gallo, and all members of the Chamber of Commerce hope to see you on September 24, to make this a day to remember in the Village of Oak Lawn.

Peg Grell honored by Resolution

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell presents House Resolution to Mrs Peg Grell for 21 years of dedicated service to the village. Mrs Grell is Financial Director for the Village of Oak Lawn.

Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell presented Ms Peg Grell with House Resolution No 1011 from the House of Representatives of the Eightieth General Assembly. Yourell read the preamble at the President and Board of Trustees meeting on August 15 and was as follows:

WHEREAS, Mrs Peg Grell, from the Village of Oak Lawn, Illinois, has served her community as a public servant for 21 years; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Grell, an efficient and devoted public servant, began her long and distinguished career with the Village of Oak Lawn in February of 1957, as a bookkeeper; and

WHEREAS, Over the years, Mrs. Grell advanced through the ranks to become the Finance Director while simulaneously holding the positions of Budget Officer and acting Personnel Officer; and

WHEREAS, Besides being a devoted public servant, Mrs. Grell is a concerned civic-minded individual who is not only interested in the financial soundness of her community but also of the State; and

WHEREAS, One of her most noteworthy civic achievements was her appointment to Governor Shapiro's Local Official Finance Tast Force; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Grell, in addition to her accomplishments in the public sector, has served as President of the Chicago Metropolitan Municipal Finance Officers Association and the Illinois Municipal Finance Officers Association; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE House of Representatives of the Eightieth General Assembly of the State of Illinois, that we congratulate Mrs. Grell for twenty-one years of service to the Village of Oak Lawn and her community; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we commend Mrs. Grell for her efforts to keep local government working smoothly; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this preamble and resolution be presented to Mrs. Peg Grell as a formal indication of the respect and esteem in which she is held by the members of this chamber.

After the presentation Ms. Grell received a great round of applause from all of those in attendance.

Oak Lawn woman first on police exams

Judy Walsh (30) came out with flying colors in the exams and topped the list of candidates for one of the three officers to be added to the department in September. Ms Walsh has taken her physical and is confident that she will pass that also.

Judy is the wife of Larry Walsh and they live in the southwest section of Oak Lawn.

The mother of four girls, Debbie (13), Sandy (11), Laura (10) and Mary Jo (8), Ms Walsh said that having four girls of her own made her realize that a woman is needed on the force to work with teenage girls. She believes that should problems arise with any young girls they could relate to her easier than with male officers.

Asked what Mr Walsh thought of her probable appointment Ms Walsh said that he supported her one hundred per cent and that in fact, it was his encouragement that made her seek the position.

Judy Walsh

The Walsh's oldest daughter, Debbie is a student of Simmons Jr High School and the younger three go to Columbus Manor.

The Village Manager, Dick O'Neill, and Lou Mirabelli, chairman of the Police & Fire Commission, are quite pleased about a woman on the force. They both agreed that Ms Walsh would be good for the department and that Oak Lawn, a progressive village, is keeping step with the times.

Village holding last year tax rate

The Oak Lawn village board approved a tax rate of 1.3319 per $100 assessed valuation, the same as last year, at the regular meeting on Tuesday, August 22. The tax levy was in the amount of $4.9 million and showed a slight increase over last year because of an increase in the library tax rate.

The total levy, including the library, is 1.6634 per $100 assessed valuation.

The "hold" on the tax rate was made possible by the quadrennial reassessment according to Financial Director Peg Greli. The average 10% increase will amount to roughly $24 million profit for the village and will allow for the additional funds to operate without an increase in the tax rate.

Trustee Ron Stancik questioned the decrease in the general corporate fund and the increase in the police protection fund.

Village Manager Dick O'Neill explained the decrease of $183,704.10 which was transferred to the police protection fund as a measure taken by him to allow the officials to know exactly where the money is being spent.

Mayor Ernie Kolb said that he is going to meet with members of the library board and the park board to try and combine efforts to reduce the tax rate even further before the deadline date of December 31, 1978.

Trustee John Hardek who has opposed an increase in the tax rate since taking office voiced his pleasure to the board.

"I have been the minority member of this board on budget votes," he said, "This is very heartening. It may be that Proposition 13 and the governor's petitions is setting the pace for the whole idea."

Dunne would limit terms in Washington

Bob Dunne, Republican Candidate for Congress, 3rd District, has stated that he would support a constitutional amendment to limit the number of terms that a Senator or House Member may serve. This amendment is in response to the need for reform in the Congress of the United States.

The amendment would limit a Senator to two - 6 year terms and a House member to three - 4 year terms. The present length of the House term is 2 years; so a longer term would be a result of this action.

Dunne stated, "A limit on the number of terms that members serve in Washington should increase the responsiveness of the Congress. If a legislator would be subject to the economic impact of legislative decisions, he might think twice before voting for a bigger bureaucracy. With a limit on terms, the members of Congress would be forced to return to the private sector for employment. In all likelihood they would hesitate to tinker with the fine balance between the public and private sectors."

Robert Dunne

Dunne also said that the limitations of terms would be a giant step toward eliminating 'Potomac fever'.

"Too many long-time members of Congress have one eye on the White House," Dunne said. "These 'candidates' all-too-often buckle to special interest groups because of the political ramifications. If a legislator was serving as a civic duty, he would be more inclined to vote on his convictions and what the majority of his district's constituents wanted.

"The limit on the length of service to twelve years will be a step in the right direction. Congress will again be the 'people's branch' — the concept which our forefathers had originally intended."

Family Service to conduct Parenting study

A nine week Parent Study Group in Systematic Training for Effective Parenting (STEP) will be conducted at Oak Lawn Family Service on Wed, Sept 27 thru Wed, Nov 22. The fee, which covers the cost of the Parent Handbook, will be $15 per person or $25 per couple. Mrs Nancy DeLap, director, will be leading the group. To register you may telephone 423-3361, or drop in at the office located at 9526 Cook.

Mrs. Nancy DeLap

There is a growing interest among parents to find more effective ways of relating to their children. STEP tries to relate to this interest by offering study groups in which parents can improve communication skills along with developing further skills in listening, problem solving and learning how to explore alternatives.

Oak Lawn Family Service, a department of the Village of Oak Lawn, provides professional counseling to residents who are experiencing personal, marital or family problems. The agency is pleased to introduce this added service designed to help parents before they have a serious problem.

Legal committee to review Aldi ordinance

Aldi Discount Foods will appear before the Oak Lawn Public Safety and Legal committee for a review of the price marking ordinance introduced by Trustee Les Anderson. Anderson said that he had received many complaints about the conditions of the parking lot and that there were no prices on the merchandise.

Aldi has been campaigning in the area of 87th & Ridgeland, where the store is located, for public support to defeat the ordinance. According to officials of Aldi, the ordinance which would require price marking of all goods and the bagging of 3 or more items would increase the cost to such an extent as to force them to close the store.

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce has also voiced objection because of the overall effect the ordinance may have on other businesses in the village.

The committee, chaired by Trustee Joe Vognich will meet on Friday, September 1, at 7:30 pm in the village hall.

Recommendations by the committee, either pro or con, will be presented to the village board for consideration before the ordinance will go into effect September 13.

Publicity workshop offered

A Publicity Workshop will be offered Thursday, September 14, 7:30 pm at Oak View School, 110th & Knox, Oak Lawn. Trilateral Commission influential?

What do the President of the United States, the Governor of Illinois, the Secretary - Treasurer of the AFL-CIO, and the Chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank have in common? All have joined the Trilateral Commission which, although little known to the general public, wields extraordinary influence. Some observers fear that the Commission, founded by David Rockefeller, represents an elitist conspiracy to establish a world government.

Local conservative activist Michael M. Bates has prepared an overview of the Trilateral Commission, its members and objectives. Persons interested in obtaining a free copy of this analysis should contact Bates at 425-9084.

Park district and village agree on possible land trade

The Oak Lawn Park District members and the village board members have entered into an agreement to exchange the so called Phantom Parks in the area of Stoney Creek Drive, for an acre of land in Simmons Park, 93rd & Natchez Ave. The exchange would allow for a much needed fire station in the west end of Oak Lawn and a park in the southeast area. The village has authorized an appraisal of the four parcels owned by the village and the Park District has agreed to share the cost with the village.

Transfer of the land must be approved by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) because the Simmons parcel is listed as "open green space."

The Park District board members have stated that should they not go forward with the exchange they will donate the one acre free of charge to the village.

Mayor Ernie Kolb praised the Park District and said that their interest and cooperation is for the betterment of Oak Lawn.

Library expands microform collection

A whole magazine on two postcards? You see them every day in the reference department of the Oak Lawn Public Library.

The microform collection has recently grown to more than 8000 reels of microfilm and a large collection of periodicals and phonebooks on microfiche.

The Suburban Library Information Service microform collection was recently moved from the Oak Park Public Library to Oak Lawn.

Microfilm contains a succession of images on roll film while microfiche are narrow cards on which images of printed pages are arranged in rows. Both make up the broader category of microform.

The advantages for the use of these materials are space and preservation. The Manhattan phone book is contained on 17 microfiche cards and 80 years of the New York Times is contained in six cabinets of microfilm.

The expanded collection at Oak Lawn brings the holdings of periodicals to 328 titles such as the Consumer Bulletin from 1931 to 1973; the Journal of the American Medical Assn from 1960 to 1978 and the Journal of Educational Research from 1958 to 1978.

There is also a collection of micro-copies of more than 300 telephone books from all over the United States called phonefiche. The library also has the latest course catalogs from 2425 colleges and universities on microfiche.

Trustees intent often misconstrued

Trustee Jay Bergamini (6th District) met with Dr Fernando Lopez and forty-five residents of his district on Wednesday, August 16. The meeting, arranged by Bergamini, was instigated by a request from Dr Lopez to speak to the people with regards to the proposed medical office building at 4545 W 103rd Street. The meeting, to discuss action thus far on the facility, was held in the lower level of the McCastland Fire Station, 103rd & Kostner.

The meeting was brought about after petitioner Richard F. Gallagher appeared before the Development board on Monday, June 19 to discuss plans for the building that ultimately received approval from the board.

The staff memo, prepared by Civil Engineer II/ Planner Larry Lux, showed that 116 parking stalls were required for the size of the building and the plans were 50 stalls short.

Architect Zargapoor and Dr Ilias Karas, one of the group of doctors who would have an office in the facility, were present and introduced an agreement for parking signed by board members of the St Nicholas Hellenic Orthodox Church, 10301 Kolmar. The agreement was not in covenant form as required by Oak Lawn ordinance. Petitioner Gallagher informed the Development board that there could be no covenant as one of the board members would not allow a recorded covenant of parking. The signed document showed intent of the church and doctors to enter into a reciprocal parking agreement to allow the patrons of the medical building to use the church lot on weekdays and members of the church couid use the medical building parking on Sundays and relieve the congestion in that area. Larry Lux stated that there are 150 stalls on the church lot and mostly empty thru the week.

Much discussion followed in relation to the variance and the binding power of the agreement. Development board member George Sinadinos, who is a resident of the area and also a member of the church, said that he knew the agreement would be honored for all time.

Before action was taken member Edward Meier brought up the fact that the village ordinance required parking to be within 100' of the proposed building and in the same lot. He also reminded them they are working without a covenant.

A motion made by board member Ferencak to approve the parking variation was seconded by Sinadinos. Voting yes were: Ferencak, Sinadinos, Toth and board chairman Andersen. Voting no were: Colantone, Hansen and Meier. Motion carried. Later, when the article appeared in a local newspaper, the residents of the area were heard from protesting the building proposal and the variation.

On July 25, the petition was on the President and Board of Trustees agenda. Mayor Ernie Kolb announced that he had a request that the item be postponed or tabled until a later date dur to a change in building plans. Trustee Vogrich moved that it be returned to the Development board for further study.

Dr Lopez, who was in the audience, stated after the meeting that he was not in agreement with the number of parking stalls needed and he thought the plan had been misrepresented thru a misunderstanding of the number of rooms that were to be in the building, but would not be necessarily in use at all times. He said that he had employed a new architect and would introduce a new plan at a later date. It was at this point in time that he met Trustee Bergamini and voiced a request to meet with the people in the area.

At the meeting on August 16, it appeared that the major resentment felt by the residents was the fact that they had not been notified of the plan and the first they knew of it was when they read it in the local paper.

Although Dr Lopez spoke to the audience their tone showed no sign of compromise and by their attitude reflected their disapproval of the church parking. They voiced their concern for the safety factor for children of an adjacent school.

Trustee Bergamini explained to the residents that Dr Lopez was having new plans drawn up and hopefully would be in closer compliance with the zoning ordinances.

He said that the medical building would be an edifice in that strip that was developing so beautifully along 103rd. Bergamini said that he would not like to see anything go in there that would be a detriment to the area.

Rather than appease the audience Bergamini's talk seemed to place him under attack for appearing to side with Dr Lopez.

Bergamini disclaimed these arguments by saying that he simply wanted to state the facts and also present the feelings of the doctors' group. He reminded the residents of the controversy brought on by the residents of Crawford Gardens who fought the ordinance change for the Sears plan at 95th & Pulaski. The land was then purchased by the K-Mart who met all of the necessary requirements. He told them of the banquet facility that wanted to take over the vacant Hi-Lo at 103rd & Pulaski and would have beautified that area. The petitioner also lost out because he could not meet the requirements for parking. This petition was replaced by one from Aldi's that could meet the requirements and whose store on 87th & Ridgeland was already under fire from the Board of Trustees due to the neglect of the property.

On Monday, August 21, the item was under Miscellaneous Petitions on the Development board agenda. Chairman Don Andersen announced that petitioner Gallagher had requested that permission to build the medical office be omitted until they request to be put back on, when new plans are submitted by the architect.

MEANINGFUL TAX BREAKS FOR MIDDLE-INCOME AMERICANS

The House of Representatives last week passed a $16.3 billion middle-income tax-cut bill that trims capital gains taxes sharply and gives home sellers new tax breaks.

Representative Marty Russo was among 171 members who supported a plan known as the Kemp/Roth bill, that would have slashed income taxes by 30% over the next three years, but the measure failed to pass. Despite this loss, Russo supported the final tax bill, saying it was at long last a meaningful tax break for middle-income Americans.

"I wanted large across the board cuts in the tax rate itself, not just tax cuts. As an original cosponsor, I supported the Kemp/Roth bill because it would have offset the tremendous increase in taxes facing the taxpayer over the next several years. The individual income tax rates would have been reduced by an average of 33% over the next three years, and people could plan accordingly. And be sure, for a change, of what the tax situation for them would be over a period of time."

Russo also supported the Ullman amendment. It will widen the present tax brackets and raise to $1000 the current $750 personal exemption now allowed each taxpayer and his dependents. Tax cuts for individuals would take effect next January 1.

"The middle-class has been justifiably upset about the burden they bear due to inflation," Russo said. "I want people to realize that for the first time a tax bill provides for income tax relief primarily for people in the $15,000 to $40,000 income brackets."

The measure also would provide about the same size cut in tax rates, proportionally, for most income groups. Russo pointed out that in all other tax bills enacted since the early 1960's, the cuts have been more "Progressive" with larger reductions for lower income brackets.

"I think this bill, while it could have gone further in providing tax relief, nevertheless is tailored to meet both the economic and political need of the country at this critical time," Russo concluded. "Homeowners, for example, who have watched inflation drive up the cost of housing, benefit most of all from the capital gains proposals. Beyond the reduction in capital gains taxes, homeowners will be allowed up to $100,000 in tax-free gains on the sale of a principal residence, once in a lifetime."

Russo said he was pleased to see that the tax treatment of capital gains had been made less complicated. The maximum rate on capital gains taxes is cut to 35% by removing capital gains from added taxation under the minimum tax. A new minimum alternative tax guarantees payment of some taxes by those who receive capital gains income but otherwise pay little or no tax.

The average tax reduction for individuals will be $163, with the tax cuts taking effect next January 1.

Veto upsets Yourell

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell is very upset over Governor Thompson's veto of his proposed amendment no. 64 to House Bill 3276, which is the Illinois Department of Transportations (IDOT) budget, for 6.5 million dollars for the Ridgeland Avenue Improvement from 87th Street to 111th Street thru the Villages of Oak Lawn, Chicago Ridge and Worth.

At present plans are being prepared for the widening of Ridgeland Avenue south of 111th Street and of Narragansett Avenue north of 87th Street. The proposed Ridgeland Avenue Improvement between 87th Street and 111th Street would provide the final link, making improvements of the roadway continuous thruout the communities.

According to Yourell the ever growing development within our predominatly residential communities has increased the usage of Ridgeland Avenue and local side streets. Increase in traffic accidents and the severity of traffic congestion indicates the need for the improvement of Ridgeland Avenue.

Accident reports were obtained from the police departments of Chicago Ridge, Oak Lawn and Worth for the period of January 1, 1973 thru December 31, 1975. A total of 569 accidents were reported along the project length in this period.

During the three year study period there was one fatality and 17 pedestrian injuries. At present, there are few marked crosswalks along the project. Adding to the problem is the lack of continuous sidewalks in the area needed to provide a safe pathway for residents and school children.

Rep Yourell's distress is furthered by the fact that the participating communities have already spent more than $120,000 of board approved taxpayers funds for engineering of the project.

"If the state does not contribute to the cost of this improvement which has already been initiated," Yourell said, "the only alternative being that the units of government involved, Chicago Ridge, Oak Lawn and Worth will have to levy an additional tax to complete the project and of course this is a direct reflection on everybody's real estate property tax bill in the communities effected and this of course will not be in the best interest of the citizens of those communities."

Rep Yourell is going to try and override the governor's veto of Amendment No. 64 when the General Assembly convenes on November 14.

Russo conference on Business and Government September 15th

Congressman Marty Russo has announced that a Third Congressional District Conference of Business and Government will be held on Friday, September 15 from 8 am until 12:30 pm at Saint Xavier College, 103rd & Central Park, for the purpose of promoting open communication between the business community and the government.

Congressman Russo has been joined in sponsorship of the Conference by 11 local chambers of commerce and five area colleges and universities.

Russo said, "I am extremely gratified with the enthusiastic response my office has received from the area chambers of commerce and academic institutions and the cooperation that has been shown by the numerous federal, state, and local government agencies that will be participating."

The conference will feature nine seminars dealing with problem issues that have been raised by business propie throughout the Third Congressional District. They will range from product liability insurance, through OSHA and EPA regulations, the the college and university as a resource for business.

I look for this to be an informative and productive conference", Russo concluded, "and urge all who wish to communicate their concerns to the government to attend."

ASSOCIATE JUDGE

WALTER B. BIESCHKE

Candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County

Prior to his judicial appointment by the Illinois Supreme Court in 1977, Judge Bieschke was in private law practice for 24 years. As an associate judge, he served in tax court where he was instrumental in hastening the flow of revenue to municipalities. Judge Bieschke's candidacy is recommended by the Chicago Bar Assn.

*VOTE DEMOCRATIC – NOVEMBER 7

Voter registration

Joan P. Murphy, Worth Township Clerk, wishes to announce that her office will remain open on the evening of Friday, Sept 29, until 9 pm and will be open Saturday, Sept 30, from 9 am till noon in order to assure everyone the opportunity to register to vote.

The Town Board of Trustees, Town of Worth, shall hold three meetings per month during the months of September and October. The second and third Wednesday meetings will be held at 7:30 pm and the last Wednesday's meeting at 7 pm at the Worth Township Civic Center, 5831 W 115th St, unless otherwise directed by the Supervisor and the Board of Trustees. Tentative dates are September 13, 20 and 27 and October 11, 18 and 25.

Mulack to speak to Worth GOP

Republican sheriff candidate Don Mulack, who led the successful fight in 1972 to replace the out-moded, scandal-tarred coroner's office with a medical-examiner system, will share the speaker's rostrum in Worth Township next month with the medical expert who occupies the job that Mulack created.

Mulack and Dr Robert Stein, Cook County medical examiner, will speak before the Worth Township Regular Republican Org at 8 pm Thursday, Sept 21 at the Condesa del Mar.

Dr Stein, will discuss operations of the Institute for Forensic Studies and review how the new system has improved medical investigation in criminal cases.

It was Mulack who drafted the language of a 1972 referendum that abolished the elective office of coroner and instituted the new system. The referendum was approved by Cook County voters by an overwhelming margin.

The Clerk's Office is located at 5831 W 115th Street in Worth. For further information, please call 371-2900.

The dirt inside.

Save with regular cleaning.
Your air conditioner does more than just cool. It cleans, too, by filtering dust and dirt out of the air. After awhile, the dirt builds up on the filter, and clogs the air flow. This makes the unit work harder. And that costs you money. Take a few minutes to get rid of that dirt and you'll hold down your operating costs.

How to clean window-unit filters.
Check your owner's manual for specific instructions. If you don't have one, do the following. Pull the plug, and remove the front panel. Lift out the filter and vacuum it. If your filter is made of a spongelike material, wash it in warm water and detergent. Then let it dry, and put it back in place.

How to clean central-unit filters.
Your central cooling system has a filter, too, usually in the blower section of the indoor unit. Before opening the access panel, turn off the power. If the filter is reusable, vacuum it. If it's washable, wash it. If you have a throw-away filter, or your filter is too dirty to clean, replace it with a new one of the same size and material (note arrow on side of filter indicating direction of air flow).

If your heating and cooling system has an electronic air filter, be sure to follow the cleaning and maintenance procedures recommended by the manufacturer.

Get professional help when necessary.
Occasionally, your air conditioner's condenser coil, refrigerant charge, or motor may need attention from a qualified serviceman. Maintenance of these parts may be best left to the professional.

Remember, the less energy you waste, the more money you save. And a clean air conditioner can save you plenty.

Blake - Lamb sponsors program for widowed people

The name of the program is the T.H.E.O. — To Help Each Other. It will consist of a series of meetings where widowed people can talk to people who have suffered a similar loss. People who understand exactly what you're going through, comfort you and explain exactly how they managed to cope with their loss.

Maxine Dowd Jensen

Knowledgeable guest speakers will attend each meeting and discuss subjects that are pertinent to all widowed people. How to cope with grief and loneliness, and how to handle the many banking, tax, social security and insurance problems, will be but a few of the issues slated for discussion. One of the scheduled guest speakers will be author Maxine Dowd Jensen. A widow herself, Mrs Jensen is the author of "The Warming of Winter", which enthusiastically proclaims, "Widow, you're on your way to a life beyond sorrow". She will talk about her book which gives advice, inspiration, and constructive suggestions for dealing with such things as: beginning again; the effects of death upon the family; where to live and what to do; friends - what they can and cannot do; how to deal with the problems of widowhood - the fear of loneliness, insomnia; living and loving again; and the future.

All widowed people are invited to attend these meetings which are held on the second Wednesday of each month. Come and hear Mrs. Jensen speak on Wednesday, September 13 at St Xavier's located at 103rd and Central Park Ave, Chicago. Meetings will begin at 7:30 and end at 9:30 pm. There is no charge. For information, call 735-4242.

Ozinga Testimonial Dinner September 21st

A testimonial dinner/ theater party will be held September 21 to honor State Senator Frank M. Ozinga. Scheduled to begin at 6 pm, the dinner will take place at the Martinique Drury Lane Theater in Evergreen Park.

The annual event, sponsored by the Senator Ozinga Committee, has popularly become known as one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the year. This year will probably exceed previous years as the schedule calls for a spectacular performance by Forrest Tucker in "Welcome Home," which has received tremendous reviews.

In announcing this year's testimonial, the committee spokesman stated, "Senator Ozinga has faithfully served us in the Illinois Senate for 20 years. With the best interest of our citizens at heart and without a blemish on his record, Senator Ozinga has proven himself to be a legislator of unusual ability and uncompromising honesty."

Committee members are hopeful for a large turnout of district residents. "It's a real opportunity to show their support for honesty and integrity in state government," the committee spokesman said.

"Everyone likes to say they support good government, but the fact is very few voters are willing to back their convictions by working for good car lidates and contributing to their campaigns," the spokesman concluded.

Ozinga represents the 8th Legislative District which includes Worth, Palos, Lemont, Orland, Calumet and Bremen Townships. He received more than 66% of the vote in being re-elected the last time.

Hypnosis center opens

A unique center has opened in the Southwest suburbs that focuses on the subjects of hypnosis, ESP, psychic abilities, and the higher dimensions of the mind. Founded by Martin V. Riccardo, who previously served as associate director at the Grau Hypnosis Foundation in Oak Lawn, the new center is called the Public Institute for Psychic Research. Located at 5423 W 95th Street in Oak Lawn, it serves as an information center and a clearinghouse of ideas.

One of the special services of the Institute is the Paranormal Hotline, a recorded telephone message that lists lectures, meetings, conventions, and other events dealing with the psychic world and the unknown. (The number is 424-0111.) The Institute offers complete hypnosis services by Martin Riccardo for habit control, relaxation and insomnia. Classes and workshops are available in various areas of psychic research and hypnosis. (Schedules may be obtained from the Institute.) Free rap sessions open to everyone are held every Sunday at noon, and the Institute also encourages research projects. Anyone interested in finding out more about these activities can call the Institute at 423-5666.

Hynes urges override on Thompson veto

Illinois Senate President Thomas C. Hynes (D-Chicago) has urged Democrats to "make every effort" to override the governor's veto of a tax rebate bill designed to provide property tax relief for homeowners and renters whose incomes don't exceed $25,000 a year.

Hynes, who is the Democratic candidate for Cook County Assessor, called the veto of the circuit breaker tax rebate program "insensitive", because the bill would provide $100 million in tax relief for low and middle income taxpayers.

In a statement presented to the state Democratic Party's platform committee, Hynes also urged Democrats to commit themselves to further efforts to control or reduce government spending.

He stressed that Democrats took significant action this spring to guarantee property tax relief with the passage of both the circuit breaker tax rebate program and a four bill package property tax relief proposals introduced by Hynes.

*Granting a new homestead exemption against assessment increases which would provide a potential individual tax savings of between $100 and $150 per year.

*Allowing property owners to do necessary repair and maintenance work without facing the possibility of increased assessments.

*Increasing the assessment exemption for home improvements to $25,000 and extending the lifetime of the exemption from four to up to seven years.

*Authorizing Illinois financial institutions to make "reverse mortgage" loans to senior citizens for the purpose of paying real estate taxes.

Three of the Hynes bills have been signed into law and the fourth has been approved with recommendations for change.

Hynes has agreed to accept the changes, and the agreement guarantees that the exemption will be law by the time next year's tax bills are mailed out.

SENIORS LEARN RULES OF THE ROAD

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission is sponsoring a Rules of the Road refresher course to enable senior citizens to successfully complete their driver renewal exam.

Registration for the next course is presently underway at the Oak Lawn Center, 5330 W 95th St.

The refresher course consists of three lessons to prepare senior citizens to take their written and vision portions of the drivers' license tests. PLOWS Open House to be held Cook School

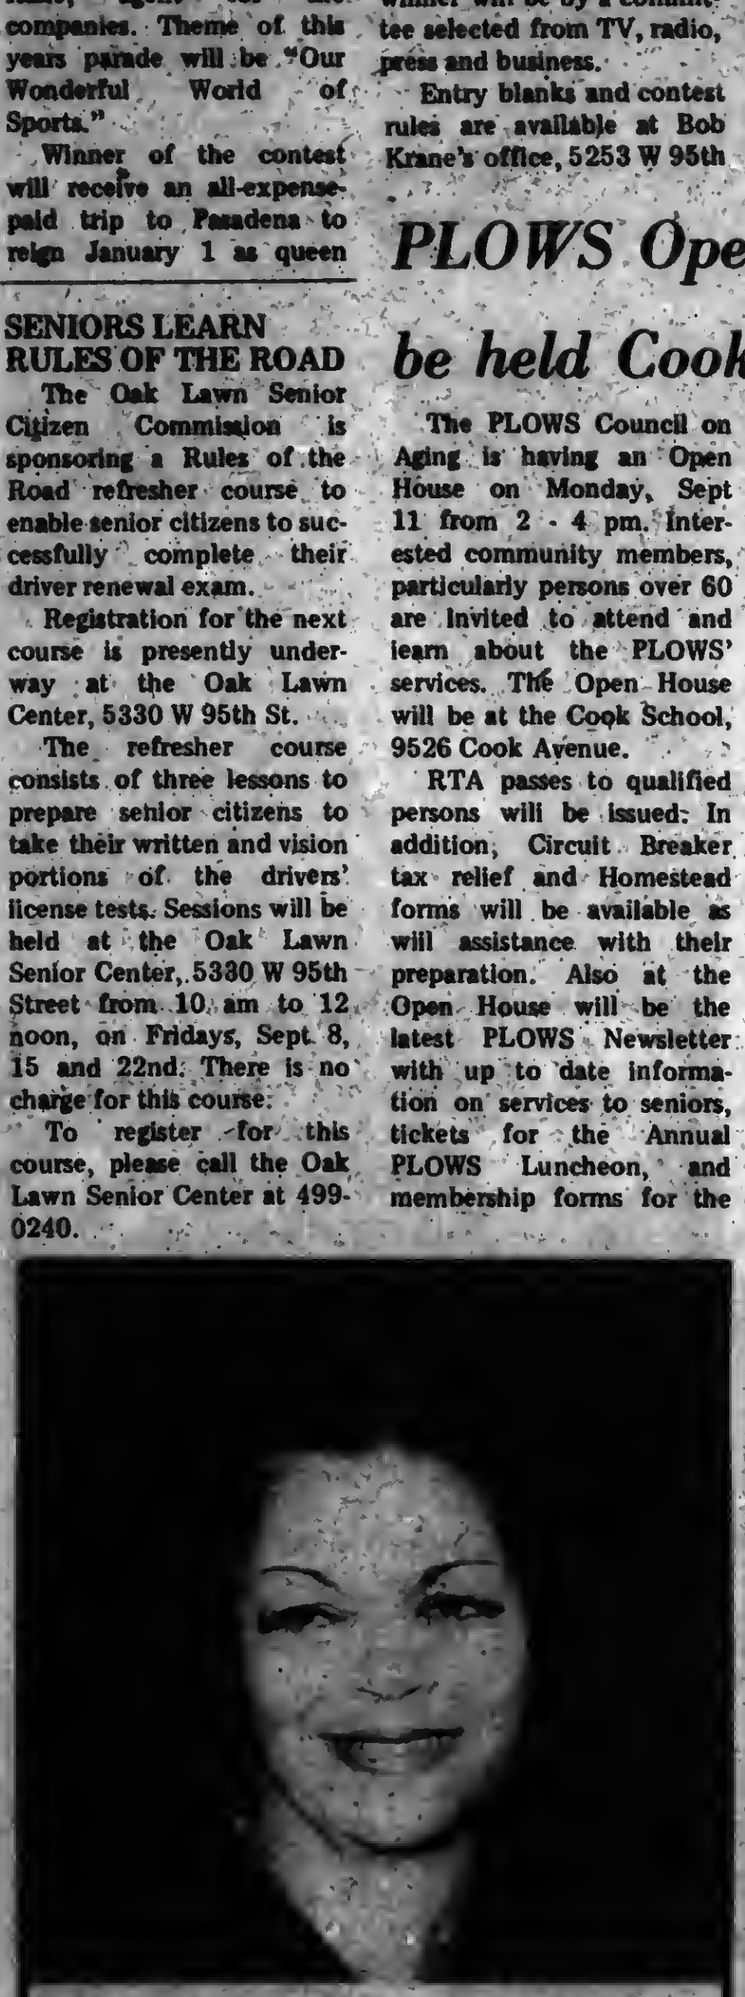
The PLOWS Council on Aging is having an Open House on Monday, Sept 11 from 2 - 4 pm. Interested community members, particularly persons over 60 are invited to attend and learn about the PLOWS' services. The Open House will be at the Cook School, 9526 Cook Avenue.



RTA passes to qualified persons will be issued: In addition, Circuit Breaker tax relief and Homestead forms will be available as will assistance with their preparation. Also at the Open House will be the latest PLOWS Newsletter with up to date information on services to seniors, tickets for the Annual PLOWS Luncheon, and membership forms for the new PLOWS year. Coffee and refreshments will be provided.

The PLOWS Open House is held in conjunction with the United Way of Suburban Chicago. Because the PLOWS social services to the vulnerable elderly are partially funded through United Way contributions, contributors are especially encouraged to attend. In this way, they can "see their Crusade dollars at work."

The PLOWS Council on Aging is also offering a new service to the community. Beginning in September, on the third Tuesday of every month, a program will be held in the evening for adult children of aging parents. The class will be held at 7 pm at the Cook School. The first program will be held on Tuesday, September 19.

A different topic will be discussed each month. Topics will include: Understanding the Aging Parents, Housing Alternatives, and Community Services to the Elderly. The September 19 program will be "What Do You Do When Your Mother Becomes a Widow?"

Advance registration is not necessary for these free programs. For info call PLOWS Council 422-6722.

BIG WHEEL BALL BENEFITS GARDEN AND PARK LAWN

With the sounds of the Big Wheel Ball still faintly ringing in our ears, Fred M. Dumke, general chairman, performed the most joyful of all of the duties related to that spectacular event. He is pictured above, presenting the proceeds from the $100 a plate dinner to Mike Coglianese, for the Garden School and Mrs Josephine Trafficanta for the Park Lawn School.

The dinner was the clumination of many months of planning the benefit for the two schools by Fred Dumke, vice president of Hancock Engineering Company and his committee of many community representatives.

The Door Prize for the evening was a replica of a 1929 Model A Ford, which was donated for the special drawing by the Oak Lawn Trust and Savings Bank, 4900 W 95th Street. Robert McDonald, president and LeRoy Corradino, vice president of the bank, made the presentation to the winner of the car, Ray Bliss of Hancock Engineering Company.

The Garden School is at 8333 Austin, in Burbank and Park Lawn Schooi is at 10833 LaPorte Avenue, Oak Lawn.

Christ deb interested in teaching young

Sharon Turk, a Christ Hospital 1978 debutante, loves children. Through her babysitting experiences and work with children, Sharon has decided that she would someday like to pursue a career that would involve helping children. Nursing, social work, and teaching special education are three areas she is looking into.

The Mother McAuley senior is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Fred Turk of Palos Heights. Sharon is the Turk's second daughter to bow at a Christ Hospital Cotillion. Her sister, Katy, was a 1977 debutante. Sharon will bow at the 20th Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion on December 27 at the Condesa del Mar.

Through school, Sharon was involved in CALM (Chicago Area Lay Movement) as a substitute. This allowed Sharon to work with slow learners. This fall, she looks forward to a child development class since one of the children she babysits for will be a student in her class.

Sharon also plans to work as a candy strip volunteer at Palos Community Hospital for a religion class this fall.

Once a week, Sharon limbers up by taking ballet and disco dance lessons. Occassionally, Sharon horseback rides, but says she really enjoys a swim in the family's poool.

The Christ Hospital Cotillion is a benefit for the radiation oncology unit (cancer care) of the hospital. It is sponsored each year by the Christ Hospital's Women's Auxiliary. Mrs Louis J. Mirabelli is the chairman of the 20th Annual Cotillion, with Mrs Walter Lipinski serving as co-chairman.

Huskey hosting drug abuse conference

Rep Herb Huskey is hosting a special conference for area school and drug treatment personnel to acquaint them with southwest suburban Cook County's new narcotics court on Wednesday, September 20 at 10 am in Oak Lawn Community High School, 9400 Southwest Highway.

Irving W. Eiserman, presiding judge of the 5th Municipal District, and Judge Anthony Montelione, who will preside over the court, are scheduled to speak. According to Huskey, conference participants will also be given time to discuss drug problems, education, treatment, a community information network and other related subjects. Additional information about, and reservations for, the meeting can be obtained from Huskey at 424-5000.

Huskey met with various educators, drug treatment counselors, law enforcement officials and other interested parties last April after a school survey which he conducted indivated drug problems among area students. Huskey and Eiserman then initiated steps to establish the narcotics court.

The new court, which will be located in Oak Lawn, is scheduled to open September 13 and will convene on the first four Wednesdays of each month.

Richards new foot bridge shortens travel

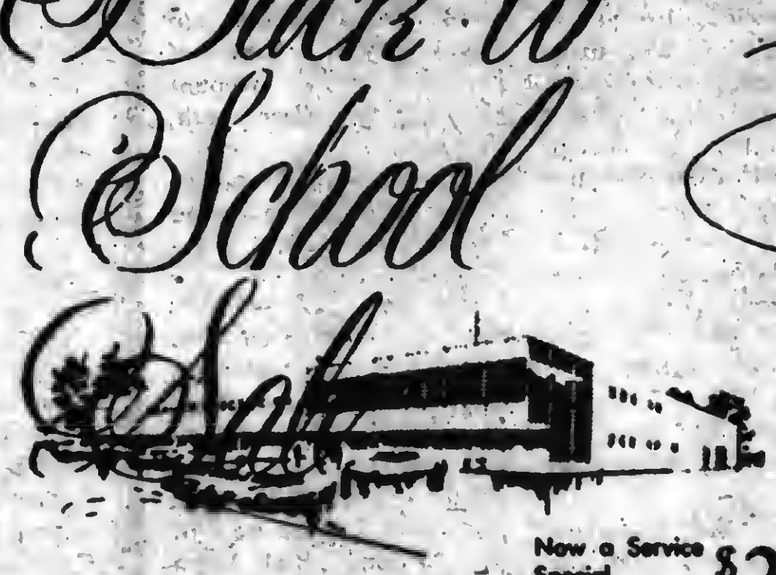
Residents living north and east of Richards Campus, 106th & Central Ave., Oak Lawn, who have long found that the path of the Stony Creek put some extra travelling distance between their homes and the campus building will find easier access to school and recreational facilities through the use of a newly constructed footbridge.

The 64 ft. long, 6 ft. wide concrete bridge, located at Long Avenue and Stony Creek Drive, was constructed hy Community High School District 218 in an effort to provide an easy, safe, direct access to school facilities for nearby residents who had previously been forced to circle around the creek in order to reach the campus building.

To insure the safety of students and adults using the footbridge, it is protected hy a 6 ft. chain link fence. Bars have been installed to prohibit the use of motor driven vehicles on the pedestrian bridge, and sidewalks lead form the street to the bridge and from the bridge to tennis courts and the school building.

Total cost for construction of the hridge, including soil testing, grading and fill, placement of footings, purchase of the pre-stressed, pre-cast concrete bridge and installation of fencing, blacktop and sidewalks, was $6500. Work was carried out under the supervision of CHSD 218 Director of maintenance and Operations Walter Gembala.

OAK VIEW CAMPBELL LABEL CAMPAIGN



The Student Council at Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th Street, conducted a very successful drive according to Mrs Louise Dabkey, Student Council Sponsor.

"The students and parents collected over 9,000 labels which were used to get the school a new filmstrip projector and additional physical education equipment," said Mrs Dabkey. The students helped to collect the labels from Campbell Soup cans which are redeemable for educational equipment, according to Oak View principal George Kernwein.

"Water Wise Community"

Oak Lawn's new 1 million gallon elevated steel water spheriod (shown above) is nearing completion. The tank, located at the s.w. corner of 95th & New England, will give the westerly portion of Oak Lawn greater water pressure. The homeowner in this area will also realize a savings when acquiring their homeowners fire insurance because of this additional water capacity/pressure.

The tank, spheriod in shape, is 136 feet overall, the pedestal is 96 feet and the bowl holding the 1 million gallons of water is 74 feet wide, 40 feet in height. The tank is being constructed by Chicago Bridge & Iron at a cost of $573,000, as part of Phase III Water Revenue Bond Improvements. Phase IV, also under construction at this time is a three million gallon storage tank at the Reich facilities, Southwest Highway & Kilbourn Avenue. Completion date for this new addition will be January 1979.

Trustees Jay Bergamini, John Cleveland and Joe Vogrich, members of Oak Lawn's Public Works Committee, have devoted many hours of their time to these new improvements presently being completed by the village in order to keep up with the necessary supply and demands of the water consumer. Because of their foresight, Oak Lawn has become known as the "Water Wise Community."

Fund started in Evergreen

The Friends of Carol Horrell have started a benevolent fund to help this victim of a tragic automobile accident. Carol, a 20 year old Evergreen Park resident has been almost totally paralyzed since she was struck by two cars in February of this year. After spending two months in Northwestern Hospital, Carol was placed in the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, where she is still undergoing treatment.

Carol is a lifetime resident of Evergreen Park residing at 9808 S Millard and is from a family of six children. She is a 1976 graduate of Evergreen Park High School and is a member of the Bethel Lutheran Church of Evergreen Park.

Many months, perhaps years, of rehabilitation are ahead of Carol. Medical expenses have been and will continue to be staggering financially on the Horrell family. In addition, extensive repairs to the home, such as a ramp and widening of doors to accommodate a wheelchair will have to be done when Carol is ready to come home.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this fund may send their donations to the Carol Horrell Fund c/o First National Bank of Evergreen Park, Account 86384-2, Evergreen park, IL 60642.

WELCOMING RECEPTION FOR THOMAS C. HYNES

A group of residents from the Worth Township gathered at the Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn to coordinate arrangements for the reception honoring Democratic Candidate for Cook County Assessor, Thomas C. Hynes, to take place Sunday, September 24th. This affair will be held at Nikos Restaurant, 7600 South Harlem Avenue in Bridgeview from 2 to 5 pm. Southwest Suburban Citizens for Hynes sponsor this event, which provides a chance for suburban people to meet Mr. Hynes. There is a donation of $10.00.

Named student volunteer by Americana

Michaeline Gojda, of Chicago, was named Student Volunteer of the Year by Americana Healthcare Center, 9401 Kostner, at a Barbecue Party hosted by the Americana Staff on the grounds of the Center.

Miss Gojda was presented with an Americana Certificate of Appreciation by William Rincker, administrator of the facility. Mary Cannon, director of the volunteer program praised Miss Gojda for her unselfish devotion to the patients at Americana. "Michaeline has given generously of her time and talents over the past few months. She has demonstrated a deep understanding and empathy for the ill and elderly. Michaeline always takes that one extra step or gives another 5 minutes to insure another's comfort," said Mrs Cannon, as she presented Miss Godja with a personal gift.

A special award was presented to the Junior High Chorus of the Clark School in Oak Lawn in recognition and appreciation of their concert last May for the residents at Americana. The presentation was made by Sr Catherine Mackey, O.P., administrative assistant at Americana. Accepting the award for Clark School was Susan Hart and Maura and Colleen Lanergan of Oak Lawn. The chorus is composed of 7th and 8th grade girls under the direction of Ms Sue Wasser.

Other volunteers who received awards and personal gifts were: Margaret Fearon, Ruth Mahder, Julie Ann Maurer, Christine Muchna, Larry Pesce, Andrea Reed and Renee Slater of Oak Lawn; Marie Gruszynski and Jill Yerkes of Evergreen Park; Michael Szesny of Palos; Rachel Lyons, Pam Orlow, Mary Ostrowski and Kasha Speakes, Chicago.

"Since its inception, there have been 25 young men and women between the ages of 14 and 21 involved in the Student Volunteer Program at Americana," said Mrs Cannon. "Collectively, they have donated 900 hours to the patients in the center. It is with a deep feeling of gratitude that we honor and recognize their generous contribution to others. We are proud to have these fine young people as members of our Volunteer Program at Americana."

BANKING ON ART FOR CREATIVE PASTIME

Tony Shipanik, a talent within, joins the ranks of many fine exhibitors that are featured at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. Tony is the head coin teller, at the bank and a self-taught artist who devotes his spare time to producing fascinating works of art in oil. His striking paintings can be concurrently seen, at First National, thru September 9 along with a display of wood inlay art by George Krunic.

JUDGE ROBERT G. MACKEY HONORED

Recently a dinner was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Illinois Athletic Club for Associate Judge Robert G. Mackey of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

The invocation was given by Bishop James W. Montgomery, of the Diocess of Chicago Episcopal Church. The entertainment of the evening was supplied by Franz Bentler of the Consort Room of the Continental Hotel in Chicago.

The highlight of the evening was the guest appearance of Muhhamad Ali, former heavyweight champion of the world. Toastmaster of the dinner was Edward F. McElroy, Director of Special Events of WJJD radio.

Judge Machkey, who is a candidate for a full Circuit Court judgeship in the November election, is a resident of the northwest side of Chicago. He is a graduate of Northwestern U and past president of the N-Men's Club where he received 5 letters for various varisty sports.

COOK COUNTY YOUNG REPUBLICANS PLAN COCKTAIL PARTY

Plans are being finalized for the Young Republican (YR) Organization of Cook County Annual Awards Cocktail Party which is set for Friday, September 29 at the Swedish Club, 1258 N LaSalle Street, 5:30 to 9:30 pm.

The Cook County YRs is the county-wide organization which is composed of Young Republicans between ages 18 and 36 from the 80 wards and townships in Chicago and suburban Cook County.

The cocktail party provides an opportunity for the Cook County YRs to honor three individuals who have been voted "The Republican of the Year," "Committeeman of the Year," and "Committeewoman of the Year" for their contributions to the Republican Party in the past 12 months. This annual event is the YRs major fund-raising party of the year.

The evening will present guests with the opportunity to meet the new officers of the Cook County YRs, many Republican officials from all levels of government, and many GOP leaders from throughout Cook County and Illinois.

Tickets for the cocktail party are $10 per person and can be obtained from Norma Schmidt, 327-1180.

Park district picnic September 10th

Everyone is invited to come and join the Oak Lawn Park District in a community wide picnic on Sunday, September 10 at Southwest Park, 102nd & Major. The day will begin at 10 am and activities scheduled until dusk.

Included in these festivities will be games for all ages and carnival activities, volleyball and table tennis tournaments, all day fishing, a concert, refreshments and lots more. Bring the family a picnic lunch, and come join us for a day of relaxation and fun! Picnic tables and grills are limited, so come early.

Garden School Mothers planning annual fashion show

Garden School Mothers are pianning their annual fashion show for the benefit of Garden School for the Handicapped. This year's affair promises to be the best ever, and to permit a iarger attendance by both men and women, it will be heid on the evening of Tuesday, October 24 at the celebrated Sabre Room, 8900 W 95th St, Hickory Hills. A deiiclous prime rib dinner will be served, after which up-to-the-minute fashion show will be presented by Hello Jo Boutique of Tinley Park, under the direction of Mrs Bernard Lapp.

The lovely dancing models will entertain by showing fall and winter costumes which will appeal to all in the audience. To add to the enjoyment of the evening, a professional exotic dancer, Judy Pakan, will perform.

As in previous years, hundreds of fine prizes will be given away and will be distributed equally among the tables, thereby giving each person a greater opportunity to win, according to Mrs Vivian Balestri, prizes chairiady. Mrs. Dorothy Cyga will conduct a raffle of special prizes, which will find favor with everyone.

It is suggested that you make your reservations early for this gala occasion by writing the reservations chairlady, Mrs Barbara Russo, at Garden School, 8333 S Austin, Burbank, IL 60459 or phone 636-0054; the general chairlady, Mrs Rose Jarski, will also accept reservations at 599-1364. Library Friend Pompeii Tour

The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library is a group of your neighbors and friends, trying to create more community awareness of the library and its facilities, and to promote more cultural life in the area, said Beth Baird, newly elected president of the Friends' group. We plan to sponsor continuing activities and projects such as book discussions, lecture series and exhibits.

The first project the Friends' has undertaken is two tours of the "Pompeii AD 79" exhibit at the Art Institute in Chicago, reported Alice Johnston, program chairman. Dates for these tours are October 24 and 25. A chartered bus leaving from the library at 4:30 pm on each day will arrive at the Art Institute in time for an exclusive lecture before viewing the exhibit.

The Tuesday, October 24 tour is completely filled and only 30 spaces are left for the Wednesday, October 25 tour. Secretary, Joyce Stroh, urges everyone interested to get their $20 reservation to the Friends' group quickly. The second trip includes a complete Italian dinner with a special souvenir Pompeii bottle of wine and for dessert - demitasse and cannoli.

An informative lecture series prior to the Friends' tour will be given at the Oak Lawn Library on October 12 and 19 at 7:30 pm. Lee Gibbs, who did the series on King Tut, will be the lecturer.

Anyone interested in the tour may send their $20 check payable to the Friends of the Oak Lawn Library, 9427 S Raymond Avenue, Oak Lawn, IL 60453, Attn: POMPEII. The lecture series at the library is free.

The "Luck of the Irish"

It is easy to see that Pat O'Malley of the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn, fell under the spell of beautiful Elke Sommer when he had occasion to meet her recently after enjoying the play, "Born Yesterday" at Drury Lane South. Of the star Pat said, "She is not only lovely but very gracious also."

Pat O'Malley was just named "Number One" Food and Beverage Director of the Holiday Inn System. On September 10 he will leave for Memphis, Tenn, where he will receive his award.

Women's group earns money for Foundation

The Human Growth Foundation has received another donation through aluminum recycling -- this time from the 18 members of the South Suburban Policewomen's Assn. The group is made up of women involved in police work in the suburbs of Evergreen Park, Worth, Chicago Ridge, Argo-Summit, Palos Hills, Palos Heights, Oak Lawn and Tinley Park. The group collected 156 pounds of aluminum cans and household aluminum and turned them over to Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Co at one of that firm's mobile unit stops, 87th & Harlem, Bridgeview. Reynolds paid he group 17 cents a pound which figures out at $26.52 for the benelft of the foundation. Seen here with the cans are Rebecca Hanson, daughter of one of the association members, and Jeffrey Johnson, son Mr and Mrs Jerry Johnson, West Chicago, last year's poster child. Young Jeffrey, afflicted with the malady, is five years old and weighs only 11 pounds. He is 27 inches tall.

The Human Growth Foundation is a national health organization concerned with the ways children grow and with the reasons why some children do not become average-sized adults.

Financing Is Assured For Social Security

The social security system is assured sufficient income into the 21st century, a social security representative said recently.

The additional income provided by 1977 legislation virtually eliminates the financial problems faced by social security during the past few years.

At the same time, the additional cost to most workers will be moderate. For example, under the old law, a worker with 1978 average earnings of $10,800 would have paid taxes of $1,201 in 1987 on average earnings estimated to rise to $18,600 by that year. Instead, under the new law, his 1987 tax will be about $1,311, an increase of only $130 for the year over what he would have paid under the old law. This is about $2.50 more a week.

The first year the social security tax rate will be higher under the new law is 1979. The 1979 tax rate for employers and employees each will rise to 6.13 percent from 6.05 percent. The rate will increase in steps until it reaches 7.65 percent in 1990 and after. Under the old law it was scheduled to increase to 7.45 percent in 2011 and after.

Under the new law, as under the old, the maximum yearly earnings subject to the social security tax will rise. The 1979 maximum will be $22,900 instead of $18,900. Additional increases are scheduled until the maximum reaches $29,700 in 1981 under the new law, instead of $21,900 under the old law. After 1981 the maximum will increase automatically as average earnings rise, as it does now.

The 1978 tax rate is 6.05 percent, the same as it would have been under the old law.

A worker who has average earnings, about $10,000 in 1977, will pay total social security taxes of $605 in 1978, the same amount payable under the old law. A worker earning $17,700 or more in 1978 will pay a total of $1,071.

Under the old law the self-employment tax rate of 8.10 percent for 1978 was scheduled to rise to 8.35 percent in 1981. Under the new law it will be 9.30 percent in 1981. Additional increases are scheduled until the rate reaches 10.75 percent in 1990 and after.

People interested in more information about these changes in the social security law, as well as others that were made, can get more information at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

"Show and Sell" Fair

Artists and craftsmen can sell as well as show their wares at Moraine Valley Comm College's arts and crafts fair, Show and Sell, scheduled for Sunday, Sept 24.

"We would like to have all the artists and craftsmen from the area," Alice Ihrig, MVCC civic and cultural director, said. "We have a large area on the campus for those who participate and plenty of parking for those who come to look and buy."

According to Ihrig, the college is planning to hold the fair annually.

Tables for participants are $2 each. Those interested in reserving tables call 974-4300, ext 380-381.

SUMMARY OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES
MEETING

A tentative budget for 1978-79 was received by the board of trustees of Moraine Valley Community College at its regular meeting of August 15. The budget is available for public inspection from 8 am - 4 pm weekdays in the 200 Building on the college campus, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills.

A public hearing prior to adoption of the budget will be held at 7 pm Tuesday, September 19 in the 200 Building conference room.

The total fund expenditures proposed in the budget are $9,212,597, education; $1,592,312, building and maintenance; $300,000, stie and construction; $1,212,250, bond and interest; and $683,702, auxiliary.

In other business, the board ratified a two-year agreement with the Moraine Valley Faculty Assn.

A roofing contract for $25,364 was awarded to the low bidder, L. J. Crowther Co. This is the second of five stages to re-roof the older section of the permanent building.

In regular business, the board approved payment of $633,683. from the education fund; $101,906. from the building and maintenance fund; $141,507. from the auxiliary fund; $59,164. from the restricted purposes fund, and $9,900. from the student activity fund.

SOLAR ENERGY
SHORT COURSE

A four-session short course, Introduction to Solar Energy, has been scheduled by Moraine Valley College. The class will meet from 7 - 10 pm on Tuesday, Sept 19 and Thursday, Sept 21, to study solar energy and its practical applications in this area.

On Saturday, Sept 23, the group will take an all-day field trip to a solar home under construction.

The final, wrap-up session is from 7 - 10 pm Tuesday, Sept 26. Additional information about solar energy and available products will be discussed.

Rodney Wright, registered architect, will conduct the course. He conducts workshops and gives lectures on solar energy throughout the Midwest. He was the recipient of a 1975 National Endowment for the Arts fellowship to study the use of solar energy in urban buildings.

Fee for the course is $40 per person.

Additional registration information is available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills; phone 974-4300, ext 360-361.

MEMO
OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

STORY HOUR REGISTRATION

Registration for story hours for 3, 4, and 5 year olds will be held the first two weeks in September in the Children's Department of the Oak Lawn Public Library or call 422-4990.

The story hours, featuring fingerplays, movies, sings, puppets and games, as well as stories, will begin on Sept 19. Children must be 3 years old by Sept 1 to qualify for that session and 4 years old by Sept 1 to qualify for the other.

Story hours for 4 and 5 year olds will be held on Wednesday and Thursday from 10 to 11 am and from 1:15 to 2:15 pm. Friday sessions will be held from 1:15 to 2:15 pm.

Three year olds will meet on Tuesdays, at 10, 11 am or 1:30 pm and on Fridays at 1:30 pm. Each story time for this age group will last for a half hour.

There will be no story hours the weeks of Nov 20 to 25 for Thanksgiving or Dec 18 to 22 or 25 to 29 for the Christmas holidays.

A new program featuring cartoons, short stories and films for children called Friday Afternoon at the Movies will start September 1 from 4 to 5 pm and continue each Friday.

Seniors register now for fall classes

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission in cooperation with the Oak Lawn Park District and Oak Lawn School District 123, will once again offer classes for senior citizens this fall.

Classes will begin the week of September 18 and there is a fee of $3.50 per person per class.

The following courses will be offered at the Hannum School, Brandt School and possibly one other school in District 123: Macrame, Needlepoint, Crocheting, Advanced Painting and Beginners Painting.

Also Knitting, Ceramics, Woodcarving and Bridge.

Class size is limited, so if you are interested in registering for one of these courses, please call Kay Fielding at the center, 499-0240 between 9 am and 1 pm.

History room open longer

The Local History Room at the Oak Lawn Public Library will be open an additional 16½ hours a week to the public starting September 5.

The new hours will be 9 am to 9 pm on Mon and Tues; 9 to 6 on Wed, Thur and Fri; 9 to 5 on Sat.

Named for Dee Kopf, who served as librarian for 30 years, the Local History Room opened over a year ago and offers residents a look at Oak Lawn and the surfounding southwest suburban area as it once was. The Library's Local History Collection includes: pictures from the 1880's and 1890's of people and places; early zoning maps; back issues of local newspapers; bound anniversary editions of local newspapers; minutes of governmental units; oral history tapes and transcripts; high school year books; and an extensive collection, of tapes, films and newspapers of the 1967 tornado.

The history collection has been growing since 1959, when the village's first fledgling historical society recorded the reminicences of some of Oak Lawn's pioneers on the occasion of the village's 50th anniversary. These tapes were donated to the library along with other memorabilia and the collection began to grow.

In 1975 when plans for the last building addition to the library were under discussion, Mrs Kopf and the Library Board of Directors sought revenue sharing money from Worth Township to help furnish the planned history room. Construction and furnishing was completed and the room opened to the public in June of 1977.

Until September 5 the room will be open from 9 to 5 Mon thru Fri. It is located on the second floor of the library adjacent to the fine arts section. Gordon Welles is local history librarian.

REMEMBER THE 1953 OLDSMOBILES?

Jack Thompson, at center certainly does. They were the first ones he sold 25 years ago as he began to build his reputation as one of the nation's top Oldsmobile agencies.

Oldsmobile officials Neal Kammeyer, zone manager, and Jim Smith, district manager, visited Thompson's 25 year old Oldstown at 95th & Pulaski recently to present a commemorative plaque and congratulations.

"We've been able to have 25 fantastic sales years because we've had a superior automobile to sell, and a great team of employees, who work together," Thompson said. "Now we're looking foward to another 25 good years," he added, refusing to speculate on what the 2003 Olds might look like. "We just know it will be the best."

OAK VIEW ATHLETES GET NEW UNIFORMS

The student athletes at Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th Street, Oak Lawn, will be dressed in style when they compete in baseball, volleyball and track and field events for the 1978-79 school year. The school recently purchased with the help of the Oak View Student Council new uniforms.

The new uniforms are orange with black and white trim and white letters sporting the school's name and the participants numbers. George Kernwein, Principal of Oak View, stated "We are grateful to our Student Council for their help and I know that future student athletes will be proud to wear these fine new uniforms."

OAK LAWN YOUTH COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Oak Lawn Youth Commission will be gearing up for fall with a change in Minus None Teen Center hours. Beginning the week of August 28, it will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights from 6:30 to 10:30 pm. Starting September 6, the center will be open afternoon hours on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3 - 5 pm, and on Sundays from 1 - 5 pm.

Weekend field trips are planned throughout this next month beginning with the Boston concert at Comisky Park on September 2. An afternoon of bowling will happen on Sunday, September 10. The Wisconsin River is the destination for our second overnight Canoe Trip on September 16 and 17. One last trip to Great America will wrap up September's activities on the 23rd.

The Youth Commission would like to remind teens that permission slips and registration for trips are available in the office and the Teen Center located at 9630 Southwest Highway. Call 636-2929 for additional information.

If your financial stability is weak The Oak Lawn Youth Commission also has an Employment Referral Service which caters to the youth in Oak Lawn between the ages of 11 and 25. If you live in Oak Lawn or go to school in Oak Lawn come in and apply. Those under the age of 15 can apply for an odd job.

TRIEZENBERG NAMED ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

As the newly appointed Assistant Superintendent for Administrative Services, George Triezenberg assumed his new duties on July 1, moving to a central administrative post from his position as Principal of Dwight D. Eisenhower High School, Blue Island. Triezenberg, who has served as the DDE Principal for the past eight years, brings to his new position 36 years of experience as a teacher and administrator working in elementary, secondary and college settings.

Triezenberg and his wife, Theresa, are the parents of two children. His son, Donald, who recently earned his doctorate degree in physics, is an assistant provost at the American University. He resides in Washington, D.C. with his wife and two children. His daughter Linda Postema, resides in Baltimore, Md., with her husband, Gerald, and their daughter, Alicia.

NON-TRADITIONAL CAREERS FOR WOMEN

According to Moraine Valley College, women often are caught in a "career trap" when they select a program of study. The college staff currently is suggesting that women consider all the career opportunities and not just those that have been traditionally women's careers.

The college offers more than 30 one- and two-year career programs. All of them are suitable for qualified women students who are interested in the field and can see favorable job opportunities.

According to several MVCC program coordinators, the returning women students (those who have been away from school or the job for a period of time) seem most willing to consider the non-traditional careers. Currently several applicants are considering Nondestructive Evaluation, Design Drafting, Industrial Engineering Technology, Heating and Air Conditioning and Security and Loss Prevention.

Grajek named DAV Senior Vice Commander

Alfred W. Grajik, 6435 W 111th Street, Worth, has been elected as senior vice commander, second top spot of the Illinois DAV Leadership State Convention Delegates of the DAV. Grajek said the DAV is displeased with Carter's Administration and promises to fight back.

J. Chief Durbala of Peoria, IL., who has been re-elected as the State Commander, by aclamation, and Al Grajek both top Department DAV highest officers immediately announced to the delegates of the Convention in Elgin, Illinois that their support, their families support and the public's support is urgently needed to fight back the Carter Administration in order to head off another administration threat to the Disabled American Veterans and all War Time Veterans. Carter is attempting to curtail the five point preferande for non-disabled veterans seeking federal employment.

Presently the House Version of HR 11280 the Civil Service reform Act of 1978 calls for limitation or elimination of the five point Veterans preference for all veterans.

In addition, it dilutes federal job protection for all World War II and Korean Veterans during reduction IN force program. . .and it drastically limits the future value of federal job preference for Vietnam.

State Commander Durbala told the convention delegates that there is an strong likelihood that both the House and the Senate will take important action on the matter prior to the DAV 1978 National Convention in San Francisco in August. The House will vote on whether to continue the five point preference for non-disabled veterans in federal employment.

Durbala told the DAV conventioneers that the DAV and all veterans and their families must act now. Write your personal mailgram to your congressmen, to your senators and the House members requesting in the most positive manner possible, their unqualified support for the Hanley Amendment to HR 11280 and the Cranston Amendment to S-2640, the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978. The House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate phone calls should be made to the Capitol Hill switchboard 202-224-3121. The operator will transfer the requested calls and telegrams to your congressmen and senators.

Elected to serve with State Commander Durbala and with State Senior Vice Commander Alfred W. Grajek, were: John Austin, State 1st Jr Vice Commander of Murphysboro, IL; William Shadowen, 2nd Jr Vice Commander of Benton, IL; Glenn Sparks, 3rd Jr Vice Commander of Chicago; D. Ray Wilson, Elgin, IL; James Robertson, State Chaplain, Springfield, IL; Dan Martellotta, State Sgt at arms, Chicago; John E. Hanna, State Adjutant, Treasurer; Frank Calderala, State Director of Service; Ray Dempsey, State Dept Inspector; Walter Wauro, State Finance Chairman.

Qualified veterans wishing to join the Disabled American Veterans may contact Al Grajek, who is in charge of the membership recruitment, 448-0282.

Evergreen Park - Oak Lawn Jogging Celebration Oct 14

It promises to be a great day for the Twin Villages when the First Annual Evergreen Park - Oak Lawn National Jogging Day Celebration takes place on Saturday, October 14. This is also the first time that the villages and the two Chambers of Commerce have combined their efforts to sponsor an all out endeavor to further enhance the total friendship and good will that has prevailed thru the years.

The financial obligation for this gala and challenging undertaking has been co-sponsored by The Athletic Attic, Evergreen Park; Heritage/Standard Bank of Evergreen Park and the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn.

There will be a division for everyone from the small fry to the senior citizens. Separate classes for men and women will include, 13 years and under, 14-18 years, 19-30 years, 30-40 years, 40-50 years, 50-60 years, 60 and up! Join now and get involved.

A special trophy will go to the overall winner. Other beautiful trophies will be given to the first three finishers in all divisions. There will also be special awards sponsored by the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce and the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce for the top male and female residents over 20 in both villages and the top male and female residents under 20 in both villages.

Registration forms are now available for the joggers at the Evergreen Park Village, the Oak Lawn Village Hall and The Athletic Attic. After completing the form it can be mailed or delivered to the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, 9526 S Cook Ave., Oak Lawn, IL 60453. Make checks payable to EP-OL Run.

The Registration Fee of $5, includes the race kit with all the important data and a T shirt with the Oak Lawn-Evergreen Park National Jogging Day emblem. The kits may be picked up in person at the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce (address above) any time between 9 am and 5 pm prior to race day or on the day of the race at the registration site at 8 am check-in time. The race will begin at 9:30 am from the Mother McAuley High School on 99th Street, 2 blocks east of Pulaski in Evergreen Park. The finish will take place at Brother Rice High School, 9900 Pulaski. Parking will be available at both sites.

The jogging trail will take you thru the beautiful streets of the two communities in the 10,000 kilometer race (approx 6.2 miles).

Reilly's Daughter Pub, Oak Lawn, is handling the water station at the 4 mile point. Paramedics will be on hand to assist the joggers with any problems they may have.

Serving on the committee as co-chairmen are Patrick O'Malley of Evergreen Park and Richard O'Neill of Oak Lawn, who also mapped the route.

Other committee members are Melanie Baldermann of Evergreen Park; Davis Boyd of Oak Lawn; Betty Gallo of Oak Lawn; Jim Joyce of Chicago; Glenn Krietsch of Evergreen Park; Gene Lyons of Evergreen Park; and James McCabe of Evergreen Park.

The Evergreen Park District and the Oak Lawn Park District are combining efforts to assist in any way possible. Major details which include street clearance and protection, police, cadets, etc, and need administrative approval, are receiving full cooperation from Evergreen Park Mayor Anthony Vacco and Oak Lawn Mayor Ernie Koib.

Many of the organizations of the Twin Villages have offered their assistance on the day of the race.

Proper recognition and persons are at times forgotten in a large effort such as this. However, it is the success of the First Annual Evergreen Park - Oak Lawn Jogging Celebration that is of the utmost importance and all of those who have made it possible are to be commended.

Haberkorn named police chief for Oak Lawn

Village Manager Dick O'Neill has announced that the Village of Oak Lawn has a new police chief. O'Neill went on to say that the appointment of John J. Haberkorn was entirely his own. He said that there was no pressure put on him by either the President or Board of Trustees and he was allowed to use the authority of his office to select a new chief.

Haberkorn will replace Gerhardt "Ace" Hein when he retires at the end of the year.

The new chief comes to Oak Lawn with an outstanding background and proven leadership.

He has thirty years service in Chicago Police Department with a broad range of experience, including District Commander (7 years), Patrol Division (11 years), Criminalistics Division (10 years), and Traffic Division (2 years).

While District Commander he directed 480 personnel in the provision of all police services in the 9th District - a community of 200,000 people of diverse ethnic and racial background. There has been a decrease in crime in the 9th District 4½% - 5% each year for the past 4 years.

Haberkorn originated and implemented a Walking Patrol Program, receiving highly positive response from the community. Several other police districts have since adopted the program. He also reduced vandalism 60% in past year through impiementation of a Vandalism Program.

John Haberkorn designed, organized and impiemented a Drug Abuse Awareness Program. Each of the 70,000 residences within his district received educational literature detailing commonly abused drugs and danger signs. He also developed 9th District Steering Committee into the largest and most active of all police districts.

He lectured to community organizations on an average of once per week on a variety of topics including vandalism, drug abuse and other societal problems. He organized a community campaign against television violence. Petition with 170,000 signatures directed to advertising sponsors of excessively violent programs.

Haberkorn directed the release of hostages unharmed and peaceful surrender of robbery suspects in the volatile 1976 Currency Exchange holdup.

While in the Chicago Police Departent Patrol Division he was assigned to supervisory positions in several districts throughout the city while Sergeant, Lieutenant and Captain. He directed placement of manpower for security of Presidents and presidental candidates on numerous occasions. Haberkorn was the officer in charge of all major events in Soldiers Field for several years; also directed police operations for the National 4H Convention in Chicago for 6 years.

When with the Chicago Police Department Criminalistics Division, he was assigned to robbery, burglary, homicide and general investigative services as detective and in supervisory capacity. He was also a member of squad cited as top unit in the city for solving cases sending 128 criminals to prison in 1 year.

Haberkorn is a graduate of DePaul University - Management Program, 1973; Illinois Institute of Technology - Exgineering, 1941-1943. He served in the U.S. Air Force, 1943 and received an honorable discharge. He is 53 years old and has been married 35 years. He and his wife, Pearl have 7 children.

The five oldest are married, he and Pearl have 8 grandchildren. His mother Elizabeth, lives in Shabui Apts in Oak Lawn. His father retired as chief fire marshall, City of Chicago, and is deceased.

Haberkorn is an active member of St Thomas More Catholic Church, 81st & California and will now take up residence in Oak Lawn.

John Haberkorn firmly believes that the youth of today are our tomorrow, and they will eventually do a better job than we have done, if we expand the time to give them the training necessary.

JUDGE BUTLER TO SPEAK AT KIWANIS

Wayne Baxtrom, Program Chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis, has announced that Associate Judge Francis P. Butler of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Thursday, September 21. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th Street at 12:15 pm.

Judge Butler will speak on "The Court System of Cook County". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Butler was appointed an associate judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County in 1974. He succeeded in eliminating a three-year backlog in civil jury court where he was assigned. Prior to his appointment he represented the Chicago Board of Education and the International Union of Operating Engineers. Presently assigned to the Sixth District, he is now a candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court in the upcoming election.

Child snatching against the law

Legislation sponsored by State Rep Jane Barnes designed to stiffen penalties for parents convicted of "child snatching" was signed into law by Governor Thompson Tuesday.

"I am pleased that Gov Thompson realized the seriousness of this crime, and the possible disastrous emotional effects it can have on children," Rep Barnes said. "This legislation should prevent Illinois parents from playing the dangerous game of emotional tug-of-war with their children, who are literally torn between them."

Rep Barnes explained that she introduced the legislation in response to drastic increases in the number of spouses who, disgruntled with court proceedings granting custody of their children to the other parent, have "snatched" the child and fled to another state. Once there the spouse looks for a judge that is sympathetic to his or her claim to rightful custody.

In signing the bill, Gov Thompson said, "Our goal with this bill is to create a felony so that the offending parent may be extradited and returned to the jurisdiction of the divorce court.

"The bill provides a 72 hour 'cooling off' period during which the parent will not be charged if the child is voluntarily returned to the court's jurisdiction. Conviction under the new law would result in a sentence of 1 to 3 years."

"I believe this penalty is very severe, and necessarily so," the Eighth District lawmaker said. "Child snatching is nothing more than kidnapping and it's time we started treating it that way.

"Under our state's new law, spouses will no longer be allowed to take their children and seek asylum in other states, but will be forced to return to Illinois and face the consequences," she said.

"I think this is a good law that will make parents think twice before taking their children from the spouse with legal custody," Barnes concluded, "I am pleased that Gov Thompson agreed with this measure and signed it into law."

Larson asks for uniform drinking law

Cook County Commissioner Ronald R. Larson, of Merrionette Park, recently petitioned the leaders of our Illinois State Legislature to enact legislation making uniform the drinking age in the State of Illinois. Larson stated "Many of our individual towns and villages in Cook County have recently pushed the drinking age back up to 21 either for the purchase of package goods or in some incidents for all serving of alcoholic beverages to those between the ages of 19 and 21."

The Cook County Board is now considering an ordinance which would raise the drinking age in unincorporated Cook County back to the age of 21. Larson additionally stated, "It appears to be the sentiments of the majority of local governments and unincorporated citizens that the drinking age should be raised back to the age of 21. Only our State Legislature can enact the legislation necessary to offer Cook County a truly uniform drinking age of 21."

HOME HEALTH AIDES

Christ Hospital, Oak Lawn, will offer a class for prospective home health aides Monday, Sept 25 thru Friday, Sept 29 from 9 am to 12 noon.

Home health aides work in the homes of recently hospitalized or chronically ill patients, where they provide basic health care. They are instructed by Christ Hospital personnel in techniques of bathing, feeding, and moving patients, as well as bed making, and pulse and temperature taking. They are also taught body mechanics and back care for themselves.

The fee for the Christ Hospital home health aide course is $5. For further information or to enroll in the course, call Claire Skrobuton, home health aide coordinator, 425-8000, ext 5398.

Alcoholic seminar

One out of every ten adults who drinks is an alcoholic, yet most people know very little about this common disease.

The Christ Hospital Woman's Auxiliary will sponsor a Community Seminar Series on Alcoholism, led by a variety of specialists in alcoholism treatment, on the evenings of September 25, October 2, 9, and 16 at 7 pm in the Percy Hopkins Auditorium of Christ Hospital.

The programs are designed for teachers, school nurses and social workers; police and fire officials; ministers; and community representatives.

Doris Chamberlain Griffin, M.S.N., coordinator of the Christ Hospital alcoholism treatment program, will be the speaker at the September 25 meeting. She will define alcoholism and explain its physical, emotional and social effects. She will also discuss symptoms and treatment of the disease.

Guidelines for dealing with alcoholics will be the topic of the October 2 program. It will feature a film by Father Martin, a world-renowned speaker on alcoholism, in which he presentes eight guidelines for dealing with alcoholics in a way that is deeply human and effective. The Rev Roger S. Crum, chaplain of the Christ Hospital alcoholism treatment program, will further explain Father Martin's guidelines following the film.

Yourell joins colleagues on tax legislation

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell has joined in a bipartisan effort along with Rep Totten and 70 other colleagues in the House of Representatives, to draft legislation that would address itself to a limitation of taxes and spending in the State of Illinois.

Rep Youreli has already introduced HB 3410, which provides for a freeze of all Real Estate Property Taxes in Illinois at the 1978 level for the years 1979 and 1980. His bill is the only bonafide actual tax legislation to limit Real Estate Taxes in Illinois still effective in the 80th Session of the General Assembly.

Rep Totten, in this session of the General Assembly, had introduced HJR CA 44 which would place limits on spending by the state and local governments which would be tied into annual inflation rates recognized by units of local government and school districts.

Rep Totten (R) Hoffman Estates, received very little amount of assistance and consideration from his Republican colleagues in the House in the passage of this Constitutional Amendment, but hopefully all members of the General Assembly will join in this effort towards effective and successful tax reform in Illinois.

JUDGE MACKEY SPEAKS AT KIWANIS

Joseph Fanelli, President of the Evergreen Park Kiwanis, has announced that Associate Judge Robert G. Mackey of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Tuesday, September 19. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th Street at 12:15 pm.

The program chairman, Fred Moore, said Judge Mackey will speak on "The Court System of Cook County". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Mackey has been an associate judge for four years. He served as assistant state's attorney, assistant attorney general and an assistant corporation council. He is a graduate of Northwestern U, where he starred in baseball and swimming. Also served as president of the N Men's Club at Northwestern and president of the P.A.D. Fraternity. Judge Mackey served in WWII as a naval officer under Admiral "Bull" Halsey.

Judge Mackey, who is presently assigned to the First District Housing Court, is currently a candidate for Circuit Court Judge.

Famed arthritis doctor to speak at MVCC

Yvonne Romanas of Midlothian, coordinator for the newly formed Southwest Cook Arthritis Action Council, has announced that Michael H. Ellman, M.D., will be the featured speaker at the initial council meeting on Sunday, Sept 24 at Moraine Valley College. He will discuss "Arthritis--What Is It and What to Do About It."

Dr Ellman is Director of Rheumatology at Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center in Chicago. He is also Chairman of the Medical and Scientific Committee of the Illinois Chapter, Arthritis Foundation, sponsor of the meeting and is Vice President of the Chicago Rheumatism Society. The doctor's presentation will be followed by a question and answer period.

The September 24 session will be held from 2 to 4 pm in the South Side, B-Building, Room 111, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills, Admission is free. Yvonne Romanas will announce follow-up meeting plans at that time.

Although the council's prime prupose is to provide assistance to persons with arthritis, membership is open to all interested individuals. Anyone wishing further information can contact Dan Meenan, Fleld Director of the Illinois Chapter at 782-1367.

Hynes endorsements

Illinois Senate President Thomas C. Hynes, the Democratic candidate for Cook County Assessor, has won the endorsement of the Chicago Federation of Labor and Industrial Union Council, (AFL-CIO).

William A. Lee, federation president, said the vote to endorse Hynes was unanimous.

"The endorsement was based on Hynes' record as a legislator, specifically on his many votes in favor of bills to benefit working people in Illinois," Lee said.

Hynes, 39, has been a state senator since 1971, representing the 28th Legislative District on Chicago's far. southwest side. He was elected president of the Senate last yer.

This year, Hynes sponsored and passed major property tax relief legislation which will provide substantial tax savings for thousands of homeowners on next year's tax bills.

Huskey to host drug information conference

State Representative Herb Huskey should be commended for his persistant and time consuming efforts in drawing together all necessary personnel capable of concentrating their influence to formulate the southwest suburban Cook County's new narcotics court in the Fifth Municipal District located in Oak Lawn.

Now more than 200 area school administrators and 45 drug counseling staffs have been invited to participate in a special drug information conference being hosted by State Rep Huskey on Wednesday, Sept 20 at 10 am in Oak Lawn Community High School, 9400 Southwest Highway.

The meeting, Huskey says, will focus on the new narcotics court that was scheduled to open September 13 in Oak Lawn. Irving W. Elserman, presiding judge of the Fifth Municipal District, and Judge Anthony Montellone, who will preside over the court, are scheduled to speak.

Presentations are also planned by representatives of the Cook County Alcohol Safety Education Program, Central State Institute of Addicition and Chicago Cook County T.A.S.C., Inc. A general question-answer period is scheduled.

"In recent years we've heard a lot of talk from parents, public officials, educators, law enforcement personnel and other concerned citizens about wanting to solve the drug problem," Huskey explained, "but many of them also felt pretty helpless about knowing where to begin. Now we have the opportunity to do something positive about the situation, and I hope that many persons will accept the challenge.

"The new narcotics court will certainly help curtail some of the drug problems, but it's by no means the total answer," he said. "In one sense, the court can only be as effective as the community wants it to be. The court cannot by itself educate our children about the dangers of drugs unless parents and community organization agencies invite the judges to speak with these youngsters.

"Neither can the court direct everyone in need of help to the appropriate treatment unless the cases are brought to its attention, nor prosecute drug offenders without cooperation from the community.

"I urge all interested educators and drug treatment personnel to attend this important meeting," Huskey said.

All private and public school principals in the Fifth Municipal District communities have been invited to the conference. Also included are educators in Oak Lawn.

Invitations were also sent to Christ Hospital, Oak Lawn; Family and Mental Health Services of Southwest Cook County, Worth; Little Company of Mary Hospital; Oak Lawn Family Service and South Suburban YMCA, Oak Lawn.

Representatives of youth commissions from Worth Township and Oak Lawn have also been asked to attend.

Free babysitting course

Fire Chief Elmore Harker has announced that the Oak Lawn Fire Department will conduct a free baby sitting course beginning Thursday, October 12, and running thru Thursday, November 16 from 7 to 8:30 pm each Thursday night. Classes will be held at the Salem United Church, 9727 Kostner Avenue. The course will be open to all Oak Lawn residents twelve (12) years and older.

The six (6) week course will be conducted by Lieutenant Ron Murray, head of the Fire Prevention Bureau. The purpose of the course is to instruct students in the handling of emergencies and to insure Oak Lawn parents that their children are being taken care of by a qualified and competent individual.

SESSION ONE, October 12 will be an orientation program by Chief Harker and Lt Murray. Subjects covered will be "Why we are here", "When to call the fire dept", "How to call the fire dept" and a movie "Have a wonderful evening".

SESSION TWO, October 19 will be "Common emergencies", burns, poison, bleeding, shock etc, conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics and the "parents viewpoint" of good and bad babysitters such as use of refrigerator, TV, telephone, wages, conducted by Mrs Kay Siple.

SESSION THREE, October 26 will be "How to entertain children" conducted by the Sismilich family of the Papoose Pre School and "The nurses view" care and feeding, handling and bathing of the baby conducted by the Assistant Director of Obstetrics of Christ Hospital.

SESSION FOUR, November 2 will be the movie "The new pulse of life" and C.P.R. technique using "Resusi Annie" and "Baby Annie" conducted by the Fire Dept Paramedics.

SESSION FIVE, November 9 conducted by Sergeant Macke of the Oak Lawn Police Dept will cover the safety to and from sitting jobs, prowlers and phone pranks. (Written test.)

SESSION SIX, November 16 conducted by Chief Harker and Lt Murray will review the written test, present awards and baby sitting kits.

If you are interested in this course apply at the McCastland Fire Station, 103rd & Kostner or call 422-0388 from 9 am to 5 pm. The course is limited to 75 students, so early registration is encouraged.

CITIZENS COALITION SENDS THANKS

The Citizens Coalition Committee would like to thank all who attended "MAYOR ERNIE KOLB'S SECOND ANNUAL GOLF OUTING" on the 23rd. The tremendous success of this event could only be measured by the enthusiastic crowd in in attendance.

We are also taking this means of expressing our deepest appreciation to everyone who gave of their time and talents and also for the gifts that were given as door prizes.

Again - our thanks!

Ernie Kolb, Ron Stancik, Joe Vogrich,
Jay Bergamini and Jayne Powers

SERTOMA SAYS THANKS

Mayor of Oak Lawn Ernest F. Kolb, who is serving as General Chairman of the South and Southwest Suburban Fund Raising Campaign for the Sertoma Center announced, "on behalf of the officers and directors of the Sertoma Center for Communicative Disorders our thanks and appreciation is hereby extended to all the workers and to the many people who made contributions during our recent Tag Day Campaign."

Chairman Kolb added "special thanks are extended to the officers of the George Washington Savings & Loan Assn for allowing Mrs Linda R. Gray, Chairman of the Oak Lawn Fund Raising Committee to use their facilities as its headquarters for the Tag Day."

Once again Mayor Kolb outlined that services such as speech, language, and hearing problems are now available at the Sertoma Center located at 11220 S Harlem, Avenue in Worth, IL 60482.

Further information describing the center and its function can be made by calling Mrs Dana M. Phillips, executive director at the center, 361-2121 or 361-2122.

News from Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

YOURELL DRAFTS SCHOOL LEGISLATION

Harry "Bus" Yourell

In answer to many taxpayer's questions relative to the School Code that free transportation may be provided only to students living 1½ miles or more from school, Rep Yourell has drafted and pre-filed legislation that would take into consideration the type of terrain, streets, lack of sidewalks, safety conditions and hazards in computing reimbursement by the State to local School Districts.

Many students residing in Chicago Ridge and Oak Lawn attending District 218 schools are faced with serious problems because of hazardous conditions existing within the 1½ miles limitation thus not qualifying them for State reimbursement for free bus transportaion. Ridgeland and Central Avenue are two areas that Rep Yourell's legislation would affect. For most of Central Avenue and Ridgeland Avenue, there are no sidewalks and pupils are forced to walk on the highways or shoulder of highways, thus presenting themselves to high risks of vehicle harm.

The legislation Rep Yourell has drafted and pre-filed is substantially the same as three other bills introduced in past session of the General Assembly. These did not pass simply becuase the Authority for determining the safety conditions to be considered under the 1½ miles limit could not be agreed to by School Districts, the Office of Education and the Department of Transportation, the agency charged with regulating school bus transportation in Illinois. Rep Yourell's legislation designates the Department of Transportation as the logical Authority to designate the areas in which vehicular traffic is a hazard to pupils since this area of concern is their responsibility.

The improvement of Ridgeland Avenue has already been addressed by Yourell in Amendment 64 to the Department of Transportation's budget for the improvement of that arterial highway. Yourell has filed a motion to override the governor's veto of that amendment so that Ridgeland Avenue could be improved without any cost to the taxpayer.

If you have any questions relative to this Amendment to Chapter 29.5 of the School Code, you may contact Rep Yourell by calling his 24-hour answering service, 422-9300.

Social Security Credit Measure Is Changed

People working in employment or self-employment covered by social security are earning credit differently this year than they did before 1978, a social security representative said recently.

Social security credits are measured in units called "quarters of coverage." A person's right to benefits is determined by the number of quarters of coverage he or she has. The required number basically depends on a person's date of birth. No one needs credit for more than 40 quarters of coverage—10 years.

Starting in 1978, a person receives credit for one quarter of coverage for each $250 of covered annual earnings up to a maximum of 4 quarters if annual earnings are $1,000 or more. This applies to both employees and self-employed people.

Before 1978, most employees earned one quarter of coverage if they were paid $50 or more in covered wages during a calendar quarter. Self-employed people earned 4 quarters of coverage if their annual net earnings amounted to $400 or more.

In addition, the spokesperson said, the $250 measure will increase each year to take account of increases in average wages in the U.S.

No changes were made in the rules about how many quarters of coverage are required for benefit eligibility.

More information about social security credits and how they are earned can be obtained at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

Oak Lawn Finance Committee wrestles with financial problems

Little was left to the imagination this past Monday when the Finance Committee met to solve the financial problems of the village. The committee is made up of the six trustees and Mayor Ernie Kolb in an ex officio capacity. Trustee Joe Vogrich is chairman.

The first item covered the $5 million dollar water revenue bond to finance the installation of a 40" transmission main at the Reich station as mandated by the City of Chicago. This money will also cover the cost of a 42" main from Reich to Harker Station at 105th & Lockwood and the repaving of the streets excavated to house the main. The route is approx from 91st & Pulaski, west past Cicero to 49th Ave, 49th Ave to 99th, 99th to 52nd Ave, 52nd to 104th where it will enter the Harker Station from the rear. This route was partially approved because of the bad condition of 52nd Avenue and will, more or less, "kill two birds with one stone." The committee voted unanimously to follow the recommendation of the administration as explained by Village Manager Dick O'Neill. The committee's recommendation will now go to the board of trustees for final approval.

The second and third items on the agenda didn't go as smoothly and tempers flared thru the two hour discussion. The first of these two items was whether or not to refinance a present million dollar bond, taken out to pave streets in the northwest area, and paid for by Motor Fuel Tax (MFT) funds. The decision was contingent upon the committee's recommendations on the next item.

Trustees Jay Bergamini and Joe Vogrich exchanged some pretty strong words in discussing the proposed $4½ million, 20 year loan, in G.O. Bonds to cover the interest due on the public benefit portion of "special assessments." According to Finance Director Peg Grell, only the principal has been paid on the special assessment bonds and although each year she has included the interest payments in the budget they have been cut out because of lack of funds.

These bonds are now being called in and the interest must be paid at the same time. The $4½ million, to be paid by MFT funds, would clean out the outstanding debts and also free-up approximateiy $350,000 a year for the next 20 years.

In reality the total bond would amount to $5,380,000 as the plan would include the above mentioned million dollar bond being paid for by MFT funds and would allow the combined loan to be paid by these funds.

Trustee Vogrich strongly objected to the bond finance plan introduced by Wauterlek & Brown's Municipal Finance Dept.

When Vogrich asked Ms Grell what the village owes on interest she replied that there was a total of $1,132,000 deficit interest not paid.

"We owe money, let's get it paid up," Vogrich said, "But not this way. We can take out a bank loan, pay our bills and go back to zero base. All we're going here is going into further debt to free up $350,000 that we don't even know what it will be used for. Before I approve any loan I want to know where the money is going."

Bergamini said the money was needed to repair the streets. He said they have met on several occasions now and this was the best plan that anyone has come up with.

Vogrich said, "We're talking about $4½ million, we're in serious trouble and have to figure a way out. Let's pay our debts then sit down later and discuss street repairs."

Bergamini said, "I'm worried about the next two years. We have had several meetings and tonight I find out how serious it is."

"The serious crunch is our finanical problem," Vogrich said, "If we go your way we'll be back asking for money to repair the streets."

Trustee Ron Stancik said he liked the idea of "retiring" these problems. He said, "I don't think we have seen the tip of the iceberg, curbs and streets are in desperate need of repair. I see the validity in what each is saying – but at the same time how can you go to people with no curbs and say there is no money."

Bergamini said, "All our MFT funds are gone, we might have to go out and start selling buckets of water."

Trustee John Hardek asked Ms Grell if the village took out a bank loan to pay the deficit how much would we have to pay over ten years. Again the answer was that there was no funds to draw on to pay the loan.

Vogrich said, "We're not only "not" solving our problems with this plan but we are tying ourselves up for 20 years."

Bergamini then moved that, "we go with the $4½ million G.O. Bond," and designate the $350,000 to go for street repairs only. Stancik and Trustee John Cleveland also voted "yes". Vogrich, Hardek and Trustee Lester Anderson voted "no" to create a split decision.

Hardek then said, "Vogrich is right on this, I would like to make a motion that we take our time and find out exactly what are debts are and figure out a satisfactory plan to pay them."

Anderson said that he would like to see the whole plan and know what else is going to be done with the money.

Vogrich said that the 20 year plan would generate about $6½ million in useable funds over 20 years. He then asked Village Engineer Norm Bacon how much it would cost to repair the streets and he gave a rought estimate of $18 million.

Vogrich said, "We'll generate $6 or 7 million over 20 years and he needs $18 million now. It's time we sit down and think of ways to generate revenue in the village."

The meeting was called at this point with no date set for a future meeting.

Along with all others mentioned, Don Canning, Public Works Director, was also present.

How much will it cost?

No one likes to talk money when funeral arrangements are being made. With so much else on the mind, financial considerations are often ignored, or brushed aside. Matt Lamb knows this – and understands the value of financial counseling. Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes offer a wide range of services and options that suit every family's religious or budget requirements. All costs are fully explained, and every detail handled by Blake-Lamb's knowledgeable, professionally-trained staff. It is with pride that the fine service of Blake-Lamb are available to all families regardless of what they may decide to spend. That's because Blake-Lamb is a family owned and operated business with a long-standing tradition (and reputation) for excellence.

Traveling with... World Travel Mart

Jim Buschbach

WHAT'S "Off-the-beaten-path?"

Quite often a client will drop by our office to discuss their future travel plans and ask for a destination that's "off-the-beaten-path." That usually means a spot that's colorful, not overly-commercialized, but with up-to-date accommodations. I have to agree that most of us don't want to go abroad and be miserably uncomfortable. But finding a place that is really different and yet with first rate hotels and restaurants can be a problem at times.

Yet there is one spot I can recommend for anyone looking for the exotic with all the conveniences of home. It's Chiang Mai.

"Never heard of it," you say? Perhaps. But let me tell you it's one of the more exciting travel destinations in all of Southeast Asia.

Specifically, Chiang Mai is in Thailand and is second in size only to the capitol city of Bangkok. It's located "up country" -- about 400 miles north of Bangkok in a valley below rugged mountains where big game still roam and dense forest and jungles can make travel more like an expedition.

But don't worry about Chiang Mai itself. To look around the city, you'd think you were back in Asia of 20 years ago. There are plenty of taxis and buses, true. But there are just as many three-wheeled samlor clongs, motorized pedicabs. Ang jutney vans, little open-air trucks, buz around down carrying you for less than 25 cents. That has to be the biggest transportation bargain left.

NEXT WEEK, I will tell you more about this "off-beat" place -- look for this column. Meantime come in and see all the many suggestions we have for your travel plans. Come in soon to World Travel Mart, 5615 W. 95th Street.

Litwiller named to Americana

Alan J. Litwiller was recentiy named as Administrator of the Americana Healthcare Center, 9401 S Kostner, Oak Lawn, replacing William Rincker who has accepted another position with the Americana Corp.

Litwiller, a native of Illinois, graduated from Illinois State University in Normal. He has been with Americana since 1974 and comes to the Oak Lawn administrator's post from a similar one with Americana in Lafayette, Indiana.

Litwiller has named Mrs Adrian Lambert as Assistant Administrator of the Oak Lawn Center. Mrs Lambert has recentiy completed the Americana Administrator's Training Program, serving in the Arlington Heights Center as well as the Oak Lawn Center. Prior to joining the Americana Corp., Mrs Lambert was associated with the Community Nursing Home Program for the Veterans Administration.

Americana is a 155 bed skilled nursing and convalescent facility with a strong rehabilitation program for its patients. The center opened in December, 1977 with a fully trained professional staff of nurses and therapists. The center is approved to admit Medicare patients and meets all federal, state, and local requirements for operation.

Sam and Rose DeLuca - someone you should know

That grit and his wife Rose kept Sam from giving in to muscular dystrophy, the crippling disease Sam and Rose have lived with and battled for the last 44 years.

Today at nearly 68, the oldest survivor of muscular dystrophy, Sam can talk about his condition. He couldn't when he was a young man.

"I don't help him do everything. You know he's very independent. The more he does himself, the happier he is and then, the happier I am," Rose said.

Both agree that in spite of the ups and downs life has dealt them, "God's been good to us."

Perhaps their rock-hard faith is the reason they feel comfortable with life. Rose and Sam are devout Italian Catholics.

"I pray all the time. When I'm down a little, God's there. When I'm happy, He's still there. If I'm worried about Sam, I pray to St Jude, the patron saint of hopeless cases. And you'd be surprised how many things are taken care of," Rose said.

Sam shuns his difficulties, maintaining instead that there's a lot of good in life and that he's been lucky.

"I don't think I've ever said, 'why me?' God gives us these problems and we just have to work them out. That's life," Sam said.

When Rose and Sam met for the first time, life wasn't complicated by health or money problems. Rose and Sam were married in 1931.

Their daughter, Sandy (now Sandy Dorgan) was born in 1933 as Sam's barbershop business was just getting of the ground. Life was good.

The next year, 1934, Sam noticed that his arms were tiring while he was cutting hair or shaving a customer.

"I did go to the doctor once. He said I should take vitamins," Sam recalled. "The doctor said he wasn't sure, but he thought I should go to Billings hospital, in Chicago, and have some tests run. So I did. But I didn't go right away. I went back to work but I'd have to stop and let my arms hang down before I could pick them back up and cut hair," he said.

In 1936 Sam went to Billings and stayed for a week taking tests. The tests comfirmed muscular dystrophy.

"I'll never forget what the doctor told me then. He said, 'Well Sam, there's two things you can do: go home and brood about it and wither away or you can pick yourself up and life your life.'"

Sam went back to barbering and also went to therapy at Billings once a month.

Doctors told Sam and Rose that Sam had between one and five years to live.

"My world almost stopped. Here we were just starting out life together. But Sam . . . .ah. . .Sam, he just wouldn't give up," Rose said.

He went back to barbering but soon sold his half of the business as his wrists got weaker and weaker. Then he opened a little delicatessen but after a few years the landlord decided he wanted to run a business there himself. So Sam's Deli closed and the family went on relief.

"I decided I'd better learn something I could do without using my hands just my brain. So I figured I'd go to school, maybe be an accountant," Sam said.

After seeking help from various governmental agencies, Sam went back to school. At 27 years old he went into the sixth grade and in three years completed his grammar school and high school credits so he could get into the Walton School of Accounting in Chicago.

While he was studying to be an accountant, Sam got jobs through the WPA and also applied for aid from the city of Chicago.

He'd work during the day, go to school and study at night. He spent three years at Walton, then left to "make some money." Sam found a "really good job" with the United States Treasury department.

"I worked in the auditing department. Pretty soon,

The battered woman

Speakers and program participants have been announced for The Battered Woman, an all-day conference, Saturday, Sept 23, cosponsored by Moraine Valley College and the Palos Branch, American Assn of University Women.

Keynote speaker is Margaret Cowden, executive director, Illinois Commission on the Status of Women.

Panel participants are Mary Betg, executive director, Elgin Community Crisis Center; Dan Hurley, police chief, Palos Hills and Nikki Nelson, Family Service Bureau of United Charities of Chicago and board president, Shelter Task Force of Chicago Abused Women's Coalition.

Legal issues will be discussed by Candace Wayne, supervisory attorney, Legal Center for Battered Women, Chicago.

Additional resource persons are Mary Juric, emergency department nurse, Illinois Masonic Hospital, and Anthony Montelione, circuit court judge, 5th Municipal District of Cook County.

The conference was set up to bring community awareness to the problems of abused women, to expose myths surrounding the victims of abuse, to clarify the emotional and psychological issues of abuse and to establish a support network for helping victims.

Fee for the conference, including lunch is $20 per person.

Additional information is available from the MVCC Adult Career Resource Center, 10954 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills, 974-4300, ext 267.

RUG HOOKING

On Monday, September 18 a "Coffee Time Meeting" will be held at the Oak Lawn Senior Center from 10 am to 12:15 pm. Guest speaker will be Joan Rechwerdt.

Joan's visit to the center will feature the lost art of Old World "Rug Hooking". Original patterns and wools dyed from vegetables, fruits and weeds are some of the things you will have, an opportunity to view.

All Oak Lawn senior residents are invited to "Coffee Time". Be sure to bring a sandwich as coffee and tea will be served after the program.

The center is located at 5330 W 95th Street.

The Grand Daddy of Them All

Farmers Insurance Group has selected "The Granddaddy of Them All" as theme of its float in the 90th annual Pasadena, CA Tournament of Roses Parade on January 1, according to Bob Kane, agent for the group at 5253 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn.

The float is in keeping with the Tournament theme of "Our Wonderful World of Sports" and will feature a floral replica of the Rose Bowl and a portrait of the 1979 parade Grand Marshal, Lathrop K. Leishman, considered the person most responsible for making the Rose Bowl the attraction it is today.

Leishman has served more than a half century as a member of the Tournament of Roses Assn.

"The member companies of Farmers Insurance Group are looking for a woman, at least 18 years of age, to be queen of our 1979 Pasadena, California, Tournament of Roses parade float."

Winner of the contest will receive an all-expense-paid trip to Pasadena to reign January 1 as queen of the companies' float.

The contest will be judged on the basis of photographs submitted by contestants.

Local contest winners will be in the national finals.

Judging of the national winner will be by a committee selected from TV, radio, press and business.

Entry blanks and contest rules are available at Bob Kane's office, 5253 W 95th St, Oak Lawn. Entrants must be at least 18 years of age on the date of contest closes, October 16, 1978.

Entries should be mailed to "Queen Contest," Farmers Insurance Group of Companies, P.O. Box 2478, 4680 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90051. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight, October 16, 1978.

MVCC's annual Messiah performance is scheduled for 2 pm Sunday, Nov 26. Rehearsals will be held on Friday, Nov 24.

MVCC SENIOR SEMINAR PULLMAN BUS TOUR

A bus tour of historic Pullman has been scheduled for the Moraine Valley Senior Seminar, Friday, Sept 22. The bus will leave the MVCC campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, at 12:30 pm and return at 4:30 pm. A $3 per person bus charge and advance registration by Sept 20 are required.

A tour guide on the bus will explain the historic significance as the tour progresses.

Registration forms and additional information are available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St., Palos Hills; phone 974-4300.

House resolution honors Doris Klein

Rep Harry Yourell, D-8th, recently presented Doris G. Klein a resolution which was passed by the 80th General Assembly. The resolution read that she was installed in the 1978 Senior Citizen Hall of Fame in the Chicago City Council Chambers on May 22, 1978, by Mayor Michael Bilandic. Mrs Klein was selected from among 800 nominees in Chicago and suburbs and was cited for outstanding contributions to her community and church since retirement.

As a member of the Senior Citizen Commission she has helped develop such programs as needs assessment public hearings, information and referral services, senior citizen discount program, assistance for the homebound, a senior newspaper known as The Trailblazer, educational classes and health screenings. Mrs Klein was instrumental in establishing the Senior Citizen Council, the Drop-In Center and the multi-purpose concept of the new Oak Lawn Senior Center.

She has also served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the First Methodist Church of Oak Lawn and was recently elected Lay Leader of the congregation - the first woman in her church to be so honored.

State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell (r) is shown presenting a House Resolution to Doris G. Klein.

Reception planned for senate president Hynes

A welcoming reception honoring Senate President, Thomas C. Hynes, Democratic Candidate for Cook County Assessor is planned for Sunday, September 24 at Nikos Restaurant, 7600 S Harlem In Bridgeview. From 2 to 5 pm suburban residents have an opportunity to meet and talk with Mr Hynes. This welcoming affair is sponsored by the Southwest Suburban Citizens for Hynes. There is a donation of $10.

Previous to Tom Hynes' candidacy for Cook County Assessor, he rose to the position of Senate President, the Illinois Legislature's highest office. He helped win tax relief for senior citizens and generic drug legislation to lower prescription cost for all Illinois residents. In 1977 Tom Hynes was named one of the state's 10 best legislators.

Plaque dedication to commemorate first Village Hall

A bronze plaque will be dedicated by the Oak Lawn Bicentennial Commission to mark the site of the former Village Hall on Sunday, Sept 24 at 11 am. Mayor Ernest F. Kolb will accept the plaque for the people of the village and unveil the memorial. The first village hall was constructed in 1911 and was the first public building constructed after the incorporation of the village, according to Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan who commissioned the plaque for the Bicentennial Commission, while serving as vice chairman of the commission.

Many Oak Lawn residents may remember the building, but not all with relish as the building doubled as a jail holding two cells. During its active life it also housed the village fire engine in a lean-to behind it. It is thus appropriate that the building was razed in 1961 to provide for the construction of the new Public Safety Center which housed both the Police and Fire Departments. The building ceased to be used as the seat of government in 1959 when the present village hall was constructed.

All are invited to attend the dedication to view the plaque and hear brief remarks by Kolb, Sullivan and Mrs Dorothy Olsen of the Bicentennial Commission. Those who remain will be able to view the second annual pet parade sponsored by the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce at 12:30 pm which will march from 95th & Menard east on 95th Street to the Cook Avenue School where a carnival and other activites are planned.

Familiar faces and places

Have you ever wondered what Oak Lawn means to children? A chance to take a look at Oak Lawn through the eyes of the Brownies of Troop 227 in their exhibit "Familiar Faces and Places" currently on dispiay at the Oak Lawn Historical Society (9526 Cook Ave). The Brownies undertook a project to take photographs of Oak Lawn's buildings and citizens as an experiment in texture and color, but according to Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan more than that was accomplished.

"This is one of the nicest records of what children think is interesting in a community that I have ever seen", said Sullivan. "Most pictorial records of a community are from the point of view of aduits and tell us little about the interests of a sizable portion of the population -- the children". Sullivan added that with the exception of mounting the photographs upon an exhibition moduie all else is the work of the children. The Society has retained the picture captions and titles of the units from the original work by Brownie Troop 227. "We should all thank the Brownies of Troop 227 for preserving a different view of our community", said Sullivan.

The Oak Lawn Historical Society is open to the public without charge on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 1 until 5 pm. The Historical Society will be closed the week of Sept 18 but will be open from 1 until 5 pm on Sunday, Sept 24 after the Oak Lawn Pet Parade.

First O'Malley Clan dinner at Holiday Inn Oak Lawn

True to their promise the "O'Malley Clan" is having the first annual dinner at the Holiday Inn, Oak Lawn, Sunday, October 15.

The "O'Malley Clan" has been in existence in Ireland for 25 years but this is the first time they have organized in the United States according to Alice O'Malley who is considered an authority on the subject.

Main speaker for the dinner will be Patrick O'Malley, Chairman of Canteen Corp, Chicago.

Guest speaker will be C. Conor O'Malley, a Professor from Galawy University, Ireland. Professor O'Malley is the Guardian Chief of the O'Malley Clan and holds this position for a lifetime.

Deputy Chief of the O'Malley Clan, Doctor Thomas A. O'Malley of Sarasota, Fla, is also expected to attend.

A social hour is planned at 3 pm (cash bar) with a Prime Rib dinner with all the trimmings to be served at 4 pm in the Lord Nelson Banquet Room. Bob Golden and his band will provide dinner and dancing music.

Pat O'Malley of the Holiday Inn, and chairman of the O'Malley Clan, hopes to see all of the O'Malleys in the Chicagoland area on Sunday, October 15. He promises a good time for all.

THEATER,THEATER AND THEATER

Three fall theater classes are available this fall. Included are From Page to Performance for adults; Teen Theater for young adults, 12-18 years old; and Children's Theater for children 7-11 years old.

FROM PAGE TO PERFORMANCE is a theater workshop. Class members will learn acting and producing when they take a one-act play from manuscript to performance. No experience is necessary. The class begins Oct 31. Sessions will be held from 7 - 10 pm for six weeks on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The fee is $25 per person.

TEEN THEATER is designed to give confidence thru acting and stage-craft experience. Participants will have a chance to try a variety of roles. The class meets from 10 am - noon for six Saturdays. The fee is $25 per person.

THE CHILDREN'S THEATER offering follows two successful summer sessions that stimulated requests for additional classes. Children learn to relax, to interpret simple roles and to enjoy drama. Sessions are scheduled for 10 am - noon on eight successive Saturdays. The fee is $20 per person.

PRACTICAL USE OF SOLAR ENERGY

The practical use of solar energy in this climactic zone is explored in Introduction to Solar Energy. Three evening workshop sessions are augmented by an all-day field trip to a solar home under construction.

Evening sessions are scheduled for 7 - 10 pm Tuesday, Sept 19; Thursday, Sept 21 and Tuesday, Sept 26. The Saturday field trip is from 9 am - 4 pm Sept 23.

The first two meetings are devoted to a study of solar energy, the technology of flat plate collectors, heat loss and thermal efficiency for the home.

CHRIST HOSPITAL TO TRAIN LIVE-IN HOME HEALTH AIDES

Christ Hospital will train both live-in and day-care home health aides in its September home health aide class to be held Monday, Sept 25 thru Friday, Sept 29 from 9 am to 12 noon.

For employment as a live-in home health aide one must be available round-the-clock to work in the home of a recently hospitalized or chronically ill patient. Home health aides provide basic health care.

They are instructed by Christ Hospital personnel in techniques of bathing, feeding, and moving patients, as well as bed making, and pulse and temperature taking. They are also taught body mechanics and back care for themselves.

The fee for the Christ Hospital home health aide course is $5. For further information or to enroll in the course, call Claire Skrobuton, home health aide coordinator, 425-8000, ext 5398.

Rodney Wright, registered architect, will conduct the course. He conducts workshops and gives lectures on solar energy throughout the Midwest. He was the recipient of a 1975 National Endowment for the Arts fellowship to study the use of solar energy in urban buildings.

During the final wrap up session, additional information will be provided about solar energy technology and available products. Fee for the course is $40 per person.

Conveniences available for physically handicapped

Accessibility and special services for students with physical limitations are available at Moraine Valley College.

Accessibility features include ramps and automatic doors at main entrances, graded entrances to interim buildings, elevators, lowered telephones and drinking fountains, modified washrooms and designated parking areas.

Support services may vary or modified depending on the student. However, a pre-admission visit to the campus gives the prospective student an opportunity to discuss his concerns and to assess the options at MVCC.

MVCC will assist with arrangements for freshman orientation. Also MVCC will assist with registration and course scheduling so that accessibility, course availability and class locations can all be coordinated.

MVCC will also assist with special test-taking, health and personal counseling, career counseling, placement service and financial aid.

In addition, mechanical aids are available. These include a brailler machine, wheelchairs, braille games, lightweight recorders, Speech-plus calculators, Apollo Laser Visual Aid, variable speed recorders, verbal dictating machines and Webster's New World Dictionary in braille.

For additional info call 974-4300, ext 316.

Widowed mother

"What Do You Do When Your Mother Becomes A Widow?" is the topic of a special program planned by the PLOWS Council on Aging. The program will be held Tuesday, September 19 at 7 pm at the Cook School, 9526 S Cook Avenue in Oak Lawn.

Rebecca Lerfelt, M.S.W. Social Service Director of PLOWS, will present information that is aimed to help adult children gain a better understanding into the problems of their parent's widowhood.

Also discussed at the PLOWS program will be how lack of financial resources after the death of a husband can be a severe problem. The elderly widow may no longer be covered by her husband's pension and the social security check will be reduced. Learning to survive on a reduced income can be more of a setback for the older woman.

Annfrances Wohlberg, M.A., Director of Programming for the PLOWS Council on Aging, is a gefontologist concerned about the responsibilities of family members to a widowed parent. Mrs Wohlberg states: "There is a fine line between independence or dependence in dealing with an aged parent." This issue will also be discussed at the Sept 19 program.

To register for the "What Do You Do When Your Mother Becomes a Widow?" program, call the PLOWS Council on Aging 422-6722/6769. There is no charge.

Beginning in October, current movies will be shown one Friday a month and a haunted house will be a big event at the Teen Center from Saturday the 28th thru Monday the 30th.

The Youth Advisory Commission held it's election of officers on September 5. The newly elected officers are: Miss Kim McGrath; president; Miss Kelli Keenon, vice president; Miss Ursula Koch, treasurer and Miss Deanna Caliozzo, secretary.

If your financial stability is weak The Oak Lawn Youth Commission also has an Employment Referral Service which caters to the youth in Oak Lawn between the ages of 11 and 25.

They've got spirit at HLR

Harold L. Richards High School Varsity and Sophomore Cheerleaders proved they're spirited squads by capturing a number of awards at summer cheerleading camps they attended with their coach Barbara Romani.

The Varsity Squad took top honors in camp competition and earned three of a possible four Spirit Stars at the All-Star Cheerleader Camp held at Knox College in Galesburg, IL. Varsity Squad Members were also selected by fellow cheerleaders as the recipients of a plaque for Most Spirited Squad.

Members of the Sophomore Squad earned ribbons for "outstanding" and "excellent" performances and a camp Spirit Stick at the National Cheerleaders Assn Camp held at Illinois State University.

Members of the Varsity Squad include seniors Janet Lablak and Kathy Leiser, both of Oak Lawn, Sue Wiedow of Chicago Ridge and juniors Annette Bilhorn, Patty Kick, Vickie Nitsos, Geri Ready, all of Oak Lawn, and Lillie Schleiter and Sue Strandell, both of Chicago Ridge.

Sam DeLuca -someone you should know they picked me and some other men to go to San Francisco to set up a new payroll system. But when I got there I knew I couldn't live in that town. Have you ever seen those hills? I asked for a transfer. But the government said no. So I quit," Sam said.

Sam came back to Chicago and found a job with Joe Schlenbogt in his accounting office. He stayed there for two years and then decided to open his own office.

So daughter Sandy's bedroom became the office in the family's apartment and, for the next 16 years, Sam's business grew from two small accounts to a thriving business.

In 1957, with the help of two friends who were contractors, he built a new building at 71st Street and Cottage Grove and moved the business and the family there. For the next 15 years, the business progressed and the family was comfortable. But the medical problems continued to grow.

"It was getting harder and harder to type and run the adding machine. So I decided I'd better retire. Other men face that, so could I," Sam remarked.

So six years ago, Sam and Rose retired from the apartment business in Chicago and moved to Florida.

"The weather there is kinder to Sam. We like it. But we come back every summer and visit Sandy and the grandchildren, Jim and Janice," Rose said.

When the DeLucas come to town, they stay at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn where "everyone makes us comfortable," according to Rose.

"The people here like Joe English, George Wiegel, Art Alaniz and Pat O'Malley —they're great. They are so willing to help us do anything we want," she said.

The immaculately-dressed Sam and his wheelchair are a familiar sight in the corridors at the 95th street motel. His cheerful, "Hi, how are ya?" greetings echo as he moves through the halls.

Sam's indomitable will and Rose's untouched faith in God have carried the couple through the ups and downs of life and the terrors of living with muscular dystrophy.

They have joined the Muscular Dystrophy Asso chapter in Florida. Sam receives therapy from the chapter and Rose goes door-to-door collecting for the fund.

Life goes on for Sam and Rose and each day is a good one.

"Never give up. That's my advice to people who have muscular dystrophy. Don't think of yourself as sick," he said.

"Smile and everybody smiles with you. Cry and you cry alone," Rose said.

"I think though that if there was one thing I had to do over I would have stayed in business a little longer. Maybe I should be a consultant? What do you think? That's an idea. I miss the work. . .," Sam said.

Trinity Presbyterian September events

Trinity Presbyterian Chruch of Oak Lawn began the regular fall season, Sept 10 with the return of the choir directed by Joan Gould and accompanied by Doris Anderson. Church School also began Sept 10. Church School Superintendent is Ellen Cooday.

The Junior High Group led by Sue Quanella and Frank Drabik began fall meetings Sept 13. The monthly meeting of the session, consisting of the nine ruling elders, will be Monday, Sept 18, according to Clerk of the Session, Eleanore Stefcik.

A potluck dinner sponsored by the Fellowship Committee will be held Saturday, Setp 16, 6:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall, 106th & Kostner. Highlight of the evening will be a program and slides on the 1978 Middle East, presented by Mike Foley, former seminar assistant.

A Coffee Hour will be held after the Sunday, Sept 24 services. Events in October include an Oct 27, 28, 29 weekend family retreat in Saugatuck, MI. The annual senior retreat will be in November.

Oak Lawn High School Homecoming October 7th

Oak Lawn Community High School's Student Council is currently making plans for this year's Homecoming Celebration. The festivities are scheduled for Saturday, October 7. The annual Homecoming Parade, under the theme of "Always and Forever", will step off at 11 am at 51st Avenue and proceed west on 95th Street to the Warren O. Koselpp Athletic Field, located just west of the high school. The Homecoming Parade again is being planned in cooperation with the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce. Mrs Betty Gallo, Chamber President; Milt Anderson, Parade Chairman; and John Fisler, Executive Director; are coordinating the parade with the Student Council. Student Council officers, who are planning and coordinating the activities, are Seniors Diane Palumbo, President, and Carol Conrad, Vice President and Juniors Jerry Chickerillo, Treasurer and Leonetta Rizzi, Secretary. Dr Ben Smith is the Student Council faculty sponsor.

The parade will feature the Homecoming Court; Spartan Marching Band; Pom Pom Team; Cheerleaders; and the floats sponsored by the various student clubs and organizations. The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce donates two traveling trophies for the Most Outstanding Float and the Best Use of the Homecoming Theme. The chamber also awards a $50 cash prize for the best float in each category and a $25 prize for the runner-up. Last year the Junior Class won the Best Use of Theme Trophy and the Senior Class float won the Most Outstanding Float Award.

The Oak Lawn Spartans will host the Lincoln-Way Knights in a SICA West conference football game Saturday afternoon. The varsity, coached by Chuck Chilvers, will kick-off its game at 1 pm; while the sophomores, coached by Bill Marcordes, get underway at 12 noon.

Between the sophomore and [illegible] games, prizes for the winning floats will be awarded by Mrs Betty Gallo, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber.

The half time show will feature the Spartan Marching Band; the presentation of the Homecoming Court; and the naming of this years Homecoming Queen.

The Student Council, with the help of the Home Economics Department, is again sponsoring a Hospitality Room in the Teacher's Cafeteria during the afternoon festivities. All OLCHS alumni are cordially invited to stop by for refreshments and visit with faculty and old friends.

At 8 pm the semi-formal Homecoming Dance will be held in the auditorium gym. Music will be provided by "Synod". Tickets are $7 per couple for students and alumni and are available from Student Council officers.

All OLCHS alumni are cordially invited to participate in the school's homecoming activities.

Judge Montelione to chair Drug Information Board

Shown above is Judge Irving W. Eiserman as he announced the opening of the Narcotics Court on September 13, 1978. On the left is State Rep Herb Huskey who drew the necessary people together to formulate the court and on the right is Judge Anthony S. Montelione who was chosen to preside over the new court.

Shortly after Judge Anthony S. Montelione was named to preside over the new 5th District Narcotics Court in Oak Lawn, he was selected as chairman of a 19 member Drug Information Board for the south suburban judges. Among the members chosen for the board on Wednesday, September 20, at a Drug Conference initiated by State Rep Herb Huskey and held at the Oak Lawn Community High School, were representatives from county and state drug and alcohol abuse agencies, school administrators, the states attorney's office, the news media, youth commissions and Oak Lawn Police Department.

Rep Huskey opened the conference with a welcome to the over 100 present and introduced the main speakers.

Huskey said that this court, started thru the efforts of the 5th District presiding judge Irving W. Eiserman, was the first of its kind in Illinois. He said that the only way to make this court a success was for the people to forget their own little animosities and make this court work. Huskey, who said he knew nothing about drugs, will now step out of the program and leave it to the professionals.

Judge Eiserman gave credit to Huskey as having germinated the whole thought. He said that he then contacted Judge John Boyle and together they came to the conclusion that it was a wonderful idea.

He said that the government spends millions of dollars, "after the fact".

"Let's get to the core of the problem 'before the fact' as it is essential to reach the youths before they are guilty of crimes." He said that the narcotics court has a 6 month period to prove its affectiveness.

Judge Eiserman said, "We won't fail - we can't fail - we shall not fail!"

Speaking of the new board Judge Eiserman said that he named Judge Montelione to the Narcotics Court and he would now like him to serve as chairman of the "Drug Information Board." Eiserman will also serve on the board in an advisory capacity.

Judge Montelione, who graduated from Northwestern U, and received his law degree from DePaul, served in the State's Attorney's office from 1964 to 1971, where he became an expert in financial crimes and was chief of this division for three years. He was responsible for more than a thousand bench trials, 60 jury trials and many appeals. He also helped put together the Illinois Credit Card Act of 1973, and discussed its impact at numerous seminars.

His article, "Prosecution of Financial Crimes", was published in 1975 by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education, and he has lectured widely in this field also. Appointed as Associate judge in 1971, he was made a full Circuit Court judge in 1977 by the Illinois Supreme Court. He is considered "highly qualified" by the Chicago Bar Assn and the Justinian Society of Lawyers.

In recent years Judge Montelione has discussed "Recent Developments in Criminal Law" annually for the Southwest Bar Assn, at Moraine Valley college and at the Illinois Bankers Assn. He is a regular lecturer for the Illinois Judicial conference and has been on the coordinating committee for the Appellate Judges

RETIREMENT CAN BE FUN

Finding sufficient time to fulfill personal ambitions is a reward that retirement can bring. Aldrew Selzer, Evergreen Park and Walter Wilson of Hometown provide proof that leisure time living can be productive as well as a lot of fun. Both have applied their special talents to creating beautiful works of art for others to share. Presently their paintings can be enjoyed at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, thru October 14, where business blends with culture.

Yourell receives legislative award

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell received the Legislative Award from the Illinois Assn of County Clerks & Recorders at their recent annual banquet held in Springfield, IL.

Yourell was the guest speaker at the dinner and talked to the association relative to legislation that passed out of the House and Senate and is awaiting signature by the governor.

The Illinois Assn of County Clerks & Recorders were especially pleased with Yourell's sponsorship of the recently enacted HB 2256 which is the salary bill for County Clerks and Recorders and other County officials. This legislation is presently on the governor's desk awaiting his signature and deals specifically with minimum and maximum salaries.

Rep Yourell believes that the state should not be in the business of mandating programs back to units of local governments including counties and this salary bill dealt specifically with that issue. Other legislation that Rep Yourell talked about in his address was the Consolidation of Elections bill and HB 1468 which provides counties among other units of local government the opportunity to self-insure for liability insurance and workman's compensation.

Thompson signs mental health bill

Senator Frank M. Ozinga is shown to the left of the podium as Governor Thompson signs the mental health bill.

Legislation which makes sweeping changes in the State's Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code has been signed into law.

Senator Frank M. Ozinga, co-sponsor of SB 250 said, "This legislation represents the first major revision of the Mental Health Code since its enactment in 1967."

"The law establishes a patient's right to be informed of proposed methods of treatment. Most significantly," Ozinga noted, "the recipient of the services must be allowed the opportunity to refuse treatment, once it has been fully explained."

Exceptions are permitted only when necessary to prevent a person from seriously harming himself or others. Consent for minors must come from the parent or guardian, with court approval.

"Effective immediately, this act will prohibit the use of hazardous and controversial services, such as psychosurgery and shock treatment, unless a patient gives written or informed consent," Ozinga said.

SB 250 is one of a group of bills, including SB 252, SB 253 and SB 255. All four have been signed by the governor.

SB 252 establishes new court procedures and criteria for the appointment of guadians for disabled adults. Effective January 1, 1979, the changes will encourage courts to arrange guardianship that will enable partially disabled persons to make decisions about his or her financial and personal matters.

SB 253 creates a Guardianship and Mental Health advocacy Commission. Effective immediately, the commission will assert and defend the interests of handicapped persons who find it difficult to act on their own behalf.

SB 255 makes provisions to keep communications and records of recipients of mental health and disabilities services confidential, effective January 1, 1979, by amendatory veto.

"The total package exhibits a comprehensive effort to define the rights of all recipients of mental health services," Ozinga said.

"Our work has made the mental health laws of Illinois the most explicit in the nation. The model we have developed is one we should be proud of."

Barnes supports Cost Control reports

Rep Jane M. Barnes (R-8) announced that she supports the implementation of the recommendations to save taxpayers' money made in the recent report of the Governor's Cost Control Task Force. The report made 678 recommendations to cut costs in the executive branch of state government under the control of the governor.

"As a member of the House Appropriations Committee, I attended the meeting of the Task Force at which the report was presented," Rep Barnes stated. "This report will be a useful guide for the Legislature to use when considering appropriations for the 72 agencies, departments, and offices reviewed. In addition, approximately 90 of the recommendations need legislative action to bring about the cost savings. I hope the legislature will assist Gov Thompson to bring about these changes.

"I believe that the citizens of Illinois should thank the 82 members of the task force and the 167 companies that helped sponsor the effort for the final report," Rep Barnes continued.

"I was also glad to hear Gov Thompson say that the report would stir up dust -- not gather dust. Meetings have already been held to start implementation. I have reviewed the report and I was shocked to find so many policies and practices in state government that add to costs instead of lowering them.

"I support implementing the recommendations that will save money in Illinois government," Rep Barnes concluded. "We may not be able to implement all 678 recommendations immediately, but we should use the best and give careful consideration to all of them."

Rep Jane Barnes encouraged 8th District residents who may have ideas about the Task Force report or other cost-saving measures to contact her at her legislative office: 9825 Tripp, Oak Lawn, 60453 or call 424-0100.

Football contest through October

The first person to be presented Notre Dame vs Missouri tickets in Evergreen Savings' football ticket contest, was a gradute of Notre Dame in 1964.

Frank Leber of Flossmoor won the tickets after entering the Football Kickoff contest at the Evergreen Savings office nearest him in Country Club Hills. Winners from the other offices were Betty Barron, winning at the Evergreen Park drive-in facility; and Mr H. Winkelmann, winning at Evergreen Park's main office.

Evergreen Savings officer Ray Kaley (r) presents two 50-yard-line tickets to Notre Dame vs Missouri, and two Fighting Irish stadium cushions to Country Club Hills office winner, Frank Leber of Flossmoor. Other winners not pictured, Betty Barron of Oak Lawn and Mr H. Winkelmann of Evergreen Park.

Throughout the month of October, Evergreen Savings will be drawing a winner from each office. Winners will receive two 50-yard-line tickets, $50 expense money, two stadium cushions and a complete picnic basket outfit. Anyone can enter the drawing and winners are notified the Monday before each game. Entry blanks are available at any of the three Evergreen Savings locations: Evergreen Park at 9950 Kedzie; the Evergreen Park drive-in/walk-up facility at 10200 Kedzie and the Country Club Hills office at 18130 Crawford.

Evergreen Savings invites everyone to enter the contest and is helping increase each persons chances of winning by holding all new drawings following each Notre Dame home game. The more entries anyone makes, the better their chances of winning, so hurry into Evergreen Savings for a chance to see Notre Dame at the 50-yard-line.

Village letting it all hang out

The village fathers are attempting to take on a new image and share their "ups and downs" with the residents. A wide open board, with new and fresh ideas, and hopefully one that accomplishes a closer relationship with the public has been proposed.

One of the new committees formed is the Public Relations Committee with Trustee Ron Stancik as chairman. The two other members are Trustees Jay Bergamini and Les Anderson.

At the first committee meeting Stancik voiced his opinion on the rather negative public awareness of the roles elected officials play. He felt that elected officials, who were instrumental in the creation and passage of programs that get funding from board support, have received very little credit or recognition. He then suggested a public relations service for the board and the method in which it could be handled.

It is often true that stories finding fault make more exciting reading and yet there is very little thought given to the fact that all happenings with regard to the health and welfare of the community comes thru decisions made by the President and Board of Trustees.

Stancik also proposed that a packet, such as the trustees receive before the board meetings, be also given to those from the news media that regularly attend the meetings. The packet contains copies of letters, complaints, Development Board action, etc. This information can be studied prior to the meeting and not only makes us more knowledgeable of what is taking place but can also curb many of the errors also made by the press.

When Trustee Stancik presented his program to the board of trustees it was voted on unanimously that his recommendations, also approved by Bergamini and Anderson, be accepted.

Just recently the Finance Committee, chaired by Trustee Joe Vogrich, met to discuss the financial difficulties of the village and ways and means suggested to improve the situation and the press was called to sit in on the meeting.

It will take time for readers to realize what they read has not come from any devious method of uncovering a story but has come directly from an open board discussion on any given matter.

The President and Board of Trustees should be commended for the new "wide open policy". It should eventually result in a better understanding of the trials and tribulations of our elected officials and the thankless and time consuming roles they play.

Oak Lawn 1978 Leaf Collection program

The Village of Oak Lawn has announced the details of the 1978 Leaf Collection Program which will commence October 17 and end on December 11, 1978. The village is requesting the cooperation of all residents in its effort to complete the entire program to the satisfaction of the residents within this time period. All residents are asked to bag their fallen leaves in disposable plastic bags, including those in the public parkway in front of their homes. Residents are further requested to set out bagged leaves on their regularly scheduled refuse pick up days and no sooner.

Meyer Bros Refuse Company is not required and will not collect leaves that are not in proper containers pursuant to its contract with the village, so any leaves put out for pick up that are not properly bagged will have to be picked up by village forces at an added cost to the taxpayers.

Leaves left in gutters are often swept into storm sewers and catch basins, creating clogs that produce flooding and add even more to village maintenance costs. The village has a vacuum suction machine which perfomrs a number of duties, including the collection of leaves left unbagged. Any branches left in piles of leaves will clog the suction tube, making it necessary for the village crew to stop the truck and remove the branches.

Residents are reminded that the burning of leaves is absolutely prohibited in the village, with penalties provided under the law for violations. The easy way and the least costly way, not only for the village, but ultimately for the taxpayers, is for residents to bag their leaves are requested by the village and put them out on regular pick up days between October 17 and December 11,

Any questions which may have been raised by this village announcement should be directed to the Public Works Office at 636-4400, ext 256 or 257.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

RUSSO INTERESTED IN LEGISLATION FOR SENIORS

As a member of the Select Committee on Aging, I am particularly interested in legislation for senior citizens. Congress is formulating comprehensive programs now that address the needs of this segment of our population in the areas of health, housing and nutrition.

The main thrust of services to the elderly today is toward the prevention of institutionalization and the improvement of quality of life for persons over 60.

I am a co-sponsor of Home Health Care Legislation which is designed to provide home health care to older persons as an alternative to institutional care. This legislation would make home care services more available under Medicare by removing the visit limit, prior hospitalization and homebound requirements, and by adding homemaker-chore services.

According to the recommendations of the General Accounting Office, HOME HEALTH — — THE NEED FOR A NATIONAL POLICY TO BETTER PROVIDE FOR THE ELDERLY, which concluded that, "until older people become greatly or extremely impaired the cost of nursing home care exceed the cost of home care." As many as 25% of the one million institutionalized elderly are unnecessarily maintained in nursing homes which are excessive for their needs. In 1977 only four-tenths of one percent of the over $5 billion Medicaid spent for persons over 65, was for home health care contrasted to 78% for care in nursing homes. It is also a callous answer to health needs for the elderly. Most people do not want to leave their own homes to go into an impersonal nursing home.

In 1977 there were 707,463 elderly persons living in public housing units across the country, and it is projected that more than 3 million elderly persons are in need of public housing. Responding to this need, Congress has appropriated an additional $800 million in the Department of Housing and Urban Development appropriation for rent subsidies for Senior Citizens.

The House of Representatives and the Senate have both completed action on the Older Americans Act. Outstanding features of the legislation include: strengthening the Administration on Aging's involvement in development of long-term care policy and assuring assessment of manpower needs for such care, and provisions for utility and home heating cost model demonstration projects aimed at reducing cost for the elderly.

The bill is now being considered by House and Senate Conference Committees to resolve any differences which the two bodies may have on this legislation.

The reauthorization of the Older Americans Act will be yet another step in the process of Congress helping Senior Citizens maintain a high living standard free from inadequate health care and deficient living standards.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR

Congratulations on your appointment to the new Drug Information Board.

Your acceptance of this important position demonstrates not only your interest in curbing drug abuse, but also a dedicated commitment to your profession. All residents of the Fifth Municipal District will benefit from your expertise.

Please accept my thank you on behalf of all these families and young people. Although I am not formally serving on the Board, my office will always be available to help in whatever way possible. Do not hesitate to call on me if I can be of assistance.

BOARD MEMBERS: Mary Cannon, Donna Gesell, Rev. Edward Goltz, Arvin Kreutzer, Walter Lennartson, Wayne Mraz, Leroy Nelson, Martin Ozinga, Rev Timothy Reeves, Anne Sovik and Jim Sherman.

You're never far from Chesterfield

Chicago-Beverly

Whether you drive or walk in this part of town, a tall obelisk-like column with Chesterfield Federal on it will tell you that you're headed in the right direction. This is our home office, where you'll find everything you need to get ahead financially: passbook savings accounts, a choice of high-yield savings certificates, IRA and Keogh tax-deductible and tax-deferred retirement accounts, Social Security direct deposit and other services. Including, of course, home loans.

There are two parking lots for your convenience and walk-up teller windows that you may use before or after normal business hours.

Palos Hills

If you live in Palos Hills or in any of the neighboring suburbs, then our branch office here will probably be the most convenient to visit. And, as Branch Manager Richard Urchell will be glad to tell you, it is a branch in name only. Because in Palos Hills you will find all the financial services we offer at our home office, including safe deposit boxes. Here, too, you will find walk-up teller windows and plenty of free parking.

Frankfort

This is our second branch office, but like the other two, it offers full financial services. Situated on 2½ acres of beautifully landscaped ground, it is at the junction of Routes 35 and 40, offering easy access from all directions. Branch Manager Hugh Waldier wants to remind you that if you have a savings account or a mortgage at one Chesterfield Federal office, you can always make deposits, withdrawals or mortgage payments at the other two. At Frankfort we also have two parking lots as well as drive-up teller windows.

Denice Vogrich to bow

If you have scheduled a trip through Gould-Kelly Travel Agency recently, changes are you have already met pretty Christ Hospital 1978 debutante Denice Vogrich.

Denice, the daughter of Mr and Mrs Joseph Vogrich, Oak Lawn, works at the travel agency this summer full-time, and has worked there during the school year on a part-time basis for more than a year.

She began her travel agency experience as an office helper in 1977, but very shortly she was trained to plan tours, make reservations, write airline tickets, and book tours. Last year Denice went along as a coordinator on several tours to Crystal Mountain and Powder Horn ski areas and to Florida.

An honor student at Queen of Peace High School, Denice is especially fond of her studies in French and in psychology. She hopes to major in the later when she goes to college next year.

Away from school, Denice enjoys skiing, bowling, and swimming, and with encouragement of her high school friends, she has taken up rug hooking. This autumn she plans to become a Candy Stripe volunteer at Christ Hospital.

The Twentieth Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion is sponsored by the Christ Hospital Auxiliary. Over the years this prestigious event has raised $370,000 for Christ Hospital. This year Elvera Mirabelli is chairman of the cotillion and JoAnn Lipinski is co-chairman.

Rice Mothers Club host star Tony Mockus

At their monthly meeting, October 4 at 7:30 pm Rice Mothers' Club will host theater star and producer, Tony Mockus.

Chicago audiences have seen his outstanding performances in "The Guardsman" with Kathryn Crosby, "The Odd Couple" with Tony Randall, "The Fourposter" with Barbara Rush and most recently at Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre in "Finishing Touches" again co-starring with Barbara Rush.

Goodman Theatre has engaged him for the premier production of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" which he will direct for the 1978-79 season. A pleasant evening is planned for all.

Host adoption conference October 6th

Post-adoption inquiries from adoptees and from natural parents will be the topic at Catholic Charities' Fall Conference on Friday, October 6, beginning at 7:45 pm at Catholic Charities' Near North Center, 721 N LaSalle Street in Chicago.

The conference, which is sponsored by Catholic Charities' Adoption Dept, will focus on how the agency works with teenagers asking questions about their natural parents and with natural parents seeking information about the children they had released for adoption. Staff members conducting the Conference also hope to help adoptive parents face the issue when it arises in their own families.

The Conference is open to all adoptive couples whether they're adopted thru Catholic Charities, other agencies or privately. Also invited are couples interested in exploring the possibilities of adoption.

Admission is $3 per couple payable in advance or at the door. Reservations may be made by contacting Catholic Charities' Adoption Dept, 645 W Randolph Street, Chicago, IL 60606; phone 236-5172.

Pompeii Past and Present lecture series at library

Lee Gibbs

Pompeii Past and Present will be the theme of a free lecture series by Lee Gibbs at the Oak Lawn Public Library at 7:30 pm on October 12 and 19.

The first part of the lecture series focuses on recreating Pompeii as it was almost 2,000 years ago, a civilization that came to a complete stop in just one day with the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. In story and pictures you can get the feel of this city that once had a population of 20,000 and climb to the top of the still active volcano. Another fascinating aspect of the Pompeii story and its discovery is its influence on the world of art, architecture and interior design.

The second part of the lecture series on October 19 will concentrate on the objects included in the exhibit that is presently at the Art Institute of Chicago.

Lee Gibbs is a well-known lecturer in the Chicago area, who hosted the popular King Tut series at the library. She is a member of the Art Institute, the Field Museum of Natural History, the Lyric Opera of Chicago Lecture Group and others.

The lectures are free, no registration is necessary and they will be held in the downstairs community room at the library.

JUDGE WHITING TO SPEAK AT BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

Paula Klepec, President of the Oak Lawn Business & Professional Women's Club, has announced that Associate Judge Willie M. Whiting of the Circuit Court of Cook County, as part of National Business Woman's Week, will be their guest speaker on Wednesday, October 4. The dinner meeting will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4525 W 95th Street, starting at 6:30 pm. Judge Whiting will speak on "What You Should Know About YOUR Courts". There will be a question and answer period.

Judge Whiting has been a member of the judiciary for 12 years. She is an alumna of Fisk U, Nashville, Tenn. and John Marshall Law School. She was admitted to Illinois bar in 1951 and admitted to practice before U.S. Supreme Court in 1964. She has served in the U.S. and State's Attorney's offices. Judge Whiting received the Cook County Bar Assn's Distinguished Service to the Legal Profession Award in 1975. She is currently a candidate for judge in the upcoming November election.

Meier attends Realtors seminar

Speakers at the seminar included: Ray Roper, Senior Vice President of the 600,000 member National Assn of Realtors, Robert E. Cook, executive vice president of the Illinois Assn of Realtors, and Jonathan Howe, noted real estate and association attorney with the Chicago-based law firm of Jenner and Block.

Topics of strategic importance to the real estate industry were examined, and innovative methods of increasing administration effectiveness were explored.

Meier has been the chief executive officer for the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors since October, 1977.

The board recently completed plans for a Royal Reception III, dinner dance on September 27 honoring elected officials from the 35 communities served by the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Named Outstanding

Lorie Matha and Bob Bulow were named as the recipients of OLCHS's J.E. Lynch Awards, given annually to the most outstanding junior girl and boy, as selected by the junior class and staff. The award is named for the former superintendent of OLCHS District 229.

Junior students who demonstrated outstanding achievement and/or leadership in a subject area and/or extra curricular activity were nominated by staff members. The junior class then held an election and selected the top 5 boy and girl vote getters. The final selection was made by a faculty committee.

Lorie Matha has a grade point average of 3.749 and ranks eighth in her class. She participated in track and tennis, and was a

Bob Bulow has a grade point average of 3.635 and ranks 14 in his class. He has participated in basketball, baseball, track and football. During the 77-78 school year, as a junior, he was named to the South Inter Conference Assn all-conference football team. Bob is the son of Mr and Mrs John Bulow, 5500 Edison, Oak Lawn.

Lorie and Bob had their names added on a plaque that is displayed at school. Each received a medallion commemorating the high honor they received.

Bit o' Trivia

Sunday yachters came out in the 1870's only to be criticized for holding "convivial gatherings." Members of the yachting clubs were threatened with being made social outcasts and warned they would receive "encouragement only from those who practice riotous living."

Christ cancer program receives approval

The Christ Hospital cancer program has received a three year approval by the American College of Surgeons, according to Otto M. Janke, administrator of Christ Hospital and vice president of the Evangelical Association.

The approval signifies that the Christ Hospital cancer program meets all requirements of the American College of Surgeons commission on cancer.

"What this means to patients who come to Christ Hospital for diagnosis and treatment of cancer is that we have facilities and qualified personnel for their total care," says Virendra S. Saxena, M.D., chairman of the Christ Hospital tumor committee.

The American College of Surgeons requirements are: accreditation of the hospital by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals; and a multidisciplinary cancer committee which is responsible for (a) a functioning cancer registry with periodic reports to the hospital staff; (b) multidisciplinary educational cancer conferences; (c) consultation services; (d) a system for quality-of-care evaluation with documentation of its operation. The Christ Hospital program meets the additional requirement of having full facilities and personnel within the institution for diagnosis and treatment of cancer in all major anatomical sites.

During 1977 Christ Hospital treated more than 1100 patients with a diagnosis of cancer. "Our cancer registry has followed up on all cancer patients diagnosed at Christ Hospital since 1972, which gives us the top registry follow-up record in the State of Illinois," says Noreen Lanahan, manager of the Christ Hospital medical records department.

Celebrate 50th wedding anniversary

Mr and Mrs Stanley Waleryszak celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on August 11 with a mass and brunch in South Wilmington, IL. Although the Waleryszaks now reside in Reddick, IL since Stanley's retirement after 45 years with Western Electric, they spent 65 years of their lives on Chicago's southwest side.

On August 20th, a party was given by the couple's children, with 102 guests. Attending a dinner and dance at the Condessa Del Mar, were their children, Mr & Mrs David Walery of Oak Lawn, Mr & Mrs Elmer Everson of Oak Lawn, Mr & Mrs Clay Tatum of Braidwood, Mr & Mrs Clyde Cole of Elk River, Mn, 15 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren and other relatives, friends and neighbors.

Stanley is still an active member of the Polish Roman Catholic Union of America, 92, where he served for many years as Finaicial Secretary. He also belongs to the Pioneers Club, a Western Electric group. Gertrude is a former member of the Beverly Lawn Women's Club of Oak Lawn, and is now serving as a volunteer, taking phone calls for the Lupus Erythematosus Society of IL. Much of the Waleryszaks time is now occupied with gardening, canning, fishing, and enjoying the quietude of country life.

Cosentino endorsements

Jerry Cosentino, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, was endorsed this past week by the 60,000 member Illinois Education Assn (IEA).

Meeting in Springfield, the IEA's 58 member board endorsed Cosentino as part of a bi-partisan slate of candidates that the teacher's organization will work for in the November election.

Mel Smith, IEA President, explained the group's rationale for choosing Cosentino in the Treasurer's race, "Cosentino was endorsed because he has promised compassionate delivery of state funds to those banks which serve financially troubled school districts."

The program Smith referred to is the Treasurer's Community Service Allocation where banks are rewarded with state deposits for making loans which help their communities. Cosentino has pledged to continue this 12 year old policy, while his opponent has come out for its abolition.

The IEA was the second major group to endorse Cosentino within 10 days. Earlier the 130,000 Illinois members of the United Auto Workers of America had voted to endorse Cosentino.

Reynold's offers students pocket money

Students returning to school this fall will find it simple to pick up a little extra money needed for school supplies and other incidentals by recycling all-aluminum cans and other clean household aluminum, S.B. Thompson, district recycling manager for Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company, reminds.

"Reynolds pays 17 cents per pound for these materials," Thompson reported. "The recycling of the light-weight metal is running at record levels," he noted. Thompson said, "The company collected a record breaking 70 million pounds of aluminum through its consumer recycling program in the first half of 1978."

Reynolds pays for aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum items such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays and dip, pudding and meat containers. Certain other items include aluminum siding, gutters, storm door and window frames, and lawn furniture tubing are also worth 17 cents a pound if properly prepared. This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with cans.

Location of the nearest Reynolds recycling point is Zayres, 87th & Harlem, from 1 to 4 pm on Wednesdays.

Water color exhibit on display at Talman in Oak Lawn

An exhibit of 30 water color paintings by artist Mary Anne Annable will be on display at the Talman Federal Savings and Loan Assn's Ranch Manor branch office, 4046 W. 111th Street, until September 30. The paintings can be seen during regular business hours, Thursday and Friday, 9 am to 8 pm, Saturday, 9 am to 1 pm.

Ms Annable's colorful works had previously been selected by Talman for use in three of their annual calendars.

The artist was born and raised on the southwest side of Chicago. Her interest in drawing began at an early age, and through her teachers' encouragement at John F. Kennedy High School, she came to consider art as a career.

At the age of 14 she entered her first exhibit in the First Annual Chicago Lawn Art Fair. Since that time, her paintings have been shown throughout the Chicagoland area, Indiana and Michigan and have won numerous awards including several "Best of Show."

While Mary Anne was still in high school, she served as the staff artist for the Illinois Newsgram. It was also at this time that she received a scholarship for limited study at the Art Institute of Chicago. After graduation from high school, Mary Anne received a partial scholarship from the United Insurance Company of America in their art calendar competition. This scholarship was used to begin her studies at the Academy of Art where she specialized watercolor under the guidance of Irving Shapiro. In 1976 she graduated from the Academy with an Associate Degree in Fine Arts.

Currently Mary Anne continues to paint in all media, though her favorites remain watercolors and pen and ink drawings. She has also recently illustrated a series of first day cover cachets for stamp collectors.

According to Mary Anne, painting is a very personal experience for her. "I want to express how I see my world and share that vision with others. As much as I like to travel and paint in exotic places, quiet, everyday scenes hold just as much appeal for me. I have discovered that every place and thing has its own special beauty."

Condominum booklet available

What's it like living in a condominium? Is there a sure method for selecting one? Of what importance is a condominium declaration?

Good questions. . .among ones that a new booklet, "The Condominium Home: A Prospective Owner's Guide", answers.

The booklet, written in layman's language, is obtainable free of charge from The Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors, 11019 S Worth Avenue, Worth, IL 60482.

The booklet cannot replace consultation with a Realtor, since circumstances at the local level and buyer preferences and needs vary greatly. Realtors can match buyers with housing that meets their needs. They also are aware of financing options at the local level.

But the booklet does serve to educate and answer many of the questions that pop up when a condo purchase is being contemplated. Experienced real estate professionals who comprise the association's Condominium Committee spent nearly two years in research for the booklet.

The first part of the book deals with condominium fundamentals such as history, laws that govern condos and descriptions of different types of condos. What a person pays for and advantages and disadvantages of condo life also are explained.

The booklet then delves into the how-to of selecting a condominium. A checklist of things to look for, such as zoning laws and unit pricing, are outlined. What to be aware of when purchasing a converted condominium also is noted.

The management of condominiums through a condominium owner's association and board of directors also is described.

The final section of the booklet deals with the documents that pertain to condo ownership, including the declaration, bylawss, unit deed, purchase agreement and rules and regulations.

"The Condominium Home: A Prospective Owner's Guide" contains much of the background information prospective owners need to know to decide whether condo life would suit them.

The booklet can answer a potential condo buyer's initial questions, and provides guidelines for interested consumers.

JUNIOR VOLUNTEERS HONORED AT LCM

Junior volunteers at Little Company of Mary Hospital are high school students who bring an abundance of youthful enthusiasm and cheerful cooperation to help brighten the days of patients and personnel. Once each year, these young people are honored at an awards ceremony held in the hospital chapel that is followed by an appreciation dinner party. This year, some 300 volunteers and their parents were in attendance.

Golden Phoenix a beautiful spot to dine

The Golden Phoenix, 10555 Southwest Highway is not only new but delightful. The entrance is beautifully done and leads you to the restaurant area of blues, bright reds, hanging plants and tasseled lanterns. Too beautiful to put in words it must be seen to be appreciated.

The food is Cantonese and American. You can order a family dinner for two at $9.50 or a dinner for three at $13.75 and enjoy it there or call and have it ready for pick-up.

The family dinner for two includes: 2 Egg Rolls, Chicken Chow Mein, Beef Subgum Chop Suey and Bar-B-Q Pork Fried Rice.

The family dinner for three includes: 3 Egg Rolls, Chicken Chow Mein, Beef Tomatoes and Green Peppers, Sweet and Sour Pork and Bar-B-Q Pork Fried Rice.

Be smart - the efficient housewife is putting Golden Phoenix Chop Suey on her menu one day each week. She has nothing to prepare . . .the food is tasty, healthful and economical and the family is delighted.

Little Company of Mary Invitational Tourney huge success

Attending this gala affair were 180 golfers, a record number 50 tennis and racquetball players and 500 dinner guests. Tennis and racquetball participants competed at Evergreen Bath and Tennis Club while golfers teed-off at the Beverly Country Club. Entertainment was provided by the Pacific Islanders direct from Shanghai Lil's and the John Kenny Trio.

Executive committee members for this tournament included Sister M. Terrence Landini LCM; Paul R. Wozniak; Francis X. Gallagher; Lois Welch Arnold; Al Breitzmann; Mrs Roy Langdon; Mrs John Brosnan; Sister Michael Murray LCM; Richard Sullivan, Ph.D.; William Farrell, M.D.; Frank Lawler, M.D.; Clarence J. "Only yesterday"

The October meeting of the Oak Lawn Historical Society will be held on October 8th, a Sunday, at 3 pm, 9526 Cook Avenue. A roundtable discussion will be held on the subject of "Only Yesterday" which will highlight the various changes in Oak Lawn over the years. The title of the meeting is no accident, says Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan, as the book by Frederick Allen is the same kind of informal discussion of past decades the meeting hopes to have. "A relatively young person can remember the change-over to a professional fire department, while someone not much older may have taken part in the change to Village Managerial government," said Suilivan.

The meeting is open to the public without charge, refreshments will be served. Membership in the Oak Lawn Historical Society is open to any group, family or individual interested in the preservation of the unique history of the Village of Oak Lawn and its vicinity. Information regarding membership may be had by calling 425-3424 or writing the society at the above address. Currently featured at the Historical Society are the First World War Commemorative exhibit which will remain until November," Oak Lawn Underground" a study of the archaeology of historic times in Oak Lawn, and "Familiar Faces and Places" which is an exhibition of photography by the Brownies of Troop 227 of Oak Lawn. The exhibit rooms of the Historical Society are open to the pubiic each afternoon from 1 until 5 pm, Wednesday thru Friday. There is no charge for admission.

Pat Pacetti spearheads St Germaine womens club

Mrs Patricia Pacetti, currently serving as President of the St Germaine Womens Club, is looking forward to a very interesting and rewarding year, ably assisted by Mrs Judy DiCola, Vice President; Mrs Marcella Farrell, Recording Secretary; Mrs Kathy Vorderer, Financial Secretary; and Mrs Mary Ann Hardek, Treasurer. Moderator is Father William O. Goedert.

The officers and board have worked diligently organizing the year's programs. Members who have not yet paid their dues are urged to do so, in order that their name be included in the yearbook. Please contact Kathy Vorderer.

On Monday, October 2 the ladies of St Germaine will honor the Sisters of the parish with a SILVER SHOWER, to take place in the church hall at 8 pm. All are encouraged to attend so that we may show our appreciation to these fine ladies who devote their lives to us and our young ones. They are our Sisters of the Presentation, motherhouse, Dubuque, Iowa. A surprise entertainment is sure to amuse all.

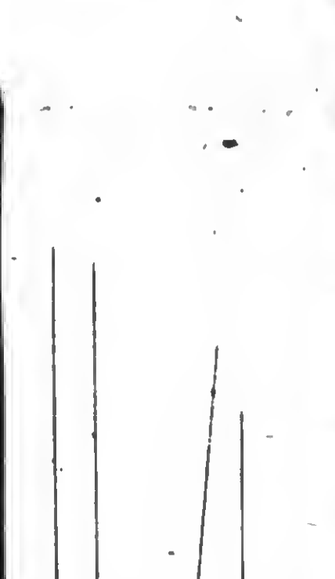
Among other interesting and fun evenings planned for the fall and winter season are a Halloween Party, Skating Party, Thanksgiving Breakfast, and an International Christmas Happening.

RESERVATIONS AVAILABLE FOR EAT ETHNIC

Several reservations still are available for Moraine Valley's Eat Ethnic, a series of four dinners in ethnic restaurants.

The group of no more than 30 will dine in a Continental, German, Japanese and Mexican restaurant on Oct 7 and 21, Nov 11 and Dec 2.

The cost per person, includes food, tax and tip. Transportation and alcoholic beverages are extra.



MVCC's Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills; 974-4300, ext 360 is accepting registrations.

Park offers ladies trips

Once again, ladies of the Oak Lawn area will have a chance to enjoy monthly trips offered by the Oak Lawn Park District. The trips run thru May. In the past, they have provided an enjoyable "day away from home." They promise to be just as pleasurable this year.

On Wednesday, October 18 the Amish Acres in Nappanee, Indiana, will be the destination. The bus will depart from Central Park, 9400 Kenton at 8 am. Following a leisurely drive thru the countryside to see the fall colors, the ladies will arrive in Nappanee. They will be given a tour of the Authenic Amish house and farm and learn about these people for whom time stopped 100 years ago. A delicious family style luncheon in the Old Barn Restaurant will follow. After lunch, time will be given to shop at the bakery, meat and cheese shop, antique soda fountain and other shops of Amish Acres. The bus will arrive back at Central Park at approximately 4 pm. The trip costs $17 and the registration deadline is October 2.

The next trip will be on Thursday, November 9. The bus will depart from Central Park at 9:30 am for Yorktown Shopping Center. A spectacular crafts show will be going on at Yorktown, and the ladies will have a chance to do some early Christmas shopping at the show booths, or in the many stores in the shopping center. Enjoy lunch at one of the many restaurants in the mall. The bus will arrive back at Central Park at approximately 4 pm. Registration deadline is November 2 for this trip, and the fee is $3.

Come in and register for these trips at 9400 Kenton, or call 424-7300 for more information.

The "All New" Oak Lawn Restaurant

For the past 20 years the Oak Lawn Restaurant, 5769 W 95th Street, has served their customers in the finest way possible. Good food, cooked by expert chefs in family style, and good service have been their trademark.

With the remodeling, and the expansion, they have now brought you a more beautiful dining room and more comfortable seating arrangements.

Jim, Steve and Tony have extended themselves in this new undertaking to assure the customers that they want to continue to bring you the very best they have to offer.

The Oak Lawn Restaurant has been a landmark and has served persons in all walks of life. The customers have found that if one is in a hurry the wait is only the time it takes to prepare the food. If you have time, you can sit and relax and enjoy a leisurely breakfast, lunch or dinner.

When you stop at the Oak Lawn Restaurant soon, please tell them we sent you. They will be happy and we'll be happy too.

P.T.A. NEWS

CONGINTON SCHOOL PTA NEWS

The board meeting on August 22 can be summarized as follows: it was approved to increase our per person membership dues to $1.25. Out of last year's dues of $1, Covington's portion was 25 cents after remitting portions to the National and State PTA's. Our portion with the increase, woud now be 50 cents per member. The membership drive will end December 2 with $5 remittance to any room reaching 100% membership; at least one parent per child.

Our Parent Discussion groups will again meet, starting in October. On the 3rd Tuesday of the month parents of preschoolers will meet; the 4th Tuesday will be for parents of all age groups. Both groups are at 10:15 am at the Pilgrim Faith Church lounge, 9411 S 51st Avenue, Oak Lawn. For further information call Nancy DeLap, 423-3361 or Maureen Edling, 423-2055. These informal meetings are available free for anyone interested, so please tell or bring a briend.

Nancy DeLap will also be conducting a S.T.E.P. course at the Oak Lawn Family Service. For more information on fees and time, call Nancy at the Family Service, 423-3361.

Covington's Carnival date has been set for November 4. The chairmen, Phyllis Powell, 424-4820, Betty Schmitz, 636-5479 and Donna Hammonds, 422-5740 are asking you to call early with your times that you can help. We need help in all phases of the Carnival, and as always appreciate your assistance with the hour or hours you can afford.

Tickets for the carnival will be 20 cents each and we discussed the possibility of selling tickets in advance.

Come on out, meet your child's teachers and principal, meet us so we can meet you too!

POST 5220 HONOR GUARD

126 state aid like "YoYo"

District 126 recently received notificaiton from the Illinois Office of Education that under the revised state aid formula, School District 126 will receive $234,070 for 1978-79. According to Supt William D. Smith, this amount will be conditional upon a full appropriation and 100% funding of the formula.

The projected 1978-79 $234,070 compares to $198,000 for 1977-78 of which only $168,000 was actually received. More dramatically, according to Clark Alford, school board president, is the comparison to the one million dollars of state aid received in 1975-76 and the zero received in 1976-77. "Our state aid has been like a yoyo," said Alford, citing 1975-76, 1974-75 $900,000, 1975-76 one million, 1976-77 zero, 1977-78 $168,000 and 1978-79 $234,070.

The present deficit of District 126 of minus $425,000 will increase to minus $750,000 by June 30, 1979, according to School Board Secretary Henry Kramer. He noted that the big culprits are inflation, rising energy costs and increased salaries. "With a yearly payroll of two million dollars, total yearly salary increases are in the six figure category - well over $100,000 more each year," Kramer concluded.

School district 126 is no longer under the new resource equalizer state aid formula, but rather is one of the few districts that are paid using the old Strayer-Haig formula. The increases in the assessed valuation in District 126 have caused a substantial change in state aid. "As assesse i valuation gets greater, state aid goes down," noted Board Member John Bretall.

Judge Montelione to chair Drug Information Board

seminar for '75, '76 and '77.

During his six years in the 5th district, he has heard cases of all kinds presented there. In the new 5th District Narcotics court in Oak Lawn, he hopes to work especially with the youthful offenders program, stressing preventive work in the areas of drug and alcohol addiction.

At the end of the conference it was most surprising how many wished to serve on this most prestigious board. Members of the audience were still milling around Judge Eisenman after the appointments were already made in an effort to be allowed to serve.

Those named to the board were: Tony Amabile, First Lutheran Elem and Jr High School; David Brown, Oak Lawn Youth Commission; William P. Cote, Assistant Supt, Consolidate High School District 230; Thomas Duffy, Jr., Juvenile Court Probation Office; Mary Feerick, Cook County Sheriff Youth Services; Frank Gilbert, Oak Lawn Police Department; William Kaupas, South Suburban Alcoholism Treatment Center; and John Hocher, Guidance Counselor, St Laurence High School.

Also named were: Otis McCoy, [illegible] O'Malley, Editor, [illegible] View Newspaper; [illegible] O'Shea, Central [illegible] Institute of [illegible]; William Prendergast, Assistant States Attorney, Supervisor of 5th District; Ken Spaier, Stickney Twp Youth Commission; Michael Wagner, Dean of Students, Eisenhower High School; Dianne Wireman, Orland Twp Youth Service Bureau; Eugene Wroblewski, Illinois Commission on Delinquency Prevention; and Arlene Zoller, Moraine Valley Community College.

Mayor Ernie Kolb, who was present at the conference and was asked to serve on the board said "I would rather see politics kept out of it." He then suggested Frank Gilbert from the Oak Lawn Police Department, who has done much work in this field. Kolb also said that he would like to see Oak Lawn's new Police Chief John Haberkorn serve on the board when he takes office in October.

The Drug Information Board will hold its first official meeting the second week in October according to Chairman Judge Anthony S. Montelione.

MEMO FROM THE OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

SAFETY COURSE

The library will sponsor a six-week standard first aid and personal safety course starting October 4. The course will be conducted by a certified American Red Cross instructor and will be held at the library on consecutive Wednesdays from 7 to 10 pm until November 8.

The course is limited to 25 persons so pre-registration is necessary. There is no chage. You can register by calling Carol Adams at 422-4990.

*****

CONCERT SERIES

The fall Sunday Afternoon at the Library Concert Series will get under way October 8 at 2 pm with a violin and piano recital by Alfred and Helen Aulwurm at the library.

All concerts in the series are free and will continue on November 12 with the Moraine Valley Community College Jazz Band under the direction of Ralph Arnold and on December 10 with the Varsity Singers from H.L. Richards High School.

*****

PICTURE LADY PROGRAM

The Fine Arts and Literature Department cordially invites all persons participating in the Picture Lady programs to come in and discuss their forthcoming presentations.

The library has a large collection of related books, pamphlets, exhibition catalogs, art prints, sculpture, cassette tapes and slides that can be used and borrowed. These materials can enable a potential Picture Lady to assemble a multi-media, attention-grabbing presentation in short order.

The Picture Lady program is sponsored nationally by the PTA and carried out locally by PTA volunteers who bring works of art into the classroom and tell the students about the artist and let them ask questions. The program has also spread to the parochial schools allowing elementary school children an exposure to the world of painting and sculpture.

Richards High School Homecoming October 21st

"Magical Mystery Tour" has been the theme selected for Homecoming 1978 at Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn. Community residents of all ages and, especially school alumni, are invited to enjoy a full day of special activities on Saturday, October 21, sponsored by the HLR Student Council.

The fun will begin at 10:30 am with the traditional parade thru Oak Lawn. Participants will step off from Richards East, 107th Street, east to Kostner Avenue, Kostner to 103rd Street, 103rd Street to Central Avenue and Central to Richards Campus, 106th and Central Avenue.

Doughnuts, coffee and other breakfast treats will be available at a Spirit Breakfast to be held in the Richards Campus cafeteria, following the mid-morning parade.

Saturday evening, a semi-formal dance, "If It's Magic", will be held from 8 to 11 pm. The site will be the decorated cafeteria at Richards Campus. Cost for the dance is $5 per couple.

The Homecoming King and Queen will be crowned during the course of the evening.

Moraine Valley censures member

The agenda of the September 19 regular meeting of the board of trustees of Moraine Valley College was completed at an adjourned meeting, September 26.

During the September 19 session, the board appointed Vincent Cainkar as attorney for the board, adopted the 1978-79 budget, approved payment of regular account bills, reclassified several full-time employees, awarded contracts for low bids, certified the tax levy and adopted a resolution of censure against Edward Gordon, trustee, for a newspaper article based on an interview granted by Gordon.

During the September 26 adjourned meeting, the trustees approved changing firms for the remainder of a printing bid, reviewed a follow-up study of 1977 graduates, agreed to participate in a state-wide community college medical insurance survey, reviewed several personnel policies and standing rules and approved salary structures for all college employees, except faculty. Faculty salaries were adopted earlier after negotiations with the Moraine Valley Faculty Assn.

The approved 1978-79 budget included $9,212,597 in the educational fund; $1,592,312 in the building and maintenance fund; $300,000 in the site and construction fund; $1,212,250 in the bond and interest fund and $683,702 in the auxiliary fund.

The next regular board meeting is at 7 pm Tuesday, October 16 in the 200 Building on the campus.

Dan Kubo honored by Monticello

Monticello Convalescent Center in Oak Lawn has been an active participant in the Candystriper program since 1967. During that twelve year period over eighty-five thousand hours have been donated by over four hundred Candystriper volunteers. Each year Monticello honors the students in the program at a recognition banquet. This year's winner for most hours of volunteer work was fifteen year old Dan Kubo, of Burbank. Dan recorded a record breaking 633 hours. Dan is a Sophomore at Reavis High School. He felt his experience working with the residents at Monticello has helped him have a much better understanding of people.

Dan received special recognition from State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, who was one of the guest speakers at the banquet. Representative Yourell, had a special House Resolution passed, which was signed by the speaker of the House and presented it to Dan during the ceremonies.

Twenty-two other Candystriper volunteers also received an award for their work at Monticello.

The Suburban Family youth service conference

The Suburban Family is the title of the 1978 annual youth services conference sponsored by Moraine Valley College. The all-day meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 18 at Sheraton Tower, Oak Lawn.

The youth services conferences are planned to provide an opportunity for those who work with youth to meet and to learn together and from each other.

This year's program begins at 8:30 am with a large area of resource sharing. Participants will have an opportunity to look over materials while they have coffee and rolls.

According to MVCC, resource sharing materials may be displayed by any interested group of organization involved with youth services.

Edward A. Wynne, author and educator, will deliver the keynote address at 9:30 am.

Small groups will interact from 10:15 am - 11:30 am and bring their suggested community solutions to a general session that concludes at noon.

Two workshop sessions will be held in the afternoon. Participants will have an opportunity to choose from a large variety of topics.

Fee for the conference is $10 per person. This includes lunch and all materials.

Registration is limited to 200 persons on a first-come, first-served basis.

The advisory and planning committee for the program is comprised of Joseph Bergmann, Brother Rice High School; Lois Skillen, Evergreen Park High School; Roger Johnson, Family and Mental Health Services of Southwest Cook County; Gene Wrobleski, Illinois Commission on Delinquency Prevention; Arlene Zoller, MVCC; Dorothy Derks, Richards High School; Craig Settlage, Savior Divine Lutheran Church; Shirley Sisson, South Suburban Council on Alcoholism, and Judy Kratochvil, Southwest YMCA.

Condominium ordinance revisions

As a result of ~~rising~~ public concern about condominium conversions, Oak Lawn's Board of Trustees passed an ordinance back on April 18, 1978, that amended the village code which affected not only future purchases of condominium conversions within the village, but also the situation faced by tenants who were experiencing the conversion process at the time.

Passage of the ordinance and subsequent objections by business interests to certain sections led to meetings between a special Committee of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce and the Village Public Safety and Legal and Ordinance Committee composed of Trustee Joseph D. Vogrich, Chairman; Jerome A. Bergamini and Ronald M. Stancik.

In weighing both the business interst objections, and in keeping with tenant protection, the Board of Trustees on September 12, 1978, by a five to one vote (Trustee Bergamini voting Nay), amended the ordinance relating to condominium conversions.

The majority of the Board felt that the moratorium section of the original ordinance was overly lengthy and unfair to the owners in the community. Therefore, they repealed the moratorium sections. In doing so, however, they added two additional requirements for the protection of the tenants. The first required that a developer provide 180 days notice to each tenant of his intent to convert. It might be noted that State Statutes provide for only 120 days notice. Secondly, it provided that each tenant be served a copy of the 'property report' in a more personal manner such as certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery with a signed receipt.

Still another significant amendment by the Board allows for the Village Building and Zoning Dept to enforce the ordinance, and reserves the right to impose a $100 minimum, $500 maximum fine per day on any failure to provide 'property report' disclosures and notifications. Criminal penalties were removed from the ordinance, although the Village has the privilege and power of revoking building permits when there are questionable elements involving particular buildings.

Persons having inquiries regarding condominium conversions are directed to visit the Building and Zoning Dept at 9630 Southwest Highway, or call the office at 636-4400, ext 301 or 303.

FIRST NATIONAL PURCHASES EVERGREEN PARK HIGH BONDS

The First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street continues to serve its many citizens and religious, cultural, civic and educational organizations. First National Bank purchased $790,000 of Life Safety Bonds for the Evergreen Park High School, recently at a considerable savings in interest cost to the school district. Laurence Helpe, Treasurer of the Worth Township School Districts is seen accepting the check from the bank's Executive Vice President, Dr Robert C. Wall. Witnessing the event, (l to r) are: Dr Stephen J. Stockel, Superintendent of Evergreen Park High School; Martin W. Noeth, Senior Vice President and Controller and Martin Ozinga Jr., President of First National.

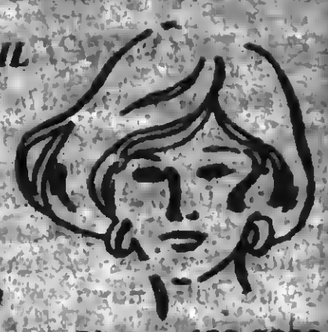
Post annual drug abuse program

That annual Drug Abuse and Safety program sponsored by the Johnson-Phelps Post 5220, Veterans of Foreign Wars and their ladies auxiliary will be held on Thursday, October 19 in the post hall at 9514 S 52nd Avenue, starting at 7:30 pm.

Sgt Robert Macke of the Oak Lawn Police Dept will have a short film showing what continued use of drugs does to a user, very often resulting in death. This will be followed by a question and answer period.

The proper procedure for using the Heimlich maneuver to aid persons choking on food and an outline of what should be done on an emergency basis for someone who has stopped breathing Comprehensive Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) will be demonstrated by members of the fire department paramedic unit.

This is open to the public and all interested adults and their children, from the 5th grade, thru high school age, are invited to attend, according to James Bennett, post chairman.



Admission is free and refreshments will be served by the auxiliary assisted by the Junior Girls Unit. Orville Roeder is post commander; Vivan Kelly is auxiliary president; and Dawn Conley is the unit president.

Huskey testimonial dinner Oct 17

Various federal, state and local officials will participate in a testimonial dinner honoring Eighth District Republican State Representative Herb Huskey on Tuesday, October 17 at the Martinique Restaurant, 2500 Drury Lane Drive, Evergreen Park.

Illinois Lt Governor Dave O'Neal and Attorney General Bill Scott will highlight the event as keynote speakers. U.S. Congressman Edward J. Derwinski (R-4), State Reps William D. Walsh (R-6) and Jane Barnes (R-8), State Senator Frank Ozinga (R-8) and mayors of towns in the 8th legislative district will be among the dignitaries in attendance. U.S. Senator Charles Percy (R) is also expected to participate.

Tickets, at $25 each, are still available from dinner chairman Mary Lea Swanson, Oak Lawn, by calling 424-5000.

Cocktails will begin at 7 pm and dinner is scheduled to be served at 8 pm. The Variety Pac will provide music for after-dinner dancing.

Persons who have not as yet received a dinner invitation but wish to go should contact Ms Swanson as soon as possible.

JUDGE HARTMAN SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

Wayne Baxtrom, program chairman of the OAK LAWN KIWANIS, has announced that Judge Allen Hartman of the Circuit Court of Cook County will be their guest speaker on Thursday, October 19. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant at 12:15 pm. Judge Hartman will speak on "The Appellate Court of Illinois, PAST AND PRESENT". There will be a question and answer period following.

Before Judge Hartman's appointment to the Circuit Court by the Illinois Supreme Court, he served Chicago as the City's First Assistant Corporation Counsel and as Executive Director of the Chicago Home Rule Commission. He was a scholarship law student at Northwestern U School of Law. He was an associate editor of the Law Review and has written and edited articles of significant practical and legal impact.

Judge Hartman was elected judge by the people of Cook County in November, 1974. Currently he is a candidate for Judge of the Appellate Court in the upcoming election.

State aid to school payments adjusted

General state aid payments to 8th District schools for the 1978-79 term have been adjusted to reflect enrollment changes, says State Rep Herb Huskey.

According to Huskey, these changes became necessary after districts submitted revised average daily attendance figures on their final June claims to the Illinois Office of Education. As a result, the state, overall, will now pay out some $31.1 million less in aid claims this year than had originally been anticipated in the spring. At that time the legislature passed a $1,359.3 million general aid appropriation for elementary and secondary schools which Governor James Thompson later signed into law. Now only $1,328.6 million will be needed to fund the claims.

"Palos 118 is the only school district in the 8th Legislative District that is not slated to get more state aid now than it did last year," Huskey explained. "While an increase was projected for that district in the spring the updated attendance figures brought the aid total down to a level lower than in 1977-78.

"Adjustments, both higher and lower, have been made in the actual dollar amounts going to the other 15 area schools, too," he stated. "However, they will still be receiving more financial help from the state now than last year."

Evergreen Savings awards Notre Dame ticket winners

There's a Saturday of heart-pounding football action in store for Evergreen Saving's lucky Football Kickoff Drawing winners as they watch Notre Dame take on the University of Michigan.

Richard Kinney, vice president, presented winners Ruth Weber and Mitchell Walenga of Evergreen Park with tickets and prizes for the Notre Dame vs Michigan game. Unable to attend the presentation was Country Club Hills' office winner Elmer George. Throughout the month of October Evergreen Savings will be drawing a winner from each office (two in Evergreen Park and one in Country Club Hills). Winners will receive two 5-yard-line tickets, $50 expense money, two stadium cushions and a complete picnic basket outfit. Anyone can enter the drawing and winners are notified the Monday before each game. Entry blanks are available at any of the three Evergreen Park drive-up/walk-up facility at 10200 S Kedzie and the Country Club Hills office at 18130 S Crawford.

There are still 4 home games to be drawn for, so those interested in participating should enter as soon as possible. And to further increase the chances for everyone to win, there will be a completely new drawing following each Notre Dame home game.

All the games will be played at Notre Dame stadium in South Bend, Indiana. Other home games will be against Pittsburgh, October 14; Miami (Florida), October 28; and Tennessee, November 11. Be sure to enter the drawing for each game at the Evergreen Saving's office nearest you.

Maranatha Chapel hosts soloist

The well-known soprano soloist, Cathy Barrow, will be singing at Maranatha Chapel, 9755 Pulaski at 6 pm on Sunday, October 15.

As a representative of World Vision International, Barrow will include in her concert a penetrating look at the needs of our world. She will aslo report on the help that has been given to thousands of needy people through the ministries of World Vision. Mrs Barrow's musical career has taken her around the world as well as most of the United States.

As a concert soloist, Barrow was trained at the Community Music School in Detroit, studied under Gordon VanRye of Grand Rapids, Alica Dutcher of Grand Valley State Colleges and at Interlochen Arts Academy. She had the leading female role with the Western Michigan Opera Co, was soloist with the Grand Rapids Symphony and has appeared across the nation on numerous television programs.

Pastor R. Steven Warner of Maranatha Chapel extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend this evening service.

Petitions to be probed by panel of legislators and citizens

A panel of legislators and citizens, the Election Laws Commission, has begun an investigation into election code requirements for the petition process.

Plans for the investigation were announced by State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, co-chairman of the Springfield-based commission.

"This will be a dispassionate, nonpartisan investigation," Yourell, of Oak Lawn, pledged. "The investigation will draw heavily on the experience and background of our legislative and public members and our staff and will seek to make recommendations on a reasoned basis for reform of the petition process.

"There are currentiy efforts being made in Lake, Sangamon, and Winnebago Counties to determine whether criminal charges need to be filed against various persons who may have been guilty of forgery or other irregularities in the circulation of petition sheets for the Thompson Proposition tax relief proposal.

"Although it will deal with related maters, our investigation won't read on the same ground covered by these county prosecutors.

"Even as the hearings before the Board of Elections left the matter of what criminal charges, if any, need to be filed, so these hearings also left unresolved what changes need to be made in the election code to provide for improvements in the petition process.

"We need to look into what improvements can be made in the code requirements dealing with the amount of time objectors may have to examine petition sheets for possible irregularities, the required deadline dates for submission of petitions to the Board of Elections, the matter of whether or not petition sheets should be required to be sorted according to county or even according to each individual notary, the present lack of an investigative staff by which the board itself could look for possible irregularities on petitions and whether this deficiency might be remedied, and the question of what civil penalties, if any, might be levied by the board against people who submit carelessiy or improperly prepared petitions."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR

I am most appreciative of your favorable comments regarding the recent formation of the Public Relations Committee within the Village of Oak Lawn.

We, as a committee, hope that through our actions more citizens may be made aware of the programs being impiemented by the Village Board.

I personally feel that an informed electorate can be the greatest of aids in serving as an elected official.

/s/ Ronald M. Stancik, Chairman
Public Relations Committee &
Village Trustee — District II

Elrod reports crime down in unincorporated areas

Sheriff Richard J. Elrod recently said that although a recent report indicates major crime in suburban Cook County has increased, crime in the unincorporated area of Cook County, patroiled by his Sheriff's Police Officers, has decreased in the first six months by more than 6%.

Increases for other areas of suburban Cook County recentiy reported by the Chicago Crime Commission, Sheriff Elrod said, may not be indicative of an increase in actual crime. Other factors enter into reporting of statistical information.

"Our citizens have a greater awareness of activities around them through the many community relations and crime prevention programs," Sheriff Elrod said.

These programs work to make a partnership of the citizen and police. As the citizen becomes more concerned about the safety of his community he calls upon the police officer more frequentiy for assistance and, therefore, the communities have an increase in the number of incidents reported.

"During the past 7½ years, I have seen an appreciabie increase in cooperation among police departments. More than 94% of suburban Cook County police departments have called upon the Sheriff's Police evidence technicians for assistance at crime scenes.

"The barriers between our suburban police departments are gone. Police officers from various suburban communities come together in the Sheriff's Police Department Training Academy courses, become acquainted and continue their professional associations long after they have graduated."

Sheriff Elrod also attributed increases in reported crime to the ever increasing population in suburban Cook County communities. Crimes are committed by people upon people; as population increases, the crime rate will increase.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES MADE IN MEDICARE PROGAM

The House of Representatives has passed legislation making significant changes in the MEDICARE program, the nation's senior citizens health insurance program. Passed by a near-unanimous vote, the bill now goes to the Senate for action.

Congressman Marty Russo (Third District) was a co-sponsor of the MEDICARE bill and commented on some of the changes.

"One major improvement included in this bill is the liberalization of home health benefits," Russo said. "Up until now we have not given this aspect of health care for our senior citizens its proper due, either in economic terms or in terms of human needs.

"We need to provide home health care to older persons as an alternative to institutional care. Right now, as many as 25% of the one million institutionalized elderly are unnecessarily maintained in nursing homes which are excessive for their needs. Institutionalization is also a callous answer to health needs for the elderly."

Improvements in the home health benefits would include: elimination of the 3-day prior hospitalization requirement under MEDICARE hospital insurance; elimination of the present 100 home visit limitation; elimination of the $60 deductible with respect to home health services.

The bill would also provide for elimination of the second waiting period for re-entitled disability beneficiaries. (Currently, if an individual becomes disabled a second time within five years, he immediately regains entitlement to cash disability benefits; but he must again satisfy the 24-month waiting period requirement to qualify for medicar protection.)

Among other changes are benefit improvements relating to services furnished by dentists, optometrists, psychologists, podiatrists, speech therapists, and chiropractors an there would be coverage for some services furnished in community mental health centers and outpatient rehabilitation facilities.

Russo said that along with the changes in benefits, there must be changes in the administration of the program as well.

"Congress this year has placed budgetary restraints on the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, which administers this program, so if they are to liberalize the MEDICARE benefits, they cannot do so carelessly," he pointed out. "We specify in this bill certain requirements for HEW in terms of administration of the program."

Under the bill the Secretary of HEW is directed to establish additional standards and requirements for home health agencies. A number of provisions in the MEDICARE law relating to administration and enrollment have been modified, or, where found to be no longer necessary eliminated. In addition, the Secretary would be directed to exercise flexibility in the application of MEDICARE standards to rural hospitals.

Christ offers diabetes test

On the week of November 6 thru 10, Christ Hospital will offer free diabetes testing for community members who have no previous diagnosis of diabetes. The tests will be by reservation only.

People who would like to have their blood tested for diabetes should call the Christ Hospital volunteer office, 425-8000, ext 5867, between 10 am and 4 pm Monday, October 23 thru October 27 or the following week, October 31 thru November 3.

The test is only for undetected diabetes cases, but would be of no value to previously diagnoced cases.

Chicago-Beverly

Whether you drive or walk in this part of town, a tall obelisk-like column with Chesterfield Federal on it will tell you that you're headed in the right direction. This is our home office, where you'll find everything you need to get ahead financially: passbook savings accounts, a choice of high-yield savings certificates, IRA and Keogh tax-deductible and tax-deferred retirement accounts, Social Security direct deposit and other services. Including, of course, home loans.

There are two parking lots for your convenience and walk-up teller windows that you may use before or after normal business hours.

Palos Hills

If you live in Palos Hills or in any of the neighboring suburbs, then our branch office here will probably be the most convenient to visit. And, as Branch Manager Richard Urchell will be glad to tell you, it is a branch in name only. Because in Palos Hills you will find all the financial services we offer at our home office, including safe deposit boxes. Here, too, you will find walk-up teller windows and plenty of free parking.

Frankfort

This is our second branch office, but like the other two, it offers full financial services. Situated on 2½ acres of beautifully landscaped ground, it is at the junction of Routes 35 and 40, offering easy access from all directions. Branch Manager Hugh Waldier wants to remind you that if you have a savings account or a mortgage at one Chesterfield Federal office, you can always make deposits, withdrawals or mortgage payments at the other two. At Frankfort we also have two parking lots as well as drive-up teller windows.

Republicans plan huge rally October 22nd

County Commissioner, Ron Larson, has announced plans for a giant south suburban Republican rally Sunday, October 22 from 1 to 4 pm at the Harvey Holiday Inn, 171st and Halsted Streets.

Larson said Governor James R. Thompson, and Sheriff Candidate Don Mulack, will headline the lineup of candidates expected to appear at the event, which traditionally attracts more than 1000 supporters.

The rally is co-sponsored by all of the regular Republican organizations of South Cook County - those from Bloom, Bremen, Calumet, Lemont, Lyons, Orland, Palos, Rich, Stickney, Thornton and Worth townships.

The rally will feature live entertainment, door prizes and refreshments. Among others expected to attend are Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal, Attorney General William J. Scott, and nominees for state and county offices and legislative candidates.

Free tickets are available through any of the south suburban GOP township committeemen - Chuck Panici of Bloom; Gene Leonard of Bremen; Sam Ruffolo of Calumet; Marv Stein of Lemont; David Tomei of Lyons; John Machala of Orland; Bill Petrick of Palos; George Townsend of Rich; Phil Martens of Stickney; Tom Miller of Thornton; and Herb Huskey of Worth.

Straight talk about funeral homes.

When someone in the family dies, clear and logical thinking concerning funeral arrangements often becomes difficult due to shock and mental turmoil. This is when it becomes necessary to seek the guidance and services of a reputable Funeral Director.

REPUTATION
In a time of need, it is of the utmost importance to turn to a Funeral Director that you can trust. This involves reputation. For nearly a hundred years, families have depended on the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes in their special hour of need. M. J. Lamb Jr. and his sons, Matt and Dick, are dedicated to personal service, attention and guidance. Theirs is a family owned business built on pride and tradition. And when your family name is on the door, maintaining an impeccable reputation becomes even more important.

DON'T OVERSPEND
It is unnecessary and impresses no one. For years Blake-Lamb has presented customers with an itemized, written account as to the exact cost of the funeral, before the service takes place. You select the exact type of service that you want, in one simple visit, with no pressure. Our entire staff stands ready to answer any questions that you may have in an honest, straight-forward manner. And be assured that the fine services of Blake-Lamb are available to all families, regardless of what you may decide to spend.

ACCORDING TO YOUR WISHES
A funeral should be tailored to meet the requests of the deceased as well as those of the family. Our Funeral Homes are dedicated to following these wishes, keeping in mind the special needs of every religion, ethnic background and fraternal order. We are there to handle every detail and make all the arrangements whether they be traditional or personalized.

AFTER THE SERVICE
After the service there are many details that require immediate attention. We offer our assistance in the handling of the many social security, union and insurance problems that may arise. We have received literally thousands of appreciative letters attesting to this extra measure of thoughtfulness.

WIDOW TO WIDOW
It is comforting to receive the love and support of friends and family after your sadness. But it can be even more helpful to talk with people who have suffered a similar loss. That's the idea behind our T.H.E.O. program - "To Help Each Other". People who understand exactly what you're going through comfort you and explain how they managed to cope with their loss. It's people helping people.

PRE-PLANNING A FUNERAL
This is just a matter of good, common sense. When you anticipate the death of someone in the family, it is a good idea to obtain the names of three or four reputable firms from someone who has used their services, and make a comparison. Compare our facilities, decor and parking with those of anyone else. We also invite you to come in and speak with us. Any questions that you may have will be answered candidly and honestly. We are not salesmen. Our job is to provide a service . . . an outstanding service that has gained Blake-Lamb national recognition and has made us leaders in our profession. Seven locations in the Chicagoland area to serve you:
1035 North Dearborn St., Chicago;
4727 West 103rd St., Oak Lawn;
5800 West 63rd St., Chicago;
3737 West 79th St., Chicago;

Vets Voice of Democracy contest open

"Why I Care About America" is the patriotic theme for the annual Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and its Ladies Auxiliary, with a first place scholarship of $10,000.

The Johnson Phelps VFW Post 5220 and Ladies Auxiliary of Oak Lawn, will sponsor the local contest in H. L. Richards and Oak Lawn Community high schools, with the prize on this level, a $25 U.S. Savings Bond. Details of the contest have been sent to the school and the winner in each school will compete on a district level.

Each district winner will compete for the state title with the announcement to be made at the Voice of Democracy banquet in Springfield in February. The state winner is awarded a 5 day expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. to compete for National Scholarship awards totaling $22,500.

Further information may be obtained at the schools, or if for some reason one is attending a high school where the contest is not being held, by any interested 10th, 11th and 12th grade students by contacting the post chairman Walter Cummings at 422-3102 or auxiliary chairman Kathy Bragg at 423-6251. Orville Roeder is commander of the post and Vivian Kelly is president.

Absentee ballots available

Clerk Joan Murphy wishes to announce that the General Assistance Office of Worth Township will now be located at the Annex Building, 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip, IL. The purpose of this move is to make the General Assistance Office more easily accessible to the general public. The Civic Center at 115th has no public transportation to its door. Now people seeking assistance can take the RTA to the Annex Building.

Clerk Murphy would also like to announce that the Clerk's Office will remain at the Civic Center and will now occupy the offices vacated by General Assistance. Clerk Murphy stated that absentee ballots for the November election are available at her office in the Civic Center.

Attendance overwhelming for first T.H.E.O. session

Attendance was overwhelming for the first session of T.H.E.O. — To Help Each Other, recently held at St. Xavier's in Chicago. Well over 125 widowed persons were present to listen to Mrs. Maxine Dowd Jensen, author of "The Warming of Winter", which proclaims, "Widow you're on your way to a life beyond sorrow". Mrs Jensen talked about her book which gives advice, inspiration and constructive suggestions for dealing with such things as: beginning again; the effects of death upon the famiiy; where to live and what to do; friends — what they can and cannot do; the fear of loneliness — insominia; living and loving again; and the future.

Each future session of the T.H.E.O. program will also have knowledgeable guest speakers present to discuss subjects that are pertinent to all widowed people. Meetings are held once each month; and, the next one is set for Friday, October 13th, at St. Xavier's located at 103rd and Central Park Avenue, Chicago. Meetings begin at 7:30 pm and end at 9:30 pm. Refreshments will be served. There is no charge; for, T.H.E.O. educational meetings are sponsored by Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes. For more information, call 735-4242.

Men's teams needed

The Oak Lawn Park District is still looking for teams to fill up its Men's Flag Football and Men's Basketball League. Registration information is available by calling 424-7[illegible].

The football program will run Tuesday and Thursday evenings underneath the lights at Southwest Park, 102nd & Major. The season will begin as soon as six teams are registered.

Also, on Tuesday and Thursday the Men's Basketball league program will be run. Richards - East High School, 107th & Kilpatrick will be the site for this program, 60% of the roster must be Oak Lawn residents for both programs.

First time-local unions to honor judicial candidates

Two local unions, for the first time ever, will honor Cook County Judicial candidates at special events this month.

Thirty-one Democratic candidates for the Illinois Appellate and Cook County Circuit Courts will be guests of Eugene P. Moats, president of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU), at a reception from 5 to 6:30 pm on Monday, October 16. The reception will be held at the Illinois Athletic Club, 112 S Michigan Avenue.

Tony Christiano, president of the Milk Drivers Union Local 753, will host a dinner for the candidates and his members in the Union Hall, 220 S Ashland Avenue, at 6 pm on Thursday, October 19.

Assisting in the arrangements are Cook County Circuit Court Judges Allen Hartman of Chicago's northwest side and Dom J. Rizzi, of Northbrook. Both are candidates for the Illinois Appellate Court.

Also assisting are three candidates for the Circuit Court. They are Associate Circuit Court Judges Anthony John Bosco, of River Forest, Anthony S. Montelione of the city's Beverly Hills neighborhood, and Frank R. Petrone.

Three Cook County Judges are assisting in making arrangements for special "Judicial Nights" being sponsored by two local unions later this month. Pictured (l to r) are: Judge Anthony S. Montelione, a candidate for the Cook County Circuit Court, and Illinois Appellate Court Candidates Dom J. Rizzi and Allen Hartman.

The 1979 Cadillac by Frank Shirey

...featuring the incomparable ELDORADO!

While keeping the finest points of Cadillac traditional quality, the 1979 Eldorado is dramatic evidence that today's demands for more efficient size and energy consciousness automobiles does not mandate the demise of personal amenities, luxury, roominess or classic styling. The Eldorado for 1979 is the standard by which others of tomorrow will be judged. The 1979 Eldorado will feature an available diesel, as will the Seville. See these and all the new Cadillacs at the Frank Shirey Cadillac showroom. 101st and Cicero in beautiful Oak Lawn.

CRUISE THE CARIBBEAN

Nothing more delightful than taking a cruise shop to this sun-drenched part of the world. I always feel that suggesting a Caribbean cruise aboard any of the great liners is one of our best recommendations. We have so much experience in planning these trips and we offer such a variety of combination tours, that I know full well we can please you - your budget and your time period available. So much so, that when you return we will be the first to know how really pleased you were and the fun you had on the trip.

Our portfolio of "know-how" and "know-where" cruises to the beautiful Caribbean start with 8-day cruises and 4 ports of call, all the way up to a 14 day trip and 6 ports. Relaxation and enjoyment go hand in hand on these journeys, fore you leave the heavy tensions behind, once you board ship.

You'll always be sailing with people who really know their way around. They will show you how to enjoy the Caribbean in all its splendor. You'll be pampered and entertained and catered-to and waited on "like you never." You'll loll and splash, You'll eat and you'll tan. You'll anchor in exotic harbors. Shop duty-free bargains and gaze at the starriest skies in the world. You'll have advance 'movies' to watch, nightclubs to dance in and parties to go to. Yes, this is the kind of vacation I can plan for you.

Come in or 'phone me. I'll have folders and rates, deck plans all ready for your perusal. No matter when you plan to go, it's best to know all about the great Caribbean cruises. Stop in today at 5615 W 95th Street.

Oak Lawn man dies in plane crash

Funeral services were held in downstate Highland for an Oak Lawn man and his wife who died in a plane crash outside St. Louis Sunday.

Michael Murphy, 23, and his wife, Anne, 22, died after their plane, a 1912 Belanca was caught in a down-draft and crashed into a corn field three miles from the Highland airport.

The plane was built by Murphy while he was a student at Richards High School, Oak Lawn.

Murphy was active in the Experimental Aviation association while in high school and graduated from Southern Illinois University's aviation program in 1975.

He received national attention for the plane he began constructing in his backyard at the age of 16 when he appeared with the plane at the Antique Art Show in Oshkosh, WI. He was featured on TV, in Time and Newsweek.

Murphy met his wife, a native of Port Jefferson Station in Long Island, N.Y., while they were both students at SIU. They were married two years.

The couple lived in Collinsville, near St. Louis' Lambert field where Murphy was employed as a mechanic for TWA.

Besides his parents, Murphy is survived by a brother, John of Park Forest, and two sisters, Ann Poremba of Woodridge, and Kathleen Murphy of Berlin, WI.

"WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING"

Back in 1969, many of the Irish people in Chicago, promised the famed Father Peyton of the Family Rosary Crusade, that they would get him $100,000 in the next ten years. As of now, Thomas Masterson and his people have accounted for $90,000.

Just recently, a dinner was held at the Glendora House in Chicago Ridge to a capacity crowd. On hand was Congressman Marty Russo (D) 3rd-D-IL, Edward F. McElroy of WJJD Radio, Tom McNamara of WJOB Radio, and many others. Father Thomas Peyton is a teacher at Notre Dame U and had to represent his brother, Frank Patrick Peyton, who was ill in Los Angeles, Cal.

NATIONAL SHERIFFS' PRESIDENT HONORS ELROD

Sheriff Merle Karnopp, (c), of Lancaster County, Lincoln, Neb., who is president of the National Sheriffs' Association, congratulates Sheriff Richard J. Elrod, (r), president of the Illinois Sheriffs' Association, upon the success of the 1978 Summer Conference. At left is the host, Sheriff Martin Gutschenritter of Sangamon County, Springfield, Ill. Sheriff Karnopp was the keynote speaker at the conference. Sheriff Elrod was also honored by the unanimous passage of a resolution commending him for his contributions to the "cause of law enforcement" and the promulgation of "new standards to improve the criminal justice system." Sheriff Elrod is also a vice president of the National Sheriffs' Association.

TREASURES AND JEWELS OF THE SEA

Exquisite sea shells and arrangements are currently exhibited at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street. Collection is the hobby of Mrs Marian Brzana of Evergreen Park who has spent many years admiring and collecting these beauties of nature. She is also a long time member of the Evergreen Park Garden Club and has effectively used shells as accessories in her beautiful flower arrangements.

Through the centuries sea shells have been used as tools for primitive man, an invaluable source of food, symbols of religion and royalty, currency, art, architecture, jewelry sculpture and study for conchologists and scientists around the world. These treasures and jewels of the sea may be viewed at First National thru October.

YSL sponsor last fall trip

The Youth Service League of Oak Lawn is sponsoring its last fall trip of this year to the Backyard of Lincolnshire and Marriott Theatre on Wednesday, November 8. Upon arrival in Lincolnshire, there will be time for browsing and shopping at the enclosed Backyard complex of unique shops and then lunch at the restaurant of your choice: Benihana of Tokyo, which serves Japanese cuisine at your table; My Apartment, where food is prepared at tables set in small alcoves; or the Cart and Cocktails.

After shopping and lunch, we will board the bus to see the matinee performance of "Guys and Dolls" starring Ken Berry.

Cost of transportation and theatre is $13.50. The bus will leave Green Oak Shopping Center at 9 am.

Reservations must be finalized by Friday, October 13 and are being handled by Teresa Kimpel, 422-4228 and Jean Lagerstrom, 636-7755.

District 126 has budgeted over $150,000 for transportation in the 1978-79 school year. Mr Allen, who is also Dean of Students at Prairie Junior High School, can be reached for questions concerning the district's transportation at 371-3080.

Everson transfered to Virginia

Mark L. Everson, Quarter Master 2nd Class, U.S.C.G., has been transferred from Kodiak Isle, Alaska, to Yorktown, VA, where he will spend 14 weeks studying in the C.G.'s Marine Science Technician School. Subjects covered will primarily be meteorology and oceanography.

Mark entered the Coast Guard, in 1974 after having spent 2 years at Illinois U, Champaign. He was a graduate of Oak Lawn Community High in '72 and is now extending his tour of duty for 2 years. Mark's first assignment was that of Quarter Master 2nd Class aboard the Cutter Sagebrush in Puerto Rico. He then was transferred to Kodiak Alaska, where he served as a private investigator in security. Mark's youngest brother David, a senior at Oak Lawn High, flew up to Kodiak this summer and both enjoyed a scenic drive home via the Alaskan and Canadian Highways, then partially by shop along the Canadian coastline. They continued their travels to Yosemite and San Diego, and then on home. Mark is the son of Mr and Mrs Elmer Everson of Oak Lawn.

MEMO FROM THE OAK LAWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

"THE TROUBLE WITH ANGELS"

The fall feature film series will spotlight Rosalind Russell and starts October 17 at 7 pm with "The Trouble With Angels" co-starring Hayley Mills and Binnie Barnes.

This hilarious 1966 color film, directed by Ida Lupino, casts Roz as a Mother Superior who runs a convent school with considerable discipline and a sense of humor. Hayley Mills stars as a high-spirited student out to break every rule in the book just for the fun of it.

The movies are free and are shown on the third Tuesday of every month in the Library's downstairs community room. In November the "Five Finger Exercise" will be shown on the 21st. The series finale will be "Auntie Mame" on December 19.

*****

FILMS FOR THE DEAF AND HEARING IMPAIRED

Captioned films for the deaf and the hearing impaired are shown on the first Friday of each month at the library at 7 pm in the downstairs community room.

Fewer students enrolled in District 126

District 126 enrollment dropped 6% in the past as 90 less students were in the five District 126 schools on September 11 as compared to one year ago. This continues the eight year steady enrollment decline in District 126. From a peak of 2,522 in 1970, enrollment has fallen by 730 pupils to 1,792 in September according to an enrollment study by Superintendent William Smith.

Only Hazelgreen School has a steady and increasing enrollment in the past year. Gloria Walsh, Hazelgreen Principal, reported a slight increase of eight students from September, 1977 to September, 1978. The other four district schools have had a decline: Stony Creek - 55; Lane - 13; Oak View - 30; and Prairie Junior High - 5. Enrollment as of Sept 13, 1978 was: Stony Creek 588; Prairie Jr 474; Hazelgreen 284; Lane 236; and Oak View 205.

Enrollment projections are for continued significant decreases in Stony Creek and Oak View, with some decrease at Lane and Prairie Junior High and increase at Hazelgreen. Total District 126 enrollment should continue to decline - 80 a year for the next few years. Clark Alford, Board President, noted that enrollment between 1960 and 1970 greatly increased from 500 pupils to 2,500 pupils but in the 1970s has declined -750 in eight years.

One benefit of the declining enrollment, according to Board Member Reed Powers, has been the reducing of average class size from 31 in 1968 to 26 in 1978. Powers also noted that auxiliary/supportive and special services to children have increased in the past decade.

NEW POLICE OFFICERS FOR OAK LAWN

Officers Spallina and Stuhlmiller will be attending a 240 hour basic Police Officer Training Course in Champaign, Illinois at Illinois U Police Training Institute. Officer Ciacco will be assigned duties immediately, as he has already received certification from the State of Illinois while serving on the Willow Springs Police Department. Officer Stuhlmiller is a former Community Service Officer of the Oak Lawn Police Department. Officer Spallina is a former employee of the Jewel Food Stores.

Police Chief Gerhard Hein commented that Oak Lawn has been participating in the Police Training Institutes Program since 1956, long before training became compulsory and mandated by state statutes. Along with Mayor Kolb he went on to add this thanks to the Fire & Police Commission for their time and effort in testing applicants and creating the eligibility list published on August 14, 1978. These are the first appointments from this list.

OAK LAWN YOUTH COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

In the event of advertising programs and services offered by the Oak Lawn Youth Commission, the Newsletter, A TOUCH OF IMAGINATION, has been distributed through the Village in over 6,000 issues. The Newsletter is an informative way of telling all exactly what is available to Teens.

Included in this month's program are the successful sounds of Magnum, Friday, October 12 at 8 pm. The touring Band will feature lead singer Lance Burrows and a great combination of sounds with the latest hits. The following day is Jogging Day. The Evergreen Park/Oak Lawn 10,000 metre race will begin at 9 am with check-in time at 8 am. There is a six (6) dollar cost and a free tee shirt is guaranteed to all. For more information call 423. 5020. On Sunday, October 15, a Bike-hike will begin at the Teen Center and head to the Little Red School House at 11 am - bring a lunch!

Also, the Youth Commission is offering an opportunity to Teenagers and Adults to become involved in the Youth Advisory Council. Participation is a must in planning monthly activities. The next YAC meeting will be October 17 at 7 pm. And speaking of the YAC meeting, anyone who is talented or only slightly gifted in entertaining is asked to contribute their best of the YAC's Gong show at 8 pm on October 20.

Finally, the big event of the month is The Haunted House fund raiser. Both the Park District and the Youth Commission will be working together on this big project. The Youth Commission will provide a Haunted House at the Teen Center with Apple dunking and concessions available to all. This event will run from Saturday the 28th to Monday the 30th, from 7:30 to 10 pm. Admission is 50 cents and 25 cents to those with I.D.s. The Park District will sponsor a Haunted House Monday, October 30 and Tuesday, October 31, admission is 25 cents at the bathhouse on 102nd and Major Avenue.

HLR SENIOR PARTICIPATES IN SUMMER WORKSHOP

A Harold L. Richards High School student got a head start on the production of the high school's yearbook through her participation in a summer workshop.

Liz Nejman of Oak Lawn, editor of the 1978-79 "Golden Year", participated in a weeklong workshop conducted at Ball State U which focused on yearbook production.

According to HLR "Golden Year" sponsor Wanda Wagner, Liz spent her workshop time profitably in planning of the yearbook's theme and organization of its production.

LINCOLN·MERCURY
OAK LAWN

The all-new 1979 Mercury Marquis. Science helps create a new Mercury Marquis standard of driving comfort.

The most scientifically engineered Marquis in history. Not just more beautiful. More aerodynamic than last year. Compared to the '78, it's more spacious. Computer analysis has helped give Marquis more headroom, leg room, shoulder room and more front seat hip room. A new 16.4:1 steering ratio reduced from 22:1 for more responsive steering. Marquis has the maneuverability of a lighter turning diameter. Re-engineered command seating position for the driver behind a lower hood and re-designed glass areas. New re-engineered ride. And with all-new suspension geometry, the new Marquis corners flatter, takes dips and bumps with greater stability. A new Marquis standard of driving comfort for 1979.

Capri's shape has less aerodynamic drag than a '78 Corvette. Buckets, tach, four-on-the-floor, rack-and-pinion steering, front disc brakes and 2.3 litre ohc engine are all standard. An optional 2.3 litre engine with turbocharger is also available. Standard coil/strut suspension makes this Capri a car that can handle. At a price you can handle.

*Sticker price as shown. Destination charges, title, taxes extra.

The 1979 Collector's Series Continentals.

The Collector's Continental Mark V.

With its own elegant roof design.

A distinctive car of its generation. Luxury on a grand scale. Own a 1979 Mark V or Lincoln.

See all the exciting '79's. The newly styled Versailles, the bold Cougar XR-7's, the full line of Zephyrs, the precision-size Monarchs, and the value-loaded Bobcats.

Chief Haberkorn on duty in Oak Lawn

Shown shortly after the swearing in ceremony are (standing) New Chief of Police John J. Haberkorn (l) and Mayor Ernest F. Kolb, sitting (l to r) Trustees Jerome A. Bergamini, John J. Hardek, Joseph D. Vogrich, Village Clerk A. Jayne Powers, Trustees Lester E. Anderson, John M. Cleveland, Jr and Ronald Stancik. In the foreground are Director of Engineering, Planning and Traffic Department, Norman L. Bacon, on right Village Attorney Patrick A. Lucassky.

On Tuesday, October 17, John J. Haberkorn, a 31 year veteran of the Chicago Police Department, officially became the new Chief of Police for the Village of Oak Lawn and assumed full duty on Monday, October 23.

Chief Haberkorn replaced Gerhard A. Hein who will formally retire in January after 25 years as Chief.

After the formal swearing in ceremony by Village Clerk A. Jayne Powers, Mayor Ernest F. Kolb commented how impressed he and the Board of Trustees are with his appointment and are looking forward to the application of his ideas and programs. They are sure that in applying his past experience with proven talents of leadership, he will bring renewed inspiration to the men and women of his department.

Mayor Kolb went on to thank "Ace" Hein for pulling us through the many lean years and his coping with the trials and tribulations of an understaffed department.

Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill then introduced to the Chief each of the Village Department Heads together with Patrol Officer Robert A. Foster, President of the Local Chapter of the CCPA, commenting "these are some of the people on the Village Staff who you will be working with in the day-to-day operations of our municipal team."

Mayor Kolb thanked the press and the Channel 2 TV crew for their appearance and coverage of the swearing in ceremony.

Mirabelli named President of Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce

Named to the executive board were Vice President Barbara Kozlarek; second Vice President Sal Civilone; Treasurer Gene Swanson and Secretary Vina O'Malley.

The new board of directors were appointed and will serve for a two year period. They are: Bob Gaul, Tom Gavin, Marc Goravica, Pat Hayden, Bill Hawkinson, David Krause and Ken Krauss.

Also; Neil Moerbeck, Sam Mondello, Eleanor Roeder, Linda Spanos and Dave Wilson.

Oak Lawn's new Police Chief John Haberkorn and his wife, Pearl, were the guests of honor and introduced to all those present.

Other guests of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce were Mayor Ernie Kolb and his wife Peggy, Village Clerk Jayne Powers and Trustees John Cleveland, Ron Stancik and Joe Vogrich.

OL Park Halloween activities

A wide variety of Halloween Activities are being offered for Oak Lawn residents this year. The events sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District include an ice skating party, pumpkin carving contest, neighborhood Halloween parties and a spooktacular Haunted House.

The Halloween Ice Skating Party will be held on Sunday, October 29 from 7:20 to 9 pm at the Park District Ice Arena, 9400 Kenton. Prizes will be awarded for various costumes. The admission is free for all ice skaters wearing costumes. Rental skates are available for 50 cents a pair.

A pumpkin carving contest will be held on Sunday, October 29. Bring your carved or decorated pumpkins to the Lake Shore Park Brick Building, 9610 S East Lake Shore Drive at 7 pm. Judging will be for the Scariest, Funniest, Most Unique and Famous Personality Pumpkin with separate judging for the following four categories: 1st - 4th grade, 5th - 8th grade, high school and adults.

In order to participate in the pumpkin carving contest, it is necessary to register in advance by calling the park district office at 424-7200 by Saturday, October 28. The program is free to all Oak Lawn residents, but advance registration is necessary.

Halloween Parties will be held at 6 locations by the Park District for children 3 to 10 years of age. The parties held on Halloween Day, October 21, will begin at 3:30 pm and last about 1½ hours. Prizes for the scariest, funniest and most original costumes will be awarded by age groups. Games and treats for everyone will be included at the Halloween parties. The locations are McDonald School, Clark School, Kolmar School, Dearborn Heights School, the Menard Activity Center and Lake Shore Park Brick Building.

The third annual Park District's Haunted House will be even more spooktacular than last year. It will be open on Monday and Tuesday, October 30 and 31 from 6 to 9 pm at Southwest Park, 102nd and Major. An admission fee of 25 cents per person will be charged. The Haunted House will be scary, so parents use your judgement.

For more information on the Halloween Activities call 424-7300.

Beautiful yard contest winners

Shown with Mayor Kolb are on the left, contest chairman, Mrs Marie Veegue, Mayor Kolb, presenting the first place award to Robert and Hazel Lyngklip, 5524 W Alexander Place. On the extreme right is Mrs Lois Nichols, president of the Oak Lawn Garden Club.

Mayor of Oak Lawn Ernest F. Kolb recently made the presentation of awards, on behalf of the Oak Lawn Garden Club, to the three top contestants in the Club's Sixth Annual Beautiful Yard Contest.

For many years Mayor Kolb has shown interest in the activities of the Oak Lawn Garden Club, some of which are: The Annual Beautiful Yard Contest which is open to residents of Oak Lawn, the trees and planting of many crabtrees, the beautification of the Blue Star Memorial Park, the landscaping around the Norfolk & Western Railroad Station; the Bicentennial planting at the Library and most recently the planting at the Fire Station at 1[illegible] and Kostner.

Awards were also presented to Dr and Mrs Raymond Wise, 10003 Harnew West, for second place and to the third place winner Mr and Mrs Joseph Wierdak, 5303 W Otto Place.

Mrs Veegue and Mrs Nichols congratulated the winners and expressed her appreciation to all contestants and commented "[illegible] year the entries to our Beautiful Yard Contest increase and it makes us proud to see the [illegible] so many people have taken to heart the [illegible] yard."

Ozinga speaks to Bill legislation cost

Senator Frank M. Ozinga (R) said figures which were released recently by the Illinois Legislative Council show that the average cost for a bill introduced during the 80th General Assembly was $3,639.67.

"There were 5,292 bills introduced during the 1978 and 1979 sessions of the General Assembly," Ozinga said, "that's about $1.75 per citizen per year."

"But the bills reflect only 63 percent of all legislation introduced." Ozinga continued, "1,964 resolutions and proposals were also considered."

"An impressive total of 7,256 pieces of legislation were introduced during this biennium," Ozinga noted, "but only 1,749 bills were sent to the Governor during the two-year period."

Ozinga attributes the excessive number of bill introductions to duplicate and frivolous legislation. "Much of the legislation introduced doesn't survive past committee or first reading," Ozinga said.

There are several stages which a bill must pass through. Ozinga explained them briefly, "First, a piece of legislation is assigned to a committee; if the bill is passed out of committee, it must be voted upon by the entire House on three separate occasions. Once the bill passes in the House of origin, the other House of the General Assembly begins the process again, from committee onward."

"Althouth many bills fail early in the process, all bills introduced by a legislator are counted in his or her legislative record. This procedure can badly distort individual efforts," Ozinga summed up.

Blackhawk / Toronto trip

On Wednesday, November 8th the Oak Lawn Park District will sponsor a trip to the Chicago Blackhawk — Toronto Maple Leaf hockey game which is at the Chicago Stadium. Tickets are available at the park district office for $7.75 which includes transportation. The bus will leave from the park district office at 9400 S Kenton at 6 pm sharp.

Plan to join the fun and cheer the Hawks to victory.

Questions may be answered by calling 424-7300.

Rules of the Road for seniors

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission in cooperation with Alan J. Dixon, Secretary of State, is sponsoring a Rules of the Road refresher course to enable senior citizens to successfully complete their driver renewal exam.

Registration for the next course is presently underway at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

The refresher course consists of three lessons to prepare senior citizens to take their written and vision portions of the drivers' license test. Sessions will be held in the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street from 10 am to 12 noon on Fridays, November 3, 10, and 17. There is no charge for this course.

A Rules of the Road booklet will be given to each person and can be picked up before classes begin at the Senior Center.

To register for the course please call the Oak Lawn Senior Center at 499-0240.

Chief Harker and Lieut Murray attend Fire Prevention Conference

Chief Elmore Harker and Lieutenant Ron Murray of the Oak Lawn Fire Department attended the Fourth Annual Conference of the National Fire Prevention and Control Administration October 23 thru 25, in Seattle, Wash. Chief Frank Hanson of the Seattle Fire Department was host for this year's conference.

Chief Harker and Lt Murray joined some 1000 leaders in the fire community and others interested in fire safety activities who participated in this annual event of the National Fire Administration, a U.S. Department of Commerce agency.

The three-day conference focused on "Life Safety", today's most critical issue in fire protection. Experts in the fire protection, fire research and fire education fields explored current life safety issues.

All phases of fire protection relating to life safety was traced thru the six separate sessions of the 1978 conference. Beginning with "Setting the State — The Life Safety Problem," the subject areas followed life safety concerns from "Human Behavior in Life Safety," to "Life Safety in the Built Environment," "Life Safety through Automatic Detection and Suppression", "Life Safety through Suppression, Rescue and EMS", and "Protectling the Firefighter." Conferees were challenged in a summary session to "Improve Life Safety Throughout the Nation (. . .or, What To Do When You Go Home)."

"Life Safety" was chosen as the conference theme following the issuing late last year of the first national estimates of the U.S. fire problem by the Fire Administration's National Fire Data Center.

Those estimates gave a more detailed and a more accurate picture of the U.S. fire problem — its who, what and why with relation to the life safety by both civilians and firefighters. The heavy concentrations of deaths found in home fires emphasized that we must make life safety a priority in fire protection and direct our efforts toward solutions of these problems.

Adding a new feature to the conference attractions this year, the NFPCA sponsored an afternoon of technical demonstrations following the adjournment of the formal conference. Attendees had the opportunity to watch, participate in, and ask questions about non-commercial demonstrations of products or prototypes resulting from some of the Fire Administration's and other fire organizations' studies, grants and contracts. Conferees were able to hear and see demonstrations on physical fitness for the firefighter, low-cost residential sprinklers, building and fire codes, firefighter protective clothing and equipment, emergency medical services, and others.

TEACHERS ENDORSE YOURELL

Rep Yourell has long supported full funding of education and also all other areas involved with education in Illinois as it relates to administrative school boards and teachers.

The Illinois Education Association is comprised of over 60,000 teachers in the State of Illinois who play a very active role in the political process in selecting those and endorsing those legislators who represent education's best interest in Illinois.

Motel owners help balance deficit Oak Lawn budget for '79

The final budget meeting for the year 1979 came in like a lion and out like a lamb when it was found that there will not be enough money in the coffers to argue about. All the trustees were present but Ron Stancik took this opportunity to berate Lester Anderson for missing many of the meetings. He also took both John Hardek and Anderson to task for not being present the night before which was to be the final meeting but had to be extended to insure a full board for final decisions.

On Wednesday, October 11, when the budget had been reviewed from top to bottom, Village Manager Richard O'Neill announced that the budget as they were seeing it was not balanced and he had to propose other ways to generate funds.

One was to increase the cost of refuse pick-up 30 cents a month; the second was to continue the 3% motel tax instituted two years ago; the third was a real estate transfer tax. The estimated income on these items would make up the deficit of $154,330.

Trustee Joe Vogrich became angry when he heard the budget was short and said that he had gone over the budget at the many meetings in good faith believing it was balanced. He would not approve any of the suggested methods to raise additional funds. It was at this point that Mayor Ernie Kolb called the meeting to a close and extended it to the next evening.

On Thursday, October 12, a full board went over the budget. There was verbal objection to the real estate transfer tax that would generate $30,000 at one-tenth of 1% and would be paid by the seller. On a vote this proposal failed.

On Monday, October 16, Mayor Kolb met with the seven motel owners and told them what had taken place and explained the deficit in the budget to them. He said that he knew they had a ladies and gentlemen agreement to end the tax this year but the $71,500 w[illegible] needed as a bottom line item to balance the budget. He added that if they felt too strongly against the tax the board would drop the matter and find other ways. This could only mean an additional tax to the homeowners.

Mayor Kolb was both pleased and happy to find the motel owners willing to go along with sustaining the tax in the interest of the community. They went as far as to suggest that perhaps it could run for a six year period and any extra dollars derived from the tax could be set aside by the village for the promotion of conventions to be brought to the village motels.

Mayor Kolb then thanked them for their complete cooperation and promised that he would relate their suggestions to the board.

In other matters the board decided that they will stop longevity pay for new employees being hired by the village. A new ordinance would have to be passed to repeal the ordinance calling for longevity pay.

$20,000 had to be set aside for the election in April 1979.

An increase for trustees to $300 a month was approved and will affect only the three new trustees that will be elected in April.

The board also approved a raise in traveling allowance from $85 per diem to $100. The reasoning was due to the higher costs of motels and hotels.

SERIES ON GERENTOLOGY AT MVCC

A four-session series, Basic Issues in Gerentology, designed for professionals who work with the elderly, is scheduled at Moraine Valley Community College starting November 6. This is the fourth year that the college and PLOWS Council on Aging have offered this educational opportunity.

Topics in the series include What Is Gerentology, Aging: Biological and Physical Perspectives, Interpersonal Communications, and Death and Dying.

Each session is scheduled for 1:30-4:30 pm on four consecutive Mondays.

Fee for the series is $15 per person. A certificate will be awarded to those who complete the program.

Fewer buses running to District 126

School District 126 of Alsip, Oak Lawn, and Worth is finding itself with fewer students and is therefore using fewer buses to transport its students to the four elementary schools and the one junior high school. There are 479 students that ride Illinois School Bus Co buses in District 126. This is a drop of almost 50 students over the previous school year. Total district enrollment has dropped over 100 since last year.

Steve Allen, the district transportation administrator recently announced that the district is using one less bus this year to transport students. He added that should enrollment continue to decline another bus will be dropped for next year.

Stancik proposes village newsletter

Trustee Ron Stancik, chairman of the Public Relations Committee has proposed that a Village Newsletter be published at least three times a year.

Stancik met with members Jay Bergamini and Les Anderson on Monday, October 3 to see various samples from other villages that Clerk Jayne Powers had received. Ed Kasper, Liaison Officer was also present as he will act as coordinator for the project.

It was agreed by the commissioners that the first issue would be an introduction to the village officials and department heads.

Trustee Stancik has felt that there is not awareness in the community on the role the Board of Trustees play in the village and also that of the Department heads.

Cost to print and distribution are the main factors at this point before the proposal can be acted upon.

Russo must be "right" for the people

Congressman Marty Russo is on the "hit" list! This is a well known fact and has been widely publicized by the news media.

On Monday, October 9, the Sun-Times gave a full page to Russo, with picture and all, and stated in the story that he was "on the hit list". Further on in the Editorial section the Sun-Times endorsed his opponent. It would seem then that the good coverage, not often given to a young Congressman, was meant to either soften the blow, or one editor didn't know what the other was doing.

A few days later in the Tribune endorsements the political editor called Russo "gifted but erratic" and he too recommended the opponent.

There were only two possible reasons that could create this drastic change in the confidence awarded Congressman Russo. The first, one that we are all aware of, was when the Democratic Russo voted against the Democratic President Jimmy Carter and fell out of favor temporarily at the White House.

On the second issue the reasoning does not seem consistant. Just recently Russo, along with 207 other Democrats, voted in favor of the Public Works Bill that was ultimately vetoed by the President. Voting to override the veto was 150 Democrats leaving 58 with second thoughts and Russo was one of them.

What the public is not aware of is the tremendous amount of lobbying that went on at Capitol Hill prior to the actual vote. The phone calls and pleas from the President were many. Even Vice President Mondale got into the act exerting even stronger pressures on the Congressmen. The aid of Governors from several states was solicited to further strengthen the pleas for a Carter victory.

Many Congressmen, both Democrat and Republican opposed to the veto originally, felt that Carter was winning and it would be politically astute to vote with him. Vice President Mondale called Russo personally after the vote to thank him — now he owes our Congressman. This is not "erratic" but is what "politics" is all about.

VILLAGE VIEW, as our readers well know, has followed Russo thru his four years as Congressman as a service to the people. In our opinion he has consistantly voted for any bill that would benefit his constituency. When the reserve was almost depleted he voted for the withholding of higher Social Security taxes to insure the elderly of receiving their monthly checks. He voted for an increase in Medicare benefits when the higher hospital costs caused a drain on seniors savings and he co-sponsored legislation for a tax deduction to parents with college students. These are but a few of the major bills that Russo had to vote on this past year and they have all been "people" votes.

Russo voted against the high and inflationary budget that was proposed for the next fiscal year. The National Taxpayers Union (NTU) listed Russo in the top five of the Illinois delegation who voted to cut the most federal spending thru June '78. (The NTU is an independent watch-dog group.)

Russo has been the most visible and accessible Congressman the 3rd District has ever had. In the four years he has been in office he has come home each weekend to relate to the people. He is the first Congressman in the United States to institute a Workshop where one can go and air their problems. He has brought his office to the area and put his entire staff at our disposal. Russo has been a "full time" Congressman working for us.

VILLAGE VIEW strongly recommends that you vote to retain Marty Russo, our "gifted" Congressman, in the election Tuesday, November 7th.

FOR OFFICE OF UNITED STATES SENATE

Republican	Democrat
CHARLES H. PERCY*	ALEX SEITH

There is no point in belaboring this one, Percy is a winner even though the polls show him running behind.

FOR OFFICE OF GOVERNOR

Republican	Democrat
JAMES R. THOMPSON*	MICHAEL J. BAKALIS

CECIL LAMPKIN — Socialist Workers
GEORGIA E. SHIELDS — Libertarian

Twice we have picked Bakalis to lose and he has won. We believe we have to go with Thompson on this one again as we did last year.

FOR OFFICE OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Republican	Democrat
DAVID C. O'NEAL*	RICHARD J. DURBIN

O'Neal is well liked and should have no problem repeating.

FOR OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Republican	Democrat
WILLIAM J. SCOTT*	RICHARD J. TROY

GUY C. MILLER — Socialist Workers
RICHARD D. LEEBOVE — U.S. Labor
SHELDON WAXMAN — Libertarian

These candidates are out of their league — Scott will walk in with the prize.

FOR OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE

Republican	Democrat
SHARON SHARP	ALAN J. DIXON*

MARIE COBBS — Socialist Workers
EDWARD WAFFLE — U.S. Labor
ED MAY — Libertarian

One doesn't have to be an expert to call this race. Dixon will win easy over a fine candidate.

FOR OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER

Republican	Democrat
JOHN W. CASTLE	ROLAND W. BURRIS

JOHN ERIKSEN — Socialist Workers
Carol Leebove — U.S. Labor
MARK B. WALLACE — Libertarian

Burris should come in on the coattails of Alan Dixon.

FOR OFFICE OF TREASURER

Republican	Democrat
JAMES M. SKELTON	JEROME A COSENTINO

Cosentino is much better known in the area than Skelton and we understand he has worked hard downstate. We will go with Cosentino.

FOR UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
(District 3 Only)

Republican	Democrat
ROBERT L. DUNNE	MARTY RUSSO*

*We can only strongly repeat the endorsement on this page. Retain Marty Russo in the 3rd Congressional District.

FOR OFFICE OF STATE SENATOR

Republican	Democrat
FRANK M. OZINGA*	ANTHONY VACCO

We believe this may be a tougher one for Ozinga this year. Ozinga has name recognition but Vacco has the strong Dumke-Yourell team working hard.

FOR OFFICE OF STATE REPRESENTATIVE

(Vote for 1 — 3 votes for candidate)

Republican	Democrat
HERBERT V. HUSKEY*	HARRY "BUS" YOURELL*
JANE BARNES*	SANDY DORGAN

Huskey and Yourell are both sure winners. Sandy Dorgan, a hard worker, could romp in over the ineffectual incumbent.

FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY SHERIFF

Republican	Democrat
DONALD G. MULACK	RICHARD J. ELROD*

Believe this one to be a cakewalk for the incumbent Sheriff Elrod.

FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK

Republican	Democrat
VIRGINIA M. HAYTER	STANLEY KUSPER*

This is another one for the Democrats. Everyone would be surprised if the scales tipped the other way.

FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY ASSESSOR

Republican	Democrat
TERREL E. CLARKE	THOMAS C. HYNES

If signs and bumper stickers mean anything we can look for Hynes to take it this time around.

Evergreen Park Chamber to blitz for new membership

Preparing to TREAT Evergreen Park businesses to better business through membership in the Chamber of Commerce are "captains" of the 1979 Chamber "team" who are leading the October 31st chamber membership drive: (l to r) Denise Green, of Evergreen Locks & Keys; Carole Wilson, assistant secretary of Concordia Federal Savings and membership drive chairman; Jack McGuire, of Menu Mart Foods and incoming chamber president; Eugene Lyons, chamber president and president of Evergreen Savings and Loan; Jean Biasi, community relations coordinator of First National Bank of Evergreen Park; and Robert Kennedy, president of Heritage/Standard Bank.

The business community of Evergreen Park has been divided into five recruitment sections (southwest, southeast, northwest, northeast, Evergreen Plaza) for new Chamber members. Area "captains" and their teams of volunteers will visit all businesses who are currently non-members of the chamber during a one day "blitz" on Tuesday, October 31st, between the hours of 10 am - 4 pm with the objective of increasing the chamber member roster. Since there is "strength in numbers", a larger Chamber base will enable upcoming leaders to more strongly promote the business community.

The one-day membership campaign will provide all village businessmen with a direct contact by a present Chamber member and an opportunity to voice their opinion on future programs which the Chamber can undertake to better the Evergreen Park community. Volunteers, or prospective members, interested in lending-a-hand can receive additional information by calling Carole Wilson at 499-2200.

We hope that Governor Thompson will sign the bill now on his desk consolidating elections throughout the state. It would help the voter and it would enable the state to save an estimated $10 million. Two of the local sponsors are Phil Collins, Republican of Calumet City and Harry "Bus" Yourell, Democrat of Oak Lawn.

How would it help the voters?

It would end the confusion that engulfs the Illinois voter, who has more elections to keep track of than a voter in any other state.

In some areas in Illinois the voter must visit the polls seven times in three months to cast his ballot. He is asked to vote for municipal and township officials, library boards, road district commissioners, even commissioners of public graveyards.

New 'Red Tape' Law One That's Long Overdue

The circumstances were unusual, to say the least. A state governor signing new legislation to reduce the amount of bureaucratic red tape in government. And, wonder of wonders, it happened in Illinois.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Harry Yourell of Oak Lawn and signed by Gov. James Thompson, calls for the creation of a 16-member legislative joint committee to make a thorough study of rules and regulations set by hundreds of state agencies over the years. Special targets of the study will be rules that are outdated, new rules that are confusing, cumbersome or duplicative, and proposed rules that are wide of the mark.

THOMPSON'S HOST CHAMPAIGN RECEPTION

Though the bubbly has disappeared, the sleek Oldsmobiles remian in the spotlight at Oldstown, 95th and Pulaski, where they may be inspected daily.
